borne chastisement, I will not offend any more: That which I 32 see not teach thou me: If I have done iniquity, I will do it no more? Shall his recompense be as thou wilt, that thou refuseth 33 it? For thou must choose, and not I: Therefore speak what thou knowest. Men of understanding will say unto me, Yea, every 34

35 wise man that heareth me: Job speaketh without knowledge, 36 And his words are without wisdom. Would that Job were tried 37 unto the end, Because of his answering like wicked men. For he addeth rebellion unto his sin; He clappeth his hands among us, And multiplieth his words against God.

35, 2 Moreover Elihu answered and said, Thinkest thou this to be thy right, Or sayest thou, My righteousness is more than God's, 3 That thou sayest, What advantage will it be unto thee? And, 4 What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned? I will 5 answer thee, And thy companions with thee. Look unto the heavens, and see; And behold the skies, which are higher than 6 thou. If thou hast sinned, what effectest thou against him?
And if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto 7 him? If thou be righteous, what givest thou him? Or what 8 receiveth he of thy hand? Thy wickedness may hurt a man as 9 thou art; And thy righteousness may profit a son of man. By reason of the multitude of oppressions they cry out; They cry 10 for help by reason of the arm of the mighty. But none saith, 11 Where is God my Maker, Who giveth songs in the night, Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, And maketh us 12 wiser than the birds of the heavens? There they cry, but none 13 giveth answer, Because of the pride of evil men. Surely God will not hear an empty cry, Neither will the Almighty regard 14 it. How much less when thou sayest thou beholdest him not, 15 The cause is before him, and thou waitest for him! But now, because he hath not visited in his anger, Neither doth he greatly 16 regard arrogance; Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vanity; He multiplieth words without knowledge.

36, 2 Elihu also proceeded, and said, Suffer me a little, and I will 3 show thee; For I have yet somewhat to say on God's behalf. I will fetch my knowledge from afar, And will ascribe righteous-4 ness to my Maker. For truly my words are not false: One that 5 is perfect in knowledge is with thee. Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: He is mighty in strength of understand-6 ing. He preserveth not the life of the wicked, But giveth to the 7 afflicted their right. He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: But with kings upon the throne He setteth them for ever, 8 and they are exalted. And if they be bound in fetters, And be 9 taken in the cords of afflictions; Then he showeth them their work, And their transgressions, that they have behaved themselves proudly. He openeth also their ear to instruction, And commandeth that they return from iniquity. If they hearken and serve him, They shall spend their days in prosperity, And their years in pleasures. But if they hearken not, they shall perish by the sword, And they shall die without knowledge. But they that are godless in heart lay up anger: They cry not for help when he bindeth them. They die in youth, And their life perisheth among the unclean. He delivereth the afflicted by their affliction, And openeth their ear in oppression. Yea, he would have allured thee out of distress Into a broad place, where there is no straitness; And that which is set on thy table would be full of fatness. But thou art full of the judgment of the wicked: Judgment and justice take hold on thee. For let not wrath stir thee up against chastisements; Neither let the greatness of the ransom turn thee aside. Will thy cry avail, that thou be not in distress, Or all the forces of thy strength? Desire not the night, When peoples are cut off in their place. Take heed, regard not iniquity: For this hast thou chosen rather than affliction. Behold, God doeth loftily in his power: Who is a teacher like unto him? Who hath enjoined him his way? Or who can say, Thou hast wrought unrighteousness? Remember that thou magnify his work, Whereof men have sung. All men have looked thereon; Man beholdeth it afar off. Behold, God is great, and we know him not; The number of his years is unsearchable. For he draweth up the drops of water, Which distil in rain from his vapor, Which the skies pour down And drop upon man abundantly. Yea, can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, The thunderings of his pavilion? Behold, he spreadeth his light around him; And he covereth the bottom of the sea. For by these he judgeth the peoples; He giveth food in abundance. He covereth his hands with the lightning, And giveth it a charge that it strike the mark. The noise thereof telleth concerning him, The cattle also concerning the storm that cometh up.

Yea, at this my heart trembleth, And is moved out of its place. Hear, oh, hear the noise of his voice, And the sound that goeth out of his mouth. He sendeth it forth under the whole heaven, And his lightning unto the ends of the earth. After it a voice roareth; He thundereth with the voice of his majesty; And 5 he restraineth not the lightnings when his voice is heard. God thundereth marvellously with his voice; Great things doeth he, 6 which we cannot comprehend. For he saith to the snow, Fall thou on the earth; Likewise to the shower of rain, And to the 7 showers of his mighty rain. He sealet up the hand of every 8 man, That all men whom he hath made may know it. Then 9 the beasts go into coverts, And remain in their dens. Out of the chamber of the south cometh the storm, And cold out of the 10 north. By the breath of God ice is given; And the breadth of 11 the waters is straitened. Yea, he ladeth the thick cloud with 12 moisture; He spreadeth abroad the cloud of his lightning: And it is turned round about by his guidance, That they may do whatsoever he commandeth them Upon the face of the habitable 13 world, Whether it be for correction, or for his land, Or for 14 lovingkindness, that he cause it to come. Harken unto this, O Job: Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.

15 Dost thou know how God layeth his charge upon them, And 16 causeth the lightning of his cloud to shine? Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, The wondrous works of him who 17 is perfect in knowledge? How thy garments are warm, When 18 the earth is still by reason of the south wind? Canst thou with him spread out the sky, Which is strong as a molten mirror?
19 Teach us what we shall say unto him; For we cannot set our 20 speech in order by reason of darkness. Shall it be told him that I would speak? Or should a man wish that he were swallowed 21 up? And now men see not the light which is bright in the skies; 22 But the wind passeth, and cleareth them. Out of the north cometh golden splendor: God hath upon him terrible majesty.
23 Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out: He is excellent in power; And in justice and plenteous righteousness he will not 24 afflict. Men do therefore fear him: He regardeth not any that are wise of heart.

38 Then Jehovah answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said, 2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel By words without knowledge?
3 Gird up now thy loins like a man; For I will demand of thee, 4 and declare thou unto me. Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? Declare, if thou hast understanding.
5 Who determined the measures thereof, if thou knowest? Or who 6 stretched the line upon it? Whereupon were the foundations thereof fastened? Or who laid the corner-stone thereof, When 7 the morning stars sang together, And all the sons of God shouted for joy? Or who shut up the sea with doors, When it brake forth, 8 as if it had issued out of the womb; When I made clouds the 9 garment thereof, And thick darkness a swaddling-band for it, And marked out for it my bound, And set bars and doors, And 10, 11 said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further; And here shall thy proud waves be stayed? Hast thou commanded the morning 12 since thy days began, And caused the dayspring to know its place; That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, And the wicked 13 be shaken out of it? It is changed as clay under the seal; And 14 all things stand forth as a garment: And from the wicked their 15 light is withholden, And the high arm is broken. Hast thou 16 entered into the springs of the sea? Or hast thou walked in the recesses of the deep? Have the gates of death been revealed unto 17 thee? Or hast thou seen the gates of the shadow of death? Hast 18 thou comprehended the earth in its breadth? Declare, if thou knowest it all. Where is the way to the dwelling of light? And 19 as for darkness, where is the place thereof, That thou shouldest 20 take it to the bound thereof, And that thou shouldest discern the paths to the house thereof? Doubtless, thou knowest, for 21 thou wast then born, And the number of thy days is great! Hast 22 thou entered the treasuries of the snow, Or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail, Which I have reserved against the time 23 of trouble, Against the day of battle and war? By what way 24 is the light parted, Or the east wind scattered upon the earth?

Who hath cleft a channel for the waterflood, Or the way for the 25 lightning of the thunder; To cause it to rain on a land where no 26 man is; On the wilderness, wherein there is no man; To satisfy the waste and desolate ground, And to cause the tender grass to 27 spring forth? Hath the rain a father? Or who hath begotten 28 the drops of dew? Out of whose womb came the ice? And the 29 hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendered it? The waters hide 30 themselves and become like stone, And the face of the deep is frozen. Canst thou bind the cluster of the Pleiades, Or loose the 31 bands of Orion? Canst thou lead forth the Mazzaroth in their 32 season? Or canst thou guide the Bear with her train? Knowest 33 thou the ordinances of the heavens? Canst thou establish the dominion thereof in the earth? Canst thou lift up thy voice to 34 35 the clouds, That abundance of waters may cover thee? Canst thou send forth lightnings, that they may go, And say unto thee, 36 Here we are? Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? Or 37 who hath given understanding to the mind? Who can number the clouds by wisdom? Or who can pour out the bottles of 38 heaven, When the dust runneth into a mass, And the clods 39 cleave fast together? Canst thou hunt the prey for the lioness, 40 Or satisfy the appetite of the young lions, When they couch 41 in their dens, And abide in the covert to lie in wait? Who provideth for the raven his prey, When his young ones cry unto God, And wander for lack of food?

39 Knowest thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring 2 forth? Or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve? Canst thou number the months that they fulfil? Or knowest thou the 3 time when they bring forth? They bow themselves, they bring 4 forth their young, They cast out their pains. Their young ones become strong, they grow up in the open field; They go forth, 5 and return not again. Who hath sent out the wild ass free? Or 6 who hath loosed the bonds of the swift ass, Whose home I have 7 made the wilderness, And the salt land his dwelling-place? He scorneth the tumult of the city, Neither heareth he the shoutings 8 of the driver. The range of the mountains is his pasture, And he 9 searcheth after every green thing. Will the wild-ox be content 10 to serve thee? Or will he abide by thy crib? Canst thou bind the wild-ox with his band in the furrow? Or will he harrow the 11 valleys after thee? Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is 12 great? Or wilt thou leave to him thy labor? Wilt thou confide in him, that he will bring home thy seed, And gather the grain 13 of thy threshing-floor? The wings of the ostrich wave proudly; 14 But are they the pinions and plumage of love? For she leaveth 15 her eggs on the earth, And warmeth them in the dust, And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, Or that the wild beast 16 may trample them. She dealeth hardly with her young ones, as if they were not hers: Though her labor be in vain, she is without 17 fear; Because God hath deprived her of wisdom, Neither hath 18 he imparted to her understanding. What time she lifteth up 19 herself on high, She scorneth the horse and his rider. Hast thou given the horse his might? Hast thou clothed his neck with the 20 quivering mane? Hast thou made him to leap as a locust? The glory of his snorting is terrible. He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength: He goeth out to meet the armed men.

 He mocketh at fear, and is not dismayed; Neither turneth he back from the sword. The quiver rattleth against him, The flashing spear and the javelin. He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage; Neither believeth he that it is the voice of the trumpet. As oft as the trumpet soundeth he saith, Aha! And he smelleth the battle afar off, The thunder of the captains, and the shouting. Is it by thy wisdom that the hawk soareth, (And) stretcheth her wings toward the south? Is it at thy command that the eagle mounteth up, And maketh her nest on high? On the cliff she dwelleth, and maketh her home, Upon the point of the cliff, and the stronghold. From thence she spieth out the prey; Her eyes behold it afar off. Her young ones also suck up blood: And where the slain are, there is she.

Moreover Jehovah answered Job, and said, Shall he that cav- 40, 2 illeth contend with the Almighty? He that argueth with God, let him answer it. Then Job answered Jehovah, and said, Be- 3, 4 hold, I am of small account; What shall I answer thee? I lay my hand upon my mouth. Once have I spoken, and I will not 5 answer; Yea, twice, but I will proceed no further. Then Jehovah 6 answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said, Gird up thy loins 7 now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me. Wilt thou even annul my judgment? Wilt thou condemn 8 me, that thou mayest be justified? Or hast thou an arm like 9 God? And canst thou thunder with a voice like him? Deck 10 thyself now with excellency and dignity; And array thyself with honor and majesty. Pour forth the overflowings of thine anger; 11 And look upon every one that is proud, and abase him. Look 12 on every one that is proud, and bring him low; And tread down the wicked where they stand. Hide them in the dust together; 13 Bind their faces in the hidden place. Then will I also confess 14 of thee That thine own right hand can save thee. Behold now, 15 behemoth, which I made as well as thee; He eateth grass as an ox. Lo now, his strength is in his loins, And his force is in the 16 muscles of his belly. He moveth his tail like a cedar: The sinews 17 of his thighs are knit together. His bones are as tubes of brass; 18 His limbs are like bars of iron. He is the chief of the ways of 19 God: He only that made him giveth him his sword. Surely 20 the mountains bring him forth food, Where all the beasts of the 21 field do play. He lieth under the lotus-trees, In the covert of the 22 reed, and the fen. The lotus-trees cover him with their shade; 23 The willows of the brook compass him about. Behold, if a river overflow, he trembleth not; He is confident, though a Jordan 24 swell even to his mouth. Shall any take him when he is on the watch, Or pierce through his nose with a snare?

41 Canst thou draw out leviathan with a fishhook? Or press 2 down his tongue with a cord? Canst thou put a rope into his 3 nose? Or pierce his jaw through with a hook? Will he make many supplications unto thee? Or will he speak soft words unto 4 thee? Will he make a covenant with thee, That thou shouldest 5 take him for a servant for ever? Wilt thou play with him as 6 with a bird? Or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens? Will the bands of fishermen make traffic of him? Will they part him 7 among the merchants? Canst thou fill his skin with barbed 8 irons, Or his head with fish-spears? Lay thy hand upon him; 9 Remember the battle, and do so no more. Behold, the hope of him is in vain: Will not one be cast down even at the sight of 10 him? None is so fierce that he dare stir him up; Who then is 11 he that can stand before me? Who hath first given unto me, that I should repay him? Whatsoever is under the whole heaven 12 is mine. I will not keep silence concerning his limbs, Nor his 13 mighty strength, nor his goodly frame. Who can strip off his 14 outer garment? Who shall come within his jaws? Who can open the doors of his face? Round about his teeth is terror.
15 His strong scales are his pride, Shut up together as with a close 16 seal. One is so near to another, That no air can come between 17 them. They are joined one to another; They stick together, so 18 that they cannot be sundered. His sneezings flash forth light, 19 And his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning. Out of his 20 mouth go burning torches, And sparks of fire leap forth. Out of his nostrils a smoke goeth, As of a boiling pot and burning 21 rushes. His breath kindleth coals, And a flame goeth forth from 22 his mouth. In his neck abideth strength, And terror danceth 23 before him. The flakes of his flesh are joined together: They 24 are firm upon him; They cannot be moved. His heart is as firm 25 as a stone; Yea, firm as the nether millstone. When he raiseth himself up, the mighty are afraid: By reason of consternation they are beside themselves. If one lay at him with the sword, 26 it cannot avail; Nor the spear, the dart, nor the pointed shaft.

He counteth iron as straw, And brass as rotten wood. The 27, 28 arrow cannot make him flee: Sling-stones are turned with him into stubble. Clubs are counted as stubble: He laugheth at the 29 rushing of the javelin. His underparts are like sharp potsherds: 30 He spreadeth as it were a threshing-wain upon the mire. He 31 maketh the deep to boil like a pot: He maketh the sea like a pot of ointment. He maketh a path to shine after him; One would 32 think the deep to be hoary. Upon earth there is not his like, 33 That is made without fear. He beholdeth everything that is 34 high: He is king over all the sons of pride.

Then Job answered Jehovah, and said, I know that thou 42, 2 canst do all things, And that no purpose of thine can be restrained. Who is this that hideth counsel without knowledge? 3 Therefore have I uttered that which I understood not, Things too wonderful for me, which I knew not. Hear, I beseech thee, 4 and I will speak; I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me. I had heard of thee by the hearing of the ear; But now 5 mine eye seeth thee: Wherefore I abhor myself, And repent in 6 dust and ashes. And it was so, that, after Jehovah had spoken 7 these words unto Job, Jehovah said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends; for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath. Now therefore, take unto you seven bullocks and seven 8 rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt-offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you; for him will I accept, that I deal not with you after your folly; for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath. So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite 9 and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as Jehovah commanded them: and Jehovah accepted Job. And Jehovah 10 turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: and Jehovah gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then came 11 there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him concerning all the evil that Jehovah had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one a ring of 12 gold. So Jehovah blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: And he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses.

13, 14 He had also seven sons and three daughters. And he called the name of the first, Jemimah: and the name of the second, Keziah; 15 and the name of the third, Keren-happuch. And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their 16 father gave them inheritance among their brethren. And after this Job lived a hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and 17 his sons' sons, even four generations. So Job died, being old and full of days.

THE BOOK OF PSALMS.

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of 1 the wicked, Nor standeth in the way of sinners, Nor 2 sitteth in the seat of scoffers: But his delight is in the 3 law of Jehovah; And on his law doth he meditate day 4 and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of 5 water, That bringeth forth its fruit in its season, Whose leaf also 6 doth not wither; And whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. The 7 wicked are not so, But are like the chaff which the wind driveth 8 away. Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment, 9 Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. For Jehovah 10 knoweth the way of the righteous; But the way of the wicked 11 shall perish. 12

Why do the nations rage, And the peoples meditate a vain 2 thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, And the rulers 3 take counsel together, Against Jehovah, and against his anointed, 4 saying, Let us break their bonds asunder, And cast away their 5 cords from us. He that sitteth in the heavens will laugh: The 6 Lord will have them in derision. Then will he speak unto them 7 in his wrath, And vex them in his sore displeasure: Yet I have 8 set my king Upon my holy hill of Zion. I will tell of the de- 9 cree: Jehovah said unto me, Thou art my son; This day have I 10 begotten thee. Ask of me, and I will give thee the nations for 11 thine inheritance, And the uttermost parts of the earth for thy 12 possession. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; Thou 1 shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel. Now therefore 2 be wise, O ye kings: Be instructed, ye judges of the earth. Serve 3 Jehovah with fear, And rejoice with trembling. Kiss the son, 4 lest he be angry, and ye perish in the way, For his wrath will 5 soon be kindled. Blessed are all they that take refuge in him. 6

Jehovah, how are mine adversaries increased! Many are they 3 that rise up against me. Many there are that say of my soul, 2 There is no help for him in God. Selah But thou, O Jehovah, 3 art a shield about me; My glory and the lifter up of my head.

4 I cry unto Jehovah with my voice, And he answereth me out of 5 his holy hill. Selah I laid me down and slept; I awaked; For 6 Jehovah sustaineth me. I will not be afraid of ten thousands of the people That have set themselves against me round about.
7 Arise, O Jehovah; Save me, O my God: For thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; Thou hast broken the teeth 8 of the wicked. Salvation belongeth unto Jehovah: Thy blessing be upon thy people. Selah

4 Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness; Thou hast set me at large when I was in distress: Have mercy upon 2 me, and hear my prayer. O ye sons of men, how long shall my glory be turned into dishonor? How long will ye love vanity, and 3 seek after falsehood? Selah But know that Jehovah hath set apart for himself him that is godly: Jehovah will hear when I 4 call unto him. Stand in awe, and sin not: Commune with your 5 own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah Offer the sacrifices 6 of righteousness, And put your trust in Jehovah. Many there are that say, Who will show us any good? Jehovah, lift thou up 7 the light of thy countenance upon us. Thou hast put gladness in my heart, More than they have when their grain and their 8 new wine are increased. In peace will I both lay me down and sleep; For thou, Jehovah, alone makest me dwell in safety.

5 Give ear to my words, O Jehovah, Consider my meditation.
2 Harken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God; For 3 unto thee do I pray. O Jehovah, in the morning shalt thou hear my voice; In the morning will I order my prayer unto thee, and 4 will keep watch. For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in 5 wickedness: Evil shall not sojourn with thee. The arrogant shall 6 not stand in thy sight: Thou hatest all workers of iniquity. Thou wilt destroy them that speak lies: Jehovah abhorreth the blood-7 thirsty and deceitful man. But as for me, in the abundance of thy lovingkindness will I come into thy house: In thy fear will I 8 worship toward thy holy temple. Lead me, O Jehovah, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies; Make thy way straight 9 before my face. For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; Their inward part is very wickedness; Their throat is an open 10 sepulchre; They flatter with their tongue. Hold them guilty, O God; Let them fall by their own counsels; Thrust them out in the multitude of their transgressions; For they have rebelled against thee. But let all those that take refuge in thee rejoice, Let them 11 ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: Let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee. For thou wilt bless the 12 righteous; O Jehovah, thou wilt compass him with favor as with a shield.

O Jehovah, rebuke me not in thine anger, Neither chasten 6 me in thy hot displeasure. Have mercy upon me, O Jehovah; 2 for I am withered away: O Jehovah, heal me; for my bones are troubled. My soul also is sore troubled: And thou, O Jehovah, 3 how long? Return, O Jehovah, deliver my soul: Save me for 4 thy lovingkindness' sake. For in death there is no remembrance 5 of thee: In Sheol who shall give thee thanks? I am weary with 6 my groaning; Every night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears. Mine eye wasteth away because of grief; 7 It waxeth old because of all mine adversaries. Depart from me, 8 all ye workers of iniquity; For Jehovah hath heard the voice of my weeping. Jehovah hath heard my supplication; Jehovah will 9 receive my prayer. All mine enemies shall be put to shame and 10 sore troubled: They shall turn back, they shall be put to shame suddenly.

O Jehovah my God, in thee do I take refuge: Save me from 7 all them that pursue me, and deliver me, Lest they tear my soul 2 like a lion, Rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.
O Jehovah my God, if I have done this; If there be iniquity in my 3 hands; If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with 4 me; (Yea, I have delivered him that without cause was mine adversary;) Let the enemy pursue my soul, and overtake it; 5 Yea, let him tread my life down to the earth, And lay my glory in the dust. Selah Arise, O Jehovah, in thine anger; Lift up 6 thysself against the rage of mine adversaries, And awake for me; thou hast commanded judgment. And let the congregation of 7 the peoples compass thee about; And over them return thou on high. Jehovah ministereth judgment to the peoples: Judge me, 8 O Jehovah, according to my righteousness, and to mine integrity that is in me. O let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end, 9 but establish thou the righteous: For the righteous God trieth the minds and hearts. My shield is with God, Who saveth the 10 upright in heart. God is a righteous judge, Yea, a God that 11 12 hath indignation every day. If a man turn not, he will whet 13 his sword; He hath bent his bow, and made it ready. He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; He maketh his 14 arrows fiery shafts. Behold, he travaileth with iniquity; Yea, he 15 hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood. He hath made a pit, and digged it, And is fallen into the ditch which he 16 made. His mischief shall return upon his own head, And his 17 violence shall come down upon his own pate. I will give thanks unto Jehovah according to his righteousness, And will sing praise to the name of Jehovah Most High.

8 O Jehovah, our Lord, How excellent is thy name in all the 2 earth, Who hast set thy glory upon the heavens! Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou established strength, Because of thine adversaries, That thou mightest still the enemy 3 and the avenger. When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, The moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; 4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him? And the son of 5 man, that thou visitest him? For thou hast made him but little 6 lower than God, And crownest him with glory and honor. Thou makest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; Thou 7 hast put all things under his feet: All sheep and oxen, Yea, and 8 the beasts of the field, The birds of the heavens, and the fish of 9 the sea, Whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas. O Jehovah, our Lord, How excellent is thy name in all the earth!

9 I will give thanks unto Jehovah with my whole heart; I will 2 show forth all thy marvellous works. I will be glad and exult in 3 thee; I will sing praise to thy name, O thou Most High. When mine enemies turn back, They stumble and perish at thy pres-4 ence. For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; Thou 5 sittest in the throne judging righteously. Thou hast rebuked the nations, thou hast destroyed the wicked; Thou hast blotted 6 out their name for ever and ever. The enemy are come to an end, they are desolate for ever; And the cities which thou hast 7 overthrown, The very remembrance of them is perished. But Jehovah sitteth as king for ever: He hath prepared his throne for 8 judgment; And he will judge the world in righteousness, He will 9 minister judgment to the peoples in uprightness. Jehovah also will be a high tower for the oppressed, A high tower in times of 10 trouble; And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee; For thou, Jehovah, hast not forsaken them that seek thee. Sing praises to Jehovah, who dwelleth in Zion: Declare among the people his doings. For he that maketh inquisition for blood remembereth them; He forgetteth not the cry of the poor. Have mercy upon me, O Jehovah; Behold my affliction which I suffer of them that hate me, Thou that liftest me up from the gates of death; That I may show forth all thy praise. In the gates of the daughter of Zion I will rejoice in thy salvation. The nations are sunk down in the pit that they made: In the net which they hid is their own foot taken. Jehovah hath made himself known, he hath executed judgment: The wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. [Higgaion. Selah The wicked shall be turned back unto Sheol, Even all the nations that forget God. For the needy shall not alway be forgotten, Nor the expectation of the poor perish for ever. Arise, O Jehovah; Let not man prevail: Let the nations be judged in thy sight. Put them in fear, O Jehovah: Let the nations know themselves to be but men. Selah

Why standest thou afar off, O Jehovah? Why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble? In the pride of the wicked the poor is hotly pursued; Let them be taken in the devices that they have conceived. For the wicked boasteth of his heart's desire, And the covetous renounceth, yea, contemneth Jehovah. The wicked, in the pride of his countenance, saith, He will not require it. All his thoughts are, There is no God. His ways are firm at all times; Thy judgments are far above out of his sight: As for all his adversaries, he puffeth at them. He saith in his heart, I shall not be moved; To all generations I shall not be in adversity. His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and oppression: Under his tongue is mischief and iniquity. He sitteth in the lurking-places of the villages; In the secret places doth he murder the innocent; His eyes are privily set against the helpless. He lurketh in secret as a lion in his covert; He lieth in wait to catch the poor: He doth catch the poor, when he draweth him in his net. He croucheth, he boweth down, And the helpless fall by his strong ones. He saith in his heart, God hath forgotten; He hideth his face; he will never see it. Arise, O Jehovah; O God, lift up thy hand: Forget not the poor. Wherefore doth the wicked contemn God, And say in his heart, Thou wilt not require it? Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand:

The helpless committeth himself unto thee; Thou hast been the helper of the fatherless. Break thou the arm of the wicked; And as for the evil man, seek out his wickedness till thou find none. Jehovah is King for ever and ever: The nations are perished out of his land. Jehovah, thou hast heard the desire of the meek: Thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear; To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, That man who is of the earth may be terrible no more.

11 In Jehovah do I take refuge: How say ye to my soul, Flee 2 as a bird to your mountain; For, lo, the wicked bend the bow, They make ready their arrow upon the string, That they may 3 shoot in darkness at the upright in heart; If the foundations be 4 destroyed, What can the righteous do? Jehovah is in his holy temple; Jehovah, his throne is in heaven; His eyes behold, his 5 eyelids try, the children of men. Jehovah trieth the righteous; But the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.
6 Upon the wicked he will rain snares; Fire and brimstone and 7 burning wind shall be the portion of their cup. For Jehovah is righteous; He loveth righteousness: The upright shall behold his face.

12 Help, Jehovah; For the godly man ceaseth; For the faithful fail 2 from among the children of men. They speak falsehood every one with his neighbor: With flattering lip, and with a double 3 heart, do they speak. Jehovah will cut off all flattering lips, 4 The tongue that speaketh great things; Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; Our lips are our own: Who is lord 5 over us? Because of the oppression of the poor, because of the sighing of the needy, Now will I arise, saith Jehovah; I will set 6 him in the safety he panteth for. The words of Jehovah are pure words; As silver tried in a furnace on the earth, Purified seven 7 times. Thou wilt keep them, O Jehovah, Thou wilt preserve 8 them from this generation for ever. The wicked walk on every side, When vileness is exalted among the sons of men.

13 How long, O Jehovah? wilt thou forget me for ever? How long 2 wilt thou hide thy face from me? How long shall I take counsel in my soul, Having sorrow in my heart all the day? How long 3 shall mine enemy be exalted over me? Consider and answer me, O Jehovah my God: Lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of 4 death; Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him; Lest mine adversaries rejoice when I am moved. But I have trusted 5 in thy lovingkindness; My heart shall rejoice in thy salvation. I 6 will sing unto Jehovah, Because he hath dealt bountifully with me.

The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are 14 corrupt, they have done abominable works; There is none that doeth good. Jehovah looked down from heaven upon the chil- 2 dren of men, To see if there were any that did understand, That did seek after God. They are all gone aside; They are together 3 become filthy; There is none that doeth good, no, not one. Have 4 all the workers of iniquity no knowledge, Who eat up my people as they eat bread, And call not upon Jehovah? There were 5 they in great fear; For God is in the generation of the righteous.
Ye put to shame the counsel of the poor, Because Jehovah is his 6 refuge. Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! 7 When Jehovah bringeth back the captivity of his people, Then shall Jacob rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

Jehovah, who shall sojourn in thy tabernacle? Who shall 15 dwell in thy holy hill? He that walketh uprightly, and wor- 2 keth righteousness, And speaketh truth in his heart; He that 3 slandereth not with his tongue, Nor doeth evil to his friend, Nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbor; In whose eyes 4 a reprobate is despised, But who honoreth them that fear Jehovah; He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not; He 5 that putteth not out his money to interest, Nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

Preserve me, O God; For in thee do I take refuge. O my soul, 16, 2 thou hast said unto Jehovah, Thou art my Lord: I have no good beyond thee. As for the saints that are in the earth, They are 3 the excellent in whom is all my delight. Their sorrows shall be 4 multiplied that give gifts for another god: Their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer, Nor take their names upon my lips.
Jehovah is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: Thou 5 maintainest my lot. The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant 6 places; Yea, I have a goodly heritage. I will bless Jehovah, who 7 hath given me counsel; Yea, my heart instructeth me in the night seasons. I have set Jehovah always before me: Because he is 8 at my right hand, I shall not be moved. Therefore my heart is 9

- glad, and my glory rejoiceth; My flesh also shall dwell in safety.
10 For thou wilt not leave my soul to Sheol; Neither wilt thou suffer 11 thy holy one to see corruption. Thou wilt show me the path of life: In thy presence is fulness of joy; In thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.
- 17 Hear the right, O Jehovah, attend unto my cry; Give ear 2 unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips. Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; Let thine eyes look upon 3 equity. Thou hast proved my heart; Thou hast visited me in the night; Thou hast tried me, and findest nothing; I am purposed 4 that my mouth shall not transgress. As for the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the ways of the 5 violent. My steps have held fast to thy paths, My feet have not 6 slipped. I have called upon thee, for thou wilt answer me, O 7 God: Incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech. Show thy marvellous lovingkindness, O thou that savest by thy right hand 8 them that take refuge in thee From those that rise up against 9 them. Keep me as the apple of the eye; Hide me under the shadow of thy wings, From the wicked that oppress me, My 10 deadly enemies, that compass me about. They are inclosed in 11 their own fat: With their mouth they speak proudly. They have now compassed us in our steps; They set their eyes to cast us 12 down to the earth. He is like a lion that is greedy of his prey, 13 And as it were a young lion lurking in secret places. Arise, O Jehovah, Confront him, cast him down: Deliver my soul from the 14 wicked by thy sword; From men by thy hand, O Jehovah, From men of the world, whose portion is in this life, And whose belly thou fillest with thy treasure: They are satisfied with children, 15 And leave the rest of their substance to their babes. As for me, I shall behold thy face in righteousness; I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with beholding thy form.
- 18, 2 I love thee, O Jehovah, my strength. Jehovah is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; My God, my rock, in whom I will take refuge; My shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high 3 tower. I will call upon Jehovah, who is worthy to be praised: 4 So shall I be saved from mine enemies. The cords of death compassed me, And the floods of ungodliness made me afraid.
5 The cords of Sheol were round about me; The snares of death 6 came upon me. In my distress I called upon Jehovah, And cried unto my God: He heard my voice out of his temple, And my cry before him came into his ears. Then the earth shook and trem- 7 bled; The foundations also of the mountains quaked And were shaken, because he was wroth. There went up a smoke out of 8 his nostrils, And fire out of his mouth devoured: Coals were kindled by it. He bowed the heavens also, and came down; And 9 thick darkness was under his feet. And he rode upon a cherub, 10 and did fly; Yea, he soared upon the wings of the wind. He 11 made darkness his hiding-place, his pavilion round about him, Darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies. At the brightness 12 before him his thick clouds passed, Hailstones and coals of fire.

Jehovah also thundered in the heavens, And the Most High ut- 13 tered his voice, Hailstones and coals of fire. And he sent out 14 his arrows, and scattered them; Yea, lightnings manifold, and discomfited them. Then the channels of waters appeared, And 15 the foundations of the world were laid bare, At thy rebuke, O Jehovah, At the blast of the breath of thy nostrils. He sent 16 from on high, he took me; He drew me out of many waters. He 17 delivered me from my strong enemy, And from them that hated me; For they were too mighty for me. They came upon me in 18 the day of my calamity; But Jehovah was my stay. He brought 19 me forth also into a large place; He delivered me, because he delighted in me. Jehovah hath rewarded me according to my 20 righteousness; According to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me. For I have kept the ways of Jehovah, And 21 have not wickedly departed from my God. For all his ordinances were before me, And I put not away his statutes from 22 me. I was also perfect with him, And I kept myself from mine iniquity. Therefore hath Jehovah recompensed me according to 24 my righteousness, According to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight. With the merciful thou wilt show thyself merciful; 25 With the perfect man thou wilt show thyself perfect; With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure; And with the perverse thou wilt show thyself froward. For thou wilt save the afflicted peo- 27 ple; But the haughty eyes thou wilt bring down. For thou wilt light my lamp: Jehovah my God will lighten my darkness. For 29 by thee I run upon a troop; And by my God do I leap over a wall. As for God, his way is perfect: The word of Jehovah is 30 tried; He is a shield unto all them that take refuge in him. For 31 who is God, save Jehovah? And who is a rock, besides our God, 32 The God that girdeth me with strength, And maketh my way 33 perfect? He maketh my feet like hinds' feet: And setteth me 34 upon my high places. He teacheth my hands to war; So that 35 mine arms do bend a bow of brass. Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation; And thy right hand hath holden me up, 36 And thy gentleness hath made me great. Thou hast enlarged 37 my steps under me, And my feet have not slipped. I will pursue mine enemies, and overtake them; Neither will I turn again till 38 they are consumed. I will smite them through, so that they 39 shall not be able to rise: They shall fall under my feet. For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: Thou hast 40 subdued under me those that rose up against me. Thou hast also made mine enemies turn their backs unto me, That I might 41 cut off them that hate me. They cried, but there was none to 42 save; Even unto Jehovah, but he answered them not. Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind; I did cast them 43 out as the mire of the streets. Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; Thou hast made me the head of the 44 nations: A people whom I have not known shall serve me. As soon as they hear of me they shall obey me; The foreigners shall 45 submit themselves unto me. The foreigners shall fade away, 46 And shall come trembling out of their close places. Jehovah liveth; And blessed be my rock; And exalted be the God of my 47 salvation, Even the God that executeth vengeance for me, And 48 subdueth peoples under me. He rescueth me from mine enemies; Yea, thou liftest me up above them that rise up against 49 me; Thou deliverest me from the violent man. Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O Jehovah, among the nations, And will 50 sing praises unto thy name. Great deliverance giveth he to his king, And showeth lovingkindness to his anointed, To David and to his seed, for evermore.

19 The heavens declare the glory of God; And the firmament 2 showeth his handiwork. Day unto day uttereth speech, And 3 night unto night showeth knowledge. There is no speech nor lan-4 guage; Their voice is not heard. Their line is gone out through all the earth, And their words to the end of the world. In them 5 hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, And rejoiceth as a strong man to run his course. His going forth is from the end of the heavens, And 6 his circuit unto the ends of it; And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof. The law of Jehovah is perfect, restoring the 7 soul: The testimony of Jehovah is sure, making wise the simple.

The precepts of Jehovah are right, rejoicing the heart: The 8 commandment of Jehovah is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of Jehovah is clean, enduring for ever: The ordinances of 9 Jehovah are true, and righteous altogether. More to be desired 10 are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold; Sweeter also than honey and the droppings of the honeycomb. Moreover by them 11 is thy servant warned: In keeping them there is great reward.
Who can discern his errors? Clear thou me from hidden faults. 12 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; Let them 13 not have dominion over me: Then shall I be upright, And I shall be clear from great transgression. Let the words of my mouth 14 and the meditation of my heart Be acceptable in thy sight, O Jehovah, my rock, and my redeemer.

Jehovah answer thee in the day of trouble; The name of the 20 God of Jacob set thee up on high; Send thee help from the sanctuary, And strengthen thee out of Zion; Remember all thy 2 offerings, And accept thy burnt-sacrifice; Selah Grant thee thy 3 heart's desire, And fulfil all thy counsel. We will triumph in thy 4 salvation, And in the name of our God we will set up our banners: Jehovah fulfil all thy petitions. Now know I that Jehovah saveth 5 his anointed; He will answer him from his holy heaven With the saving strength of his right hand. Some trust in chariots, and 6 some in horses; But we will make mention of the name of Jehovah our God. They are bowed down and fallen; But we are risen, 7 and stand upright. Save, Jehovah: Let the King answer us when 8 we call. 9

The king shall joy in thy strength, O Jehovah; And in thy 21 salvation how greatly shall he rejoice! Thou hast given him his heart's desire, And hast not withholden the request of his lips.
Selah For thou meetest him with the blessings of goodness: 2 Thou settest a crown of fine gold on his head. He asked life 3 of thee, thou gavest it him, Even length of days for ever and ever. His glory is great in thy salvation: Honor and majesty 4 dost thou lay upon him. For thou makest him most blessed 5 for ever: Thou makest him glad with joy in thy presence. For 6 the king trusteth in Jehovah; And through the lovingkindness of 8 the Most High he shall not be moved. Thy hand will find out all thine enemies; Thy right hand will find out those that hate 9 thee. Thou wilt make them as a fiery furnace in the time of thine anger: Jehovah will swallow them up in his wrath, And 10 the fire shall devour them. Their fruit wilt thou destroy from 11 the earth, And their seed from among the children of men. For they intended evil against thee; They conceived a device which 12 they are not able to perform. For thou wilt make them turn their back; Thou wilt make ready with thy bowstrings against 13 their face. Be thou exalted, O Jehovah, in thy strength: So will we sing and praise thy power.

22 My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my groaning?
2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou answerest not; And 3 in the night season, and am not silent. But thou art holy, O 4 thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel. Our fathers trusted 5 in thee: They trusted, and thou didst deliver them. They cried unto thee, and were delivered: They trusted in thee, and were 6 not put to shame. But I am a worm, and no man; A reproach of 7 men, and despised of the people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: They shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying, 8 Commit thyself unto Jehovah; Let him deliver him: Let him 9 rescue him, seeing he delighteth in him. But thou art he that took me out of the womb; Thou didst make me trust when I 10 was upon my mother's breasts. I was cast upon thee from the 11 womb; Thou art my God since my mother bare me. Be not far 12 from me; For trouble is near; For there is none to help. Many bulls have compassed me; Strong bulls of Bashan have beset me 13 round. They gape upon me with their mouth, As a ravening 14 and a roaring lion. I am poured out like water, And all my bones are out of joint: My heart is like wax; It is melted within 15 me. My strength is dried up like a potsherd; And my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; And thou hast brought me into the dust of 16 death. For dogs have compassed me: A company of evil-doers 17 have inclosed me; They pierced my hands and my feet. I may 18 count all my bones; They look and stare upon me. They part my garments among them, And upon my vesture do they cast 19 lots. But be not thou far off, O Jehovah: O thou my succor, haste thee to help me. Deliver my soul from the sword, My 20 darling from the power of the dog. Save me from the lion's 21 mouth; Yea, from the horns of the wild-oxen thou hast answered me. I will declare thy name unto my brethren: In the midst 22 of the assembly will I praise thee. Ye that fear Jehovah, praise 23 him; All ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; And stand in awe of him, all ye the seed of Israel. For he hath not despised nor 24 abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; Neither hath he hid his face from him; But when he cried unto him, he heard. Of thee 25 cometh my praise in the great assembly: I will pay my vows before them that fear him. The meek shall eat and be satisfied; 26 They shall praise Jehovah that seek after him: Let your heart live for ever. All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn 27 unto Jehovah; And all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee. For the kingdom is Jehovah's; And he is the ruler 28 over the nations. All the fat ones of the earth shall eat and 29 worship: All they that go down to the dust shall bow before him, Even he that cannot keep his soul alive. A seed shall serve 30 him; It shall be told of the Lord unto the next generation. They 31 shall come and shall declare his righteousness Unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done it.

Jehovah is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to 23, 2 lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside still waters. He 3 restoreth my soul: He guideth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, thou I walk through the valley of the 4 shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table 5 before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou hast anointed my head with oil; My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and 6 lovingkindness shall follow me all the days of my life; And I shall dwell in the house of Jehovah for ever.

The earth is Jehovah's, and the fulness thereof; The world, 24 and they that dwell therein. For he hath founded it upon the 2 seas, And established it upon the floods. Who shall ascend into 3 the hill of Jehovah? And who shall stand in his holy place? He 4 that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; Who hath not lifted up his soul unto falsehood, And hath not sworn deceitfully. He 5 shall receive a blessing from Jehovah, And righteousness from the God of his salvation. This is the generation of them that 6 7 seek after him, That seek thy face, even Jacob. Selah Lift up your heads, O ye gates; And be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors: 8 And the King of glory will come in. Who is the King of glory?

9 Jehovah strong and mighty, Jehovah mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; Yea, lift them up, ye everlasting doors: 10 And the King of glory will come in. Who is this King of glory?
Jehovah of hosts, He is the King of glory. Selah

25, 2 Unto thee, O Jehovah, do I lift up my soul. O my God, in thee have I trusted, Let me not be put to shame; Let not mine 3 enemies triumph over me. Yea, none that wait for thee shall be put to shame: They shall be put to shame that deal treacherously 4 without cause. Show me thy ways, O Jehovah; Teach me thy 5 paths. Guide me in thy truth, and teach me; For thou art the 6 God of my salvation; For thee do I wait all the day. Remember, O Jehovah, thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindness; For they 7 have been ever of old. Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: According to thy lovingkindness remember 8 thou me, For thy goodness' sake, O Jehovah. Good and upright 9 is Jehovah: Therefore will he instruct sinners in the way. The meek will he guide in justice; And the meek will he teach his way.
10 All the paths of Jehovah are lovingkindness and truth Unto such 11 as keep his covenant and his testimonies. For thy name's sake, 12 O Jehovah, Pardon mine iniquity, for it is great. What man is he that feareth Jehovah? Him shall he instruct in the way that 13 he shall choose. His soul shall dwell at ease; And his seed shall 14 inherit the land. The friendship of Jehovah is with them that 15 fear him; And he will show them his covenant. Mine eyes are ever toward Jehovah; For he will pluck my feet out of the net.
16 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me; For I am desolate 17 and afflicted. The troubles of my heart are enlarged: Oh bring 18 thou me out of my distresses. Consider mine affliction and my 19 travail; And forgive all my sins. Consider mine enemies, for 20 they are many; And they hate me with cruel hatred. Oh keep my soul, and deliver me: Let me not be put to shame, for I take 21 refuge in thee. Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, For 22 I wait for thee. Redeem Israel, O God, Out all of his troubles.
26 Judge me, O Jehovah, for I have walked in mine integrity: I 2 have trusted also in Jehovah without wavering. Examine me, 3 O Jehovah, and prove me; Try my heart and my mind. For thy lovingkindness is before mine eyes; And I have walked in thy truth. I have not sat with men of falsehood; Neither will 4 I go in with dissemblers. I hate the assembly of evil-doers, 5 And will not sit with the wicked. I will wash my hands in 6 innocency: So will I compass thine altar, O Jehovah; That I 7 may make the voice of thanksgiving to be heard, And tell of all thy wondrous works. Jehovah, I love the habitation of thy 8 house, And the place where thy glory dwelleth. Gather not 9 my soul with sinners, Nor my life with men of blood; In whose 10 hands is wickedness, And their right hand is full of bribes. But 11 as for me, I will walk in mine integrity: Redeem me, and be merciful unto me. My foot standeth in an even place: In the 12 congregations will I bless Jehovah.

Jehovah is my light and my salvation; Whom shall I fear? 27 Jehovah is the strength of my life; Of whom shall I be afraid?
When evil-doers came upon me to eat up my flesh, Even mine 2 adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell. Though a host 3 should encamp against me, My heart shall not fear: Though war should rise against me, Even then will I be confident. One thing 4 have I asked of Jehovah, that will I seek after; That I may dwell in the house of Jehovah all the days of my life, To behold the beauty of Jehovah, And to inquire in his temple. For in the 5 day of trouble he will keep me secretly in his pavilion: In the covert of his tabernacle will he hide me; He will lift me up upon a rock. And now shall my head be lifted up above mine enemies 6 round about me. And I will offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto Jehovah. Hear, O 7 Jehovah, when I cry with my voice: Have mercy also upon me, and answer me. When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; My heart 8 said unto thee, Thy face, Jehovah, will I seek. Hide not thy 9 face from me; Put not thy servant away in anger: Thou hast been my help; Cast me not off, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation. When my father and my mother forsake me, Then 10 Jehovah will take me up. Teach me thy way, O Jehovah; And 11 lead me in a plain path, Because of mine enemies. Deliver me 12 not over unto the will of mine adversaries: For false witnesses are risen up against me, And such as breathe out cruelty. I had 13 fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of Jehovah In the land of the living. Wait for Jehovah: Be strong, And let 14 thy heart take courage; Yea, wait thou for Jehovah.

28 Unto thee, O Jehovah, will I call: My rock, be not thou deaf unto me; Lest, if thou be silent unto me, I become like them that 2 go down into the pit. Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, When I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle.
3 Draw me not away with the wicked, And with the workers of iniquity; That speak peace with their neighbors, But mischief is in 4 their hearts. Give them according to their work, and according to the wickedness of their doings: Give them after the operation 5 of their hands; Render to them their desert. Because they regard not the works of Jehovah, Nor the operation of his hands, 6 He will break them down and not build them up. Blessed be Jehovah, Because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.
7 Jehovah is my strength and my shield; My heart hath trusted in him, and I am helped: Therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; 8 And with my song will I praise him. Jehovah is their strength, 9 And he is a stronghold of salvation to his anointed. Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: Be their shepherd also, and bear them up for ever.

29 Ascribe unto Jehovah, O ye sons of the mighty, Ascribe unto 2 Jehovah glory and strength. Ascribe unto Jehovah the glory 3 due unto his name; Worship Jehovah in holy array. The voice of Jehovah is upon the waters: The God of glory thundereth, Even 4 Jehovah upon many waters. The voice of Jehovah is powerful; 5 The voice of Jehovah is full of majesty. The voice of Jehovah breaketh the cedars; Yea, Jehovah breaketh in pieces the cedars 6 of Lebanon. He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon 7 and Sirion like a young wild-ox. The voice of Jehovah cleaveth 8 the flames of fire. The voice of Jehovah shaketh the wilderness; 9 Jehovah shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh. The voice of Jehovah maketh the hinds to calve, And strippeth the forests bare: And 10 in his temple everything saith, Glory. Jehovah sat as King at 11 the Flood; Yea, Jehovah sitteth as King for ever. Jehovah will give strength unto his people; Jehovah will bless his people with peace.

30 I will extol thee, O Jehovah; For thou hast raised me up, And 2 hast not made my foes to rejoice over me. O Jehovah my God, 3 I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me. O Jehovah, thou hast brought up my soul from Sheol; Thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit. Sing praise unto Jehovah, 4 O ye saints of his, And give thanks to his holy memorial name.

 For his anger is but for a moment; His favor is for a life-time: 5 Weeping may tarry for the night, But joy cometh in the morning.
 As for me, I said in my prosperity, I shall never be moved. Thou, 6, 7 Jehovah, of thy favor hadst made my mountain to stand strong: Thou didst hide thy face; I was troubled. I cried to thee, O 8 Jehovah; And unto Jehovah I made supplication: What profit 9 is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth? Hear, O Jehovah, and 10 have mercy upon me: Jehovah, be thou my helper. Thou hast 11 turned for me my mourning into dancing; Thou hast loosed my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness; To the end that my 12 glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent. O Jehovah my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

In thee, O Jehovah, do I take refuge; Let me never be put 31 to shame: Deliver me in thy righteousness. Bow down thine 2 ear unto me; Deliver me speedily: Be thou to me a strong rock, A house of defence to save me. For thou art my rock and my 3 fortress; Therefore for thy name's sake lead me and guide me.
 Pluck me out of the net that they have laid privily for me; For 4 thou art my stronghold. Into thy hand I commend my spirit: 5 Thou hast redeemed me, O Jehovah, thou God of truth. I hate 6 them that regard lying vanities; But I trust in Jehovah. I will 7 be glad and rejoice in thy lovingkindness; For thou hast seen my affliction: Thou hast known my soul in adversities; And thou 8 hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy; Thou hast set my feet in a large place. Have mercy upon me, O Jehovah, for 9 I am in distress: Mine eye wasteth away with grief, yea, my soul and my body. For my life is spent with sorrow, And my years 10 with sighing: My strength faileth because of mine iniquity, And my bones are wasted away. Because of all mine adversaries I am 11 become a reproach, Yea, unto my neighbors exceedingly, And a fear to mine acquaintance: They that did see me without fled from me. I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like 12 a broken vessel. For I have heard the defaming of many, Terror 13 on every side: While they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life. But I trusted in thee, O Jehovah: 14 I said, Thou art my God. My times are in thy hand: Deliver me 15 from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute 16 me. Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: Save me in thy 17 lovingkindness. Let me not be put to shame, O Jehovah; For I have called upon thee: Let the wicked be put to shame, let them 18 be silent in Sheol. Let the lying lips be dumb, Which speak 19 against the righteous insolently, With pride and contempt. Oh how great is thy goodness, Which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee, Which thou hast wrought for them that take refuge in 20 thee, Before the sons of men! In the covert of thy presence wilt thou hide them from the plottings of man: Thou wilt keep them 21 secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues. Blessed be Jehovah; For he hath showed me his marvellous lovingkindness 22 in a strong city. As for me, I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: Nevertheless thou heardest the voice of 23 my supplications When I cried unto thee. Oh love Jehovah, all ye his saints: Jehovah preserveth the faithful, And plentifully 24 rewardeth him that dealeth proudly. Be strong, and let your heart take courage, All ye that hope in Jehovah.

32 Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, Whose sin is 2 covered. Blessed is the man unto whom Jehovah imputeth not 3 iniquity, And in whose spirit there is no guile. When I kept silence, my bones wasted away Through my groaning all the day 4 long. For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: My moisture was changed as with the drought of summer. Selah 5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, And mine iniquity did I not hide: I said, I will confess my transgressions unto Jehovah; And 6 thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah For this let every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: Surely when the great waters overflow they shall not 7 reach unto him. Thou art my hiding-place; Thou wilt preserve me from trouble; Thou wilt compass me about with songs of 8 deliverance. Selah I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will counsel thee with mine eye upon 9 thee. Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding; Whose trappings must be bit and bridle to hold 10 them in, Else they will not come near unto thee. Many sorrows shall be to the wicked; But he that trusteth in Jehovah, lov-11 ingkindness shall compass him about. Be glad in Jehovah, and rejoice, ye righteous; And shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

Rejoice in Jehovah, O ye righteous: Praise is comely for the 33 upright. Give thanks unto Jehovah with the harp: Sing praises 2 unto him with the psaltery of ten strings. Sing unto him a new 3 song; Play skilfully with a loud noise. For the word of Jehovah 4 is right; And all his work is done in faithfulness. He loveth 5 righteousness and justice: The earth is full of the lovingkindness of Jehovah. By the word of Jehovah were the heavens made, 6 And all the host of them by the breath of his mouth. He gath- 7 ereth the waters of the sea together as a heap: He layeth up the deeps in store-houses. Let all the earth fear Jehovah: Let all 8 the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him. For he spake, 9 and it was done; He commanded, and it stood fast. Jehovah 10 bringeth the counsel of the nations to nought; He maketh the thoughts of the peoples to be of no effect. The counsel of Je- 11 hovah standeth fast for ever, The thoughts of his heart to all generations. Blessed is the nation whose God is Jehovah, The 12 people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance. Jehovah 13 looketh from heaven; He beholdeth all the sons of men; From the 14 place of his habitation he looketh forth Upon all the inhabitants of the earth, He that fashioneth the hearts of them all, That 15 considereth all their works. There is no king saved by the multi- 16 tude of a host: A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.
 A horse is a vain thing for safety; Neither doth he deliver any 17 by his great power. Behold, the eye of Jehovah is upon them 18 that fear him, Upon them that hope in his lovingkindness; To 19 deliver their soul from death, And to keep them alive in famine.
 Our soul hath waited for Jehovah: He is our help and our shield. 20 For our heart shall rejoice in him, Because we have trusted in 21 his holy name. Let thy lovingkindness, O Jehovah, be upon us, 22 According as we have hoped in thee.

I will bless Jehovah at all times: His praise shall continually 34 be in my mouth. My soul shall make her boast in Jehovah: 2 The meek shall hear thereof, and be glad. Oh magnify Jehovah 3 with me, And let us exalt his name together. I sought Jeho- 4 vah, and he answered me, And delivered me from all my fears.
 They looked unto him, and were radiant; And their faces shall 5 never be confounded. This poor man cried, and Jehovah heard 6 him, And saved him out of all his troubles. The angel of Jeho- 7 vah encampeth round about them that fear him, And delivereth 8 them. Oh taste and see that Jehovah is good: Blessed is the 9 man that taketh refuge in him. Oh fear Jehovah, ye his saints; 10 For there is no want to them that fear him. The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger; But they that seek Jehovah shall not 11 want any good thing. Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I 12 will teach you the fear of Jehovah. What man is he that de-13 sireth life, And loveth many days, that he may see good? Keep 14 thy tongue from evil, And thy lips from speaking guile. Depart 15 from evil, and do good; Seek peace, and pursue it. The eyes of Jehovah are toward the righteous, And his ears are open unto 16 their cry. The face of Jehovah is against them that do evil, To 17 cut off the remembrance of them from the earth. The righteous cried, and Jehovah heard, And delivered them out of all their 18 troubles. Jehovah is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart, 19 And saveth such as are of a contrite spirit. Many are the afflictions of the righteous; But Jehovah delivereth him out of them 20, 21 all. He keepeth all his bones: Not one of them is broken. Evil shall slay the wicked; And they that hate the righteous shall be 22 condemned. Jehovah redeemeth the soul of his servants; And none of them that take refuge in him shall be condemned.

35 Strive thou, O Jehovah, with them that strive with me: Fight 2 thou against them that fight against me. Take hold of shield 3 and buckler, And stand up for my help. Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that pursue me: Say unto 4 my soul, I am thy salvation. Let them be put to shame and brought to dishonor that seek after my soul: Let them be turned 5 back and confounded that devise my hurt. Let them be as chaff before the wind, And the angel of Jehovah driving them on.
6 Let their way be dark and slippery, And the angel of Jehovah 7 pursuing them. For without cause have they hid for me their net in a pit; Without cause have they digged a pit for my soul.
8 Let destruction come upon him unawares; And let his net that he hath hid catch himself: With destruction let him fall therein.
9 And my soul shall be joyful in Jehovah: It shall rejoice in his 10 salvation. All my bones shall say, Jehovah, who is like unto thee, Who deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, Yea, the poor and the needy from him that robbeth him?
11 Unrighteous witnesses rise up; They ask me of things that I know not. They reward me evil for good, To the bereaving of my soul. 12 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I 13 afflicted my soul with fasting; And my prayer returned into mine own bosom. I behaved myself as though it had been my friend 14 or my brother: I bowed down mourning, as one that bewaileth his mother. But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered 15 themselves together: The abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; They did tear me, and ceased not: Like the profane mockers in feasts, They gnashed upon me with 16 their teeth. Lord, how long wilt thou look on? Rescue my soul 17 from their destructions, My darling from the lions. I will give 18 thee thanks in the great assembly: I will praise thee among much people. Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice 19 over me; Neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause. For they speak not peace; But they devise deceitful 20 words against them that are quiet in the land. Yea, they opened 21 their mouth wide against me; They said, Aha, aha, our eye hath seen it. Thou hast seen it, O Jehovah; Keep not silence: O Lord, 22 be not far from me. Stir up thyself, and awake to the justice due 23 unto me, Even unto my cause, my God and my Lord. Judge 24 me, O Jehovah my God, according to thy righteousness; And let them not rejoice over me. Let them not say in their heart, 25 Aha, so would we have it: Let them not say, We have swallowed him up. Let them be put to shame and confounded together 26 that rejoice at my hurt: Let them be clothed with shame and dishonor that magnify themselves against me. Let them shout 27 for joy, and be glad, that favor my righteous cause: Yea, let them say continually, Jehovah be magnified, Who hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant. And my tongue shall talk of 28 thy righteousness And of thy praise all the day long.

The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, There 36 is no fear of God before his eyes. For he flattereth himself in his 2 own eyes, That his iniquity will not be found out and be hated.
 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: He hath ceased 3 to be wise and to do good. He deviseth iniquity upon his bed; 4 He setteth himself in a way that is not good; He abhorreth not evil. Thy lovingkindness, O Jehovah, is in the heavens; Thy 5 faithfulness reacheth unto the skies. Thy righteousness is like 6 the mountains of God; Thy judgments are a great deep: O Je-7 hovah, thou preservest man and beast. How precious is thy lovingkindness, O God! And the children of men take refuge un-8 der the shadow of thy wings. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; And thou wilt make them drink of 9 the river of thy pleasures. For with thee is the fountain of life: 10 In thy light shall we see light. Oh continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee, And thy righteousness to the upright 11 in heart. Let not the foot of pride come against me, And let not 12 the hand of the wicked drive me away. There are the workers of iniquity fallen: They are thrust down, and shall not be able to rise.

37 Fret not thyself because of evil-doers, Neither be thou envious 2 against them that work unrighteousness. For they shall soon 3 be cut down like the grass, And wither as the green herb. Trust in Jehovah, and do good; Dwell in the land, and feed on his 4 faithfulness. Delight thyself also in Jehovah; And he will give 5 thee the desires of thy heart. Commit thy way unto Jehovah; 6 Trust also in him, and he will bring it to pass. And he will make thy righteousness to go forth as the light, And thy justice as the 7 noon-day. Rest in Jehovah, and wait patiently for him: Fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, Because 8 of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass. Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: Fret not thyself, it tendeth only to 9 evil-doing. For evil-doers shall be cut off; But those that wait 10 for Jehovah, they shall inherit the land. For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: Yea, thou shalt diligently consider 11 his place, and he shall not be. But the meek shall inherit the land, And shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.
12 The wicked plotteth against the just, And gnasheth upon him 13 with his teeth. The Lord will laugh at him; For he seeth that his 14 day is coming. The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, To cast down the poor and needy, To slay such 15 as are upright in the way. Their sword shall enter into their own 16 heart, And their bows shall be broken. Better is a little that the 17 righteous hath Than the abundance of many wicked. For the arms of the wicked shall be broken; But Jehovah upholdeth the 18 righteous. Jehovah knoweth the days of the perfect; And their 19 inheritance shall be for ever. They shall not be put to shame in the time of evil; And in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

But the wicked shall perish, And the enemies of Jehovah shall 20 be as the fat of lambs: They shall consume; In smoke shall they consume away. The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again; 21 But the righteous dealeth graciously, and giveth. For such as are 22 blessed of him shall inherit the land; And they that are cursed of him shall be cut off. A man's goings are established of Jehovah; 23 And he delighteth in his way. Though he fall, he shall not be 24 utterly cast down; For Jehovah upholdeth him with his hand.
I have been young, and now am old; Yet have I not seen the 25 righteous forsaken, Nor his seed begging bread. All the day 26 long he dealeth graciously, and lendeth; And his seed is blessed.
Depart from evil, and do good; And dwell for evermore. For 27, 28 Jehovah loveth justice, And forsaketh not his saints; They are preserved for ever: But the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.
The righteous shall inherit the land, And dwell therein for ever. 29
The mouth of the righteous talketh of wisdom, And his tongue 30 speaketh justice. The law of his God is in his heart; None of 31 his steps shall slide. The wicked watcheth the righteous, And 32 seeketh to slay him. Jehovah will not leave him in his hand, 33 Nor condemn him when he is judged. Wait for Jehovah, and 34 keep his way, And he will exalt thee to inherit the land: When the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it. I have seen the wicked 35 in great power, And spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil. But one passed by, and, lo, he was not: Yea, I 36 sought him, but he could not be found. Mark the perfect man, 37 and behold the upright; For there is a happy end to the man of peace. As for transgressors, they shall be destroyed together; 38 The end of the wicked shall be cut off. But the salvation of 39 the righteous is of Jehovah; He is their stronghold in the time of trouble. And Jehovah helpeth them, and rescueth them; He 40 rescueth them from the wicked, and saveth them, Because they have taken refuge in him.

O Jehovah, rebuke me not in thy wrath; Neither chasten me 38 in thy hot displeasure. For thine arrows stick fast in me, And 2 thy hand presseth me sore. There is no soundness in my flesh 3 because of thine indignation; Neither is there any health in my bones because of my sin. For mine iniquities are gone over 4 my head: As a heavy burden they are too heavy for me. My 5 wounds are loathsome and corrupt, Because of my foolishness.

6 I am pained and bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the 7 day long. For my loins are filled with burning; And there is 8 no soundness in my flesh. I am faint and sore bruised: I have 9 groaned by reason of the disquietness of my heart. Lord, all my 10 desire is before thee; And my groaning is not hid from thee. My heart throbbereth, my strength faileth me: As for the light of mine 11 eyes, it also is gone from me. My lovers and my friends stand 12 aloof from my plague; And my kinsmen stand afar off. They also that seek after my life lay snares for me; And they that seek my hurt speak mischievous things, And meditate deceits all the 13 day long. But I, as a deaf man, hear not; And I am as a dumb 14 man that openeth not his mouth. Yea, I am as a man that 15 heareth not, And in whose mouth are no reproofs. For in thee, 16 O Jehovah, do I hope: Thou wilt answer, O Lord my God. For I said, Lest they rejoice over me: When my foot slippeth, they 17 magnify themselves against me. For I am ready to fall, And my 18 sorrow is continually before me. For I will declare mine iniquity; 19 I will be sorry for my sin. But mine enemies are lively, and are 20 strong; And they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied. They also that render evil for good Are adversaries unto me, because 21 I follow the thing that is good. Forsake me not, O Jehovah: O 22 my God, be not far from me. Make haste to help me, O Lord, my salvation.

39 I said, I will take heed to my ways, That I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, While the wicked 2 is before me. I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even 3 from good; And my sorrow was stirred. My heart was hot within me; While I was musing the fire burned: Then spake I 4 with my tongue: Jehovah, make me to know mine end, And the measure of my days, what it is; Let me know how frail I 5 am. Behold, thou hast made my days as handbreadths; And my life-time is as nothing before thee: Surely every man at his 6 best estate is altogether vanity. Selah Surely every man walketh in a vain show; Surely they are disquieted in vain: He heapeth 7 up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them. And now, 8 Lord, what wait I for? My hope is in thee. Deliver me from all my transgressions: Make me not the reproach of the foolish.
9 I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; Because thou didst it.
10 Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thy hand. When thou with rebukes dost correct man for 11 iniquity, Thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: Surely every man is vanity. Selah Hear my prayer, O Jehovah, 12 and give ear unto my cry; Hold not thy peace at my tears: For I am a stranger with thee, A sojourner, as all my fathers were.

Oh spare me, that I may recover strength, Before I go hence, 13 and be no more.

I waited patiently for Jehovah; And he inclined unto me, and 40 heard my cry. He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out 2 of the miry clay; And he set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings. And he hath put a new song in my mouth, 3 even praise unto our God: Many shall see it, and fear, And shall trust in Jehovah. Blessed is the man that maketh Jehovah his 4 trust, And respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies. Many, O Jehovah my God, are the wonderful works which 5 thou hast done, And thy thoughts which are to us-ward; They cannot be set in order unto thee; If I would declare and speak of them, They are more than can be numbered. Sacrifice and 6 offering thou hast no delight in; Mine ears hast thou opened: Burnt-offering and sin-offering hast thou not required. Then 7 said I, Lo, I am come; In the roll of the book it is written of me: I delight to do thy will, O my God; Yea, thy law is within my 8 heart. I have proclaimed glad tidings of righteousness in the great assembly; Lo, I will not refrain my lips, O Jehovah, thou 9 knowest. I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation; I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great assembly. Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O 11 Jehovah; Let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me. For innumerable evils have compassed me about; 12 Mine iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up; They are more than the hairs of my head; And my heart hath failed me. Be pleased, O Jehovah, to deliver me: Make 13 haste to help me, O Jehovah. Let them be put to shame and 14 confounded together That seek after my soul to destroy it: Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor That delight in my hurt. Let them be desolate by reason of their shame That 15 say unto me, Aha, aha. Let all those that seek thee rejoice and 16 be glad in thee: Let such as love thy salvation say continually, 17 Jehovah be magnified. But I am poor and needy; Yet the Lord thinketh upon me: Thou art my help and my deliverer; Make no tarrying, O my God.

41 Blessed is he that considereth the poor: Jehovah will deliver 2 him in the day of evil. Jehovah will preserve him, and keep him 3 alive, And he shall be blessed upon the earth; And deliver not 4 thou him unto the will of his enemies. Jehovah will support 5 him upon the couch of languishing: Thou makest all his bed in 6 his sickness. I said, O Jehovah, have mercy upon me: Heal my 7 soul; For I have sinned against thee. Mine enemies speak evil 8 against me, saying, When will he die, and his name perish? And 9 if he come to see me, he speaketh falsehood; His heart gathereth 10 iniquity to itself: When he goeth abroad, he telleth it. All that 11 hate me whisper together against me; Against me do they devise 12 my hurt. An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him; And 13 now that he lieth he shall rise up no more. Yea, mine own 14 familiar friend, in whom I trusted, Who did eat of my bread, 15 Hath lifted up his heel against me. But thou, O Jehovah, have 16 mercy upon me, and raise me up, That I may requite them. By 17 this I know that thou delightest in me, Because mine enemy doth 18 not triumph over me. And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine 19 integrity, And settest me before thy face for ever. Blessed be 20 Jehovah, the God of Israel, From everlasting and to everlasting.
Amen, and Amen.

42 As the hart panteth after the water brooks, So panteth my 2 soul after thee, O God. My soul thirsteth for God, for the 3 living God: When shall I come and appear before God? My 4 tears have been my food day and night, While they continually 5 say unto me, Where is thy God? These things I remember, and 6 pour out my soul within me, How I went with the throng, and 7 led them to the house of God, With the voice of joy and praise, 8 a multitude keeping holyday. Why art thou cast down, O my 9 soul? And why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in 10 God; for I shall yet praise him For the help of his countenance.
11 O my God, my soul is cast down within me: Therefore do I 12 remember thee from the land of the Jordan, And the Hermons, 13 from the hill Mizar. Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy 14 waterfalls: All thy waves and thy billows are gone over me. Yet 15 Jehovah will command his lovingkindness in the day-time; And in the night his song shall be with me, Even a prayer unto the God of my life. I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou 9 forgotten me? Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? As with a sword in my bones, mine adversaries 10 reproach me, While they continually say unto me, Where is thy God? Why art thou cast down, O my soul? And why art thou 11 disquieted within me? Hope thou in God; For I shall yet praise him, Who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly 43 nation: Oh deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man. For 2 thou art the God of my strength; Why hast thou cast me off?
 Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? Oh 3 send out thy light and thy truth; Let them lead me: Let them bring me unto thy holy hill, And to thy tabernacles. Then will I 4 go unto the altar of God, Unto God my exceeding joy; And upon the harp will I praise thee, O God, my God. Why art thou cast 5 down, O my soul? And why art thou disquieted within me?
 Hope thou in God; For I shall yet praise him, Who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

We have heard with our ears, O God, Our fathers have told 44 us, What work thou didst in their days, In the days of old.
 Thou didst drive out the nations with thy hand; But them thou 2 didst plant: Thou didst afflict the peoples; But them thou didst spread abroad. For they gat not the land in possession by their 3 own sword, Neither did their own arm save them; But thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, Because thou wast favorable unto them. Thou art my King, O God: 4 Command deliverance for Jacob. Through thee will we push 5 down our adversaries: Through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us. For I will not trust in my bow, 6 Neither shall my sword save me. But thou hast saved us from 7 our adversaries, And hast put them to shame that hate us. In 8 God have we made our boast all the day long, And we will give thanks unto thy name for ever. Selah But now thou hast cast 9 us off, and brought us to dishonor, And goest not forth with our hosts. Thou makest us to turn back from the adversary; And 10 they that hate us take spoil for themselves. Thou hast made 11 us like sheep appointed for food, And hast scattered us among the nations. Thou sellest thy people for nought, And hast not 12 13 increased thy wealth by their price. Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbors, A scoffing and a derision to them that are 14 round about us. Thou makest us a byword among the nations, 15 A shaking of the head among the peoples. All the day long is my dishonor before me, And the shame of my face hath covered 16 me, For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth, 17 By reason of the enemy and the avenger. All this is come upon us; Yet have we not forgotten thee, Neither have we dealt falsely 18 in thy covenant. Our heart is not turned back, Neither have 19 our steps declined from thy way, That thou hast sore broken us in the place of jackals, And covered us with the shadow of 20 death. If we have forgotten the name of our God, Or spread 21 forth our hands to a strange god; Will not God search this out?

22 For he knoweth the secrets of the heart. Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; We are accounted as sheep for the 23 slaughter. Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord? Arise, cast us 24 not off for ever. Wherefore hidest thou thy face, And forgettest 25 our affliction and our oppression? For our soul is bowed down 26 to the dust: Our body cleaveth unto the earth. Rise up for our help, And redeem us for thy lovingkindness' sake.

45 My heart overfloweth with a goodly matter; I speak the things which I have made touching the king: My tongue is the pen of a 2 ready writer. Thou art fairer than the children of men; Grace is poured into thy lips: Therefore God hath blessed thee for 3 ever. Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O mighty one, Thy glory 4 and thy majesty. And in thy majesty ride on prosperously, Because of truth and meekness and righteousness: And thy right 5 hand shall teach thee terrible things. Thine arrows are sharp; The peoples fall under thee; They are in the heart of the king's 6 enemies. Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: A scep-7 tre of equity is the sceptre of thy kingdom. Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated wickedness: Therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee With the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
8 All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia; Out of 9 ivory palaces stringed instruments have made thee glad. Kings' daughters are among thy honorable women: At thy right hand 10 doth stand the queen in gold of Ophir. Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; Forget also thine own peo-11 ple, and thy father's house: So will the king desire thy beauty;

For he is thy lord; And reverence thou him. And the daughter 12 of Tyre shall be there with a gift; The rich among the people shall entreat thy favor. The king's daughter within the palace 13 is all glorious: Her clothing is inwrought with gold. She shall 14 be led unto the king in broidered work: The virgins her companions that follow her Shall be brought unto thee. With gladness 15 and rejoicing shall they be led: They shall enter into the king's palace. Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children, Whom thou 16 shalt make princes in all the earth. I will make thy name to be 17 remembered in all generations: Therefore shall the peoples give thee thanks for ever and ever.

God is our refuge and strength, A very present help in trou- 46
ble. Therefore will we not fear, though the earth do change, 2 And though the mountains be shaken into the heart of the seas; Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, Though the 3 mountains tremble with the swelling thereof. Selah There is a 4 river, the streams whereof make glad the city of God, The holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High. God is in the midst 5 of her; She shall not be moved: God will help her, and that right early. The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved: He 6 uttered his voice, the earth melted. Jehovah of hosts is with us; 7 The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah Come, behold the works 8 of Jehovah, What desolations he hath made in the earth. He 9 maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; He breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; He burneth the chariots in the fire. Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted 10 among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth. Jehovah of 11 hosts is with us; The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

Oh clap your hands, all ye peoples; Shout unto God with the 47 voice of triumph. For Jehovah Most High is terrible; He is a 2 great King over all the earth. He subdueth peoples under us, 3 And nations under our feet. He chooseth our inheritance for us, 4 The glory of Jacob whom he loved. Selah God is gone up with a 5 shout, Jehovah with the sound of a trumpet. Sing praise to God, 6 sing praises: Sing praises unto our King, sing praises. For God 7 is the King of all the earth: Sing ye praises with understanding.
God reigneth over the nations: God sitteth upon his holy throne. 8
The princes of the peoples are gathered together To be the people 9 of the God of Abraham: For the shields of the earth belong unto God; He is greatly exalted.

48 Great is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised, In the city of our 2 God, in his holy mountain. Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, Is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, The 3 city of the great King. God hath made himself known in her 4 palaces for a refuge. For, lo, the kings assembled themselves, 5 They passed by together. They saw it, then were they amazed; 6 They were dismayed, they hasted away. Trembling took hold 7 of them there, Pain, as of a woman in travail. With the east 8 wind Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish. As we have heard, so have we seen In the city of Jehovah of hosts, in the city of our 9 God: God will establish it for ever. Selah We have thought on 10 thy lovingkindness, O God, In the midst of thy temple. As is thy name, O God, So is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: 11 Thy right hand is full of righteousness. Let mount Zion be glad, Let the daughters of Judah rejoice, Because of thy judgments.
12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her; Number the towers 13 thereof; Mark ye well her bulwarks; Consider her palaces: That 14 ye may tell it to the generation following. For this God is our God for ever and ever: He will be our guide even unto death.

49 Hear this, all ye peoples; Give ear, all ye inhabitants of the 2, 3 world, Both low and high, Rich and poor together. My mouth shall speak wisdom; And the meditation of my heart shall be 4 of understanding. I will incline mine ear to a parable: I will 5 open my dark saying upon the harp. Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, When iniquity at my heels compasseth me 6 about? They that trust in their wealth, And boast themselves 7 in the multitude of their riches; None of them can by any means 8 redeem his brother, Nor give to God a ransom for him; (For the 9 redemption of their life is costly, And it faileth for ever;) That he should still live alway, That he should not see corruption.
10 For he shall see it. Wise men die; The fool and the brutish alike 11 perish, And leave their wealth to others. Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, And their dwelling-places to all generations; They call their lands after their own 12 names. But man being in honor abideth not: He is like the 13 beasts that perish. This their way is their folly: Yet after them 14 men approve their sayings. Selah They are appointed as a flock for Sheol; Death shall be their shepherd; And the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; And their beauty shall be for Sheol to consume, That there be no habitation for it. But 15 God will redeem my soul from the power of Sheol; For he will receive me. Selah Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, 16 When the glory of his house is increased. For when he dieth he 17 shall carry nothing away; His glory shall not descend after him.

 Though while he lived he blessed his soul (And men praise thee, 18 when thou doest well to thyself,) He shall go to the generation 19 of his fathers; They shall never see the light. Man that is in 20 honor, and understandeth not, Is like the beasts that perish.

The Mighty One, God, Jehovah, hath spoken, And called the 50 earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.
 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined forth. 2 Our God cometh, and doth not keep silence: A fire devoureth 3 before him, And it is very tempestuous round about him. He 4 calleth to the heavens above, And to the earth, that he may judge his people: Gather my saints together unto me, Those that have 5 made a covenant with me by sacrifice. And the heavens shall 6 declare his righteousness; For God is judge himself. Selah Hear, 7 O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify unto thee: I am God, even thy God. I will not reprove thee for thy 8 sacrifices; And thy burnt-offerings are continually before me. I 9 will take no bullock out of thy house, Nor he-goats out of thy folds. For every beast of the forest is mine, And the cattle upon 10 a thousand hills. I know all the birds of the mountains; And 11 the wild beasts of the field are mine. If I were hungry, I would 12 not tell thee; For the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.
 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, Or drink the blood of goats? Offer 13, 14 unto God the sacrifice of thanksgiving; And pay thy vows unto the Most High: And call upon me in the day of trouble; I will 15 deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me. But unto the wicked 16 God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, And that thou hast taken my covenant in thy mouth, Seeing thou 17 hatest instruction, And castest my words behind thee? When 18 thou sawest a thief, thou consentedst with him, And hast been partaker with adulterers. Thou givest thy mouth to evil, And 19 thy tongue frameth deceit. Thou sittest and speakest against 20 thy brother; Thou slanderest thine own mother's son. These 21 things hast thou done, and I kept silence; Thou thoughtest that I was altogether such a one as thyself: But I will reprove thee, 22 and set them in order before thine eyes. Now consider this, ye that forget God, Lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to 23 deliver: Whoso offereth the sacrifice of thanksgiving glorifieth me; And to him that ordereth his way aright Will I show the salvation of God.

51 Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: According to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out 2 my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, 3 And cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions; 4 And my sin is ever before me. Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, And done that which is evil in thy sight; That thou mayest be justified when thou speakest, And be clear when thou 5 judgest. Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity; And in sin 6 did my mother conceive me. Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts; And in the hidden part thou wilt make me to know 7 wisdom. Purify me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: Wash me, 8 and I shall be whiter than snow. Make me to hear joy and glad-9 ness, That the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice. Hide 10 thy face from my sins, And blot out all mine iniquities. Create in me a clean heart, O God; And renew a right spirit within me.
11 Cast me not away from thy presence; And take not thy holy 12 Spirit from me. Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; And 13 uphold me with a willing spirit. Then will I teach transgressors 14 thy ways; And sinners shall be converted unto thee. Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation; And 15 my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness. O Lord, open 16 thou my lips; And my mouth shall show forth thy praise. For thou delightest not in sacrifice; Else would I give it: Thou hast 17 no pleasure in burnt-offering. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: A broken and contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not 18 despise. Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: Build thou 19 the walls of Jerusalem. Then will thou delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, In burnt-offering and in whole burnt-offering: Then will they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

52 Why boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? The 2 lovingkindness of God endureth continually. Thy tongue de-viseth very wickedness, Like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.
3 Thou lovest evil more than good, And lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou 4 deceitful tongue. God will likewise destroy thee for ever; He 5 will take thee up, and pluck thee out of thy tent, And root thee out of the land of the living. Selah The righteous also shall see 6 it, and fear, And shall laugh at him, saying, Lo, this is the man 7 that made not God his strength, But trusted in the abundance of his riches, And strengthened himself in his wickedness. But 8 as for me, I am like a green olive-tree in the house of God: I trust in the lovingkindness of God for ever and ever. I will give 9 thee thanks for ever, because thou hast done it; And I will hope in thy name, for it is good, in the presence of thy saints.

The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt 53 are they, and have done abominable iniquity; There is none that doeth good. God looked down from heaven upon the children 2 of men, To see if there were any that did understand, That did seek after God. Every one of them is gone back; They are 3 together become filthy; There is none that doeth good, no, not one. Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge, Who eat up my 4 people as they eat bread, And call not upon God? There were 5 they in great fear, where no fear was; For God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee: Thou hast put them to shame, because of God hath rejected them. Oh that the 6 salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Then shall Jacob rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

Save me, O God, by thy name, And judge me in thy might. 54 Hear my prayer, O God; Give ear to the words of my mouth. 2 For strangers are risen up against me, And violent men have 3 sought after my soul: They have not set God before them. Selah Behold, God is my helper: The Lord is of them that uphold my 4 soul. He will requite the evil unto mine enemies: Destroy thou 5 them in thy truth. With a freewill-offering will I sacrifice unto 6 thee: I will give thanks unto thy name, O Jehovah, for it is good.
 For he hath delivered me out of all trouble; And mine eye hath 7 seen my desire upon mine enemies.

Give ear to my prayer, O God; And hide not thyself from my 55 supplication. Attend unto me, and answer me: I am restless in 2 my complaint, and moan, Because of the voice of the enemy, 3 Because of the oppression of the wicked; For they cast iniquity 4 upon me, And in anger they persecute me. My heart is sore pained within me: And the terrors of death are fallen upon me.

5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, And horror hath 6 overwhelmed me. And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove!
7 Then would I fly away, and be at rest. Lo, then would I wander 8 far off, I would lodge in the wilderness. Selah I would haste 9 me to a shelter From the stormy wind and tempest. Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongue; For I have seen violence and 10 strife in the city. Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: Iniquity also and mischief are in the midst of it.
11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof: Oppression and guile depart 12 not from its streets. For it was not an enemy that reproached me; Then I could have borne it: Neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me; Then I would have 13 hid myself from him: But it was thou, a man mine equal, My 14 companion, and my familiar friend. We took sweet counsel 15 together; We walked in the house of God with the throng. Let death come suddenly upon them, Let them go down alive into Sheol; For wickedness is in their dwelling, in the midst of them.
16 As for me, I will call upon God; And Jehovah will save me.
17 Evening, and morning, and at noonday, will I complain, and 18 moan; And he will hear my voice. He hath redeemed my soul in peace from the battle that was against me; For they were many 19 that strove with me. God will hear, and answer them, Even he that abideth of old, Selah The men who have no changes, And 20 who fear not God. He hath put forth his hands against such as 21 were at peace with him: He hath profaned his covenant. His mouth was smooth as butter, But his heart was war: His words 22 were softer than oil, Yet were they drawn swords. Cast thy burden upon Jehovah, and he will sustain thee: He will never 23 suffer the righteous to be moved. But thou, O God, wilt bring them down into the pit of destruction: Bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; But I will trust in thee.
56 Be merciful unto me, O God; For man would swallow me 2 up: All the day long he fighting oppresseth me. Mine enemies would swallow me up all the day long; For they are many that 3 fight proudly against me. What time I am afraid, I will put my 4 trust in thee. In God (I will praise his word), In God have I put my trust, I will not be afraid; What can flesh do unto me?

All the day long they wrest my words: All their thoughts are 5 against me for evil. They gather themselves together, they hide 6 themselves, They mark my steps, Even as they have waited for my soul. Shall they escape by iniquity? In anger cast down the 7 peoples, O God. Thou numberest my wanderings: Put thou 8 my tears into thy bottle; Are they not in thy book? Then shall 9 mine enemies turn back in the day that I call: This I know, that God is for me. In God (I will praise his word), In Jehovah (I 10 will praise his word), In God have I put my trust, I will not 11 be afraid; What can man do unto me? Thy vows are upon me, 12 O God: I will render thank-offerings unto thee. For thou hast 13 delivered my soul from death: Hast thou not delivered my feet from falling, That I may walk before God In the light of the living?

Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me; For my soul 57 taketh refuge in thee: Yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I take refuge, Until these calamities be overpast. I will cry unto God 2 Most High, Unto God that performeth all things for me. He 3 will send from heaven, and save me, When he that would swallow me up reproacheth; Selah God will send forth his lovingkindness and his truth. My soul is among lions; I lie among them that 4 are set on fire, Even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, And their tongue a sharp sword. Be thou exalted, O 5 God, above the heavens; Let thy glory be above all the earth.
 They have prepared a net for my steps; My soul is bowed down: 6 They have digged a pit before me; They are fallen into the midst thereof themselves. Selah My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is 7 fixed: I will sing, yea, I will sing praises. Awake up, my glory; 8 Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake right early. I will 9 give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the peoples: I will sing praises unto thee among the nations. For thy lovingkindness is 10 great unto the heavens, And thy truth unto the skies. Be thou 11 exalted, O God, above the heavens; Let thy glory be above all the earth.

Do ye indeed in silence speak righteousness? Do ye judge 58 uprightly, O ye sons of men? Nay, in heart ye work wickedness; 2 Ye weigh out the violence of your hands in the earth. The 3 wicked are estranged from the womb: They go astray as soon as they are born, speaking lies. Their poison is like the poison of 4 a serpent: They are like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ear, 5 Which hearkeneth not to the voice of charmers, Charming never 6 so wisely. Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: Break out 7 the great teeth of the young lions, O Jehovah. Let them melt away as water that runneth apace: When he aimeth his arrows, 8 let them be as though they were cut off. Let them be as a snail which melteth and passeth away, Like the untimely birth of a 9 woman, that hath not seen the sun. Before your pots can feel the thorns, He will take them away with a whirlwind, the green 10 and the burning alike. The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked; 11 So that men shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: Verily there is a God that judgeth in the earth.

59 Deliver me from mine enemies, O my God: Set me on high 2 from them that rise up against me. Deliver me from the work-3 ers of iniquity, And save me from the bloodthirsty men. For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul; The mighty gather themselves together against me: Not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O 4 Jehovah. They run and prepare themselves without my fault: 5 Awake thou to help me, and behold. Even thou, O Jehovah God of hosts, the God of Israel, Arise to visit all the nations: 6 Be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah They return at evening, they howl like a dog, And go round about the 7 city. Behold, they belch out with their mouth; Swords are in 8 their lips: For who, say they, doth hear? But thou, O Jehovah, wilt laugh at them; Thou wilt have all the nations in derision.
9 Because of his strength I will give heed unto thee; For God is 10 my high tower. My God with his lovingkindness will meet me: 11 God will let me see my desire upon mine enemies. Slay them not, lest my people forget: Scatter them by thy power, and bring 12 them down, O Lord our shield. For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips, Let them even be taken in their pride, 13 And for cursing and lying which they speak. Consume them in wrath, consume them, so that they shall be no more: And let them know that God ruleth in Jacob, Unto the ends of the earth.
14 Selah And at evening let them return, let them howl like a dog, 15 And go round about the city. They shall wander up and down 16 for food, And tarry all night if they be not satisfied. But I will sing of thy strength; Yea, I will sing aloud of thy lovingkindness in the morning: For thou hast been my high tower, And a refuge in the day of my distress. Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing 17 praises: For God is my high tower, the God of my mercy.

O God thou hast cast us off, thou hast broken us down; Thou 60 hast been angry; oh restore us again. Thou hast made the land 2 to tremble; thou hast rent it: Heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh. Thou hast showed thy people hard things: Thou hast 3 made us to drink the wine of staggering. Thou hast given a 4 banner to them that fear thee, That it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah That thy beloved may be delivered, 5 Save with thy right hand, and answer us. God hath spoken in 6 his holiness: I will exult; I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth. Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; 7 Ephraim also is the defence of my head; Judah is my sceptre.
Moab is my washpot; Upon Edom will I cast my shoe: Philistia, 8 shout thou because of me. Who will bring me into the strong 9 city? Who hath led me unto Edom? Hast not thou, O God, 10 cast us off? And thou goest not forth, O God, with our hosts.
Give us help against the adversary; For vain is the help of man. 11 Through God we shall do valiantly; For he it is that will tread 12 down our adversaries.

Hear my cry, O God; Attend unto my prayer. From the end 61, 2 of the earth will I call unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: Lead me to the rock that is higher than I. For thou hast been 3 a refuge for me, A strong tower from the enemy. I will dwell 4 in thy tabernacle for ever: I will take refuge in the covert of thy wings. Selah For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: Thou hast 5 given me the heritage of those that fear thy name. Thou wilt 6 prolong the king's life; His years shall be as many generations.
He shall abide before God for ever: Oh prepare lovingkindness 7 and truth, that they may preserve him. So will I sing praise 8 unto thy name for ever, That I may daily perform my vows.

My soul waiteth in silence for God only: From him cometh 62 my salvation. He only is my rock and my salvation: He is my 2 high tower; I shall not be greatly moved. How long will ye set 3 upon a man, That ye may slay him, all of you, Like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence? They only consult to thrust him 4 down from his dignity; They delight in lies; They bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Selah My soul, wait thou in 5 6 silence for God only; For my expectation is from him. He only is my rock and my salvation: He is my high tower; I shall not 7 be moved. With God is my salvation and my glory: The rock 8 of my strength, and my refuge, is in God. Trust in him at all times, ye people; Pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge 9 for us. Selah Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: In the balances they will go up; They 10 are together lighter than vanity. Trust not in oppression, And become not vain in robbery: If riches increase, set not your heart 11 thereon. God hath spoken once, Twice have I heard this, That 12 power belongeth unto God. Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth lovingkindness; For thou renderest to every man according to his work.

63 O God, thou art my God; earnestly will I seek thee: My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee, In a dry and 2 weary land, where no water is. So have I looked upon thee in 3 the sanctuary, To see thy power and thy glory. Because thy 4 lovingkindness is better than life, My lips shall praise thee. So will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.
5 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; And my 6 mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips; When I remember thee 7 upon my bed, And meditate on thee in the night-watches. For thou hast been my help, And in the shadow of thy wings will 8 I rejoice. My soul followeth hard after thee: Thy right hand 9 upholdeth me. But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, Shall 10 go into the lower parts of the earth. They shall be given over to the power of the sword: They shall be a portion for foxes.
11 But the king shall rejoice in God: Every one that sweareth by him shall glory; For the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

64 Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint: Preserve my life 2 from fear of the enemy. Hide me from the secret counsel of evil-3 doers, From the tumult of the workers of iniquity; Who have whet their tongue like a sword, And have aimed their arrows, 4 even bitter words, That they may shoot in secret places at the 5 perfect: Suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not. They encourage themselves in an evil purpose; They commune of lay-6 ing snares privily; They say, Who will see them? They search out iniquities; We have accomplished, say they, a diligent search:

And the inward thought and the heart of every one is deep. But 7 God will shoot at them; With an arrow suddenly shall they be wounded. So they shall be made to stumble, their own tongue 8 being against them: All that see them shall wag the head. And 9 all men shall fear; And they shall declare the work of God, And shall wisely consider of his doing. The righteous shall be glad 10 in Jehovah, and shall take refuge in him; And all the upright in heart shall glory.

Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion; And unto thee shall 65 the vow be performed. O thou that hearest prayer, Unto thee 2 shall all flesh come. Iniquities prevail against me: As for our 3 transgressions, thou wilt forgive them. Blessed is the man 4 whom thou chooseth, and causeth to approach unto thee, That he may dwell in thy courts: We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, Thy holy temple. By terrible things thou wilt 5 answer us in righteousness, Oh God of our salvation, Thou that art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, And of them that are afar off upon the sea: Who by his strength setteth fast the 6 mountains, Being girded about with might; Who stilleth the 7 roaring of the seas, The roaring of their waves, And the tumult of the peoples. They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are 8 afraid at thy tokens: Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice. Thou visitest the earth, and waterest 9 it, Thou greatly enrichest it; The river of God is full of water: Thou providest them grain, when thou hast so prepared the earth. Thou waterest its furrows abundantly; Thou settlest the 10 ridges thereof: Thou makest it soft with showers; Thou blessest the springing thereof. Thou crownest the year with thy good- 11 ness; And thy paths drop fatness. They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness; And the hills are girded with joy. The pas- 12 tures are clothed with flocks; The valleys also are covered over with grain; They shout for joy, they also sing. 13

Make a joyful noise unto God, all the earth: Sing forth the 66, 2 glory of his name: Make his praise glorious. Say unto God, How 3 terrible are thy works! Through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee. All the earth shall 4 worship thee, And shall sing unto thee; They shall sing to thy name. Selah Come, and see the works of God; He is terrible in 5 his doing toward the children of men. He turned the sea into 6 dry land; They went through the river on foot: There did we 7 rejoice in him. He ruleth by his might for ever; His eyes observe 8 the nations: Let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah Oh bless our God, ye peoples, And make the voice of his praise to 9 be heard; Who holdeth our soul in life, And suffereth not our 10 feet to be moved. For thou, O God, hast proved us: Thou hast 11 tried us, as silver is tried. Thou broughtest us into the net; 12 Thou layedst a sore burden upon our loins. Thou didst cause men to ride over our heads; We went through fire and through 13 water; But thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place. I will come into thy house with burnt-offerings; I will pay thee my 14 vows, Which my lips uttered, And my mouth spake, when I 15 was in distress. I will offer unto thee burnt-offerings of fatlings, With the incense of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats. Selah 16 Come, and hear, all ye that fear God, And I will declare what 17 he hath done for my soul. I cried unto him with my mouth, 18 And he was extolled with my tongue. If I regard iniquity in my 19 heart, The Lord will not hear: But verily God hath heard; He 20 hath attended to the voice of my prayer. Blessed be God, Who hath not turned away my prayer, Nor his lovingkindness from me.

67 God be merciful unto us, and bless us, And cause his face to 2 shine upon us; Selah That thy way may be known upon earth, 3 Thy salvation among all nations. Let the peoples praise thee, O 4 God; Let all the peoples praise thee. Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy; For thou wilt judge the peoples with equity, And 5 govern the nations upon earth. Selah Let the peoples praise 6 thee, O God; Let all the peoples praise thee. The earth hath 7 yielded its increase: God, even our own God, will bless us. God will bless us; And all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

68 Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered; Let them also 2 that hate him flee before him. As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: As wax melteth before the fire, So let the wicked 3 perish at the presence of God. But let the righteous be glad; let them exult before God: Yea, let them rejoice with gladness.
4 Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: Cast up a highway for him that rideth through the deserts; His name is Jehovah; and 5 exult ye before him. A father of the fatherless, and a judge 6 of the widows, Is God in his holy habitation. God setteth the solitary in families: He bringeth out the prisoners into prosperity; But the rebellious dwell in a parched land. O God, when 7 thou wentest forth before thy people, When thou didst march through the wilderness; Selah The earth trembled, The heav- 8 ens also dropped rain at the presence of God: Yon Sinai trembled at the presence of God, the God of Israel. Thou, O God, didst 9 send a plentiful rain, Thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary. Thy congregation dwelt therein: Thou, O God, 10 didst prepare of thy goodness for the poor. The Lord giveth 11 the word: The women that publish the tidings are a great host.

Kings of armies flee, they flee; And she that tarrieth at home 12 divideth the spoil. When ye lie among the sheepfolds, It is as 13 the wings of a dove covered with silver, And her pinions with yellow gold. When the Almighty scattered kings therein, It was as 14 when it snoweth in Zalmon. A mountain of God is the mountain 15 of Bashan; A high mountain is the mountain of Bashan. Why 16 look ye askance, ye high mountains, At the mountain which God hath desired for his abode? Yea, Jehovah will dwell in it for ever.
The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands upon 17 thousands; The Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the sanctuary. Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led away captives; 18 Thou hast received gifts among men, Yea, among the rebellious also, that Jehovah God might dwell with them. Blessed be the 19 Lord, who daily beareth our burden, Even the God who is our salvation. Selah God is unto us a God of deliverances; And unto 20 Jehovah the Lord belongeth escape from death. But God will 21 smite through the head of his enemies, The hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on still in his guiltiness. The Lord said, I will 22 bring again from Bashan, I will bring them again from the depths of the sea; That thou mayest crush them, dipping thy foot in 23 blood, That the tongue of thy dogs may have its portion from thine enemies. They have seen thy goings, O God, Even the go- 24 ings of my God, my King, into the sanctuary. The singers went 25 before, the minstrels followed after, In the midst of the damsels playing with timbrels. Bless ye God in the congregations, Even 26 the Lord, ye that are of the fountain of Israel. There is little 27 Benjamin their ruler, The princes of Judah and their council, The princes of Zebulun, the princes of Naphtali. Thy God hath 28 commanded thy strength: Strengthen, O God, that which thou 29 hast wrought for us. Because of thy temple at Jerusalem Kings 30 shall bring presents unto thee. Rebuke the wild beast of the reeds, The multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the peoples, Trampling under foot the pieces of silver: He hath scattered the 31 peoples that delight in war. Princes shall come out of Egypt; 32 Ethiopia shall haste to stretch out her hands unto God. Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth; Oh sing praises unto the 33 Lord; Selah To him that rideth upon the heaven of heavens, 34 which are of old; Lo, he uttereth his voice, a mighty voice. Ascribe ye strength unto God: His excellency is over Israel, And 35 his strength is in the skies. O God, thou art terrible out of thy holy places: The God of Israel, he giveth strength and power unto his people. Blessed be God.

69 Save me, O God; For the waters are come in unto my soul.
2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into 3 deep waters, where the floods overflow me. I am weary with my crying; my throat is dried: Mine eyes fail while I wait for 4 my God. They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head: They that would cut me off, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: That which I took not away I 5 have to restore. O God, thou knowest my foolishness; And my 6 sins are not hid from thee. Let not them that wait for thee be put to shame through me, O Lord Jehovah of hosts: Let not those that seek thee be brought to dishonor through me, 7 O God of Israel. Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; 8 Shame hath covered my face. I am become a stranger unto 9 my brethren, And an alien unto my mother's children. For the zeal of thy house hath eaten me up; And the reproaches of 10 them that reproach thee are fallen upon me. When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, That was to my reproach.
11 When I made sackcloth my clothing, I became a byword unto 12 them. They that sit in the gate talk of me; And I am the song 13 of the drunkards. But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O Jehovah, in an acceptable time: O God, in the abundance of thy 14 lovingkindness, Answer me in the truth of thy salvation. Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: Let me be delivered 15 from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters. Let not the waterflood overwhelm me, Neither let the deep swallow me 16 up; And let not the pit shut its mouth upon me. Answer me, O Jehovah; for thy lovingkindness is good: According to the multitude of thy tender mercies turn thou unto me. And hide 17 not thy face from thy servant; For I am in distress; answer me speedily. Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: Ransom me 18 because of mine enemies. Thou knowest my reproach, and my 19 shame, and my dishonor: Mine adversaries are all before thee.

 Reproach hath broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness: 20 And I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; And for comforters, but I found none. They gave me also gall for my 21 food; And in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink. Let their 22 table before them become a snare; And when they are in peace, let it become a trap. Let their eyes be darkened, so that they 23 cannot see; And make their loins continually to shake. Pour 24 out thine indignation upon them, And let the fierceness of thine anger overtake them. Let their habitation be desolate; Let none 25 dwell in their tents. For they persecute him whom thou hast 26 smitten; And they tell of the sorrow of those whom thou hast wounded. Add iniquity unto their iniquity; And let them not 27 come into thy righteousness. Let them be blotted out of the 28 book of life, And not be written with the righteous. But I am 29 poor and sorrowful: Let thy salvation, O God, set me up on high.
 I will praise the name of God with a song, And will magnify him 30 with thanksgiving. And it will please Jehovah better than an 31 ox, Or a bullock that hath horns and hoofs. The meek have 32 seen it, and are glad: Ye that seek after God, let your heart live.
 For Jehovah heareth the needy, And despiseth not his prisoners. 33 Let heaven and earth praise him, The seas, and everything that 34 moveth therein. For God will save Zion, and build the cities 35 of Judah; And they shall abide there, and have it in possession.
 The seed also of his servants shall inherit it; And they that love 36 his name shall dwell therein.

Make haste, O God, to deliver me; Make haste to help me, 70 O Jehovah. Let them be put to shame and confounded That 2 seek after my soul: Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor That delight in my hurt. Let them be turned back 3 by reason of their shame That say, Aha, aha. Let all those that 4 seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee; And let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified. But I am poor 5 and needy; Make haste unto me, O God: Thou art my help and my deliverer; O Jehovah, make no tarrying.

71 In thee, O Jehovah, do I take refuge: Let me never be put to 2 shame. Deliver me in thy righteousness, and rescue me: Bow 3 down thine ear unto me, and save me. Be thou to me a rock of habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: Thou hast given commandment to save me; For thou art my rock and my 4 fortress. Rescue me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, 5 Out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man. For thou art my hope, O Lord Jehovah: Thou art my trust from my youth.
6 By thee have I been holden up from the womb; Thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels: My praise shall be 7 continually of thee. I am as a wonder unto many; But thou 8 art my strong refuge. My mouth shall be filled with thy praise, 9 And with thy honor all the day. Cast me not off in the time 10 of old age; Forsake me not when my strength faileth. For mine enemies speak concerning me; And they that watch for my soul 11 take counsel together, Saying, God hath forsaken him: Pursue 12 and take him; For there is none to deliver. O God, be not far 13 from me; O my God, make haste to help me. Let them be put to shame and consumed that are adversaries to my soul; Let them be covered with reproach and dishonor that seek my hurt.
14 But I will hope continually, And will praise thee yet more and 15 more. My mouth shall tell of thy righteousness, And of thy 16 salvation all the day; For I know not the numbers thereof. I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord Jehovah: I will make 17 mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only. O God, thou hast taught me from my youth; And hitherto have I declared thy 18 wondrous works. Yea, even when I am old and grayheaded, O God, forsake me not, Until I have declared thy strength unto the 19 next generation, Thy might to every one that is to come. Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high; Thou who hast done 20 great things, O God, who is like unto thee? Thou, who hast showed us many and sore troubles, Wilt quicken us again, And 21 wilt bring us up again from the depths of the earth. Increase 22 thou my greatness, And turn again and comfort me. I will also praise thee with the psaltery, Even thy truth, O my God: Unto thee will I sing praises with the harp, O thou Holy One of Israel.
23 My lips shall shout for joy when I sing praises unto thee; And 24 my soul, which thou hast redeemed. My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long; For they are put to shame, for they are confounded, that seek my hurt.

Give the king thy judgments, O God, And thy righteousness 72 unto the king's son. He will judge thy people with righteousness, 2 And thy poor with justice. The mountains shall bring peace 3 to the people, And the hills, in righteousness. He will judge 4 the poor of the people, He will save the children of the needy, And will break in pieces the oppressor. They shall fear thee 5 while the sun endureth, And so long as the moon, throughout all generations. He will come down like rain upon the mown 6 grass, As showers that water the earth. In his days shall the 7 righteous flourish, And abundance of peace, till the moon be no more. He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, And from 8 the River unto the ends of the earth. They that dwell in the 9 wilderness shall bow before him; And his enemies shall lick the dust. The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall render tribute: 10 The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts. Yea, all kings 11 shall fall down before him; All nations shall serve him. For he 12 will deliver the needy when he crieth, And the poor, that hath no helper. He will have pity on the poor and needy, And the 13 souls of the needy he will save. He will redeem their soul from 14 oppression and violence; And precious will their blood be in his sight: And they shall live; and to him shall be given of the gold 15 of Sheba: And men shall pray for him continually; They shall bless him all the day long. There shall be abundance of grain in 16 the earth upon the top of the mountains; The fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: And they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth. His name shall endure for ever; His name shall be 17 continued as long as the sun: And men shall be blessed in him; All nations shall call him happy. Blessed be Jehovah God, the 18 God of Israel, Who only doeth wondrous things: And blessed 19 be his glorious name for ever; And let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen, and Amen. The prayers of David the son 20 of Jesse are ended.

Surely God is good to Israel, Even to such as are pure in heart. 73
 But as for me, my feet were almost gone; My steps had well nigh 2 slipped. For I was envious at the arrogant, When I saw the 3 prosperity of the wicked. For there are no pangs in their death; 4 But their strength is firm. They are not in trouble as other men; 5 6 Neither are they plagued like other men. Therefore pride is as a chain about their neck; Violence covereth them as a garment.

7 Their eyes stand out with fatness: They have more than heart 8 could wish. They scoff, and in wickedness utter oppression: 9 They speak loftily. They have set their mouth in the heavens, 10 And their tongue walketh through the earth. Therefore his people return hither: And waters of a full cup are drained by them.
11 And they say, How doth God know? And is there knowledge in 12 the Most High? Behold, these are the wicked; And, being alway 13 at ease, they increase in riches. Surely in vain have I cleansed 14 my heart, And washed my hands in innocency; For all the day 15 long have I been plagued, And chastened every morning. If I had said, I will speak thus; Behold, I had dealt treacherously 16 with the generation of thy children. When I thought how I 17 might know this, It was too painful for me; Until I went into 18 the sanctuary of God, And considered their latter end. Surely thou settest them in slippery places: Thou castest them down to 19 destruction. How are they become a desolation in a moment!
20 They are utterly consumed with terrors. As a dream when one awaketh, So, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou wilt despise 21 their image. For my soul was grieved, And I was pricked in 22 my heart: So brutish was I, and ignorant; I was as a beast be-23 fore thee. Nevertheless I am continually with thee: Thou hast 24 holden my right hand. Thou wilt guide me with thy counsel, 25 And afterward receive me to glory. Whom have I in heaven but thee? And there is none upon earth that I desire besides thee.
26 My flesh and my heart faileth; But God is the strength of my 27 heart and my portion for ever. For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish: Thou hast destroyed all them that play the 28 harlot, departing from thee. But it is good for me to draw near unto God: I have made the Lord Jehovah my refuge, That I may tell of all thy works.

74 O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever? Why doth thine 2 anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture? Remember thy congregation, which thou hast gotten of old, Which thou hast redeemed to be the tribe of thine inheritance; And mount Zion, 3 wherein thou hast dwelt. Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual ruins, All the evil that the enemy hath done in the sanctuary.
4 Thine adversaries have roared in the midst of thine assembly;

They have set up their ensigns for signs. They seemed as men 5 that lifted up Axes upon a thicket of trees. And now all the 6 carved work thereof They break down with hatchet and hammers. They have set thy sanctuary on fire; They have profaned 7 the dwelling-place of thy name by casting it to the ground. They 8 said in their heart, Let us make havoc of them altogether: They have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land. We see 9 not our signs: There is no more any prophet; Neither is there among us any that knoweth how long. How long, O God, shall 10 the adversary reproach? Shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever? Why drawest thou back thy hand, even thy right 11 hand? Pluck it out of thy bosom and consume them. Yet God 12 is my King of old, Working salvation in the midst of the earth.
 Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: Thou brakest the 13 heads of the sea-monsters in the waters. Thou brakest the heads 14 of leviathan in pieces; Thou gavest him to be food to the people inhabiting the wilderness. Thou didst cleave fountain and flood: 15 Thou driedst up mighty rivers. The day is thine, the night also 16 is thine: Thou hast prepared the light and the sun. Thou hast 17 set all the borders of the earth: Thou hast made summer and winter. Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O 18 Jehovah, And that a foolish people hath blasphemed thy name.
 Oh deliver not the soul of thy turtle-dove unto the wild beast: 19 Forget not the life of thy poor for ever. Have respect unto the 20 covenant; For the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of violence. Oh let not the oppressed return ashamed: 21 Let the poor and needy praise thy name. Arise, O God, plead 22 thine own cause: Remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee all the day. Forget not the voice of thine adversaries: The 23 tumult of those that rise up against thee ascendeth continually.

We give thanks unto thee, O God; We give thanks, for thy 75 name is near: Men tell of thy wondrous works. When I shall 2 find the set time, I will judge uprightly. The earth and all the 3 inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I have set up the pillars of it.
Selah I said unto the arrogant, Deal not arrogantly; And to the 4 wicked, Lift not up the horn: Lift not up your horn on high; 5 Speak not with a stiff neck. For neither from the east, nor from 6 the west, Nor yet from the south, cometh lifting up. But God 7 is the judge: He putteth down one, and lifteth up another. For 8 in the hand of Jehovah there is a cup, and the wine foameth; It is full of mixture, and he poureth out of the same: Surely the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall drain them, and 9 drink them. But I will declare for ever, I will sing praises to the 10 God of Jacob. All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off; But the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

76, 2 In Judah is God known: His name is great in Israel. In Salem 3 also is his tabernacle, And his dwelling-place in Zion. There he brake the arrows of the bow; The shield, and the sword, and 4 the battle. Selah Glorious art thou and excellent, From the 5 mountains of prey. The stouthearted are made a spoil, They have slept their sleep; And none of the men of might have found 6 their hands. At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, Both chariot and 7 horse are cast into a deep sleep. Thou, even thou, art to be feared; And who may stand in thy sight when once thou art 8 angry? Thou didst cause sentence to be heard from heaven; 9 The earth feared, and was still, When God arose to judgment, 10 To save all the meek of the earth. Selah Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: The residue of wrath shalt thou gird upon thee.
11 Vow, and pay unto Jehovah your God: Let all that are round 12 about him bring presents unto him that ought to be feared. He will cut off the spirit of princes: He is terrible to the kings of the earth.

77 I will cry unto God with my voice, Even unto God with my 2 voice; and he will give ear unto me. In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: My hand was stretched out in the night, and 3 slacked not; My soul refused to be comforted. I remember God, and am disquieted: I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed.
4 Selah Thou holdest mine eyes watching: I am so troubled that 5 I cannot speak. I have considered the days of old, The years of 6 ancient times. I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with mine own heart; And my spirit maketh diligent 7 search. Will the Lord cast off for ever? And will he be favorable 8 no more? Is his lovingkindness clean gone for ever? Doth his 9 promise fail for evermore? Hath God forgotten to be gracious?
10 Hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah And I said, This is my infirmity; But I will remember the years of the 11 right hand of the Most High. I will make mention of the deeds 12 of Jehovah; For I will remember thy wonders of old. I will meditate also upon all thy work, And muse on thy doings. Thy 13 way, O God, is in the sanctuary: Who is a great god like unto God? Thou art the God that doest wonders: Thou hast made 14 known thy strength among the peoples. Thou hast with thine 15 arm redeemed thy people, The sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah The waters saw thee, O God; The waters saw thee, they were 16 afraid: The depths also trembled. The clouds poured out water; 17 The skies sent out a sound: Thine arrows also went abroad.

 The voice of thy thunder was in the whirlwind; The lightnings 18 lightened the world: The earth trembled and shook. Thy way 19 was in the sea, And thy paths in the great waters, And thy footsteps were not known. Thou leddest thy people like a flock, 20 By the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Give ear, O my people, to my law: Incline your ears to the 78 words of my mouth. I will open my mouth in a parable; I will 2 utter dark sayings of old, Which we have heard and known, 3 And our fathers have told us. We will not hide them from 4 their children, Telling to the generation to come the praises of Jehovah, And his strength, and his wondrous works that he hath done. For he established a testimony in Jacob, And appointed 5 a law in Israel, Which he commanded our fathers, That they should make them known to their children; That the generation 6 to come might know them, even the children that should be born; Who should arise and tell them to their children, That 7 they might set their hope in God, And not forget the works of God, But keep his commandments, And might not be as their 8 fathers, A stubborn and rebellious generation, A generation that set not their heart aright, And whose spirit was not steadfast with God. The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying 9 bows, Turned back in the day of battle. They kept not the 10 covenant of God, And refused to walk in his law; And they 11 forgot his doings, And his wondrous works that he had showed them. Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers, In 12 the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan. He clave the sea, and 13 caused them to pass through; And he made the waters to stand as a heap. In the day-time also he led them with a cloud, And all 14 the night with a light of fire. He clave rocks in the wilderness, 15 And gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths. He 16 brought streams also out of the rock, And caused waters to run 17 down like rivers. Yet went they on still to sin against him, To 18 rebel against the Most High in the desert. And they tempted 19 God in their heart By asking food according to their desire. Yea, they spake against God; They said, Can God prepare a table 20 in the wilderness? Behold, he smote the rock, so that waters gushed out, And streams overflowed; Can he give bread also?

21 Will he provide flesh for his people? Therefore Jehovah heard, and was wroth; And a fire was kindled against Jacob, And anger 22 also went up against Israel; Because they believed not in God, 23 And trusted not in his salvation. Yet he commanded the skies 24 above, And opened the doors of heaven; And he rained down manna upon them to eat, And gave them food from heaven.
25 Man did eat the bread of the mighty: He sent them food to 26 the full. He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens; And 27 by his power he guided the south wind. He rained flesh also upon them as the dust, And winged birds as the sand of the 28 seas: And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, Round about 29 their habitations. So they did eat, and were well filled; And 30 he gave them their own desire. They were not estranged from that which they desired, Their food was yet in their mouths, 31 When the anger of God went up against them, And slew of the fattest of them, And smote down the young men of Israel.
32 For all this they sinned still, And believed not in his wondrous 33 works. Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, And 34 their years in terror. When he slew them, then they inquired 35 after him; And they returned and sought God earnestly. And they remembered that God was their rock, And the Most High 36 God their redeemer. But they flattered him with their mouth, 37 And lied unto him with their tongue. For their heart was not 38 right with him, Neither were they faithful in his covenant. But he, being merciful, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: Yea, many a time turned he his anger away, And did not 39 stir up all his wrath. And he remembered that they were but 40 flesh, A wind that passeth away, and cometh not again. How oft did they rebel against him in the wilderness, And grieve him 41 in the desert! And they turned again and tempted God, And 42 provoked the Holy One of Israel. They remember not his hand, 43 Nor the day when he redeemed them from the adversary; How he set his signs in Egypt, And his wonders in the field of Zoan,

And turned their rivers into blood, And their streams, so that 44 they could not drink. He sent among them swarms of flies, 45 which devoured them; And frogs, which destroyed them. He 46 gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, And their labor 47 unto the locust. He destroyed their vines with hail, And their 48 sycamore-trees with frost. He gave over their cattle also to 49 the hail, And their flocks to hot thunderbolts. He cast upon 50 them the fierceness of his anger, Wrath, and indignation, and 51 trouble, A band of angels of evil. He made a path for his anger; 52 He spared not their soul from death, But gave their life over 53 to the pestilence, And smote all the first-born in Egypt, The 54 chief of their strength in the tents of Ham. But he led forth his 55 own people like sheep, And guided them in the wilderness like a 56 flock. And he led them safely, so that they feared not; But the 57 sea overwhelmed their enemies. And he brought them to the 58 border of his sanctuary, To this mountain, which his right hand 59 had gotten. He drove out the nations also before them, And 60 allotted them for an inheritance by line, And made the tribes 61 of Israel to dwell in their tents. Yet they tempted and rebelled 62 against the Most High God, And kept not his testimonies; But 63 turned back, and dealt treacherously like their fathers: They 64 were turned aside like a deceitful bow. For they provoked him 65 to anger with their high places, And moved him to jealousy with 66 their graven images. When God heard this, he was wroth, And 67 greatly abhorred Israel; So that he forsook the tabernacle of 68 Shiloh, The tent which he placed among men; And delivered 69 his strength into captivity, And his glory into the adversary's 70 hand. He gave his people over also unto the sword, And was 71 wroth with his inheritance. Fire devoured their young men; And their virgins had no marriage-song. Their priests fell by the sword; And their widows made no lamentation. Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep, Like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine. And he smote his adversaries backward: He put them to a perpetual reproach. Moreover he refused the tent of Joseph, And chose not the tribe of Ephraim, But chose the tribe of Judah, The mount Zion which he loved. And he built his sanctuary like the heights, Like the earth which he hath established for ever. He chose David also his servant, And took him from the sheepfolds: From following the ewes that have their young he brought him, To be the shepherd of Jacob his 72 people, and Israel his inheritance. So he was their shepherd according to the integrity of his heart, And guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

79 O God, the nations are come into thine inheritance; Thy holy temple have they defiled; They have laid Jerusalem in heaps.
2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be food unto the birds of the heavens, The flesh of thy saints unto the beasts 3 of the earth. Their blood have they shed like water round about 4 Jerusalem; And there was none to bury them. We are become a reproach to our neighbors, A scoffing and derision to them 5 that are round about us. How long, O Jehovah? wilt thou 6 be angry for ever? Shall thy jealousy burn like fire? Pour out thy wrath upon the nations that know thee not, And upon the 7 kingdoms that call not upon thy name. For they have devoured 8 Jacob, And laid waste his habitation. Remember not against us the iniquities of our forefathers: Let thy tender mercies speedily 9 meet us; For we are brought very low. Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name; And deliver us, and forgive 10 our sins, for thy name's sake. Wherefore should the nations say, Where is their God? Let the avenging of the blood of thy servants 11 which is shed Be known among the nations in our sight. Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee: According to the greatness of thy power preserve thou those that are appointed 12 to death; And render unto our neighbors sevenfold into their bosom Their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O 13 Lord. So we thy people and sheep of thy pasture Will give thee thanks for ever: We will show forth thy praise to all generations.

80 Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, Thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; Thou that sittest above the cherubim, shine forth.
2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up thy might, 3 And come to save us. Turn us again, O God; And cause thy 4 face to shine, and we shall be saved. O Jehovah God of hosts, How long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?
5 Thou hast fed them with the bread of tears, And given them 6 tears to drink in large measure. Thou makest us a strife unto 7 our neighbors; And our enemies laugh among themselves. Turn us again, O God of hosts; And cause thy face to shine, and we 8 shall be saved. Thou broughtest a vine out of Egypt: Thou didst drive out the nations, and plantedst it. Thou preparedst 9 room before it, And it took deep root, and filled the land. The 10 mountains were covered with the shadow of it, And the boughs thereof were like cedars of God. It sent out its branches unto 11 the sea, And its shoots unto the River. Why hast thou broken 12 down its walls, So that all they that pass by the way do pluck it?

The boar out of the wood doth ravage it, And the wild beasts 13 of the field feed on it. Turn again, we beseech thee, O God of 14 hosts: Look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine, And the stock which thy right hand planted, And the branch 15 that thou madest strong for thyself. It is burned with fire, it is 16 cut down: They perish at the rebuke of thy countenance. Let 17 thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, Upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself. So shall we not 18 go back from thee: Quicken thou us, and we will call upon thy name. Turn us again, O Jehovah God of hosts; Cause thy face 19 to shine, and we shall be saved.

Sing aloud unto God our strength: Make a joyful noise unto 81 the God of Jacob. Raise a song, and bring hither the tim- 2 brel, The pleasant harp with the psaltery. Blow the trumpet 3 at the new moon, At the full moon, on our feast-day. For it 4 is a statute for Israel, An ordinance of the God of Jacob. He 5 appointed it in Joseph for a testimony, When he went out over the land of Egypt, Where I heard a language that I knew not.
I removed his shoulder from the burden: His hands were freed 6 from the basket. Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee; 7 I answered thee in the secret place of thunder; I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. Selah Hear, O my people, and I will 8 testify unto thee: O Israel, if thou wouldest hearken unto me!
There shall no strange god be in thee; Neither shalt thou wor- 9 ship any foreign god. I am Jehovah thy God, Who brought thee 10 up out of the land of Egypt: Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it. But my people hearkened not to my voice; And Israel 11 would none of me. So I let them go after the stubbornness of 12 their heart, That they might walk in their own counsels. Oh 13 that my people would hearken unto me, That Israel would walk in my ways! I would soon subdue their enemies, And turn my 14 hand against their adversaries. The haters of Jehovah should 15 submit themselves unto him: But their time should endure for 16 ever. He would feed them also with the finest of the wheat; And with honey out of the rock would I satisfy thee.

82 God standeth in the congregation of God; He judgeth among 2 the gods. How long will ye judge unjustly, And respect the 3 persons of the wicked? Selah Judge the poor and fatherless: 4 Do justice to the afflicted and destitute. Rescue the poor and 5 needy: Deliver them out of the hand of the wicked. They know not, neither do they understand; They walk to and fro in dark-6 ness: All the foundations of the earth are shaken. I said, Ye 7 are gods, And all of you sons of the Most High. Nevertheless 8 ye shall die like men, And fall like one of the princes. Arise, O God, judge the earth; For thou shalt inherit all the nations.

83 O God, keep not thou silence: Hold not thy peace, and be 2 not still, O God. For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult; And 3 they that hate thee have lifted up the head. Thy take crafty counsel against thy people, And consult together against thy 4 hidden ones. They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; That the name of Israel may be no more 5 in remembrance. For they have consulted together with one 6 consent; Against thee do they make a covenant: The tents of 7 Edom and the Ishmaelites; Moab, and the Hagarenes; Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre: 8 Assyria also is joined with them; They have helped the children 9 of Lot. Selah Do thou unto them as unto Midian, As to Sisera, 10 as to Jabin, at the river Kishon; Who perished at Endor, Who 11 became as dung for the earth. Make their nobles like Oreb 12 and Zeeb; Yea, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna; Who said, Let us take to ourselves in possession The habitations of 13 God. O my God, make them like the whirling dust; As stubble 14 before the wind. As the fire that burneth the forest, And as the 15 flame that setteth the mountains on fire, So pursue them with 16 thy tempest, And terrify them with thy storm. Fill their faces 17 with confusion, That they may seek thy name, O Jehovah. Let them be put to shame and dismayed for ever; Yea, let them be 18 confounded and perish; That they may know that thou alone, whose name is Jehovah, Art the Most High over all the earth.

84, 2 How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Jehovah of hosts! My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of Jehovah; My 3 heart and my flesh cry out unto the living God. Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house, And the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, Even thine altars, O Jehovah of hosts, My King, and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in 4 thy house: They will be still praising thee. Selah Blessed is the 5 man whose strength is in thee; In whose heart are the highways to Zion. Passing through the valley of Weeping they make it a 6 place of springs; Yea, the early rain covereth it with blessings.

 They go from strength to strength; Every one of them appeareth 7 before God in Zion. O Jehovah God of hosts, hear my prayer; 8 Give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah Behold, O God our shield, 9 And look upon the face of thine anointed. For a day in thy 10 courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, Than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.
 For Jehovah God is a sun and a shield: Jehovah will give grace 11 and glory; No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly. O Jehovah of hosts, Blessed is the man that trusteth 12 in thee.

Jehovah, thou hast been favorable unto thy land; Thou hast 85 brought back the captivity of Jacob. Thou hast forgiven the 2 iniquity of thy people; Thou hast covered all their sin. Selah Thou hast taken away all thy wrath; Thou hast turned thyself 3 from the fierceness of thine anger. Turn us, O God of our 4 salvation, And cause thine indignation toward us to cease. Wilt 5 thou be angry with us for ever? Wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations? Wilt thou not quicken us again, That thy 6 people may rejoice in thee? Show us thy lovingkindness, O 7 Jehovah, And grant us thy salvation. I will hear what God 8 Jehovah will speak; For he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: But let them not turn again to folly. Surely his 9 salvation is nigh them that fear him, That glory may dwell in our land. Mercy and truth are met together; Righteousness 10 and peace have kissed each other. Truth springeth out of the 11 earth; And righteousness hath looked down from heaven. Yea, 12 Jehovah will give that which is good; And our land shall yield its increase. Righteousness shall go before him, And shall make 13 his footsteps a way to walk in.

Bow down thine ear, O Jehovah, and answer me; For I am 86 poor and needy. Preserve my soul; For I am godly: O thou my 2 God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee. Be merciful unto 3 4 me, O Lord; For unto thee do I cry all the day long. Rejoice the soul of thy servant; For unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

5 For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive, And abundant 6 in lovingkindness unto all them that call upon thee. Give ear, O Jehovah, unto my prayer; And hearken unto the voice of my 7 supplications. In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee; For 8 thou wilt answer me. There is none like unto thee among the gods, O Lord; Neither are there any works like unto thy works.
9 All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before 10 thee, O Lord; And they shall glorify thy name. For thou art 11 great, and doest wondrous things: Thou art God alone. Teach me thy way, O Jehovah; I will walk in thy truth: Unite my heart 12 to fear thy name. I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with 13 my whole heart; And I will glorify thy name for evermore. For great is thy lovingkindness toward me; And thou hast delivered 14 my soul from the lowest Sheol. O God, the proud are risen up against me, And a company of violent men have sought after my 15 soul, And have not set thee before them. But thou, O Lord, art a God merciful and gracious, Slow to anger, and abundant 16 in lovingkindness and truth. Oh turn unto me, and have mercy upon me; Give thy strength unto thy servant, And save the son 17 of thy handmaid. Show me a token for good, That they who hate me may see it, and be put to shame, Because thou, Jehovah, hast helped me, and comforted me.

87, 2 His foundation is in the holy mountains. Jehovah loveth the 3 gates of Zion More than all the dwellings of Jacob. Glorious 4 things are spoken of thee, O city of God. Selah I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon as among them that know me: Behold, Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia: This one was born 5 there. Yea, of Zion it shall be said, This one and that one was born in her; And the Most High himself will establish her.
6 Jehovah will count, when he writeth up the peoples, This one 7 was born there. Selah They that sing as well as they that dance shall say, All my fountains are in thee.

88 O Jehovah, the God of my salvation, I have cried day and 2 night before thee. Let my prayer enter into thy presence; Incline 3 thine ear unto my cry. For my soul is full of troubles, And my 4 life draweth nigh unto Sheol. I am reckoned with them that 5 go down into the pit; I am as a man that hath no help, Cast off among the dead, Like the slain that lie in the grave, Whom thou rememberest no more, And they are cut off from thy hand.

 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, In dark places, in the deeps. 6 Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, And thou hast afflicted me with 7 all thy waves. Selah Thou hast put mine acquaintance far from 8 me; Thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth. Mine eye wasteth away by reason 9 of affliction: I have called daily upon thee, O Jehovah; I have spread forth my hands unto thee. Wilt thou show wonders to 10 the dead? Shall they that are deceased arise and praise thee?
Selah Shall thy lovingkindness be declared in the grave? Or thy 11 faithfulness in Destruction? Shall thy wonders be known in the 12 dark? And thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness? But 13 unto thee, O Jehovah, have I cried; And in the morning shall my prayer come before thee. Jehovah, why castest thou off my 14 soul? Why hidest thou thy face from me? I am afflicted and 15 ready to die from my youth up: While I suffer thy terrors I am distracted. Thy fierce wrath is gone over me; Thy terrors have 16 cut me off. They came round about me like water all the day 17 long; They compassed me about together. Lover and friend hast 18 thou put far from me, And mine acquaintance into darkness.

I will sing of the lovingkindness of Jehovah for ever: With 89 my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.
 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever; Thy faithful- 2 ness wilt thou establish in the very heavens. I have made a 3 covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant: Thy seed will I establish for ever, And build up thy throne to 4 all generations. Selah And the heavens shall praise thy won- 5 ders, O Jehovah; Thy faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones. For who in the skies can be compared unto Jeho- 6 vah? Who among the sons of the mighty is like unto Jehovah, A God very terrible in the council of the holy ones, And to be 7 feared above all them that are round about him? O Jehovah 8 God of hosts, Who is a mighty one, like unto thee, O Jehovah? And thy faithfulness is round about thee. Thou rulest 9 the pride of the sea: When the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them. Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; 10 Thou hast scattered thine enemies with the arm of thy strength.
 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: The world and 11 12 the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them. The north and the south, thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon rejoice 13 in thy name. Thou hast a mighty arm; Strong is thy hand, and 14 high is thy right hand. Righteousness and justice are the foundation of thy throne: Lovingkindness and truth go before thy 15 face. Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: They 16 walk, O Jehovah, in the light of thy countenance. In thy name do they rejoice all the day; And in thy righteousness are they 17 exalted. For thou art the glory of their strength; And in thy 18 favor our horn shall be exalted. For our shield belongeth unto 19 Jehovah; And our king to the Holy One of Israel. Then thou spakest in vision to thy saints, And saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

20 I have found David my servant; With my holy oil have I anointed 21 him: With whom my hand shall be established; Mine arm also 22 shall strengthen him. The enemy shall not exact from him, Nor 23 the son of wickedness afflict him. And I will beat down his 24 adversaries before him, And smite them that hate him. But my faithfulness and my lovingkindness shall be with him; And 25 in my name shall his horn be exalted. I will set his hand also 26 on the sea, And his right hand on the rivers. He shall cry unto me, Thou art my Father, My God, and the rock of my salvation.
27 I also will make him my first-born, The highest of the kings of 28 the earth. My lovingkindness will I keep for him for evermore; 29 And my covenant shall stand fast with him. His seed also will I make to endure for ever, And his throne as the days of heaven.
30 If his children forsake my law, And walk not in mine ordinances; 31 If they break my statutes, And keep not my commandments; 32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, And their iniq-33 uity with stripes. But my lovingkindness will I not utterly take 34 from him, Nor suffer my faithfulness to fail. My covenant will I 35 not break, Nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips. Once 36 have I sworn by my holiness: I will not lie unto David: His seed 37 shall endure for ever, And his throne as the sun before me. It shall be established for ever as the moon, And as the faithful 38 witness in the sky. Selah But thou hast cast off and rejected, 39 Thou hast been wroth with thine anointed. Thou hast abhorred the covenant of thy servant: Thou hast profaned his crown by 40 casting it to the ground. Thou hast broken down all his hedges;

Thou hast brought his strongholds to ruin. All that pass by the 41 way rob him: He is become a reproach to his neighbors. Thou 42 hast exalted the right hand of his adversaries; Thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice. Yea, thou turnest back the edge of 43 his sword, And hast not made him to stand in the battle. Thou 44 hast made his brightness to cease, And cast his throne down to the ground. The days of his youth hast thou shortened: Thou 45 hast covered him with shame. Selah How long, O Jehovah? wilt 46 thou hide thyself for ever? How long shall thy wrath burn like fire? Oh remember how short my time is: For what vanity hast 47 thou created all the children of men! What man is he that shall 48 live and not see death, That shall deliver his soul from the power of Sheol? Selah Lord, where are thy former lovingkindnesses, 49 Which thou swarest unto David in thy faithfulness? Remem- 50 ber, Lord, the reproach of thy servants; How I do bear in my bosom the reproach of all the mighty peoples, Wherewith thine 51 enemies have reproached, O Jehovah, Wherewith they have reproached the footsteps of thine anointed. Blessed be Jehovah 52 for evermore. Amen, and Amen.

Lord, thou hast been our dwelling-place In all generations. 90 Before the mountains were brought forth, Or ever thou hadst 2 formed the earth and the world, Even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God. Thou turnest man to destruction, And 3 sayest, Return, ye children of men. For a thousand years in thy 4 sight Are but as yesterday when it is past, And as a watch in the night. Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a 5 sleep: In the morning they are like grass which groweth up. In 6 the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; In the evening it is cut down, and withereth. For we are consumed in thine anger, 7 And in thy wrath are we troubled. Thou hast set our iniquities 8 before thee, Our secret sins in the light of thy countenance. For 9 all our days are passed away in thy wrath: We bring our years to an end as a sigh. The days of our years are threescore years 10 and ten, Or even by reason of strength fourscore years; Yet is their pride but labor and sorrow; For it is soon gone, and we fly away. Who knoweth the power of thine anger, And thy wrath 11 according to the fear that is due unto thee? So teach us to num- 12 ber our days, That we may get us a heart of wisdom. Return, 13 O Jehovah; How long? And let it repent thee concerning thy 14 servants. Oh satisfy us in the morning with thy lovingkindness, 15 That we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, And the 16 years wherein we have seen evil. Let thy work appear unto thy 17 servants, And thy glory upon their children. And let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us; And establish thou the work of our hands upon us; Yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

91 He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High Shall 2 abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of Jehovah, He is my refuge and my fortress; My God, in whom I trust.
3 For he will deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, And from 4 the deadly pestilence. He will cover thee with his pinions, And under his wings shalt thou take refuge: His truth is a shield and 5 a buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night, Nor 6 for the arrow that flieth by day; For the pestilence that walketh in darkness, Nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.
7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, And ten thousand at thy right 8 hand; But it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes 9 shalt thou behold, And see the reward of the wicked. For thou, O Jehovah, art my refuge! Thou hast made the Most High thy 10 habitation; There shall no evil befall thee, Neither shall any 11 plague come nigh thy tent. For he will give his angels charge 12 over thee, To keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up 13 in their hands, Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: The young lion and the 14 serpent shalt thou trample under foot. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, 15 because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble: I will deliver him, 16 and honor him. With long life will I satisfy him, And show him my salvation.

92 It is a good thing to give thanks unto Jehovah, And to sing 2 praises unto thy name, O Most High; To show forth thy lovingkindness in the morning, And thy faithfulness every night, 3 With an instrument of ten strings, and with the psaltery; With 4 a solemn sound upon the harp. For thou, Jehovah, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy 5 hands. How great are thy works, O Jehovah! Thy thoughts are very deep. A brutish man knoweth not; Neither doth a fool 6 understand this: When the wicked spring as the grass, And 7 when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; It is that they shall be destroyed for ever. But thou, O Jehovah, art on high for 8 evermore. For, lo, thine enemies, O Jehovah, For, lo, thine en- 9 emies shall perish; All the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

 But my horn hast thou exalted like the horn of the wild-ox: I 10 am anointed with fresh oil. Mine eye also hath seen my desire 11 on mine enemies, Mine ears have heard my desire of the evil-doers that rise up against me. The righteous shall flourish like 12 the palm-tree: He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon. They are 13 planted in the house of Jehovah; They shall flourish in the courts of our God. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; They 14 shall be full of sap and green: To show that Jehovah is upright; 15 He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Jehovah reigneth; He is clothed with majesty; Jehovah is 93 clothed with strength; he hath girded himself therewith: The world also is established, that it cannot be moved. Thy throne 2 is established of old: Thou art from everlasting. The floods 3 have lifted up, O Jehovah, The floods have lifted up their voice; The floods lift up their waves. Above the voices of many wa- 4 ters, The mighty breakers of the sea, Jehovah on high is mighty.
 Thy testimonies are very sure: Holiness becometh thy house, O 5 Jehovah, for evermore.

O Jehovah, thou God to whom vengeance belongeth, Thou 94 God to whom vengeance belongeth, shine forth. Lift up thy- 2 self, thou judge of the earth: Render to the proud their desert.
 Jehovah, how long shall the wicked, How long shall the wicked 3 triumph? They prate, they speak arrogantly: All the workers of 4 iniquity boast themselves. They break in pieces thy people, O 5 Jehovah, And afflict thy heritage. They slay the widow and the 6 sojourner, And murder the fatherless. And they say, Jehovah 7 will not see, Neither will the God of Jacob consider. Consider, 8 ye brutish among the people; And ye fools, when will ye be wise?
 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? He that formed the 9 eye, shall he not see? He that chastiseth the nations, shall not 10 he correct, Even he that teacheth man knowledge? Jehovah 11 knoweth the thoughts of man, That they are vanity. Blessed is 12 the man whom thou chastenest, O Jehovah, And teachest out of 13 thy law; That thou mayest give him rest from the days of ad-14 versity, Until the pit be digged for the wicked. For Jehovah will not cast off his people, Neither will he forsake his inheritance.

15 For judgment shall return unto righteousness; And all the up-16 right in heart shall follow it. Who will rise up for me against the evil-doers? Who will stand up for me against the workers 17 of iniquity? Unless Jehovah had been my help, My soul had 18 soon dwelt in silence. When I said, My foot slippeth; Thy lov-19 ingkindness, O Jehovah, held me up. In the multitude of my 20 thoughts within me Thy comforts delight my soul. Shall the throne of wickedness have fellowship with thee, Which frameth 21 mischief by statute? They gather themselves together against 22 the soul of the righteous, And condemn the innocent blood. But Jehovah hath been my high tower, And my God the rock of my 23 refuge. And he hath brought upon them their own iniquity, And will cut them off in their own wickedness; Jehovah our God will cut them off.

95 Oh come, let us sing unto Jehovah; Let us make a joyful noise 2 to the rock of our salvation. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; Let us make a joyful noise unto him with 3 psalms. For Jehovah is a great God, And a great King above 4 all gods. In his hand are the deep places of the earth; The 5 heights of the mountains are his also. The sea is his, and he 6 made it; And his hands formed the dry land. Oh come, let us worship and bow down; Let us kneel before Jehovah our Maker: 7 For he is our God, And we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. To-day, oh that ye would hear his voice!
8 Harden not your heart, as at Meribah, As in the day of Massah 9 in the wilderness; When your fathers tempted me, Proved me, 10 and saw my work. Forty years long was I grieved with that generation, And said, It is a people that do err in their heart, 11 And they have not known my ways: Wherefore I swore in my wrath, That they should not enter into my rest.

96 Oh sing unto Jehovah a new song: Sing unto Jehovah, all 2 the earth. Sing unto Jehovah, bless his name; Show forth his 3 salvation from day to day. Declare his glory among the na-4 tions, His marvellous works among all the peoples. For great is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised: He is to be feared above 5 all gods. For all the gods of the peoples are idols; But Je-Jehovah made the heavens. Honor and majesty are before him: 6 Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary. Ascribe unto Jeho- 7 vah, ye kindreds of the peoples, Ascribe unto Jehovah glory and strength. Ascribe unto Jehovah the glory due unto his name: 8 Bring an offering, and come into his courts. Oh worship Je- 9 hovah in holy array: Tremble before him, all the earth. Say 10 among the nations, Jehovah reigneth: The world also is established that it cannot be moved: He will judge the peoples with equity. Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; Let 11 the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; Let the field exult, and 12 all that is therein; Then shall all the trees of the wood sing for joy Before Jehovah; For he cometh, For he cometh to judge 13 the earth: He will judge the world with righteousness, And the peoples with his truth.

Jehovah reigneth; Let the earth rejoice; Let the multitude of 97 isles be glad. Clouds and darkness are round about him: Righ- 2 teousness and justice are the foundation of his throne. A fire 3 goeth before him, And burneth up his adversaries round about.
 His lightnings lightened the world: The earth saw, and trembled. 4 The mountains melted like wax at the presence of Jehovah, At 5 the presence of the Lord of the whole earth. The heavens declare 6 his righteousness, And all the peoples have seen his glory. Let 7 all them be put to shame that serve graven images, That boast themselves of idols: Worship him, all ye gods. Zion heard and 8 was glad, And the daughters of Judah rejoiced, Because of thy judgments, O Jehovah. For thou, Jehovah, art most high above 9 all the earth: Thou art exalted far above all gods. O ye that 10 love Jehovah, hate evil: He preserveth the souls of his saints; He delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked. Light is sown for 11 the righteous, And gladness for the upright in heart. Be glad 12 in Jehovah, ye righteous; And give thanks to his holy memorial name.

Oh sing unto Jehovah a new song; For he hath done mar- 98 vellous things: His right hand, and his holy arm, hath wrought salvation for him. Jehovah hath made known his salvation: His 2 righteousness hath he openly showed in the sight of the nations.
 He hath remembered his lovingkindness and his faithfulness to- 3 ward the house of Israel: All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Make a joyful noise unto Jehovah, all 4 5 the earth: Break forth and sing for joy, yea, sing praises. Sing praises unto Jehovah with the harp; With the harp and the voice 6 of melody. With trumpets and sound of cornet Make a joyful 7 noise before the King, Jehovah. Let the sea roar, and the ful-8 ness thereof; The world, and they that dwell therein; Let the 9 floods clap their hands; Let the hills sing for joy together Before Jehovah; For he cometh to judge the earth: He will judge the world with righteousness, And the peoples with equity.

99 Jehovah reigneth; let the peoples tremble: He sitteth above 2 the cherubim; let the earth be moved. Jehovah is great in Zion; 3 And he is high above all the peoples. Let them praise thy great 4 and terrible name: Holy is he. The king's strength also loveth justice; Thou dost establish equity; Thou executest justice and 5 righteousness in Jacob. Exalt ye Jehovah our God, And worship 6 at his footstool: Holy is he. Moses and Aaron among his priests, And Samuel among them that call upon his name; They called 7 upon Jehovah, and he answered them. He spake unto them in the pillar of cloud: They kept his testimonies, And the statute 8 that he gave them. Thou answeredst them, O Jehovah our God: Thou wast a God that forgavest them, Though thou tookest 9 vengeance of their doings. Exalt ye Jehovah our God, And worship at his holy hill; For Jehovah our God is holy.

100, 2 Make a joyful noise unto Jehovah, all ye lands. Serve Jehovah 3 with gladness: Come before his presence with singing. Know ye that Jehovah, he is God: It is he that hath made us, and we 4 are his; We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, And into his courts with praise: 5 Give thanks unto him, and bless his name. For Jehovah is good; His lovingkindness endureth for ever, And his faithfulness unto all generations.

101 I will sing of lovingkindness and justice: Unto thee, O Jeho-2 vah, will I sing praises. I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way: Oh when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my 3 house with a perfect heart. I will set no base thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; It shall not cleave 4 unto me. A perverse heart shall depart from me: I will know 5 no evil thing. Whoso privily slandereth his neighbor, him will I destroy: Him that hath a high look and a proud heart will I not 6 suffer. Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: He that walketh in a perfect way, he shall minister unto me. He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: He that speaketh falsehood shall not be established before mine eyes. Morning by morning will I destroy all the wicked of the land; To cut off all the workers of iniquity from the city of Jehovah.

Hear my prayer, O Jehovah, And let my cry come unto thee. 102
Hide not thy face from me in the day of my distress: Incline thine ear unto me; In the day when I call answer me speedily. For my days consume away like smoke, And my bones are burned as a firebrand. My heart is smitten like grass, and withered; For I forget to eat my bread. By reason of the voice of my groaning My bones cleave to my flesh. I am like a pelican of the wilderness; I am become as an owl of the waste places. I watch, and am become like a sparrow That is alone upon the house-top. Mine enemies reproach me all the day; They that are mad against me do curse by me. For I have eaten ashes like bread, And mingled my drink with weeping, Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: For thou hast taken me up, and cast me away. My days are like a shadow that declineth; And I am withered like grass. But thou, O Jehovah, wilt abide for ever; And thy memorial name unto all generations. Thou wilt arise, and have mercy upon Zion; For it is time to have pity upon her, Yea, the set time is come. For thy servants take pleasure in her stones, And have pity upon her dust. So the nations shall fear the name of Jehovah, And all the kings of the earth thy glory. For Jehovah hath built up Zion; He hath appeared in his glory. He hath regarded the prayer of the destitute, And hath not despised their prayer. This shall be written for the generation to come; And a people which shall be created shall praise Jehovah. For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary; From heaven did Jehovah behold the earth; To hear the sighing of the prisoner; To loose those that are appointed to death; That men may declare the name of Jehovah in Zion, And his praise in Jerusalem; When the peoples are gathered together, And the kingdoms, to serve Jehovah. He weakened my strength in the way; He shortened my days. I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: Thy years are throughout all generations. Of old didst thou lay the foundation

26 of the earth; And the heavens are the work of thy hands. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure; Yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; As a vesture shalt thou change them, and 27 they shall be changed: But thou art the same, And thy years 28 shall have no end. The children of thy servants shall continue, And their seed shall be established before thee.

103 Bless Jehovah, O my soul; And all that is within me, ble 2 his holy name. Bless Jehovah, O my soul, And forget not all 3 his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; Who healeth 4 all thy diseases; Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; Who 5 crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies; Who 6 satisfieth thy desire with good things, So that thy youth is re-7 newed like the eagle. Jehovah executeth righteous acts, And 8 judgments for all that are oppressed. He made known his ways 9 unto Moses, His doings unto the children of Israel. Jehovah 10 is merciful and gracious, Slow to anger, and abundant in lov-11 ingkindness. He will not always chide; Neither will he keep his 12 anger for ever. He hath not dealt with us after our sins, Nor 13 rewarded us after our iniquities. For as the heavens are high 14 above the earth, So great is his lovingkindness toward them that 15 fear him. As far as the east is from the west, So far hath he 16 removed our transgressions from us. Like as a father pitieth 17 his children, So Jehovah pitieth them that fear him. For he 18 knoweth our frame; He remembereth that we are dust. As for 19 man, his days are as grass; As a flower of the field, so he flour-20 isheth. For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; And the 21 place thereof shall know it no more. But the lovingkindness of 22 Jehovah is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear 23 him, And his righteousness unto children's children; To such as 24 keep his covenant, And to those that remember his precepts to 25 do them. Jehovah hath established his throne in the heavens; 26 And his kingdom ruleth over all. Bless Jehovah, ye his angels, 27 That are mighty in strength, that fulfil his word, Harkening 28 unto the voice of his word. Bless Jehovah, all ye his hosts, Ye 29 ministers of his, that do his pleasure. Bless Jehovah, all ye his 30 works, In all places of his dominion: Bless Jehovah, O my soul.

104 Bless Jehovah, O my soul. O Jehovah my God, thou art very 2 great; Thou art clothed with honor and majesty: Who cover-3 est thyself with light as with a garment; Who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain; Who layeth the beams of his cham- 3 bers in the waters; Who maketh the clouds his chariot; Who walketh upon the wings of the wind; Who maketh winds his 4 messengers; Flames of fire his ministers; Who laid the founda- 5 tions of the earth, That it should not be moved for ever. Thou 6 coveredst it with the deep as with a vesture; The waters stood above the mountains. At thy rebuke they fled; At the voice of 7 thy thunder they hasted away (The mountains rose, the valleys 8 sank down) Unto the place which thou hadst founded for them.

Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; That they 9 turn not again to cover the earth. He sendeth forth springs into 10 the valleys; They run among the mountains; They give drink 11 to every beast of the field; The wild asses quench their thirst.
By them the birds of the heavens have their habitation; They 12 sing among the branches. He watereth the mountains from his 13 chambers: The earth is filled with the fruit of thy works. He 14 causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, And herb for the service of man; That he may bring forth food out of the earth, And 15 wine that maketh glad the heart of man, And oil to make his face to shine, And bread that strengtheneth man's heart. The 16 trees of Jehovah are filled with moisture, The cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted; Where the birds make their nests: As 17 for the stork, the fir-trees are her house. The high mountains 18 are for the wild goats; The rocks are a refuge for the conies.
He appointed the moon for seasons: The sun knoweth his going 19 down. Thou makest darkness, and it is night, Wherein all the beasts of the forest creep forth. The young lions roar after their 21 prey, And seek their food from God. The sun ariseth, they get them away, And lay them down in their dens. Man goeth forth 23 unto his work And to his labor until the evening. O Jehovah, 24 how manifold are thy works! In wisdom hast thou made them all: The earth is full of thy riches. Yonder is the sea, great and 25 wide, Wherein are things creeping innumerable, Both small and great beasts. There go the ships; There is leviathan, whom thou 26 hast formed to play therein. These wait all for thee, That thou 27 mayest give them their food in due season. Thou givest unto them, they gather; Thou openest thy hand, they are satisfied 28 with good. Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled; Thou tak-est away their breath, they die, And return to their dust. Thou 30 sendest forth thy Spirit, they are created; And thou renewest the 31 face of the ground. Let the glory of Jehovah endure for ever; 32 Let Jehovah rejoice in his works: Who looketh on the earth, and it trembleth; He toucheth the mountains, and they smoke.

33 I will sing unto Jehovah as long as I live: I will sing praise to my 34 God while I have any being. Let thy meditation be sweet unto 35 him: I will rejoice in Jehovah. Let sinners be consumed out of the earth. And let the wicked be no more. Bless Jehovah, O my soul. Praise ye Jehovah.

105 Oh give thanks unto Jehovah, call upon his name; Make 2 known among the peoples his doings. Sing unto him, sing 3 praises unto him; Talk ye of all his marvelous works. Glory ye in his holy name: Let the heart of them rejoice that seek Jeho-4 vah. Seek ye Jehovah and his strength; Seek his face evermore.
5 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done, His wonders, 6 and the judgments of his mouth, O ye seed of Abraham his ser-7 vant, Ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones. He is Jehovah our 8 God: His judgments are in all the earth. He hath remembered his covenant for ever, The word which he commanded to a thou-9 sand generations, The covenant which he made with Abraham, 10 And his oath unto Isaac, And confirmed the same unto Jacob 11 for a statute, To Israel for an everlasting covenant, Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, The lot of your inheritance; 12 When they were but a few men in number, Yea, very few, and 13 sojourners in it. And they went about from nation to nation, 14 From one kingdom to another people. He suffered no man to 15 do them wrong; Yea, he reprov'd kings for their sakes, Saying, Touch not mine anointed ones, And do my prophets no harm.
16 And he called for a famine upon the land; He brake the whole 17 staff of bread. He sent a man before them; Joseph was sold 18 for a servant: His feet they hurt with fetters: He was laid in 19 chains of iron, Until the time that his word came to pass, The 20 word of Jehovah tried him. The king sent and loosed him; Even 21 the ruler of peoples, and let him go free. He made him lord of 22 his house, And ruler of all his substance; To bind his princes 23 at his pleasure, And teach his elders wisdom. Israel also came 24 into Egypt; And Jacob sojourn'd in the land of Ham. And he increased his people greatly, And made them stronger than their 25 adversaries. He turned their heart to hate his people, To deal subtly with his servants. He sent Moses his servant, And Aaron 26 whom he had chosen. They set among them his signs, And 27 wonders in the land of Ham. He sent darkness, and made it 28 dark; And they rebelled not against his words. He turned their 29 waters into blood, And slew their fish. Their land swarmed 30 with frogs In the chambers of their kings. He spake, and there 31 came swarms of flies, And lice in all their borders. He gave 32 them hail for rain, And flaming fire in their land. He smote 33 their vines also and their fig-trees, And brake the trees of their 34 borders. He spake, and the locust came, And the grasshopper, 34 and that without number, And did eat up every herb in their 35 land, And did eat up the fruit of their ground. He smote also 36 all the first-born in their land, The chief of all their strength.

And he brought them forth with silver and gold; And there was 37 not one feeble person among his tribes. Egypt was glad when 38 they departed; For the fear of them had fallen upon them. He 39 spread a cloud for a covering, And fire to give light in the night.
 They asked, and he brought quails, And satisfied them with the 40 bread of heaven. He opened the rock, and waters gushed out; 41 They ran in the dry places like a river. For he remembered his 42 holy word, And Abraham his servant. And he brought forth 43 his people with joy, And his chosen with singing. And he gave 44 them the lands of the nations; And they took the labor of the peoples in possession: That they might keep his statutes, And 45 observe his laws. Praise ye Jehovah.

Praise ye Jehovah. Oh give thanks unto Jehovah; for he is 106 good; For his lovingkindness endureth forever. Who can utter 2 the mighty acts of Jehovah, Or show forth all his praise? Blessed 3 are they that keep justice, And he that doeth righteousness at all times. Remember me, O Jehovah, with the favor that thou 4 bearest unto thy people; Oh visit me with thy salvation, That 5 I may see the prosperity of thy chosen, That I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, That I may glory with thine inheritance. We have sinned with our fathers, We have committed 6 iniquity, we have done wickedly. Our fathers understood not 7 thy wonders in Egypt; They remembered not the multitude of thy lovingkindnesses, But were rebellious at the sea, even at the Red Sea. Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, That 8 he might make his mighty power to be known. He rebuked the 9

Red Sea also, and it was dried up: So he led them through the 10 depths, as through a wilderness. And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, And redeemed them from the hand 11 of the enemy. And the waters covered their adversaries; There 12 was not one of them left. Then believed they his words; They 13 sang his praise. They soon forgot his works; They waited not 14 for his counsel, But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, And 15 tempted God in the desert. And he gave them their request, 16 But sent leanness into their soul. They envied Moses also in 17 the camp, And Aaron the saint of Jehovah. The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, And covered the company of Abiram.
18 And a fire was kindled in their company; The flame burned up 19 the wicked. They made a calf in Horeb, And worshipped a 20 molten image. Thus they changed their glory For the likeness 21 of an ox that eateth grass. They forgot God their Saviour, Who 22 had done great things in Egypt, Wondrous works in the land 23 of Ham, And terrible things by the Red Sea. Therefore he said that he would destroy them, Had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, To turn away his wrath, lest he should 24 destroy them. Yea, they despised the pleasant land, They be-25 lieved not his word, But murmured in their tents, And hear-26 kened not unto the voice of Jehovah. Therefore he sware unto 27 them, That he would overthrow them in the wilderness, And that he would overthrow their seed among the nations, And scat-28 ter them in the lands. They joined themselves also unto Baal-29 peor, And ate the sacrifices of the dead. Thus they provoked him to anger with their doings; And the plague brake in upon 30 them. Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment; And 31 so the plague was stayed. And that was reckoned unto him for 32 righteousness, Unto all generations for evermore. They angered him also at the waters of Meribah, So that it went ill with Moses 33 for their sakes; Because they were rebellious against his spirit, 34 And he spake unadvisedly with his lips. They did not destroy 35 the peoples, As Jehovah commanded them, But mingled them-36 selves with the nations, And learned their works, And served 37 their idols, Which became a snare unto them. Yea, they sac-38 rificed their sons and their daughters unto demons, And shed innocent blood, Even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, Whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan; And the land was polluted with blood. Thus were they defiled with their 39 works, And played the harlot in their doings. Therefore was the 40 wrath of Jehovah kindled against his people, And he abhorred his inheritance. And he gave them into the hand of the nations; 41 And they that hated them ruled over them. Their enemies also 42 oppressed them, And they were brought into subjection under their hand. Many times did he deliver them; But they were 43 rebellious in their counsel, And were brought low in their iniquity.

Nevertheless he regarded their distress, When he heard 44 their cry: And he remembered for them his covenant, And re- 45 pented according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses. He 46 made them also to be pitied Of all those that carried them captive. Save us, O Jehovah our God, And gather us from among 47 the nations, To give thanks unto thy holy name, And to triumph in thy praise. Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel, From ev- 48 erlasting even to everlasting. And let all the people say, Amen.
Praise ye Jehovah.

O give thanks unto Jehovah; For he is good; For his lov- 107 ingkindness endureth for ever. Let the redeemed of Jehovah 2 say so, Whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the adversary, And gathered out of the lands, From the east and from 3 the west, From the north and from the south. They wandered 4 in the wilderness in a desert way; They found no city of habitation. Hungry and thirsty, Their soul fainted in them. Then 5, 6 they cried unto Jehovah in their trouble, And he delivered them out of their distresses, He led them also by a straight way, That 7 they might go to a city of habitation. Oh that men would praise 8 Jehovah for his lovingkindness, And for his wonderful works to the children of men! For he satisfieth the longing soul, And 9 the hungry soul he filleth with good. Such as sat in darkness 10 and in the shadow of death, Being bound in affliction and iron, Because they rebelled against the words of God, And contemned 11 the counsel of the Most High: Therefore he brought down their 12 heart with labor; They fell down, and there was none to help.
Then they cried unto Jehovah in their trouble, And he saved 13 them out of their distresses. He brought them out of darkness 14 and the shadow of death, And brake their bonds in sunder. Oh that men would praise Jehovah for his lovingkindness, And for 15 his wonderful works to the children of men! For he hath broken 16 17 the gates of brass, And cut the bars of iron in sunder. Fools because of their transgression, And because of their iniquities, 18 are afflicted. Their soul abhorreth all manner of food; And they 19 draw near unto the gates of death. Then they cry unto Jehovah 20 in their trouble, And he saveth them out of their distresses. He sendeth his word, and healeth them, And delivereth them from 21 their destructions. Oh that men would praise Jehovah for his lovingkindness, And for his wonderful works to the children of 22 men! And let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving, And 23 declare his works with singing. They that go down to the sea 24 in ships, That do business in great waters; These see the works 25 of Jehovah, And his wonders in the deep. For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, Which lifteth up the waves 26 thereof. They mount up to the heavens, they go down again to 27 the depths: Their soul melteth away because of trouble. They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, And are at their 28 wits' end. Then they cry unto Jehovah in their trouble, And 29 he bringeth them out of their distresses. He maketh the storm 30 a calm, So that the waves thereof are still. Then are they glad because they are quiet; So he bringeth them unto their desired 31 haven. Oh that men would praise Jehovah for his lovingkind-32 ness, And for his wonderful works to the children of men! Let them exalt him also in the assembly of the people, And praise 33 him in the seat of the elders. He turneth rivers into a wilder-34 ness, And watersprings into a thirsty ground; A fruitful land into a salt desert, For the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

35 He turneth a wilderness into a pool of water, And a dry land 36 into watersprings. And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, 37 That they may prepare a city of habitation, And sow fields, and 38 plant vineyards, And get them fruits of increase. He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; And he suffereth 39 not their cattle to decrease. Again, they are diminished 40 and bowed down Through oppression, trouble, and sorrow. He poureth contempt upon princes, And causeth them to wander in 41 the waste, where there is no way. Yet setteth he the needy on 42 high from affliction, And maketh him families like a flock. The upright shall see it, and be glad; And all iniquity shall stop her 43 mouth. Whoso is wise will give heed to these things; And they will consider the lovingkindnesses of Jehovah.

My heart is fixed, O God; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises, 108 even with my glory. Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will 2 awake right early. I will give thanks unto thee, O Jehovah, 3 among the peoples; And I will sing praises unto thee among the nations. For thy lovingkindness is great above the heavens; 4 And thy truth reacheth unto the skies. Be thou exalted, O God, 5 above the heavens, And thy glory above all the earth. That thy 6 beloved may be delivered, Save with thy right hand, and answer us. God hath spoken in his holiness: I will exult; I will divide 7 Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth. Gilead is mine; 8 Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the defence of my head; Judah is my sceptre. Moab is my washpot; Upon Edom will I cast my 9 shoe; Over Philistia will I shout. Who will bring me into the 10 fortified city? Who hath led me unto Edom? Hast not thou 11 cast us off, O God? And thou goest not forth, O God, with our hosts. Give us help against the adversary; For vain is the help 12 of man. Through God we shall do valiantly: For he it is that 13 will tread down our adversaries.

Hold not thy peace, O God of my praise; For the mouth of 109, 2 the wicked and the mouth of deceit have they opened against me: They have spoken unto me with a lying tongue. They have com- 3 passed me about also with words of hatred, And fought against me without a cause. For my love they are my adversaries: But 4 I give myself unto prayer. And they have rewarded me evil for 5 good, And hatred for my love. Set thou a wicked man over 6 him; And let an adversary stand at his right hand. When he is 7 judged, let him come forth guilty; And let his prayer be turned into sin. Let his days be few; And let another take his office. 8 Let his children be fatherless, And his wife a widow. Let his 9, 10 children be vagabonds, and beg; And let them seek their bread out of their desolate places. Let the extortioner catch all that 11 he hath; And let strangers make spoil of his labor. Let there be 12 none to extend kindness unto him; Neither let there be any to have pity on his fatherless children. Let his posterity be cut off; 13 In the generation following let their name be blotted out. Let 14 the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with Jehovah; And let not the sin of his mother be blotted out. Let them be before Je- 15 hovah continually, That he may cut off the memory of them from the earth; Because he remembered not to show kindness, But 16

- persecuted the poor and needy man, And the broken in heart, to 17 slay them. Yea, he loved cursing, and it came unto him; And he 18 delighted not in blessing, and it was far from him. He clothed himself also with cursing as with his garment, And it came into 19 his inward parts like water, And like oil into his bones. Let it be unto him as the raiment wherewith he covereth himself, And for 20 the girdle wherewith he is girded continually. This is the reward of mine adversaries from Jehovah, And of them that speak evil 21 against my soul. But deal thou with me, O Jehovah the Lord, for thy name's sake: Because thy lovingkindness is good, deliver 22 thou me; For I am poor and needy, And my heart is wounded 23 within me. I am gone like the shadow when it declineth: I am 24 tossed up and down as the locust. My knees are weak through 25 fasting; And my flesh faileth of fatness. I am become also a reproach unto them: When they see me, they shake their head.
26 Help me, O Jehovah my God; Oh save me according to thy lov-27 ingkindness: That they may know that this is thy hand; That 28 thou, Jehovah, hast done it. Let them curse, but bless thou:
When they arise, they shall be put to shame, But thy servant 29 shall rejoice. Let mine adversaries be clothed with dishonor, And let them cover themselves with their own shame as with a 30 robe. I will give great thanks unto Jehovah with my mouth; 31 Yea, I will praise him among the multitude. For he will stand at the right hand of the needy, To save him from them that judge his soul.
- 110 Jehovah saith unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, Until 2 I make thine enemies thy footstool. Jehovah will send forth the rod of thy strength out of Zion: Rule thou in the midst of thine 3 enemies. Thy people offer themselves willingly In the day of thy power, in holy array: Out of the womb of the morning Thou 4 hast the dew of thy youth. Jehovah hath sworn, and will not repent: Thou art a priest for ever After the order of Melchizedek.
5 The Lord at thy right hand Will strike through kings in the day 6 of his wrath. He will judge among the nations, He will fill the places with dead bodies; He will strike through the head in many 7 countries. He will drink of the brook in the way: Therefore will he lift up the head.
- 111 Praise ye Jehovah. I will give thanks unto Jehovah with my whole heart, In the council of the upright, and in the congregation. The works of Jehovah are great, Sought out of all them 2 that have pleasure therein. His work is honor and majesty; And 3 his righteousness endureth for ever. He hath made his wonder- 4 ful works to be remembered: Jehovah is gracious and merciful.

 He hath given food unto them that fear him: He will ever be 5 mindful of his covenant. He hath showed his people the power 6 of his works, In giving them the heritage of the nations. The 7 works of his hands are truth and justice; All his precepts are sure.
 They are established for ever and ever; They are done in truth 8 and uprightness. He hath sent redemption unto his people; He 9 hath commanded his covenant for ever: Holy and reverend is his name. The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of wisdom; A 10 good understanding have all they that do his commandments: His praise endureth for ever.

Praise ye Jehovah. Blessed is the man that feareth Jehovah, 112 That delighteth greatly in his commandments. His seed shall 2 be mighty upon earth: The generation of the upright shall be blessed. Wealth and riches are in his house; And his righteous- 3 ness endureth for ever. Unto the upright there ariseth light in 4 the darkness: He is gracious, and merciful, and righteous. Well 5 is it with the man that dealeth graciously and lendeth; He shall maintain his cause in judgment. For he shall never be moved; 6 The righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance. He 7 shall not be afraid of evil tidings: His heart is fixed, trusting in Jehovah. His heart is established, he shall not be afraid, Until 8 he see his desire upon his adversaries. He hath dispersed, he 9 hath given to the needy; His righteousness endureth for ever: His horn shall be exalted with honor. The wicked shall see it, and 10 be grieved; He shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away: The desire of the wicked shall perish.

Praise ye Jehovah. Praise, O ye servants of Jehovah, Praise 113 the name of Jehovah. Blessed be the name of Jehovah From this 2 time forth and for evermore. From the rising of the sun unto the 3 going down of the same Jehovah's name is to be praised. Jeho- 4 vah is high above all nations, And his glory above the heavens.
 Who is like unto Jehovah our God, That hath his seat on high, 5 That humbleth himself to behold The things that are in heaven 6 and in the earth? He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, And 7 lifteth up the needy from the dunghill; That he may set him 8 9 with princes, Even with the princes of his people. He maketh the barren woman to keep house, And to be a joyful mother of children. Praise ye Jehovah.

114 When Israel went forth out of Egypt, The house of Jacob 2 from a people of strange language; Judah became his sanctu-3 ary, Israel his dominion. The sea saw it, and fled; The Jordan 4 was driven back. The mountains skipped like rams, The little 5 hills like lambs. What aileth thee, O thou sea, that thou fleest?
6 Thou Jordan, that thou turnest back? Ye mountains, that ye 7 skip like rams; Ye little hills, like lambs? Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, At the presence of the God of Ja-8 cob, Who turned the rock into a pool of water, The flint into a fountain of waters.

115 Not unto us, O Jehovah, not unto us, But unto thy name give 2 glory, For thy lovingkindness, and for thy truth's sake. Where-3 fore should the nations say, Where is now their God? But our God is in the heavens: He hath done whatsoever he pleased.
4, 5 Their idols are silver and gold, The work of men's hands. They have mouths, but they speak not; Eyes have they, but they see 6 not; They have ears, but they hear not; Noses have they, but 7 they smell not; They have hands, but they handle not; Feet have they, but they walk not; Neither speak they through their 8 throat. They that make them shall be like unto them; Yea, 9 every one that trusteth in them. O Israel, trust thou in Je-10 hovah: He is their help and their shield. O house of Aaron, 11 trust ye in Jehovah: He is their help and their shield. Ye that fear Jehovah, trust in Jehovah: He is their help and their shield.
12 Jehovah hath been mindful of us; He will bless us: He will bless 13 the house of Israel; He will bless the house of Aaron. He will 14 bless them that fear Jehovah, Both small and great. Jehovah 15 increase you more and more, You and your children. Blessed 16 are ye of Jehovah, Who made heaven and earth. The heavens are the heavens of Jehovah; But the earth hath he given to the 17 children of men. The dead praise not Jehovah, Neither any that 18 go down into silence; But we will bless Jehovah From this time forth and for evermore. Praise ye Jehovah.

116 I love Jehovah, because he heareth My voice and my suppli-2 cations. Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, Therefore 3 will I call upon him as long as I live. The cords of death com-passed me, And the pains of Sheol gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow. Then called I upon the name of Jehovah: O 4 Jehovah, I beseech thee, deliver my soul. Gracious is Jehovah, 5 and righteous; Yea, our God is merciful. Jehovah preserveth 6 the simple: I was brought low, and he saved me. Return unto 7 thy rest, O my soul; For Jehovah hath dealt bountifully with thee. For thou hast delivered my soul from death, Mine eyes 8 from tears, And my feet from falling. I will walk before Jeho- 9 vah In the land of the living. I believe, for I will speak: I was 10 greatly afflicted: I said in my haste, All men are liars. What 11, 12 shall I render unto Jehovah For all his benefits toward me? I 13 will take the cup of salvation, And call upon the name of Jehovah. I will pay my vows unto Jehovah, Yea, in the presence of 14 all his people. Precious in the sight of Jehovah Is the death of 15 his saints. O Jehovah, truly I am thy servant: I am thy servant, 16 the son of thy handmaid; Thou hast loosed my bonds. I will 17 offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, And will call upon the name of Jehovah. I will pay my vows unto Jehovah, Yea, in the 18 presence of all his people, In the courts of Jehovah's house, In 19 the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye Jehovah.

O praise Jehovah, all ye nations; Laud him, all ye peoples. 117 For his lovingkindness is great toward us; And the truth of Je- 2 hovah endureth for ever. Praise ye Jehovah.

Oh give thanks unto Jehovah; For he is good; For his lov- 118 ingkindness endureth for ever. Let Israel now say, That his 2 lovingkindness endureth for ever. Let the house of Aaron now 3 say, That his lovingkindness endureth for ever. Let them now 4 that fear Jehovah say, That his lovingkindness endureth for ever.
 Out of my distress I called upon Jehovah: Jehovah answered me 5 and set me in a large place. Jehovah is on my side; I will not 6 fear: What can man do unto me? Jehovah is on my side among 7 them that help me: Therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me. It is better to take refuge in Jehovah Than to put 8 confidence in man. It is better to take refuge in Jehovah Than 9 to put confidence in princes. All nations compassed me about: 10 In the name of Jehovah I will cut them off. They compassed me 11 about; yea, they compassed me about: In the name of Jehovah I will cut them off. They compassed me about like bees; They 12 are quenched as the fire of thorns: In the name of Jehovah I will 13 cut them off. Thou didst thrust sore at me that I might fall; 14 But Jehovah helped me. Jehovah is my strength and song; And 15 he is become my salvation. The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous: The right hand of Jehovah doeth 16 valiantly. The right hand of Jehovah is exalted: The right hand 17 of Jehovah doeth valiantly. I shall not die, but live, And declare 18 the works of Jehovah. Jehovah hath chastened me sore; But he 19 hath not given me over unto death. Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will enter into them, I will give thanks unto Je-20 hovah. This is the gate of Jehovah; The righteous shall enter 21 into it. I will give thanks unto thee; for thou hast answered me, 22 And art become my salvation. The stone which the builders 23 rejected Is become the head of the corner. This is Jehovah's 24 doing; It is marvellous in our eyes. This is the day which Jeho-25 vah hath made; We will rejoice and be glad in it. Save now, we beseech thee, O Jehovah: O Jehovah, we beseech thee, send now 26 prosperity. Blessed be he that cometh in the name of Jehovah: 27 We have blessed you out of the house of Jehovah. Jehovah is God, and he hath given us light: Bind the sacrifice with cords, 28 even unto the horns of the altar. Thou art my God, and I will 29 give thanks unto thee: Thou art my God, I will exalt thee. Oh give thanks unto Jehovah; For he is good; For his lovingkindness endureth for ever.

119 Blessed are they that are perfect in the way, Who walk in 2 the law of Jehovah. Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, 3 That seek him with the whole heart. Yea, they do no unright-4 teousness; They walk in his ways. Thou hast commanded us 5 thy precepts, That we should observe them diligently. Oh that 6 my ways were established To observe thy statutes! Then shall I not be put to shame, When I have respect unto all thy com-7 mandments. I will give thanks unto thee with uprightness of 8 heart, When I learn thy righteous judgments. I will observe thy 9 statutes: Oh forsake me not utterly. Wherewith shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed thereto according to thy 10 word. With my whole heart have I sought thee: Oh let me not 11 wander from thy commandments. Thy word have I laid up in 12 my heart, That I might not sin against thee. Blessed art thou, O 13 Jehovah: Teach me thy statutes. With my lips have I declared 14 All the ordinances of thy mouth. I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, As much as in all riches. I will meditate on thy 15 precepts, And have respect unto thy ways. I will delight myself 16 in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word. Deal bountifully 17 with thy servant, that I may live; So will I observe thy word.

Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold Wondrous things out 18 of thy law. I am a sojourner in the earth: Hide not thy com- 19 mandments from me. My soul breaketh for the longing That it 20 hath unto thine ordinances at all times. Thou hast rebuked the 21 proud that are cursed, That do wander from thy commandments.
Take away from me reproach and contempt; For I have kept thy 22 testimonies. Princes also sat and talked against me; But thy 23 servant did meditate on thy statutes. Thy testimonies also are 24 my delight And my counsellors. My soul cleaveth unto the dust: 25 Quicken thou me according to thy word. I declared my ways, 26 and thou answeredst me: Teach me thy statutes. Make me to 27 understand the way of thy precepts: So shall I meditate on thy wondrous works. My soul melteth for heaviness: Strengthen 28 thou me according unto thy word. Remove from me the way of 29 falsehood; And grant me thy law graciously. I have chosen the 30 way of faithfulness: Thine ordinances have I set before me. I 31 cleave unto thy testimonies: O Jehovah, put me not to shame.
I will run the way of thy commandments, When thou shalt en- 32 large my heart. Teach me, O Jehovah, the way of thy statutes; 33 And I shall keep it unto the end. Give me understanding, and 34
I shall keep thy law; Yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.
Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; For therein 35 do I delight. Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, And not 36 to covetousness. Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity, 37 And quicken me in thy ways. Confirm unto thy servant thy 38 word, Which is in order unto the fear of thee. Turn away my 39 reproach whereof I am afraid; For thine ordinances are good.
Behold, I have longed after thy precepts: Quicken me in thy 40 righteousness. Let thy lovingkindnesses also come unto me, O 41 Jehovah, Even thy salvation, according to thy word. So shall I 42 have an answer for him that reproacheth me; For I trust in thy word. And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; 43 For I have hoped in thine ordinances. So shall I observe thy 44 law continually For ever and ever. And I shall walk at liberty; 45 For I have sought thy precepts. I will also speak of thy tes- 46 47 timonies before kings, And shall not be put to shame. And I will delight myself in thy commandments, Which I have loved.

48 I will lift up my hands also unto thy commandments, which I 49 have loved; And I will meditate on thy statutes. Remember the word unto thy servant, Because thou hast made me to hope.
50 This is my comfort in my affliction; For thy word hath quickened 51 me. The proud have had me greatly in derision: Yet have I not 52 swerved from thy law. I have remembered thine ordinances of 53 old, O Jehovah, And have comforted myself. Hot indignation hath taken hold upon me, Because of the wicked that forsake 54 thy law. Thy statutes have been my songs In the house of my 55 pilgrimage. I have remembered thy name, O Jehovah, in the 56 night, And have observed thy law. This I have had, Because 57 I have kept thy precepts. Jehovah is my portion: I have said 58 that I would observe thy words. I entreated thy favor with my 59 whole heart: Be merciful unto me according to thy word. I thought on my ways, And turned my feet unto thy testimonies.
60 I made haste, and delayed not, To observe thy commandments.
61 The cords of the wicked have wrapped me round; But I have not 62 forgotten thy law. At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto 63 thee Because of thy righteous ordinances. I am a companion of all them that fear thee, And of them that observe thy precepts.
64 The earth, O Jehovah, is full of thy lovingkindness: Teach me 65 thy statutes. Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O Jeho-66 vah, according unto thy word. Teach me good judgment and 67 knowledge; For I have believed in thy commandments. Before I 68 was afflicted I went astray; But now I observe thy word. Thou 69 art good, and doest good; Teach me thy statutes. The proud have forged a lie against me: With my whole heart will I keep 70 thy precepts. Their heart is as fat as grease; But I delight in 71 thy law. It is good for me that I have been afflicted; That I 72 may learn thy statutes. The law of thy mouth is better unto 73 me Than thousands of gold and silver. Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: Give me understanding, that I may learn 74 thy commandments. They that fear thee shall see me and be 75 glad, Because I have hoped in thy word. I know, O Jehovah, that thy judgments are righteous, And that in faithfulness thou 76 hast afflicted me. Let, I pray thee, thy lovingkindness be for 77 my comfort, According to thy word unto thy servant. Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live; For thy law is my delight. Let the proud be put to shame; For they have overthrown me wrongfully: But I will meditate on thy precepts. Let those that fear thee turn unto me; And they shall know thy testimonies. Let my heart be perfect in thy statutes, That I be not put to shame. My soul fainteth for thy salvation; But I hope in thy word. Mine eyes fail for thy word, While I say, When wilt thou comfort me? For I am become like a wine-skin in the smoke; Yet do I not forget thy statutes. How many are the days of thy servant? When wilt thou execute judgment on them that persecute me? The proud have digged pits for me, Who are not according to thy law. All thy commandments are faithful: They persecute me wrongfully; Help thou me. They had almost consumed me upon earth; But I forsook not thy precepts. Quicken me after thy lovingkindness; So shall I observe the testimony of thy mouth. For ever, O Jehovah, Thy word is settled in heaven. Thy faithfulness is unto all generations: Thou hast established the earth, and it abideth. They abide this day according to thine ordinances; For all things are thy servants. Unless thy law had been my delight, I should then have perished in mine affliction. I will never forget thy precepts; For with them thou hast quickened me. I am thine, save me; For I have sought thy precepts. The wicked have waited for me, to destroy me; But I will consider thy testimonies. I have seen an end of all perfection; But thy commandment is exceeding broad. Oh how love I thy law! It is my meditation all the day. Thy commandments make me wiser than mine enemies; For they are ever with me. I have more understanding than all my teachers; For thy testimonies are my meditation. I understand more than the aged, Because I have kept thy precepts. I have refrained my feet from every evil way, That I might observe thy word. I have not turned aside from thine ordinances; For thou hast taught me. How sweet are thy words unto my taste! Yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth! Through thy precepts I get understanding: Therefore I hate every false way. Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, And light unto my path. I have sworn, and have confirmed it, That I will observe thy righteous ordinances. I am afflicted very much: Quicken me, O Jehovah, according unto thy word. Accept, I beseech thee, the freewill-offerings of my mouth, O Jehovah, And teach me thine 109 ordinances. My soul is continually in my hand; Yet do I not for-110 get thy law. The wicked have laid a snare for me; Yet have I not 111 gone astray from thy precepts. Thy testimonies have I taken 112 as a heritage for ever; For they are the rejoicing of my heart. I have inclined my heart to perform thy statutes For ever, even 113 unto the end. I hate them that are of a double mind; But thy 114 law do I love. Thou art my hiding-place and my shield: I hope 115 in thy word. Depart from me, ye evil-doers, That I may keep 116 the commandments of my God. Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live; And let me not be ashamed of my hope.

117 Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe, And shall have respect 118 unto thy statutes continually. Thou hast set at nought all them 119 that err from thy statutes; For their deceit is falsehood. Thou puttest away all the wicked of the earth like dross: Therefore I 120 love thy testimonies. My flesh trembleth for fear of thee; And 121 I am afraid of thy judgments. I have done justice and righ-122 teousness: Leave me not to mine oppressors. Be surety for thy 123 servant for good: Let not the proud oppress me. Mine eyes fail 124 for thy salvation, And for thy righteous word. Deal with thy servant according unto thy lovingkindness, And teach me thy 125 statutes. I am thy servant; Give me understanding, That I may 126 know thy testimonies. It is time for Jehovah to work; For they 127 have made void thy law. Therefore I love thy commandments 128 Above gold, yea, above fine gold. Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; And I hate every false 129 way. Thy testimonies are wonderful; Therefore doth my soul 130 keep them. The opening of thy words giveth light; It giveth 131 understanding unto the simple. I opened wide my mouth, and 132 panted; For I longed for thy commandments. Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me, As thou usest to do unto those 133 that love thy name. Establish my footsteps in thy word; And 134 let not any iniquity have dominion over me. Redeem me from 135 the oppression of man: So will I observe thy precepts. Make thy face to shine upon thy servant; And teach me thy statutes.
136 Streams of water run down mine eyes, Because they observe 137 not thy law. Righteous art thou, O Jehovah, And upright are 138 thy judgments. Thou hast commanded thy testimonies in righ-139 teousness And very faithfulness. My zeal hath consumed me, Because mine adversaries have forgotten thy words. Thy word 140 is very pure; Therefore thy servant loveth it. I am small and 141 despised; Yet do I not forget thy precepts. Thy righteousness 142 is an everlasting righteousness, And thy law is truth. Trouble 143 and anguish have taken hold on me; Yet thy commandments are my delight. Thy testimonies are righteous for ever: Give me 144 understanding, and I shall live. I have called with my whole 145 heart; Answer me, O Jehovah: I will keep thy statutes. I have 146 called unto thee; Save me, And I shall observe thy testimonies.

 I anticipated the dawning of the morning, and cried: I hoped 147 in thy words. Mine eyes anticipated the night-watches, That 148 I might meditate on thy word. Hear my voice according unto 149 thy lovingkindness: Quicken me, O Jehovah, according to thine ordinances. They draw nigh that follow after wickedness; They 150 are far from thy law. Thou art nigh, O Jehovah; And all thy 151 commandments are truth. Of old have I known from thy testi- 152 monies, That thou hast founded them for ever. Consider mine 153 affliction, and deliver me; For I do not forget thy law. Plead 154 thou my cause, and redeem me: Quicken me according to thy word. Salvation is far from the wicked; For they seek not thy 155 statutes. Great are thy tender mercies, O Jehovah: Quicken me 156 according to thine ordinances. Many are my persecutors and 157 mine adversaries; Yet have I not swerved from thy testimonies.
 I beheld the treacherous, and was grieved, Because they observe 158 not thy word. Consider how I love thy precepts: Quicken me, 159 O Jehovah, according to thy lovingkindness. The sum of thy 160 word is truth; And every one of thy righteous ordinances en- dureth for ever. Princes have persecuted me without a cause; 161 But my heart standeth in awe of thy words. I rejoice at thy 162 word, As one that findeth great spoil. I hate and abhor false- 163 hood; But thy law do I love. Seven times a day do I praise 164 thee, Because of thy righteous ordinances. Great peace have 165 they that love thy law; And they have no occasion of stumbling.
 I have hoped for thy salvation, O Jehovah, And have done thy 166 commandments. My soul hath observed thy testimonies; And 167 I love them exceedingly. I have observed thy precepts and thy 168 testimonies; For all my ways are before thee. Let my cry come 169 near before thee, O Jehovah: Give me understanding according to thy word. Let my supplication come before thee: Deliver me 170

171 according to thy word. Let my lips utter praise; For thou teach-172 est me thy statutes. Let my tongue sing of thy word; For all 173 thy commandments are righteousness. Let thy hand be ready 174 to help me; For I have chosen thy precepts. I have longed for 175 thy salvation, O Jehovah; And thy law is my delight. Let my soul live, and it shall praise thee; And let thine ordinances help 176 me. I have gone astray like a lost sheep; Seek thy servant; For I do not forget thy commandments.

120 In my distress I cried unto Jehovah, And he answered me.
2 Deliver my soul, O Jehovah, from lying lips, And from a deceitful 3 tongue. What shall be given unto thee, and what shall be done 4 more unto thee, Thou deceitful tongue? Sharp arrows of the 5 mighty, With coals of juniper. Woe is me, that I sojourn in 6 Meshech, That I dwell among the tents of Kedar! My soul hath 7 long had her dwelling With him that hateth peace. I am for peace: But when I speak, they are for war.

121 I will lift up mine eyes unto the mountains: From whence 2 shall my help come? My help cometh from Jehovah, Who made 3 heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: He 4 that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth 5 Israel Will neither slumber nor sleep. Jehovah is thy keeper: 6 Jehovah is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not 7 smite thee by day, Nor the moon by night. Jehovah will keep 8 thee from all evil; He will keep thy soul. Jehovah will keep thy going out and thy coming in From this time forth and for evermore.

122 I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go unto the house of 2 Jehovah. Our feet are standing Within thy gates, O Jerusalem, 3 Jerusalem, that art builded As a city that is compact together; 4 Whither the tribes go up, even the tribes of Jehovah, For an ordinance for Israel, To give thanks unto the name of Jehovah.
5 For there are set thrones for judgment, The thrones of the house 6 of David. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: They shall prosper 7 that love thee. Peace be within thy walls, And prosperity within 8 thy palaces. For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now 9 say, Peace be within thee. For the sake of the house of Jehovah our God I will seek thy good.

123 Unto thee do I lift up mine eyes, O thou that sittest in the 2 heavens. Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their master, As the eyes of a maid unto the hand of her mistress; So our eyes look unto Jehovah our God, Until he have mercy upon us. Have mercy upon us, O Jehovah, have mercy upon us; For we are exceedingly filled with contempt. Our soul is exceedingly filled With the scoffing of those that are at ease, And with the contempt of the proud.

If it had not been Jehovah who was on our side, Let Israel now say, If it had not been Jehovah who was on our side, When men rose up against us; Then they had swallowed us up alive, When their wrath was kindled against us; Then the waters had overwhelmed us, The stream had gone over our soul; Then the proud waters had gone over our soul. Blessed be Jehovah, Who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth. Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: The snare is broken, and we are escaped. Our help is in the name of Jehovah, Who made heaven and earth. 124

They that trust in Jehovah Are as mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abideth for ever. As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, So Jehovah is round about his people From this time forth and for evermore. For the sceptre of wickedness shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; That the righteous put not forth their hands unto iniquity. Do good, O Jehovah, unto those that are good, And to them that are upright in their hearts. But as for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, Jehovah will lead them forth with the workers of iniquity. Peace be upon Israel. 125

When Jehovah brought back those that returned to Zion, We were like unto them that dream. Then was our mouth filled with laughter, And our tongue with singing: Then said they among the nations, Jehovah hath done great things for them. Jehovah hath done great things for us, Whereof we are glad. Turn again our captivity, O Jehovah, As the streams in the South. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing seed for sowing, Shall doubtless come again with joy, bringing his sheaves with him. 126

Except Jehovah build the house, They labor in vain that build it: Except Jehovah keep the city, The watchman waketh but in vain. It is vain for you to rise up early, To take rest late, To eat the bread of toil; For so he giveth unto his beloved sleep. Lo, 127 children are a heritage of Jehovah; And the fruit of the womb is 4 his reward. As arrows in the hand of a mighty man, So are the 5 children of youth. Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: They shall not be put to shame, When they speak with their enemies in the gate.

128 Blessed is every one that feareth Jehovah, That walketh in his 2 ways. For thou shalt eat the labor of thy hands: Happy shalt 3 thou be, and it shall be well with thee. Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine, In the innermost parts of thy house; Thy children 4 like olive plants, Round about thy table. Behold, thus shall the 5 man be blessed That feareth Jehovah. Jehovah bless thee out of Zion: And see thou the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy 6 life. Yea, see thou thy children's children. Peace be upon Israel.

129 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth up, Let 2 Israel now say, Many a time have they afflicted me from my 3 youth up: Yet they have not prevailed against me. The plowers 4 plowed upon my back; They made long their furrows. Jehovah 5 is righteous: He hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked. Let them be put to shame and turned backward, All they that hate 6 Zion. Let them be as the grass upon the housetops, Which 7 withereth before it groweth up; Wherewith the reaper filleth 8 not his hand, Nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom. Neither do they that go by say, The blessing of Jehovah be upon you; We bless you in the name of Jehovah.

130, 2 Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O Jehovah. Lord, hear my voice: Let thine ears be attentive To the voice of my 3 supplications. If thou, Jehovah, shouldest mark iniquities, O 4 Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with thee, That 5 thou mayest be feared. I wait for Jehovah, my soul doth wait, 6 And in his word do I hope. My soul waiteth for the Lord More than watchmen wait for the morning; Yea, more than watchmen 7 for the morning. O Israel, hope in Jehovah; For with Jehovah there is lovingkindness, And with him is plenteous redemption.
 8 And he will redeem Israel From all his iniquities.

131 Jehovah, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty; Neither do I exercise myself in great matters, Or in things too wonderful 2 for me. Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul; Like a weaned child with his mother, Like a weaned child is my soul within me.
 3 O Israel, hope in Jehovah From this time forth and for evermore.

Jehovah, remember for David All his affliction; How he sware 132, 2 unto Jehovah, And vowed unto the Mighty One of Jacob: Surely 3 I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, Nor go up into my bed; I will not give sleep to mine eyes, Or slumber to mine 4 eyelids; Until I find out a place for Jehovah, A tabernacle for 5 the Mighty One of Jacob. Lo, we heard of it in Ephrathah: We 6 found it in the field of the wood. We will go into his tabernacles; 7 We will worship at his footstool. Arise, O Jehovah, into thy 8 resting-place; Thou, and the ark of thy strength. Let thy priest 9 be clothed with righteousness; And let thy saints shout for joy.
For thy servant David's sake Turn not away the face of thine 10 anointed. Jehovah hath sworn unto David in truth; He will not 11 turn from it: Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.
If thy children will keep my covenant And my testimony that I 12 shall teach them, Their children also shall sit upon thy throne for evermore. For Jehovah hath chosen Zion; He hath desired 13 it for his habitation. This is my resting-place for ever: Here 14 will I dwell; For I have desired it. I will abundantly bless her 15 provision: I will satisfy her poor with bread. Her priests also 16 will I clothe with salvation; And her saints shall shout aloud for joy. There will I make the horn of David to bud: I have 17 ordained a lamp for mine anointed. His enemies will I clothe 18 with shame; But upon himself shall his crown flourish.

Behold, how good and how pleasant it is For brethren to dwell 133 together in unity! It is like the precious oil upon the head, That 2 ran down upon the beard, Even Aaron's beard; That came down upon the skirt of his garments; Like the dew of Hermon, That 3 cometh down upon the mountains of Zion: For there Jehovah commanded the blessing, Even life for evermore.

Behold, bless ye Jehovah, all ye servants of Jehovah, That 134 by night stand in the house of Jehovah. Lift up your hands to 2 the sanctuary, And bless ye Jehovah. Jehovah bless thee out of 3 Zion; Even he that made heaven and earth.

Praise ye Jehovah. Praise ye the name of Jehovah; Praise him, 135 O ye servants of Jehovah, Ye that stand in the house of Jehovah, 2 In the courts of the house of our God. Praise ye Jehovah; For 3 Jehovah is good: Sing praises unto his name; For it is pleasant.
For Jehovah hath chosen Jacob unto himself, And Israel for his 4 own possession. For I know that Jehovah is great, And that our 5 6 Lord is above all gods. Whatsoever Jehovah pleased, that hath he done, In heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps; 7 Who causeth the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; Who maketh lightnings for the rain; Who bringeth forth the 8 wind out of his treasures; Who smote the first-born of Egypt, 9 Both of man and beast; Who sent signs and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt, Upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants; 10, 11 Who smote many nations, And slew mighty kings, Sihon king of the Amorites, And Og king of Bashan, And all the kingdoms 12 of Canaan, And gave their land for a heritage, A heritage unto 13 Israel his people. Thy name, O Jehovah, endureth for ever; Thy 14 memorial name, O Jehovah, throughout all generations. For Jehovah will judge his people, And repent himself concerning 15 his servants. The idols of the nations are silver and gold, The 16 work of men's hands. They have mouths, but they speak not; 17 Eyes have they, but they see not; They have ears, but they 18 hear not; Neither is there any breath in their mouths. They that make them shall be like unto them; Yea, every one that 19 trusteth in them. O house of Israel, bless ye Jehovah: O house 20 of Aaron, bless ye Jehovah: O house of Levi, bless ye Jehovah: 21 Ye that fear Jehovah, bless ye Jehovah. Blessed be Jehovah out of Zion, Who dwelleth at Jerusalem. Praise ye Jehovah.

136 Oh give thanks unto Jehovah; For he is good; For his lov-2 ingkindness endureth for ever. Oh give thanks unto the God of 3 gods; For his lovingkindness endureth for ever. Oh give thanks unto the Lord of lords; For his lovingkindness endureth for ever: 4 To him who alone doeth great wonders; For his lovingkindness 5 endureth for ever: To him that by understanding made the 6 heavens; For his lovingkindness endureth for ever: To him that spread forth the earth above the waters; For his lovingkindness 7 endureth for ever: To him that made great lights; For his lov-8 ingkindness endureth for ever: The sun to rule by day; For his 9 lovingkindness endureth for ever; The moon and stars to rule 10 by night; For his lovingkindness endureth for ever: To him that smote Egypt in their first-born; For his lovingkindness endureth 11 for ever; And brought out Israel from among them; For his lov-12 ingkindness endureth for ever; With a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm; For his lovingkindness endureth for ever: 13 To him that divided the Red Sea in sunder; For his lovingkindness endureth for ever; And made Israel to pass through the 14 midst of it; For his lovingkindness endureth for ever; But over- 15 threw Pharaoh and his host in the Red Sea; For his lovingkindness endureth for ever: To him that led his people through the 16 wilderness; For his lovingkindness endureth for ever: To him 17 that smote great kings; For his lovingkindness endureth for ever; And slew famous kings; For his lovingkindness endureth for ever: 18 Sihon king of the Amorites; For his lovingkindness endureth for- 19 ever; And Og king of Bashan; For his lovingkindness endureth 20 for ever; And gave their land for a heritage; For his lovingkind- 21 ness endureth for ever; Even a heritage unto Israel his servant; 22 For his lovingkindness endureth for ever: Who remembered us 23 in our low estate; For his lovingkindness endureth for ever; And 24 hath delivered us from our adversaries; For his lovingkindness endureth for ever: Who giveth food to all flesh; For his lov- 25 ingkindness endureth for ever. Oh give thanks unto the God of 26 heaven; For his lovingkindness endureth for ever.

By the rivers of Babylon, There we sat down, yea, we wept, 137 When we remembered Zion. Upon the willows in the midst 2 thereof We hanged up our harps. For there they that led us 3 captive required of us songs, And they that wasted us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion. How shall 4 we sing Jehovah's song In a foreign land? If I forget thee, O 5 Jerusalem, Let my right hand forget her skill. Let my tongue 6 cleave to the roof of my mouth, If I remember thee not; If I prefer not Jerusalem Above my chief joy. Remember, O Jehovah, 7 against the children of Edom The day of Jerusalem; Who said, Rase it, rase it, Even to the foundation thereof. O daughter 8 of Babylon, that art to be destroyed, Happy shall he be, that rewardeth thee As thou hast served us. Happy shall he be, that 9 taketh and dasheth thy little ones Against the rock.

I will give thee thanks with my whole heart: Before the gods 138 will I sing praises unto thee. I will worship toward thy holy 2 temple, And give thanks unto thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: For thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name. In the day that I called thou answeredst me, Thou didst 3 encourage me with strength in my soul. All the kings of the 4 earth shall give thee thanks, O Jehovah, For they have heard the words of thy mouth. Yea, they shall sing of the ways of Jehovah; 5 6 For great is the glory of Jehovah. For though Jehovah is high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly; But the haughty he knoweth 7 from afar. Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me; Thou wilt stretch forth thy hand against the wrath 8 of mine enemies, And thy right hand will save me. Jehovah will perfect that which concerneth me: Thy lovingkindness, O Jehovah, endureth for ever; Forsake not the works of thine own hands.

139, 2 O Jehovah, thou hast searched me, and known me. Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising; Thou understand-3 est my thought afar off. Thou searchest out my path and my 4 lying down, And art acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word in my tongue, But, lo, O Jehovah, thou knowest it 5 altogether. Thou hast beset me behind and before, And laid 6 thy hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; 7 It is high, I cannot attain unto it. Whither shall I go from thy 8 Spirit? Or whither shall I flee from thy presence? If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, 9 thou art there. If I take the wings of the morning, And dwell in 10 the uttermost parts of the sea; Even there shall thy hand lead 11 me, And thy right hand shall hold me. If I say, Surely the darkness shall overwhelm me, And the light about me shall be night; 12 Even the darkness hideth not from thee, But the night shineth as the day: The darkness and the light are both alike to thee.
13 For thou didst form my inward parts: Thou didst cover me in my 14 mother's womb. I will give thanks unto thee; For I am fearfully and wonderfully made: Wonderful are thy works; And that my 15 soul knoweth right well. My frame was not hidden from thee, When I was made in secret, And curiously wrought in the lowest 16 parts of the earth. Thine eyes did see mine unformed substance; And in thy book they were all written, Even the days that were 17 ordained for me, When as yet there was none of them. How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! How great is 18 the sum of them! If I should count them, they are more in num-19 ber than the sand: When I awake, I am still with thee. Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: Depart from me therefore, ye 20 bloodthirsty men. For they speak against thee wickedly, And 21 thine enemies take thy name in vain. Do not I hate them, O Jehovah, that hate thee? And am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee? I hate them with perfect hatred: They 22 are become mine enemies. Search me, O God, and know my 23 heart: Try me, and know my thoughts; And see if there be any 24 wicked way in me, And lead me in the way everlasting.

Deliver me, O Jehovah, from the evil man; Preserve me from 140 the violent man: Who devise mischiefs in their heart; Contin- 2 ually do they gather themselves together for war. They have 3 sharpened their tongue like a serpent; Adders' poison is under their lips. Selah Keep me, O Jehovah, from the hands of the 4 wicked; Preserve me from the violent man: Who have purposed to thrust aside my steps. The proud have hid a snare for me, 5 and cords; They have spread a net by the wayside; They have set gins for me. Selah I said unto Jehovah, Thou art my God: 6 Give ear unto the voice of my supplications, O Jehovah. O Je- 7 hovah the Lord, the strength of my salvation, Thou hast covered my head in the day of battle. Grant not, O Jehovah, the de- 8 sires of the wicked; Further not his evil device, lest they exalt themselves. Selah As for the head of those that compass me 9 about, Let the mischief of their own lips cover them. Let burn- 10 ing coals fall upon them: Let them be cast into the fire, Into deep pits, whence they shall not rise. An evil speaker shall not 11 be established in the earth: Evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him. I know that Jehovah will maintain the cause 12 of the afflicted, And justice for the needy. Surely the righteous 13 shall give thanks unto thy name: The upright shall dwell in thy presence.

Jehovah, I have called upon thee; Make haste unto me: Give 141 ear unto my voice, when I call unto thee. Let my prayer be set 2 forth as incense before thee; The lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice. Set a watch, O Jehovah, before my mouth; 3 Keep the door of my lips. Incline not my heart to any evil thing, 4 To practise deeds of wickedness With men that work iniquity: And let me not eat of their dainties. Let the righteous smite 5 me, it shall be a kindness; And let him reprove me, it shall be as oil upon the head; Let not my head refuse it: For even in their wickedness shall my prayer continue. Their judges are 6 thrown down by the sides of the rock; And they shall hear my words; For they are sweet. As when one ploweth and cleaveth 7 the earth, Our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol. For 8 mine eyes are unto thee, O Jehovah the Lord: In thee do I take 9 refuge; Leave not my soul destitute. Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me, And from the gins of the workers 10 of iniquity. Let the wicked fall into their own nets, Whilst that I withal escape.

142 I cry with my voice unto Jehovah; With my voice unto Je-2 hovah do I make supplication. I pour out my complaint before 3 him; I show before him my trouble. When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, Thou knewest my path. In the way wherein 4 I walk Have they hidden a snare for me. Look on my right hand, and see; For there is no man that knoweth me: Refuge hath failed 5 me; No man careth for my soul. I cried unto thee, O Jehovah; I said, Thou art my refuge, My portion in the land of the living.
6 Attend unto my cry; For I am brought very low: Deliver me from 7 my persecutors; For they are stronger than I. Bring my soul out of prison, That I may give thanks unto thy name: The righteous shall compass me about; For thou wilt deal bountifully with me.

143 Hear my prayer, O Jehovah; Give ear to my supplications: 2 In thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness. And enter not into judgment with thy servant; For in thy sight no 3 man living is righteous. For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; He hath smitten my life down to the ground: He hath made me to dwell in dark places, as those that have been long 4 dead. Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me; My heart 5 within me is desolate. I remember the days of old; I meditate on 6 all thy doings; I muse on the work of thy hands. I spread forth my hands unto thee: My soul thirsteth after thee, as a weary 7 land. Selah Make haste to answer me, O Jehovah; My spirit faileth: Hide not thy face from me, Lest I become like them that 8 go down into the pit. Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness in the morning; For in thee do I trust: Cause me to know the way 9 wherein I should walk; For I lift up my soul unto thee. Deliver me, O Jehovah, from mine enemies: I flee unto thee to hide 10 me. Teach me to do thy will; For thou art my God: Thy Spirit 11 is good; Lead me in the land of uprightness. Quicken me, O Jehovah, for thy name's sake: In thy righteousness bring my soul 12 out of trouble. And in thy lovingkindness cut off mine enemies, And destroy all them that afflict my soul; For I am thy servant.

144 Blessed be Jehovah my rock, Who teacheth my hands to war,

And my fingers to fight: My lovingkindness, and my fortress, 2 My high tower, and my deliverer; My shield, and he in whom I take refuge; Who subdueth my people under me. Jehovah, 3 what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him? Or the son of man, that thou makest account of him? Man is like to vanity: 4 His days are as a shadow that passeth away. Bow thy heavens, 5 O Jehovah, and come down: Touch the mountains, and they shall smoke. Cast forth lightning, and scatter them; Send out 6 thine arrows, and discomfit them. Stretch forth thy hand from 7 above; Rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters, Out of the hand of aliens; Whose mouth speaketh deceit, And whose right 8 hand is a right hand of falsehood. I will sing a new song unto 9 thee, O God: Upon a psaltery of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee. Thou art he that giveth salvation unto kings; Who 10 rescueth David his servant from the hurtful sword. Rescue me, 11 and deliver me out of the hand of aliens, Whose mouth speaketh deceit, And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood. When 12 our sons shall be as plants grown up in their youth, And our daughters as corner-stones hewn after the fashion of a palace; When our garners are full, affording all manner of store, And 13 our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields; When our oxen are well laden; When there is no breaking in, 14 and no going forth, And no outcry in our streets: Happy is the people that is in such a case; Yea, happy is the people whose God is Jehovah.

I will extol thee, my God, O King; And I will bless thy name 145 for ever and ever. Every day will I bless thee; And I will praise 2 thy name for ever and ever. Great is Jehovah, and greatly to be 3 praised; And his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall 4 laud thy works to another, And shall declare thy mighty acts.
Of the glorious majesty of thine honor, And of thy wondrous 5 works, will I meditate. And men shall speak of the might of 6 thy terrible acts; And I will declare thy greatness. They shall 7 utter the memory of thy great goodness, And shall sing of thy righteousness. Jehovah is gracious, and merciful; Slow to anger, 8 and of great lovingkindness. Jehovah is good to all; And his 9 tender mercies are over all his works. All thy works shall give 10 thanks unto thee, O Jehovah; And thy saints shall bless thee.
They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, And talk of thy 11 12 power; To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, And 13 the glory of the majesty of his kingdom. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, And thy dominion endureth throughout all 14 generations. Jehovah upholdeth all that fall, And raiseth up all 15 those that are bowed down. The eyes of all wait for thee; And 16 thou givest them their food in due season. Thou openest thy 17 hand, And satisfiest the desire of every living thing. Jehovah is 18 righteous in all his ways, And gracious in all his works. Jehovah is nigh unto all them that call upon him, To all that call upon 19 him in truth. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him; He 20 also will hear their cry and will save them. Jehovah preserveth 21 all them that love him; But all the wicked will he destroy. My mouth shall speak the praise of Jehovah; And let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

146, 2 Praise ye Jehovah. Praise Jehovah, O my soul. While I live will I praise Jehovah: I will sing praises unto my God while I 3 have any being. Put not your trust in princes, Nor in the son of 4 man, in whom there is no help. His breath goeth forth, he retur-5 neth to his earth; In that very day his thoughts perish. Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, Whose hope is in 6 Jehovah his God: Who made heaven and earth, The sea, and 7 all that in them is; Who keepeth truth for ever; Who executeth justice for the oppressed; Who giveth food to the hungry. Je-8 hovah looseth the prisoners; Jehovah openeth the eyes of the blind; Jehovah raiseth up them that are bowed down; Jehovah 9 loveth the righteous; Jehovah preserveth the sojourners; He upholdeth the fatherless and widow; But the way of the wicked he 10 turneth upside down. Jehovah will reign for ever, Thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye Jehovah.

147 Praise ye Jehovah; For it is good to sing praises unto our 2 God; For it is pleasant, and praise is comely. Jehovah doth build up Jerusalem; He gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.
3 He healeth the broken in heart, And bindeth up their wounds.
4 He counteth the number of the stars; He calleth them all by 5 their names. Great is our Lord, and mighty in power; His 6 understanding is infinite. Jehovah upholdeth the meek: He 7 bringeth the wicked down to the ground. Sing unto Jehovah with thanksgiving; Sing praises upon the harp unto our God, 8 Who covereth the heavens with clouds, Who prepareth rain for the earth, Who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains. He 9 giveth to the beast his food, And to the young ravens which cry.

 He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: He taketh no 10 pleasure in the legs of a man. Jehovah taketh pleasure in them 11 that fear him, In those that hope in his lovingkindness. Praise 12 Jehovah, O Jerusalem; Praise thy God, O Zion. For he hath 13 strengthened the bars of thy gates; He hath blessed thy children 14 within thee. He maketh peace in thy borders; He filleth thee 15 with the finest of the wheat. He sendeth out his commandment 16 upon earth; His word runneth very swiftly. He giveth snow 17 like wool; He scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes. He casteth 18 forth his ice like morsels: Who can stand before his cold? He 19 sendeth out his word, and melteth them: He causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow. He showeth his word unto Jacob, 20 His statutes and his ordinances unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation; And as for his ordinances, they have not known them. Praise ye Jehovah.

Praise ye Jehovah. Praise ye Jehovah from the heavens: Praise 148 him in the heights. Praise ye him, all his angels: Praise ye him, 2 all his host. Praise ye him, sun and moon: Praise him, all ye 3 stars of light. Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, And ye wa- 4 ters that are above the heavens. Let them praise the name of 5 Jehovah; For he commanded, and they were created. He hath 6 also established them for ever and ever: He hath made a decree which shall not pass away. Praise Jehovah from the earth, Ye 7 sea-monsters, and all deeps. Fire and hail, snow and vapor; 8 Stormy wind, fulfilling his word; Mountains and all hills; Fruit- 9 ful trees and all cedars; Beasts and all cattle; Creeping things 10 and flying birds; Kings of the earth and all peoples; Princes 11 and all judges of the earth; Both young men and virgins; Old 12 men and children: Let them praise the name of Jehovah; For 13 his name alone is exalted; His glory is above the earth and the heavens. And he hath lifted up the horn of his people, The 14 praise of all his saints; Even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him. Praise ye Jehovah.

Praise ye Jehovah. Sing unto Jehovah a new song, And his 149 praise in the assembly of the saints. Let Israel rejoice in him 2 that made him: Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
 Let them praise his name in the dance: Let them sing praises 3 4 unto him with timbrel and harp. For Jehovah taketh pleasure 5 in his people: He will beautify the meek with salvation. Let the 6 saints exult in glory: Let them sing for joy upon their beds. Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, And a two-edged sword 7 in their hand; To execute vengeance upon the nations, And 8 punishments upon the peoples; To bind their kings with chains, 9 And their nobles with fetters of iron; To execute upon them the judgment written: This honor have all his saints. Praise ye Jehovah.

150 Praise ye Jehovah. Praise God in his sanctuary: Praise him 2 in the firmament of his power. Praise him for his mighty acts: 3 Praise him according to his excellent greatness. Praise him with 4 trumpet sound: Praise him with psaltery and harp. Praise him with timbrel and dance: Praise him with stringed instruments 5 and pipe. Praise him with loud cymbals: Praise him with high 6 sounding cymbals. Let everything that hath breath praise Jehovah. Praise ye Jehovah.

THE PROVERBS.

She proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Is- 1 rael: To know wisdom and instruction; To discern 2 the words of understanding; To receive instruction in 3 wise dealing, In righteousness and justice and equity; To give prudence to the simple, To the young man knowledge 4 and discretion: That the wise man may hear, and increase in 5 learning; And that the man of understanding may attain unto sound counsels: To understand a proverb, and a figure, The 6 words of the wise, and their dark sayings. The fear of Jehovah 7 is the beginning of knowledge; But the foolish despise wisdom and instruction. My son, hear the instruction of thy father, 8 And forsake not the law of thy mother: For they shall be a 9 chaplet of grace unto thy head, And chains about thy neck. My 10 son, if sinners entice thee, Consent thou not. If they say, Come 11 with us, Let us lay wait for blood; Let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause; Let us swallow them up alive as Sheol, 12 And whole, as those that go down into the pit; We shall find 13 all precious substance; We shall fill our houses with spoil; Thou 14 shalt cast thy lot among us; We will all have one purse: My 15 son, walk not thou in the way with them; Refrain thy foot from their path: For their feet run to evil, And they make haste to 16 shed blood. For in vain is the net spread In the sight of any 17 bird: And these lay wait for their own blood; They lurk privily 18 for their own lives. So are the ways of every one that is greedy 19 of gain; It taketh away the life of the owners thereof. Wisdom 20 crieth aloud in the street; She uttereth her voice in the broad places; She crieth in the chief place of concourse; At the en- 21 trance of the gates, In the city, she uttereth her words: How 22 long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? And scoffers delight them in scoffing, And fools hate knowledge? Turn you 23 at my reproof: Behold, I will pour out my spirit upon you; I will make known my words unto you. Because I have called, 24 and ye have refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man 25 hath regarded; But ye have set at nought all my counsel, And 26 would none of my reproof: I also will laugh in the day of your 27 calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh; When your fear cometh as a storm, And your calamity cometh on as a whirlwind; 28 When distress and anguish come upon you. Then will they call upon me, but I will not answer; They will seek me diligently, but 29 they shall not find me: For that they hated knowledge, And did 30 not choose the fear of Jehovah: They would none of my counsel; 31 They despised all my reproof. Therefore shall they eat of the 32 fruit of their own way, And be filled with their own devices. For the backsliding of the simple shall slay them, And the careless 33 ease of fools shall destroy them. But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell securely, And shall be quiet without fear of evil.

2 My son, if thou wilt receive my words, And lay up my com-2 mandments with thee; So as to incline thine ear unto wisdom, 3 And apply thy heart to understanding; Yea, if thou cry after 4 discernment, And lift up thy voice for understanding; If thou 5 seek her as silver, And search for her as for hid treasures: Then shalt thou understand the fear of Jehovah, And find the knowl-6 edge of God. For Jehovah giveth wisdom; Out of his mouth 7 cometh knowledge and understanding: He layeth up sound wisdom for the upright; He is a shield to them that walk in integrity; 8 That he may guard the paths of justice, And preserve the way 9 of his saints. Then shalt thou understand righteousness and 10 justice, And equity, yea, every good path. For wisdom shall enter into thy heart, And knowledge shall be pleasant unto thy 11 soul; Discretion shall watch over thee; Understanding shall keep 12 thee: To deliver thee from the way of evil, From the men that 13 speak perverse things; Who forsake the paths of uprightness, 14 To walk in the ways of darkness; Who rejoice to do evil, And 15 delight in the perverseness of evil; Who are crooked in their 16 ways, And wayward in their paths: To deliver thee from the strange woman, Even from the foreigner that flattereth with her 17 words; That forsaketh the friend of her youth, And forgetteth 18 the covenant of her God: For her house inclineth unto death, 19 And her paths unto the dead; None that go unto her return 20 again, Neither do they attain unto the paths of life: That thou mayest walk in the way of good men, And keep the paths of the righteous. For the upright shall dwell in the land, And the perfect shall remain in it. But the wicked shall be cut off from the land, And the treacherous shall be rooted out of it.

My son, forget not my law; But let thy heart keep my commandments: For length of days, and years of life, And peace, will they add to thee. Let not kindness and truth forsake thee: Bind them about thy neck; Write them upon the tablet of thy heart: So shalt thou find favor and good understanding In the sight of God and man. Trust in Jehovah with all thy heart, And lean not upon thine own understanding: In all thy ways acknowledge him, And he will direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes; Fear Jehovah, and depart from evil: It will be health to thy navel, And marrow to thy bones. Honor Jehovah with thy substance, And with the first-fruits of all thine increase: So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, And thy vats shall overflow with new wine. My son, despise not the chastening of Jehovah; Neither be weary of his reproof: For whom Jehovah loveth he reproveth; Even as a father the son in whom he delighteth. Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, And the man that getteth understanding. For the gaining of it is better than the gaining of silver, And the profit thereof than fine gold. She is more precious than rubies: And none of the things thou canst desire are to be compared unto her. Length of days is in her right hand; In her left hand are riches and honor. Her ways are ways of pleasantness, And all her paths are peace. She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: And happy is every one that retaineth her. Jehovah by wisdom founded the earth; By understanding he established the heavens. By his knowledge the depths were broken up, And the skies drop down the dew. My son, let them not depart from thine eyes; Keep sound wisdom and discretion: So shall they be life unto thy soul, And grace to thy neck. Then shalt thou walk in thy way securely, And thy foot shall not stumble. When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: Yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet. Be not afraid of sudden fear, Neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh: For Jehovah will be thy confidence, And will keep thy foot from being taken. Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, When it is in the power of thy hand to do it. Say not unto thy neighbor, Go, and come again, And 29 to-morrow I will give; When thou hast it by thee. Devise not evil against thy neighbor, Seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.

30 Strive not with a man without cause, If he have done thee no 31 harm. Envy thou not the man of violence, And choose none of 32 his ways. For the perverse is an abomination to Jehovah; But 33 his friendship is with the upright. The curse of Jehovah is in the house of the wicked; But he blesseth the habitation of the 34 righteous. Surely he scoffeth at the scoffers; But he giveth grace 35 unto the lowly. The wise shall inherit glory; But shame shall be the promotion of fools.

4 Hear, my sons, the instruction of a father, And attend to know 2 understanding: For I give you good doctrine; Forsake ye not my 3 law. For I was a son unto my father, Tender and only beloved 4 in the sight of my mother. And he taught me, and said unto me: Let thy heart retain my words; Keep my commandments, 5 and live; Get wisdom, get understanding; Forget not, neither 6 decline from the words of my mouth; Forsake her not, and she 7 will preserve thee; Love her, and she will keep thee. Wisdom is the principal thing; Therefore get wisdom; Yea, with all thy 8 getting get understanding. Exalt her, and she will promote thee; She will bring thee to honor, when thou dost embrace her.
9 She will give to thy head a chaplet of grace; A crown of beauty 10 will she deliver to thee. Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; 11 And the years of thy life shall be many. I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in paths of uprightness.
12 When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened; And if thou 13 runnest, thou shalt not stumble. Take fast hold of instruction; 14 Let her not go: Keep her; For she is thy life. Enter not into the 15 path of the wicked, And walk not in the way of evil men. Avoid 16 it, pass not by it; Turn from it, and pass on. For they sleep not, except they do evil; And their sleep is taken away, unless 17 they cause some to fall. For they eat the bread of wickedness, 18 And drink the wine of violence. But the path of the righteous is as the dawning light, That shineth more and more unto the 19 perfect day. The way of the wicked is as darkness: They know 20 not at what they stumble. My son, attend to my words; Incline 21 thine ear unto my sayings. Let them not depart from thine 22 eyes; Keep them in the midst of thy heart. For they are life 23 unto those that find them, And health to all their flesh. Keep thy heart with all diligence; For out of it are the issues of life.

 Put away from thee a wayward mouth, And perverse lips put far 24 from thee. Let thine eyes look right on, And let thine eyelids 25 look straight before thee. Make level the path of thy feet, And 26 let all thy ways be established. Turn not to the right hand nor 27 to the left: Remove thy foot from evil.

My son, attend unto my wisdom; Incline thine ear to my 5 understanding: That thou mayest preserve discretion, And that 2 thy lips may keep knowledge. For the lips of a strange woman 3 drop honey, And her mouth is smoother than oil: But in the end 4 she is bitter as wormwood, Sharp as a two-edged sword. Her 5 feet go down to death; Her steps take hold on Sheol; So that 6 she findeth not the level path of life: Her ways are unstable, and she knoweth it not. Now therefore, my sons, hearken unto me, 7 And depart not from the words of my mouth. Remove thy way 8 far from her, And come not nigh the door of her house; Lest 9 thou give thine honor unto others, And thy years unto the cruel; Lest strangers be filled with thy strength, And thy labors be in 10 the house of an alien, And thou mourn at thy latter end, When 11 thy flesh and thy body are consumed, And say, How have I 12 hated instruction, And my heart despised reproof; Neither have 13 I obeyed the voice of my teachers, Nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me! I was well-nigh in all evil In the midst of 14 the assembly and congregation. Drink waters out of thine own 15 cistern, And running waters out of thine own well. Should thy 16 springs be dispersed abroad, And streams of water in the streets?
 Let them be for thyself alone, And not for strangers with thee. 17 Let thy fountain be blessed; And rejoice in the wife of thy youth. 18 As a loving hind and a pleasant doe, Let her breasts satisfy thee 19 at all times; And be thou ravished always with her love. For 20 why shouldst thou, my son, be ravished with a strange woman, And embrace the bosom of a foreigner? For the ways of man 21 are before the eyes of Jehovah; And he maketh level all his paths.
 His own iniquities shall take the wicked, And he shall be holden 22 with the cords of his sin. He shall die for lack of instruction; 23 And in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

My son, if thou art become surety for thy neighbor, If thou 6 hast stricken thy hands for a stranger; Thou art snared with 2 the words of thy mouth, Thou art taken with the words of thy 3 mouth. Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, Seeing thou 4 art come into the hand of thy neighbor: Go, humble thyself, 5 and importune thy neighbor; Give not sleep to thine eyes, Nor 6 slumber to thine eyelids; Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand 7 of the hunter, And as a bird from the hand of the fowler. Go to 8 the ant, thou sluggard; Consider her ways, and be wise: Which 9 having no chief, Overseer, or ruler, Provideth her bread in the 10 summer, And gathereth her food in the harvest. How long 11 wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? When wilt thou arise out of thy 12 sleep? Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, A little folding of the 13 hands to sleep: So shall thy poverty come as a robber, And thy 14 want as an armed man. A worthless person, a man of iniquity, 15 Is he that walketh with a perverse mouth; That winketh with 16 his eyes, that speaketh with his feet, That maketh signs with 17 his fingers; In whose heart is perverseness, Who deviseth evil 18 continually, Who soweth discord. Therefore shall his calamity 19 come suddenly; On a sudden shall he be broken, and that with-20 out remedy. There are six things which Jehovah hateth; Yea, 21 seven which are an abomination unto him: Haughty eyes, a ly-22 ing tongue, And hands that shed innocent blood; A heart that 23 deviseth wicked purposes, Feet that are swift in running to mis-24 chief, A false witness that uttereth lies, And he that soweth 25 discord among brethren. My son, keep the commandment of 26 thy father, And forsake not the law of thy mother: Bind them 27 continually upon thy heart; Tie them about thy neck. When 28 thou walkest, it shall lead thee; When thou sleepest, it shall 29 watch over thee; And when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.

30 For the commandment is a lamp; And the law is light; And re-31 proofs of instruction are the way of life: To keep thee from the evil woman, From the flattery of the foreigner's tongue. Lust not after her beauty in thy heart; Neither let her take thee with her eyelids. For on account of a harlot a man is brought to a piece of bread; And the adulteress hunteth for the precious life.
Can a man take fire in his bosom, And his clothes not be burned?
Or can one walk upon hot coals, And his feet not be scorched?
So he that goeth in to his neighbor's wife; Whosoever toucheth her shall not be unpunished. Men do not despise a thief, if he steal To satisfy himself when he is hungry: But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; He shall give all the substance of his house. He that committeth adultery with a woman is 32 void of understanding: He doeth it who would destroy his own soul. Wounds and dishonor shall he get; And his reproach shall 33 not be wiped away. For jealousy is the rage of a man; And he 34 will not spare in the day of vengeance. He will not regard any 35 ransom; Neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

My son, keep my words, And lay up my commandments with 7 thee. Keep my commandments and live; And my law as the ap- 2 ple of thine eye. Bind them upon thy fingers; Write them upon 3 the tablet of thy heart. Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; 4 And call understanding thy kinswoman: That they may keep 5 thee from the strange woman, From he foreigner that flattereth with her words. For at the window of my house I looked forth 6 through my lattice; And I beheld among the simple ones, I dis- 7 cerned among the youths, A young man void of understanding, Passing through the street near her corner; And he went the way 8 to her house, In the twilight, in the evening of the day, In the 9 middle of the night and in the darkness. And, behold, there met him a woman With the attire of a harlot, and wily of heart.
 She is clamorous and wilful; Her feet abide not in her house: 11 Now she is in the streets, now in the broad places, And lieth in 12 wait at every corner. So she caught him, and kissed him, And 13 with an impudent face she said unto him: Sacrifices of peace- 14 offerings are with me; This day have I paid my vows. Therefore 15 came I forth to meet thee, Diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee. I have spread my couch with carpets of tapestry, 16 With striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt. I have perfumed my 17 bed With myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon. Come, let us take our 18 fill of love until the morning; Let us solace ourselves with loves.
 For the man is not at home; He is gone a long journey: He 19, 20 hath taken a bag of money with him; He will come home at the full moon. With her much fair speech she causeth him to yield; 21 With the flattering of her lips she forceth him along. He goeth 22 after her straightway, As an ox goeth to the slaughter, Or as one in fetters to the correction of the fool; Till an arrow strike 23 through his liver; As a bird hasteth to the snare, And knoweth not that it is for his life. Now therefore, my sons, hearken unto 24 me, And attend to the words of my mouth. Let not thy heart 25 26 decline to her ways; Go not astray in her paths. For she hath cast down many wounded: Yea, all her slain are a mighty host.

27 Her house is the way to Sheol, Going down to the chambers of death.

8 Doth not wisdom cry, And understanding put forth her voice?
2 On the top of high places by the way, Where the paths meet, 3 she standeth; Beside the gates, at the entry of the city, At the 4 coming in at the doors, she crieth aloud: Unto you, O men, 5 I call; And my voice is to the sons of men. O ye simple, understand prudence; And, ye fools, be of an understanding heart.
6 Hear, for I will speak excellent things; And the opening of my 7 lips shall be right things. For my mouth shall utter truth; And 8 wickedness is an abomination to my lips. All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; There is nothing crooked or perverse 9 in them. They are all plain to him that understandeth, And 10 right to them that find knowledge. Receive my instruction, and 11 not silver; And knowledge rather than choice gold. For wisdom is better than rubies; And all the things that may be desired 12 are not to be compared unto it. I wisdom have made prudence 13 my dwelling, And find out knowledge and discretion. The fear of Jehovah is to hate evil: Pride, and arrogancy, and the evil 14 way, And the perverse mouth, do I hate. Counsel is mine, and 15 sound knowledge: I am understanding; I have might. By me 16 kings reign, And princes decree justice. By me princes rule, 17 And nobles, even all the judges of the earth. I love them that 18 love me; And those that seek me diligently shall find me. Riches and honor are with me; Yea, durable wealth and righteousness.
19 My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; And my rev-20 enue than choice silver. I walk in the way of righteousness, In 21 the midst of the paths of justice; That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance, And that I may fill their treasures.
22 Jehovah possessed me in the beginning of his way, Before his 23 works of old. I was set up from everlasting, from the begin-24 ning, Before the earth was. When there were no depths, I was brought forth, When there were no fountains abounding with 25 water. Before the mountains were settled, Before the hills was I 26 brought forth; While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the 27 fields, Nor the beginning of the dust of the world. When he established the heavens, I was there: When he set a circle upon the face of the deep, When he made firm the skies above, When the 28 fountains of the deep became strong, When he gave to the sea 29 its bound, That the waters should not transgress his commandment, When he marked out the foundations of the earth; Then 30 I was by him, as a master workman; And I was daily his delight, Rejoicing always before him, Rejoicing in his habitable earth; 31 And my delight was with the sons of men. Now therefore, my 32 sons, hearken unto me; For blessed are they that keep my ways.

 Hear instruction, and be wise, And refuse it not. Blessed is the 33, 34 man that heareth me, Watching daily at my gates, Waiting at the posts of my doors. For whoso findeth me findeth life, And 35 shall obtain favor of Jehovah. But he that sinneth against me 36 wrongeth his own soul: All they that hate me love death.

Wisdom hath builded her house; She hath hewn out her seven 9 pillars: She hath killed her beasts; She hath mingled her wine; 2 She hath also furnished her table: She hath sent forth her maid- 3 ens; She crieth upon the highest places of the city: Whoso is 4 simple, let him turn in hither: As for him that is void of understanding, she saith to him, Come, eat ye of my bread, And 5 drink of the wine which I have mingled. Leave off, ye simple 6 ones, and live; And walk in the way of understanding. He that 7 correcteth a scoffer getteth to himself reviling; And he that reproveth a wicked man getteth himself a blot. Reprove not a 8 scoffer, lest he hate thee: Reprove a wise man, and he will love thee. Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: 9 Teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning. The 10 fear of Jehovah is the beginning of wisdom; And the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding. For by me thy days shall 11 be multiplied, And the years of thy life shall be increased. If 12 thou art wise, thou art wise for thyself; And if thou scoffest, thou alone shalt bear it. The foolish woman is clamorous; She 13 is simple, and knoweth nothing. And she sitteth at the door 14 of her house, On a seat in the high places of the city, To call 15 to them that pass by, Who go right on their ways: Whoso is 16 simple, let him turn in hither; And as for him that is void of understanding, she saith to him, Stolen waters are sweet, And 17 bread eaten in secret is pleasant. But he knoweth not that the 18 dead are there; That her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

The proverbs of Solomon. A wise son maketh a glad father; 10 2 But a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother. Treasures of wickedness profit nothing; But righteousness delivereth from 3 death. Jehovah will not suffer the soul of the righteous to fam-4 ish; But he thrusteth away the desire of the wicked. He be-cometh poor that worketh with a slack hand; But the hand of 5 the diligent maketh rich. He that gathereth in summer is a wise son; But he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.

6 Blessings are upon the head of the righteous; But violence cov-7 ereth the mouth of the wicked. The memory of the righteous is 8 blessed; But the name of the wicked shall rot. The wise in heart 9 will receive commandments; But a prating fool shall fall. He that walketh uprightly walketh surely; But he that perverteth 10 his ways shall be known. He that winketh with the eye causeth 11 sorrow; But a prating fool shall fall. The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life; But violence covereth the mouth of the 12 wicked. Hatred stirreth up strifes; But love covereth all trans-13 gressions. In the lips of him that hath discernment wisdom is found; But a rod is for the back of him that is void of under-14 standing. Wise men lay up knowledge; But the mouth of the 15 foolish is a present destruction. The rich man's wealth is his 16 strong city: The destruction of the poor is their poverty. The labor of the righteous tendeth to life; The increase of the wicked, 17 to sin. He is in the way of life that heedeth correction; But he 18 that forsaketh reproof erreth. He that hideth hatred is of lying 19 lips; And he that uttereth a slander is a fool. In the multitude of words there wanteth not transgression; But he that refraineth 20 his lips doeth wisely. The tongue of the righteous is as choice 21 silver: The heart of the wicked is little worth. The lips of the righteous feed many; But the foolish die for lack of understand-22 ing. The blessing of Jehovah, it maketh rich; And he addeth 23 no sorrow therewith. It is as sport to a fool to do wickedness; 24 And so is wisdom to a man of understanding. The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him; And the desire of the righteous 25 shall be granted. When the whirlwind passeth, the wicked is no 26 more; But the righteous is an everlasting foundation. As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, So is the sluggard 27 to them that send him. The fear of Jehovah prolongeth days; 28 But the years of the wicked shall be shortened. The hope of the righteous shall be gladness; But the expectation of the wicked shall perish. The way of Jehovah is a stronghold to the upright; 29 But it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity. The righteous 30 shall never be removed; But the wicked shall not dwell in the land. The mouth of the righteous bringeth forth wisdom; But 31 the perverse tongue shall be cut off. The lips of the righteous 32 know what is acceptable; But the mouth of the wicked speaketh perverseness.

A false balance is an abomination to Jehovah; But a just 11 weight is his delight. When pride cometh, then cometh shame; 2 But with the lowly is wisdom. The integrity of the upright shall 3 guide them; But the perverseness of the treacherous shall destroy them. Riches profit not in the day of wrath; But righteousness 4 delivereth from death. The righteousness of the perfect shall 5 direct his way; But the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness. The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them; But 6 the treacherous shall be taken in their own iniquity. When a 7 wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish; And the hope of iniquity perisheth. The righteous is delivered out of trouble, 8 And the wicked cometh in his stead. With his mouth the god- 9 less man destroyeth his neighbor; But through knowledge shall the righteous be delivered. When it goeth well with the righ- 10 teous, the city rejoiceth; And when the wicked perish, there is shouting. By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted; But 11 it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked. He that despiseth 12 his neighbor is void of wisdom; But a man of understanding holdeth his peace. He that goeth about as a tale-bearer re- 13 vealeth secrets; But he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth a matter. Where no wise guidance is, the people falleth; But in 14 the multitude of counsellors there is safety. He that is surety for a stranger shall smart for it; But he that hateth suretyship 15 is secure. A gracious woman obtaineth honor; And violent men 16 obtain riches. The merciful man doeth good to his own soul; But he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh. The wicked ear- 18 neth deceitful wages; But he that soweth righteousness hath a sure reward. He that is stedfast in righteousness shall attain 19 unto life; And he that pursueth evil doeth it to his own death.
They that are perverse in heart are an abomination to Jehovah; 20 But such as are perfect in their way are his delight. Though 21 hand join in hand, the evil man shall not be unpunished; But 22 the seed of the righteous shall be delivered. As a ring of gold in a swine's snout, So is a fair woman that is without discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is only good; But the expectation of 24 the wicked is wrath. There is that scattereth, and increaseth yet more; And there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but 25 it tendeth only to want. The liberal soul shall be made fat; And 26 he that watereth shall be watered also himself. He that withholdeth grain, the people shall curse him; But blessing shall be 27 upon the head of him that selleth it. He that diligently seeketh good seeketh favor; But he that searcheth after evil, it shall come 28 unto him. He that trusteth in his riches shall fall; But the righteous shall flourish as the green leaf. He that troubleth his own 29 house shall inherit the wind; And the foolish shall be servant to the wise of heart. The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; 30 And he that is wise winneth souls. Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: How much more the wicked and the sinner!

12 Whoso loveth correction loveth knowledge; But he that hateth 2 reproof is brutish. A good man shall obtain favor of Jehovah; 3 But a man of wicked devices will he condemn. A man shall not be established by wickedness; But the root of the righteous 4 shall not be moved. A worthy woman is the crown of her husband; But she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones.
5 The thoughts of the righteous are just; But the counsels of the wicked are deceit. The words of the wicked are of lying in wait 6 for blood; But the mouth of the upright shall deliver them. The wicked are overthrown, and are not; But the house of the righteous shall stand. A man shall be commended according to his 7 wisdom; But he that is of a perverse heart shall be despised.
8 Better is he that is lightly esteemed, and hath a servant, Than he that honoreth himself, and lacketh bread. A righteous man 9 regardeth the life of his beast; But the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel. He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of 10 bread; But he that followeth after vain persons is void of understanding. The wicked desireth the net of evil men; But the root 11 of the righteous yieldeth fruit. In the transgression of the lips is a snare to the evil man; But the righteous shall come out of 12 trouble. A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth; And the doings of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him. The way of a fool is right in his own eyes; But he that 15 is wise hearkeneth unto counsel. A fool's vexation is presently 16 known; But a prudent man concealeth shame. He that uttereth 17 truth showeth forth righteousness; But a false witness, deceit.

 There is that speaketh rashly like the piercings of a sword; But 18 the tongue of the wise is health. The lip of truth shall be estab- 19 lished for ever; But a lying tongue is but for a moment. Deceit 20 is in the heart of them that devise evil; But to the counsellors of peace is joy. There shall no mischief happen to the righteous; 21 But the wicked shall be filled with evil. Lying lips are an abom- 22 ination to Jehovah; But they that deal truly are his delight. A 23 prudent man concealeth knowledge; But the heart of fools pro-claimeth foolishness. The hand of the diligent shall bear rule; 24 But the slothful shall be put under taskwork. Heaviness in the 25 heart of a man maketh it stoop; But a good word maketh it glad. The righteous is a guide to his neighbor; But the way of 26 the wicked causeth them to err. The slothful man roasteth not 27 that which he took in hunting; But the precious substance of men is to the diligent. In the way of righteousness is life; And 28 in the pathway thereof there is no death.

A wise son heareth his father's instruction; But a scoffer 13 heareth not rebuke. A man shall eat good by the fruit of his 2 mouth; But the soul of the treacherous shall eat violence. He 3 that guardeth his mouth keepeth his life; But he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction. The soul of the sluggard 4 desireth, and hath nothing; But the soul of the diligent shall be made fat. A righteous man hateth lying; But a wicked man 5 is loathsome, and cometh to shame. Righteousness guardeth 6 him that is upright in the way; But wickedness overthroweth the sinner. There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath noth- 7 ing; There is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great wealth.
 The ransom of a man's life is his riches; But the poor heareth 8 no threatening. The light of the righteous rejoiceth; But the 9 lamp of the wicked shall be put out. By pride cometh only con- 10 tention; But with the well-advised is wisdom. Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished; But he that gathereth by labor shall 11 have increase. Hope deferred maketh the heart sick; But when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life. Whoso despiseth the word 13 bringeth destruction on himself; But he that feareth the com-

14 mandment shall be rewarded. The law of the wise is a fountain 15 of life, That one may depart from the snares of death. Good understanding giveth favor; But the way of the transgressor is 16 hard. Every prudent man worketh with knowledge; But a fool 17 flaunteth his folly. A wicked messenger falleth into evil; But 18 a faithful ambassador is health. Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth correction; But he that regardeth reproof shall 19 be honored. The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul; But 20 it is an abomination to fools to depart from evil. Walk with wise men, and thou shalt be wise; But the companion of fools 21 shall smart for it. Evil pursueth sinners; But the righteous shall 22 be recompensed with good. A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children; And the wealth of the sinner is laid up 23 for the righteous. Much food is in the tillage of the poor; But 24 there is that is destroyed by reason of injustice. He that spareth his rod hateth his son; But he that loveth him chasteneth him 25 betimes. The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul; But the belly of the wicked shall want.

14 Every wise woman buildeth her house; But the foolish pluck-2 eth it down with her own hands. He that walketh in his uprightness feareth Jehovah; But he that is perverse in his ways 3 despiseth him. In the mouth of the foolish is a rod for his 4 pride; But the lips of the wise shall preserve them. Where no oxen are, the crib is clean; But much increase is by the strength 5 of the ox. A faithful witness will not lie; But a false witness 6 uttereth lies. A scoffer seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not; But 7 knowledge is easy unto him that hath understanding. Go into the presence of a foolish man, And thou shalt not perceive in 8 him the lips of knowledge. The wisdom of the prudent is to 9 understand his way; But the folly of fools is deceit. A trespass-offering mocketh fools; But among the upright there is good will.
10 The heart knoweth its own bitterness; And a stranger doth not intermeddle with its joy. The house of the wicked shall be over-11 thrown; But the tent of the upright shall flourish. There is a way which seemeth right unto a man; But the end thereof are 12 the ways of death. Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; And 13 the end of mirth is heaviness. The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways; And a good man shall be satisfied 14 from himself. The simple believeth every word; But the pru-15 dent man looketh well to his going. A wise man feareth, and 16 departeth from evil; But the fool beareth himself insolently, and is confident. He that is soon angry will deal foolishly; And a 17 man of wicked devices is hated. The simple inherit folly; But 18 the prudent are crowned with knowledge. The evil bow down 19 before the good; And the wicked, at the gates of the righteous.

 The poor is hated even of his own neighbor; But the rich hath 20 many friends. He that despiseth his neighbor sinneth; But he 21 that hath pity on the poor, happy is he. Do they not err that 22 devise evil? But mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good. In all labor there is profit; But the talk of the lips ten- 23 deth only to penury. The crown of the wise is their riches; But 24 the folly of fools is only folly. A true witness delivereth souls; 25 But he that uttereth lies causeth deceit. In the fear of Jeho- 26 vah is strong confidence; And his children shall have a place of refuge. The fear of Jehovah is a fountain of life, That one may 27 depart from the snares of death. In the multitude of people is 28 the king's glory; But in the want of people is the destruction of the prince. He that is slow to anger is of great understanding; 29 But he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly. A tranquil heart 30 is the life of the flesh; But envy is the rottenness of the bones.
 He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker; But he that 31 hath mercy on the needy honoreth him. The wicked is thrust 32 down in his evil-doing; But the righteous hath a refuge in his death. Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath under- 33 standing; But that which is in the inward part of fools is made known. Righteousness exalteth a nation; But sin is a reproach 34 to any people. The king's favor is toward a servant that dealeth 35 wisely; But his wrath will be against him that causeth shame.

A soft answer turneth away wrath; But a grievous word stir- 15 reth up anger. The tongue of the wise uttereth knowledge 2 aright; But the mouth of fools poureth out folly. The eyes 3 of Jehovah are in every place, Keeping watch upon the evil and the good. A gentle tongue is a tree of life; But perverseness 4 therein is a breaking of the spirit. A fool despiseth his father's 5 correction; But he that regardeth reproof getteth prudence. In 6 the house of the righteous is much treasure; But in the revenues of the wicked is trouble. The lips of the wise disperse knowl- 7 edge; But the heart of the foolish doeth not so. The sacrifice of 8 the wicked is an abomination to Jehovah; But the prayer of the upright is his delight. The way of the wicked is an abomination to Jehovah; But he loveth him that followeth after righteousness. There is grievous correction for him that forsaketh the way; And he that hateth reproof shall die. Sheol and Abaddon are before Jehovah: How much more then the hearts of the children of men! A scoffer loveth not to be reproved; He will not go unto the wise. A glad heart maketh a cheerful countenance; But by sorrow of heart the spirit is broken. The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge; But the mouth of fools feedeth on folly. All the days of the afflicted are evil; But he that is of a cheerful heart hath a continual feast. Better is little, with the fear of Jehovah, Than great treasure and trouble therewith. Better is a dinner of herbs, where love is, Than a stalled ox and hatred therewith. A wrathful man stirreth up contention; But he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife. The way of the sluggard is as a hedge of thorns; But the path of the upright is made a highway. A wise son maketh a glad father; But a foolish man despiseth his mother. Folly is joy to him that is void of wisdom; But a man of understanding maketh straight his going. Where there is no counsel, purposes are disappointed; But in the multitude of counsellors they are established. A man hath joy in the answer of his mouth; And a word in due season, how good is it! To the wise the way of life goeth upward, That he may depart from Sheol beneath. Jehovah will root up the house of the proud; But he will establish the border of the widow. Evil devices are an abomination to Jehovah; But pleasant words are pure. He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; But he that hateth bribes shall live. The heart of the righteous studieth to answer; But the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things. Jehovah is far from the wicked; But he heareth the prayer of the righteous. The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart; And good tidings make the bones fat. The ear that hearkeneth to the reproof of life Shall abide among the wise. He that refuseth correction despiseth his own soul; But he that hearkeneth to reproof getteth understanding. The fear of Jehovah is the instruction of wisdom; And before honor goeth humility.

16 The plans of the heart belong to man; But the answer of the tongue is from Jehovah. All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; But Jehovah weigheth the spirits. Commit 3 thy works unto Jehovah, And thy purposes shall be established.

Jehovah hath made everything for its own end; Yea, even the 4 wicked for the day of evil. Every one that is proud in heart is 5 an abomination to Jehovah: Though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished. By mercy and truth iniquity is atoned for; 6 And by the fear of Jehovah men depart from evil. When a 7 man's ways please Jehovah, He maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him. Better is a little, with righteousness, Than 8 great revenues with injustice. A man's heart deviseth his way; 9 But Jehovah directeth his steps. A divine sentence is in the lips 10 of the king; His mouth shall not transgress in judgment. A just 11 balance and scales are Jehovah's; All the weights of the bag are his work. It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness; 12 For the throne is established by righteousness. Righteous lips 13 are the delight of kings; And they love him that speaketh right.
The wrath of a king is as messengers of death; But a wise man 14 will pacify it. In the light of the king's countenance is life; And 15 his favor is as a cloud of the latter rain. How much better is it to get wisdom than gold! Yea, to get understanding is rather to be 16 chosen than silver. The highway of the upright is to depart from 17 evil: He that keepeth his way preserveth his soul. Pride goeth 18 before destruction, And a haughty spirit before a fall. Better it is to be of a lowly spirit with the poor, Than to divide the spoil 19 with the proud. He that giveth heed unto the word shall find 20 good; And whoso trusteth in Jehovah, happy is he. The wise 21 in heart shall be called prudent; And the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning. Understanding is a well-spring of life unto 22 him that hath it; But the correction of fools is their folly. The 23 heart of the wise instructeth his mouth, And addeth learning to his lips. Pleasant words are as a honeycomb, Sweet to the soul, 24 and health to the bones. There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, But the end thereof are the ways of death. The 25 appetite of the laboring man laboreth for him; For his mouth urgeth him thereto. A worthless man deviseth mischief; And in 27 his lips there is as a scorching fire. A perverse man scattereth abroad strife; And a whisperer separateth chief friends. A man 28 of violence enticeth his neighbor, And leadeth him in a way that is not good. He that shutteth his eyes, it is to devise perverse 30 31 things: He that compresseth his lips bringeth evil to pass. The hoary head is a crown of glory; It shall be found in the way 32 of righteousness. He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; And he that ruleth his spirit, than he that taketh a city.

33 The lot is cast into the lap; But the whole disposing thereof is of Jehovah.

17 Better is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, Than a house 2 full of feasting with strife. A servant that dealeth wisely shall have rule over a son that causeth shame, And shall have part 3 in the inheritance among the brethren. The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold; But Jehovah trieth the hearts.
4 An evil-doer giveth heed to wicked lips; And a liar giveth ear 5 to a mischievous tongue. Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker; And he that is glad at calamity shall not be unpun-6 ished. Children's children are the crown of old men; And the 7 glory of children are their fathers. Excellent speech becometh 8 not a fool; Much less do lying lips a prince. A bribe is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it; Whithersoever it 9 turneth, it prospereth. He that covereth a transgression seeketh love; But he that harpeth on a matter separateth chief friends.
10 A rebuke entereth deeper into one that hath understanding Than 11 a hundred stripes into a fool. An evil man seeketh only rebel-12 lion; Therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him. Let a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, Rather than a fool in 13 his folly. Whoso rewardeth evil for good, Evil shall not depart 14 from his house. The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: Therefore leave off contention, before there is quar-15 relling. He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the righteous, Both of them alike are an abomination to Jeho-16 vah. Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom, Seeing he hath no understanding? A friend loveth at 18 all times; And a brother is born for adversity. A man void of understanding striketh hands, And becometh surety in the pres-19 ence of his neighbor. He loveth transgression that loveth strife: 20 He that raiseth high his gate seeketh destruction. He that hath a wayward heart findeth no good; And he that hath a perverse 21 tongue falleth into mischief. He that begetteth a fool doeth it 22 to his sorrow; And the father of a fool hath no joy. A cheerful heart is a good medicine; But a broken spirit drieth up the bones. A wicked man receiveth a bribe out of the bosom, To 23 pervert the ways of justice. Wisdom is before the face of him 24 that hath understanding; But the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth. A foolish son is a grief to his father, And bitterness 25 to her that bare him. Also to punish the righteous is not good, 26 Nor to smite the noble for their uprightness. He that spareth 27 his words hath knowledge; And he that is of a cool spirit is a man of understanding. Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, 28 is counted wise; When he shutteth his lips, he is esteemed as prudent.

He that separateth himself seeketh his own desire, And rageth 18 against all sound wisdom. A fool hath no delight in understand- 2 ing, But only that his heart may reveal itself. When the wicked 3 cometh, there cometh also contempt, And with ignominy cometh reproach. The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters; The 4 wellspring of wisdom is as a flowing brook. To respect the per- 5 son of the wicked is not good, Nor to turn aside the righteous in judgment. A fool's lips enter into contention, And his mouth 6 calleth for stripes. A fool's mouth is his destruction, And his 7 lips are the snare of his soul. The words of a whisperer are as 8 dainty morsels, And they go down into the innermost parts. He 9 also that is slack in his work Is brother to him that is a destroyer.
 The name of Jehovah is a strong tower; The righteous runneth 10 into it, and is safe. The rich man's wealth is his strong city, 11 And as a high wall in his own imagination. Before destruction 12 the heart of man is haughty; And before honor goeth humility.
 He that giveth answer before he heareth, It is folly and shame 13 unto him. The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; But a 14 broken spirit who can bear? The heart of the prudent getteth 15 knowledge; And the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge. A man's 16 gift maketh room for him, And bringeth him before great men.
 He that pleadeth his cause first seemeth just; But his neighbor 17 cometh and searcheth him out. The lot causeth contentions 18 to cease, And parteth between the mighty. A brother offended 19 is harder to be won than a strong city; And such contentions are like the bars of a castle. A man's belly shall be filled with 20 the fruit of his mouth; With the increase of his lips shall he be satisfied. Death and life are in the power of the tongue; And 21 they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof. Whoso findeth a 22 23 wife findeth a good thing, And obtaineth favor of Jehovah. The 24 poor useth entreaties; But the rich answereth roughly. He that maketh many friends doeth it to his own destruction; But there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

19 Better is the poor that walketh in his integrity Than he that 2 is perverse in his lips and is a fool. Also, that the soul be without knowledge is not good; And he that hasteth with his 3 feet sinneth. The foolishness of man subverteth his way; And 4 his heart fretteth against Jehovah. Wealth addeth many friends; 5 But the poor is separated from his friend. A false witness shall not be unpunished; And he that uttereth lies shall not escape.
6 Many will entreat the favor of the liberal man; And every man 7 is a friend to him that giveth gifts. All the brethren of the poor do hate him: How much more do his friends go far from him! He 8 pursueth them with words, but they are gone. He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul: He that keepeth understanding shall 9 find good. A false witness shall not be unpunished; And he 10 that uttereth lies shall perish. Delicate living is not seemly for 11 a fool; Much less for a servant to have rule over princes. The discretion of a man maketh him slow to anger; And it is his glory 12 to pass over a transgression. The king's wrath is as the roaring 13 of a lion; But his favor is as dew upon the grass. A foolish son is the calamity of his father; And the contentions of a wife 14 are a continual dropping. House and riches are an inheritance 15 from fathers; But a prudent wife is from Jehovah. Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; And the idle soul shall suffer hunger.
16 He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his soul; But he that 17 is careless of his ways shall die. He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto Jehovah, And his good deed will he pay him again.
18 Chasten thy son, seeing there is hope; And set not thy heart on 19 his destruction. A man of great wrath shall bear the penalty; 20 For if thou deliver him, thou must do it yet again. Hear counsel, and receive instruction, That thou mayest be wise in thy latter 21 end. There are many devices in a man's heart; But the counsel 22 of Jehovah, that shall stand. That which maketh a man to be desired is his kindness; And a poor man is better than a liar.
23 The fear of Jehovah tendeth to life; And he that hath it shall 24 abide satisfied; He shall not be visited with evil. The sluggard burieth his hand in the dish, And will not so much as bring it to his mouth again. Smite a scoffer, and the simple will learn 25 prudence; And reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge. He that doeth violence to his father, 26 and chaseth away his mother, Is a son that causeth shame and bringeth reproach. Cease, my son, to hear instruction Only to 27 err from the words of knowledge. A worthless witness mocketh 28 at justice; And the mouth of the wicked swalloweth iniquity.

Judgments are prepared for scoffers, And stripes for the back of 29 fools.

Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler; And whosoever er- 20 reth thereby is not wise. The terror of a king is as the roaring of 2 a lion: He that provoketh him to anger sinneth against his own life. It is an honor for a man to keep aloof from strife; But every 3 fool will be quarrelling. The sluggard will not plow by reason of 4 the winter; Therefore he shall beg in harvest, and have nothing.
Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; But a man of un- 5 derstanding will draw it out. Most men will proclaim every one 6 his own kindness; But a faithful man who can find? A righteous 7 man that walketh in his integrity, Blessed are his children after him. A king that sitteth on the throne of judgment Scattereth 8 away all evil with his eyes. Who can say, I have made my heart 9 clean, I am pure from my sin? Diverse weights, and diverse 10 measures, Both of them alike are an abomination to Jehovah.
Even a child maketh himself known by his doings, Whether his 11 work be pure, and whether it be right. The hearing ear, and 12 the seeing eye, Jehovah hath made even both of them. Love not 13 sleep, let thou come to poverty; Open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread. It is bad, it is bad, saith the buyer; But 14 when he is gone his way, then he boasteth. There is gold, and 15 abundance of rubies; But the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel. Take his garment that is surety for a stranger; And hold 16 him in pledge that is surety for foreigners. Bread of falsehood 17 is sweet to a man; But afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel. Every purpose is established by counsel; And by wise 18 guidance make thou war. He that goeth about as a tale-bearer 19 revealeth secrets; Therefore company not with him that openeth wide his lips. Whoso curseth his father or his mother, His lamp 20 shall be put out in blackness of darkness. An inheritance may 21 be gotten hastily at the beginning; But the end thereof shall not 22 be blessed. Say not thou, I will recompense evil: Wait for Jeho-23 vah, and he will save thee. Diverse weights are an abomination 24 to Jehovah; And a false balance is not good. A man's goings 25 are of Jehovah; How then can man understand his way? It is a snare to a man rashly to say, It is holy, And after vows to make 26 inquiry. A wise king winnoweth the wicked, And bringeth the 27 threshing-wheel over them. The spirit of man is the lamp of 28 Jehovah, Searching all his innermost parts. Kindness and truth 29 preserve the king; And his throne is upholden by kindness. The glory of young men is their strength; And the beauty of old men 30 is the hoary head. Stripes that wound cleanse away evil; And strokes reach the innermost parts.

21 The king's heart is in the hand of Jehovah as the watercourses: 2 He turneth it whithersoever he will. Every way of a man is 3 right in his own eyes; But Jehovah weigheth the hearts. To do righteousness and justice Is more acceptable to Jehovah than 4 sacrifice. A high look, and a proud heart, Even the lamp of 5 the wicked, is sin. The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; But every one that is hasty hasteth only to want.
6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue Is a vapor driven to 7 and fro by them that seek death. The violence of the wicked 8 shall sweep them away, Because they refuse to do justice. The way of him that is laden with guilt is exceeding crooked; But as 9 for the pure, his work is right. It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, Than with a contentious woman in a wide house.
10 The soul of the wicked desireth evil: His neighbor findeth no fa-11 vor in his eyes. When the scoffer is punished, the simple is made wise; And when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.
12 The righteous man considereth the house of the wicked, How the 13 wicked are overthrown to their ruin. Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, He also shall cry, but shall not be heard.
14 A gift in secret pacifieth anger; And a present in the bosom, 15 strong wrath. It is joy to the righteous to do justice; But it is a 16 destruction to the workers of iniquity. The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding Shall rest in the assembly of the 17 dead. He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man: He that 18 loveth wine and oil shall not be rich. The wicked is a ransom for the righteous; And the treacherous cometh in the stead of 19 the upright. It is better to dwell in a desert land, Than with a contentious and fretful woman. There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise; But a foolish man swalloweth it up. He that followeth after righteousness and kindness Findeth life, righteousness, and honor. A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, And bringeth down the strength of the confidence thereof. Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue Keepeth his soul from troubles. The proud and haughty man, scoffer is his name; He worketh in the arrogance of pride. The desire of the sluggard killeth him; For his hands refuse to labor. There is that coveteth greedily all the day long; But the righteous giveth and withholdeth not. The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination: How much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind! A false witness shall perish; But the man that heareth shall speak so as to endure. A wicked man hardeneth his face; But as for the upright, he establisheth his ways. There is no wisdom nor understanding Nor counsel against Jehovah. The horse is prepared against the day of battle; But victory is of Jehovah.

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, And loving favor rather than silver and gold. The rich and the poor meet together: Jehovah is the maker of them all. A prudent man seeth the evil, and hideth himself; But the simple pass on, and suffer for it. The reward of humility and the fear of Jehovah Is riches, and honor, and life. Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse: He that keepeth his soul shall be far from them. Train up a child in the way he should go, And even when he is old he will not depart from it. The rich ruleth over the poor; And the borrower is servant to the lender. He that soweth iniquity shall reap calamity; And the rod of his wrath shall fail. He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; For he giveth of his bread to the poor. Cast out the scoffer, and contention will go out; Yea, strife and ignominy will cease. He that loveth pureness of heart, For the grace of his lips the king will be his friend. The eyes of Jehovah preserve him that hath knowledge; But he overthroweth the words of the treacherous man. The sluggard saith, There is a lion without: I shall be slain in the streets. The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: He that is abhorred of Jehovah shall fall therein. Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child; But the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

16 He that oppresseth the poor to increase his gain, And he that 17 giveth to the rich, shall come only to want. Incline thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, And apply thy heart unto my 18 knowledge. For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them within 19 thee, If they be established together upon thy lips. That thy trust may be in Jehovah, I have made them known to thee this 20 day, even to thee. Have not I written unto thee excellent things 21 Of counsels and knowledge, To make thee know the certainty of the words of truth, That thou mayest carry back words of 22 truth to them that send thee? Rob not the poor, because he is 23 poor; Neither oppress the afflicted in the gate: For Jehovah will plead their cause, And despoil of life those that despoil them.
24 Make no friendship with a man that is given to anger; And with 25 a wrathful man thou shalt not go: Lest thou learn this ways, 26 And get a snare to thy soul. Be thou not one of them that 27 strike hands, Or of them that are sureties for debts. If thou hast not wherewith to pay, Why should he take away thy bed 28 from under thee? Remove not the ancient landmark, Which thy 29 fathers have set. Seest thou a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; He shall not stand before mean men.

23 When thou sittest to eat with a ruler, Consider diligently him 2 that is before thee; And put a knife to thy throat, If thou be a 3 man given to appetite. Be not desirous of his dainties; Seeing 4 they are deceitful food. Weary not thyself to be rich; Cease 5 from thine own wisdom. Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? For riches certainly make themselves wings, Like 6 an eagle that flieth toward heaven. Eat thou not the bread of 7 him that hath an evil eye, Neither desire thou his dainties: For as he thinketh within himself, so is he: Eat and drink, saith 8 he to thee; But his heart is not with thee. The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, And lose thy sweet words.
9 Speak not in the hearing of a fool; For he will despise the wisdom 10 of thy words. Remove not the ancient landmark; And enter not 11 into the fields of the fatherless: For their Redeemer is strong; 12 He will plead their cause against thee. Apply thy heart unto in-13 struction, And thine ears to the words of knowledge. Withhold not correction from the child; For if thou beat him with the rod, 14 he will not die. Thou shalt beat him with the rod, And shalt 15 deliver his soul from Sheol. My son, if thy heart be wise, My heart will be glad, even mine: Yea, my heart will rejoice, When 16 thy lips speak right things. Let not thy heart envy sinners; But 17 be thou in the fear of Jehovah all the day long: For surely there 18 is a reward; And thy hope shall not be cut off. Hear thou, 19 my son, and be wise, And guide thy heart in the way. Be not 20 among winebibbers, Among gluttonous eaters of flesh: For the 21 drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty; And drowsiness will clothe a man with rags. Hearken unto thy father that 22 begat thee, And despise not thy mother when she is old. Buy 23 the truth, and sell it not; Yea, wisdom, and instruction, and understanding. The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice; 24 And he that begetteth a wise child will have joy of him. Let 25 thy father and thy mother be glad, And let her that bare thee rejoice. My son, give me thy heart; And let thine eyes delight in 26 my ways. For a harlot is a deep ditch; And a foreign woman is a narrow pit. Yea, she lieth in wait as a robber, And increaseth 27 the treacherous among men. Who hath woe? who hath sor- 28 row? who hath contentions? Who hath complaining? who hath wounds without cause? Who hath redness of eyes? They that 29 tarry long at the wine; They that go to seek out mixed wine.

Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, When it sparkleth 30 in the cup, When it goeth down smoothly: At the last it biteth 31 like a serpent, And stingeth like an adder. Thine eyes shall be- 32 hold strange things, And thy heart shall utter perverse things.
Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, 33 Or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast. They have stricken 34 me, shalt thou say, and I was not hurt; They have beaten me, and I felt it not: When shall I awake? I will seek it yet again. 35

Be not thou envious against evil men; Neither desire to be 24 with them: For their heart studieth oppression, And their lips 2 talk of mischief. Through wisdom is a house builded; And 3 by understanding it is established; And by knowledge are the 4 chambers filled With all precious and pleasant riches. A wise 5 man is strong; Yea, a man of knowledge increaseth might. For 6 by wise guidance thou shalt make thy war; And in the multitude of counsellors there is safety. Wisdom is too high for a fool: He 7 openeth not his mouth in the gate. He that deviseth to do evil, 8 Men shall call him a mischief-maker. The thought of foolishness 9 is sin; And the scoffer is an abomination to men. If thou faint 10 11 in the day of adversity, Thy strength is small. Deliver them that are carried away unto death, And those that are ready to 12 be slain see that thou hold back. If thou sayest, Behold, we knew not this; Doth not he that weigheth the hearts consider it?

And he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? And shall 13 not he render to every man according to his work? My son, eat thou honey, for it is good; And the droppings of the honeycomb, 14 which are sweet to thy taste: So shalt thou know wisdom to be unto thy soul; If thou hast found it, then shall there be a reward, 15 And thy hope shall not be cut off. Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the habitation of the righteous; Destroy not his resting-16 place: For a righteous man falleth seven times, and riseth up again; But the wicked are overthrown by calamity. Rejoice not 17 when thine enemy falleth, And let not thy heart be glad when he is overthrown; Lest Jehovah see it, and it displease him, And he 18 turn away his wrath from him. Fret not thyself because of evil-doers; Neither be thou envious at the wicked: For there shall be 20 no reward to the evil man; The lamp of the wicked shall be put 21 out. My son, fear thou Jehovah and the king; And company not 22 with them that are given to change: For their calamity shall rise suddenly; And the destruction from them both, who knoweth it?
23 These also are sayings of the wise. To have respect of persons 24 in judgment is not good. He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; Peoples shall curse him, nations shall abhor him: 25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, And a good bless-26 ing shall come upon them. He kisseth the lips Who giveth a 27 right answer. Prepare thy work without, And make it ready 28 for thee in the field; And afterwards build thy house. Be not a witness against thy neighbor without cause; And deceive not 29 with thy lips. Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to 30 me; I will render to the man according to his work. I went by the field of the sluggard, And by the vineyard of the man void of 31 understanding; And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, The face thereof was covered with nettles, And the stone wall thereof 32 was broken down. Then I beheld, and considered well; I saw, 33 and received instruction: Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, A 34 little folding of the hands to sleep; So shall thy poverty come as a robber, And thy want as an armed man.

25 These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out. It is the glory of God to conceal a 2 thing; But the glory of kings is to search out a matter. As the 3 heavens for height, and the earth for depth, So the heart of kings is unsearchable. Take away the dross from the silver, And there 4 cometh forth a vessel for the refiner: Take away the wicked from 5 before the king, And his throne shall be established in righteousness. Put not thyself forward in the presence of the king, And 6 stand not in the place of great men: For better is it that it be 7 said unto thee, Come up hither, Than that thou shouldest be put lower in the presence of the prince, Whom thine eyes have seen. Go not forth hastily to strive, Lest thou know not what 8 to do in the end thereof, When thy neighbor hath put thee to shame. Debate thy cause with thy neighbor himself, And dis- 9 close not the secret of another; Lest he that heareth it revile thee, And thine infamy turn not away. A word fitly spoken Is 11 like apples of gold in network of silver. As an ear-ring of gold, 12 and an ornament of fine gold, So is a wise reprovcr upon an obedient ear. As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, So is a 13 faithful messenger to them that send him; For he refresheth the soul of his masters. As clouds and wind without rain, So is he 14 that boasteth himself of his gifts falsely. By long forbearing is 15 a ruler persuaded, And a soft tongue breaketh the bone. Hast 16 thou found honey? eat so much as is sufficient for thee, Lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it. Let thy foot be seldom 17 in thy neighbor's house, Lest he be weary of thee, and hate thee.

A man that beareth false witness against his neighbor Is a maul, 18 and a sword, and a sharp arrow. Confidence in an unfaithful 19 man in time of trouble Is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint. As one that taketh off a garment in cold weather, and as 20 vinegar upon soda, So is he that singeth songs to a heavy heart.
If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; And if he be 21 thirsty, give him water to drink: For thou wilt heap coals of 22 fire upon his head, And Jehovah will reward thee. The north 23 wind bringeth forth rain: So doth a backbiting tongue an angry countenance. It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, 24 Than with a contentious woman in a wide house. As cold wa- 25 ters to a thirsty soul, So is good news from a far country. As a 26 troubled fountain, and a corrupted spring, So is a righteous man that giveth way before the wicked. It is not good to eat much 27 honey: So for men to search out their own glory is grievous.

28 He whose spirit is without restraint Is like a city that is broken down and without walls.

26 As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, So honor is not seemly for a fool. As the sparrow in her wandering, as the swallow in her flying, So the curse that is causeless alighteth not. A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, And a rod for the back of fools. Answer not a fool according to his folly, Lest thou also be like unto him. Answer a fool according to his folly, Lest he be wise in his own conceit. He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool Cutteth off his own feet, and drinketh in damage. The legs of the lame hang loose: So is a parable in the mouth of fools. As one that bindeth a stone in a sling, So is he that giveth honor to a fool. As a thorn that goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, So is a parable in the mouth of fools. As an archer that woundeth all, So is he that hireth a fool and he that hireth them that pass by. As a dog that returneth to his vomit, So is a fool that repeateth his folly. Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? There is more hope of a fool than of him. The sluggard saith, There is a lion in the way; A lion is in the streets. As the door turneth upon its hinges, So doth the sluggard upon his bed. The sluggard burieth his hand in the dish; It wearieth him to bring it again to his mouth. The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit Than seven men that can render a reason. He that passeth by, and vexeth himself with strife belonging not to him, Is like one that taketh a dog by the ears. As a madman who casteth firebrands, Arrows, and death, So is the man that deceiveth his neighbor, And saith, Am not I in sport? For lack of wood the fire goeth out; And where there is no whisperer, contention ceaseth. As coals are to hot embers, and wood to fire, So is a contentious man to inflame strife. The words of a whisperer are as dainty morsels, And they go down into the innermost parts. Fervent lips and a wicked heart Are like an earthen vessel overlaid with silver dross. He that hateth dissembleth with his lips; But he layeth up deceit within him: When he speaketh fair, believe him not; For there are seven abominations in his heart: Though his hatred cover itself with guile, His wickedness shall be openly showed before the assembly. Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein; And he that rolleth a stone, it shall return upon him. A lying tongue 28 hateth those whom it hath wounded; And a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

Boast not thyself of tomorrow; For thou knowest not what 27 a day may bring forth. Let another man praise thee, and not 2 thine own mouth; A stranger, and not thine own lips. A stone 3 is heavy, and the sand weighty; But a fool's vexation is heavier than they both. Wrath is cruel, and anger is overwhelming; 4 But who is able to stand before jealousy? Better is open re- 5 buke Than love that is hidden. Faithful are the wounds of a 6 friend; But the kisses of an enemy are profuse. The full soul 7 loatheth a honeycomb; But to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet. As a bird that wandereth from her nest, So is a man 8 that wandereth from his place. Oil and perfume rejoice the 9 heart; So doth the sweetness of a man's friend that cometh of hearty counsel. Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, for- 10 sake not; And go not to thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: Better is a neighbor that is near than a brother far off.
My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, That I may answer 11 him that reproacheth me. A prudent man seeth the evil, and 12 hideth himself; But the simple pass on, and suffer for it. Take 13 his garment that is surety for a stranger; And hold him in pledge that is surety for a foreign woman. He that blesseth his friend 14 with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, It shall be counted a curse to him. A continual dropping in a very rainy day And 15 a contentious woman are alike: He that would restrain her re- 16 straineth the wind; And his right hand encountereth oil. Iron 17 sharpeneth iron; So a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend. Whoso keepeth the fig-tree shall eat the fruit thereof; 18 And he that regardeth his master shall be honored. As in wa- 19 ter face answereth to face, So the heart of man to man. Sheol 20 and Abaddon are never satisfied; And the eyes of man are never satisfied. The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold; 21 And a man is tried by his praise. Though thou shouldest bray a 22 fool in a mortar with a pestle along with bruised grain, Yet will not his foolishness depart from him. Be thou diligent to know 23 the state of thy flocks, And look well to thy herds: For riches 24 are not for ever: And doth the crown endure unto all generations? The hay is carried, and the tender grass showeth itself, 25 26 And the herbs of the mountains are gathered in. The lambs are 27 for thy clothing, And the goats are the price of the field; And there will be goats' milk enough for thy food, for the food of thy household, And maintenance for thy maidens.

28 The wicked flee when no man pursueth; But the righteous 2 are bold as a lion. For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof; But by men of understanding and knowledge the 3 state thereof shall be prolonged. A needy man that oppresseth 4 the poor Is like a sweeping rain which leaveth no food. They that forsake the law praise the wicked; But such as keep the law 5 contend with them. Evil men understand not justice; But they 6 that seek Jehovah understand all things. Better is the poor that walketh in his integrity, Than he that is perverse in his ways, 7 though he be rich. Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son; But 8 he that is a companion of gluttons shameth his father. He that augmenteth his substance by interest and increase, Gathereth it 9 for him that hath pity on the poor. He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, Even his prayer is an abomination.
10 Whoso causeth the upright to go astray in an evil way, He shall fall himself into his own pit; But the perfect shall inherit good.
11 The rich man is wise in his own conceit; But the poor that hath 12 understanding searcheth him out. When the righteous triumph, there is great glory; But when the wicked rise, men hide them-13 selves. He that covereth his transgressions shall not prosper: But whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall obtain mercy.
14 Happy is the man that feareth alway; But he that hardeneth his 15 heart shall fall into mischief. As a roaring lion, and a rang-16 ing bear, So is a wicked ruler over a poor people. The prince that lacketh understanding is also a great oppressor; But he that 17 hateth covetousness shall prolong his days. A man that is laden with the blood of any person Shall flee unto the pit; Let no man 18 stay him. Whoso walketh uprightly shall be delivered; But he 19 that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once. He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread; But he that followeth after vain 20 persons shall have poverty enough. A faithful man shall abound with blessings; But he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be 21 unpunished. To have respect of persons is not good; Neither 22 that a man should transgress for a piece of bread. he that hath an evil eye hasteth after riches, And knoweth not that want shall come upon him. He that rebuketh a man shall afterward find 23 more favor Than he that flattereth with the tongue. Whoso 24 robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression, The same is the companion of a destroyer. He that is of a 25 greedy spirit stirreth up strife; But he that putteth his trust in Jehovah shall be made fat. He that trusteth in his own heart 26 is a fool; But whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered. He 27 that giveth unto the poor shall not lack; But he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse. When the wicked rise, men hide 28 themselves; But when they perish, the righteous increase.

He that being often reprov'd hardeneth his neck Shall sud- 29 denly be destroyed, and that without remedy. When the righ- 2 teous are increased, the people rejoice; But when a wicked man beareth rule, the people sigh. Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth 3 his father; But he that keepeth company with harlots wasteth his substance. The king by justice establisheth the land; But 4 he that exacteth gifts overthroweth it. A man that flattereth 5 his neighbor Spreadeth a net for his steps. In the transgres- 6 sion of an evil man there is a snare; But the righteous doth sing and rejoice. The righteous taketh knowledge of the cause of the 7 poor; The wicked hath not understanding to know it. Scoffers 8 set a city in a flame; But wise men turn away wrath. If a wise 9 man hath a controversy with a foolish man, Whether he be angry or laugh, there will be no rest. The bloodthirsty hate him 10 that is perfect; And as for the upright, they seek his life. A 11 fool uttereth all his anger; But a wise man keepeth it back and stilleth it. If a ruler hearkeneth to falsehood, All his servants 12 are wicked. The poor man and the oppressor meet together; 13 Jehovah lighteneth the eyes of them both. The king that faith- 14 fully judgeth the poor, His throne shall be established for ever.
The rod and reproof give wisdom; But a child left to himself 15 causeth shame to his mother. When the wicked are increased, 16 transgression increaseth; But the righteous shall look upon their fall. Correct thy son, and he will give thee rest; Yea, he will 17 give delight unto thy soul. Where there is no vision, the people 18 cast off restraint; But he that keepeth the law, happy is he. A 19 servant will not be corrected by words; For though he understand, he will not give heed. Seest thou a man that is hasty 20 in his words? There is more hope of a fool than of him. He 21 that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child Shall have 22 him become a son at the last. An angry man stirreth up strife, 23 And a wrathful man aboundeth in transgression. A man's pride shall bring him low; But he that is of a lowly spirit shall obtain 24 honor. Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul; He 25 heareth the adjuration and uttereth nothing. The fear of man bringeth a snare; But whoso putteth his trust in Jehovah shall 26 be safe. Many seek the ruler's favor; But a man's judgment 27 cometh from Jehovah. An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous; And he that is upright in the way is an abomination to the wicked.

30 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh; The oracle. The man 2 saith unto Ithiel, unto Ithiel and Ucal: Surely I am more brutish 3 than any man, And have not the understanding of a man; And I have not learned wisdom, Neither have I the knowledge of the 4 Holy One. Who hath ascended up into heaven, and descended?
Who hath gathered the wind in his fists? Who hath bound the waters in his garment? Who hath established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou 5 knowest? Every word of God is tried: He is a shield unto them 6 that take refuge in him. Add thou not unto his words, Lest he 7 reprove thee, and thou be found a liar. Two things have I asked 8 of thee; Deny me them not before I die: Remove far from me falsehood and lies; Give me neither poverty nor riches; Feed me 9 with the food that is needful for me: Lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is Jehovah? Or lest I be poor, and steal, And 10 use profanely the name of my God. Slander not a servant unto 11 his master, Lest he curse thee, and thou be held guilty. There is a generation that curse their father, And bless not their mother.
12 There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, And yet 13 are not washed from their filthiness. There is a generation, oh 14 how lofty are their eyes! And their eyelids are lifted up. There is a generation whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, To devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy 15 from among men. The horseleach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, Yea, 16 four that say not, Enough: Sheol; And the barren womb; The earth that is not satisfied with water; And the fire that saith not, 17 Enough. The eye that mocketh at his father, And despiseth to obey his mother, The ravens of the valley shall pick it out, And the young eagles shall eat it. There are three things which are 18 too wonderful for me, Yea, four which I know not: The way of 19 an eagle in the air; The way of a serpent upon a rock; The way of a ship in the midst of the sea; And the way of a man with a maiden. So is the way of an adulterous woman; She eateth, 20 and wipeth her mouth, And saith, I have done no wickedness.

For three things the earth doth tremble, And for four, which it 21 cannot bear: For a servant when he is king; And a fool when he 22 is filled with food; For an odious woman when she is married; 23 And a handmaid that is heir to her mistress. There are four 24 things which are little upon the earth, But they are exceeding wise: The ants are a people not strong, Yet they provide their 25 food in the summer; The conies are but a feeble folk, Yet make 26 they their houses in the rocks; The locusts have no king, Yet 27 go they forth all of them by bands; The lizard taketh hold with 28 her hands, Yet is she in kings' palaces. There are three things 29 which are stately in their march, Yea, four which are stately in going: The lion, which is mightiest among beasts, And turneth 30 not away for any; The greyhound; The he-goat also; And the 31 king against whom there is no rising up. If thou hast done 32 foolishly in lifting up thyself, Or if thou hast thought evil, Lay thy hand upon thy mouth. For the churning of milk bringeth 33 forth butter, And the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood; So the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

The words of king Lemuel; the oracle which his mother taught 31 him. What, my son? and what, O son of my womb? And what, 2 O son of my vows? Give not thy strength unto women, Nor 3 thy ways to that which destroyeth kings. It is not for kings, 4 O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; Nor for princes to say, Where is strong drink? Lest they drink, and forget 5 the law, And pervert the justice due to any that is afflicted.
Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, And wine 6 unto the bitter in soul: Let him drink, and forget his poverty, 7 And remember his misery no more. Open thy mouth for the 8 dumb, In the cause of all such as are left desolate. Open thy 9 mouth, judge righteously, And minister justice to the poor and needy. A worthy woman who can find? For her price is far 10 above rubies. The heart of her husband trusteth in her, And he 11 12 shall have no lack of gain. She doeth him good and not evil All 13 the days of her life. She seeketh wool and flax, And worketh 14 willingly with her hands. She is like the merchant-ships; She 15 bringeth her bread from afar. She riseth also while it is yet night, And giveth food to her household, And their task to her 16 maidens. She considereth a field, and buyeth it; With the fruit 17 of her hands she planteth a vineyard. She girdeth her loins 18 with strength, And maketh strong her arms. She perceiveth that her merchandise is profitable: Her lamp goeth not out by 19 night. She layeth her hands to the distaff, And her hands hold 20 the spindle. She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; Yea, she 21 reacheth forth her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of the snow for her household; For all her household are clothed 22 with scarlet. She maketh for herself carpets of tapestry; Her 23 clothing is fine linen and purple. Her husband is known in 24 the gates, When he sitteth among the elders of the land. She maketh linen garments and selleth them, And delivereth girdles 25 unto the merchant. Strength and dignity are her clothing; And 26 she laugheth at the time to come. She openeth her mouth with 27 wisdom; And the law of kindness is on her tongue. She looketh well to the ways of her household, And eateth not the bread of 28 idleness. Her children rise up, and call her blessed; Her husband 29 also, and he praiseth her, saying: Many daughters have done 30 worthily, But thou excellest them all. Grace is deceitful, and beauty is vain; But a woman that feareth Jehovah, she shall be 31 praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands; And let her works praise her in the gates.

ECCLESIASTES;

OR, THE PREACHER.

She words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in 1 Jerusalem. Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher; 2 vanity of vanities, all is vanity. What profit hath man 3 of all his labor wherein he laboreth under the sun?
One generation goeth, and another generation cometh; but the 4 earth abideth for ever. The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth 5 down, and hasteth to its place where it ariseth. The wind goeth 6 toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it turneth about continually in its course, and the wind returneth again to its circuits. All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not 7 full; unto the place whither the rivers go, thither they go again.
All things are full of weariness; man cannot utter it: the eye is 8 not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. That 9 which hath been is that which shall be; and that which hath been done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. Is there a thing whereof it may be said, See, this 10 is new? it hath been long ago, in the ages which were before us.
There is no remembrance of the former generations; neither shall 11 there be any remembrance of the latter generations that are to come, among those that shall come after. I the Preacher was 12 king over Israel in Jerusalem. And I applied my heart to seek 13 and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under heaven: it is a sore travail that God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised therewith. I have seen all the works that 14 are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and a striving after wind. That which is crooked cannot be made straight; 15 and that which is wanting cannot be numbered. I communed 16 with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I have gotten me great wisdom above all that were before me in Jerusalem; yea, my heart hath had great experience of wisdom and knowledge. And I 17 applied my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and 18 folly: I perceived that this also was a striving after wind. For in much wisdom is much grief; and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

2 I said in my heart, Come now, I will prove thee with mirth; 2 therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, this also was vanity. I 3 said of laughter, It is mad; and of mirth, What doeth it? I searched in my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, my heart yet guiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold on folly, till I might see what it was good for the sons of men that they 4 should do under heaven all the days of their life. I made me 5 great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards; I made me gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all 6 kinds of fruit; I made me pools of water, to water therefrom 7 the forest where trees were reared; I bought men-servants and maid-servants, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all that were before 8 me in Jerusalem; I gathered me also silver and gold, and the treasure of kings and of the provinces; I gat me men-singers and women-singers, and the delights of the sons of men, musical 9 instruments, and that of all sorts. So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom 10 remained with me. And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them; I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced because of all my labor; and this was my portion 11 from all my labor. Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labor that I had labored to do; and, behold, all was vanity and a striving after wind, and there 12 was no profit under the sun. And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? even that which hath been done long ago. Then I saw that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light 13 excelleth darkness. The wise man's eyes are in his head, and the fool walketh in darkness: and yet I perceived that one event 14 happeneth to them all. Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then 15 more wise? Then said I in my heart, that this also is vanity. For of the wise man, even as of the fool, there is no remembrance for ever; seeing that in the days to come all will have been long 16 forgotten. And how doth the wise man die even as the fool! So 17

I hated life, because the work that is wrought under the sun was grievous unto me; for all is vanity and a striving after wind. And I hated all my labor wherein I labored under the sun, seeing that I must leave it unto the man that shall be after me. And who knoweth whether he will be a wise man or a fool? yet will he have rule over all my labor wherein I have labored, and wherein I have showed myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity. Therefore I turned about to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labor wherein I had labored under the sun. For there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, and with knowledge, and with skilfulness; yet to a man that hath not labored therein shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil. For what hath a man of all his labor, and of the striving of his heart, wherein he laboreth under the sun? For all his days are but sorrows, and his travail is grief; yea, even in the night his heart taketh no rest. This also is vanity. There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and make his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it is from the hand of God. For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, more than I? For to the man that pleaseth him God giveth wisdom, and knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that pleaseth God. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace. What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboreth? I have seen the travail which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised therewith. He hath made everything beautiful in its time: also he hath set eternity in their heart, yet so that man cannot find out the work that God hath done from the 12 beginning even to the end. I know that there is nothing better for them, than to rejoice, and to do good so long as they live.

13 And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good 14 in all his labor, is the gift of God. I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor anything taken from it; and God hath done it, that men should 15 fear before him. That which is hath been long ago; and that which is to be hath long ago been: and God seeketh again that 16 which is passed away. And moreover I saw under the sun, in the place of justice, that wickedness was there; and in the place 17 of righteousness, that wickedness was there. I said in my heart, God will judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time 18 there for every purpose and for every work. I said in my heart, It is because of the sons of men, that God may prove them, and 19 that they may see that they themselves are but as beasts. For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; and man hath no preeminence above 20 the beasts: for all is vanity. All go unto one place; all are of 21 the dust, and all turn to dust again. Who knoweth the spirit of man, whether it goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast, 22 whether it goeth downward to the earth? Wherefore I saw that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him back to see what shall be after him?

4 Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and, behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppres-2 sors there was power; but they had no comforter. Wherefore I praised the dead that have been long dead more than the living 3 that are yet alive; yea, better than them both did I esteem him that hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that 4 is done under the sun. Then I saw all labor and every skilful work, that for this a man is envied of his neighbor. This also 5 is vanity and a striving after wind. The fool foldeth his hands 6 together, and eateth his own flesh. Better is a handful, with quietness, than two handfuls with labor and striving after wind.
7, 8 Then I returned and saw vanity under the sun. There is one that is alone, and he hath not a second; yea, he hath neither son nor brother; yet is there no end of all his labor, neither are his eyes satisfied with riches. For whom then, saith he, do I labor, and deprive my soul of good? This also is vanity, yea, it is a sore travail. Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor. For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him that is alone when he falleth, and hath not another to lift him up. Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one be warm alone? And if a man prevail against him that is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken. Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king, who knoweth not how to receive admonition any more. For out of prison he came forth to be king; yea, even in his kingdom he was born poor. I saw all the living that walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the second, that stood up in his stead. There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he was: yet they that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a striving after wind.

Keep thy foot when thou goest to the house of God; for to draw nigh to hear is better than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they know not that they do evil. Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thy heart be hasty to utter anything before God; for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few. For a dream cometh with a multitude of business, and a fool's voice with a multitude of words. When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou vowest. Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay. Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thy hands? For in the multitude of dreams there are vanities, and in many words: but fear thou God. If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of justice and righteousness in a province, marvel not at the matter: for one higher than the high regardeth; and there are higher than they. Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field. He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance, with increase: this also is vanity. When goods increase, they are increased that eat them; and what advantage is there to the 12 owner thereof, save the beholding of them with his eyes? The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much; 13 but the fulness of the rich will not suffer him to sleep. There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept 14 by the owner thereof to his hurt: and those riches perish by evil adventure; and if he hath begotten a son, there is nothing in his 15 hand. As he came forth from his mother's womb, naked shall he go again as he came, and shall take nothing for his labor, which 16 he may carry away in his hand. And this also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit 17 hath he that he laboreth for the wind? All his days also he eateth in darkness, and he is sore vexed, and hath sickness and 18 wrath. Behold, that which I have seen to be good and to be comely is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his labor, wherein he laboreth under the sun, all the days of his 19 life which God hath given him: for this is his portion. Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to 20 rejoice in his labor – this is the gift of God. For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

6 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is 2 heavy upon men: a man to whom God giveth riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacketh nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but an 3 alien eateth it; this is vanity, and it is an evil disease. If a man beget a hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul be not filled with good, and moreover he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better 4 than he: for it cometh in vanity, and departeth in darkness, and 5 the name thereof is covered with darkness; moreover it hath not seen the sun nor known it; this hath rest rather than the other: 6 yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, and yet enjoy no 7 good, do not all go to one place? All the labor of man is for his 8 mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. For what advantage hath the wise more than the fool? or what hath the poor man, 9 that knoweth how to walk before the living? Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this also is vanity and a striving after wind. Whatsoever hath been, the name 10 thereof was given long ago; and it is known what man is; neither can he contend with him that is mightier than he. Seeing there 11 are many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?

For who knoweth what is good for man in his life, all the days 12 of his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

A good name is better than precious oil; and the day of death, 7 than the day of one's birth. It is better to go to the house of 2 mourning than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart. Sorrow is better 3 than laughter; for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made glad. The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; 4 but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. It is better to 5 hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the 6 laughter of the fool: this also is vanity. Surely extortion maketh 7 the wise man foolish; and a bribe destroyeth the understanding.
Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof; and 8 the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. Be not 9 hasty in thy spirit to be angry; for anger resteth in the bosom of fools. Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were 10 better than these? for thou dost not inquire wisely concerning this. Wisdom is as good as an inheritance; yea, more excellent 11 is it for them that see the sun. For wisdom is a defence, even 12 as money is a defence; but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom preserveth the life of him that hath it. Consider the 13 work of God: for who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked? In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the 14 day of adversity consider; yea, God hath made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out anything that shall be after him. All this have I seen in my 15 days of vanity: there is a righteous man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that prolongeth his life in his evil-doing. Be not righteous overmuch; neither make 16 thyself overwise: why shouldest thou destroy thyself? Be not 17 overmuch wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die before thy time? It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; 18 yea, also from that withdraw not thy hand: for he that feareth 19 God shall come forth from them all. Wisdom is a strength to the 20 wise man more than ten rulers that are in a city. Surely there is not a righteous man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth 21 not. Also take not heed unto all words that are spoken, lest thou 22 hear thy servant curse thee; for oftentimes also thine own heart 23 knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others. All this have I proved in wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from 24 me. That which is, is far off and exceeding deep; who can find 25 it out? I turned about, and my heart was set to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the reason of things, and to know that wickedness is folly, and that foolishness is madness.

26 And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and whose hands are bands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.
27 Behold, this have I found, saith the Preacher, laying one thing 28 to another, to find out the account; which my soul still seeketh, but I have not found: one man among a thousand have I found; 29 but a woman among all those have I not found. Behold, this only have I found: that God made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

8 Who is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the 2 hardness of his face is changed. I counsel thee, Keep the king's 3 command, and that in regard of the oath of God. Be not hasty to go out of his presence; persist not in an evil thing: for he doeth 4 whatsoever pleaseth him. For the king's word hath power; and 5 who may say unto him, What doest thou? Whoso keepeth the commandment shall know no evil thing; and a wise man's heart 6 discerneth time and judgment: for to every purpose there is a time and judgment; because the misery of man is great upon 7 him: for he knoweth not that which shall be; for who can tell 8 him how it shall be? There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power over the day of death; and there is no discharge in war: neither shall wickedness 9 deliver him that is given to it. All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man hath power over another to his hurt.
10 So I saw the wicked buried, and they came to the grave; and they that had done right went away from the holy place, and were forgotten in the city: this also is vanity. Because sentence 11 against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. Though a 12 sinner do evil a hundred times, and prolong his days, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, that fear before him: but it shall not be well with the wicked, neither 13 shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God. There is a vanity which is done upon 14 the earth, that there are righteous men unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there are wicked men to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity. Then I commended mirth, because 15 a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be joyful: for that shall abide with him in his labor all the days of his life which God hath given him under the sun. When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see 16 the business that is done upon the earth (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes), then I beheld 17 all the work of God, that man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because however much a man labor to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea moreover, though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this: that the 9 righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God; whether it be love or hatred, man knoweth it not; all is before them. All things come alike to all: there is one event to the 2 righteous and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth and to him that sacrificeth not; as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath. This is an evil in all that is done under 3 the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. For to him 4 that is joined with all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion. For the living know that they shall 5 die: but the dead know not anything, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten. As well their 6 love, as their hatred and their envy, is perished long ago; neither have they any more a portion for ever in anything that is done

7 under the sun. Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God hath already accepted thy 8 works. Let thy garments be always white; and let not thy head 9 lack oil. Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of thy life of vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all thy days of vanity: for that is thy portion in life, and in 10 thy labor wherein thou laborest under the sun. Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in Sheol, whither thou 11 goest. I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor 12 to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all. For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth 13 suddenly upon them. I have also seen wisdom under the sun 14 on this wise, and it seemed great unto me: There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against 15 it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it. Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.
16 Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.
17 The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than the cry of 18 him that ruleth among fools. Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroyeth much good.

10 Dead flies cause the oil of the perfumer to send forth an evil 2 odor; so doth a little folly outweigh wisdom and honor. A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left.
3 Yea also, when the fool walketh by the way, his understanding 4 faileth him, and he saith to every one that he is a fool. If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for 5 gentleness allayeth great offences. There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as it were an error which proceedeth from 6 the ruler: folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in a low 7 place. I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking 8 like servants upon the earth. He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh through a wall, a serpent shall bite him. Whoso heweth out stones shall be hurt therewith; and 9 he that cleaveth wood is endangered thereby. If the iron be 10 blunt, and one do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct. If the serpent bite 11 before it is charmed, then is there no advantage in the charmer.

The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of 12 a fool will swallow up himself. The beginning of the words of 13 his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous madness. A fool also multiplieth words: yet man knoweth not 14 what shall be; and that which shall be after him, who can tell him? The labor of fools wearieth every one of them; for he 15 knoweth not how to go to the city. Woe to thee, O land, when 16 thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning! Happy 17 art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!
By slothfulness the roof sinketh in; and through idleness of the 18 hands the house leaketh. A feast is made for laughter, and wine 19 maketh glad the life; and money answereth all things. Revile 20 not the king, no, not in thy thought; and revile not the rich in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the heavens shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

Cast thy bread upon the waters; for thou shalt find it after 11 many days. Give a portion to seven, yea, even unto eight; for 2 thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth. If the 3 clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth; and if a tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there shall it be. He that observeth 4 the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap. As thou knowest not what is the way of the wind, nor 5 how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child; even so thou knowest not the work of God who doeth all. In 6 the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thy hand; for thou knowest not which shall prosper, whether this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good. Truly the light 7 is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun.
Yea, if a man live many years, let him rejoice in them all; but 8 let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many.
All that cometh is vanity. Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, 9 and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thy heart, and in the sight of thine eyes; but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.

10 Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh; for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

12 Remember also thy Creator in the days of thy youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw nigh, when thou shalt 2 say, I have no pleasure in them; before the sun, and the light, and the moon, and the stars, are darkened, and the clouds re-3 turn after the rain; in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the 4 grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows shall be darkened, and the doors shall be shut in the street; when the sound of the grinding is low, and one shall 5 rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low; yea, they shall be afraid of that which is high, and terrors shall be in the way; and the almond-tree shall blossom, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall 6 fail; because man goeth to his everlasting home, and the mourners go about the streets: before the silver cord is loosed, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is broken at the fountain, 7 or the wheel broken at the cistern, and the dust returneth to the earth as it was, and the spirit returneth unto God who gave 8, 9 it. Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher; all is vanity. And further, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he pondered, and sought out, and set in 10 order many proverbs. The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written uprightly, even words 11 of truth. The words of the wise are as goads; and as nails well fastened are the words of the masters of assemblies, which are 12 given from one shepherd. And furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study 13 is a weariness of the flesh. This is the end of the matter; all hath been heard: fear God, and keep his commandments; for 14 this is the whole duty of man. For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

THE SONG OF SOLOMON.

She Song of songs, which is Solomon's. Let him kiss me 1, 2 with the kisses of his mouth; For thy love is better than wine. Thine oils have a goodly fragrance; Thy name 3 is as oil poured forth; Therefore do the virgins love thee. Draw me; we will run after thee: The king hath brought 4 me into his chambers; We will be glad and rejoice in thee; We will make mention of thy love more than of wine: Rightly do they love thee. I am black, but comely, Oh ye daughters of 5 Jerusalem, As the tents of Kedar, As the curtains of Solomon.
Look not upon me, because I am swarthy, Because the sun hath 6 scorched me. My mother's sons were incensed against me; They made me keeper of the vineyards; But mine own vineyard have I not kept. Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, Where thou 7 feedest thy flock, Where thou makest it to rest at noon: For why should I be as one that is veiled Beside the flocks of thy companions? If thou know not, O thou fairest among women, 8 Go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, And feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents. I have compared thee, O my love, 9 To a steed in Pharaoh's chariots. Thy cheeks are comely with plaits of hair, Thy neck with strings of jewels. We will make 10 thee plaits of gold With studs of silver. While the king sat at his table, My spikenard sent forth its fragrance. My beloved is unto 13 me as a bundle of myrrh, That lieth betwixt my breasts. My 14 beloved is unto me as a cluster of henna-flowers In the vineyards of En-gedi. Behold, thou art fair, my love; Behold thou art fair; 15 Thine eyes are as doves. Behold, thou art fair, my beloved, yea, 16 pleasant: Also our couch is green. The beams of our house are 17 cedars, And our rafters are firs.

I am a rose of Sharon, A lily of the valleys. As a lily among 2, 2 thorns, So is my love among the daughters. As the apple-tree 3 among the trees of the wood, So is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, And his fruit was 4 sweet to my taste. He brought me to the banqueting-house, 5 And his banner over me was love. Stay ye me with raisins, 6 refresh me with apples; For I am sick from love. His left hand is 7 under my head, And his right hand doth embrace me. I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, By the roes, or by the hinds of the field, That ye stir not up, nor awake my love, Until he 8 please. The voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh, Leaping 9 upon the mountains, Skipping upon the hills. My beloved is like a roe or a young hart: Behold, he standeth behind our wall; He looketh in at the windows; He glanceth through the lattice.

10 My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair 11 one, and come away. For, lo, the winter is past; The rain is 12 over and gone; The flowers appear on the earth; The time of the singing of birds is come, And the voice of the turtle-dove is 13 heard in our land; The fig-tree ripeneth her green figs, And the vines are in blossom; They give forth their fragrance. Arise, my 14 love, my fair one, and come away. O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, In the covert of the steep place, Let me see thy countenance, Let me hear thy voice; For sweet is thy voice, and 15 thy countenance is comely. Take us the foxes, the little foxes, 16 That spoil the vineyards; For our vineyards are in blossom. My beloved is mine, and I am his: He feedeth his flock among the 17 lilies. Until the day be cool, and the shadows flee away, Turn, my beloved, and be thou like a roe or a young hart Upon the mountains of Bethel.

3 By night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I 2 sought him, but I found him not. I said, I will rise now, and go about the city; In the streets and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.
3 The watchmen that go about the city found me; To whom I said, 4 Saw ye him whom my soul loveth? It was but a little that I passed from them, When I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, Until I had brought him into my mother's house, And into the chamber of her that conceived 5 me. I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, By the roes, or by the hinds of the field, That ye stir not up, nor awake my love, 6 Until he please. Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness Like pillars of smoke, Perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, 7 With all powders of the merchant? Behold, it is the litter of Solomon; Threescore mighty men are about it, Of the mighty men of Israel. They all handle the sword, and are expert in 8 war: Every man hath his sword upon his thigh, Because of fear in the night. King Solomon made himself a palanquin Of the 9 wood of Lebanon. He made the pillars thereof of silver, The 10 bottom thereof of gold, the seat of it of purple, The midst thereof being paved with love, From the daughters of Jerusalem. Go 11 forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon, With the crown wherewith his mother hath crowned him In the day of his espousals, And in the day of the gladness of his heart.

Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; Thine 4 eyes are as doves behind thy veil. Thy hair is as a flock of goats, That lie along the side of mount Gilead. Thy teeth are like a 2 flock of ewes that are newly shorn, Which are come up from the washing, Whereof every one hath twins, And none is bereaved among them. Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, And thy 3 mouth is comely. Thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate Behind thy veil. Thy neck is like the tower of David builded 4 for an armory, Whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, All the shields of the mighty men. Thy two breasts are like two fawns 5 That are twins of a roe, Which feed among the lilies. Until 6 the day be cool, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, And to the hill of frankincense. Thou art 7 all fair, my love; And there is no spot in thee. Come with me 8 from Lebanon, my bride, With me from Lebanon: Look from the top of Amana, From the top of Senir and Hermon, From the lions' dens, From the mountains of the leopards. Thou hast 9 ravished my heart, my sister, my bride; Thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, With one chain of thy neck. How 10 fair is thy love, my sister, my bride! How much better is thy love than wine! And the fragrance of thine oils than all manner of spices! Thy lips, O my bride, drop as the honeycomb: Honey 11 and milk are under thy tongue; And the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon. A garden shut up is my sister, 12 my bride; A spring shut up, a fountain sealed. Thy shoots are 13 an orchard of pomegranates, with precious fruits; Henna with spikenard plants, Spikenard and saffron, Calamus and cinna- 14 mon, with all trees of frankincense; Myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices. Thou art a fountain of gardens, A well of 15 16 living waters, And flowing streams from Lebanon. Awake, O north wind; And come, thou south; Blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, And eat his precious fruits.

5 I am come into my garden, my sister, my bride: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk. Eat, O friends; 2 Drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved. I was asleep, but my heart waked: It is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled; For my 3 head is filled with dew, My locks with the drops of the night. I have put off my garment; How shall I put it on? I have washed 4 my feet; how shall I defile them? My beloved put in his hand by 5 the hole of the door, And my heart was moved for him. I rose up to open to my beloved; And my hands droppeth with myrrh, And my fingers with liquid myrrh, Upon the handles of the bolt.
6 I opened to my beloved; But my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone. My soul had failed me when he spake: I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no 7 answer. The watchmen that go about the city found me, They smote me, they wounded me; The keepers of the walls took away 8 my mantle from me. I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, If ye find my beloved, That ye tell him, that I am sick from love.
9 What is thy beloved more than another beloved, O thou fairest among women? What is thy beloved more than another beloved, 10 That thou dost so adjure us? My beloved is white and ruddy, The chiefest among ten thousand. His head is as the most fine 11 gold; His locks are bushy, and black as a raven. His eyes are like doves beside the water-brooks, Washed with milk, and fitly set.
12 His cheeks are as a bed of spices, As banks of sweet herbs: His lips are as lilies, dropping liquid myrrh. His hands are as rings 13 of gold set with beryl: His body is as ivory work overlaid with sapphires. His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets 14 of fine gold: His aspect is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.
15 His mouth is most sweet; Yea, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

6 Whither is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women? Whither hath thy beloved turned him, That we may seek him 2 with thee? My beloved is gone down to his garden, To the beds of spices, To feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies. I 3 am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine; He feedeth his flock among the lilies, Thou art fair, O my love, as Tirzah, Comely 4 as Jerusalem, Terrible as an army with banners. Turn away 5 thine eyes from me, For they have overcome me. Thy hair is as a flock of goats, That lie along the side of Gilead. Thy teeth 6 are like a flock of ewes, Which are come up from the washing; Whereof every one hath twins, And none is bereaved among them. Thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate Behind 7 thy veil. There are threescore queens, and fourscore concubines, 8 And virgins without number. My dove, my undefiled, is but one; 9 She is the only one of her mother; She is the choice one of her that bare her. The daughters saw her, and called her blessed; Yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her. Who 10 is she that looketh forth as the morning, Fair as the moon, Clear as the sun, Terrible as an army with banners? I went down 11 into the garden of nuts, To see the green plants of the valley, To see whether the vine budded, And the pomegranates were in flower. Before I was aware, my soul set me Among the chariots 12 of my princely people. Return, return, O Shulammite; Return, 13 return, that we may look upon thee. Why will ye look upon the Shulammite, As upon the dance of Mahanaim?

How beautiful are thy feet in sandals, O prince's daughter! 7 Thy rounded thighs are like jewels, The work of the hands of a skilful workman. Thy body is like a round goblet, Wherein no 2 mingled wine is wanting: Thy waist is like a heap of wheat Set about with lilies. Thy two breasts are like two fawns That are 3 twins of a roe. Thy neck is like the tower of ivory; Thine eyes 4 as the pools in Heshbon, By the gate of Bath-rabbim; Thy nose is like the tower of Lebanon Which looketh toward Damascus.
Thy head upon thee is like Carmel, And the hair of thy head 5 like purple; The king is held captive in the tresses thereof. How 6 fair and how pleasant art thou, O love, for delights! This thy 7 stature is like to a palm-tree, And thy breasts to its clusters. I 8 said, I will climb up into the palm-tree, I will take hold of the branches thereof: Let thy breasts be as clusters of the vine, And the smell of thy breath like apples, And thy mouth like the 9 best wine, That goeth down smoothly for my beloved, Gliding through the lips of those that are asleep. I am my beloved's; 10 11 And his desire is toward me. Come, my beloved, let us go forth 12 into the field; Let us lodge in the villages. Let us get up early to the vineyards; Let us see whether the vine hath budded, And its blossom is open, And the pomegranates are in flower: There 13 will I give thee my love. The mandrakes give forth fragrance;

And at our doors are all manner of precious fruits, new and old,
Which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

8 Oh that thou wert as my brother, That sucked the breasts of my mother! When I should find thee without, I would kiss 2 thee; Yea, and none would despise me. I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house, Who would instruct me; I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine, Of the juice of my 3 pomegranate. His left hand should be under my head, And 4 his right hand should embrace me. I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, That ye stir not up, nor awake my love, Until 5 he please. Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, Leaning upon her beloved? Under the apple-tree I awakened thee: There thy mother was in travail with thee, There was she in 6 travail that brought thee forth. Set me as a seal upon thy heart, As a seal upon thine arm: For love is strong as death; Jealousy is cruel as Sheol; The flashes thereof are flashes of fire, A very 7 flame of Jehovah. Many waters cannot quench love, Neither can floods drown it: If a man would give all the substance of 8 his house for love, He would utterly be contemned. We have a little sister, And she hath no breasts: What shall we do for our 9 sister In the day when she shall be spoken for? If she be a wall, We will build upon her a turret of silver: And if she be a door, 10 We will inclose her with boards of cedar. I am a wall, and my breasts like the towers thereof Then was I in his eyes as one that 11 found peace. Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; He let out the vineyard unto keepers; Every one for the fruit thereof 12 was to bring a thousand pieces of silver. My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: Thou, O Solomon, shalt have the thousand, 13 And those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred. Thou that dwest in the gardens, The companions hearken for thy voice: 14 Cause me to hear it. Make haste, my beloved, And be thou like to a roe or to a young hart Upon the mountains of spices.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH.

 he vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; for Jehovah hath spoken: I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me. The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib; but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider. Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that deal corruptly! they have forsaken Jehovah, they have despised the Holy One of Israel, they are estranged and gone backward. Why will ye be still stricken, that ye revolt more and more? the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and fresh stripes: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with oil. Your country is desolate; your cities are burned with fire; your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers. And the daughter of Zion is left as a booth in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city. Except Jehovah of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, we should have been like unto Gomorrah. Hear the word of Jehovah, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah. What unto me is the multitude of your sacrifices? saith Jehovah: I have had enough of the burnt-offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he-goats. When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to trample my courts? Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; new moon and sabbath, the calling of assemblies, 14 – I cannot away with iniquity and the solemn meeting. Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth; they are 15 a trouble unto me; I am weary of bearing them. And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you; yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full 16 of blood. Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil; learn to do well; 17 seek justice, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow. Come now, and let us reason together, saith Jeho-18 vah: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: 20 but if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword; 21 for the mouth of Jehovah hath spoken it. How is the faithful city become a harlot! she that was full of justice! righteousness 22 lodged in her, but now murderers. Thy silver is become dross, 23 thy wine mixed with water. Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; every one loveth bribes, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the 24 cause of the widow come unto them. Therefore saith the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me 25 of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies; and I will turn my hand upon thee, and thoroughly purge away thy dross, 26 and will take away all thy tin; and I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou 27 shalt be called The city of righteousness, a faithful town. Zion shall be redeemed with justice, and her converts with righteous-28 ness. But the destruction of transgressors and sinners shall be together, and they that forsake Jehovah shall be consumed. For 29 they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen. For ye 30 shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water. And the strong shall be as tow, and his work as a 31 spark; and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.

2 The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. And it shall come to pass in the latter days, that the mountain of Jehovah's house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. And many peoples shall go and 3 say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth 4 the law, and the word of Jehovah from Jerusalem. And he will judge between the nations, and will decide concerning many peoples; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. O house 5 of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of Jehovah. For 6 thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they are filled with customs from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they strike hands with the children of foreigners.

And their land is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end 7 of their treasures; their land also is full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots. Their land also is full of idols; 8 they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made. And the mean man is bowed down, and the 9 great man is brought low: therefore forgive them not. Enter 10 into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, from before the terror of Jehovah, and from the glory of his majesty. The lofty looks 11 of man shall be brought low, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and Jehovah alone shall be exalted in that day.
For there shall be a day of Jehovah of hosts upon all that is 12 proud and haughty, and upon all that is lifted up; and it shall be brought low; and upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high 13 and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan, and upon all the 14 high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up, and 15 upon every lofty tower, and upon every fortified wall, and upon 16 all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant imagery. And 17 the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be brought low; and Jehovah alone shall be exalted in that day. And the idols shall utterly pass away. And men 18, 19 shall go into the caves of the rocks, and into the holes of the earth, from before the terror of Jehovah, and from the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake mightily the earth. In 20 that day men shall cast away their idols of silver, and their idols of gold, which have been made for them to worship, to the moles and to the bats; to go into the caverns of the rocks, and into the 21 clefts of the ragged rocks, from before the terror of Jehovah, and from the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake mightily 22 the earth. Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils; for wherein is he to be accounted of?

3 For, behold, the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah stay and staff, the whole stay of 2 bread, and the whole stay of water; the mighty man, and the man of war; the judge, and the prophet, and the diviner, and 3 the elder; the captain of fifty, and the honorable man, and the counsellor, and the expert artificer, and the skilful enchanter.
4 And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule 5 over them. And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbor: the child shall behave himself proudly against the old man, and the base against the 6 honorable. When a man shall take hold of his brother in the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, 7 and let this ruin be under thy hand; in that day shall he lift up his voice, saying, I will not be a healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: ye shall not make me ruler of the 8 people. For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen; because their tongue and their doings are against Jehovah, to provoke 9 the eyes of his glory. The show of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have done evil unto 10 themselves. Say ye of the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him; for what his hands have done 12 shall be done unto him. As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they that lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.
13 Jehovah standeth up to contend, and standeth to judge the peoples. Jehovah will enter into judgment with the elders of his people, and the princes thereof: It is ye that have eaten up the 15 vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses: what mean ye that ye crush my people, and grind the face of the poor? saith 16 the Lord, Jehovah of hosts. Moreover Jehovah said, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with outstretched 17 necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet; therefore the Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and Jehovah will lay bare their secret parts. In that day the Lord will take away the beauty of their anklets, and the cauls, and the crescents; the pendants, and the bracelets, and the mufflers; the headties, and the ankle chains, and the sashes, and the perfume-boxes, and the amulets; the rings, and the nose-jewels; the festival robes, and the mantles, and the shawls, and the satchels; the hand-mirrors, and the fine linen, and the turbans, and the veils. And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet spices there shall be rottenness; and instead of a girdle, a rope; and instead of well set hair, baldness; and instead of a robe, a girding of sackcloth; branding instead of beauty. Thy men shall fall by the sword, and thy mighty in the war. And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she shall be desolate and sit upon the ground.

And seven women shall take hold of one man in that day, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only let us be called by thy name; take thou away our reproach. In that day shall the branch of Jehovah be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel. And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem; when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof, by the spirit of justice, and by the spirit of burning. And Jehovah will create over the whole habitation of mount Zion, and over her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory shall be spread a covering. And there shall be a pavilion for a shade in the day-time from the heat, and for a refuge and for a covert from storm and from rain.

Let me sing for my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My wellbeloved had a vineyard in a very fruitful hill: and he digged it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also hewed out a winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes. And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge, I pray

4 you, betwixt me and my vineyard. What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild 5 grapes? And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; I will break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down:
6 and I will lay it waste; it shall not be pruned nor hoed; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds 7 that they rain no rain upon it. For the vineyard of Jehovah of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for justice, but, behold, oppression; for 8 righteousness, but, behold, a cry. Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no room, and 9 ye be made to dwell alone in the midst of the land! In mine ears saith Jehovah of hosts, Of a truth many houses shall be 10 desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant. For ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and a homer of seed shall yield 11 but an ephah. Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that tarry late into the night, 12 till wine inflame them! And the harp and the lute, the tabret and the pipe, and wine, are in their feasts; but they regard not the work of Jehovah, neither have they considered the operation 13 of his hands. Therefore my people are gone into captivity for lack of knowledge; and their honorable men are famished, and 14 their multitude are parched with thirst. Therefore Sheol hath enlarged its desire, and opened its mouth without measure; and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that 15 rejoiceth among them, descend into it. And the mean man is bowed down, and the great man is humbled, and the eyes of the 16 lofty are humbled: but Jehovah of hosts is exalted in justice, and 17 God the Holy One is sanctified in righteousness. Then shall the lambs feed as in their pasture, and the waste places of the fat 18 ones shall wanderers eat. Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of falsehood, and sin as it were with a cart rope; 19 that say, Let him make speed, let him hasten his work, that we may see it; and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw 20 nigh and come, that we may know it! Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent 21 in their own sight! Woe unto them that are mighty to drink 22 wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink; that justify 23 the wicked for a bribe, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him! Therefore as the tongue of fire devoureth 24 the stubble, and as the dry grass sinketh down in the flame, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust; because they have rejected the law of Jehovah of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. Therefore is 25 the anger of Jehovah kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them; and the mountains tremble, and their dead bodies are as refuse in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. And he will lift up 26 an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss for them from the end of the earth; and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly. None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none 27 shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken: whose arrows 28 are sharp, and all their bows bent; their horses' hoofs shall be accounted as flint, and their wheels as a whirlwind: their roaring shall be like a lioness, they shall roar like young lions; yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and carry it away safe, and there shall be none to deliver. And they shall roar against them 30 in that day like the roaring of the sea: and if one look unto the land, behold, darkness and distress; and the light is darkened in the clouds thereof.

In the year that king Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon 6 a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple.
Above him stood the seraphim: each one had six wings; with 2 twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. And one cried unto another, and 3 said, Holy, holy, holy, is Jehovah of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. And the foundations of the thresholds shook 4 at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke. Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I 5 am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, Jehovah of hosts. Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, having a live 6 coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off 7 the altar: and he touched my mouth with it, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy 8 sin forgiven. And I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then I said, Here am I; 9 send me. And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, 10 but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn again, and be healed.

11 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until cities be waste without inhabitant, and houses without man, and the land 12 become utterly waste, and Jehovah have removed men far away, 13 and the forsaken places be many in the midst of the land. And if there be yet a tenth in it, it also shall in turn be eaten up: as a terebinth, and as an oak, whose stock remaineth, when they are felled; so the holy seed is the stock thereof.

7 And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem 2 to war against it, but could not prevail against it. And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart trembled, and the heart of his people, 3 as the trees of the forest tremble with the wind. Then said Jehovah unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shearjashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, in 4 the highway of the fuller's field; and say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither let thy heart be faint, because of these two tails of smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of 5 Rezin and Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have purposed evil against 6 thee, saying, Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set up a king in the midst of 7 it, even the son of Tabeel; thus saith the Lord Jehovah, It shall 8 not stand, neither shall it come to pass. For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within three-score and five years shall Ephraim be broken in pieces, so that it 9 shall not be a people: and the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established. And Jehovah spake again 10 unto Ahaz, saying, Ask thee a sign of Jehovah thy God; ask it 11 either in the depth, or in the height above. But Ahaz said, I 12 will not ask, neither will I tempt Jehovah. And he said, Hear ye 13 now, O house of David: Is it a small thing for you to weary men, that ye will weary my God also? Therefore the Lord himself 14 will give you a sign: behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. Butter and honey shall 15 he eat, when he knoweth to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the 16 good, the land whose two kings thou abhorrest shall be forsaken.
Jehovah will bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon 17 thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah — even the king of Assyria. And 18 it shall come to pass in that day, that Jehovah will hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. And they shall come, and 19 shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the clefts of the rocks, and upon all thorn-hedges, and upon all pastures. In 20 that day will the Lord shave with a razor that is hired in the parts beyond the River, even with the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet; and it shall also consume the beard.
And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall keep 21 alive a young cow, and two sheep; and it shall come to pass, 22 that because of the abundance of milk which they shall give he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the midst of the land. And it shall come to pass in 23 that day, that every place, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, shall be for briers and thorns. With 24 arrows and with bow shall one come thither, because all the land shall be briers and thorns. And all the hills that were digged 25 with the mattock, thou shalt not come thither for fear of briers and thorns; but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of sheep.

And Jehovah said unto me, Take thee a great tablet, and 8 write upon it with the pen of a man, For Maher-shalal-hash-baz; and I will take unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the 2 priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah. And I went unto 3 the prophetess; and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said 4 Jehovah unto me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz. For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and, My mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall 5 be carried away before the king of Assyria. And Jehovah spake 6 unto me yet again, saying, Forasmuch as this people have refused the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin 7 and Remaliah's son; now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the River, strong and many, even the king of Assyria and all his glory: and it shall come up over 8 all its channels, and go over all its banks; and it shall sweep onward into Judah; it shall overflow and pass through; it shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of its wings shall 9 fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel. Make an uproar, O ye peoples, and be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and be broken in pieces; gird your-10 selves, and be broken in pieces. Take counsel together, and it shall be brought to nought; speak the word, and it shall not 11 stand: for God is with us. For Jehovah spake thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me not to walk in the way of this 12 people, saying, Say ye not, A conspiracy, concerning all whereof this people shall say, A conspiracy; neither fear ye their fear, nor 13 be in dread thereof. Jehovah of hosts, him shall ye sanctify; 14 and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a 15 snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many shall stumble thereon, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

16 Bind thou up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples.
17 And I will wait for Jehovah, that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. Behold, I and the children whom Jehovah hath given me are for signs and for wonders in 18 Israel from Jehovah of hosts, who dwelleth in mount Zion. And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits and unto the wizards, that chirp and that mutter: should 19 not a people seek unto their God? on behalf of the living should 20 they seek unto the dead? To the law and to the testimony! if they speak not according to this word, surely there is no morn-21 ing for them. And they shall pass through it, sore distressed and hungry; and it shall come to pass that, when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse by their king and by their God, and turn their faces upward: and they shall look 22 unto the earth, and behold, distress and darkness, the gloom of anguish; and into thick darkness they shall be driven away.

But there shall be no gloom to her that was in anguish. In 9 the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the latter time hath he made it glorious, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations. The people that walked in darkness have seen a great 2 light: they that dwelt in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. Thou hast multiplied the nation, 3 thou hast increased their joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.
For the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod 4 of his oppressor, thou hast broken as in the day of Midian. For 5 all the armor of the armed man in the tumult, and the garments rolled in blood, shall be for burning, for fuel of fire. For unto us 6 a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be 7 no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of Jehovah of hosts will perform this. The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it 8 hath lighted upon Israel. And all the people shall know, even 9 Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in pride and in stoutness of heart, The bricks are fallen, but we will build with 10 hewn stone; the sycomores are cut down, but we will put cedars in their place. Therefore Jehovah will set up on high against 11 him the adversaries of Rezin, and will stir up his enemies, the Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. Yet the people have 13 not turned unto him that smote them, neither have they sought Jehovah of hosts. Therefore Jehovah will cut off from Israel 14 head and tail, palm-branch and rush, in one day. The elder and 15 the honorable man, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail. For they that lead this people cause them 16 17 to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed. Therefore the Lord will not rejoice over their young men, neither will he have compassion on their fatherless and widows; for every one is profane and an evil-doer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out 18 still. For wickedness burneth as the fire; it devoureth the briers and thorns; yea, it kindleth in the thickets of the forest, and 19 they roll upward in a column of smoke. Through the wrath of Jehovah of hosts is the land burnt up; and the people are as the 20 fuel of fire: no man spareth his brother. And one shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat every man 21 the flesh of his own arm: Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh; and they together shall be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

10 Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and to the 2 writers that write perverseness; to turn aside the needy from justice, and to rob the poor of my people of their right, that widows may be their spoil, and that they may make the father-3 less their prey! And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will 4 ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory? They shall only bow down under the prisoners, and shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand 5 is stretched out still. Ho Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, the 6 staff in whose hand is mine indignation! I will send him against a profane nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread 7 them down like the mire of the streets. Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to 8 destroy, and to cut off nations not a few. For he saith, Are not 9 my princes all of them kings? Is not Calno as Carchemish? is 10 not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus? As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, whose graven im-11 ages did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria; shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem 12 and her idols? Wherefore it shall come to pass, that, when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks. For he hath said, 13 By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I have understanding: and I have removed the bounds of the peoples, and have robbed their treasures, and like a valiant man I have brought down them that sit on thrones: and my 14 hand hath found as a nest the riches of the peoples; and as one gathereth eggs that are forsaken, have I gathered all the earth: and there was none that moved the wing, or that opened the mouth, or chirped. Shall the axe boast itself against him that 15 heweth therewith? shall the saw magnify itself against him that wieldeth it? as if a rod should wield them that lift it up, or as if a staff should lift up him that is not wood. Therefore will the 16 Lord, Jehovah of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory there shall be kindled a burning like the burning of fire. And the light of Israel will be for a fire, and his Holy 17 One for a flame; and it will burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day. And he will consume the glory of his forest, 18 and of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and it shall be as when a standard-bearer fainteth. And the remnant of the trees 19 of his forest shall be few, so that a child may write them. And 20 it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and they that are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again lean upon him that smote them, but shall lean upon Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. A remnant shall return, even 21 the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God. For though thy 22 people, Israel, be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them shall return: a destruction is determined, overflowing with righteousness. For a full end, and that determined, will the Lord, 23 Jehovah of hosts, make in the midst of all the earth. Therefore 24 thus saith the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian, though he smite thee with the rod, and lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt. For yet a very little while, and the indignation against 25 thee shall be accomplished, and mine anger shall be directed to his destruction. And Jehovah of hosts will stir up against him 26 a scourge, as in the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and his rod will be over the sea, and he will lift it up after the manner of Egypt. And it shall come to pass in that day, that his 27 burden shall depart from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed by reason of fatness.

28 He is come to Aiath, he is passed through Migron; at Michmash 29 he layeth up his baggage; they are gone over the pass; they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah trembleth; Gibeah 30 of Saul is fled. Cry aloud with thy voice, O daughter of Gallim!
31 hearken, O Laishah! O thou poor Anathoth! Madmenah is a 32 fugitive; the inhabitants of Gebim flee for safety. This very day shall he halt at Nob: he shaketh his hand at the mount of the 33 daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem. Behold, the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, will lop the boughs with terror: and the high of stature shall be hewn down, and the lofty shall be brought low.
34 And he will cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

11 And there shall come forth a shoot out of the stock of Jesse, 2 and a branch out of his roots shall bear fruit. And the Spirit of Jehovah shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge 3 and of the fear of Jehovah. And his delight shall be in the fear of Jehovah; and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, nei-4 ther decide after the hearing of his ears; but with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth; 5 and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked. And righteousness shall be the girdle of his waist, and faithfulness 6 the girdle of his loins. And the wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall 7 lead them. And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the 8 ox. And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and 9 the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder's den. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of Jehovah, as the waters cover 10 the sea. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the root of Jesse, that standeth for an ensign of the peoples, unto him shall the nations seek; and his resting-place shall be glorious.
11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, that shall remain, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. And he will set up an ensign for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and they that vex Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim. And they shall fly down upon the shoulder of the Philistines on the west; together shall they despoil the children of the east: they shall put forth their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them. And Jehovah will utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his scorching wind will he wave his hand over the River, and will smite it into seven streams, and cause men to march over dryshod. And there shall be a highway for the remnant of his people, that shall remain, from Assyria; like as there was for Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

And in that day thou shalt say, I will give thanks unto thee, O Jehovah; for though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away and thou comfortest me. Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid; for Jehovah, even Jehovah, is my strength and song; and he is become my salvation. Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation. And in that day shall ye say, Give thanks unto Jehovah, call upon his name, declare his doings among the peoples, make mention that his name is exalted. Sing unto Jehovah; for he hath done excellent things: let this be known in all the earth. Cry aloud and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion; for great in the midst of thee is the Holy One of Israel.

The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see. Set ye up an ensign upon the bare mountain, lift up the voice unto them, wave the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. I have commanded my consecrated ones, yea, I have called my mighty men for mine anger, even my proudly exulting ones. The noise of a multitude in the mountains, as of a great people! the noise of a tumult of the kingdoms of the nations gathered together! Jehovah of hosts is mustering the host for the battle. They come from a far country, from the uttermost part of heaven, even Jehovah, and the weapons 6 of his indignation, to destroy the whole land. Wail ye; for the day of Jehovah is at hand; as destruction from the Almighty 7 shall it come. Therefore shall all hands be feeble, and every 8 heart of man shall melt: and they shall be dismayed; pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman in travail: they shall look in amazement one at another; 9 their faces shall be faces of flame. Behold, the day of Jehovah cometh, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger; to make the land 10 a desolation, and to destroy the sinners thereof out of it. For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light; the sun shall be darkened in its going forth, and the 11 moon shall not cause its light to shine. And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity: and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the 12 haughtiness of the terrible. I will make a man more rare than fine gold, even a man than the pure gold of Ophir. Therefore I 13 will make the heavens to tremble, and the earth shall be shaken out of its place, in the wrath of Jehovah of hosts, and in the 14 day of his fierce anger. And it shall come to pass, that as the chased roe, and as sheep that no man gathereth, they shall turn every man to his own people, and shall flee every man to his 15 own land. Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and 16 every one that is taken shall fall by the sword. Their infants also shall be dashed in pieces before their eyes; their houses shall 17 be rifled, and their wives ravished. Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, who shall not regard silver, and as for gold, 18 they shall not delight in it. And their bows shall dash the young men in pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of 19 the womb; their eye shall not spare children. And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans' pride, shall be 20 as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither 21 shall shepherds make their flocks to lie down there. But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures; and ostriches shall dwell there, and wild 22 goats shall dance there. And wolves shall cry in their castles, and jackals in the pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged.

For Jehovah will have compassion on Jacob, and will yet 14 choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the sojourner shall join himself with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob. And the peoples shall take them, and bring them 2 to their place; and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of Jehovah for servants and for handmaids: and they shall take them captive whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors. And it shall come to pass in the day 3 that Jehovah shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy trouble, and from the hard service wherein thou wast made to serve, that thou shalt take up this parable against the king of 4 Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased! Jehovah hath broken the staff of the wicked, the 5 sceptre of the rulers; that smote the peoples in wrath with a 6 continual stroke, that ruled the nations in anger, with a persecution that none restrained. The whole earth is at rest, and is 7 quiet: they break forth into singing. Yea, the fir-trees rejoice at 8 thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid low, no hewer is come up against us. Sheol from beneath is moved 9 for thee to meet thee at thy coming; it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. All they shall answer 10 and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us? Thy pomp is brought down to Sheol, and 11 the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and worms cover thee. How art thou fallen from heaven, O day-star, son of 12 the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, that didst lay low the nations! And thou saidst in thy heart, I will ascend 13 into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; and I will sit upon the mount of congregation, in the uttermost parts of the north; I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I 14 will make myself like the Most High. Yet thou shalt be brought 15 down to Sheol, to the uttermost parts of the pit. They that 16 see thee shall gaze at thee, they shall consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms; that made the world as a wilderness, and overthrew 17 the cities thereof; that let not loose his prisoners to their home?
All the kings of the nations, all of them, sleep in glory, every 18 one in his own house. But thou art cast forth away from thy 19 sepulchre like an abominable branch, clothed with the slain, that are thrust through with the sword, that go down to the stones 20 of the pit; as a dead body trodden under foot. Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, thou hast slain thy people; the seed of evil-doers shall not 21 be named for ever. Prepare ye slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers, that they rise not up, and possess the 22 earth, and fill the face of the world with cities. And I will rise up against them, saith Jehovah of hosts, and cut off from Babylon 23 name and remnant, and son and son's son, saith Jehovah. I will also make it a possession for the porcupine, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith Jehovah 24 of hosts. Jehovah of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely, as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall 25 it stand: that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulder.

26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth; and 27 this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations. For Jehovah of hosts hath purposed, and who shall annul it? and his 28 hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back? In the year 29 that king Ahaz died was this burden. Rejoice not, O Philistia, all of thee, because the rod that smote thee is broken; for out of the serpent's root shall come forth an adder, and his fruit shall be 30 a fiery flying serpent. And the first-born of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety; and I will kill thy root 31 with famine, and thy remnant shall be slain. Howl, O gate; cry, O city; thou art melted away, O Philistia, all of thee; for there cometh a smoke out of the north, and there is no straggler in 32 his ranks. What then shall one answer the messengers of the nation? That Jehovah hath founded Zion, and in her shall the afflicted of his people take refuge.

15 The burden of Moab. For in a night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nought; for in a night Kir of Moab is laid waste, 2 and brought to nought. They are gone up to Bayith, and to Dibon, to the high places, to weep: Moab wailleth over Nebo, and over Medeba; on all their heads is baldness, every beard is 3 cut off. In their streets they gird themselves with sackcloth; on their housetops, and in their broad places, every one wailleth, weeping abundantly. And Heshbon crieth out, and Elealeh; 4 their voice is heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud; his soul trembleth within him. My heart 5 crieth out for Moab; her nobles flee unto Zoar, to Eglath-shelishiyah: for by the ascent of Luhith with weeping they go up; for in the way of Horonaim they raise up a cry of destruction. For 6 the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate; for the grass is withered away, the tender grass faileth, there is no green thing. Therefore 7 the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away over the brook of the willows. For the 8 cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the wailing thereof unto Eglaim, and the wailing thereof unto Beer-elim. For the 9 waters of Dimon are full of blood; for I will bring yet more upon Dimon, a lion upon them of Moab that escape, and upon the remnant of the land.

Send ye the lambs for the ruler of the land from Selah to the 16 wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion. For it shall 2 be that, as wandering birds, as a scattered nest, so shall the daughters of Moab be at the fords of the Arnon. Give counsel, 3 execute justice; make thy shade as the night in the midst of the noonday; hide the outcasts; betray not the fugitive. Let mine 4 outcasts dwell with thee; as for Moab, be thou a covert to him from the face of the destroyer. For the extortioner is brought to nought, destruction ceaseth, the oppressors are consumed out of the land. And a throne shall be established in lovingkind- 5 ness; and one shall sit thereon in truth, in the tent of David, judging, and seeking justice, and swift to do righteousness. We 6 have heard of the pride of Moab, that he is very proud; even of his arrogancy, and his pride, and his wrath; his boastings are nought. Therefore shall Moab wail for Moab, every one shall 7 wail: for the raisin-cakes of Kir-hareseth shall ye mourn, utterly stricken. For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of 8 Sibmah; the lords of the nations have broken down the choice branches thereof, which reached even unto Jazer, which wandered into the wilderness; its shoots were spread abroad, they passed over the sea. Therefore I will weep with the weeping of 9 Jazer for the vine of Sibmah; I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for upon thy summer fruits and upon thy harvest the battle shout is fallen. And gladness is taken 10 away, and joy out of the fruitful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither joyful noise: no treader shall tread out wine in the presses; I have made the vintage shout to cease.

11 Wherefore my heart soundeth like a harp for Moab, and mine 12 inward parts for Kir-heres. And it shall come to pass, when Moab presenteth himself, when he wearieth himself upon the high place, and shall come to his sanctuary to pray, that he 13 shall not prevail. This is the word that Jehovah spake concerning Moab in time past. But now Jehovah hath spoken, saying, 14 Within three years, as the years of a hireling, the glory of Moab shall be brought into contempt, with all his great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and of no account.

17 The burden of Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away 2 from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap. The cities of Aroer are forsaken; they shall be for flocks, which shall lie 3 down, and none shall make them afraid. And the fortress shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria; they shall be as the glory of the children of 4 Israel, saith Jehovah of hosts. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the 5 fatness of his flesh shall wax lean. And it shall be as when the harvestman gathereth the standing grain, and his arm reapeth the ears; yea, it shall be as when one gleaneth ears in the val-6 ley of Rephaim. Yet there shall be left therein gleanings, as the shaking of an olive-tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost branches of a 7 fruitful tree, saith Jehovah, the God of Israel. In that day shall men look unto their Maker, and their eyes shall have respect to 8 the Holy One of Israel. And they shall not look to the altars, the work of their hands; neither shall they have respect to that which their fingers have made, either the Asherim, or the sun-9 images. In that day shall their strong cities be as the forsaken places in the wood and on the mountain top, which were forsaken from before the children of Israel; and it shall be a desolation.
10 For thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the rock of thy strength; therefore thou plantest 11 pleasant plants, and settest it with strange slips. In the day of thy planting thou hedgest it in, and in the morning thou makest thy seed to blossom; but the harvest fleeth away in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow. Ah, the uproar of many peoples, 12 that roar like the roaring of the seas; and the rushing of nations, that rush like the rushing of mighty waters! The nations shall 13 rush like the rushing of many waters: but he shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like the whirling dust before the storm. At eventide, behold, terror; and before the morning 14 they are not. This is the portion of them that despoil us, and the lot of them that rob us.

Ah, the land of the rustling of wings, which is beyond the 18 rivers of Ethiopia; that sendeth ambassadors by the sea, even 2 in vessels of papyrus upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people terrible from their beginning onward, a nation that meteth out and treadeth down, whose land the rivers divide! All ye inhabitants of the 3 world, and ye dwellers on the earth, when an ensign is lifted up on the mountains, see ye; and when the trumpet is blown, hear ye. For thus hath Jehovah said unto me, I will be still, and I 4 will behold in my dwelling-place, like clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest. For before the harvest, 5 when the blossom is over, and the flower becometh a ripening grape, he will cut off the sprigs with pruning-hooks, and the spreading branches will he take away and cut down. They shall 6 be left together unto the ravenous birds of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth; and the ravenous birds shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them. In that time shall a present be brought unto Jehovah of 7 hosts from a people tall and smooth, even from a people terrible from their beginning onward, a nation that meteth out and treadeth down, whose land the rivers divide, to the place of the name of Jehovah of hosts, the mount Zion.

The burden of Egypt. Behold, Jehovah rideth upon a swift 19 cloud, and cometh unto Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall tremble at his presence; and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it. And I will stir up the Egyptians against the 2 Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbor; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst 3 of it; and I will destroy the counsel thereof: and they shall seek unto the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have 4 familiar spirits, and to the wizards. And I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall 5 rule over them, saith the Lord, Jehovah of hosts. And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and 6 become dry. And the rivers shall become foul; the streams of Egypt shall be diminished and dried up; the reeds and flags shall 7 wither away. The meadows by the Nile, by the brink of the Nile, and all the sown fields of the Nile, shall become dry, be driven 8 away, and be no more. And the fishers shall lament, and all they that cast angle into the Nile shall mourn, and they that 9 spread nets upon the waters shall languish. Moreover they that work in combed flax, and they that weave white cloth, shall be 10 confounded. And the pillars of Egypt shall be broken in pieces; 11 all they that work for hire shall be grieved in soul. The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish; the counsel of the wisest counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am 12 the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings? Where then are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now; and let them know what Jehovah of hosts hath purposed concerning Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Memphis are deceived; they have caused Egypt to go astray, that are the 14 corner-stone of her tribes. Jehovah hath mingled a spirit of perverseness in the midst of her; and they have caused Egypt to go astray in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth 15 in his vomit. Neither shall there be for Egypt any work, which head or tail, palm-branch or rush, may do. In that day shall the 16 Egyptians be like unto women; and they shall tremble and fear because of the shaking of the hand of Jehovah of hosts, which 17 he shaketh over them. And the land of Judah shall become a terror unto Egypt; every one to whom mention is made thereof shall be afraid, because of the purpose of Jehovah of hosts, which 18 he purposeth against it. In that day there shall be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan, and swear to Jehovah of hosts; one shall be called The city of destruction.
19 In that day shall there be an altar to Jehovah in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to Jehovah.
20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto Jehovah of hosts in the land of Egypt; for they shall cry unto Jehovah because of oppressors, and he will send them a saviour, and a defender, and he will deliver them. And Jehovah shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know Jehovah in that day; yea, they shall worship with sacrifice and oblation, and shall vow a vow unto Jehovah, and shall perform it. And Jehovah will smite Egypt, smiting and healing; and they shall return unto Jehovah, and he will be entreated of them, and will heal them. In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians shall worship with the Assyrians. In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth; for that Jehovah of hosts hath blessed them, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance.

In the year that Tartan came unto Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it; at that time Jehovah spake by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go, and loose the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put thy shoe from off thy foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot. And Jehovah said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder concerning Egypt and concerning Ethiopia; so shall the king of Assyria lead away the captives of Egypt, and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. And they shall be dismayed and confounded, because of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory. And the inhabitant of this coast-land shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and we, how shall we escape?

The burden of the wilderness of the sea. As whirlwinds in the South sweep through, it cometh from the wilderness, from a terrible land. A grievous vision is declared unto me; the treacherous man dealeth treacherously, and the destroyer destroyeth. Go up, O Elam; besiege, O Media; all the sighing thereof have I made to cease. Therefore are my loins filled with anguish; pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman in travail: I am pained so that I cannot hear; I am dismayed so that I cannot see. My heart fluttereth, horror hath affrighted me; the twilight that I desired hath been turned into trembling unto 5 me. They prepare the table, they set the watch, they eat, they 6 drink: rise up, ye princes, anoint the shield. For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Go, set a watchman: let him declare what he 7 seeth: and when he seeth a troop, horsemen in pairs, a troop of asses, a troop of camels, he shall hearken diligently with much 8 heed. And he cried as a lion: O Lord, I stand continually upon the watch-tower in the day-time, and am set in my ward whole 9 nights; and, behold, here cometh a troop of men, horsemen in pairs. And he answered and said, Fallen, fallen is Babylon; and all the graven images of her gods are broken unto the ground.

10 O thou my threshing, and the grain of my floor! that which I have heard from Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, have I de-11 clared unto you. The burden of Dumah. One calleth unto me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of 12 the night? The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye will inquire, inquire ye: turn ye, come. The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye 14 caravans of Dedanites. Unto him that was thirsty they brought water; the inhabitants of the land of Tema did meet the fugitives 15 with their bread. For they fled away from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness 16 of war. For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Within a year, according to the years of a hireling, all the glory of Kedar shall 17 fail; and the residue of the number of the archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be few; for Jehovah, the God of Israel, hath spoken it.

22 The burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, 2 that thou art wholly gone up to the housetops? O thou that art full of shoutings, a tumultuous city, a joyous town; thy slain 3 are not slain with the sword, neither are they dead in battle. All thy rulers fled away together, they were bound by the archers; all that were found of thee were bound together; they fled afar 4 off. Therefore said I, Look away from me, I will weep bitterly; labor not to comfort me for the destruction of the daughter of 5 my people. For it is a day of discomfiture, and of treading down, and of perplexity, from the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, in the valley of vision; a breaking down of the walls, and a crying to 6 the mountains. And Elam bare the quiver, with chariots of men and horsemen; and Kir uncovered the shield. And it came 7 to pass, that thy choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen set themselves in array at the gate. And he took away 8 the covering of Judah; and thou didst look in that day to the armor in the house of the forest. And ye saw the breaches of the 9 city of David, that they were many; and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool; and ye numbered the houses of 10 Jerusalem, and ye brake down the houses to fortify the wall; ye 11 made also a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But ye looked not unto him that had done this, neither had ye respect unto him that purposed it long ago. And in 12 that day did the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth: and 13 behold, joy and gladness, slaying oxen and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we shall die. And Jehovah of hosts revealed himself in mine ears, 14 Surely this iniquity shall not be forgiven you till ye die, saith the Lord, Jehovah of hosts. Thus saith the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, 15 Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, who is over the house, and say, What doest thou here? and whom has thou 16 here, that thou hast hewed thee out here a sepulchre? hewing him out a sepulchre on high, graving a habitation for himself in the rock! Behold, Jehovah, like a strong man, will hurl thee 17 away violently; yea, he will wrap thee up closely. He will surely 18 wind thee round and round, and toss thee like a ball into a large country; there shalt thou die, and there shall be the chariots of thy glory, thou shame of thy lord's house. And I will thrust 19 thee from thine office; and from thy station shalt thou be pulled down. And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my 20 servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah: and I will cloth him with 21 thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand; and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. And the 22 key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; and he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open. And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and 23 he shall be for a throne of glory to his father's house. And 24 they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, every small vessel, from the cups even 25 to all the flagons. In that day, saith Jehovah of hosts, shall the nail that was fastened in a sure place give way; and it shall be hewn down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off; for Jehovah hath spoken it.

23 The burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land 2 of Kittim it is revealed to them. Be still, ye inhabitants of the coast, thou whom the merchants of Sidon, that pass over the sea, 3 have replenished. And on great waters the seed of the Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, was her revenue; and she was the mart 4 of nations. Be thou ashamed, O Sidon; for the sea hath spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying, I have not travailed, nor brought forth, neither have I nourished young men, nor brought 5 up virgins. When the report cometh to Egypt, they shall be sorely pained at the report of Tyre. Pass ye over to Tarshish; 6 wail, ye inhabitants of the coast. Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days, whose feet carried her afar off to 8 sojourn? Who hath purposed this against Tyre, the bestower of crowns, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honorable of the earth? Jehovah of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, to bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth. Pass through thy land as the Nile, O daughter 10 of Tarshish; there is no restraint any more. He hath stretched out his hand over the sea, he hath shaken the kingdoms: Jehovah hath given commandment concerning Canaan, to destroy 12 the strongholds thereof. And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon: arise, pass over 13 to Kittim; even there shalt thou have no rest. Behold, the land of the Chaldeans: this people was not; the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness; they set up their towers; they overthrew the palaces thereof; they made it a ruin. Howl, 15 ye ships of Tarshish; for your stronghold is laid waste. And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years it shall be unto Tyre as in the song of the harlot.
16 Take a harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered. And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that Jehovah will visit Tyre, and she shall return to her hire, and shall play the harlot with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth. And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to Jehovah: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before Jehovah, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing. 18

Behold, Jehovah maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof. And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the creditor, so with the debtor; as with the taker of interest, so with the giver of interest to him. The earth shall be utterly emptied, and utterly laid waste; for Jehovah hath spoken this word. The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, the lofty people of the earth do languish. The earth also is polluted under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, broken the everlasting covenant. Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are found guilty: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left. The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merry-hearted do sigh. The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth. They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it. The waste city is broken down; every house is shut up, that no man may come in. There is a crying in the streets because of the wine; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone. In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction. For thus shall it be in the midst of the earth among the peoples, as the shaking of an olive-tree, as the gleanings when the vintage is done. These shall lift up their voice, they shall shout; for the majesty of Jehovah they cry aloud from the sea. Wherefore glorify ye Jehovah in the east, even the name of Jehovah, the God of Israel, in the isles of the sea. From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs: Glory to the righteous. But I said, I pine away, I pine away, woe is me! the treacherous have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously. Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth. And it 24 shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble. The earth is utterly broken, the earth is rent asunder, the earth is shaken violently. The earth shall stagger like a drunken man, and shall sway to and fro like a hammock; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it, and it shall fall, and not rise again. And it shall come to pass in that day, that Jehovah will punish the host of the high ones on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth. And they shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison; and after many days shall they be visited. Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed; for Jehovah of hosts will reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem; and before his elders shall be glory.

25 O Jehovah, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things, even counsels of old, in faithfulness and truth. For thou hast made of a city a heap, of a fortified city a ruin, a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built. Therefore shall a strong people glorify thee; a city of terrible nations shall fear thee. For thou hast been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall. As the heat in a dry place wilt thou bring down the noise of strangers; as the heat by the shade of a cloud, the song of the terrible ones shall be brought low. And in this mountain will Jehovah of hosts make unto all peoples a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined. And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering that covereth all peoples, and the veil that is spread over all nations. He hath swallowed up death for ever; and the Lord Jehovah will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the reproach of his people will he take away from off all the earth: for Jehovah hath spoken it. And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is Jehovah; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation. For in this mountain will the hand of Jehovah rest; and Moab shall be trodden down in his place, even as straw is trodden down in the water of the dunghill. And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst thereof, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim; but Jehovah will lay low his pride together with the craft of his hands. And the high fortress of thy walls hath he brought down, laid low, and brought to the ground, even to the dust.

In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah: we have a strong city; salvation will he appoint for walls and bulwarks. Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth faith may enter in. Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee. Trust ye in Jehovah for ever; for in Jehovah, even Jehovah, is an everlasting rock. For he hath brought down them that dwell on high, the lofty city: he layeth it low, he layeth it low even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust. The foot shall tread it down; even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy. The way of the just is uprightness: thou that art upright dost direct the path of the just. Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O Jehovah, have we waited for thee; to thy name, even to thy memorial name, is the desire of our soul. With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee earnestly: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness. Let favor be showed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness; in the land of uprightness will he deal wrongfully, and will not behold the majesty of Jehovah. Jehovah, thy hand is lifted up, yet they see not: but they shall see thy zeal for the people, and be put to shame; yea, fire shall devour thine adversaries. Jehovah, thou wilt ordain peace for us; for thou hast also wrought all our works for us. O Jehovah our God, other lords besides thee have had dominion over us; but by thee only will we make mention of thy name. They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all remembrance of them to perish. Thou hast increased the nation, O Jehovah, thou hast increased the nation; thou art glorified; thou hast enlarged all the borders of the land. Jehovah, in trouble have they visited thee; they poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them. Like as a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain and crieth out in her pangs; so we have been before thee, O 18 Jehovah. We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world 19 fallen. Thy dead shall live; my dead bodies shall arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in the dust; for thy dew is as the dew 20 of herbs, and the earth shall cast forth the dead. Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself for a little moment, until the indignation be 21 overpast. For, behold, Jehovah cometh forth out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

27 In that day Jehovah with his hard and great and strong sword will punish leviathan the swift serpent, and leviathan the crooked 2 serpent; and he will slay the monster that is in the sea. In that 3 day: A vineyard of wine, sing ye unto it. I Jehovah am its keeper; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep 4 it night and day. Wrath is not in me: would that the briers and thorns were against me in battle! I would march upon them, 5 I would burn them together. Or else let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; yea, let him make 6 peace with me. In days to come shall Jacob take root; Israel shall blossom and bud; and they shall fill the face of the world 7 with fruit. Hath he smitten them as he smote those that smote them? or are they slain according to the slaughter of them that 8 were slain by them? In measure, when thou sendest them away, thou dost contend with them; he hath removed them with his 9 rough blast in the day of the east wind. Therefore by this shall the iniquity of Jacob be forgiven, and this is all the fruit of taking away his sin: that he maketh all the stones of the altar 10 as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, so that the Asherim and the sun-images shall rise no more. For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume 11 the branches thereof. When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off; the women shall come, and set them on fire; for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have compassion upon them, and he that formed them will show them no favor. And it shall come to pass in 12 that day, that Jehovah will beat off his fruit from the flood of the River unto the brook of Egypt; and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel. And it shall come to pass in 13 that day, that a great trumpet shall be blown; and they shall come that were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and they that were outcasts in the land of Egypt; and they shall worship Jehovah in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim, and 28 to the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley of them that are overcome with wine! Behold, 2 the Lord hath a mighty and strong one; as a tempest of hail, a destroying storm, as a tempest of mighty waters overflowing, will he cast down to the earth with the hand. The crown of 3 pride of the drunkards of Ephraim shall be trodden under foot: and the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the 4 head of the fat valley, shall be as the first-ripe fig before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he eateth it up. In that day will Jehovah of 5 hosts become a crown of glory, and a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people; and a spirit of justice to him that sitteth 6 in judgment, and strength to them that turn back the battle at the gate. And even these reel with wine, and stagger with 7 strong drink; the priest and the prophet reel with strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they stagger with strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment. For all tables 8 are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.
Whom will he teach knowledge? and whom will he make to 9 understand the message? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts? For it is precept upon precept, 10 precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, there a little. Nay, but by men of strange lips and with another 11 tongue will he speak to this people; to whom he said, This is the 12 rest, give ye rest to him that is weary; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear. Therefore shall the word of Jehovah 13 be unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, there a little; that they may go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken. Wherefore hear the word of Jehovah, ye scoffers, that 14 15 rule this people that is in Jerusalem: Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us; for we have made lies our refuge, and 16 under falsehood have we hid ourselves: therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone of sure foundation: he that 17 believeth shall not be in haste. And I will make justice the line, and righteousness the plummet; and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding-18 place. And your covenant with death shall be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it.

19 As often as it passeth though, it shall take you; for morning by morning shall it pass through, by day and by night: and it 20 shall be nought but terror to understand the message. For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it; and 21 the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it. For Jehovah will rise up as in mount Perazim, he will be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon; that he may do his work, his strange work, 22 and bring to pass his act, his strange act. Now therefore be ye not scoffers, lest your bonds be made strong; for a decree of destruction have I heard from the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, upon 23 the whole earth. Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and 24 hear my speech. Doth he that ploweth to sow plow continually?
25 doth he continually open and harrow his ground? When he hath levelled the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and put in the wheat in rows, and the barley 26 in the appointed place, and the spelt in the border thereof? For 27 his God doth instruct him aright, and doth teach him. For the fitches are not threshed with a sharp threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.
28 Bread grain is ground; for he will not be always threshing it: and though the wheel of his cart and his horses scatter it, he doth 29 not grind it. This also cometh forth from Jehovah of hosts, who is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in wisdom.

29 Ho Ariel, Ariel, the city where David encamped! add ye year 2 to year; let the feasts come round: then will I distress Ariel, and there shall be mourning and lamentation; and she shall be unto me as Ariel. And I will encamp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with posted troops, and I will raise siege works against thee. And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust; and thy voice shall be as of one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust. But the multitude of thy foes shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones as chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be in an instant suddenly. She shall be visited of Jehovah of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with whirlwind and tempest, and the flame of a devouring fire. And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her stronghold, and that distress her, shall be as a dream, a vision of the night. And it shall be as when a hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion. Tarry ye and wonder; take your pleasure and be blind: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. For Jehovah hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes, the prophets; and your heads, the seers, hath he covered. And all vision is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee; and he saith, I cannot, for it is sealed: and the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee; and he saith, I am not learned. And the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw nigh unto me, and with their mouth and with their lips to honor me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment of men which hath been taught them; therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder; and the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid. Woe unto them that hide deep their counsel from Jehovah, and whose works are in the dark, and that say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us? Ye turn things upside down! Shall the potter be esteemed as clay; that the thing made should say of him that made it, He made me not; or the thing formed say of him that formed it, He hath no understanding? Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest? And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity and out of darkness. The meek also shall increase their joy in Jehovah, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scoffer ceaseth, and all they that watch for iniquity are cut off; that make a man an offender in his cause, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just with a thing of nought. Therefore thus saith Jehovah, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale. But when he seeth his children, the work of my hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name; yea, they shall sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall stand in awe of the God of Israel. They also that err in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmur shall receive instruction.

30 Woe to the rebellious children, saith Jehovah, that take counsel, but not of me; and that make a league, but not of my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin, that set out to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to take refuge in the shadow of Egypt! Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the refuge in the shadow of Egypt your confusion. For their princes are at Zoan, and their ambassadors are come to Hanes. They shall all be ashamed because of a people that cannot profit them, that are not a help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach. The burden of the beasts of the South. Through the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the humps of camels, to a people that shall not profit them. For Egypt helpeth in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I called her Rahab that sitteth still. Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever. For it is a rebellious people, lying 9 children, children that will not hear the law of Jehovah; that 10 say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophecy deceits, get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy 11 One of Israel to cease from before us. Wherefore thus saith the 12 Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and rely thereon; therefore this 13 iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly in an instant.

And he shall break it as a potter's vessel is broken, breaking it in 14 pieces without sparing; so that there shall not be found among the pieces thereof a sherd wherewith to take fire from the hearth, or to dip up water out of the cistern. For thus said the Lord 15 Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel, In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength.
And ye would not: but ye said, No, for we will flee upon horses; 16 therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift. One thousand shall flee at 17 the threat of one; at the threat of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on a hill. And therefore will Jehovah wait, that he may be gracious 18 unto you; and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for Jehovah is a God of justice; blessed are all they that wait for him. For the people shall dwell in Zion at 19 Jerusalem; thou shalt weep no more; he will surely be gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear, he will answer thee. And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity 20 and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be hidden anymore, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers; and thine ears 21 shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it; when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.
And ye shall defile the overlaying of thy graven images of silver, 22 and the plating of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as an unclean thing; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence. And he will give the rain for thy seed, wherewith thou 23 shalt sow the ground; and bread of the increase of the ground, and it shall be fat and plenteous. In that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures; the oxen likewise and the young asses 24 that till the ground shall eat savory provender, which hath been 25 winnowed with the shovel and with the fork. And there shall be upon every lofty mountain, and upon every high hill, brooks and streams of waters, in the day of the great slaughter, when 26 the towers fall. Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that Jehovah bindeth up the hurt 27 of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound. Behold, the name of Jehovah cometh from far, burning with his anger, and in thick rising smoke: his lips are full of indignation, and his 28 tongue is as a devouring fire; and his breath is as an overflowing stream, that reacheth even unto the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction: and a bridle that causeth to err shall 29 be in the jaws of the peoples. Ye shall have a song as in the night when a holy feast is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come unto the mountain of Jehovah, to 30 the Rock of Israel. And Jehovah will cause his glorious voice to be heard, and will show the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and the flame of a devouring fire, with 31 a blast, and tempest, and hailstones. For through the voice of Jehovah shall the Assyrian be dismayed; with his rod will he smite him. And every stroke of the appointed staff, which Je-32 hovah shall lay upon him, shall be with the sound of tabrets and harps; and in battles with the brandishing of his arm will 33 he fight with them. For a Topheth is prepared of old; yea, for the king it is made ready; he hath made it deep and large; the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of Jehovah, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

31 Woe to them that go down to Egypt for help, and rely on horses, and trust in chariots because they are many, and in horsemen because they are very strong, but they look not unto the 2 Holy One of Israel, neither seek Jehovah! Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words, but will arise against the house of the evil-doers, and against the help of 3 them that work iniquity. Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit: and when Jehovah shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall stumble, and he that is helped shall fall, and they all shall be consumed 4 together. For thus saith Jehovah unto me, As the lion and the young lion growling over his prey, if a multitude of shepherds be called forth against him, will not be dismayed at their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so will Jehovah of hosts come down to fight upon mount Zion, and upon the hill thereof. As birds hovering, so will Jehovah of hosts protect Jerusalem; 5 he will protect and deliver it, he will pass over and preserve it. Turn ye unto him from whom ye have deeply revolted, O children of Israel. For in that day they shall cast away every man 6 his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a sin. And the Assyrian shall fall by 7 the sword, not of man; and the sword, not of men, shall devour him; and he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall become subject to taskwork. And his rock shall pass away by 9 reason of terror, and his princes shall be dismayed at the ensign, saith Jehovah, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall 32 rule in justice. And a man shall be as a hiding-place from the 2 wind, and a covert from the tempest, as streams of water in a dry place, as the shade of a great rock in a weary land. And the 3 eyes of them that see shall not be dim, and the ears of them that hear shall hearken. And the heart of the rash shall understand 4 knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly. The fool shall be no more called noble, nor the 5 churl said to be bountiful. For the fool will speak folly, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise profaneness, and to utter 6 error against Jehovah, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and to cause the drink of the thirsty to fail. And the instruments 7 of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the meek with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right. But the noble deviseth noble things; and in noble things shall 8 he continue. Rise up, ye women that are at ease, and hear 9 my voice; ye careless daughters, give ear unto my speech. For 10 days beyond a year shall ye be troubled, ye careless women; for the vintage shall fail, the ingathering shall not come. Tremble, 11 ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones; strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins. They shall smite upon the breasts for the pleasant fields, for the 12 fruitful vine. Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns 13 and briars; yea, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city. For 14 the palace shall be forsaken; the populous city shall be deserted; the hill and the watch-tower shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks; until the Spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness become a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be esteemed as a forest. Then justice shall dwell in the wilderness; and righteousness shall abide in the fruitful field. And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and confidence for ever. And my people shall abide in a peaceable habitation, and in safe dwellings, and in quiet resting-places. But it shall hail in the downfall of the forest; and the city shall be utterly laid low. Blessed are yet that sow beside all waters, that send forth the feet of the ox and the ass.

33 Woe to thee that destroyest, and thou wast not destroyed; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! When thou hast ceased to destroy, thou shalt be destroyed; and when thou hast made an end of dealing treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee. O Jehovah, be gracious unto us; we have waited for thee: be thou our arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble. At the noise of the tumult the peoples are fled; at the lifting up of thyself the nations are scattered. And your spoil shall be gathered as the caterpillar gathereth: as locusts leap shall men leap upon it. Jehovah is exalted; for he dwelleth on high: he hath filled Zion with justice and righteousness. And there shall be stability in thy times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge: the fear of Jehovah is thy treasure. Behold, their valiant ones cry without; the ambassadors of peace weep bitterly. The highways lie waste, the wayfaring man ceaseth: the enemy hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities, he regardeth not man. The land mourneth and languisheth; Lebanon is confounded and withereth away; Sharon is like a desert; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their leaves. Now will I arise, saith Jehovah; now will I lift up myself; now will I be exalted. Ye shall conceive chaff, ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath is a fire that shall devour you. And the peoples shall be as the burnings of lime, as thorns cut down, that are burned in the fire. Hear, ye that are far off, what I have done; and, ye that are near, acknowledge my might. The sinners in Zion are afraid; trembling hath seized the godless ones: Who among us can dwell with the devouring fire? who among us can dwell with everlasting burnings? He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from taking a bribe, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from looking upon evil: He shall dwell on high; his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks; his bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure. Thine eyes shall see the king in his beauty: they shall behold a land that reacheth afar. Thy heart shall muse on the terror: Where is he that counted, where is he that weighed the tribute? where is he that counted the towers? Thou shalt not see the fierce people, a people of a deep speech that thou canst not comprehend, of a strange tongue that thou canst not understand. Look upon Zion, the city of our solemnities: thine eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a tent that shall not be removed, the stakes whereof shall never be plucked up, neither shall any of the cords thereof be broken. But there Jehovah will be with us in majesty, a place of broad rivers and streams, wherein shall go no galley with oars, neither shall gallant ship pass thereby. For Jehovah is our judge, Jehovah is our lawgiver, Jehovah is our king; he will save us. Thy tacklings are loosed; they could not strengthen the foot of their mast, they could not spread the sail: then was the prey of a great spoil divided; the lame took the prey. And the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity.

Come near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye peoples: let the earth hear, and the fulness thereof; the world, and all things that come forth from it. For Jehovah hath indignation against all the nations, and wrath against all their host: he hath utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to the slaughter. Their slain also shall be cast out, and the stench of their dead bodies shall come up; and the mountains shall be melted with their blood. And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll; and all their host shall fade away, as the leaf fadeth from off the vine, and as a fading leaf from the fig-tree. For my sword hath drunk its fill in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Edom, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment. The sword of Jehovah is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams; for Jehovah hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

7 And the wild-oxen shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls: and their land shall be drunken with blood, and 8 their dust made fat with fatness. For Jehovah hath a day of 9 vengeance, a year of recompense for the cause of Zion. And the streams of Edom shall be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shall become burning pitch.

10 It shall not be quenched night nor day; the smoke thereof shall go up for ever; from generation to generation it shall lie waste; none 11 shall pass through it for ever and ever. But the pelican and the porcupine shall possess it; and the owl and the raven shall dwell therein: and he will stretch over it the line of confusion, and the 12 plummet of emptiness. They shall call the nobles thereof to the kingdom, but none shall be there; and all its princes shall be 13 nothing. And thorns shall come up in its palaces, nettles and thistles in the fortresses thereof; and it shall be a habitation of 14 jackals, a court for ostriches. And the wild beasts of the desert shall meet with the wolves, and the wild goat shall cry to his fellow; yea, the night-monster shall settle there, and shall find 15 her a place of rest. There shall the dart-snake make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shade; yea, there shall 16 the kites be gathered, every one with her mate. Seek ye out of the book of Jehovah, and read: no one of these shall be missing, none shall want her mate; for my mouth, it hath commanded, 17 and his Spirit, it hath gathered them. And he hath cast the lot for them, and his hand hath divided it unto them by line: they shall possess it for ever; from generation to generation shall they dwell therein.

35 The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad; and the desert 2 shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing; the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon: they shall see the glory of Jehovah, the excellency of our God.

3 Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees.
4 Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God; he will come and save you. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as a hart, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing; for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. And the glowing sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water: in the habitation of jackals, where they lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes. And a highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for the redeemed: the wayfaring men, yea fools, shall not err therein. No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast go up thereon; they shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there: and the ransomed of Jehovah shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads: they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and took them. And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field. Then came forth unto him Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder. And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest? I say, thy counsel and strength for the war are but vain words: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou hast rebelled against me? Behold, thou trustest upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust on him. But if thou say unto me, We trust in Jehovah our God: is not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar? Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them. How then canst thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? And am I now come up without Jehovah against this land to destroy it? Jehovah said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy 11 it. Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, 12 in the ears of the people that are on the wall. But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, to eat their own dung, and to drink their own 13 water with you? Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the 14 great king, the king of Assyria. Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you: 15 neither let Hezekiah make you trust in Jehovah, saying, Jehovah will surely deliver us; this city shall not be given into the hand 16 of the king of Assyria. Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern; 17 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, Jehovah will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of 19 the hand of the king of Assyria? Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they 20 delivered Samaria out of my hand? Who are they among all the gods of these countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that Jehovah should deliver Jerusalem out of 21 my hand? But they held their peace, and answered him not a word; for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him 22 not. Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

37 And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into 2 the house of Jehovah. And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day 3 of trouble, and of rebuke, and of contumely; for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.
It may be Jehovah thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, 4 whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Jehovah thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left.
So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. And Isaiah said 5, 6 unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith Jehovah, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. Behold, 7 I will put a spirit in him, and he shall hear tidings, and shall return unto his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land. So Rabshakeh returned, and found the 8 king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. And he heard say concerning 9 Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come out to fight against thee.
And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not 10 thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. Behold, 11 thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered? Have 12 the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, and Haran, and Rezech, and the children of Eden that were in Telassar? Where is the king of Hamath, 13 and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah? And Hezekiah received the letter from 14 the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up unto the house of Jehovah, and spread it before Jehovah. And 15 Hezekiah prayed unto Jehovah, saying, O Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, that sittest above the cherubim, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth. Incline thine ear, O Jehovah, and 17 hear; open thine eyes, O Jehovah, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib, who hath sent to defy the living God. Of 18 a truth, Jehovah, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the countries, and their land, and have cast their gods into the fire: 19 for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and 20 stone; therefore they have destroyed them. Now therefore, O Jehovah our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art Jehovah, even thou only.

21 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to 22 me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, this is the word which Jehovah hath spoken concerning him: The virgin daughter of Zion hath despised thee and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter 23 of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee. Whom hast thou defied and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy 24 One of Israel. By thy servants hast thou defied the Lord, and hast said, With the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof; and I will enter into its farthest height, the forest 25 of its fruitful field; I have digged and drunk water, and with the sole of my feet will I dry up all the rivers of Egypt. Hast 26 thou not heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? now have I brought it to pass, that it should be 27 thine to lay waste fortified cities into ruinous heaps. Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as a field of grain before 28 it is grown up. But I know thy sitting down, and thy going 29 out, and thy coming in, and thy raging against me. Because of thy raging against me, and because thine arrogancy is come up into mine ears, therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way 30 by which thou camest. And this shall be the sign unto thee: ye shall eat this year that which groweth of itself, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit 31 thereof. And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah 32 shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and out of mount Zion they that shall escape. The zeal of Jehovah of hosts will 33 perform this. Therefore thus saith Jehovah concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come unto this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither shall he come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it. By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and he shall not come unto this city, saith Jehovah. For I will defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake. And the angel of Jehovah went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand; and when men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies. So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. And Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith Jehovah, Set thy house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live. Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto Jehovah, and said, Remember now, O Jehovah, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore. Then came the word of Jehovah to Isaiah, saying, Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years. And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city. And this shall be the sign unto thee from Jehovah, that Jehovah will do this thing that he hath spoken: behold, I will cause the shadow on the steps, which is gone down on the dial of Ahaz with the sun, to return backward ten steps. So the sun returned ten steps on the dial whereon it was gone down. The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness. I said, In the noontide of my days I shall go into the gates of Sheol: I am deprived of the residue of my years. I said, I shall not see Jehovah, even Jehovah in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world. My dwelling is removed, and is carried away from me as a shepherd's tent: I have rolled up, like a weaver, my life; he will cut me off from the loom: From day even to night wilt thou make an end of me. I quieted myself until morning; as a lion, so he breaketh all my bones: From day 14 even to night wilt thou make an end of me. Like a swallow or a crane, so did I chatter; I did moan as a dove; mine eyes fail with looking upward: O Lord, I am oppressed, be thou my 15 surety. What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years because of 16 the bitterness of my soul. O Lord, by these things men live;

And wholly therein is the life of my spirit: Wherefore recover 17 thou me, and make me to live. Behold, it was for my peace that I had great bitterness: But thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption; For thou hast cast all 18 my sins behind thy back. For Sheol cannot praise thee, death cannot celebrate thee: They that go down into the pit cannot 19 hope for thy truth. The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: The father to the children shall make known 20 thy truth. Jehovah is ready to save me: Therefore we will sing my songs with stringed instruments All the days of our life in 21 the house of Jehovah. Now Isaiah had said, Let them take a cake of figs, and lay it for a plaster upon the boil, and he shall 22 recover. Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of Jehovah?

39 At that time Merodach-baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he heard that 2 he had been sick, and was recovered. And Hezekiah was glad of them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious oil, and all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures: 3 Hezekiah showed them not. Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are 4 come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon. Then said he, What have they seen in thy house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in my house have they seen: there is nothing among 5 my treasures that I have not showed them. Then said Isaiah to 6 Hezekiah, Hear the word of Jehovah of hosts: Behold, the days are coming, when all that is in thy house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to 7 Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith Jehovah. And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, whom thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, Good is the word of Jehovah which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem; and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she hath received of Jehovah's hand double for all her sins. The voice of one that crieth, Prepare ye in the wilderness the way of Jehovah; make level in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the uneven shall be made level, and the rough places a plain: and the glory of Jehovah shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of Jehovah hath spoken it. The voice of one saying, Cry. And one said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodness thereof is as the flower of the field. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth, because the breath of Jehovah bloweth upon it; surely the people is grass. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the word of our God shall stand forever. O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion, get thee up on a high mountain; O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold, your God! Behold, the Lord Jehovah will come as a mighty one, and his arm will rule for him: Behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him. He will feed his flock like a shepherd, he will gather the lambs in his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and will gently lead those that have their young. Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance? Who hath directed the Spirit of Jehovah, or being his counsellor hath taught him? With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of justice, and taught him knowledge, and showed to him the way of understanding? Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are accounted as the small dust of the balance: Behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof 17 sufficient for a burnt-offering. All the nations are as nothing before him; they are accounted by him as less than nothing, and 18 vanity. To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye 19 compare unto him? The image, a workman hath cast it, and the goldsmith overlayeth it with gold, and casteth for it silver chains.
20 He that is too impoverished for such an oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot; he seeketh unto him a skilful workman to 21 set up a graven image, that shall not be moved. Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the 22 earth? It is he that sitteth above the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell 23 in; that bringeth princes to nothing; that maketh the judges of 24 the earth as vanity. Yea, they have not been planted; yea, they have not been sown; yea, their stock hath not taken root in the earth: moreover he bloweth upon them, and they wither, and 25 the whirlwind taketh them away as stubble. To whom then will ye liken me, that I should be equal to him? saith the Holy One.
26 Lift up your eyes on high, and see who hath created these, that bringeth out their host by number; he calleth them all by name; by the greatness of his might, and for that he is strong in power, 27 not one is lacking. Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from Jehovah, and the justice due to 28 me is passed away from my God? Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard? The everlasting God, Jehovah, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary; there is no 29 searching of his understanding. He giveth power to the faint; 30 and to him that hath no might he increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall 31 utterly fall: but they that wait for Jehovah shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; they shall walk, and not faint.

41 Keep silence before me, O islands; and let the peoples renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak; let 2 us come near together to judgment. Who hath raised up one from the east, whom he calleth in righteousness to his foot? he giveth nations before him, and maketh him rule over kings; he giveth them as the dust to his sword, as the driven stubble to his bow. He pursueth them, and passeth on safely, even by a way that he had not gone with his feet. Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I, Jehovah, the first, and with the last, I am he. The isles have seen, and fear; the ends of the earth tremble; they draw near, and come. They help every one his neighbor; and every one saith to his brother, Be of good courage. So the carpenter encourageth the goldsmith, and he that smootheth with the hammer him that smiteth the anvil, saying of the soldering, It is good; and he fasteneth it with nails, that it should not be moved. But thou, Israel, my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend, thou whom I have taken hold of from the ends of the earth, and called from the corners thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant, I have chosen thee and not cast thee away; Fear thou not, for I am with thee; be not dismayed, for I am thy God; I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. Behold, all they that are incensed against thee shall be put to shame and confounded: they that strive with thee shall be as nothing, and shall perish. Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contend with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought. For I, Jehovah thy God, will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee. Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith Jehovah, and thy Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel. Behold, I have made thee to be a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth; thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff. Thou shalt winnow them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them; and thou shalt rejoice in Jehovah, thou shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel. The poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst; I, Jehovah, will answer them, I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them. I will open rivers on the bare heights, and fountains in the midst of the valleys; I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. I will put in the wilderness the cedar, the acacia, and the myrtle, and the oil-tree; I will set in the desert

20 the fir-tree, the pine, and the box-tree together: that they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of Jehovah hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath 21 created it. Produce your cause, saith Jehovah; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob. Let them bring forth, 22 and declare unto us what shall happen: declare ye the former things, what they are, that we may consider them, and know 23 the latter end of them; or show us things to come. Declare the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and 24 behold it together. Behold, ye are of nothing, and your work is of nought; an abomination is he that chooseth you. I have 25 raised up one from the north, and he is come; from the rising of the sun one that calleth upon my name: and he shall come upon 26 rulers as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay. Who hath declared it from the beginning, that we may know? and beforetime, that we may say, He is right? yea, there is none that declareth, yea, there is none that showeth, yea, there is none that 27 heareth your words. I am the first that saith unto Zion, Behold, behold them; and I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth good 28 tidings. And when I look, there is no man: even among them there is no counsellor, that, when I ask of them, can answer a 29 word. Behold, all of them, their works are vanity and nought; their molten images are wind and confusion.

42 Behold, my servant, whom I uphold; my chosen, in whom my soul delighteth: I have put my Spirit upon him; he will bring 2 forth justice to the Gentiles. He will not cry, nor lift up his 3 voice, nor cause it to be heard in the street. A bruised reed will he not break, and a dimly burning wick will he not quench: 4 he will bring forth justice in truth. He will not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set justice in the earth; and the isles 5 shall wait for his law. Thus saith God Jehovah, he that created the heavens, and stretched them forth; he that spread abroad the earth and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein: 6 I, Jehovah, have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thy hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the 7 people, for a light of the Gentiles; to open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison-house. I am Jehovah, that is my 8 name; and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise unto graven images. Behold, the former things are come to 9 pass, and new things do I declare; before they spring forth I tell you of them. Sing unto Jehovah a new song, and his praise 10 from the end of the earth; ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein, the isles, and the inhabitants thereof. Let the 11 wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit; let the inhabitants of Sela sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains. Let them give glory 12 unto Jehovah, and declare his praise in the islands. Jehovah 13 will go forth as a mighty man; he will stir up his zeal like a man of war: he will cry, yea, he will shout aloud; he will do mightily against his enemies. I have long time holden my peace; 14 I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry out like a travailing woman; I will gasp and pant together. I will lay waste 15 mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and will dry up the pools. And I will bring 16 the blind by a way that they know not; in paths that they know not will I lead them; I will make darkness light before them, and crooked places straight. These things will I do, and I will not forsake them. They shall be turned back, they shall be utterly 17 put to shame, that trust in graven images, that say unto molten images, Ye are our gods. Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, 18 that ye may see. Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I send? who is blind as he that is at peace with me, and blind as Jehovah's servant? Thou seest many things, 20 but thou observest not; his ears are open, but he heareth not.

It pleased Jehovah, for his righteousness' sake, to magnify the 21 law, and make it honorable. But this is a people robbed and 22 plundered; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison-houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore. Who is there among you that 23 will give ear to this? that will hearken and hear for the time to come? Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? 24 did not Jehovah? he against whom we have sinned, and in whose ways they would not walk, neither were they obedient unto his law. Therefore he poured upon him the fierceness of his anger, 25 and the strength of battle; and it set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

43 But now thus saith Jehovah that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel: Fear not, for I have redeemed thee; I have called thee by thy name, thou art mine. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned, neither shall the flame kindle upon thee. For I am Jehovah thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour; I have given Egypt as thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in thy stead. Since thou hast been precious in my sight, and honorable, and I have loved thee; therefore will I give men in thy stead, and peoples instead of thy life. Fear not; for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west; I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back; bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the end of the earth; every one that is called by my name, and whom I have created for my glory, whom I have formed, yea, whom I have made. Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears. Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the peoples be assembled: who among them can declare this, and show us former things? let them bring their witnesses, that they may be justified; or let them hear, and say, It is truth. Ye are my witnesses, saith Jehovah, and my servant whom I have chosen; that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me. I, even I, am Jehovah; and besides me there is no saviour. I have declared, and I have saved, and I have showed; and there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith Jehovah, and I am God. Yea, since the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who can hinder it? Thus saith Jehovah, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and I will bring down all of them as fugitives, even the Chaldeans, in the ships of their rejoicing. I am Jehovah, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King. Thus saith Jehovah, who maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters; who bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the mighty man (they lie down together, they shall not rise; they are extinct, they are quenched as a wick):

Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things 18 of old. Behold, I will do a new thing; now shall it spring forth; 19 shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert. The beasts of the field shall honor 20 me, the jackals and the ostriches; because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen, the people which I formed for myself, that they 21 might set forth my praise. Yet thou hast not called upon me, 22 O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel. Thou hast 23 not brought me of thy sheep for burnt-offerings; neither hast thou honored me with thy sacrifices. I have not burdened thee with offerings, nor wearied thee with frankincense. Thou hast 24 bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices; but thou hast burdened me with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities. I, even I, 25 am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake; and I will not remember thy sins. Put me in remembrance; let 26 us plead together: set thou forth thy cause, that thou mayest be justified. Thy first father sinned, and thy teachers have 27 transgressed against me. Therefore I will profane the princes 28 of the sanctuary; and I will make Jacob a curse, and Israel a reviling.

Yet now hear, O Jacob my servant, and Israel, who I have cho- 44 sen: Thus saith Jehovah that made thee, and formed thee from 2 the womb, who will help thee: Fear not, O Jacob my servant; and thou, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen. For I will pour water 3 upon him that is thirsty, and streams upon the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring: and they shall spring up among the grass, as willows 4 by the watercourses. One shall say, I am Jehovah's; and an- 5 other shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto Jehovah, and surname himself by the name of Israel. Thus saith Jehovah, the King of Israel, and 6 his Redeemer, Jehovah of hosts: I am the first, and I am the last; and besides me there is no God. And who, as I, shall call, and 7 shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I established the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and that shall come to pass, let them declare. Fear ye not, neither be afraid: 8 have I not declared unto thee of old, and showed it? and ye are my witnesses. Is there a God besides me? yea, there is no Rock; 9 I know not any. They that fashion a graven image are all of them vanity; and the things that they delight in shall not profit; and their own witnesses see not, nor know: that they may be put 10 to shame. Who hath fashioned a god, or molten an image that 11 is profitable for nothing? Behold, all his fellows shall be put to shame; and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; they shall fear, they shall be 12 put to shame together. The smith maketh an axe, and worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with his strong arm: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth; 13 he drinketh no water, and is faint. The carpenter stretcheth out a line; he marketh it out with a pencil; he shapeth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compasses, and shapeth it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man, to 14 dwell in a house. He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the holm-tree and the oak, and strengtheneth for himself one among the trees of the forest: he planteth a fir-tree, and the rain doth 15 nourish it. Then shall it be for a man to burn; and he taketh thereof, and warmeth himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread: yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh 16 it a graven image, and falleth down thereto. He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied; yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, 17 I am warm, I have seen the fire. And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image; he falleth down unto it and worshippeth, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for 18 thou art my god. They know not, neither do they consider: for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, 19 that they cannot understand. And none calleth to mind, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock 20 of a tree? He feedeth on ashes; a deceived heart hath turned him aside; and he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not 21 a lie in my right hand? Remember these things, O Jacob, and Israel; for thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my 22 servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me. I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee. Sing, O 23 ye heavens, for Jehovah hath done it; shout, ye lower parts of the earth; break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for Jehovah hath redeemed Jacob, and will glorify himself in Israel. Thus saith Jehovah, thy Redeemer, 24 and he that formed thee from the womb: I am Jehovah, that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth (who is with me?); that frustrateth 25 the signs of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish; that 26 confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith of Jerusalem, She shall be inhabited; and of the cities of Judah, They shall be built, and I will raise up the waste places thereof; that saith to the deep, Be 27 dry, and I will dry up thy rivers; That saith of Cyrus, He is 28 my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure, even saying of Jerusalem, She shall be built; and of the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

Thus saith Jehovah to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right 45 hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him, and I will loose the loins of kings; to open the doors before him, and the gates shall not be shut: I will go before thee, and make the rough 2 places smooth; I will break in pieces the doors of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron; and I will give thee the treasures of 3 darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that it is I, Jehovah, who call thee by thy name, even the God of Israel. For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel my 4 chosen, I have called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me. I am Jehovah, and there is 5 none else; besides me there is no God. I will gird thee, though thou hast not known me; that they may know from the rising 6 of the sun, and from the west, that there is none besides me: I am Jehovah, and there is none else. I form the light, and 7 create darkness; I make peace, and create evil. I am Jehovah, that doeth all these things. Distil, ye heavens, from above, and 8 let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, that it may bring forth salvation, and let it cause righteousness to spring up together; I, Jehovah, have created it. Woe unto him that 9 striveth with his Maker! a potsherd among the potsherds of the earth! Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands? Woe unto him that saith unto a father, What begettest thou? or to a woman, With what travailest thou? Thus saith Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker: Ask me of the things that are to come; concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands, command ye me. I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens; and all their host have I commanded. I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will make straight all his ways: he shall build my city, and he shall let my exiles go free, not for price nor reward, saith Jehovah of hosts. Thus saith Jehovah, The labor of Egypt, and the merchandise of Ethiopia, and the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall go after thee, in chains they shall come over; and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee; and there is none else, there is no God. Verily thou art a God that hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour. They shall be put to shame, yea, confounded, all of them; they shall go into confusion together that are makers of idols. But Israel shall be saved by Jehovah with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be put to shame nor confounded world without end. For thus saith Jehovah that created the heavens, the God that formed the earth and made it, that established it and created it not a waste, that formed it to be inhabited: I am Jehovah; and there is none else. I have not spoken in secret, in a place of the land of darkness; I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I, Jehovah, speak righteousness, I declare things that are right. Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that carry the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save. Declare ye, and bring it forth; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath showed this from ancient time? who hath declared it of old? have not I, Jehovah? and there is no God else besides me, a just God and a Saviour; there is none besides me. Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is none else. By myself have I sworn, the word is gone forth from my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, that unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear. Only in Jehovah, it is said of me, is righteousness and strength; even to him shall men come; and all they that were incensed against him shall be put to shame. In Jehovah shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

Bel boweth down, Nebo stoopeth; their idols are upon the beasts, and upon the cattle: the things that ye carried about are made a load, a burden to the weary beast. They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity. Hearken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, that have been borne by me from their birth, that have been carried from the womb; and even to old age I am he, and even to hoar hairs will I carry you; I have made, and I will bear; yea, I will carry, and will deliver. To whom will ye like me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like? Such as lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, they hire a goldsmith, and he maketh it a god; they fall down, yea, they worship. They bear it upon the shoulder, they carry it, and set it in its place, and it standeth, from its place shall it not remove: yea, one may cry unto it, yet can it not answer, nor save him out of his trouble. Remember this, and show yourselves men; bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors. Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me; declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet done; saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure; calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man of my counsel from a far country; yea, I have spoken, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed, I will also do it. Hearken unto me, ye stout-hearted, that are far from righteousness: I bring near my righteousness, it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry; and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground without a throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate. Take the millstones, and grind meal; remove thy veil, strip off the train, uncover the leg, pass through the rivers. Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, 4 and will spare no man. Our Redeemer, Jehovah of hosts is his 5 name, the Holy One of Israel. Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans; for thou shalt no more be 6 called The mistress of kingdoms. I was wroth with my people, I profaned mine inheritance, and gave them into thy hand: thou didst show them no mercy; upon the aged hast thou very heavily 7 laid thy yoke. And thou saidst, I shall be mistress for ever; so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst 8 remember the latter end thereof. Now therefore hear this, thou that art given to pleasures, that sittest securely, that sayest in thy heart, I am, and there is none else besides me; I shall not 9 sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children: but these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood; in their full measure shall they come upon thee, in the multitude of thy sorceries, and the great 10 abundance of thine enchantments. For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness; thou hast said, None seeth me; thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee, and thou hast said in thy 11 heart, I am, and there is none else besides me. Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know the dawning thereof: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it away: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which 12 thou knowest not. Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast labored from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be 13 thou mayest prevail. Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels: let now the astrologers, the star-gazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from the things that 14 shall come upon thee. Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: it shall not be a coal to warm at, nor a fire 15 to sit before. Thus shall the things be unto thee wherein thou hast labored: they that have trafficked with thee from thy youth shall wander every one to his quarter; there shall be none to save thee.

48 Hear ye this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah; who swear by the name of Jehovah, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness (for they call 2 themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves upon the God of Israel; Jehovah of hosts is his name): I have declared the former 3 things from of old; yea, they went forth out of my mouth, and I showed them: suddenly I did them, and they came to pass.

Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron 4 sinew, and thy brow brass; therefore I have declared it to thee 5 from of old; before it came to pass I showed it thee; lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them. Thou hast heard 6 it; behold all this; and ye, will ye not declare it? I have showed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, which thou hast not known. They are created now, and not from of old; 7 and before this day thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them. Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou 8 knewest not; yea, from of old thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou didst deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the womb. For my name's sake will I defer 9 mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off. Behold, I have refined thee, but not as silver; 10 I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction. For mine own 11 sake, for mine own sake, will I do it; for how should my name be profaned? and my glory will I not give to another. Hearken 12 unto me, O Jacob, and Israel my called: I am he; I am the first, I also am the last. Yea, my hand hath laid the foundation of 13 the earth, and my right hand hath spread out the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together. Assemble yourselves, 14 all ye, and hear; who among them hath declared these things?
He whom Jehovah loveth shall perform his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans. I, even I, have spoken; 15 yea, I have called him; I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous. Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; from 16 the beginning I have not spoken in secret; from the time that it was, there am I: and now the Lord Jehovah hath sent me, and his Spirit. Thus saith Jehovah, thy Redeemer, the Holy One 17 of Israel: I am Jehovah thy God, who teacheth thee to profit, who leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go. Oh that 18 thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea:

19 thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the grains thereof: his name would not be cut off 20 nor destroyed from before me. Go ye forth from Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans; with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth: say ye, Jehovah hath 21 redeemed his servant Jacob. And they thirsted not when he led them through the deserts; he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them; he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed 22 out. There is no peace, saith Jehovah, to the wicked.

49 Listen, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye peoples, from far: Jehovah hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my 2 mother hath he made mention of my name: and he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me: and he hath made me a polished shaft; in his quiver hath 3 he kept me close: and he said unto me, Thou art my servant; 4 Israel, in whom I will be glorified. But I said, I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for nought and vanity; yet surely the justice due to me is with Jehovah, and my recompense 5 with my God. And now saith Jehovah that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, and that Israel be gathered unto him (for I am honorable in the 6 eyes of Jehovah, and my God is become my strength); yea, he saith, It is too light a thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that 7 thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth. Thus saith Jehovah, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers: Kings shall see and arise; princes, and they shall worship; because of Jehovah that is faithful, even the Holy 8 One of Israel, who hath chosen thee. Thus saith Jehovah, In an acceptable time have I answered thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee; and I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, to raise up the land, to make them 9 inherit the desolate heritages: saying to them that are bound, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Show yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and on all bare heights shall be their 10 pasture. They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them will lead them, even by springs of water will he guide them. And 11 I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted. Lo, these shall come from far; and, lo, these from the 12 north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim. Sing, 13 O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for Jehovah hath comforted his people, and will have compassion upon his afflicted. But Zion said, Jehovah hath 14 forsaken me, and the Lord hath forgotten me. Can a woman 15 forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, these may forget, yet will not I forget thee. Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my 16 hands; thy walls are continually before me. Thy children make 17 haste; thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth from thee. Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: 18 all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith Jehovah, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all as with an ornament, and gird thyself with them, like a bride.

For, as for thy waste and thy desolate places, and thy land that 19 hath been destroyed, surely now shalt thou be too strait for the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away.
The children of thy bereavement shall yet say in thine ears, The 20 place is too strait for me; give place to me that I may dwell.
Then shalt thou say in thy heart, Who hath begotten me these, 21 seeing I have been bereaved of my children, and am solitary, an exile, and wandering to and fro? and who hath brought up these?
Behold, I was left alone; these, where were they? Thus saith 22 the Lord Jehovah, Behold, I will lift up my hand to the nations, and set up my ensign to the peoples; and they shall bring thy sons in their bosom, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders. And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and 23 their queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their faces to the earth, and lick the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am Jehovah; and they that wait for me shall not be put to shame. Shall the prey be taken from the 24 mighty, or the lawful captives be delivered? But thus saith 25 Jehovah, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered; for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.
And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and 26 they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I, Jehovah, am thy Saviour, and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

50 Thus saith Jehovah, Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement, wherewith I have put her away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities were ye sold, and for your transgressions was your mother 2 put away. Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: 3 their fish stink, because there is no water, and die for thirst. I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their 4 covering. The Lord Jehovah hath given me the tongue of them that are taught, that I may know how to sustain with words him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth 5 mine ear to hear as they that are taught. The Lord Jehovah hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned 6 away backward. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair; I hid not my face from shame 7 and spitting. For the Lord Jehovah will help me; therefore have I not been confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, 8 and I know that I shall not be put to shame. He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand up together: 9 who is mine adversary? let him come near to me. Behold, the Lord Jehovah will help me; who is he that shall condemn me?
10 behold, all they shall wax old as a garment, the moth shall eat them up. Who is among you that feareth Jehovah, that obeyeth the voice of his servant? he that walketh in darkness, and hath no light, let him trust in the name of Jehovah, and rely upon 11 his God. Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that gird yourselves about with firebrands; walk ye in the flame of your fire, and among the brands that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of my hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

51 Hearken to me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek Jehovah: look unto the rock whence ye were hewn, and to 2 the hole of the pit whence ye were digged. Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you; for when he was but one I called him, and I blessed him, and made him many. For Jehovah hath comforted Zion; he hath comforted all 3 her waste places, and hath made her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of Jehovah; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody. Attend 4 unto me, O my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law shall go forth from me, and I will establish my justice for a light of the peoples. My righteousness is near, my salvation is 5 gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the peoples; the isles shall wait for me, and on mine arm shall they trust. Lift up your eyes 6 to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath; for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment; and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished. Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, 7 the people in whose heart is my law; fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye dismayed at their revilings. For the moth 8 shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool; but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation unto all generations. Awake, awake, put on strength, O 9 arm of Jehovah; awake, as in the days of old, the generations of ancient times. Is it not thou that didst cut Rahab in pieces, that didst pierce the monster? Is it not thou that driedst up 10 the sea, the waters of the great deep; that madest the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over? And the ransomed 11 of Jehovah shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and sighing shall flee away. I, even I, 12 am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou art afraid of man that shall die, and of the son of man that shall be made as grass; and hast forgotten Jehovah thy Maker, that stretched 13 forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and fearest continually all the day because of the fury of the oppressor, when he maketh ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor? The captive exile shall speedily be loosed; and 14 he shall not die and go down into the pit, neither shall his bread fail. For I am Jehovah thy God, who stirreth up the sea, so 15 that the waves thereof roar: Jehovah of hosts is his name. And 16 I have put my words in thy mouth, and have covered thee in the shadow of my hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my 17 people. Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, that hast drunk at the hand of Jehovah the cup of his wrath; thou hast drunken 18 the bowl of the cup of staggering, and drained it. There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand among all the 19 sons that she hath brought up. These two things are befallen thee, who shall bemoan thee? desolation and destruction, and 20 the famine and the sword; how shall I comfort thee? Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as an antelope in a net; they are full of the wrath of Jehovah, the rebuke of 21 thy God. Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, 22 but now with wine: Thus saith thy Lord Jehovah, and thy God that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thy hand the cup of staggering, even the bowl of the cup of 23 my wrath; thou shalt no more drink it again: and I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee, that have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over; and thou hast laid thy back as the ground, and as the street, to them that go over.

52 Awake, awake, put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean.
2 Shake thyself from the dust; arise, sit on thy throne, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bonds of thy neck, O captive daughter of 3 Zion. For thus saith Jehovah, Ye were sold for nought; and ye 4 shall be redeemed without money. For thus saith the Lord Jehovah, My people went down at the first into Egypt to sojourn there: and the Assyrian hath oppressed them without cause.
5 Now therefore, what do I here, saith Jehovah, seeing that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them do howl, saith Jehovah, and my name continually all the day is blas-6 phemed. Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak; behold, 7 it is I. How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace, that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation, that saith unto 8 Zion, Thy God reigneth! The voice of thy watchmen! they lift up the voice, together do they sing; for they shall see eye to 9 eye, when Jehovah returneth to Zion. Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem; for Jehovah hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. Jehovah hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; cleanse yourselves, ye that bear the vessels of Jehovah. For ye shall not go out in haste, neither shall ye go by flight: for Jehovah will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rearward. Behold, my servant shall deal wisely, he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high. Like as many were astonished at thee (his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men), so shall he sprinkle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they understand.

Who hath believed our message? and to whom hath the arm of Jehovah been revealed? For he grew up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. He was despised, and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and as one from whom men hide their face he was despised; and we esteemed him not. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows; yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and Jehovah hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, yet when he was afflicted he opened not his mouth; as a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is dumb, so he opened not his mouth. By oppression and judgment he was taken away; and as for his generation, who among them considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living for the transgression of my people to whom the stroke was due? And they made his grave with the wicked, and with a rich man in his death; although he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. Yet it pleased Jehovah to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the 11 pleasure of Jehovah shall prosper in his hand. He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by the knowledge of himself shall my righteous servant justify many; and he shall 12 bear their iniquities. Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out his soul unto death, and was numbered with the transgressors: yet he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

54 Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of 2 the married wife, saith Jehovah. Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thy habitations; spare 3 not: lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes. For thou shalt spread abroad on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall possess the nations, and make the desolate cities to 4 be inhabited. Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth; and the reproach of 5 thy widowhood shalt thou remember no more. For thy Maker is thy husband; Jehovah of hosts is his name: and the Holy One of Israel is thy Redeemer; the God of the whole earth shall he 6 be called. For Jehovah hath called thee as a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, even a wife of youth, when she is cast off, saith 7 thy God. For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with 8 great mercies will I gather thee. In overflowing wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting lovingkindness 9 will I have mercy on thee, saith Jehovah thy Redeemer. For this is as the waters of Noah unto me; for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah shall no more go over the earth, so have I sworn that I will not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.
10 For the mountains may depart, and the hills be removed; but my lovingkindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall my covenant of peace be removed, saith Jehovah that hath mercy on 11 thee. O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will set thy stones in fair colors, and lay thy foundations 12 with sapphires. And I will make thy pinnacles of rubies, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy border of precious stones.

And all thy children shall be taught of Jehovah; and great shall be the peace of thy children. In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression, for thou shalt not fear; and from terror, for it shall not come near thee. Behold, they may gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall because of thee. Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the fire of coals, and bringeth forth a weapon for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy. No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of Jehovah, and their righteousness which is of me, saith Jehovah.

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.
Incline your ear, and come unto me; hear, and your soul shall live: and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. Behold, I have given him for a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander to the peoples. Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not; and a nation that knew not thee shall run unto thee, because of Jehovah thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee. Seek ye Jehovah while he may be found; call ye upon him while he is near: let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto Jehovah, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.
For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith Jehovah. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain cometh down and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, and giveth seed to the sower and bread to the eater; so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing; and all the trees of the fields shall clap their 13 hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir-tree; and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree: and it shall be to Jehovah for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

56 Thus saith Jehovah, Keep ye justice, and do righteousness; for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be 2 revealed. Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that holdeth it fast; that keepeth the sabbath from profaning 3 it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil. Neither let the foreigner, that hath joined himself to Jehovah, speak, saying, Jehovah will surely separate me from his people; neither let the 4 eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree. For thus saith Jehovah of the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that 5 please me, and hold fast my covenant: Unto them will I give in my house and within my walls a memorial and a name better 6 than of sons and of daughters; I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off. Also the foreigners that join 7 themselves to Jehovah, to minister unto him, and to love the name of Jehovah, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the 8 sabbath from profaning it, and holdeth fast my covenant; even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt-offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for my house shall be called a house 9 of prayer for all peoples. The Lord Jehovah, who gathereth the outcasts of Israel, saith, Yet will I gather others to him, besides 10 his own that are gathered. All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest. His watchmen are blind, they are all without knowledge; they are all dumb dogs, they 11 cannot bark; dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber. Yea, the dogs are greedy, they can never have enough; and these are shepherds that cannot understand: they have all turned to their 12 own way, each one to his gain, from every quarter. Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and to-morrow shall be as this day, a day great beyond measure.

57 The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come. He entereth into peace; 2 they rest in their beds, each one that walketh in his uprightness.

But draw near hither, ye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the 3 adulterer and the harlot. Against whom do ye sport yourselves? 4 against whom make ye a wide mouth, and put out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood, ye that 5 inflare yourselves among the oaks, under every green tree; that slay the children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks?
Among the smooth stones of the valley is thy portion; they, they 6 are thy lot; even to them hast thou poured a drink-offering, thou hast offered an oblation. Shall I be appeased for these things?
Upon a high and lofty mountain hast thou set thy bed; thither 7 also wentest thou up to offer sacrifice. And behind the doors 8 and the posts hast thou set up thy memorial: for thou hast uncovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them: thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it. And thou wentest 9 to the king with oil, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thine ambassadors far off, and didst debase thyself even unto Sheol. Thou wast wearied with the length of thy way; 10 yet saidst thou not, It is in vain: thou didst find a quickening of thy strength; therefore thou wast not faint. And of whom 11 hast thou been afraid and in fear, that thou liest, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace even of long time, and thou fearest me not? I will declare 12 thy righteousness; and as for thy works, they shall not profit thee.
When thou criest, let them that thou hast gathered deliver thee; 13 but the wind shall take them, a breath shall carry them all away: but he that taketh refuge in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain. And he will say, Cast ye up, cast 14 ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people. For thus saith the high and lofty One that 15 inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite. For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always 16 wroth; for the spirit would faint before me, and the souls that I have made. For the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, 17 and smote him; I hid my face and was wroth; and he went on 18 backsliding in the way of his heart. I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him 19 and to his mourners. I create the fruit of the lips: Peace, peace, to him that is far off and to him that is near, saith Jehovah; and 20 I will heal him. But the wicked are like the troubled sea; for it 21 cannot rest, and its waters cast up mire and dirt. There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

58 Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and declare unto my people their transgression, and to the house of 2 Jacob their sins. Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways: as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God, they ask of me righteous judgments; they 3 delight to draw near unto God. Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast 4 ye find your own pleasure, and exact all your labors. Behold, ye fast for strife and contention, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ye fast not this day so as to make your voice to be 5 heard on high. Is such the fast that I have chosen? the day for a man to afflict his soul? Is it to bow down his head as a rush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou 6 call this a fast, and an acceptable day to Jehovah? Is not this the fast that I have chosen: to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the bands of the yoke, and to let the oppressed go free, 7 and that ye break every yoke? Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and 8 that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh? Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thy healing shall spring forth speedily; and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the 9 glory of Jehovah shall by thy rearward. Then shalt thou call, and Jehovah will answer; thou shalt cry, and he will say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the 10 putting forth of the finger, and speaking wickedly; and if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul: then shall thy light rise in darkness, and thine obscurity be as the 11 noonday; and Jehovah will guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in dry places, and make strong thy bones; and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not. And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places; thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in. If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, and the holy of Jehovah honorable; and shalt honor it, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words: then shalt thou delight thyself in Jehovah; and I will make thee to ride upon the high places of the earth; and I will feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of Jehovah hath spoken it.

Behold, Jehovah's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: but your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, so that he will not hear. For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue muttereth wickedness. None sueth in righteousness, and none pleadeth in truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity. They hatch adders' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth; and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper. Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands. Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; desolation and destruction are in their paths. The way of peace they know not; and there is no justice in their goings: they have made them crooked paths; whosoever goeth therein doth not know peace. Therefore is justice far from us, neither doth righteousness overtake us: we look for light, but, behold, darkness; for brightness, but we walk in obscurity. We grope for the wall like the blind; yea, we grope as they that have no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the twilight; among them that are lusty we are as dead men. We roar all like bears, and moan sore like doves: we look for justice, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us. For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities, we know them: transgressing and denying Jehovah, and turning away from following our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood. And justice is turned away backward, and righteousness standeth afar off; for truth is fallen in the street, and uprightness cannot enter. Yea, truth is lacking; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey. And Jehovah saw it, and it displeased him that there was no justice. And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his own arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it upheld him. And he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a mantle. According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, wrath to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompense. So shall they fear the name of Jehovah from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun; for he will come as a rushing stream, which the breath of Jehovah driveth. And a Redeemer will come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith Jehovah. And as for me, this is my covenant with them, saith Jehovah: my Spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith Jehovah, from henceforth and for ever.

60 Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of Jehovah is risen upon thee. For, behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples; but Jehovah will arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee. And nations shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: they all gather themselves together, they come to thee; thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be carried in the arms. Then thou shalt see and be radiant, and thy heart shall thrill and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be turned unto thee, the wealth of the nations shall come unto thee. The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come; they shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praises of Jehovah. All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee; they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar; and I will glorify the house of my glory. Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows? Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, for the name of Jehovah thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee. And foreigners shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favor have I had mercy on thee. Thy gates also shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the wealth of the nations, and their kings led captive. For that nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted. The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir-tree, the pine, and the box-tree together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious. And the sons of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee The city of Jehovah, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel. Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man passed through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations. Thou shalt also suck the milk of the nations, and shalt suck the breast of kings; and thou shalt know that I, Jehovah, am thy Saviour, and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob. For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron. I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness. Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, desolation nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise. The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but Jehovah will be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory. Thy sun shall no more go down, neither shall thy moon withdraw itself; for Jehovah will be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended. Thy people also shall be all righteous; they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified. The little one shall become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation; I, Jehovah, will hasten it in its time.

61 The Spirit of the Lord Jehovah is upon me; because Jehovah hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; 2 to proclaim the year of Jehovah's favor, and the day of vengeance 3 of our God; to comfort all that mourn; to appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they may be called trees of righteousness, the 4 planting of Jehovah, that he may be glorified. And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many 5 generations. And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and foreigners shall be your plowmen and your vine-dressers. 6 But ye shall be named the priests of Jehovah; men shall call you the ministers of our God: ye shall eat the wealth of the 7 nations, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves. Instead of your shame ye shall have double; and instead of dishonor they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they 8 shall possess double; everlasting joy shall be unto them. For I, Jehovah, love justice, I hate robbery with iniquity; and I will give them their recompense in truth, and I will make an everlasting 9 covenant with them. And their seed shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples; all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which Jehovah 10 hath blessed. I will greatly rejoice in Jehovah, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with a garland, and as a bride 11 adorneth herself with her jewels. For as the earth bringeth forth its bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord Jehovah will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

62 For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her righteousness go forth as brightness, 2 and her salvation as a lamp that burneth. And the nations shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory, and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of Jehovah shall name.

Thou shalt also be a crown of beauty in the hand of Jehovah, 3 and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God. Thou shalt no 4 more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzi-bah, and thy land Beulah; for Jehovah delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married. For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall 5 thy sons marry thee; and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee. I have set watchmen 6 upon thy walls, O Jerusalem; they shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that are Jehovah's remembrancers, take ye no rest, and give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make 7 Jerusalem a praise in the earth. Jehovah hath sworn by his 8 right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy grain to be food for thine enemies; and foreigners shall not drink thy new wine, for which thou hast labored: but 9 they that have garnered it shall eat it, and praise Jehovah; and they that have gathered it shall drink it in the courts of my sanctuary. Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the 10 way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up an ensign for the peoples. Behold, Jehovah hath 11 proclaimed unto the end of the earth, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him. And they shall call them 12 The holy people, The redeemed of Jehovah: and thou shalt be called Sought out, A city not forsaken.

Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments 63 from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, marching in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save. Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and 2 thy garments like him that treadeth in the winevat? I have 3 trodden the winepress alone; and of the peoples there was no man with me: yea, I trod them in mine anger, and trampled them in my wrath; and their lifeblood is sprinkled upon my garments, and I have stained all my raiment. For the day of 4 vengeance was in my heart, and the year of my redeemed is come. And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered 5 that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my wrath, it upheld me. And I trod 6 down the peoples in mine anger, and made them drunk in my 7 wrath, and I poured out their lifeblood on the earth. I will make mention of the lovingkindnesses of Jehovah, and the praises of Jehovah, according to all that Jehovah hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according 8 to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses. For he said, Surely, they are my people, children that will not deal falsely: so he 9 was their Saviour. In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the 10 days of old. But they rebelled, and grieved his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and himself fought 11 against them. Then he remembered the days of old, Moses and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock? where is he that put 12 his holy Spirit in the midst of them? that caused his glorious arm to go at the right hand of Moses? that divided the waters 13 before them, to make himself an everlasting name? that led them through the depths, as a horse in the wilderness, so that 14 they stumbled not? As the cattle that go down into the valley, the Spirit of Jehovah caused them to rest; so didst thou lead 15 thy people, to make thyself a glorious name. Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where are thy zeal and thy mighty acts? the yearning 16 of thy heart and thy compassions are restrained toward me. For thou art our Father, though Abraham knoweth us not, and Israel doth not acknowledge us: thou, O Jehovah, art our Father; our 17 Redeemer from everlasting is thy name. O Jehovah, why dost thou make us to err from thy ways, and hardenest our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine 18 inheritance. Thy holy people possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary. We are become 19 as they over whom thou never barest rule, as they that were not called by thy name.

64 Oh that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might quake at thy presence, 2 as when fire kindleth the brushwood, and the fire causeth the waters to boil; to make thy name known to thine adversaries, 3 that the nations may tremble at thy presence! When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains quaked at thy presence. For from of old men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen a God besides thee, who worketh for him that waiteth for him. Thou meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness, those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou wast wroth, and we sinned: in them have we been of long time; and shall we be saved? For we are all become as one that is unclean, and all our righteousnesses are as a polluted garment: and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.

And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee; for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us by means of our iniquities. But now, O Jehovah, thou art our Father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand. Be not wroth very sore, O Jehovah, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, look, we beseech thee, we are all thy people. Thy holy cities are become a wilderness, Zion is become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation. Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burned with fire; and all our pleasant places are laid waste. Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O Jehovah? wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

I am inquired of by them that asked not for me; I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was not called by my name. I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, that walk in a way that is not good, after their own thoughts; a people that provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens, and burning incense upon bricks; that sit among the graves, and lodge in the secret places; that eat swine's flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels; that say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me, for I am holier than thou. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day. Behold, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, yea, I will recompense into their bosom, your own iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith Jehovah, that have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed me upon the hills; therefore will I first measure their work into their bosom. Thus saith Jehovah, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not, for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sake, that I may not destroy them all.

9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains; and my chosen shall inherit it, and my

10 servants shall dwell there. And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down in, for my 11 people that have sought me. But ye that forsake Jehovah, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for Fortune, and

12 that fill up mingled wine unto Destiny; I will destine you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter; because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but ye did that which was evil in mine eyes, and chose that

13 wherein I delighted not. Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry; behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty; behold, my servants

14 shall rejoice, but ye shall be put to shame; behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart,

15 and shall wail for vexation of spirit. And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen; and the Lord Jehovah will

16 slay thee; and he will call his servants by another name: so that he who blesseth himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he that sweareth in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten,

17 and because they are hid from mine eyes. For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former things shall not be 18 remembered, nor come into mind. But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create; for, behold, I create Jerusalem a 19 rejoicing, and her people a joy. And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people; and there shall be heard in her no more

20 the voice of weeping and the voice of crying. There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days; for the child shall die a hundred years old, and

21 the sinner being a hundred years old shall be accursed. And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them. They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree shall be the days of my people, and my chosen 22 shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for calamity; for they are the seed of the blessed of Jehovah, and their offspring with them. And it shall 24 come to pass that, before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. The wolf and the lamb shall feed 25 together, and the lion shall eat straw like the ox; and dust shall be the serpent's food. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith Jehovah.

Thus saith Jehovah, Heaven is my throne, and the earth is 66 my footstool: what manner of house will ye build unto me? and what place shall be my rest? For all these things hath my hand 2 made, and so all these things came to be, saith Jehovah: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and that trembleth at my word. He that killeth an ox 3 is as he that slayeth a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as he that breaketh a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as he that offereth swine's blood; he that burneth frankincense, as he that blesseth an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations: I also will choose 4 their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did that which was evil in mine eyes, and chose that 5 wherein I delighted not. Hear the word of Jehovah, ye that 5 tremble at his word: Your brethren that hate you, that cast you out for my name's sake, have said, Let Jehovah be glorified, that we may see your joy; but it is they that shall be put to shame.
A voice of tumult from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice 6 of Jehovah that rendereth recompense to his enemies. Before 7 she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man-child. Who hath heard such a thing? who 8 hath seen such things? Shall a land be born in one day? shall a nation be brought forth at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. Shall I bring to the birth, and 9 not cause to bring forth? saith Jehovah: shall I that cause to bring forth shut the womb? saith thy God. Rejoice ye with 10 Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn over her; that ye may suck 11 and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.
For thus saith Jehovah, Behold, I will extend peace to her like 12 a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream:

and ye shall suck thereof; ye shall be borne upon the side, and shall be dandled upon the knees. As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem. And ye shall see it, and your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like the tender grass: and the hand of Jehovah shall be known toward his servants; and he will have indignation against his enemies. For, behold, Jehovah will come with fire, and his chariots shall be like the whirlwind; to render his anger with fierceness, and his rebuke with flames of fire. For by fire will Jehovah execute judgment, and by his sword, upon all flesh; and the slain of Jehovah shall be many. They that sanctify themselves and purify themselves to go unto the gardens, behind one in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, they shall come to an end together, saith Jehovah. For I know their works and their thoughts: the time cometh, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and shall see my glory. And I will set a sign among them, and I will send such as escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations. And they shall bring all your brethren out of all the nations for an oblation unto Jehovah, upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith Jehovah, as the children of Israel bring their oblation in a clean vessel into the house of Jehovah. And of them also will I take for priests and for Levites, saith Jehovah. For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith Jehovah, so shall your seed and your name remain. And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith Jehovah. And they shall go forth, and look upon the dead bodies of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET JEREMIAH.

The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests 1 that were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: to 2 whom the word of Jehovah came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year 3 of his reign. It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son 3 of Josiah, king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, unto the carrying 4 away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month. Now the word 4 of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Before I formed thee in the 5 belly I knew thee, and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee; I have appointed thee a prophet unto the nations.
Then said I, Ah, Lord Jehovah! behold, I know not how to speak; 6 for I am a child. But Jehovah said unto me, Say not, I am a 7 child; for to whomsoever I shall send thee thou shalt go, and whatsoever I shall command thee thou shalt speak. Be not 8 afraid because of them; for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith Jehovah. Then Jehovah put forth his hand, and touched my 9 mouth; and Jehovah said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth: see, I have this day set thee over the nations and 10 over the kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant. Moreover the word of 11 Jehovah came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond-tree. Then said Jehovah unto 12 me, Thou hast well seen: for I watch over my word to perform it. And the word of Jehovah came unto me the second time, 13 saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a boiling caldron; and the face thereof is from the north. Then Jehovah said unto me, 14 Out of the north evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land. For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of 15 the north, saith Jehovah; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the 16 cities of Judah. And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, in that they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works 17 of their own hands. Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed 18 at them, lest I dismay thee before them. For, behold, I have made thee this day a fortified city, and an iron pillar, and brazen walls, against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the 19 people of the land. And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee, saith Jehovah, to deliver thee.

2, 2 And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying, Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, I remember for thee the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals; how thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that 3 was not sown. Israel was holiness unto Jehovah, the first-fruits of his increase: all that devour him shall be held guilty; evil 4 shall come upon them, saith Jehovah. Hear ye the word of Jehovah, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house 5 of Israel: thus saith Jehovah, What unrighteousness have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have 6 walked after vanity, and are become vain? Neither said they, Where is Jehovah that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of the shadow of death, through a land that none passed through, and where no man 7 dwelt? And I brought you into a plentiful land, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye defiled 8 my land, and made my heritage an abomination. The priests said not, Where is Jehovah? and they that handle the law knew me not: the rulers also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.
9 Wherefore I will yet contend with you, saith Jehovah, and with 10 your children's children will I contend. For pass over to the isles of Kittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently; 11 and see if there hath been such a thing. Hath a nation changed its gods, which yet are no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit. Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith Jehovah. For my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. Is Israel a servant? is he a home-born slave? why is he become a prey? The young lions have roared upon him, and yelled; and they have made his land waste: his cities are burned up, without inhabitant. The children also of Memphis and Tahpanhes have broken the crown of thy head. Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken Jehovah thy God, when he led thee by the way? And now what hast thou to do in the way to Egypt, to drink the waters of the Shihor? or what hast thou to do in the way to Assyria, to drink the waters of the River? Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and a bitter, that thou hast forsaken Jehovah thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord, Jehovah of hosts. For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bonds; and thou saidst, I will not serve; for upon every high hill and under every green tree thou didst bow thyself, playing the harlot. Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate branches of a foreign vine unto me? For though thou wash thee with lye, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord Jehovah. How canst thou say, I am not defiled, I have not gone after the Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways; a wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind in her desire; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her. Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, It is in vain; no, for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go. As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets; who say to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say, 28 Arise, and save us. But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy 29 gods, O Judah. Wherefore will ye contend with me? ye all have 30 transgressed against me, saith Jehovah. In vain have I smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath 31 devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion. O generation, see ye the word of Jehovah. Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? or a land of thick darkness? wherefore say my people, We are 32 broken loose; we will come no more unto thee? Can a virgin forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have 33 forgotten me days without number. How trimmest thou thy way to seek love! therefore even the wicked women hast thou 34 taught thy ways. Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the innocent poor: thou didst not find them breaking 35 in; but it is because of all these things. Yet thou saidst, I am innocent; surely his anger is turned away from me. Behold, I will enter into judgment with thee, because thou sayest, I have not 36 sinned. Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? thou shalt be ashamed of Egypt also, as thou wast ashamed of 37 Assyria. From thence also shalt thou go forth, with thy hands upon thy head: for Jehovah hath rejected those in whom thou trustest, and thou shalt not prosper with them.

3 They say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, will he return unto her again? will not that land be greatly polluted? But thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, saith Jeho-2 vah. Lift up thine eyes unto the bare heights, and see; where hast thou not been lain with? By the ways hast thou sat for them, as an Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted 3 the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness. Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; yet thou hast a harlot's forehead, thou refusedst to 4 be ashamed. Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My Fa-5 ther, thou art the guide of my youth? Will he retain his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken 6 and hast done evil things, and hast had thy way. Moreover Jehovah said unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot. And I said after she had done all these 7 things, She will return unto me; but she returned not: and her treacherous sister Judah saw it. And I saw, when, for this very 8 cause that backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a bill of divorcement, yet treacherous Judah her sister feared not; but she also went and played the harlot. And it came to pass through the lightness of her whore- 9 dom, that the land was polluted, and she committed adultery with stones and with stocks. And yet for all this her treacher- 10 ous sister Judah hath not returned unto me with her whole heart, but feignedly, saith Jehovah. And Jehovah said unto me, Backsliding Israel hath showed herself more righteous than treacherous Judah. Go, and proclaim these words toward the 12 north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith Jehovah; I will not look in anger upon you; for I am merciful, saith Jehovah, I will not keep anger for ever. Only acknowledge thine iniquity, 13 that thou hast transgressed against Jehovah thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith Jehovah. Return, O back- 14 sliding children, saith Jehovah; for I am a husband unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion: and I will give you shepherds according to 15 my heart, who shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. And it shall come to pass, when ye are multiplied and 16 increased in the land, in those days, saith Jehovah, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of Jehovah; neither shall it come to mind; neither shall they remember it; neither shall they miss it; neither shall it be made any more. At that time they 17 shall call Jerusalem the throne of Jehovah; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of Jehovah, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the stubbornness of their evil heart. In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the 18 house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I gave for an inheritance unto your fathers. But I said, How I will put thee among the children, 19 and give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of the nations! and I said, Ye shall call me My Father, and shall 20 not turn away from following me. Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with 21 me, O house of Israel, saith Jehovah. A voice is heard upon the bare heights, the weeping and the supplications of the children of Israel; because they have perverted their way, they have 22 forgotten Jehovah their God. Return, ye backsliding children, I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we are come unto thee; 23 for thou art Jehovah our God. Truly in vain is the help that is looked for from the hills, the tumult on the mountains: truly in 24 Jehovah our God is the salvation of Israel. But the shameful thing hath devoured the labor of our fathers from our youth, 25 their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. Let us lie down in our shame, and let our confusion cover us; for we have sinned against Jehovah our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day; and we have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah our God.

4 If thou wilt return, O Israel, saith Jehovah, if thou wilt return unto me, and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my 2 sight; then shalt thou not be removed; and thou shalt swear, As Jehovah liveth, in truth, in justice, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory.
3 For thus saith Jehovah to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem, 4 Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns. Circumcise yourselves to Jehovah, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest 5 my wrath go forth like fire, and burn so that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: 6 cry aloud and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the fortified cities. Set up a standard toward Zion: flee for safety, 7 stay not; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction. A lion is gone up from his thicket, and a destroyer of nations; he is on his way, he is gone forth from his place, 8 to make thy land desolate, that thy cities be laid waste, without inhabitant. For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and 9 wail; for the fierce anger of Jehovah is not turned back from us.
And it shall come to pass at that day, saith Jehovah, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

Then said I, Ah, Lord Jehovah! surely thou hast greatly de- 10 ceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the life. At that time shall it 11 be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A hot wind from the bare heights in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow, nor to cleanse; a full wind from these shall come 12 for me: now will I also utter judgments against them. Behold, 13 he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as the whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are ruined. O Jerusalem, wash thy heart from wickedness, that 14 thou mayest be saved. How long shall thine evil thoughts lodge within thee? For a voice declareth from Dan, and publisheth 15 evil from the hills of Ephraim: make ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.
As keepers of a field are they against her round about, because 17 she hath been rebellious against me, saith Jehovah. Thy way 18 and thy doings have procured these things unto thee; this is thy wickedness; for it is bitter, for it reacheth unto thy heart. My 19 anguish, my anguish! I am pained at my very heart; my heart is disquieted in me; I cannot hold my peace; because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.
Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is laid 20 waste: suddenly are my tents destroyed, and my curtains in a moment. How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound 21 of the trumpet? For my people are foolish, they know me not; 22 they are sottish children, and they have no understanding; they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge. I 23 beheld the earth, and, lo, it was waste and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they 24 trembled, and all the hills moved to and fro. I beheld, and, lo, 25 there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled. I 26 beheld, and, lo, the fruitful field was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of Jehovah, and before his fierce anger. For thus saith Jehovah, The whole land 27 shall be a desolation; yet will I not make a full end. For this 28 shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black; because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and I have not repented, neither will I turn back from it. Every city fleeth for the noise 29 of the horsemen and bowmen; they go into the thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city is forsaken, and not a man dwelleth therein. And thou, when thou art made desolate, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with scarlet, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou enlargest thine eyes with paint, in vain dost thou make thyself fair; thy lovers despise thee, they seek thy life. For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that gaspeth for breath, that spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul fainteth before the murderers.

5 Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that doeth justly, that seeketh truth; and I will pardon her. And though they say, As Jehovah liveth; surely they swear falsely. O Jehovah, do not thine eyes look upon truth? thou hast stricken them, but they were not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return. Then I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish; for they know not the way of Jehovah, nor the law of their God: I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they know the way of Jehovah, and the law of their God. But these with one accord have broken the yoke, and burst the bonds. Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, a wolf of the evenings shall destroy them, a leopard shall watch against their cities; every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased. How can I pardon thee? thy children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, they committed adultery, and assembled themselves in troops at the harlots' houses. They were as fed horses roaming at large; every one neighed after his neighbor's wife. Shall I not visit for these things? saith Jehovah; and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her branches; for they are not Jehovah's. For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith Jehovah. They have denied Jehovah, and said, It is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; neither shall we see sword nor famine: and the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them. Wherefore thus saith Jehovah, the God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them. Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith Jehovah: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say. Their quiver is an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men. And they shall eat up thy harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat; they shall eat up thy flocks and thy herds; they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig-trees; they shall beat down thy fortified cities, wherein thou trustest, with the sword. But even in those days, saith Jehovah, I will not make a full end with you. And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, Wherefore hath Jehovah our God done all these things unto us? then shalt thou say unto them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served foreign gods in your land, so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours. Declare ye this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; that have eyes, and see not; that have ears, and hear not: Fear ye not me? saith Jehovah: will ye not tremble at my presence, who have placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it? and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it. But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone. Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear Jehovah our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in its season; that preserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest. Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good from you. For among my people are found wicked men: they watch, as fowlers lie in wait; they set a trap, they catch men. As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxed rich. They are waxed fat, they shine: yea, they overpass in deeds of wickedness; they plead not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, that they may prosper; and the right of 29 the needy do they not judge. Shall I not visit for these things? saith Jehovah; shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation 30 as this? A wonderful and horrible thing is come to pass in the 31 land: the prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

6 Flee for safety, ye children of Benjamin, out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and raise up a signal on Beth-haccherem; for evil looketh forth from the north, and a 2 great destruction. The comely and delicate one, the daughter 3 of Zion, will I cut off. Shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; 4 they shall feed every one in his place. Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! for the day declineth, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.
5 Arise, and let us go up by night, and let us destroy her palaces.
6 For thus hath Jehovah of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and cast up a mound against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she 7 is wholly oppression in the midst of her. As a well casteth forth its waters, so she casteth forth her wickedness: violence and destruction is heard in her; before me continually is sickness 8 and wounds. Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul be alienated from thee; lest I make thee a desolation, a land not 9 inhabited. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn again thy hand as 10 a grape-gatherer into the baskets. To whom shall I speak and testify, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of Jehovah is become 11 unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it. Therefore I am full of the wrath of Jehovah; I am weary with holding in: pour it out upon the children in the street, and upon the assembly of young men together; for even the husband with the wife shall 12 be taken, the aged with him that is full of days. And their houses shall be turned unto others, their fields and their wives together; for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of 13 the land, saith Jehovah. For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from 14 the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. They have healed also the hurt of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. Were they ashamed when they 15 had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall; at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith Jehovah. Thus saith Jehovah, Stand ye in the ways and 16 see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way; and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls: but they said, We will not walk therein. And I set watchmen over you, saying, 17 Hearken to the sound of the trumpet; but they said, We will not hearken. Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, 18 what is among them. Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil 19 upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it. To what purpose cometh there to me frankincense 20 from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt-offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices pleasing unto me. Therefore thus saith Jehovah, Behold, I will lay stumbling- 21 blocks before this people; and the fathers and the sons together shall stumble against them; the neighbor and his friend shall perish. Thus saith Jehovah, Behold, a people cometh from the 22 north country; and a great nation shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. They lay hold on bow and spear; 23 they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea, and they ride upon horses, every one set in array, as a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Zion. We have heard the 24 report thereof; our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pangs as of a woman in travail. Go not forth into 25 the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy, and terror, are on every side. O daughter of my people, gird thee 26 with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes: make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation; for the destroyer shall suddenly come upon us. I have made thee a trier and a 27 fortress among my people; that thou mayest know and try their way. They are all grievous revolvers, going about with slanders; 28 they are brass and iron: they all of them deal corruptly. The bellows blow fiercely; the lead is consumed of the fire: in vain do 29 they go on refining; for the wicked are not plucked away. Refuse 30 silver shall men them, because Jehovah hath rejected them.

The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, Stand 7, 2 in the gate of Jehovah's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of Jehovah, all ye of Judah, that enter in at 3 these gates to worship Jehovah. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will 4 cause you to dwell in this place. Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of Jehovah, the temple of Jehovah, the tem-5 ple of Jehovah, are these. For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute justice between a man 6 and his neighbor; if ye oppress not the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, nei-7 ther walk after other gods to your own hurt: then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, 8 from of old even for evermore. Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit. Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, 9 and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods that ye have not known, and come and stand before 10 me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered; that ye may do all these abominations? Is this house, 11 which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I, even I, have seen it, saith Jehovah. But go ye 12 now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I caused my name to dwell at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness 13 of my people Israel. And now, because ye have done all these works, saith Jehovah, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered 14 not: therefore will I do unto the house which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you 15 and to your fathers, as I did to Shiloh. And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole 16 seed of Ephraim. Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession 17 to me; for I will not hear thee. Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? The 18 children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto other gods, that they may 19 provoke me to anger. Do they provoke me to anger? saith Jehovah; do they not provoke themselves, to the confusion of their 20 own faces? Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, mine anger and my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: 21 Add your burnt-offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat ye flesh. For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the 22 day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt-offerings or sacrifices: but this thing I commanded them, 23 saying, Harken unto my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people; and walk ye in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you. But they hearkened not, nor 24 inclined their ear, but walked in their own counsels and in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the 25 land of Egypt unto this day, I have sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: yet they 26 hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff: they did worse than their fathers. And thou shalt 27 speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee. And thou shalt say unto them, This is the nation that 28 hath not hearkened to the voice of Jehovah their God, nor received instruction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth. Cut off thy hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and 29 take up a lamentation on the bare heights; for Jehovah hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath. For the chil- 30 dren of Judah have done that which is evil in my sight, saith Jehovah: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. And they have built the high 31 places of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded not, neither came it into my mind. Therefore, behold, 32 the days come, saith Jehovah, that it shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter: for they shall bury in Topheth, till there be no place to bury. And the dead bodies of this people shall be food for 33 the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall frighten them away. Then will I cause to cease from 34 the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride; for the land shall become a waste.

8 At that time, saith Jehovah, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves; and they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, which they have loved, and which they have served, and after which they have walked, and which they have sought, and which they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried, they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth. And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue that remain of this evil family, that remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith Jehovah of hosts. Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith Jehovah: Shall men fall, and not rise up again? Shall one turn away, and not return? Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return. I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repenteth him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turneth to his course, as a horse that rusheth headlong in the battle. Yea, the stork in the heavens knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle-dove and the swallow and the crane observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the law of Jehovah. How do ye say, We are wise, and the law of Jehovah is with us? But, behold, the false pen of the scribes hath wrought falsely. The wise men are put to shame, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of Jehovah; and what manner of wisdom is in them? Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall possess them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to covetousness; from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. And they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall; in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith Jehovah. I will utterly consume them, saith Jehovah: there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig-tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them. Why do we sit still? 14 assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the fortified cities, and let us be silent there; for Jehovah our God hath put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against Jehovah. We looked for peace, but no good came; and 15 for a time of healing, and, behold, dismay! The snorting of his 16 horses is heard from Dan: at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones the whole land trembleth; for they are come, and have devoured the land and all that is in it; the city and those that dwell therein. For, behold, I will send serpents, adders, 17 among you, which will not be charmed; and they shall bite you, saith Jehovah. Oh that I could comfort myself against sorrow! 18 my heart is faint within me. Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people from a land that is very far off: is not Jehovah in Zion? is not her King in her? Why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with foreign vanities? The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are 20 not saved. For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt: 21 I mourn; dismay hath taken hold on me. Is there no balm in 22 Gilead? is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

Oh that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of 9 tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging- 2 place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men. And they bend their tongue, as it were their bow, 3 for falsehood; and they are grown strong in the land, but not for truth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith Jehovah. Take ye heed every one of his neighbor, 4 and trust ye not in any brother; for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbor will go about with slanders. And 5 they will deceive every one his neighbor, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies; they weary themselves to commit iniquity. Thy habitation is in the midst 6 of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith Jehovah. Therefore thus saith Jehovah of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, 7 and try them; for how else should I do, because of the daugh-

8 ter of my people? Their tongue is a deadly arrow; it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth, 9 but in his heart he layeth wait for him. Shall I not visit them for these things? saith Jehovah; shall not my soul be avenged 10 on such a nation as this? For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the pastures of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that none passeth through; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; both the 11 birds of the heavens and the beasts are fled, they are gone. And I will make Jerusalem heaps, a dwelling-place of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.
12 Who is the wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of Jehovah hath spoken, that he may declare it? wherefore is the land perished and burned up like a 13 wilderness, so that none passeth through? And Jehovah saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and 14 have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein, but have walked after the stubbornness of their own heart, and after the 15 Baalim, which their fathers taught them; therefore thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall 16 to drink. I will scatter them also among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known; and I will send the 17 sword after them, till I have consumed them. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for the skilful women, that they 18 may come: and let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush 19 out with waters. For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we ruined! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because they have cast down our dwellings.
20 Yet hear the word of Jehovah, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth; and teach your daughters wail-21 ing, and every one her neighbor lamentation. For death is come up into our windows, it is entered into our palaces; to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.
22 Speak, Thus saith Jehovah, The dead bodies of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvest-23 man; and none shall gather them. Thus saith Jehovah, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches; but 24 let him that glorieth glory in this, that he hath understanding, and knoweth me, that I am Jehovah who exerciseth lovingkindness, justice, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith Jehovah. Behold, the days come, saith Jehovah, 25 that I will punish all them that are circumcised in their uncircumcision: Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that have the corners of their hair cut off, that dwell in the wilderness; for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart.

Hear ye the word which Jehovah speaketh unto you, O house 10 of Israel: thus saith Jehovah, Learn not the way of the nations, 2 and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the nations are dismayed at them. For the customs of the peoples are vanity; 3 for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman with the axe. They deck it with silver and 4 with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not. They are like a palm-tree, of turned work, and speak 5 not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither is it in them to do good. There is none like unto thee, O Jehovah; thou 6 art great, and thy name is great in might. Who should not 7 fear thee, O King of the nations? for to thee doth it appertain; forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their royal estate, there is none like unto thee. But they are 8 together brutish and foolish: the instruction of idols! it is but a stock. There is silver beaten into plates, which is brought from 9 Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the artificer and of the hands of the goldsmith; blue and purple for their clothing; they are all the work of skilful men. But Jehovah is the true 10 God; he is the living God, and an everlasting King: at his wrath the earth trembleth, and the nations are not able to abide his indignation. Thus shall ye say unto them, The gods that have 11 not made the heavens and the earth, these shall perish from the earth, and from under the heavens. He hath made the earth by 12 his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding hath he stretched out the heavens: when he 13 uttereth his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain, and bringeth forth the wind out 14 of his treasuries. Every man is become brutish and is without knowledge; every goldsmith is put to shame by his graven image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

15 They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation 16 they shall perish. The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance: 17 Jehovah of hosts is his name. Gather up thy wares out of the 18 land, O thou that abidest in the siege. For thus saith Jehovah, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, 19 and will distress them, that they may feel it. Woe is me because of my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is my 20 grief, and I must bear it. My tent is destroyed, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth from me, and they are not: there is none to spread my tent any more, and to set 21 up my curtains. For the shepherds are become brutish, and have not inquired of Jehovah: therefore they have not prospered, 22 and all their flocks are scattered. The voice of tidings, behold, it cometh, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a dwelling-place of jackals.
23 O Jehovah, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it 24 is not in man that walketh to direct his steps. O Jehovah, correct me, but in measure: not in thine anger, lest thou bring 25 me to nothing. Pour out thy wrath upon the nations that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have devoured Jacob, yea, they have devoured him and consumed him, and have laid waste his habitation.

11, 2 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, 3 and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and say thou unto them, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel: Cursed be the man that 4 heareth not the words of this covenant, which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall 5 ye be my people, and I will be your God; that I may establish the oath which I swear unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as at this day. Then answered

I, and said, Amen, O Jehovah. And Jehovah said unto me, 6 Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them. For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day 7 that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice. Yet 8 they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the stubbornness of their evil heart: therefore I brought upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they did them not. And Jehovah said unto me, 9 A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. They are turned back to the iniquities 10 of their forefathers, who refused to hear my words; and they are gone after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. Therefore thus saith Jehovah, Behold, I will bring 11 evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and they shall cry unto me, but I will not hearken unto them. Then shall 12 the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem go and cry unto the gods unto which they offer incense: but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble. For according to 13 the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to the shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.
Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor 14 prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me because of their trouble. What hath my beloved 15 to do in my house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many,
and the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest. Jehovah called thy name, A green olive- 16 tree, fair with goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken. For 17 Jehovah of hosts, who planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have wrought for themselves in provoking me to anger by offering incense unto Baal. And Jehovah gave 18 me knowledge of it, and I knew it: then thou showedst me their doings. But I was like a gentle lamb that is led to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, 19

Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered. But, O Jehovah of hosts, who judgest righteously, who triest the heart and the mind, I shall see thy vengeance on them; for unto thee have I revealed my cause. Therefore thus saith Jehovah concerning the men of Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, Thou shalt not prophesy in the name of Jehovah, that thou die not by our hand; therefore thus saith Jehovah of hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine; and there shall be no remnant unto them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.

Righteous art thou, O Jehovah, when I contend with thee; yet would I reason the cause with thee: wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they at ease that deal very treacherously? Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root; they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art near in their mouth, and far from their heart. But thou, O Jehovah, knowest me; thou seest me, and triest my heart toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter. How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of the whole country wither? for the wickedness of them that dwell therein, the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our latter end. If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and though in a land of peace thou art secure, yet how wilt thou do in the pride of the Jordan? For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; even they have cried aloud after thee: believe them not, though they speak fair words unto thee. I have forsaken my house, I have cast off my heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies. My heritage is become unto me as a lion in the forest: she hath uttered her voice against me; therefore I have hated her. Is my heritage unto me as a speckled bird of prey? are the birds of prey against her round about? go ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, bring them to devour. Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. They have made it a desolation; it mourneth unto me, being desolate; the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to heart. Destroyers are come upon all the bare heights in the wilderness; for the sword of Jehovah devoureth from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh hath peace. They have sown wheat, and have reaped thorns; they have put themselves to pain, and profit nothing: and ye shall be ashamed of your fruits, because of the fierce anger of Jehovah. Thus saith Jehovah against all mine evil neighbors, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: behold, I will pluck them up from off their land, and will pluck up the house of Judah from among them. And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them up, I will return and have compassion on them; and I will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, As Jehovah liveth; even as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built up in the midst of my people. But if they will not hear, then will I pluck up that nation, plucking up and destroying it, saith Jehovah.

Thus saith Jehovah unto me, Go, and buy thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water. So I bought a girdle according to the word of Jehovah, and put it upon my loins. And the word of Jehovah came unto me the second time, saying, Take the girdle that thou hast bought, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock. So I went, and hid it by the Euphrates, as Jehovah commanded me. And it came to pass after many days, that Jehovah said unto me, Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there. Then I went to the Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it; and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing. Then the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. This evil people, that refuse to hear my words, that walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and are gone after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is profitable for nothing. For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith Jehovah; that they may be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear. Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word: Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine? Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith Jehovah, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith Jehovah: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have compassion, that I should not destroy them. Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud; for Jehovah hath spoken. Give glory to Jehovah your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness. But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret for your pride; and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because Jehovah's flock is taken captive. Say thou unto the king and to the queen-mother, Humble yourselves, sit down; for your headtires are come down, even the crown of your glory. The cities of the South are shut up, and there is none to open them: Judah is carried away captive, all of it; it is wholly carried away captive. Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock? What wilt thou say, when he shall set over thee as head those whom thou hast thyself taught to be friends to thee? shall not sorrows take hold of thee, as of a woman in travail? And if thou say in thy heart, Wherefore are these things come upon me? for the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts uncovered, and thy heels suffer violence. Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil. Therefore will I scatter them, as the stubble that passeth away, by the wind of the wilderness. This is thy lot, the portion measured unto thee from me, saith Jehovah; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood. Therefore will I also uncover thy skirts upon thy face, and thy shame shall appear. I have seen 27 thine abominations, even thine adulteries, and thy neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, on the hills in the field. Woe unto thee, O Jerusalem! thou wilt not be made clean; how long shall it yet be?

The word of Jehovah that came to Jeremiah concerning the 14 drought. Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish, they 2 sit in black upon the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up. And their nobles send their little ones to the waters: they 3 come to the cisterns, and find no water; they return with their vessels empty; they are put to shame and confounded, and cover their heads. Because of the ground which is cracked, for that no 4 rain hath been in the land, the plowmen are put to shame, they cover their heads. Yea, the hind also in the field calveth, and for- 5 saketh her young, because there is no grass. And the wild asses 6 stand on the bare heights, they pant for air like jackals; their eyes fail, because there is no herbage. Though our iniquities 7 testify against us, work thou for thy name's sake, O Jehovah; for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee. O thou 8 hope of Israel, the Saviour thereof in the time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a sojourner in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night? Why shouldest 9 thou be as a man affrighted, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O Jehovah, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not. Thus saith Jehovah unto this peo- 10 ple, Even so have they loved to wander; they have not refrained their feet: therefore Jehovah doth not accept them; now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins. And Jehovah said 11 unto me, Pray not for this people for their good. When they 12 fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt-offering and meal-offering, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.
Then said I, Ah, Lord Jehovah! behold, the prophets say unto 13 them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place. Then Jehovah 14 said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name; I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake I unto them: they prophesy unto you a lying vision, and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their own heart. Therefore 15 thus saith Jehovah concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land: By sword and famine shall those prophets 16 be consumed. And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them – them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour 17 their wickedness upon them. And thou shalt say this word unto them, Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease; for the virgin daughter of my people is broken 18 with a great breach, with a very grievous wound. If I go forth into the field, then, behold, the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then, behold, they that are sick with famine! for both the prophet and the priest go about in the land, and 19 have no knowledge. Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul loathed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, but no good came; and 20 for a time of healing, and, behold, dismay! We acknowledge, O Jehovah, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we 21 have sinned against thee. Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake; do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: remember, break not 22 thy covenant with us. Are there any among the vanities of the nations that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? art not thou he, O Jehovah our God? therefore we will wait for thee; for thou hast made all these things.

15 Then said Jehovah unto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind would not be toward this people: cast 2 them out of my sight, and let them go forth. And it shall come to pass, when they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith Jehovah: Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for 3 captivity, to captivity. And I will appoint over them four kinds, saith Jehovah: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the birds of the heavens, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and 4 to destroy. And I will cause them to be tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh, the son of 5 Hezekiah, king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem. For who will have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who will bemoan thee? or who will turn aside to ask of thy welfare? Thou hast 6 rejected me, saith Jehovah, thou art gone backward: therefore have I stretched out my hand against thee, and destroyed thee; I am weary with repenting. And I have winnowed them with a 7 fan in the gates of the land; I have bereaved them of children, I have destroyed my people; they returned not from their ways.

Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas; I 8 have brought upon them against the mother of the young men a destroyer at noonday: I have caused anguish and terrors to fall upon her suddenly. She that hath borne seven languisheth; 9 she hath given up the ghost; her sun is gone down while it was yet day; she hath been put to shame and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith Jehovah. Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne 10 me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth!
I have not lent, neither have men lent to me; yet every one of them doth curse me. Jehovah said, Verily I will strengthen thee 11 for good; verily I will cause the enemy to make supplication unto thee in the time of evil and in the time of affliction. Can one 12 break iron, even iron from the north, and brass? Thy substance 13 and thy treasures will I give for a spoil without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders. And I will make them to 14 pass with thine enemies into a land which thou knowest not; for a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you. O 15 Jehovah, thou knowest; remember me, and visit me, and avenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy longsuffering: know that for thy sake I have suffered reproach. Thy words 16 were found, and I did eat them; and thy words were unto me a joy and the rejoicing of my heart: for I am called by thy name, O Jehovah, God of hosts. I sat not in the assembly of 17 them that make merry, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of thy hand; for thou hast filled me with indignation. Why is my pain 18 perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou indeed be unto me as a deceitful brook, as waters that fail? Therefore thus saith Jehovah, If thou return, then will I 19 bring thee again, that thou mayest stand before me; and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth:
they shall return unto thee, but thou shalt not return unto them.
And I will make thee unto this people a fortified brazen wall; and 20 they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith 21 Jehovah. And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

16, 2 The word of Jehovah came also unto me, saying, Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters, in 3 this place. For thus saith Jehovah concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that 4 begat them in this land: They shall die grievous deaths: they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; they shall be as dung upon the face of the ground; and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their dead bodies shall be food 5 for the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth. For thus saith Jehovah, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament, neither bemoan them; for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith Jehovah, even lovingkindness 6 and tender mercies. Both great and small shall die in this land; they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, 7 nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them; neither shall men break bread for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to 8 drink for their father or for their mother. And thou shalt not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and to drink.
9 For thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of 10 the bridegroom and the voice of the bride. And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt show this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, Wherefore hath Jehovah pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our 11 sin that we have committed against Jehovah our God? Then shalt thou say unto them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith Jehovah, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, 12 and have not kept my law; and ye have done evil more than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the stubborn-13 ness of his evil heart, so that ye hearken not unto me: therefore will I cast you forth out of this land into the land that ye have not known, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; for I will show you no favor. Therefore, behold, the days come, saith Jehovah, that it shall no more be said, As Jehovah liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; but, As Jehovah liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the countries whither he had driven them. And I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers. Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith Jehovah, and they shall fish them up; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks. For mine eyes are upon all their ways; they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity concealed from mine eyes. And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable things, and have filled mine inheritance with their abominations. O Jehovah, my strength, and my stronghold, and my refuge in the day of affliction, unto thee shall the nations come from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Our fathers have inherited nought but lies, even vanity and things wherein there is no profit. Shall a man make unto himself gods, which yet are no gods? Therefore, behold, I will cause them to know, this once will I cause them to know my hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is Jehovah.

The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is graven upon the tablet of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars; whilst their children remember their altars and their Asherim by the green trees upon the high hills. O my mountain in the field, I will give thy substance and all thy treasures for a spoil, and thy high places, because of sin, throughout all thy borders. And thou, even of thyself, shalt discontinue from thy heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in the land which thou knowest not: for ye have kindled a fire in mine anger which shall burn for ever. Thus saith Jehovah: Cursed is the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from Jehovah. For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh, but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, a salt land and not inhabited.

7 Blessed is the man that trusteth in Jehovah, and whose trust 8 Jehovah is. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, that spreadeth out its roots by the river, and shall not fear when heat cometh, but its leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in 9 the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit. The heart is deceitful above all things, and it is exceedingly corrupt: 10 who can know it? I, Jehovah, search the mind, I try the heart, even to give every man according to his ways, according to the 11 fruit of his doings. As the partridge that sitteth on eggs which she hath not laid, so is he that getteth riches, and not by right; in the midst of his days they shall leave him, and at his end he shall 12 be a fool. A glorious throne, set on high from the beginning, is 13 the place of our sanctuary. O Jehovah, the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be put to shame. They that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken 14 Jehovah, the fountain of living waters. Heal me, O Jehovah, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou 15 art my praise. Behold, they say unto me, Where is the word of 16 Jehovah? let it come now. As for me, I have not hastened from being a shepherd after thee; neither have I desired the woeful day; thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was before 17 thy face. Be not a terror unto me: thou art my refuge in the 18 day of evil. Let them be put to shame that persecute me, but let not me be put to shame; let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed; bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them 19 with double destruction. Thus said Jehovah unto me: Go, and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by which they go out, and in all the gates 20 of Jerusalem; and say unto them, Hear ye the word of Jehovah, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of 21 Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates: Thus saith Jehovah, Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath 22 day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work: but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded 23 your fathers. But they hearkened not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, and 24 might not receive instruction. And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith Jehovah, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but to hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein; then shall there enter 25 in by the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain for ever. And they shall come from 26 the cities of Judah, and from the places round about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the lowland, and from the hill-country, and from the South, bringing burnt-offerings, and sacrifices, and meal-offerings, and frankincense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving, unto the house of Jehovah. But if 27 ye will not hearken unto me to hallow the sabbath day, and not to bear a burden and enter in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

The word which came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, 18 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words. Then I went down to the potter's house, 3 and, behold, he was making a work on the wheels. And when 4 the vessel that he made of the clay was marred in the hand of the potter, he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. Then the word of Jehovah came to me, 5 saying, O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this pot- 6 ter? saith Jehovah. Behold, as the clay in the potter's hand, so are ye in my hand, O house of Israel. At what instant I 7 shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy it; if that nation, 8 concerning which I have spoken, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them. And at what 9 instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it; if they do that which is evil in 10 my sight, that they obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them. Now therefore, 11 speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith Jehovah: Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and amend your ways and your doings. But they 12 say, It is in vain; for we will walk after our own devices, and we will do every one after the stubbornness of his evil heart.

13 Therefore thus saith Jehovah: Ask ye now among the nations, who hath heard such things; the virgin of Israel hath done a very 14 horrible thing. Shall the snow of Lebanon fail from the rock of the field? or shall the cold waters that flow down from afar be 15 dried up? For my people have forgotten me, they have burned incense to false gods; and they have been made to stumble in their ways, in the ancient paths, to walk in bypaths, in a way 16 not cast up; to make their land an astonishment, and a perpetual hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and shake his head. I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, 18 in the day of their calamity. Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and 19 let us not give heed to any of his words. Give heed to me, O Jehovah, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me. Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember how I stood before thee to speak 21 good for them, to turn away thy wrath from them. Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and give them over to the power of the sword; and let their wives become childless, and widows; and let their men be slain of death, and their young men 22 smitten of the sword in battle. Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them; for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.
23 Yet, Jehovah, thou knowest all their counsel against me to slay me; forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight; but let them be overthrown before thee; deal thou with them in the time of thine anger.

19 Thus said Jehovah, Go, and buy a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the elders of the people, and of the elders of the 2 priests; and go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the gate Harsith, and proclaim there 3 the words that I shall tell thee; and say, Hear ye the word of Jehovah, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem: thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle. Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, that they knew not, they and their fathers and the kings of Judah; and have filled this place with the blood of innocents, and have built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons in the fire for burnt-offerings unto Baal; which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind: therefore, behold, the days come, saith Jehovah, that this place shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter. And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of them that seek their life: and their dead bodies will I give to be food for the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth. And I will make this city an astonishment, and a hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all the plagues thereof. And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters; and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend, in the siege and in the distress, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their life, shall distress them. Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee, and shalt say unto them, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again; and they shall bury in Topheth, till there be no place to bury. Thus will I do unto this place, saith Jehovah, and to the inhabitants thereof, even making this city as Topheth: and the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, which are defiled, shall be as the place of Topheth, even all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink-offerings unto other gods. Then came Jeremiah from Topheth, whither Jehovah had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of Jehovah's house, and said to all the people: Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all its towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it; because they have made their neck stiff, that they may not hear my words.

Now Pashhur, the son of Immer the priest, who was chief of- 20

ficer in the house of Jehovah, heard Jeremiah prophesying these 2 things. Then Pashhur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the upper gate of Benjamin, which was 3 in the house of Jehovah. And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashhur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, Jehovah hath not called thy name Pash-4 hur, but Magor-missabib. For thus saith Jehovah, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it; and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive to Babylon, and shall 5 slay them with the sword. Moreover I will give all the riches of this city, and all the gains thereof, and all the precious things thereof, yea, all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies; and they shall make them a prey, and 6 take them, and carry them to Babylon. And thou, Pashhur, and all that dwell in thy house shall go into captivity; and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and there shalt thou be buried, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast 7 prophesied falsely. O Jehovah, thou hast persuaded me, and I was persuaded; thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: I am become a laughing-stock all the day, every one mocketh me.
8 For as often as I speak, I cry out; I cry, Violence and destruction! because the word of Jehovah is made a reproach unto me, and 9 a derision, all the day. And if I say, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name, then there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am 10 weary with forbearing, and I cannot contain. For I have heard the defaming of many, terror on every side. Denounce, and we will denounce him, say all my familiar friends, they that watch for my fall; peradventure he will be persuaded, and we shall pre-11 vail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him. But Jehovah is with me as a mighty one and a terrible: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail; they shall be utterly put to shame, because they have not dealt wisely, even with an everlasting dishonor which shall never be forgotten.
12 But, O Jehovah of hosts, that triest the righteous, that seest the heart and the mind, let me see thy vengeance on them; for unto 13 thee have I revealed my cause. Sing unto Jehovah, praise ye Jehovah; for he hath delivered the soul of the needy from the hand of evil-doers. Cursed be the day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blessed. Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, A man-child is born unto thee; making him very glad. And let that man be as the cities which Jehovah overthrew, and repented not: and let him hear a cry in the morning, and shouting at noontime; because he slew me not from the womb; and so my mother would have been my grave, and her womb always great. Wherefore came I forth out of the womb to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

The word which came unto Jeremiah from Jehovah, when king Zedekiah sent unto him Pashhur the son of Malchijah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, saying, Inquire, I pray thee, of Jehovah for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us: peradventure Jehovah will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.
Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah: Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans that besiege you, without the walls; and I will gather them into the midst of this city. And I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation. And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence. And afterward, saith Jehovah, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, even such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy. And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith Jehovah: Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. He that abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he that goeth out, and passeth over to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be unto him for a prey. For I have set my face upon this city for evil, and not for good, saith Jehovah: it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn 11 it with fire. And touching the house of the king of Judah, hear 12 ye the word of Jehovah: O house of David, thus saith Jehovah, Execute justice in the morning, and deliver him that is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn so that none can quench it, because of the evil 13 of your doings. Behold, I am against thee, O inhabitant of the valley, and of the rock of the plain, saith Jehovah; you that say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our 14 habitations? And I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith Jehovah; and I will kindle a fire in her forest, and it shall devour all that is round about her.

22 Thus said Jehovah: Go down to the house of the king of 2 Judah, and speak there this word, And say, Hear the word of Jehovah, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in 3 by these gates. Thus saith Jehovah: Execute ye justice and righteousness, and deliver him that is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence, to the sojourner, the fatherless, nor the widow; neither shed innocent blood in this 4 place. For if ye do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his 5 people. But if ye will not hear these words, I swear by myself, 6 saith Jehovah, that this house shall become a desolation. For thus saith Jehovah concerning the house of the king of Judah: Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon; yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.
7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons; and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cast 8 them into the fire. And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbor, Wherefore hath 9 Jehovah done thus unto this great city? Then they shall answer, Because they forsook the covenant of Jehovah their God, and 10 worshipped other gods, and served them. Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him; but weep sore for him that goeth away; for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.
11 For thus saith Jehovah touching Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, and who went forth out of this place: He shall not return thither any more. But in the place whither they have led him captive, there shall he die, and he shall see this land no more. Woe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by injustice; that useth his neighbor's service without wages, and giveth him not his hire; that saith, I will build me a wide house and spacious chambers, and cutteth him out windows; and it is ceiled with cedar, and painted with vermilion. Shalt thou reign, because thou strivest to excel in cedar? Did not thy father eat and drink, and do justice and righteousness? then it was well with him. He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well. Was not this to know me? saith Jehovah. But thine eyes and thy heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for shedding innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it. Therefore thus saith Jehovah concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah: they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! They shall not lament for him, saying Ah lord! or, Ah his glory! He shall be buried with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem. Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from Abarim; for all thy lovers are destroyed. I spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear. This hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice. The wind shall feed all thy shepherds, and thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness. O inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars, how greatly to be pitied shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, the pain as of a woman in travail! As I live, saith Jehovah, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence; and I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them of whom thou art afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. And I will cast thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die. But to the land whereunto their soul longeth to return, thither shall they not return. Is this man Coniah a despised broken vessel?

is he a vessel wherein none delighteth? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into the land which they know not? O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of Jehovah. Thus saith Jehovah, Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days; for no more shall a man of his seed prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling in Judah.

23 Woe unto the shepherds that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith Jehovah. Therefore thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, against the shepherds that feed my people: Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith Jehovah. And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and multiply. And I will set up shepherds over them, who shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be lacking, saith Jehovah. Behold, the days come, saith Jehovah, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name whereby he shall be called: Jehovah our righteousness. Therefore, behold, the days come, saith Jehovah, that they shall no more say, As Jehovah liveth, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; but, As Jehovah liveth, who brought up and who led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all the countries whither I had driven them. And they shall dwell in their own land. Concerning the prophets. My heart within me is broken, all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of Jehovah, and because of his holy words. For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourneth; the pastures of the wilderness are dried up. And their course is evil, and their might is not right; for both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith Jehovah. Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery places in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein; for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith Jehovah. And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied by Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. In the prophets 14 of Jerusalem also I have seen a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies; and they strengthen the hands of evil-doers, so that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them become unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah. Therefore thus saith Jehovah of hosts concerning 15 the prophets: Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall; for from the prophets of Jerusalem is ungodliness gone forth into all the land. Thus saith 16 Jehovah of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they teach you vanity; they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of Jehovah.

They say continually unto them that despise me, Jehovah hath 17 said, Ye shall have peace; and unto every one that walketh in the stubbornness of his own heart they say, No evil shall come upon you. For who hath stood in the council of Jehovah, that 18 he should perceive and hear his word? who hath marked my word, and heard it? Behold, the tempest of Jehovah, even his 19 wrath, is gone forth, yea, a whirling tempest: it shall burst upon the head of the wicked. The anger of Jehovah shall not return, 20 until he have executed, and till he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall understand it perfectly. I 21 sent not these prophets, yet they ran: I spake not unto them, yet they prophesied. But if they had stood in my council, then 22 had they caused my people to hear my words, and had turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings. Am 23 I a God at hand, saith Jehovah, and not a God afar off? Can 24 any hide himself in secret places so that I shall not see him? saith Jehovah. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith Jehovah. I 25 have heard what the prophets have said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed. How long shall 26 this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies, even the prophets of the deceit of their own heart? that think to cause 27 my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbor, as their fathers forgat my name for Baal. The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and 28 he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the straw to the wheat? saith Jehovah. Is not my word 29 like fire? saith Jehovah; and like a hammer that breaketh the 30 rock in pieces? Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, saith Jehovah, that steal my words every one from his neighbor.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith Jehovah, that use their 32 tongues, and say, He saith. Behold, I am against them that prophesy lying dreams, saith Jehovah, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their vain boasting: yet I sent them not, nor commanded them; neither do they profit 33 this people at all, saith Jehovah. And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is the burden of Jehovah? then shalt thou say unto them, What burden! I will 34 cast you off, saith Jehovah. And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of Jehovah, 35 I will even punish that man and his house. Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbor, and every one to his brother, What hath Jehovah answered? and, What hath Jehovah spoken? And the burden of Jehovah shall ye mention no more: for every man's own word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words 37 of the living God, of Jehovah of hosts our God. Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath Jehovah answered thee?
38 and, What hath Jehovah spoken? But if ye say, The burden of Jehovah; therefore thus saith Jehovah: Because ye say this word, The burden of Jehovah, and I have sent unto you, saying, 39 Ye shall not say, The burden of Jehovah; therefore, behold, I will utterly forget you, and I will cast you off, and the city that I 40 gave unto you and to your fathers, away from my presence: and I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

24 Jehovah showed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs set before the temple of Jehovah, after that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first-ripe; and the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, 3 they were so bad. Then said Jehovah unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the 4 bad, very bad, that cannot be eaten, they are so bad. And the 5 word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so will I regard the captives of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans, for good. For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up. And I will give them a heart to know me, that I am Jehovah: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God; for they shall return unto me with their whole heart. And as the bad figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so bad, surely thus saith Jehovah, So will I give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Egypt, I will even give them up to be tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth for evil; to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them. And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (the same was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon,) which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying: From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even unto this day, these three and twenty years, the word of Jehovah hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising up early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened. And Jehovah hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, (but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear,) saying, Return ye now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that Jehovah hath given unto you and to your fathers, from of old and even for evermore; and go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the work of your hands; and I will do you no hurt. Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith Jehovah; that ye may provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to your own hurt. Therefore thus saith Jehovah of hosts: Because ye have not heard my words, behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith Jehovah, and I will send unto Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about; and I will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations.

10 Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp.

11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

12 And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith Jehovah, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans; and

13 I will make it desolate for ever. And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied

14 against all the nations. For many nations and great kings shall make bondmen of them, even of them; and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the work of 15 their hands. For thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, unto me: take this cup of the wine of wrath at my hand, and cause

16 all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it. And they shall drink, and reel to and fro, and be mad, because of the 17 sword that I will send among them. Then took I the cup at Jehovah's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom

18 Jehovah had sent me: to wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is this

19 day; Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people; and all the mingled people, and all the kings

20 of the land of the Uz, and all the kings of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod;

21, 22 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon; and all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the 23 isle which is beyond the sea; Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and 24 all that have the corners of their hair cut off; and all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in

25 the wilderness; and all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of 26 Elam, and all the kings of the Medes; and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them. And thou shalt say unto 27 them, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Drink ye, and be drunken, and spew, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you. And it shall be, if they 28 refuse to take the cup at thy hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: Ye shall surely drink. For, lo, I begin to work evil at the city which is called by my 29 name; and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished; for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith Jehovah of hosts. Therefore prophesy thou 30 against them all these words, and say unto them, Jehovah will roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he will mightily roar against his fold; he will give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth. A noise shall come even to the end of the earth; for 31 Jehovah hath a controversy with the nations; he will enter into judgment with all flesh: as for the wicked, he will give them to the sword, saith Jehovah. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, Behold, 32 evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great tempest shall be raised up from the uttermost parts of the earth. And 33 the slain of Jehovah shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the face of the ground. Wail, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow 34 in ashes, ye principal of the flock; for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are fully come, and ye shall fall like a goodly vessel. And the shepherds shall have no way to flee, 35 nor the principal of the flock to escape. A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and the wailing of the principal of the flock! for 36 Jehovah layeth waste their pasture. And the peaceable folds are brought to silence because of the fierce anger of Jehovah. 37 He hath left his covert, as the lion; for their land is become an astonishment because of the fierceness of the oppressing sword, 38 and because of his fierce anger.

In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, 26 king of Judah, came this word from Jehovah, saying, Thus saith 2 Jehovah: Stand in the court of Jehovah's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in Jehovah's house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; diminish 3 not a word. It may be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way; that I may repent me of the evil which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith Jehovah: If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before 5 you, to hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I send unto you, even rising up early and sending them, but ye 6 have not hearkened; then will I make this house like Shiloh, and 7 will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth. And the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah 8 speaking these words in the house of Jehovah. And it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that Jehovah had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold on him, 9 saying, Thou shalt surely die. Why hast thou prophesied in the name of Jehovah, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant? And all the people 10 were gathered unto Jeremiah in the house of Jehovah. And when the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house unto the house of Jehovah; and they sat in the 11 entry of the new gate of Jehovah's house. Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy of death; for he hath prophesied against this 12 city, as ye have heard with your ears. Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, Jehovah sent me to prophecy against this house and against this city all the words 13 that ye have heard. Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of Jehovah your God; and Jehovah will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.
14 But as for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as is good and right in your eyes. Only know ye for certain that, if ye put me to death, ye will bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof; for of a truth Jehovah hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your 15 ears. Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets: This man is not worthy of death; for he 16 hath spoken to us in the name of Jehovah our God. Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly 17 of the people, saying, Micah the Morashtite prophesied in the 18 days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: Zion shall be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest. Did Hezekiah king of 19 Judah and all Judah put him to death? did he not fear Jehovah, and entreat the favor of Jehovah, and Jehovah repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? Thus should we commit great evil against our own souls. And there was also 20 a man that prophesied in the name of Jehovah, Uriah the son of Shemaiah of Kiriath-jearim; and he prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah: and when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty-men, and all 21 the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt: and Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, 22 Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him, into Egypt; and they fetched forth Uriah out of Egypt, and brought 23 him unto Jehoiakim the king, who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people. But 24 the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, 27 king of Judah, came this word unto Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, Thus saith Jehovah to me: Make thee bonds and bars, 2 and put them upon thy neck; and send them to the king of 3 Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the children of Ammon, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers that come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah; and give them a charge unto their 4 masters, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say unto your masters: I have made the earth, 5 the men and the beasts that are upon the face of the earth, by my great power and by my outstretched arm; and I give it unto whom it seemeth right unto me. And now have I given all these 6 lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field also have I given him to serve him. And all the nations shall serve him, and his 7 son, and his son's son, until the time of his own land come: and then many nations and great kings shall make him their 8 bondman. And it shall come to pass, that the nation and the kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith Jehovah, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I 9 have consumed them by his hand. But as for you, hearken ye not to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreams, nor to your soothsayers, nor to your sorcerers, that speak unto 10 you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish. But the nation that shall bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, that nation will I let remain in their own land, saith Jehovah; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 And I spake to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of 13 Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as Jehovah hath spoken concerning the nation that 14 will not serve the king of Babylon? And hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not 15 serve the king of Babylon; for they prophesy a lie unto you. For I have not sent them, saith Jehovah, but they prophesy falsely in my name; that I may drive you out, and that ye may perish, 16 ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you. Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith Jehovah: Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the vessels of Jehovah's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon; for they prophesy a lie 17 unto you. Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city become a desolation? But if they be prophets, and if the word of Jehovah be with them, let them now make intercession to Jehovah of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of Jehovah, and in the house of the 19 king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon. For thus saith Jehovah of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that are left in this city, which Nebuchadnezzar king of 20 Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; yea, thus saith Jehovah of 21 hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that are left in the house of Jehovah, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem: They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall 22 they be, until the day that I visit them, saith Jehovah; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

And it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the 28 reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azzur, the prophet, who was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of Jehovah, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, Thus speaketh Je- 2 hovah of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. Within two full years will I bring again 3 into this place all the vessels of Jehovah's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried to Babylon: and I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the 4 son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went to Babylon, saith Jehovah; for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon. Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto 5 the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of Jehovah, even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: Jehovah do so; Jehovah 6 perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of Jehovah's house, and all them of the captivity, from Babylon unto this place. Nevertheless hear thou now this word 7 that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people: The 8 prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. The prophet that prophesieth of 9 peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that Jehovah hath truly sent him.
Then Hananiah the prophet took the bar from off the prophet 10 Jeremiah's neck, and brake it. And Hananiah spake in the pres- 11 ence of all the people, saying, Thus saith Jehovah: Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon within two full years from off the neck of all the nations. And the prophet 12 Jeremiah went his way. Then the word of Jehovah came unto Jeremiah, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the bar 13 from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Go, and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith Jehovah: Thou hast broken the bars of wood; but thou hast made in their stead bars of iron.

14 For thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: 15 and I have given him the beasts of the field also. Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hana-niah: Jehovah hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to 16 trust in a lie. Therefore thus saith Jehovah, Behold, I will send thee away from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt 17 die, because thou hast spoken rebellion against Jehovah. So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

29 Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders of the captivity, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from 2 Jerusalem to Babylon, (after that Jeconiah the king, and the queen-mother, and the eunuchs, and the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen, and the smiths, were departed 3 from Jerusalem,) by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiyah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,) 4 saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all the captivity, whom I have caused to be carried away captive 5 from Jerusalem unto Babylon: Build ye houses, and dwell in 6 them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them. Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; and multiply ye there, and be not dimin-7 ished. And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray unto Jehovah for it; for in 8 the peace thereof shall ye have peace. For thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Let not your prophets that are in the midst of you, and your diviners, deceive you; neither hear-9 ken ye to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed. For they prophecy falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith Jehovah. For thus saith Jehovah, After seventy years are accomplished for Babylon, I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith Jehovah, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you hope in your latter end. And ye shall call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. And I will be found of you, saith Jehovah, and I will turn again your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith Jehovah; and I will bring you again unto the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive. Because ye have said, Jehovah hath raised us up prophets in Babylon; thus saith Jehovah concerning the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and concerning all the people that dwell in this city, your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity; thus saith Jehovah of hosts; Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so bad. And I will pursue after them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an execration, and an astonishment, and a hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them; because they have not hearkened to my words, saith Jehovah, wherewith I sent unto them my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith Jehovah. Hear ye therefore the word of Jehovah, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie unto you in my name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your eyes; and of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captives of Judah that are in Babylon, saying, Jehovah make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire; because they have wrought folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken words in my name falsely, which I commanded them not; and I am he that knoweth, and am witness, 24 saith Jehovah. And concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite thou 25 shalt speak, saying, Thus speaketh Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thine own name 26 unto all the people that are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, and to all the priests, saying, Jehovah hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that there may be officers in the house of Jehovah, for every man that is mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldest 27 put him in the stocks and in shackles. Now therefore, why hast thou not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who maketh himself a 28 prophet to you, forasmuch as he hath sent unto us in Babylon, saying, The captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; 29 and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them? And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

30, 31 Then came the word of Jehovah unto Jeremiah, saying, Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith Jehovah concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he hath caused you to 32 trust in a lie; therefore thus saith Jehovah, Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed; he shall not have a man to dwell among this people, neither shall he behold the good that I will do unto my people, saith Jehovah, because he hath spoken rebellion against Jehovah.

30, 2 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, Thus speaketh Jehovah, the God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the 3 words that I have spoken unto thee in a book. For, lo, the days come, saith Jehovah, that I will turn again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith Jehovah; and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and 4 they shall possess it. And these are the words that Jehovah 5 spake concerning Israel and concerning Judah. For thus saith Jehovah: We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not 6 of peace. Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child: wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into 7 paleness? Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out 8 of it. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith Jehovah of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds; and strangers shall no more make him their bondman; but they shall serve Jehovah their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them. Therefore fear thou not, O Jacob my servant, saith Jehovah; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and none shall make him afraid. For I am with thee, saith Jehovah, to save thee: for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have scattered thee, but I will not make a full end of thee; but I will correct thee in measure, and will in no wise leave thee unpunished. For thus saith Jehovah, Thy hurt is incurable, and thy wound grievous. There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast no healing medicines. All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not: for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the greatness of thine iniquity, because thy sins were increased. Why criest thou for thy hurt? thy pain is incurable: for the greatness of thine iniquity, because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee. Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that despoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey. For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith Jehovah; because they have called thee an outcast, saying, It is Zion, whom no man seeketh after. Thus saith Jehovah: Behold, I will turn again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have compassion on his dwelling-places; and the city shall be builded upon its own hill, and the palace shall be inhabited after its own manner. And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small. Their children also shall be as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me; and I will punish all that oppress them. And their prince shall be of themselves, and their ruler shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me: for who is he that hath had boldness to approach unto me? saith Jehovah.

22, 23 And ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. Behold, the tempest of Jehovah, even his wrath, is gone forth, a sweeping 24 tempest: it shall burst upon the head of the wicked. The fierce anger of Jehovah shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall understand it.

31 At that time, saith Jehovah, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people. Thus saith Jehovah, The people that were left of the sword found favor in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest. Jehovah appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn 4 thee. Again will I build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: again shalt thou be adorned with thy tabrets, and 5 shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry. Again shalt thou plant vineyards upon the mountains of Samaria; the 6 planters shall plant, and shall enjoy the fruit thereof. For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the hills of Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto Jehovah our God.
7 For thus saith Jehovah, Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout for the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O 8 Jehovah, save thy people, the remnant of Israel. Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the uttermost parts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child 9 together: a great company shall they return hither. They shall come with weeping; and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by rivers of waters, in a straight way wherein they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and 10 Ephraim is my first-born. Hear the word of Jehovah, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off; and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth 11 his flock. For Jehovah hath ransomed Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he. And they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow unto the goodness of Jehovah, to the grain, and to the new wine, and to the oil, and to the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not 13 sorrow any more at all. Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old together; for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow. And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith Jehovah. Thus saith Jehovah: A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping, Rachel weeping for her children; she refuseth to be comforted for her children, because they are not. Thus saith Jehovah: Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears; for thy work shall be rewarded, saith Jehovah; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. And there is hope for thy latter end, saith Jehovah; and thy children shall come again to their own border. I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus, Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a calf unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art Jehovah my God. Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth. Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a darling child? for as often as I speak against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my heart yearneth for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith Jehovah. Set thee up waymarks, make thee guide-posts; set thy heart toward the highway, even the way by which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities. How long wilt thou go hither and thither, O thou backsliding daughter? for Jehovah hath created a new thing in the earth: a woman shall encompass a man. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, Yet again shall they use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity: Jehovah bless thee, O habitation of righteousness, O mountain of holiness. And Judah and all the cities thereof shall dwell therein together, the husbandmen, and they that go about with flocks. For I have satiated the weary soul, and every sorrowful soul have I replenished. Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me. Behold, the days come, saith Jehovah, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast. And it shall come to pass that, like as I have watched over them to pluck up and to break down and to overthrow and to destroy and to afflict, so will I watch over them to build and 29 to plant, saith Jehovah. In those days they shall say no more,

The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are 30 set on edge. But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge.
31 Behold, the days come, saith Jehovah, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: 32 not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was 33 a husband unto them, saith Jehovah. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith Jehovah: I will put my law in their inward parts, and in their heart will I write it; and I will be their God, and they shall be 34 my people: and they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know Jehovah; for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith Jehovah: for I will forgive their iniquity, and their 35 sin will I remember no more. Thus saith Jehovah, who giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who stirreth up the sea, so that 36 the waves thereof roar; Jehovah of hosts is his name: If these ordinances depart from before me, saith Jehovah, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.
37 Thus saith Jehovah: If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, then will I also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith 38 Jehovah. Behold, the days come, saith Jehovah, that the city shall be built to Jehovah from the tower of Hananel unto the 39 gate of the corner. And the measuring line shall go out further straight onward unto the hill Gareb, and shall turn about unto 40 Goah. And the whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brook Kidron, unto the corner of the horse gate toward the east, shall be holy unto Jehovah; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more for ever.

32 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of 2 Nebuchadrezzar. Now at that time the king of Babylon's army was besieging Jerusalem; and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard, which was in the king of Judah's house. For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore 3 dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith Jehovah, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; and Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the 4 hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes; and he shall bring 5 Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith Jehovah: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper? And Jeremiah said, The word of Jehovah came unto me, 6 saying, Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth; for the right of redemption is thine to buy it. So Hanamel mine 8 uncle's son came to me in the court of the guard according to the word of Jehovah, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of Jehovah. And I bought the field that was in Anathoth of Hanamel mine 9 uncle's son, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver. And I subscribed the deed, and sealed it, and called 10 witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances. So I took the deed of the purchase, both that which was sealed, ac- cording to the law and custom, and that which was open: and I 12 delivered the deed of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the deed of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the guard. And I charged Baruch before them, saying, Thus 13, 14 saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, this deed of the purchase which is sealed, and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel; that they may continue many days. For thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of 15 Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall yet again be bought in this land. Now after I had delivered the deed of the purchase 16 unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto Jehovah, saying, Ah Lord Jehovah! behold, thou hast made the heavens and the 17 earth by thy great power and by thine outstretched arm; there 18 is nothing too hard for thee, who showest lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them; the great, the mighty God, 19 Jehovah of hosts is his name; great in counsel, and mighty in work; whose eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men, to give every one according to his ways, and according to the 20 fruit of his doings: who didst set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, both in Israel and among other 21 men; and madest thee a name, as at this day; and didst bring forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with an outstretched 22 arm, and with great terror; and gavest them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing 23 with milk and honey; and they came in, and possessed it, but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: there-24 fore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them. Behold, the mounds, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence; and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou 25 seest it. And thou hast said unto me, O Lord Jehovah, Buy thee the field for money, and call witnesses; whereas the city is 26 given into the hand of the Chaldeans. Then came the word of Jehovah unto Jeremiah, saying, Behold, I am Jehovah, the 27 God of all flesh: is there anything too hard for me? Therefore thus saith Jehovah: Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of 29 Babylon, and he shall take it: and the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set this city on fire, and burn it, with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink-offerings unto other gods, to 30 provoke me to anger. For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done only that which was evil in my sight from their youth; for the children of Israel have only provoked 31 me to anger with the work of their hands, saith Jehovah. For this city hath been to me a provocation of mine anger and of my wrath from the day that they built it even unto this day; 32 that I should remove it from before my face, because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face: and though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction. But they set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin. And now therefore thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: Behold, I will gather them out of all the countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my wrath, and in great indignation; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: and I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them: and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from following them, to do them good; and I will put my fear in their hearts, that they may not depart from me. Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul. For thus saith Jehovah: Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them. And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate, without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe the deeds, and seal them, and call witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the hill-country, and in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South: for I will cause their captivity to return, saith Jehovah.

Moreover the word of Jehovah came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the guard,

2 saying, Thus saith Jehovah that doeth it, Jehovah that formeth 3 it to establish it; Jehovah is his name: Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and will show thee great things, and difficult, which 4 thou knowest not. For thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down to make a defence 5 against the mounds and against the sword; while men come to fight with the Chaldeans, and to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger and in my wrath, and 6 for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city: Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them; and 7 I will reveal unto them abundance of peace and truth. And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to 8 return, and will build them, as at the first. And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned against me, and whereby they have transgressed against 9 me. And this city shall be to me for a name of joy, for a praise and for a glory, before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them, and shall fear and tremble for all the good and for all the peace that I procure unto it.
10 Thus saith Jehovah: Yet again there shall be heard in this place, whereof ye say, It is waste, without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without 11 beast, the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that say, Give thanks to Jehovah of hosts, for Jehovah is good, for his lovingkindness endureth for ever; and of them that bring sacrifices of thanksgiving into the house of Jehovah. For I will cause the captivity of the land to return as at the first, saith 12 Jehovah. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: Yet again shall there be in this place, which is waste, without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, a habitation of shepherds causing 13 their flocks to lie down. In the cities of the hill-country, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks again pass under the hands 14 of him that numbereth them, saith Jehovah. Behold, the days come, saith Jehovah, that I will perform that good word which I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah. In those days, and at that time, will I cause a Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely; and this is the name whereby she shall be called: Jehovah our righteousness. For thus saith Jehovah: David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel; neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt-offerings, and to burn meal-offerings, and to do sacrifice continually. And the word of Jehovah came unto Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith Jehovah: If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, so that there shall not be day and night in their season; then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he shall not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers. As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me. And the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah, saying, Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which Jehovah did choose, he hath cast them off? thus do they despise my people, that they should be no more a nation before them. Thus saith Jehovah: If my covenant of day and night stand not, if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; then will I also cast away the seed of Jacob, and of David my servant, so that I will not take of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and will have mercy on them.

The word which came unto Jeremiah from Jehovah, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth that were under his dominion, and all the peoples, were fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying: Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith Jehovah, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire: and thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon. Yet hear the word of Jehovah, O Zedekiah king of Judah: thus saith Jehovah concerning thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword; thou shalt die in peace; and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings that were before thee, so shall they make a burning for thee; and they shall lament thee, saying, Ah Lord! for I have spoken the word, saith Jehovah. Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, when the king of Babylon's army was fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and against Azekah; for these alone remained of the cities of Judah as fortified cities. The word that came unto Jeremiah from Jehovah, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people that were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them; that every man should let his man-servant, and every man his maid-servant, that is a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, go free; that none should make bondmen of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother. And all the princes and all the people obeyed, that had entered into the covenant, that every one should let his man-servant, and every one his maid-servant, go free, that none should make bondmen of them any more; they obeyed, and let them go: but afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids. Therefore the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, At the end of seven years ye shall let go every man his brother that is a Hebrew, that hath been sold unto thee, and hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear. And ye were now turned, and had done that which is right in mine eyes, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbor; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name: but ye turned and profaned my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom ye had let go free at their pleasure, to return; and ye brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids. Therefore thus saith Jehovah: ye have not hearkened unto me, to proclaim liberty, every man to his brother, and every man to his neighbor: behold, I proclaim unto you a liberty, saith Jehovah, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth. And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, that have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, when they cut the calf in twain and passed between the parts thereof; the princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, that passed between the parts of the calf; I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life; and their dead bodies shall be for food unto the birds of the heavens, and to the beasts of the earth. And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, that are gone away from you. Behold, I will command, saith Jehovah, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.

The word which came unto Jeremiah from Jehovah in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, Go unto the house of the Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of Jehovah, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink. Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites; and I brought them into the house of Jehovah, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, the man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the threshold. And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said unto them, Drink ye wine. But they said, We will drink no wine; for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons, for ever: neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any; but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land wherein 8 ye sojourn. And we have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he charged us, to drink no wine 9 all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters; nor to build houses for us to dwell in; neither have we vineyard, nor 10 field, nor seed: but we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded 11 us. But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear 12 of the army of the Syrians; so we dwell at Jerusalem. Then came the word of Jehovah unto Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Go, and say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive 14 instruction to hearken to my words? saith Jehovah. The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; and unto this day they drink none, for they obey their father's commandment: but I have spoken unto you, rising up early and speaking; and ye have not 15 hearkened unto me. I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye 16 have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me. Forasmuch as the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but 17 this people hath not hearkened unto me; therefore thus saith Jehovah, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto 18 them, but they have not answered. And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto 19 all that he commanded you; therefore thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever.

And it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son 36 of Josiah, king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying, Take thee a roll of a book, and write 2 therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day.
It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which 3 I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.
Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch 4 wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of Jehovah, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book. And 5 Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of Jehovah: therefore go thou, and read in 6 the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of Jehovah in the ears of the people in Jehovah's house upon the fast-day; and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities. It may be they will present their 7 supplication before Jehovah, and will return every one from his evil way; for great is the anger and the wrath that Jehovah hath pronounced against this people. And Baruch the son of Neriah 8 did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of Jehovah in Jehovah's house.
Now it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of 9 Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that all the people in Jerusalem, and all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem, proclaimed a fast before Jehovah. Then 10 read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of Jehovah, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan, the scribe, in the upper court, at the entry of the new gate of Jehovah's house, in the ears of all the people. And when 11 Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of Jehovah, he went down into the 12 king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes were sitting there, to wit, Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. Then Micaiah declared unto them all the words 13 that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of 14 the people. Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cush, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thy hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took 15 the roll in his hand, and came unto them. And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in 16 their ears. Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one toward another, and said unto 17 Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words. And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write 18 all these words at his mouth? Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I 19 wrote them with ink in the book. Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know 20 where ye are. And they went in to the king into the court; but they had laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the 21 scribe; and they told all the words in the ears of the king. So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll; and he took it out of the chamber of Elishama the scribe. And Jehudi read it in the ears 22 of the king, and in the ears of all the princes that stood beside the king. Now the king was sitting in the winter-house in the ninth month: and there was a fire in the brazier burning before 23 him. And it came to pass, when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, that the king cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was in the brazier, until all the roll was consumed 24 in the fire that was in the brazier. And they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants 25 that heard all these words. Moreover Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would 26 not burn the roll; but he would not hear them. And the king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the 27 scribe and Jeremiah the prophet; but Jehovah hid them. Then the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth 28 of Jeremiah, saying, Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim 29 the king of Judah hath burned. And concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah thou shalt say, Thus saith Jehovah: Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast? Therefore thus saith Jehovah concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they hearkened not. Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and there were added besides unto them many like words.

And Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned as king, instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of Jehovah, which he spake by the prophet Jeremiah. And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto Jehovah our God for us. Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison. And Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans that were besieging Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they brake up from Jerusalem. Then came the word of Jehovah unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that sent you unto me to inquire of me: Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city; and they shall take it, and burn it with fire. Thus saith Jehovah, Deceive not yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us; for they shall not depart. For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yea would they rise up every man in his tent, and 11 burn this city with fire. And it came to pass that, when the 12 army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear 13 of Pharaoh's army, then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive his portion there, 14 in the midst of the people. And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he laid hold on Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou art falling away to 15 the Chaldeans. Then said Jeremiah, It is false; I am not falling away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him; so Irijah 16 laid hold on Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes. And the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made 17 that the prison. When Jeremiah was come into the dungeonhouse, and into the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many 18 days; Then Zedekiah the king sent, and fetched him: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from Jehovah? And Jeremiah said, There is. He said also, Thou 19 shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon. Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, Wherein have I sinned against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that 20 ye have put me in prison? Where now are your prophets that prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land? And now hear, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be presented before thee, that thou cause me not to return to the house of 21 Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there. Then Zedekiah the king commanded, and they committed Jeremiah into the court of the guard; and they gave him daily a loaf of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

38 And Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchijah, heard the words that Jeremiah spake unto all the 2 people, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, He that abideth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live, and his life shall 3 be unto him for a prey, and he shall live. Thus saith Jehovah, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it. Then the princes said unto 4 the king, Let this man, we pray thee, be put to death; forasmuch as he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt. And Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in 5 your hand; for the king is not he that can do anything against you. Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon 6 of Malchijah the king's son, that was in the court of the guard: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire; and Jeremiah sank in the mire.

Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, a eunuch, who was in the 7 king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin,) Ebed-melech 8 went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying, My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have 9 done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is like to die in the place where he is, because of the famine; for there is no more bread in the city. Then the 10 king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die. So Ebed-melech took the 11 men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence rags and worn-out garments, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah. And Ebed- 12 melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these rags and worn-out garments under thine armholes under the cords.
And Jeremiah did so. So they drew up Jeremiah with the cords, 13 and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard. Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took 14 Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the house of Jehovah: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me. Then Jeremiah said 15 unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, thou wilt not hearken unto me. So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, 16 saying, As Jehovah liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life. Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus 17 saith Jehovah, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: If thou wilt go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt 18 live, and thy house. But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt 19 not escape out of their hand. And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen away to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock 20 me. But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of Jehovah, in that which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well with thee, and thy soul shall live. But 21 if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that Jehovah hath showed me: behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's 22 princes, and those women shall say, Thy familiar friends have set thee on, and have prevailed over thee: now that thy feet are 23 sunk in the mire, they are turned away back. And they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans; and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city 24 to be burned with fire. Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die. But if 25 the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king; hide it not from us, and we will not 26 put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee: then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die 27 there. Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him; and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter 28 was not perceived. So Jeremiah abode in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

39 And it came to pass when Jerusalem was taken, (in the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, 2 and besieged it; in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city,) that all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat 3 in the middle gate, to wit, Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon. And it came to pass that, 4 when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, through the gate betwixt the two walls; and he went out toward the Arabah. But the army of 5 the Chaldeans pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment upon him. Then the king 6 of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah. Moreover 7 he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, 8 and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem. Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard car- 9 ried away captive into Babylon the residue of the people that remained in the city, the deserters also that fell away to him, and the residue of the people that remained. But Nebuzaradan 10 the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, that had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time. Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon 11 gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, saying, Take him, and look well to him, and do him 12 no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee. So 13 Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushazban, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon; they sent, and took Jeremiah out 14 of the court of the guard, and committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people. Now the word of Jehovah 15 came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the guard, saying, Go, and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, 16 saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished before thee in that day. But I 17 will deliver thee in that day, saith Jehovah; and thou shalt not 18 be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid. For I will surely save thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee; because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith Jehovah.

40 The word which came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, after that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, that were carried away captive unto Babylon. And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, Jehovah thy God pronounced this evil upon this place; and Jehovah hath brought it, and done according as he spake: because ye have sinned against Jehovah, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you. And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which are upon thy hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will look well unto thee; but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the land is before thee; whither it seemeth good and right unto thee to go, thither go. Now while he was not yet gone back, Go back then, said he, to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wheresoever it seemeth right unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a present, and let him go.

6 Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land. Now when all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poorest of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon; then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, to wit, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men. And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand before the Chaldeans that shall come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine and summer fruits and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken. Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the children of Ammon, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; then all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much. Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, and said unto him, Dost thou know that Baalis the king of the children of Ammon hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take thy life? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not. Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he take thy life, that all the Jews that are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing; for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

Now it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed royal and one of the chief officers of the king, and ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah. Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, to wit, with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, the men of war. And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it, that there came men from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with meal-offerings and frankincense in their hand, to bring them to the house of 6 Jehovah. And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah 7 the son of Ahikam. And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that 8 were with him. But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not; for we have stores hidden in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he 9 forbore, and slew them not among their brethren. Now the pit wherein Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had slain, by the side of Gedaliah (the same was that which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel,) Ishmael 10 the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain. Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to 11 go over to the children of Ammon. But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, 12 then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. Now it came to pass that, when all the people that were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and came back, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah. But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the children of Ammon.
16 Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, to wit, the men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, 17 whom he had brought back from Gibeon: and they departed, and dwelt in Geruth Chimham, which is by Beth-lehem, to go 18 to enter into Egypt, because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor over the land.

Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshai, and all the people from the least even unto the greatest, came near, and said unto Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we pray thee, our supplication be presented before thee, and pray for us unto Jehovah thy God, even for all this remnant; for we are left but a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us: that Jehovah thy God may show us the way wherein we should walk, and the thing that we should do. Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto Jehovah your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass that whatsoever thing Jehovah shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will keep nothing back from you. Then they said to Jeremiah, Jehovah be a true and faithful witness amongst us, if we do not according to all the word wherewith Jehovah thy God shall send thee to us. Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of Jehovah our God, to whom we send thee; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of Jehovah our God. And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of Jehovah came unto Jeremiah. Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, and said unto them, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him: If ye will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you. Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith Jehovah: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. And I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land. But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land; so that ye obey not the voice of Jehovah your God, saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell: now therefore hear ye the word of Jehovah, O remnant of Judah:

Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, If ye indeed set 16 your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there; then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye fear, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, whereof ye are afraid, shall follow hard after you there in Egypt; and there ye 17 shall die. So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there: they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; and none of them shall 18 remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them. For thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: As mine anger and my wrath hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so shall my wrath be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt; and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see 19 this place no more. Jehovah hath spoken concerning you, O remnant of Judah, Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I 20 have testified unto you this day. For ye have dealt deceitfully against your own souls; for ye sent me unto Jehovah your God, saying, Pray for us unto Jehovah our God; and according unto all that Jehovah our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we 21 will do it: and I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah your God in anything for which 22 he hath sent me unto you. Now therefore know certainly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go to sojourn there.

43 And it came to pass that, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of Jehovah their God, wherewith Jehovah their God had sent him to them, even 2 all these words, then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: Jehovah our God hath not sent 3 thee to say, Ye shall not go into Egypt to sojourn there; but Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to 4 death, and carry us away captive to Babylon. So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of Jehovah, to dwell in the land of 5 Judah. But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all the nations whither they had been driven, to sojourn in the land of Judah; the men, and the women, and the children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah; and they came into the land of Egypt; for they obeyed not the voice of Jehovah: and they came unto Tahpanhes. Then came the word of Jehovah unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, Take great stones in thy hand, and hide them in mortar in the brickwork, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah; and say unto them, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. And he shall come, and shall smite the land of Egypt; such as are for death shall be given to death, and such as are for captivity to captivity, and such as are for the sword to the sword. And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captive: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace. He shall also break the pillars of Beth-shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of Egypt shall he burn with fire.

The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews that dwelt in the land of Egypt, that dwelt at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Memphis, and in the country of Pathros, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein, because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, that they knew not, neither they, nor ye, nor your fathers. Howbeit I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate. But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods. Wherefore my wrath and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted 7 and desolate, as it is this day. Therefore now thus saith Jehovah, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your own souls, to cut off from you man and woman, infant and suckling, out of the midst of Judah, to 8 leave you none remaining; in that ye provoke me unto anger with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye are gone to sojourn; that ye may be cut off, and that ye may be a curse and a reproach among 9 all the nations of the earth? Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives which they committed in the land of 10 Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? They are not humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your 11 fathers. Therefore thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, even to cut 12 off all Judah. And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed; in the land of Egypt shall they fall; they shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine; they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be an execration, and an astonish-13 ment, and a curse, and a reproach. For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by 14 the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; so that none of the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or be left, to return into the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return to dwell there: 15 for none shall return save such as shall escape. Then all the men who knew that their wives burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great assembly, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered 16 Jeremiah, saying, As for the word that thou hast spoken unto 17 us in the name of Jehovah, we will not hearken unto thee. But we will certainly perform every word that is gone forth out of our mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil. But since we left off burning incense to the queen of heaven, and pouring out drink-offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink-offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink-offerings unto her, without our husbands? Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, even to all the people that had given him that answer, saying, The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, did not Jehovah remember them, and came it not into his mind? so that Jehovah could not longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land become a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is this day. Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against Jehovah, and have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as it is this day. Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of Jehovah, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt: Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and with your hands have fulfilled it, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her: establish then your vows, and perform your vows. Therefore hear ye the word of Jehovah, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by my great name, saith Jehovah, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, As the Lord Jehovah liveth. Behold, I watch over them for evil, and not for good; and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them. And they that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose word shall stand, mine, or theirs.

29 And this shall be the sign unto you, saith Jehovah, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall 30 surely stand against you for evil: Thus saith Jehovah, Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy, and sought his life.

45 The word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he wrote these word in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, 2 king of Judah, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, 3 unto thee, O Baruch: Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for Jehovah hath added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my 4 groaning, and I find no rest. Thus shalt thou say unto him, Thus saith Jehovah: Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up; and this 5 in the whole land. And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not; for, behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith Jehovah; but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

46 The word of Jehovah which came to Jeremiah the prophet 2 concerning the nations. Of Egypt: concerning the army of Pharaoh-neco king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the 3 fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah. Prepare ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle. Harness the horses, and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your 4 helmets; furbish the spears, put on the coats of mail. Wherefore have I seen it? they are dismayed and are turned backward; and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and 5 look not back: terror is on every side, saith Jehovah. Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; in the north by 6 the river Euphrates have they stumbled and fallen. Who is this that riseth up like the Nile, whose waters toss themselves like 7 the rivers? Egypt riseth up like the Nile, and his waters toss themselves like the rivers: and he saith, I will rise up, I will cover 8 the earth; I will destroy cities and the inhabitants thereof. Go up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men go forth: Cush and Put, that handle the shield; and the Ludim, that handle and bend the bow. For that day is a day of the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour and be satiate, and shall drink its fill of their blood; for the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates. Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin daughter of Egypt: in vain dost thou use many medicines; there is no healing for thee. The nations have heard of thy shame, and the earth is full of thy cry; for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, they are fallen both of them together. The word that Jehovah spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt. Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Memphis and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand forth, and prepare thee; for the sword hath devoured round about thee. Why are thy strong ones swept away? they stood not, because Jehovah did drive them. He made many to stumble, yea, they fell one upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword. They cried there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath let the appointed time pass by. As I live, saith the King, whose name is Jehovah of hosts, surely like Tabor among the mountains, and like Carmel by the sea, so shall he come. O thou daughter that dwellest in Egypt, furnish thyself to go into captivity; for Memphis shall become a desolation, and shall be burnt up, without inhabitant. Egypt is a very fair heifer; but destruction out of the north is come, it is come. Also her hired men in the midst of her are like calves of the stall; for they also are turned back, they are fled away together, they did not stand: for the day of their calamity is come upon them, the time of their visitation. The sound thereof shall go like the serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood. They shall cut down her forest, saith Jehovah, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the locusts, and are innumerable. The daughter of Egypt shall be put to shame; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north. Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, saith: Behold, I will punish Amon of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with her gods, and her kings; even Pharaoh, and them that trust in 26 him: and I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants; and afterwards it shall be 27 inhabited, as in the days of old, saith Jehovah. But fear not thou, O Jacob my servant, neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, 28 and none shall make him afraid. Fear not thou, O Jacob my servant, saith Jehovah; for I am with thee: for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee; but I will not make a full end of thee, but I will correct thee in measure, and will in no wise leave thee unpunished.

47 The word of Jehovah that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines, before that Pharaoh smote Gaza. Thus saith Jehovah: Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall become an overflowing stream, and shall overflow the land and all that is therein, the city and them that dwell therein; and the 3 men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall wail. At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong ones, at the rushing of his chariots, at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers 4 look not back to their children for feebleness of hands; because of the day that cometh to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper that remaineth: for Jehovah will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the isle of Caphtor.
5 Baldness is come upon Gaza; Ashkelon is brought to nought, 6 the remnant of their valley: how long wilt thou cut thyself? O thou sword of Jehovah, how long will it be ere thou be quiet?
7 put up thyself into thy scabbard; rest, and be still. How canst thou be quiet, seeing Jehovah hath given thee a charge? Against Ashkelon, and against the sea-shore, there hath he appointed it.

48 Of Moab. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Woe unto Nebo! for it is laid waste; Kiriathaim is put to shame, it is 2 taken; Misgab is put to shame and broken down. The praise of Moab is no more; in Heshbon they have devised evil against her: Come, and let us cut her off from being a nation. Thou also, O Madmen, shalt be brought to silence: the sword shall pursue 3 thee. The sound of a cry from Horonaim, desolation and great destruction! Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. For by the ascent of Luhith with continual weeping shall they go up; for at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distress of the cry of destruction. Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness. For, because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures, thou also shalt be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity, his priests and his princes together. And the destroyer shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape; the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed; as Jehovah hath spoken. Give wings unto Moab, that she may fly and get her away: and her cities shall become a desolation, without any to dwell therein. Cursed be he that doeth the work of Jehovah negligently; and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood. Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remaineth in him, and his scent is not changed. Therefore, behold, the days come, saith Jehovah, that I will send unto him them that pour off, and they shall pour him off; and they shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles in pieces. And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Beth-el their confidence. How say ye, We are mighty men, and valiant men for the war? Moab is laid waste, and they are gone up into his cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the King, whose name is Jehovah of hosts. The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast. All ye that are round about him, bemoan him, and all ye that know his name; say, How is the strong staff broken, the beautiful rod! O thou daughter that dwellest in Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the destroyer of Moab is come up against thee, he hath destroyed thy strongholds. O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and watch: ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth; say, What hath been done? Moab is put to shame; for it is broken down: wail and cry; tell ye it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste.

And judgment is come upon the plain country, upon Holon, and upon Jahzah, and upon Mephaath, and upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim, and upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon, and upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far 25 or near. The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, 26 saith Jehovah. Make ye him drunken; for he magnified himself against Jehovah: and Moab shall wallow in his vomit, and he also 27 shall be in derision. For was not Israel a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for as often as thou speakest of him, 28 thou waggest the head. O ye inhabitants of Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock; and be like the dove that maketh her 29 nest over the mouth of the abyss. We have heard of the pride of Moab, that he is very proud; his loftiness, and his pride, and his 30 arrogancy, and the haughtiness of his heart. I know his wrath, saith Jehovah, that it is nought; his boastings have wrought 31 nothing. Therefore will I wail for Moab; yea, I will cry out for 32 all Moab: for the men of Kir-heres shall they mourn. With more than the weeping of Jazer will I weep for thee, O vine of Sibmah: thy branches passed over the sea, they reached even to the sea 33 of Jazer: upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage the destroyer is fallen. And gladness and joy is taken away from the fruitful field and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to cease from the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting; 34 the shouting shall be no shouting. From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, even unto Jahaz have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even unto Horonaim, to Eglath-shelishiyah: for the waters 35 of Nimrim also shall become desolate. Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith Jehovah, him that offereth in the high 36 place, and him that burneth incense to his gods. Therefore my heart soundeth for Moab like pipes, and my heart soundeth like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: therefore the abundance that 37 he hath gotten is perished. For every head is bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands are cuttings, and upon the 38 loins sackcloth. On all the housetops of Moab and in the streets thereof there is lamentation every where; for I have broken Moab 39 like a vessel wherein none delighteth, saith Jehovah. How is it broken down! how do they wail! how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab become a derision and a terror to all 40 that are round about him. For thus saith Jehovah: Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread out his wings against 41 Moab. Kerioth is taken, and the strongholds are seized, and the heart of the mighty men of Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. And Moab shall be destroyed 42 from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against Jehovah. Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O 43 inhabitant of Moab, saith Jehovah. He that fleeth from the 44 fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon him, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith Jehovah. They that 45 fled stand without strength under the shadow of Heshbon; for a fire is gone forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and hath devoured the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones. Woe unto thee, O Moab! 46 the people of Chemosh is undone; for thy sons are taken away captive, and thy daughters into captivity. Yet will I bring back 47 the captivity of Moab in the latter days, saith Jehovah. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

Of the children of Ammon. Thus saith Jehovah: Hath Israel 49 no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth Malcam possess Gad, and his people dwell in the cities thereof? Therefore, behold, 2 the days come, saith Jehovah, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the children of Ammon; and it shall become a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel possess them that did possess him, saith Jehovah. Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste; cry, ye 3 daughters of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth: lament, and run to and fro among the fences; for Malcam shall go into captivity, his priests and his princes together. Wherefore gloriest thou 4 in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me? Be- 5 hold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, from all that are round about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth, and there shall be none to gather together the fugitives. But afterward I will bring back the cap- 6 tivity of the children of Ammon, saith Jehovah. Of Edom. Thus 7 saith Jehovah of hosts: Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished? Flee ye, 8 turn back, dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I shall visit him. If grape-gatherers came to thee, would they not leave some 9 gleaning grapes? if thieves by night, would they not destroy till 10 they had enough? But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is destroyed, and his brethren, and his neighbors; and he is 11 not. Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; 12 and let thy widows trust in me. For thus saith Jehovah: Behold, they to whom it pertained not to drink of the cup shall assuredly drink; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou 13 shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink. For I have sworn by myself, saith Jehovah, that Bozrah shall become an astonishment, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities 14 thereof shall be perpetual wastes. I have heard tidings from Jehovah, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, Gather yourselves together, and come against her, and rise up 15 to the battle. For, behold, I have made thee small among the nations, and despised among men. As for thy terribleness, the pride of thy heart hath deceived thee, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: though thou 16 shouldest make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith Jehovah. And Edom shall become an astonishment: every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, 17 and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof. As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities thereof, saith Jehovah, no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man 18 sojourn therein. Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoso is chosen, him will I appoint over it: for who is like me? and who will appoint me a time? and who is the shepherd that will stand before me?

19 Therefore hear ye the counsel of Jehovah, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely they shall drag them away, even the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them.
20 The earth trembleth at the noise of their fall; there is a cry, the noise whereof is heard in the Red 21 Sea. Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread out his wings against Bozrah: and the heart of the mighty men of Edom at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.
22 Of Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil tidings, they are melted away: there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet. Damascus is waxed feeble, she turneth herself to flee, and trembling hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in travail. How is the city of praise not forsaken, the city of my joy? Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be brought to silence in that day, saith Jehovah of hosts.

And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad. Of Kedar, and of the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote.
Thus saith Jehovah: Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and destroy the children of the east. Their tents and their flocks shall they take; they shall carry away for themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, Terror on every side! Flee ye, wander far off, dwell in the depths, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith Jehovah; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you. Arise, get you up unto a nation that is at ease, that dwelleth without care, saith Jehovah; that have neither gates nor bars, that dwell alone. And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will scatter unto all winds them that have the corners of their hair cut off; and I will bring their calamity from every side of them, saith Jehovah. And Hazor shall be a dwelling-place of jackals, a desolation for ever: no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man sojourn therein. The word of Jehovah that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might. And upon Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither the outcasts of Elam shall not come. And I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life; and I will bring evil upon them, even my fierce anger, saith Jehovah; and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them; and I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from thence king and princes, saith Jehovah. But it shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring back the captivity of Elam, saith Jehovah.

50 The word that Jehovah spake concerning Babylon, concerning 2 the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet. Declare ye among the nations and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is put to shame, Merodach is dismayed; her images are put to shame, her idols 3 are dismayed. For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they are fled, they are gone, both man and beast.
4 In those days, and in that time, saith Jehovah, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together; they shall go on their way weeping, and shall seek Jehovah their God.
5 They shall inquire concerning Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come ye, and join yourselves to Jehovah in an everlasting 6 covenant that shall not be forgotten. My people have been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray; they have turned them away on the mountains; they have gone from 7 mountain to hill; they have forgotten their resting-place. All that found them have devoured them; and their adversaries said, We are not guilty, because they have sinned against Jehovah, the habitation of righteousness, even Jehovah, the hope of their 8 fathers. Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he-goats before the 9 flocks. For, lo, I will stir up and cause to come up against Babylon a company of great nations from the north country; and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of an expert mighty 10 man; none shall return in vain. And Chaldea shall be a prey: 11 all that prey upon her shall be satisfied, saith Jehovah. Because ye are glad, because ye rejoice, O ye that plunder my heritage, because ye are wanton as a heifer that treadeth out the grain, 12 and neigh as strong horses; your mother shall be utterly put to shame; she that bare you shall be confounded: behold, she shall be the hindermost of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land, 13 and a desert. Because of the wrath of Jehovah she shall not be inhabited, but she shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.
14 Set yourselves in array against Babylon round about, all ye that bend the bow; shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned 15 against Jehovah. Shout against her round about: she hath submitted herself; her bulwarks are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of Jehovah: take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her. Cut off the sower from 16 Babylon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land. Israel is 17 hunted sheep; the lions have driven him away: first, the king of Assyria devoured him; and now at last Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones. Therefore thus saith Jehovah 18 of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. And I will bring Israel again to his pasture, and he shall feed 19 on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead. In those days, and in that time, 20 saith Jehovah, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant. Go 21 up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: slay and utterly destroy after them, saith Jehovah, and do according to all that I have commanded thee. A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. 22 How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! 23 how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! I have 24 laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against Jehovah. Jehovah hath opened his 25 armory, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation; for the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, hath a work to do in the land of the Chaldeans. Come against her from the utmost border; open 26 her store-houses; cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly; let nothing of her be left. Slay all her bullocks; let them go down 27 to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation. The voice of them that flee and escape out of 28 the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of Jehovah our God, the vengeance of his temple. Call together the archers 29 against Babylon, all them that bend the bow; encamp against her round about; let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her; for she hath been proud against Jehovah, against the Holy One 30 of Israel. Therefore shall her young men fall in her streets, and all her men of war shall be brought to silence in that day, 31 saith Jehovah. Behold, I am against thee, O thou proud one, saith the Lord, Jehovah of hosts; for thy day is come, the time 32 that I will visit thee. And the proud one shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up; and I will kindle a fire in his 33 cities, and it shall devour all that are round about him. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: The children of Israel and the children of Judah are oppressed together; and all that took them captive 34 hold them fast; they refuse to let them go. Their Redeemer is strong; Jehovah of hosts is his name: he will thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, and disquiet the 35 inhabitants of Babylon. A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith Jehovah, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her 36 princes, and upon her wise men. A sword is upon the boasters, and they shall become fools; a sword is upon her mighty men, 37 and they shall be dismayed. A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword 38 is upon her treasures, and they shall be robbed. A drought is upon her waters, and they shall be dried up; for it is a land of 39 graven images, and they are mad over idols. Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wolves shall dwell there, and the ostriches shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities thereof, saith Jehovah, so shall no man dwell there, neither 41 shall any son of man sojourn therein. Behold, a people cometh from the north; and a great nation and many kings shall be 42 stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, every one set in array, as a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of 43 Babylon. The king of Babylon hath heard the tidings of them, and his hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of him, and 44 pangs as of a woman in travail. Behold, the enemy shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoso is chosen, him will I appoint over it: for who is like me?

and who will appoint me a time? and who is the shepherd that can stand before me? Therefore hear ye the counsel of Jehovah, 45 that he hath taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely they shall drag them away, even the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them. At the noise of 46 the taking of Babylon the earth trembleth, and the cry is heard among the nations.

Thus saith Jehovah: Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, 51 and against them that dwell in Leb-kamai, a destroying wind.
And I will send unto Babylon strangers, that shall winnow her; 2 and they shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about. Against him that bendeth let 3 the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his coat of mail: and spare ye not her young men; destroy ye utterly all her host. And they shall fall down slain in the land of 4 the Chaldeans, and thrust through in her streets. For Israel is 5 not forsaken, nor Judah, of his God, of Jehovah of hosts; though their land is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel. Flee 6 out of the midst of Babylon, and save every man his life; be not cut off in her iniquity: for it is the time of Jehovah's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompense. Babylon hath been a 7 golden cup in Jehovah's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunk of her wine; therefore the nations are mad. Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: wail for her; 8 take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed. We would 9 have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country; for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies. Jehovah hath 10 brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of Jehovah our God. Make sharp the arrows; hold firm 11 the shields: Jehovah hath stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes; because his purpose is against Babylon, to destroy it: for it is the vengeance of Jehovah, the vengeance of his temple.
Set up a standard against the walls of Babylon, make the watch 12 strong, set the watchmen, prepare the ambushes; for Jehovah hath both purposed and done that which he spake concerning the inhabitants of Babylon. O thou that dwellest upon many 13 waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, the measure of 14 thy covetousness. Jehovah of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with the canker-worm; and 15 they shall lift up a shout against thee. He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and 16 by his understanding hath he stretched out the heavens: when he uttereth his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain, and bringeth forth the 17 wind out of his treasures. Every man is become brutish and is without knowledge; every goldsmith is put to shame by his image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath 18 in them. They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of 19 their visitation they shall perish. The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the 20 tribe of his inheritance: Jehovah of hosts is his name. Thou art my battle-axe and weapons of war: and with thee will I break in 21 pieces the nations; and with thee will I destroy kingdoms; and 22 with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and him that rideth therein; and with thee will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces the old man and the youth; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the vir-23 gin; and with thee will I break in pieces the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces governors 24 and deputies. And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion 25 in your sight, saith Jehovah. Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith Jehovah, which destroyest all the earth; and I will stretch out my hand upon thee, and roll thee down 26 from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountain. And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith Jehovah.

27 Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz: appoint a marshal against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough 28 canker-worm. Prepare against her the nations, the kings of the Medes, the governors thereof, and all the deputies thereof, and all the land of their dominion. And the land trembleth and is 29 in pain; for the purposes of Jehovah against Babylon do stand, to make the land of Babylon a desolation, without inhabitant.

The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they remain 30 in their strongholds; their might hath failed; they are become as women: her dwelling-places are set on fire; her bars are broken.
One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet 31 another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on every quarter: and the passages are seized, and the reeds they 32 have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted. For 33 thus saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing-floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while, and the time of harvest shall come for her.
Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath 34 crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath, like a monster, swallowed me up, he hath filled his maw with my delicacies; he hath cast me out. The violence done to me and to 35 my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and, My blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say. Therefore thus saith Jehovah: Behold, I will plead thy 36 cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her fountain dry. And Babylon shall become heaps, a 37 dwelling-place for jackals, an astonishment, and a hissing, without inhabitant. They shall roar together like young lions; they 38 shall growl as lions' whelps. When they are heated, I will make 39 their feast, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith Jehovah. I will 40 bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats. How is Sheshach taken! and the praise of the whole earth 41 seized! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!
The sea is come up upon Babylon; she is covered with the multi- 42 tude of the waves thereof. Her cities are become a desolation, a 43 dry land, and a desert, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby. And I will execute judgment 44 upon Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up; and the nations shall not flow any more unto him: yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall. My people, 45 go ye out of the midst of her, and save yourselves every man from the fierce anger of Jehovah. And let not your heart faint, 46 neither fear ye for the tidings that shall be heard in the land; for tidings shall come one year, and after that in another year shall come tidings, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will execute judgment upon the graven images of Babylon; and her whole land shall be

48 confounded; and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her. Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for joy over Babylon; for the destroyers shall come unto her from 49 the north, saith Jehovah. As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the land.

50 Ye that have escaped the sword, go ye, stand not still; remember

51 Jehovah from afar, and let Jerusalem come into your mind. We are confounded, because we have heard reproach; confusion hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of 52 Jehovah's house. Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith Jehovah, that I will execute judgment upon her graven images; and

53 through all her land the wounded shall groan. Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall destroyers come unto 54 her, saith Jehovah. The sound of a cry from Babylon, and of 55 great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans! For Jehovah layeth Babylon waste, and destroyeth out of her the great voice; and their waves roar like many waters; the noise of their voice is 56 uttered: for the destroyer is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, their bows are broken in pieces;

57 for Jehovah is a God of recompenses, he will surely requite. And I will make drunk her princes and her wise men, her governors and her deputies, and her mighty men; and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the King, whose name is

58 Jehovah of hosts. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly overthrown, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the peoples shall labor for vanity, and

59 the nations for the fire; and they shall be weary. The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriaiah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah

60 was chief chamberlain. And Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that 61 are written concerning Babylon. And Jeremiah said to Seraiah,

When thou comest to Babylon, then see that thou read all these words, and say, O Jehovah, thou hast spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that none shall dwell therein, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever. And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of the Euphrates: and thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise again because of the evil that I will bring upon her; and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. And he did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. For through the anger of Jehovah did it come to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about. So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. In the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were against the city round about;) and they went toward the Arabah. But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment upon him. And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah. And he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death. Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, who stood before the king of Babylon, into 13 Jerusalem: and he burned the house of Jehovah, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, 14 burned he with fire. And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of 15 Jerusalem round about. Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the poorest of the people, and the residue of the people that were left in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the 16 multitude. But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the 17 poorest of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen. And the pillars of brass that were in the house of Jehovah, and the bases and the brazen sea that were in the house of Jehovah, did the Chaldeans break in pieces, and carried all the brass of them 18 to Babylon. The pots also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass where-19 with they ministered, took they away. And the cups, and the firepans, and the basins, and the pots, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the bowls – that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver, – the captain of the guard took 20 away. The two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve brazen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made for the house of Jehovah – the brass of all these vessels was without 21 weight. And as for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a line of twelve cubits did compass it; and 22 the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow. And a capital of brass was upon it; and the height of the one capital was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the capital round about, all of brass: and the second pillar also had like 23 unto these, and pomegranates. And there were ninety and six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were a hundred 24 upon the network round about. And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, 25 and the three keepers of the threshold: and out of the city he took an officer that was set over the men of war; and seven men of them that saw the king's face, that were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that 26 were found in the midst of the city. And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. And the king of Babylon smote them, and 27 put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land. This is the people 28 whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand Jews and three and twenty; in the eighteenth 29 year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two persons; in the three and twen- 30 tieth year of Nebuchadrezzar Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the cap- 31 tivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison; and he spake kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne 32 of the kings that were with him in Babylon, and changed his 33 prison garments. And Jehoiachin did eat bread before him continually all the days of his life: and for his allowance, there was 34 a continual allowance given him by the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

THE LAMENTATIONS OF JEREMIAH.

1 Now doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people!
She is become as a widow, that was great among the nations! She that was a princess among the provinces 2 is become tributary! She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; Among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: All her friends have dealt treacherously 3 with her; they are become her enemies. Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude; She dwelleth among the nations, she findeth no rest: All her 4 persecutors overtook her within the straits. The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn assembly; All her gates are desolate, her priests do sigh: Her virgins are afflicted, 5 and she herself is in bitterness. Her adversaries are become the head, her enemies prosper; For Jehovah hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: Her young children are gone 6 into captivity before the adversary. And from the daughter of Zion all her majesty is departed: Her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, And they are gone without strength 7 before the pursuer. Jerusalem remembereth in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that were from the days of old: When her people fell into the hand of the adversary, and none did help her, The adversaries saw her, they 8 did mock at her desolations. Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is become as an unclean thing; All that honored her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: Yea, she 9 sigheth, and turneth backward. Her filthiness was in her skirts; she remembered not her latter end; Therefore is she come down wonderfully; she hath no comforter: Behold, O Jehovah, my af-10 fliction; for the enemy hath magnified himself. The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: For she hath seen that the nations are entered into her sanctuary, Concerning whom thou didst command that they should not enter into thine assembly. All her people sigh, they seek bread; They 11 have given their pleasant things for food to refresh the soul: See, O Jehovah, and behold; for I am become abject. Is it nothing 12 to you, all ye that pass by? Behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is brought upon me, Wherewith Jehovah hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger. From 13 on high hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaieth against them; He hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back: He hath made me desolate and faint all the day. The yoke of 14 my transgressions is bound by his hand; They are knit together, they are come up upon my neck; He hath made my strength to fail: The Lord hath delivered me into their hands, against whom I am not able to stand. The Lord hath set at nought all my 15 mighty men in the midst of me; He hath called a solemn assembly against me to crush my young men: The Lord hath trodden as in a winepress the virgin daughter of Judah. For these things 16 I weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water; Because the comforter that should refresh my soul is far from me: My children are desolate, because the enemy hath prevailed. Zion 17 spreadeth forth her hands; there is none to comfort her; Jehovah hath commanded concerning Jacob, that they that are round about him should be his adversaries: Jerusalem is among them as an unclean thing. Jehovah is righteous; for I have rebelled 18 against his commandment: Hear, I pray you, all ye peoples, and behold my sorrow: My virgins and my young men are gone into captivity. I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: My 19 priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, While they sought them food to refresh their souls. Behold, O Jehovah; for 20 I am in distress; my heart is troubled; My heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: Abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death. They have heard that I sigh; there 21 is none to comfort me; all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: Thou wilt bring the day that thou hast proclaimed, and they shall be like unto me.

Let all their wickedness come before thee; And do unto them, as 22 thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions: For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

How hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud 2 in his anger! He hath cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, And hath not remembered his footstool 2 in the day of his anger. The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: He hath thrown down in his wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah; He hath brought them down to the ground; he hath profaned the kingdom 3 and the princes thereof. He hath cut off in fierce anger all the horn of Israel; He hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy: And he hath burned up Jacob like a flaming fire, which 4 devoureth round about. He hath bent his bow like an enemy, he hath stood with his right hand as an adversary, And hath slain all that were pleasant to the eye: In the tent of the daughter of 5 Zion he hath poured out his wrath like fire. The Lord is become as an enemy, he hath swallowed up Israel; He hath swallowed up all her palaces, he hath destroyed his strongholds; And he hath multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden; he hath destroyed his place of assembly: Jehovah hath caused solemn assembly and sabbath to be forgotten in Zion, And hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and 7 the priest. The Lord hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary; He hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces: They have made a noise in the house of 8 Jehovah, as in the day of a solemn assembly. Jehovah hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion; He hath stretched out the line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying; And he hath made the rampart and wall to lament; 9 they languish together. Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: Her king and her princes are among the nations where the law is not; Yea, her prophets find 10 no vision from Jehovah. The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, they keep silence; They have cast up dust upon their heads; They have girded themselves with sackcloth: The 11 virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground. Mine eyes do fail with tears, my heart is troubled; My liver is poured upon the earth, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, Because the young children and the sucklings swoon 12 in the streets of the city. They say to their mothers, Where is grain and wine? When they swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city, When their soul is poured out into their mothers' bosom. What shall I testify unto thee? what shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? What shall I compare to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? For thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee? Thy prophets have seen for thee false and foolish visions; And they have not uncovered thine iniquity, to bring back thy captivity, But have seen for thee false oracles and causes of banishment. All that pass by clap their hands at thee; They hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men called The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth? All thine enemies have opened their mouth wide against thee; They hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, We have swallowed her up; Certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it. Jehovah hath done that which he purposed; He hath fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old; He hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: And he hath caused the enemy to rejoice over thee; He hath exalted the horn of thine adversaries. Their heart cried unto the Lord: O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night; Give thyself no respite; let not the apple of thine eye cease. Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches; Pour out thy heart like water before the face of the Lord: Lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger at the head of every street. See, O Jehovah, and behold to whom thou hast done thus! Shall the women eat their fruit, the children that are dandled in the hands? Shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord? The youth and the old man lie on the ground in the streets; My virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword: Thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; Thou hast slaughtered, and not pitied. Thou hast called, as in the day of a solemn assembly, my terrors on every side; And there was none that escaped or remained in the day of Jehovah's anger: Those that I have dandled and brought up hath mine enemy consumed.

I am the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath. He hath led me and caused me to walk in darkness, and not in light. Surely against me he turneth his hand again and again all the day. My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath broken my bones. He hath builded against me, and compassed

6 me with gall and travail. He hath made me to dwell in dark 7 places, as those that have been long dead. He hath walled me about, that I cannot go forth; he hath made my chain heavy.
8 Yea, when I cry, and call for help, he shutteth out my prayer.
9 He hath walled up my ways with hewn stone; he hath made my 10 paths crooked. He is unto me as a bear lying in wait, as a lion 11 in secret places. He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled me 12 in pieces; he hath made me desolate. He hath bent his bow, 13 and set me as a mark for the arrow. He hath caused the shafts 14 of his quiver to enter into my reins. I am become a derision 15 to all my people, and their song all the day. He hath filled me 16 with bitterness, he hath sated me with wormwood. He hath also broken my teeth with gravel stones; he hath covered me 17 with ashes. And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace; 18 I forgot prosperity. And I said, My strength is perished, and 19 mine expectation from Jehovah. Remember mine affliction and 20 my misery, the wormwood and the gall. My soul hath them still 21 in remembrance, and is bowed down within me. This I recall 22 my mind; therefore have I hope. It is of Jehovah's lovingkind- 23, 24 nesses that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning; great is thy faithfulness. Jehovah is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him.
25 Jehovah is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that 26 seeketh him. It is good that a man should hope and quietly 27 wait for the salvation of Jehovah. It is good for a man that he 28 bear the yoke in his youth. Let him sit alone and keep silence, 29 because he hath laid it upon him. Let him put his mouth in 30 the dust, if so be there may be hope. Let him give his cheek to 31 him that smiteth him; let him be filled full with reproach. For 32 the Lord will not cast off for ever. For though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his 33 lovingkindnesses. For he doth not afflict willingly, nor grieve 34 the children of men. To crush under foot all the prisoners of 35 the earth, To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the 36 Most High, To subvert a man in his cause, the Lord approveth 37 not. Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the 38 Lord commandeth it not? Out of the mouth of the Most High 39 cometh there not evil and good? Wherefore doth a living man 40 complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to Jehovah. Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens. We have transgressed and have rebelled; thou hast not pardoned. Thou hast covered with anger and pursued us; thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied. Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, so that no prayer can pass through. Thou hast made us an off-scouring and refuse in the midst of the peoples. All our enemies have opened their mouth wide against us. Fear and the pit are come upon us, devastation and destruction. Mine eye runneth down with streams of water, for the destruction of the daughter of my people. Mine eye poureth down, and ceaseth not, without any intermission, Till Jehovah look down, and behold from heaven.

Mine eye affecteth my soul, because of all the daughters of my city. They have chased me sore like a bird, they that are mine enemies without cause. They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and have cast a stone upon me. Waters flowed over my head; I said, I am cut off. I called upon thy name, O Jehovah, out of the lowest dungeon. Thou heardest my voice; hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry. Thou drewest near in the day that I called upon thee; thou saidst, Fear not. O Lord, thou hast pleaded the causes of my soul; thou hast redeemed my life. O Jehovah, thou hast seen my wrong; judge thou my cause. Thou hast seen all their vengeance and all their devices against me. Thou hast heard their reproach, O Jehovah, and all their devices against me, The lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day. Behold thou their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their song. Thou wilt render unto them a recompense, O Jehovah, according to the work of their hands. Thou wilt give them hardness of heart, thy curse unto them. Thou wilt pursue them in anger, and destroy them from under the heavens of Jehovah.

How is the gold become dim! how is the most pure gold changed! The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the head of every street. The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, How are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter! Even the jackals draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: The daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness. The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst:

The young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto 5 them. They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: 6 They that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills. For the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom, That was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands 7 were laid upon her. Her nobles were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk; They were more ruddy in body than rubies, 8 their polishing was as of sapphire. Their visage is blacker than a coal; They are not known in the streets: Their skin cleaveth to 9 their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick. They that are slain with the sword are better than they that are slain with hunger; For these pine away, stricken through, for want of the 10 fruits of the field. The hands of the pitiful women have boiled their own children; They were their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people. Jehovah hath accomplished his wrath, he hath poured out his fierce anger; And he hath kindled a fire in 12 Zion, which hath devoured the foundations thereof. The kings of the earth believed not, neither all the inhabitants of the world, That the adversary and the enemy would enter into the gates of 13 Jerusalem. It is because of the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, That have shed the blood of the just 14 in the midst of her. They wander as blind men in the streets, they are polluted with blood, So that men cannot touch their 15 garments. Depart ye, they cried unto them, Unclean! depart, depart, touch not! When they fled away and wandered, men said 16 among the nations, They shall no more sojourn here. The anger of Jehovah hath scattered them; He will no more regard them: They respected not the persons of the priests, they favored not 17 the elders. Our eyes do yet fail in looking for our vain help: In our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save.
18 They hunt our steps, so that we cannot go in our streets: Our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come. Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the heavens: They chased us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.
20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of Jehovah, was taken in their pits; Of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live 21 among the nations. Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz: The cup shall pass through unto thee also; thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter 22 of Zion; He will no more carry thee away into captivity: He will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will uncover thy sins.

Remember, O Jehovah, what is come upon us: Behold, and 5 see our reproach. Our inheritance is turned unto strangers, Our 2 houses unto aliens. We are orphans and fatherless; Our moth- 3 ers are as widows. We have drunken our water for money; Our 4 wood is sold unto us. Our pursuers are upon our necks: We are 5 weary, and have no rest. We have given the hand to the Egyp- 6 tians, And to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread. Our 7 fathers sinned, and are not; And we have borne their iniquities.
Servants rule over us: There is none to deliver us out of their 8 hand. We get our bread at the peril of our lives, Because of the 9 sword of the wilderness. Our skin is black like an oven, Because 10 of the burning heat of famine. They ravished the women in 11 Zion, The virgins in the cities of Judah. Princes were hanged 12 up by their hand: The faces of elders were not honored. The 13 young men bare the mill; And the children stumbled under the wood. The elders have ceased from the gate, The young men 14 from their music. The joy of our heart is ceased; Our dance is 15 turned into mourning. The crown is fallen from our head: Woe 16 unto us! for we have sinned. For this our heart is faint; For 17 these things our eyes are dim; For the mountain of Zion, which 18 is desolate: The foxes walk upon it. Thou, O Jehovah, abidest 19 for ever; Thy throne is from generation to generation. Where- 20 fore dost thou forget us for ever, And forsake us so long time?
Turn thou us unto thee, O Jehovah, and we shall be turned; Re- 21 new our days as of old. But thou hast utterly rejected us; Thou 22 art very wroth against us.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET EZEKIEL.

1 Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Chebar, that the heavens were 2 opened, and I saw visions of God. In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captiv-3 ity, the word of Jehovah came expressly unto Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; 4 and the hand of Jehovah was there upon him. And I looked, and, behold, a stormy wind came out of the north, a great cloud, with a fire infolding itself, and a brightness round about it, and out of the midst thereof as it were glowing metal, out of the midst 5 of the fire. And out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance: they had 6 the likeness of a man. And every one had four faces, and every 7 one of them had four wings. And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and 8 they sparkled like burnished brass. And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had 9 their faces and their wings thus: their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one 10 straight forward. As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a man; and they four had the face of a lion on the right side; and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; 11 they four had also the face of an eagle. And their faces and their wings were separate above; two wings of every one were 12 joined one to another, and two covered their bodies. And they went every one straight forward: whither the spirit was to go, 13 they went; they turned not when they went. As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches: the fire went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning. Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold, one wheel upon the earth beside the living creatures, for each of the four faces thereof. The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto a beryl: and they four had one likeness; and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel within a wheel. When they went, they went in their four directions: they turned not when they went. As for their rims, they were high and dreadful; and they four had their rims full of eyes round about. And when the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went; thither was the spirit to go: and the wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up beside them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. And over the head of the living creature there was the likeness of a firmament, like the terrible crystal to look upon, stretched forth over their heads above. And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two which covered on this side, and every one had two which covered on that side, their bodies. And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, a noise of tumult like the noise of a host: when they stood, they let down their wings. And there was a voice above the firmament that was over their heads: when they stood, they let down their wings. And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone; and upon the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the appearance of a man upon it above. And I saw as it were glowing metal, as the appearance of fire within it round about, from the appearance of his loins and upward; and from the appearance of his loins and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness round about him. As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of Jehovah. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

2 And he said unto me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I 2 will speak with thee. And the Spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet; and I heard him that 3 spake unto me. And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to nations that are rebellious, which have rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed 4 against me even unto this very day. And the children are impudent and stiffhearted: I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt 5 say unto them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah. And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet 6 among them. And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns are with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are 7 a rebellious house. And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are 8 most rebellious. But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy 9 mouth, and eat that which I give thee. And when I looked, behold, a hand was put forth unto me; and, lo, a roll of a book was 10 therein; And he spread it before me: and it was written within and without; and there were written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, eat that which thou findest; 2 eat this roll, and go, speak unto the house of Israel. So I opened 3 my mouth, and he caused me to eat the roll. And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it; and it was in my 4 mouth as honey for sweetness. And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my 5 words unto them. For thou art not sent to a people of a strange 6 speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel; not to many peoples of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, if I sent thee to them, 7 they would hearken unto thee. But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are of hard forehead and of a stiff heart. Behold, 8 I have made thy face hard against their faces, and thy forehead hard against their foreheads. As an adamant harder than flint 9 have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. Moreover he 10 said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thy heart, and hear with thine ears. And go, get 11 thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear. Then the 12 Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of Jehovah from his place. And I heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they 13 touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, even the noise of a great rushing. So the Spirit lifted me up, and 14 took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; and the hand of Jehovah was strong upon me. Then I came to 15 them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by the river Chebar, and to where they dwelt; and I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days. And it came to pass at the end of seven days, 16 that the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. 17 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou 18 givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thy hand. Yet 19 if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul. Again, when a righteous man doth 20 turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thy hand. Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous 21 man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he took warning; and thou hast delivered thy soul. And the hand of Jehovah was there upon me; and he said 22 unto me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with 23 thee. Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, the glory of Jehovah stood there, as the glory which I saw by 24 the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet; and he spake with me, and 25 said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thy house. But thou, son of man, behold, they shall lay bands upon thee, and shall bind 26 thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them: and I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover; for they 27 are a rebellious house. But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

4 Thou also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, 2 and portray upon it a city, even Jerusalem: and lay siege against it, and build forts against it, and cast up a mound against it; set camps also against it, and plant battering rams against it round 3 about. And take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face toward it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it.
4 This shall be a sign to the house of Israel. Moreover lie thou upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it; according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie 5 upon it, thou shalt bear their iniquity. For I have appointed the years of their iniquity to be unto thee a number of days, even three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity 6 of the house of Israel. And again, when thou hast accomplished these, thou shalt lie on thy right side, and shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah: forty days, each day for a year, have I 7 appointed it unto thee. And thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with thine arm uncovered; and thou shalt 8 prophesy against it. And, behold, I lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to the other, till thou 9 hast accomplished the days of thy siege. Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof; according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, even three hundred and ninety days, shalt thou eat thereof.

And thy food which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty 10 shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it. And thou 11 shalt drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin: from time to time shalt thou drink. And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, 12 and thou shalt bake it in their sight with dung that cometh out of man. And Jehovah said, Even thus shall the children of Israel 13 eat their bread unclean, among the nations whither I will drive them. Then said I, Ah Lord Jehovah! behold, my soul hath not 14 been polluted; for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn of beasts; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth. Then he said unto 15 me, See, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread thereon. Moreover he said unto me, 16 Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with fearfulness; and they shall drink water by measure, and in dismay: that they 17 may want bread and water, and be dismayed one with another, and pine away in their iniquity.

And thou, son of man, take thee a sharp sword; as a barber's 5 razor shalt thou take it unto thee, and shalt cause it to pass upon thy head and upon thy beard: then take thee balances to weigh, and divide the hair. A third part shalt thou burn 2 in the fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and thou shalt take a third part, and smite with the sword round about it; and a third part thou shalt scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. And 3 thou shalt take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy skirts. And of these again shalt thou take, and cast them into 4 the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; therefrom shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel. Thus saith the 5 Lord Jehovah: This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the midst of the nations, and countries are round about her. And she hath 6 rebelled against mine ordinances in doing wickedness more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries that are round about her; for they have rejected mine ordinances, and as for my statutes, they have not walked in them. Therefore 7 thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because ye are turbulent more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept mine ordinances, neither have done after the ordinances of the nations that are round about you; therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I, even I, am against thee; and I will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations. And I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations. Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments on thee; and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter unto all the winds. Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord Jehovah, surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, and I also will have no pity. A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee; and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and a third part I will scatter unto all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them. Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my wrath toward them to rest, and I shall be comforted; and they shall know that I, Jehovah, have spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished my wrath upon them. Moreover I will make thee a desolation and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by. So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments on thee in anger and in wrath, and in wrathful rebukes; (I, Jehovah, have spoken it;) when I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread; and I will send upon you famine and evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee; and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee: I, Jehovah, have spoken it.

6, 2 And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy unto them, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Jehovah: Thus saith the Lord Jehovah to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys: Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places. And your altars shall become desolate, and your 4 sun-images shall be broken; and I will cast down your slain men before your idols. And I will lay the dead bodies of the children 5 of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars. In all your dwelling-places the cities shall 6 be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your sun-images may be hewn down, and your works may be abolished. And the slain shall fall in the 7 midst of you, and ye shall know that I am Jehovah. Yet will 8 I leave a remnant, in that ye shall have some that escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries. And those of you that escape shall remember 9 me among the nations whither they shall be carried captive, how that I have been broken with their lewd heart, which hath departed from me, and with they eyes, which play the harlot after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

And they shall know that I am Jehovah: I have not said in 10 vain that I would do this evil unto them. Thus saith the Lord 11 Jehovah: Smite with thy hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas! because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel; for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and 12 he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my wrath upon them. And ye shall know that I am Jehovah, 13 when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the places where they offered sweet savor to all their idols. And I will 14 stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate and waste, from the wilderness toward Diblah, throughout all their habitations: and they shall know that I am Jehovah.

Moreover the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, And 7, 2 thou, son of man, thus saith the Lord Jehovah unto the land of Israel, An end: the end is come upon the four corners of the land.
Now is the end upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, 3 and will judge thee according to thy ways; and I will bring upon 4 thee all thine abominations. And mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity; but I will bring thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee: and ye shall 5 know that I am Jehovah. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: An 6 evil, an only evil; behold, it cometh. An end is come, the end 7 is come; it awaketh against thee; behold, it cometh. Thy doom is come unto thee, O inhabitant of the land: the time is come, the day is near, a day of tumult, and not of joyful shouting, 8 upon the mountains. Now will I shortly pour out my wrath upon thee, and accomplish mine anger against thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways; and I will bring upon thee all 9 thine abominations. And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will bring upon thee according to thy ways; and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee; and ye shall 10 know that I, Jehovah, do smite. Behold, the day, behold, it cometh: thy doom is gone forth; the rod hath blossomed, pride 11 hath budded. Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness; none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of their 12 wealth: neither shall there be eminency among them. The time is come, the day draweth near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the 13 seller mourn; for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof. For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they be yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, none shall return; neither shall any strengthen himself in the 14 iniquity of his life. They have blown the trumpet, and have made all ready; but none goeth to the battle; for my wrath is 15 upon all the multitude thereof. The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword: and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence 16 shall devour him. But those of them that escape shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of 17 them moaning, every one in his iniquity. All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water. They shall also 18 gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be as an unclean thing; their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of Jehovah: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it hath been the stumblingblock of their iniquity. As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and their detestable things therein: therefore have I made it unto them as an unclean thing. And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall profane it. My face will I turn also from them, and they shall profane my secret place; and robbers shall enter into it, and profane it. Make the chain; for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence. Wherefore I will bring the worst of the nations, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pride of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be profaned. Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none. Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumor shall be upon rumor; and they shall seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders. The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and according to their deserts will I judge them; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.

And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord Jehovah fell there upon me. Then I beheld, and, lo, a likeness as the appearance of fire; from the appearance of his loins and downward, fire; and from his loins and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as it were glowing metal. And he put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner court that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy. And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain. Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold, northward of the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. And he said unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel do commit here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but thou shalt 7 again see yet other great abominations. And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, a hole 8 in the wall. Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold, a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and see the wicked abominations 10 that they do here. So I went in and saw; and behold, every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed upon the wall round about.
11 And there stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel; and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, every man with his censer in his hand; and 12 the odor of the cloud of incense went up. Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in his chambers of imagery? for they say, Jehovah seeth us not; Jehovah hath forsaken the 13 land. He said also unto me, Thou shalt again see yet other 14 great abominations which they do. Then he brought me to the door of the gate of Jehovah's house which was toward the north; 15 and behold, there sat the women weeping for Tammuz. Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? thou shalt 16 again see yet greater abominations than these. And he brought me into the inner court of Jehovah's house; and behold, at the door of the temple of Jehovah, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of Jehovah, and their faces toward the east; and they 17 were worshipping the sun toward the east. Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the 18 branch to their nose. Therefore will I also deal in wrath; mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

9 Then he cried in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause ye them that have charge over the city to draw near, every man 2 with his destroying weapon in his hand. And behold, six men came from the way of the upper gate, which lieth toward the north, every man with his slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man in the midst of them clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side. And they went in, and stood beside the brazen altar. And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up 3 from the cherub, whereupon it was, to the threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side. And Jehovah said unto him, Go through 4 the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry over all the abominations that are done in the midst thereof. And 5 to the others he said in my hearing, Go ye through the city after him, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity; slay 6 utterly the old man, the young man and the virgin, and little children and women; but come not near any man upon whom is the mark: and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the old men that were before the house. And he said unto them, 7 Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and smote in the city. And it came to 8 pass, while they were smiting, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord Jehovah! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy wrath upon Jerusalem? Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of 9 Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of wresting of judgment: for they say, Jehovah hath forsaken the land, and Jehovah seeth not. And as for me 10 also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way upon their head. And behold, the man clothed 11 in linen, who had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

Then I looked, and behold, in the firmament that was over 10 the head of the cherubim there appeared above them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. And he spake unto the man clothed in linen, and said, Go in 2 between the whirling wheels, even under the cherub, and fill both thy hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight. Now the 3 cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. And the glory of Jehovah 4 mounted up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was 5 full of the brightness of Jehovah's glory. And the sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even to the outer court, as the 6 voice of God Almighty when he speaketh. And it came to pass, when he commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim, 7 that he went in, and stood beside a wheel. And the cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubim unto the fire that was between the cherubim, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed in linen, who took it and 8 went out. And there appeared in the cherubim the form of a 9 man's hand under their wings. And I looked, and behold, four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub, and another wheel beside another cherub; and the appearance of the 10 wheels was like unto a beryl stone. And as for their appearance, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been within a wheel.

11 When they went, they went in their four directions: they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they 12 followed it; they turned not as they went. And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they 13 four had. As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, 14 the whirling wheels. And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third face the face of a lion, and the fourth 15 the face of an eagle. And the cherubim mounted up: this is the living creature that I saw by the river Chebar. And when 16 the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the 17 wheels also turned not from beside them. When they stood, these stood; and when they mounted up, these mounted up with 18 them: for the spirit of the living creature was in them. And the glory of Jehovah went forth from over the threshold of the house, 19 and stood over the cherubim. And the cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight when they went forth, and the wheels beside them: and they stood at the door of the east gate of Jehovah's house; and the glory of the 20 God of Israel was over them above. This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim. Every one had four faces, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. And as for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw by the river Chebar, their appearances and themselves; they went every one straight forward.

Moreover the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate of Jehovah's house, which looketh eastward: and behold, at the door of the gate five and twenty men; and I saw in the midst of them Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. And he said unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise iniquity, and that give wicked counsel in this city; that say, The time is not near to build houses: this city is the caldron, and we are the flesh. Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man. And the Spirit of Jehovah fell upon me, and he said unto me, Speak, Thus saith Jehovah: Thus have ye said, O house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind. Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain. Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron; but ye shall be brought forth out of the midst of it. Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword upon you, saith the Lord Jehovah. And I will bring you forth out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you. Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am Jehovah. This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am Jehovah: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither have ye executed mine ordinances, but have done after the ordinances of the nations that are round about you. And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord Jehovah! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel? And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel, all of them, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from Jehovah;

16 unto us is this land given for a possession. Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them a sanctuary for a little while 17 in the countries where they are come. Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and 18 I will give you the land of Israel. And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof and 19 all the abominations thereof from thence. And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of 20 flesh; that they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be 21 their God. But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring 22 their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord Jehovah. Then did the cherubim lift up their wings, and the wheels were beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.
23 And the glory of Jehovah went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the 24 city. And the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So 25 the vision that I had seen went up from me. Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that Jehovah had showed me.

12, 2 The word of Jehovah also came unto me, saying, Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of the rebellious house, that have eyes to see, and see not, that have ears to hear, and hear not; for they 3 are a rebellious house. Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they are a rebellious house.
4 And thou shalt bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing; and thou shalt go forth thyself at even in 5 their sight, as when men go forth into exile. Dig thou through 6 the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby. In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulder, and carry it forth in the dark; thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the land: for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel. And I did so 7 as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for removing, and in the even I digged through the wall with my hand; I brought it forth in the dark, and bare it upon my 8 shoulder in their sight. And in the morning came the word of 8 Jehovah unto me, saying, Son of man, hath not the house of 9 Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, What doest thou?

Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: This burden 10 concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel among whom they are. Say, I am your sign: like as I have 11 done, so shall it be done unto them; they shall go into exile, into captivity. And the prince that is among them shall bear 12 upon his shoulder in the dark, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, because he shall not see the land with his eyes. My net also 13 will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. And I will scatter 14 toward every wind all that are round about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them.
And they shall know that I am Jehovah, when I shall disperse 15 them among the nations, and scatter them through the countries.
But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the 16 famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the nations whither they come; and they shall know that I am Jehovah. Moreover the word of Jehovah 17 came to me, saying, Son of man, eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with fearfulness; and 18 say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, that her land may be desolate, and despoiled of all that is therein, because of the violence of all them that dwell therein. And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, 20 and the land shall be a desolation; and ye shall know that I am Jehovah. And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son 21, 22 of man, what is this proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth? Tell 23 them therefore, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, The days are at hand, and the 24 fulfilment of every vision. For there shall be no more any false 25 vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel. For I am Jehovah; I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall be performed; it shall be no more deferred: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I speak the word, and will perform it, 26 saith the Lord Jehovah. Again the word of Jehovah came to me, 27 saying, Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is for many day to come, and he prophesieth 28 of times that are far off. Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: There shall none of my words be deferred any more, but the word which I shall speak shall be performed, saith the Lord Jehovah.

13, 2 And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto them that prophesy out of their own heart, Hear ye 3 the word of Jehovah: Thus saith the Lord Jehovah, Woe unto the foolish prophets, that follow their own spirit, and have seen 4 nothing! O Israel, thy prophets have been like foxes in the 5 waste places. Ye have not gone up into the gaps, neither built up the wall for the house of Israel, to stand in the battle in the 6 day of Jehovah. They have seen falsehood and lying divination, that say, Jehovah saith; but Jehovah hath not sent them: and they have made men to hope that the word would be confirmed.
7 Have ye not seen a false vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, in that ye say, Jehovah saith; albeit I have not spo-8 ken? Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because ye have spoken falsehood, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against 9 you, saith the Lord Jehovah. And my hand shall be against the prophets that see false visions, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the council of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the Lord 10 Jehovah. Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there is no peace; and when one buildeth up 11 a wall, behold, they daub it with untempered mortar: say unto them that daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it. Lo, when the wall 12 is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it? Therefore thus saith the Lord 13 Jehovah: I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my wrath; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in wrath to consume it. So will I break down the wall 14 that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be uncovered; and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: and ye shall know that I am Jehovah. Thus will I accomplish 15 my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar; and I will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it; to wit, the prophets of 16 Israel that prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and that see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord Jehovah.

And thou, son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy 17 people, that prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them, and say, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Woe to 18 the women that sew pillows upon all elbows, and make kerchiefs for the head of persons of every stature to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and save souls alive for yourselves?
And ye have profaned me among my people for handfuls of bar- 19 ley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hearken unto lies. Wherefore thus saith the 20 Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly. Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my 21 people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am Jehovah. Because 22 with lies ye have grieved the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, and be saved alive: Therefore ye shall no more see false visions, nor divine divina- 23 tions: and I will deliver my people out of your hand; and ye shall know that I am Jehovah.

Then came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat 14 before me. And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, 2 3 Son of man, these men have taken their idols into their heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: should 4 I be inquired of at all by them? Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Every man of the house of Israel that taketh his idols into his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; I Jehovah will answer him therein according to 5 the multitude of his idols; that I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through 6 their idols. Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Return ye, and turn yourselves from your 7 idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations. For every one of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, that separateth himself from me, and taketh his idols into his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet to inquire for himself 8 of me; I Jehovah will answer him by myself: and I will set my face against that man, and will make him an astonishment, for a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of 9 my people; and ye shall know that I am Jehovah. And if the prophet be deceived and speak a word, I, Jehovah, have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will 10 destroy him from the midst of my people Israel. And they shall bear their iniquity: the iniquity of the prophet shall be even as 11 the iniquity of him that seeketh unto him; that the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither defile themselves any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my 12 people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord Jehovah. And 13 the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, when a land sinneth against me by committing a trespass, and I stretch out my hand upon it, and break the staff of the bread thereof, and send famine upon it, and cut off from it man and beast; 14 though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith 15 the Lord Jehovah. If I cause evil beasts to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it be made desolate, so that no man 16 may pass through because of the beasts; though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord Jehovah, they should deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only should be delivered, but the land should be desolate. Or if I bring a sword upon that 17 land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off from it man and beast; though these three men were in it, as I 18 live, saith the Lord Jehovah, they should deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only should be delivered themselves. Or if 19 I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast; though Noah, 20 Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord Jehovah, they should deliver neither son nor daughter; they should but deliver their own souls by their righteousness. For thus saith 21 the Lord Jehovah: How much more when I send my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the evil beasts, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast!

Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be carried 22 forth, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings; and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it. And 23 they shall comfort you, when ye see their way and their doings; and ye shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord Jehovah.

And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, 15, 2 what is the vine-tree more than any tree, the vine-branch which is among the trees of the forest? Shall wood be taken thereof to 3 make any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon? Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire hath 4 devoured both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned: is it profitable for any work? Behold, when it was whole, it was 5 meet for no work: how much less, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned, shall it yet be meet for any work! Therefore 6 thus saith the Lord Jehovah: As the vine-tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And I will set my face against 7 them; they shall go forth from the fire, but the fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am Jehovah, when I set my face against them. And I will make the land desolate, because they 8 have committed a trespass, saith the Lord Jehovah.

Again the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of 16, 2 man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations; and say, Thus 3 saith the Lord Jehovah unto Jerusalem: Thy birth and thy nativity is of the land of the Canaanite; the Amorite was thy father, 4 and thy mother was a Hittite. And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to cleanse thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor 5 swaddled at all. No eye pitied thee, to do any of these things unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, for that thy person was abhorred, in the 6 day that thou wast born. And when I passed by thee, and saw thee weltering in thy blood, I said unto thee, Though thou art in thy blood, live; yea, I said unto thee, Though thou art in thy 7 blood, live. I caused thee to multiply as that which groweth in the field, and thou didst increase and wax great, and thou attainedst to excellent ornament; thy breasts were fashioned, and 8 thy hair was grown; yet thou wast naked and bare. Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I sware unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord Jehovah, and thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil. I clothed thee also with broidered work, and shod thee with sealskin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and covered thee with silk.
11 And I decked thee with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thy hands, and a chain on thy neck. And I put a ring upon thy nose, and ear-rings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thy 13 head. Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and broidered work; thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil; and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper unto royal estate. And thy renown went forth among the nations for thy beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord 15 Jehovah. But thou didst trust in thy beauty, and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy whoredoms on every one that passed by; his it was. And thou didst take of thy garments, and madest for thee high places decked with divers colors, and playedst the harlot upon them: the like things 17 shall not come, neither shall it be so. Thou didst also take thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest for thee images of men, and didst play the harlot with them; and thou tookest thy broidered garments, and coveredst them, and didst set mine oil and mine incense before them. 18 My bread also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, 19 wherewith I fed thee, thou didst even set it before them for a sweet savor; and thus it was, saith the Lord Jehovah. Moreover 20 thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Were thy whoredoms a small matter, that thou hast 21 slain my children, and delivered them up, in causing them to pass through the fire unto them? And in all thine abomina- 22 tions and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast weltering in thy blood. And it is come to pass after all thy wickedness, 23 (woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord Jehovah,) that thou hast 24 built unto thee a vaulted place, and hast made thee a lofty place in every street. Thou hast built thy lofty place at the head 25 of every way, and hast made thy beauty an abomination, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredom. Thou hast also committed fornication with the 26 Egyptians, thy neighbors, great of flesh; and hast multiplied thy whoredom, to provoke me to anger. Behold therefore, I have 27 stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, that are ashamed of thy lewd way. Thou hast played the harlot also with the Assyrians, because thou wast insatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet thou wast not satisfied. Thou hast 29 moreover multiplied thy whoredom unto the land of traffic, unto Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith. How weak 30 is thy heart, saith the Lord Jehovah, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an impudent harlot; in that thou buildest 31 thy vaulted place at the head of every way, and makest thy lofty place in every street, and hast not been as a harlot, in that thou scornest hire. A wife that committeth adultery! that taketh 32 strangers instead of her husband! They give gifts to all harlots; but thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and bribest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredoms. And 34 thou art different from other women in thy whoredoms, in that none followeth thee to play the harlot; and whereas thou givest hire, and no hire is given unto thee, therefore thou art different.

35, 36 Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of Jehovah: Thus saith the Lord Jehovah, Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness uncovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers; and because of all the idols of thy abominations, and for the

37 blood of thy children, that thou didst give unto them; therefore behold, I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them against thee on every side, and will uncover thy nakedness unto them, that they may

38 see all thy nakedness. And I will judge thee, as women that break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will bring upon

39 thee the blood of wrath and jealousy. I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down thy vaulted place, and break down thy lofty places; and they shall strip thee of thy clothes, and take thy fair jewels; and they shall leave thee naked

40 and bare. They shall also bring up a company against thee, and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with

41 their swords. And they shall burn thy houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee in the sight of many women; and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou shalt

42 also give no hire any more. So will I cause my wrath toward thee to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will

43 be quiet, and will be no more angry. Because thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast raged against me in all these things; therefore, behold, I also will bring thy way upon thy head, saith the Lord Jehovah: and thou shalt not commit

44 this lewdness with all thine abominations. Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying,

45 As is the mother, so is her daughter. Thou art the daughter of thy mother, that loatheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was a Hittite, and your father

46 an Amorite. And thine elder sister is Samaria, that dwelleth at thy left hand, she and her daughters; and thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters. Yet

47 hast thou not walked in their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, as if that were a very little thing, thou wast more corrupt than they in all thy ways. As I live, saith the Lord 48 Jehovah, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters. Behold, this 49 was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom: pride, fulness of bread, and prosperous ease was in her and in her daughters; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. And they 50 were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good. Neither hath Samaria commit- 51 ted half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast justified thy sisters by all thine abominations which thou hast done. Thou also, bear thou thine own 52 shame, in that thou hast given judgment for thy sisters; through thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they, they are more righteous than thou: yea, be thou also confounded, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters. And 53 I will turn again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them; that thou 54 mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be ashamed because of all that thou hast done, in that thou art a comfort unto them.

And thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their 55 former estate; and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate; and thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate. For thy sister Sodom was not mentioned 56 by thy mouth in the day of thy pride, before thy wickedness 57 was uncovered, as at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria, and of all that are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, that do despite unto thee round about. Thou 58 hast borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith Jehovah. For thus saith the Lord Jehovah: I will also deal with thee 59 as thou hast done, who hast despised the oath in breaking the covenant. Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with thee 60 in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant. Then shalt thou remember thy ways, and be 61 ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder sisters and thy younger; and I will give them unto thee for daughters, but not by thy covenant. And I will establish my covenant with 62 thee; and thou shalt know that I am Jehovah; that thou mayest 63 remember, and be confounded, and never open thy mouth any more, because of thy shame, when I have forgiven thee all that thou hast done, saith the Lord Jehovah.

17, 2 And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel; 3 and say, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: A great eagle with great wings and long pinions, full of feathers, which had divers colors, 4 came unto Lebanon, and took the top of the cedar: he cropped off the topmost of the young twigs thereof, and carried it unto a 5 land of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants. He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful soil; he placed 6 it beside many waters; he set it as a willow-tree. And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth 7 sprigs. There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend its roots toward him, and shot forth its branches toward him, from the 8 beds of its plantation, that he might water it. It was planted in a good soil by many waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine. Say thou, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it may wither; that all its fresh springing leaves may wither? and not by a strong arm or much people can it be raised from 10 the roots thereof. Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it 11 shall wither in the beds where it grew. Moreover the word of 12 Jehovah came unto me, saying, Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and brought them to him to Babylon: 13 and he took of the seed royal, and made a covenant with him; he also brought him under an oath, and took away the mighty 14 of the land; that the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand.
15 But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? shall he 16 break the covenant, and yet escape? As I live, saith the Lord

Jehovah, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die. Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company help him in the war, when they cast up mounds and build forts, to cut off many persons. For he hath despised the oath by breaking the covenant; and behold, he had given his hand, and yet hath done all these things; he shall not escape. Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, I will even bring it upon his own head. And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will enter into judgment with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me. And all his fugitives in all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered toward every wind: and ye shall know that I, Jehovah, have spoken it. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: I will also take of the lofty top of the cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it upon a high and lofty mountain: in the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all birds of every wing; in the shade of the branches thereof shall they dwell. And all the trees of the field shall know that I, Jehovah, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish; I, Jehovah, have spoken and have done it.

The word of Jehovah came unto me again, saying, What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge? As I live, saith the Lord Jehovah, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel. Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sinneth, it shall die. But if a man be just, and do that which is lawful and right, and hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbor's wife, neither hath come near to a woman in her impurity, and hath not wronged any, but hath restored to the debtor his pledge, hath taken nought by robbery, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment; 8 he that hath not given forth upon interest, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath 9 executed true justice between man and man, hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept mine ordinances, to deal truly; he is just, 10 he shall surely live, saith the Lord Jehovah. If he beget a son that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and that doeth any one of 11 these things, and that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbor's wife, 12 hath wronged the poor and needy, hath taken by robbery, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, 13 hath committed abomination, hath given forth upon interest, and hath taken increase; shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his 14 blood shall be upon him. Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins, which he hath done, and feareth, and 15 doeth not such like; that hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, 16 hath not defiled his neighbor's wife, neither hath wronged any, hath not taken aught to pledge, neither hath taken by robbery, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the 17 naked with a garment; that hath withdrawn his hand from the poor, that hath not received interest nor increase, hath executed mine ordinances, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die 18 for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live. As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, he shall 19 die in his iniquity. Yet say ye, Wherefore doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? when the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and 20 hath done them, he shall surely live. The soul that sinneth, it shall die: the son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the 21 wicked shall be upon him. But if the wicked turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall 22 not die. None of his transgressions that he hath committed shall be remembered against him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live. Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked? saith the Lord Jehovah; and not rather that he should return from his way, and live? But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? None of his righteous deeds that he hath done shall be remembered: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die. Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel: Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal? When the righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth therein; in his iniquity that he hath done shall he die. Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die. Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal? Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord Jehovah. Return ye, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. Cast away from you all your transgressions, wherein ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord Jehovah: wherefore turn yourselves, and live.

Moreover, take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, and say, What was thy mother? A lioness: she couched among lions, in the midst of the young lions she nourished her whelps. And she brought up one of her whelps: he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured men. The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit; and they brought him with hooks unto the land of Egypt. Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion. And he went up and down among the lions; he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured men. And he knew their palaces, and laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the 8 fulness thereof, because of the noise of his roaring. Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces; and 9 they spread their net over him; he was taken in their pit. And they put him in a cage with hooks, and brought him to the king of Babylon; they brought him into strongholds, that his voice 10 should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel. Thy mother was like a vine, in thy blood, planted by the waters: it 11 was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters. And it had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and their stature was exalted among the thick boughs, and they were 12 seen in their height with the multitude of their branches. But it was plucked up in fury, it was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up its fruit: its strong rods were broken off 13 and withered; the fire consumed them. And now it is planted 14 in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land. And fire is gone out of the rods of its branches, it hath devoured its fruit, so that there is in it no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

20 And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel 2 came to inquire of Jehovah, and sat before me. And the word 3 of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Is it to inquire of me that ye are come? As I live, saith the Lord 4 Jehovah, I will not be inquired of by you. Wilt thou judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? Cause them to know 5 the abominations of their fathers; and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: In the day when I chose Israel, and swore unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I swore unto them, 6 saying, I am Jehovah your God; in that day I swore unto them, to bring them forth out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which 7 is the glory of all lands. And I said unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves 8 with the idols of Egypt; I am Jehovah your God. But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me; they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said I would pour out my wrath upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among which they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt. So I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. And I gave them my statutes, and showed them mine ordinances, which if a man do, he shall live in them. Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am Jehovah that sanctifieth them. But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they rejected mine ordinances, which if a man keep, he shall live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly profaned. Then I said I would pour out my wrath upon them in the wilderness, to consume them. But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out. Moreover also I sware unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; because they rejected mine ordinances, and walked not in my statutes, and profaned my sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols. Nevertheless mine eye spared them, and I destroyed them not, neither did I make a full end of them in the wilderness. And I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their ordinances, nor defile yourselves with their idols. I am Jehovah your God: walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them; and hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am Jehovah your God. But the children rebelled against me; they walked not in my statutes, neither kept mine ordinances to do them, which if a man do, he shall live in them; they profaned my sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my wrath upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. Nevertheless I withdrew my hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them forth. Moreover I sware unto them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, 24 and disperse them through the countries; because they had not executed mine ordinances, but had rejected my statutes, and had profaned my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' 25 idols. Moreover also I gave them statutes that were not good, 26 and ordinances wherein they should not live; and I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am Jehovah.

27 Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: In this moreover have your fathers blasphemed me, in that they have committed a 28 trespass against me. For when I had brought them into the land, which I swore to give unto them, then they saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering; there also they made their sweet savor, and they poured out there 29 their drink-offerings. Then I said unto them, What meaneth the high place whereunto ye go? So the name thereof is called 30 Bamah unto this day. Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Do ye pollute yourselves after the manner of your fathers? and play ye the harlot after their 31 abominations? and when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, do ye pollute yourselves with all your idols unto this day? and shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord Jehovah, I will not be 32 inquired of by you; and that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, in that ye say, We will be as the nations, as the 33 families of the countries, to serve wood and stone. As I live, saith the Lord Jehovah, surely with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, will I be king over 34 you: and I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured 35 out; and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and 36 there will I enter into judgment with you face to face. Like as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I enter into judgment with you, saith 37 the Lord Jehovah. And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant; and I will 38 purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me; I will bring them forth out of the land where they sojourn, but they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am Jehovah. As for you, O house of Israel, 39 thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Go ye, serve every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me; but my holy name shall ye no more profane with your gifts, and with your idols. For in my holy mountain, in the mountain of the height 40 of Israel, saith the Lord Jehovah, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them, serve me in the land: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the first-fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things. As a sweet savor 41 will I accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you in the sight of the nations. And 42 ye shall know that I am Jehovah, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country which I sware to give unto your fathers. And there shall ye remember your ways, and all 43 your doings, wherein ye have polluted yourselves; and ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed. And ye shall know that I am Jehovah, when I have 44 dealt with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord Jehovah. And the word of Jehovah came unto 45 me, saying, Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the field in the South; and say to the forest of the South, Hear 47 the word of Jehovah: Thus saith the Lord Jehovah, Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burnt thereby.

And all flesh shall see that I, Jehovah, have kindled it; it shall 48 not be quenched. Then said I, Ah Lord Jehovah! they say of me, Is he not a speaker of parables? 49

And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, 21, 2 set thy face toward Jerusalem, and drop thy word toward the sanctuaries, and prophesy against the land of Israel; and say 3 to the land of Israel, Thus saith Jehovah: Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of its sheath, and will cut 4 off from thee the righteous and the wicked. Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of its sheath against all flesh from 5 the south to the north: and all flesh shall know that I, Jehovah, have drawn forth my sword out of its sheath; it shall not return 6 any more. Sigh therefore, thou son of man; with the breaking of thy loins and with bitterness shalt thou sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt say, Because of the tidings, for it cometh; and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and it shall be done, saith the Lord Jehovah.
8, 9 And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith Jehovah: Say, A sword, a sword, 10 it is sharpened, and also furbished; it is sharpened that it may make a slaughter; it is furbished that it may be as lightning: shall we then make mirth? the rod of my son, it contemneth 11 every tree. And it is given to be furbished, that it may be handled: the sword, it is sharpened, yea, it is furbished, to give 12 it into the hand of the slayer. Cry and wail, son of man; for it is upon my people, it is upon all the princes of Israel: they are delivered over to the sword with my people; smite therefore upon 13 thy thigh. For there is a trial; and what if even the rod that 14 contemneth shall be no more? saith the Lord Jehovah. Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thy hands together; and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the deadly wounded: it is the sword of the great one that is deadly 15 wounded, which entereth into their chambers. I have set the threatening sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, and their stumblings be multiplied: ah! it is made as 16 lightning, it is pointed for slaughter. Gather thee together, go to the right, set thyself in array, go to the left, whithersoever 17 thy face is set. I will also smite my hands together, and I will 18 cause my wrath to rest: I, Jehovah, have spoken it. The word 19 of Jehovah came unto me again, saying, Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come; they twain shall come forth out of one land: and mark out a place, mark it out at the head of the way to the city.

Thou shalt appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of 20 the children of Ammon, and to Judah in Jerusalem the fortified.
For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the 21 head of the two ways, to use divination: he shook the arrows to and fro, he consulted the teraphim, he looked in the liver. In 22 his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, to build forts. And it shall be unto them as a false 23 divination in their sight, who have sworn oaths unto them; but he bringeth iniquity to remembrance, that they may be taken.
Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because ye have made 24 your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand. And thou, O deadly wounded wicked one, the prince 25 of Israel, whose day is come, in the time of the iniquity of the end, thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Remove the mitre, and take 26 off the crown; this shall be no more the same; exalt that which is low, and abase that which is high. I will overturn, overturn, 27 overturn it: this also shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him. And thou, son of man, prophesy, 28 and say, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah concerning the children of Ammon, and concerning their reproach; and say thou, A sword, a sword is drawn, for the slaughter it is furbished, to cause it to devour, that it may be as lightning; while they see for thee false 29 visions, while they divine lies unto thee, to lay thee upon the necks of the wicked that are deadly wounded, whose day is come in the time of the iniquity of the end. Cause it to return into its 30 sheath. In the place where thou wast created, in the land of thy birth, will I judge thee. And I will pour out mine indignation 31 upon thee; I will blow upon thee with the fire of my wrath; and I will deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, skilful to destroy.
Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst 32 of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered: for I, Jehovah, have spoken it.

Moreover the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, And 22, 2 thou, son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the bloody city? then cause her to know all her abominations. And thou 3 shalt say, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: A city that sheddeth blood in the midst of her, that her time may come, and that 4 maketh idols against herself to defile her! Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed, and art defiled in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the nations, and a mocking to all 5 the countries. Those that are near, and those that are far from thee, shall mock thee, thou infamous one and full of tumult.

6 Behold, the princes of Israel, every one according to his power, 7 have been in thee to shed blood. In thee have they set light by father and mother; in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the sojourner; in thee have they wronged the 8 fatherless and the widow. Thou hast despised my holy things, 9 and hast profaned my sabbaths. Slanderous men have been in thee to shed blood; and in thee they have eaten upon the mountains: in the midst of thee they have committed lewdness.
10 In thee have they uncovered their fathers' nakedness; in thee 11 have they humbled her that was unclean in her impurity. And one hath committed abomination with his neighbor's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in 12 thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter. In thee have they taken bribes to shed blood; thou hast taken interest and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbors by oppression, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord Jehovah.
13 Behold, therefore, I have smitten my hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in 14 the midst of thee. Can thy heart endure, or can thy hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? I, Jehovah, 15 have spoken it, and will do it. And I will scatter thee among the nations, and disperse thee through the countries; and I will 16 consume thy filthiness out of thee. And thou shalt be profaned in thyself, in the sight of the nations; and thou shalt know that 17 I am Jehovah. And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, 18 Son of man, the house of Israel is become dross unto me: all of them are brass and tin and iron and lead, in the midst of 19 the furnace; they are the dross of silver. Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because ye are all become dross, therefore, 20 behold, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. As they gather silver and brass and iron and lead and tin into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my wrath, and I will lay you there, and melt you. Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you with the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof. As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I, Jehovah, have poured out my wrath upon you. And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, say unto her, Thou art a land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation. There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have devoured souls; they take treasure and precious things; they have made her widows many in the midst thereof. Her priests have done violence to my law, and have profaned my holy things: they have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they caused men to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, that they may get dishonest gain. And her prophets have daubed for them with untempered mortar, seeing false visions, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah, when Jehovah hath not spoken. The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery; yea, they have vexed the poor and needy, and have oppressed the sojourner wrongfully. And I sought for a man among them, that should build up the wall, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none. Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I brought upon their heads, saith the Lord Jehovah.

The word of Jehovah came again unto me, saying, Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother: and they played the harlot in Egypt; they played the harlot in their youth; there were their breasts pressed, and there was handled the bosom of their virginity. And the names of them were Oholah the elder, and Oholibah her sister: and they became mine, and they bare sons and daughters. And as for their

5 names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem Oholibah. And Oholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on 6 her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbors, who were clothed with blue, governors and rulers, all of them desirable young men, 7 horsemen riding upon horses. And she bestowed her whoredoms upon them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them; and on whomsoever she doted, with all their idols she defiled herself.
8 Neither hath she left her whoredoms since the days of Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her, and they handled the bosom of her virginity; and they poured out their whoredom upon her.
9 Wherefore I delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the 10 hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted. These uncovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters; and her they slew with the sword: and she became a byword among 11 women; for they executed judgments upon her. And her sister Oholibah saw this, yet was she more corrupt in her doting than she, and in her whoredoms which were more than the whoredoms of her sister. She doted upon the Assyrians, governors and rulers, her neighbors, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding 12 upon horses, all of them desirable young men. And I saw that 13 she was defiled; they both took one way. And she increased her whoredoms; for she saw men portrayed upon the wall, the images 14 of the Chaldeans portrayed with vermilion, girded with girdles upon their loins, with flowing turbans upon their heads, all of them princes to look upon, after the likeness of the Babylonians 15 in Chaldea, the land of their nativity. And as soon as she saw them she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into 16 Chaldea. And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted 17 with them, and her soul was alienated from them. So she uncovered her whoredoms, and uncovered her nakedness: then my soul was alienated from her, like as my soul was alienated from 18 her sister. Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, remembering the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land 19 of Egypt. And she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.
20 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in the handling of thy bosom by the Egyptians for the breasts 21 of thy youth. Therefore, O Oholibah, thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy soul is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side: the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod and Shoa 23 and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them; desirable young men, governors and rulers all of them, princes and men of renown, all of them riding upon horses. And they shall come against 24 thee with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a company of peoples; they shall set themselves against thee with buckler and shield and helmet round about; and I will commit the judgment unto them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments. And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they 25 shall deal with thee in fury; they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy residue shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire. They shall also strip thee of thy clothes, and take 26 away thy fair jewels. Thus will I make thy lewdness to cease 27 from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt; so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more. For thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I 28 will deliver thee into the hand of them whom thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy soul is alienated; and they 29 shall deal with thee in hatred, and shall take away all thy labor, and shall leave thee naked and bare; and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be uncovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms. These things shall be done unto thee, for that thou 30 hast played the harlot after the nations, and because thou art polluted with their idols. Thou hast walked in the way of thy 31 sister; therefore will I give her cup into thy hand. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup, which is deep and large; thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much. Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and 32 sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria. Thou shalt even drink it and drain it 34 out, and thou shalt gnaw the sherds thereof, and shalt tear thy breasts; for I have spoken it, saith the Lord Jehovah. There- 35 fore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because thou hast forgotten me, and cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms. Jehovah said moreover unto me: 36 Son of man, wilt thou judge Oholah and Oholibah? then de-

37 clare unto them their abominations. For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands; and with their idols have they committed adultery; and they have also caused their sons, whom they bare unto me, to pass through the fire unto them 38 to be devoured. Moreover this they have done unto me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned 39 my sabbaths. For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus have they done in the midst of my house.
40 And furthermore ye have sent for men that come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent, and, lo, they came; for whom thou didst wash thyself, paint thine eyes, and deck thyself with ornaments, and sit upon a stately bed, with a table prepared before 41 it, whereupon thou didst set mine incense and mine oil. And the voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with men of the common sort were brought drunkards from the wilderness; and they put bracelets upon the hands of them twain, and 42 beautiful crowns upon their heads. Then said I of her that was old in adulteries, Now will they play the harlot with her, and she with them. And they went in unto her, as they go in unto a harlot: so went they in unto Oholah and unto Oholibah, the 43 lewd women. And righteous men, they shall judge them with the judgment of adulteresses, and with the judgment of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in 44 their hands. For thus saith the Lord Jehovah: I will bring up a company against them, and will give them to be tossed to and fro and robbed. And the company shall stone them with stones, and despatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons 45 and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire. Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women 46 may be taught not to do after your lewdness. And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols; and ye shall know that I am the Lord Jehovah.
24 Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth 1 day of the month, the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, 2 Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this selfsame day: the king of Babylon drew close unto Jerusalem this selfsame 3 day. And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah, Set on the caldron, set it on, and also pour water into it: gather the pieces thereof into 4 it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones. Take the choice of the flock, and also a pile 5 of wood for the bones under the caldron; make it boil well; yea, let the bones thereof be boiled in the midst of it. Wherefore 6 thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Woe to the bloody city, to the caldron whose rust is therein, and whose rust is not gone out of it! take out of it piece after piece; No lot is fallen upon it.

For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the bare 7 rock; she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust.
That it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance, I have 8 set her blood upon the bare rock, that it should not be covered.
Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Woe to the bloody city! 9 I also will make the pile great. Heap on the wood, make the 10 fire hot, boil well the flesh, and make thick the broth, and let the bones be burned. Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, 11 that it may be hot, and the brass thereof may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the rust of it may be consumed. She hath wearied herself with toil; yet her great 12 rust goeth not forth out of her; her rust goeth not forth by fire.
In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have cleansed thee and 13 thou wast not cleansed, thou shalt not be cleansed from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my wrath toward thee to rest. I, Jehovah, have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I 14 will do it: I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord Jehovah. Also the word 15 of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet thou shalt neither mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down.
Sigh, but not aloud, make no mourning for the dead; bind thy 17 headtire upon thee, and put thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men. So I spake unto the 18 people in the morning; and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded. And the people said unto me, 19 Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so? Then I said unto them, The word of Jehovah came unto 20 me, saying, Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord 21 Jehovah: Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left behind shall 22 fall by the sword. And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not 23 cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men. And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away in your iniquities, and 24 moan one toward another. Thus shall Ezekiel be unto you a sign; according to all that he hath done shall ye do: when this 25 cometh, then shall ye know that I am the Lord Jehovah. And thou, son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their heart, their sons and 26 their daughters, that in that day he that escapeth shall come 27 unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears? In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him that is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: so shalt thou be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.

25, 2 And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face toward the children of Ammon, and prophesy against 3 them: and say unto the children of Ammon, Hear the word of the Lord Jehovah: Thus saith the Lord Jehovah, Because thou saidst, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was made desolate; and against 4 the house of Judah, when they went into captivity: therefore, behold, I will deliver thee to the children of the east for a possession, and they shall set their encampments in thee, and make their dwellings in thee; they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall 5 drink thy milk. And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the children of Ammon a couching-place for flocks: and ye 6 shall know that I am Jehovah. For thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because thou hast clapped thy hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced with all the despite of thy soul against the 7 land of Israel; therefore, behold, I have stretched out my hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for a spoil to the nations; and I will cut thee off from the peoples, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know 8 that I am Jehovah. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because that Moab and Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all 9 the nations; therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim, unto the children of the east, to go against the children of Ammon; and I will give them for a possession, that the children of Ammon may not be remembered among the nations. and I will execute judgments upon Moab; and they shall know that I am Jehovah. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them; therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah, I will stretch out my hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; even unto Dedan shall they fall by the sword. And I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and according to my wrath; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord Jehovah. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with despite of soul to destroy with perpetual enmity; therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah, Behold, I will stretch out my hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast. And I will execute great vengeance upon them with wrathful rebukes; and they shall know that I am Jehovah, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, because that Tyre hath said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is broken that was the gate of the peoples; she is turned unto me; I shall be replenished, now that she is laid waste: therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah, Behold, I am against thee, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth its waves to come up. And they shall destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock. She shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea; for I have spoken it, saith the Lord Jehovah; and she shall become a spoil to the nations. And her daughters that are in the field shall be slain with the sword: and they shall know that I am Jehovah. For thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will bring upon Tyre Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and a company, and much people. He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field; and he shall make forts against thee, and cast up a mound against thee, and raise up the buckler against thee. And he shall set his battering engines against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers. By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wagons, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach. With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets; he shall slay thy people with the sword; and the pillars of thy strength shall go down to the ground. And they shall make a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy merchandise; and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy thy pleasant houses; and they shall lay thy stones and thy timber and thy dust in the midst of the waters. And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard. And I will make thee a bare rock; thou shalt be a place for the spreading of nets; thou shalt be built no more: for I Jehovah have spoken it, saith the Lord Jehovah. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah to Tyre: shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee? Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay aside their robes, and strip off their broided garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble every moment, and be astonished at thee. And they shall take up a lamentation over thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited by seafaring men, the renowned city, that was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, that caused their terror to be on all that dwelt there! Now shall the isles tremble in the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be dismayed at thy departure. For thus saith the Lord Jehovah: When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and the great waters shall cover thee; then will I bring thee down with them that descend into the pit, to the people of old time, and will make thee to dwell in the nether parts of the earth, in the places that are desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I will set glory in the land of the living: I 21 will make thee a terror, and thou shalt no more have any being; though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again, saith the Lord Jehovah.

The word of Jehovah came again unto me, saying, And thou, 27, 2 son of man, take up a lamentation over Tyre; and say unto 3 Tyre, O thou that dwellest at the entry of the sea, that art the merchant of the peoples unto many isles, thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Thou, O Tyre, hast said, I am perfect in beauty. Thy 4 borders are in the heart of the seas; thy builders have perfected thy beauty. They have made all thy planks of fir-trees from 5 Senir; they have taken a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for thee. Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; they 6 have made thy benches of ivory inlaid in boxwood, from the isles of Kittim. Of fine linen with broidered work from Egypt was 7 thy sail, that it might be to thee for an ensign; blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was thine awning. The inhabitants of 8 Sidon and Arvad were thy rowers: thy wise men, O Tyre, were in thee, they were thy pilots. The old men of Gebal and the 9 wise men thereof were in thee thy calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to deal in thy merchandise. Persia and Lud and Put were in thine army, thy men of war: they 10 hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness. The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy walls 11 round about, and valorous men were in thy towers; they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have perfected thy beauty. Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multi- 12 tude of all kinds of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded for thy wares. Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy 13 traffickers; they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass for thy merchandise. They of the house of Togarmah traded 14 for thy wares with horses and war-horses and mules. The men of Dedan were thy traffickers; many isles were the mart of thy hand: they brought thee in exchange horns of ivory and ebony. Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of thy hand- 15 iworks: they traded for thy wares with emeralds, purple, and broidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and rubies. Judah, 17 and the land of Israel, they were thy traffickers: they traded for thy merchandise wheat of Minnith, and pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm. Damascus was thy merchant for the multitude of thy handiworks, by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches, with the wine of Helbon, and white wool. Vedan and Javan traded with yarn for thy wares: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were among thy merchandise. Dedan was thy trafficker in precious cloths for riding. Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they were the merchants of thy hand; in lambs, and rams, and goats, in these were they thy merchants. The traffickers of Sheba and Raamah, they were thy traffickers; they traded for thy wares with the chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. Haran and Canneh and Eden, the traffickers of Sheba, Asshur and Chilmad, were thy traffickers. These were thy traffickers in choice wares, in wrappings of blue and broidered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords and made of cedar, among thy merchandise. The ships of Tarshish were thy caravans for thy merchandise: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the heart of the seas. Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the east wind hath broken thee in the heart of the seas. Thy riches, and thy wares, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the dealers in thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, with all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the heart of the seas in the day of thy ruin. At the sound of the cry of thy pilots the suburbs shall shake. And all that handled the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships; they shall stand upon the land, and shall cause their voice to be heard over thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes: and they shall make themselves bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for thee in bitterness of soul with bitter mourning. And in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and lament over thee, saying, Who is there like Tyre, like her that is brought to silence in the midst of the sea? When thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst many peoples; thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise. In the time that thou wast broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, thy merchandise and all thy company did fall in the midst of thee. All the inhabitants of the isles 35 are astonished at thee, and their kings are horribly afraid; they are troubled in their countenance. The merchants among the 36 peoples hiss at thee; thou art become a terror, and thou shalt nevermore have any being.

The word of Jehovah came again unto me, saying, Son of 28, 2 man, say unto the prince of Tyre, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because thy heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art man, and not God, though thou didst set thy heart as the heart of God; — behold, thou art wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that is 3 hidden from thee; by thy wisdom and by thine understanding 4 thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures; by thy great wisdom and by thy traffic hast thou 5 increased thy riches, and thy heart is lifted up because of thy riches; — therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because thou 6 hast set thy heart as the heart of God, therefore, behold, I will 7 bring strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations; and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness. They shall bring thee down to 8 the pit; and thou shalt die the death of them that are slain, in the heart of the seas. Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth 9 thee, I am God? but thou art man, and not God, in the hand of him that woundeth thee. Thou shalt die the death of the 10 uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord Jehovah. Moreover the word of Jehovah came 11 unto me, saying, Son of man, take up a lamentation over the 12 king of Tyre, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.
Thou wast in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone 13 was thy covering, the sardius, the topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was in thee; in the day that thou wast created they were prepared. Thou wast the anointed cherub that covereth: and I 14 set thee, so that thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. Thou 15 wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, 16 till unrighteousness was found in thee. By the abundance of thy traffic they filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore have I cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God; and I have destroyed thee, O covering cherub, from the 17 midst of the stones of fire. Thy heart was lifted up because of thy beauty; thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I have cast thee to the ground; I have laid thee 18 before kings, that they may behold thee. By the multitude of thine iniquities, in the unrighteousness of thy traffic, thou hast profaned thy sanctuaries; therefore have I brought forth a fire from the midst of thee; it hath devoured thee, and I have turned thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them 19 that behold thee. All they that know thee among the peoples shall be astonished at thee: thou art become a terror, and thou shalt nevermore have any being. And the word of Jehovah 20 came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face toward Sidon, and prophesy against it, and say, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: 21 Behold, I am against thee, O Sidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of thee; and they shall know that I am Jehovah, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified 22 in her. For I will send pestilence into her, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall fall in the midst of her, with the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am 23 Jehovah. And there shall be no more a pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor a hurting thorn of any that are round about them, that did despite unto them; and they shall know that I am 24 the Lord Jehovah. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then shall they dwell in their own land which I 25 gave to my servant Jacob. And they shall dwell securely therein; yea, they shall build houses, and plant vineyards, and shall dwell securely, when I have executed judgments upon all those that do them despite round about them; and they shall know that I am Jehovah their God.

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of 2 the month, the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy 3 against him, and against all Egypt; speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great monster that lieth in the midst of his rivers, that hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself. And I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales; and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, with all the fish of thy rivers which stick unto thy scales. And I will cast thee forth into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open field; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered; I have given thee for food to the beasts of the earth and to the birds of the heavens. And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am Jehovah, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and didst rend all their shoulders; and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand. Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and will cut off from thee man and beast. And the land of Egypt shall be a desolation and a waste; and they shall know that I am Jehovah. Because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it; therefore, behold, I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from the tower of Seveneh even unto the border of Ethiopia. No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years. And I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be a desolation forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. For thus saith the Lord Jehovah: At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the peoples whither they were scattered; and I will bring back the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their birth; and they shall be there a base kingdom. It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it any more lift itself up above the nations: and I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations. And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, bringing iniquity to remembrance, when they turn to look after them: and they shall know that I am the 17 Lord Jehovah. And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word 18 of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was worn; yet had he no wages, nor his army, from Tyre, for the service that 19 he had served against it. Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall carry off her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land of Egypt as his recompense for which he served, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord Jehovah.
21 In that day will I cause a horn to bud forth unto the house of Israel, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.

30, 2 The word of Jehovah came again unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Wail ye, 3 Alas for the day! For the day is near, even the day of Jehovah 4 is near; it shall be a day of clouds, a time of the nations. And a sword shall come upon Egypt, and anguish shall be in Ethiopia, 5 when the slain shall fall in Egypt; and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down. Ethiopia, and Put, and Lud, and all the mingled people, and Cub, and the children of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by 6 the sword. Thus saith Jehovah: They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Seveneh shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the 7 Lord Jehovah. And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and her cities shall be in the midst 8 of the cities that are wasted. And they shall know at I am Jehovah, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and all her helpers are 9 destroyed. In that day shall messengers go forth from before me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid; and there shall be anguish upon them, as in the day of Egypt; for, lo, it cometh.
10 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease, by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon.
11 He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land; and they shall draw their 12 swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain. And I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men; and I will make the land desolate, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I, Jehovah, have spoken it. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the images to cease from Memphis; and there shall be no more a prince from the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt. And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments upon No. And I will pour my wrath upon Sin, the stronghold of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No. And I will set a fire in Egypt: Sin shall be in great anguish, and No shall be broken up; and Memphis shall have adversaries in the day-time. The young men of Aven and of Pi-beseth shall fall by the sword; and these cities shall go into captivity. At Tehaphnehes also the day shall withdraw itself, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt, and the pride of her power shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity. Thus will I execute judgments upon Egypt; and they shall know that I am Jehovah. And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, it hath not been bound up, to apply healing medicines, to put a bandage to bind it, that it be strong to hold the sword. Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong arm, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man. And I will hold up the arms of the king of Babylon; and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am Jehovah, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt. And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.

And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of Jehovah came unto 2 me, saying, Son of man, say unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and 3 to his multitude: Whom art thou like in thy greatness? Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a forest-like shade, and of high stature; and its top was among 4 the thick boughs. The waters nourished it, the deep made it to grow: the rivers thereof ran round about its plantation; and it 5 sent out its channels unto all the trees of the field. Therefore its stature was exalted above all the trees of the field; and its boughs were multiplied, and its branches became long by reason of many 6 waters, when it shot them forth. All the birds of the heavens made their nests in its boughs; and under its branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young; and under its shadow 7 dwelt all great nations. Thus was it fair in its greatness, in the 8 length of its branches; for its root was by many waters. The cedars in the garden of God could not hide it; the fir-trees were not like its boughs, and the plane-trees were not as its branches; 9 nor was any tree in the garden of God like unto it in its beauty. I made it fair by the multitude of its branches, so that all the trees 10 of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied it. Therefore thus said the Lord Jehovah: Because thou art exalted in stature, and he hath set his top among the thick boughs, and his heart 11 is lifted up in his height; I will even deliver him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations; he shall surely deal with him; 12 I have driven him out for his wickedness. And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have 13 left him. Upon his ruin all the birds of the heavens shall dwell, 14 and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches; to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, neither set their top among the thick boughs, nor that their mighty ones stand up on their height, even all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them 15 that go down to the pit. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: In the day when he went down to Sheol I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the rivers thereof; and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to Sheol with them that descend into the pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the nether parts of the earth. They also went down into Sheol with him unto them that are slain by the sword; yea, they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the nations. To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with them that are slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord Jehovah.

And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou wast likened unto a young lion of the nations: yet art thou as a monster in the seas; and thou didst break forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: I will spread out my net upon thee with a company of many peoples; and they shall bring thee up in my net. And I will leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the birds of the heavens to settle upon thee, and I will satisfy the beasts of the whole earth with thee. And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height. I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the watercourses shall be full of thee. And when I shall extinguish thee, I will cover the heavens, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give its light. All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord Jehovah. I will also vex the hearts of many peoples, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known. Yea, I will make many peoples amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy 11 fall. For thus saith the Lord Jehovah: The sword of the king of 12 Babylon shall come upon thee. By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall; the terrible of the nations are they all: and they shall bring to nought the pride of Egypt, and all the 13 multitude thereof shall be destroyed. I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside many waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble 14 them. Then will I make their waters clear, and cause their 15 rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord Jehovah. When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate and waste, a land destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that 16 dwell therein, then shall they know that I am Jehovah. This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament; the daughters of the nations shall lament therewith; over Egypt, and over all her multitude, shall they lament therewith, saith the Lord Jehovah.

17 It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of 18 the month, that the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.
19 Whom dost thou pass in beauty? go down, and be thou laid 20 with the uncircumcised. They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword; draw 21 her away and all her multitudes. The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of Sheol with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie still, even the uncircumcised, 22 slain by the sword. Asshur is there and all her company; her graves are round about her; all of them slain, fallen by the sword; 23 whose graves are set in the uttermost parts of the pit, and her company is round about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by 24 the sword, who caused terror in the land of the living. There is Elam and all her multitude round about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with them that go 25 down to the pit. They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude; her graves are round about her; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for their terror was caused in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that are slain. There is Meshech, Tubal, and all their multitude; 26 their graves are round about them; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for they caused their terror in the land of the living. And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen 27 of the uncircumcised, that are gone down to Sheol with their weapons of war, and have laid their swords under their heads, and their iniquities are upon their bones; for they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. But thou shalt be broken 28 in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain by the sword. There is Edom, her kings and all her 29 princes, who in their might are laid with them that are slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit. There are the princes of the north, all 30 of them, and all the Sidonians, who are gone down with the slain; in the terror which they caused by their might they are put to shame; and they lie uncircumcised with them that are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit. Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his 31 multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword, saith the Lord Jehovah. For I have put his terror in the land of 32 the living; and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised, with them that are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord Jehovah.

And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, 33, 2 speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman; if, 3 when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people; then whosoever heareth the sound 4 of the trumpet, and taketh not warning, if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. He heard 5 the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him; whereas if he had taken warning, he would have delivered his soul. But if the watchman see the sword come, and 6 blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned, and the sword come, and take any person from among them; he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at the watch-

7 man's hand. So thou, son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore hear the word at my mouth, 8 and give them warning from me. When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die, and thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man shall die in 9 his iniquity, but his blood will I require at thy hand. Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he turn not from his way; he shall die in his iniquity, but thou 10 hast delivered thy soul. And thou, son of man, say unto the house of Israel: Thus ye speak, saying, Our transgressions and our sins are upon us, and we pine away in them; how then can 11 we live? Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord Jehovah, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; 12 for why will ye die, O house of Israel? And thou, son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall he that is righteous be able to live thereby in the day that he sin-13 neth. When I say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his righteousness, and commit iniquity, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered; but in his iniquity that 14 he hath committed, therein shall he die. Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, 15 and do that which is lawful and right; if the wicked restore the pledge, give again that which he had taken by robbery, walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he shall surely live, 16 he shall not die. None of his sins that he hath committed shall be remembered against him: he hath done that which is lawful 17 and right; he shall surely live. Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is 18 not equal. When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, 19 and committeth iniquity, he shall even die therein. And when the wicked turneth from his wickedness, and doeth that which is 20 lawful and right, he shall live thereby. Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, I will judge you every 21 one after his ways. And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten. Now the hand of Jehovah had been upon me in the evening, before he that was escaped came; and he had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb. And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, they that inhabit those waste places in the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance. Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes unto your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land? Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbor's wife: and shall ye possess the land? Thus shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: As I live, surely they that are in the waste places shall fall by the sword; and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured; and they that are in the strongholds and in the caves shall die of the pestilence. And I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment; and the pride of her power shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, so that none shall pass through. Then shall they know that I am Jehovah, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all their abominations which they have committed. And as for thee, son of man, the children of thy people talk of thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from Jehovah. And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but do them not; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goeth after their gain. And, lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear thy words, but they do them not. And when this cometh to pass, (behold, it cometh,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, even to the shepherds, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Woe unto the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not

3 the shepherds feed the sheep? Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you 4 with the wool, ye kill the fatlings; but ye feed not the sheep. The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought back that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with rigor 5 have ye ruled over them. And they were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and they became food to all the beasts 6 of the field, and were scattered. My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my sheep were scattered upon all the face of the earth; and there was none 7 that did search or seek after them. Therefore, ye shepherds, 8 hear the word of Jehovah: As I live, saith the Lord Jehovah, surely forasmuch as my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became food to all the beasts of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my sheep, but 9 the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my sheep; therefore, 10 ye shepherds, hear the word of Jehovah: Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheep; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; and I will deliver my sheep from their mouth, that they may not 11 be food for them. For thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I myself, even I, will search for my sheep, and will seek them out.
12 As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all places whither they have been 13 scattered in the cloudy and dark day. And I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them upon the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited 14 places of the country. I will feed them with good pasture; and upon the mountains of the height of Israel shall their fold be:
there shall they lie down in a good fold; and on fat pasture shall 15 they feed upon the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down, saith 16 the Lord Jehovah. I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but the fat and the strong I will destroy; I will feed them in justice. And 17 as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, the rams and the he-goats.

Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have fed upon the good 18 pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture? and to have drunk of the clear waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet? And as for my sheep, they eat 19 that which ye have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet. Therefore thus saith the 20 Lord Jehovah unto them: Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. Because ye thrust with side 21 and with shoulder, and push all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad; therefore will I save my 22 flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. And I will set up one shepherd over them, and 23 he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. And I, Jehovah, will be their 24 God, and my servant David prince among them; I, Jehovah, have spoken it. And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and 25 will cause evil beasts to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. And I will 26 make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in its season; there shall be showers of blessing. And the tree of the field shall yield its fruit, 27 and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land; and they shall know that I am Jehovah, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those that made bondmen of them. And they shall 28 no more be a prey to the nations, neither shall the beasts of the earth devour them; but they shall dwell securely, and none shall make them afraid. And I will raise up unto them a plantation 29 for renown, and they shall be no more consumed with famine in the land, neither bear the shame of the nations any more.
And they shall know that I, Jehovah, their God am with them, 30 and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord Jehovah. And ye my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are men, 31 and I am your God, saith the Lord Jehovah.

Moreover the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son 35, 2 of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and prophesy against

3 it, and say unto it, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against thee, O mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against thee, and I will make thee a desolation and an astonish-4 ment. I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate; 5 and thou shalt know that I am Jehovah. Because thou hast had a perpetual enmity, and hast given over the children of Israel to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time 6 of the iniquity of the end; therefore, as I live, saith the Lord Jehovah, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: since thou hast not hated blood, therefore blood shall pur-7 sue thee. Thus will I make mount Seir an astonishment and a desolation; and I will cut off from it him that passeth through 8 and him that returneth. And I will fill its mountains with its slain: in thy hills and in thy valleys and in all thy watercourses 9 shall they fall that are slain with the sword. I will make thee a perpetual desolation, and thy cities shall not be inhabited; and 10 ye shall know that I am Jehovah. Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will 11 possess it; whereas Jehovah was there: therefore, as I live, saith the Lord Jehovah, I will do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast showed out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when 12 I shall judge thee. And thou shalt know that I, Jehovah, have heard all thy revilings which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us 13 to devour. And ye have magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and have multiplied your words against me: I have 14 heard it. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate. As thou didst rejoice over 15 the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.

36 And thou, son of man, prophesy unto the mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of Jeho-2 vah. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because the enemy hath said against you, Aha! and, The ancient high places are ours 3 in possession; therefore prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because, even because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the nations, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people; therefore, ye 4 mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Jehovah: Thus saith the Lord Jehovah to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which are become a prey and derision to the residue of the nations that are round about; therefore thus 5 saith the Lord Jehovah: Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the nations, and against all Edom, that have appointed my land unto themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with despite of soul, to cast it out for a prey. Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, 6 and say unto the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because ye have borne the shame of the nations: therefore thus saith the Lord Jeho- 7 vah: I have sworn, saying, Surely the nations that are round about you, they shall bear their shame. But ye, O mountains 8 of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come. For, behold, 9 I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown; and I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, 10 even all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited, and the waste places shall be builded; and I will multiply upon you man and 11 beast; and they shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited after your former estate, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am Jehovah. Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my peo- 12 ple Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of children. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because they say unto 13 you, Thou land art a devourer of men, and hast been a bereaver of thy nation; therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither 14 bereave thy nation any more, saith the Lord Jehovah; neither 15 will I let thee hear any more the shame of the nations, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the peoples any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nation to stumble any more, saith the Lord Jehovah. Moreover the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, 16 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, 17 they defiled it by their way and by their doings: their way before 18 me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity. Wherefore I poured out my wrath upon them for the blood which they had poured out upon the land, and because they had defiled it 19 with their idols; and I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their 20 way and according to their doings I judged them. And when they came unto the nations, whither they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them, These are the people 21 of Jehovah, and are gone forth out of his land. But I had regard for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned 22 among the nations, whither they went. Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: I do not this for your sake, O house of Israel, but for my holy name, which ye 23 have profaned among the nations, whither ye went. And I will sanctify my great name, which hath been profaned among the nations, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the nations shall know that I am Jehovah, saith the Lord Jehovah, 24 when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all the 25 countries, and will bring you into your own land. And I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all 26 your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and 27 I will give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep 28 mine ordinances, and do them. And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I 29 will be your God. And I will save you from all your unclean-nesses: and I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay 30 no famine upon you. And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye may receive no more the 31 reproach of famine among the nations. Then shall ye remember your evil ways, and your doings that were not good; and ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for 32 your abominations. Nor for your sake do I this, saith the Lord Jehovah, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for 33 your ways, O house of Israel. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be builded. And the land that was desolate shall be tilled, whereas it was a desolation in the sight of all that passed by. And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited. Then the nations that are left round about you shall know that I, Jehovah, have builded the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate: I, Jehovah, have spoken it, and I will do it. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: For this, moreover, will I be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them: I will increase them with men like a flock. As the flock for sacrifice, as the flock of Jerusalem in her appointed feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.

The hand of Jehovah was upon me, and he brought me out in the Spirit of Jehovah, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones. And he caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry. And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord Jehovah, thou knowest. Again he said unto me, Prophecy over these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of Jehovah. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah unto these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live. And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am Jehovah. So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and, behold, an earthquake; and the bones came together, bone to its bone. And I beheld, and, lo, there were sinews upon them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them. Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried up, and 12 our hope is lost; we are clean cut off. Therefore prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, O my 13 people; and I will bring you into the land of Israel. And ye shall know that I am Jehovah, when I have opened your graves, and 14 caused you to come up out of your graves, O my people. And I will put my Spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I will place you in your own land: and ye shall know that I, Jehovah, have 15 spoken it and performed it, saith Jehovah. The word of Jehovah came again unto me, saying, And thou, son of man, take thee 16 one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of 17 Israel his companions: and join them for thee one to another 18 into one stick, that they may become one in thy hand. And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, 19 Wilt thou not show us what thou meanest by these? say unto them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his companions; and I will put them with it, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be 20 one in my hand. And the sticks whereon thou writest shall 21 be in thy hand before their eyes. And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, whither they are gone, and will gather 22 them on every side, and bring them into their own land: and I will make them one nation in the land, upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all; and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two 23 kingdoms any more at all; neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will save them out of all their dwelling-places, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse 24 them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God. And my servant David shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in mine ordinances, 25 and observe my statutes, and do them. And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, they, and their children, and their children's children, for ever: and David my servant shall be their prince for ever. Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore. My tabernacle also shall be with them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. And the nations shall know that I am Jehovah that sanctifieth Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.

And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him, and say, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: and I will turn thee about, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords; Persia, Cush, and Put with them, all of them with shield and helmet; Gomer, and all his hordes; the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all his hordes; even many peoples with thee. Be thou prepared, yea, prepare thyself, thou, and all thy companies that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them. After many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, that is gathered out of many peoples, upon the mountains of Israel, which have been a continual waste; but it is brought forth out of the peoples, and they shall dwell securely, all of them. And thou shalt ascend, thou shalt come like a storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy hordes, and many peoples with thee. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: It shall come to pass in that day, that things shall come into thy mind, and thou shalt devise an evil device: and thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwallled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates; to take the spoil and to take the prey; to turn thy hand against the waste places that are now inhabited, and against the people that are gathered out of the nations, that have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the middle of the earth.

13 Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take the spoil? hast thou assembled thy company to take the prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, 14 to take great spoil? Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: In that day when my 15 people Israel dwelleth securely, shalt thou not know it? And thou shalt come from thy place out of the uttermost parts of the north, thou, and many peoples with thee, all of them riding 16 upon horses, a great company and a mighty army; and thou shalt come up against my people Israel, as a cloud to cover the land: it shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring thee against my land, that the nations may know me, when I 17 shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Art thou he of whom I spake in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, that prophesied in those days 18 for many years that I would bring thee against them? And it shall come to pass in that day, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord Jehovah, that my wrath shall 19 come up into my nostrils. For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a 20 great shaking in the land of Israel; so that the fishes of the sea, and the birds of the heavens, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places 21 shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. And I will call for a sword against him unto all my mountains, saith the Lord 22 Jehovah: every man's sword shall be against his brother. And with pestilence and with blood will I enter into judgment with him; and I will rain upon him, and upon his hordes, and upon the many peoples that are with him, an overflowing shower, and 23 great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. And I will magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.

39 And thou, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, prince 2 of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: and I will turn thee about, and will lead thee on, and will cause thee to come up from the uttermost parts of the north; and I will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel; and I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will 3 cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand. Thou shalt fall 4 upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy hordes, and the peoples that are with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. Thou shalt fall upon the open field; for I have spoken it, saith 5 the Lord Jehovah. And I will send a fire on Magog, and on 6 them that dwell securely in the isles; and they shall know that I am Jehovah. And my holy name will I make known in the 7 midst of my people Israel; neither will I suffer my holy name to be profaned any more: and the nations shall know that I am Jehovah, the Holy One in Israel. Behold, it cometh, and it 8 shall be done, saith the Lord Jehovah; this is the day whereof I have spoken. And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go 9 forth, and shall make fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall make fires of them seven years; so that they shall take no wood out of the field, nei- 10 ther cut down any out of the forests; for they shall make fires of the weapons; and they shall plunder those that plundered them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord Jehovah. And 11 it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place for burial in Israel, the valley of them that pass through on the east of the sea; and it shall stop them that pass through: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude; and they shall call it The valley of Hamon-gog. And seven months shall the 12 house of Israel be burying them, that they may cleanse the land. Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be 13 to them a renown in the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord Jehovah. And they shall set apart men of continual employ- 14 ment, that shall pass through the land, and, with them that pass through, those that bury them that remain upon the face of the land, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search. And they that pass through the land shall pass through; 15 and when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog. And Hamonah shall also be the name of a city. Thus shall they 16 17 cleanse the land. And thou, son of man, thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Speak unto the birds of every sort, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh and 18 drink blood. Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, 19 of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan. And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice 20 which I have sacrificed for you. And ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all 21 men of war, saith the Lord Jehovah. And I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am Jehovah their God, 23 from that day and forward. And the nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against me, and I hid my face from them: so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they fell all of 24 them by the sword. According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions did I unto them; and I hid my face 25 from them. Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Now will I bring back the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for my holy name.
26 And they shall bear their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they shall dwell securely 27 in their land, and none shall make them afraid; when I have brought them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of 28 many nations. And they shall know that I am Jehovah their God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have gathered them unto their own land; and I will 29 leave none of them any more there; neither will I hide my face any more from them; for I have poured out my Spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord Jehovah.

40 In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the selfsame day, the hand 2 of Jehovah was upon me, and he brought me thither. In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me down upon a very high mountain, whereon was as it were the frame of a city on the south. And he brought me thither; and, 3 behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. And the man said unto me, Son 4 of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thy heart upon all that I shall show thee; for, to the intent that I may show them unto thee, art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel. And, behold, a wall on 5 the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed six cubits long, of a cubit and a handbreadth each: so he measured the thickness of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. Then came he unto the gate which looketh 6 toward the east, and went up the steps thereof: and he measured the threshold of the gate, one reed broad; and the other threshold, one reed broad. And every lodge was one reed long, and 7 one reed broad; and the space between the lodges was five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate toward the house was one reed. He measured also the porch of the gate 8 toward the house, one reed. Then measured he the porch of 9 the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the house. And the lodges of the 10 gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. And he measured the breadth of 11 the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits; and a border before the lodges, one cubit on 12 this side, and a border, one cubit on that side; and the lodges, six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. And he mea- 13 sured the gate from the roof of the one lodge to the roof of the other, a breadth of five and twenty cubits; door against door. He made also posts, threescore cubits; and the court reached 14 unto the posts, round about the gate. And from the forefront 15 of the gate at the entrance unto the forefront of the inner porch of the gate were fifty cubits. And there were closed windows to 16 the lodges, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches; and windows were round about inward; and upon each post were palm-trees. Then brought he me into 17 the outer court; and, lo, there were chambers and a pavement, made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the pavement. And the pavement was by the side of the gates, answerable unto the length of the gates, even the lower pavement. Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, a hundred cubits, both on the east and on the north. And the gate of the outer court whose prospect is toward the north, he measured the length thereof and the breadth thereof. And the lodges thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. And the windows thereof, and the arches thereof, and the palm-trees thereof, were after the measure of the gate whose prospect is toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them. And there was a gate to the inner court over against the other gate, both on the north and on the east; and he measured from gate to gate a hundred cubits. And he led me toward the south; and, behold, a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures. And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them; and it had palm-trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof. And there was a gate to the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south a hundred cubits. Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures; and the lodges thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about; it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. And there were arches round about, five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad. And the arches thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof: and the ascent to it had eight steps. And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures; and the lodges thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about; it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. And the arches thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps. And he brought me to the north gate: and he measured it according to these measures; the lodges thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof: and there were windows therein round about; the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. And the posts thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps. And a chamber with the door thereof was by the posts at the gates; there they washed the burnt-offering. And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt-offering and the sin-offering and the trespass-offering. And on the one side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were two tables. Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew the sacrifices. And there were four tables for the burnt-offering, of hewn stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high; whereupon they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt-offering and the sacrifice. And the hooks, a handbreadth long, were fastened within round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the oblation. And without the inner gate were chambers for the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north. And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house; and the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok, who from among the sons of Levi come near to Jehovah to minister unto him. And he measured the court, a hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar was before the house. Then he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on 49 that side. The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; even by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

41 And he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other 2 side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle. And the breadth of the entrance was ten cubits; and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits, and the breadth, 3 twenty cubits. Then went he inward, and measured each post of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the 4 breadth of the entrance, seven cubits. And he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy 5 place. Then he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side-chamber, four cubits, round about 6 the house on every side. And the side-chambers were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side-chambers 7 round about, that they might have hold therein, and not have hold in the wall of the house. And the side-chambers were broader as they encompassed the house higher and higher; for the encompassing of the house went higher and higher round 8 about the house: therefore the breadth of the house continued upward; and so one went up from the lowest chamber to the highest by the middle chamber. I saw also that the house had a raised basement round about: the foundations of the side-9 chambers were a full reed of six great cubits. The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-chambers, on the outside, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the 10 side-chambers that belonged to the house. And between the chambers was a breadth of twenty cubits round about the house 11 on every side. And the doors of the side-chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about. And the building that was before 12 the separate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits. So he measured the 13 house, a hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, a hundred cubits long; also the 14 breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, a hundred cubits. And he measured the length of the 15 building before the separate place which was at the back thereof, and the galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, a hundred cubits; and the inner temple, and the porches of the court; the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries 16 round about on their three stories, over against the threshold, ceiled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, (now the windows were covered), to the space above 17 the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, by measure. And it 18 was made with cherubim and palm-trees; and a palm-tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces; so 19 that there was the face of a man toward the palm-tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm-tree on the other side. thus was it made through all the house round about: from the ground unto above the door were cherubim 20 and palm-trees made: thus was the wall of the temple. As for the temple, the door-posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, the appearance thereof was as the appearance of the temple. The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and the 22 length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the table that is before Jehovah. And the temple 23 and the sanctuary had two doors. And the doors had two leaves 24 apiece, two turning leaves: two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other. And there were made on them, on the 25 doors of the temple, cherubim and palm-trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there was a threshold of wood upon the face of the porch without. And there were closed windows and 26 palm-trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch: thus were the side-chambers of the house, and the thresholds.

42 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was over against the building toward the north. Before the length of a hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. Over against the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and over against the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in the third story. And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits' breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors were toward the north. Now the upper chambers were shorter; for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middlemost, in the building. For they were in three stories, and they had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the uppermost was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground. And the wall that was without by the side of the chambers, toward the outer court before the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits. For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were a hundred cubits. And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into them from the outer court. In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, before the separate place, and before the building, there were chambers. And the way before them was like the appearance of the way of the chambers which were toward the north; according to their length so was their breadth: and all their egresses were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them. Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they are the holy chambers, where the priests that are near unto Jehovah shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meal-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; for the place is holy. 14 When the priests enter in, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy: and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which pertaineth to the people. Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about. He measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. He measured on the north side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed round about. He measured on the south side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. He measured it on the four sides: it had a wall round about, the length five hundred, and the breadth five hundred, to make a separation between that which was holy and that which was common.

Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east. And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shined with his glory. And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face. And the glory of Jehovah came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east. And the Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of Jehovah filled the house. And I heard one speaking unto me out of the house; and a man stood by me. And he said unto me, Son of man, this is the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever. And the house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, and by the dead bodies of their kings in their high places; in their setting of their threshold by my threshold, and their door-post beside my door-post, and there was but the wall between me and them; and they have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger. Now let them put away their whoredom, and the dead bodies of their kings, far from me; and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever. Thou, son of man, show the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern. And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, make known unto them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the egresses thereof, and the entrances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof; and write it in their sight; that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house: upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this

13 is the law of the house. And these are the measures of the altar by cubits (the cubit is a cubit and a handbreadth): the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about a span; and this shall be the

14 base of the altar. And from the bottom upon the ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser ledge to the greater ledge shall be four cubits, and 15 the breadth a cubit. And the upper altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar hearth and upward there shall be four horns.

16 And the altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve broad,

17 square in the four sides thereof. And the ledge shall be fourteen cubits long by fourteen broad in the four sides thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit round about; and the steps thereof shall look

18 toward the east. And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord Jehovah: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, and 19 to sprinkle blood thereon. Thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that are of the seed of Zadok, who are near unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord Jehovah, a young bullock for a 20 sin-offering. And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the ledge, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse it

21 and make atonement for it. Thou shalt also take the bullock of the sin-offering, and it shall be burnt in the appointed place of 22 the house, without the sanctuary. And on the second day thou shalt offer a he-goat without blemish for a sin-offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock with-

24 out blemish. And thou shalt bring them near before Jehovah, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt-offering unto Jehovah. Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin-offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it; so shall they consecrate it. And when they have accomplished the days, it shall be that upon the eighth day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt-offerings upon the altar, and your peace-offerings; and I will accept you, saith the Lord Jehovah.

Then he brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looketh toward the east; and it was shut. And Jehovah said unto me, This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, neither shall any man enter in by it; for Jehovah, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it; therefore it shall be shut. As for the prince, he shall sit therein as prince to eat bread before Jehovah; he shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go out by the way of the same. Then he brought me by the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and, behold, the glory of Jehovah filled the house of Jehovah: and I fell upon my face. And Jehovah said unto me, Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of Jehovah, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every egress of the sanctuary. And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations, in that ye have brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, to add unto all your abominations. And ye have not kept the charge of my holy things; but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah, No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any foreigners that are among the children of Israel. But the Levites that went far from me, when Israel went astray, that went astray from me after their idols, they shall bear their iniquity. Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house: they shall slay the burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them 12 to minister unto them. Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and became a stumblingblock of iniquity unto the house of Israel; therefore have I lifted up my hand against them, saith the Lord Jehovah, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And they shall not come near unto me, to execute the office of priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, unto the things that are most holy; but they shall bear their 14 shame, and their abominations which they have committed. Yet will I make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the 15 service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein. But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me; and they shall stand 16 before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord Jehovah: they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall 17 come near to my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge. And it shall be that, when they enter in at the gates 18 of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. They shall have linen tires upon 19 their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with anything that causeth sweat. And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they 20 minister, and lay them in the holy chambers; and they shall put on other garments, that they sanctify not the people with their garments. Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their 21 locks to grow long; they shall only cut off the hair of their heads. Neither shall any of the priests drink wine, when they enter into 22 the inner court. Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her that is put away; but they shall take virgins of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that is the widow of a priest.
23 And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. And in a controversy they shall stand to judge; 24 according to mine ordinances shall they judge it: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts; and they shall hallow my sabbaths. And they shall go in to no dead person to defile themselves; but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves. And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days. And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin-offering, saith the Lord Jehovah. And they shall have an inheritance: I am their inheritance; and ye shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession. They shall eat the meal-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs. And the first of all the first-fruits of every thing, and every oblation of everything, of all your oblations, shall be for the priest: ye shall also give unto the priests the first of your dough, to cause a blessing to rest on thy house. The priests shall not eat of anything that dieth of itself, or is torn, whether it be bird or beast.

Moreover, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto Jehovah, a holy portion of the land; the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand: it shall be holy in all the border thereof round about. Of this there shall be for the holy place five hundred in length by five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits for the suburbs thereof round about. And of this measure shalt thou measure a length of five and twenty thousand, and a breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary, which is most holy. It is a holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, that come near to minister unto Jehovah; and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary. And five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth, shall be unto the Levites, the ministers of the house, for a possession unto themselves, for twenty chambers. And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, side by side with the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel. And whatsoever is for the prince shall be on the one side and on the other side of the holy oblation and of the possession of the city, in front of the holy oblation and in front of the possession of the city, on the west side westward, and on the east side eastward; and in length answerable unto one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.

8 In the land it shall be to him for a possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; but they shall give the 9 land to the house of Israel according to their tribes. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute justice and righteousness; take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord Jehovah.

10 Ye shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.
11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.
12 And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs; twenty shekels, five and 13 twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh. This is the oblation that ye shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of wheat; and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah 14 from a homer of barley; and the set portion of oil, of the bath of oil, the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is ten baths, 15 even a homer; (for ten baths are a homer;) and one lamb of the flock, out of two hundred, from the well-watered pastures of Israel; for a meal-offering, and for a burnt-offering, and for peace-offerings, to make atonement for them, saith the Lord Jehovah.

16 All the people of the land shall give unto this oblation for the 17 prince in Israel. And it shall be the prince's part to give the burnt-offerings, and the meal-offerings, and the drink-offerings, in the feasts, and on the new moons, and on the sabbaths, in all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin-offering, and the meal-offering, and the burnt-offering, and the peace-offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.

18 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish; 19 and thou shalt cleanse the sanctuary. And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin-offering, and put it upon the door-posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the ledge of the altar, 20 and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court. And so thou shalt do on the seventh day of the month for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye make atonement for the house. In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the 21 month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. And upon that day shall the prince 22 prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bullock for a sin-offering. And the seven days of the feast he shall pre- 23 pare a burnt-offering to Jehovah, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a he-goat daily for a sin-offering. And he shall prepare a meal-offering, an ephah 24 for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil to an ephah. In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, 25 in the feast, shall he do the like the seven days; according to the sin-offering, according to the burnt-offering, and according to the meal-offering, and according to the oil.

Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: The gate of the inner court that 46 looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath day it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened. And the prince shall enter by the way 2 of the porch of the gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate; and the priests shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. And the people of the land shall worship at the door of 3 that gate before Jehovah on the sabbaths and on the new moons.
And the burnt-offering that the prince shall offer unto Jehovah 4 shall be on the sabbath day six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish; and the meal-offering shall be an ephah 5 for the ram, and the meal-offering for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. And on the day of the new 6 moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without blemish: and he shall prepare 7 a meal-offering, an ephah for the bullock, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according as he is able, and a hin of oil to an ephah. And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in 8 by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof. But when the people of the land shall come before 9 Jehovah in the appointed feasts, he that entereth by the way of the north gate to worship shall go forth by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth straight before 10 him. And the prince, when they go in, shall go in in the midst of them; and when they go forth, they shall go forth together.

11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities the meal-offering shall be an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the 12 lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. And when the prince shall prepare a freewill-offering, a burnt-offering or peace-offerings as a freewill-offering unto Jehovah, one shall open for him the gate that looketh toward the east; and he shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, as he doth on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going 13 forth one shall shut the gate. And thou shalt prepare a lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt-offering unto Jehovah 14 daily: morning by morning shalt thou prepare it. And thou shalt prepare a meal-offering with it morning by morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour; a meal-offering unto Jehovah continually 15 by a perpetual ordinance. Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meal-offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a 16 continual burnt-offering. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, it is his inheritance, it shall 17 belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance. But if he give of his inheritance a gift to one of his servants, it shall be his to the year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince; but as 18 for his inheritance, it shall be for his sons. Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance, to thrust them out of their possession; he shall give inheritance to his sons out of his own possession, that my people be not scattered every man from 19 his possession. Then he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers for the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place 20 on the hinder part westward. And he said unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass-offering and the sin-offering, and where they shall bake the meal-offering; that they bring them not forth into the outer court, to sanctify the 21 people. Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, 22 in every corner of the court there was a court. In the four corners of the court there were courts inclosed, forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four in the corners were of one measure. And there was a wall round about in them, round about the four, and boiling-places were made under the walls round about. Then said he unto me, These are the boiling-houses, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

And he brought me back unto the door of the house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward; (for the forefront of the house was toward the east;) and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, on the south of the altar. Then he brought me out by the way of the gate northward, and led me round by the way without unto the outer gate, by the way of the gate that looketh toward the east; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side. When the man went forth eastward with the line in his hand, he measured a thousand cubits, and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles. Again he measured a thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the loins. Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through; for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed through. And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the bank of the river. Now when I had returned, behold, upon the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other. Then said he unto me, These waters issue forth toward the eastern region, and shall go down into the Arabah; and they shall go toward the sea; into the sea shall the waters go which were made to issue forth; and the waters shall be healed. And it shall come to pass, that every living creature which swarmeth, in every place whither the rivers come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish; for these waters are come thither, and the waters of the sea shall be healed, and everything shall live whithersoever the river cometh. And it shall come to pass, that fishers shall stand by it: from En-gedi even unto En-eglaim shall be a place for the spreading of nets; their fish shall be after their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many. But the miry places thereof, and the marshes thereof, shall not 12 be healed; they shall be given up to salt. And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow every tree for food, whose leaf shall not wither, neither shall the fruit thereof fail: it shall bring forth new fruit every month, because the waters thereof issue out of the sanctuary; and the fruit thereof shall be for food, and the leaf thereof for healing.

13 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: This shall be the border, whereby ye shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve 14 tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions. And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another; for I swear to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land: On the north side, from the great sea, by the way of Hethlon, unto the entrance

16 of Zedad; Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazer-hatticon, 17 which is by the border of Hauran. And the border from the sea, shall be Hazar-enon at the border of Damascus; and on the north northward is the border of Hamath. This is the north

18 side. And the east side, between Hauran and Damascus and Gilead, and the land of Israel, shall be the Jordan; from the north border unto the east sea shall ye measure. This is the east

19 side. And the south side southward shall be from Tamar as far as the waters of Meribath-kadesh, to the brook of Egypt, unto 20 the great sea. This is the south side southward. And the west side shall be the great sea, from the south border as far as over 21 against the entrance of Hamath. This is the west side. So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Israel.

22 And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you and to the strangers that sojourn among you, who shall beget children among you; and they shall be unto you as the home-born among the children of Israel; they shall

23 have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord Jehovah.

48 Now these are the names of the tribes: From the north end, beside the way of Hethlon to the entrance of Hamath, Hazar-enan at the border of Damascus, northward beside Hamath, (and they shall have their sides east and west,) Dan, one portion.

2 And by the border of Dan, from the east side unto the west side, Asher, one portion. And by the border of Asher, from the east 3 side even unto the west side, Naphtali, one portion. And by 4 the border of Naphtali, from the east side unto the west side, Manasseh, one portion. And by the border of Manasseh, from 5 the east side unto the west side, Ephraim, one portion. And by 6 the border of Ephraim, from the east side even unto the west side, Reuben, one portion. And by the border of Reuben, from 7 the east side unto the west side, Judah, one portion. And by 8 the border of Judah, from the east side unto the west side, shall be the oblation which ye shall offer, five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the portions, from the east side unto the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it. The oblation that ye shall offer unto Jehovah shall 9 be five and twenty thousand reeds in length, and ten thousand in breadth. And for these, even for the priests, shall be the holy 10 oblation: toward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the sanctuary of Jehovah shall be in the midst thereof. It shall be for the priests that are sanctified 11 of the sons of Zadok, that have kept my charge, that went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray. And it shall be unto them an oblation from the oblation 12 of the land, a thing most holy, by the border of the Levites.

And answerable unto the border of the priests, the Levites shall 13 have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand. And they shall sell none of it, nor 14 exchange it, nor shall the first-fruits of the land be alienated; for it is holy unto Jehovah. And the five thousand that are left 15 in the breadth, in front of the five and twenty thousand, shall be for common use, for the city, for dwelling and for suburbs; and the city shall be in the midst thereof. And these shall 16 be the measures thereof: the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. And the city shall have 17 suburbs: toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred 18 and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty. And the residue in the length, answerable unto the holy oblation, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it shall be answerable unto the holy oblation; and the increase 19 thereof shall be for food unto them that labor in the city. And they that labor in the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall 20 till it. All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation four-21 square, with the possession of the city. And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation and of the possession of the city; in front of the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward in front of the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, answerable unto the portions, it shall be for the prince: and the holy oblation and the sanctuary of the house 22 shall be in the midst thereof. Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah 23 and the border of Benjamin, it shall be for the prince. And as for the rest of the tribes: from the east side unto the west 24 side, Benjamin, one portion. And by the border of Benjamin, 25 from the east side unto the west side, Simeon, one portion. And by the border of Simeon, from the east side unto the west side, 26 Issachar, one portion. And by the border of Issachar, from the 27 east side unto the west side, Zebulun, one portion. And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side unto the west side, 28 Gad, one portion. And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar unto the waters of Meribath-kadesh, to the brook of Egypt, unto the great sea.

29 This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their several portions, saith 30 the Lord Jehovah. And these are the egresses of the city: On the north side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure; 31 and the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates northward: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate 32 of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one. And at the east side four thousand and five hundred reeds, and three gates: even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one.
33 And at the south side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure, and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one. At the west side four ³⁴ thousand and five hundred reefs, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one. It shall be eighteen thousand reefs round about: and the name ³⁵ of the city from that day shall be, Jehovah is there.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL.

1  n the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, 2 and besieged it. And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God; and he carried them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god: and he brought the vessels into the treasure-3 house of his god. And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in certain of the children 4 of Israel, even of the seed royal and of the nobles; youths in whom was no blemish, but well-favored, and skilful in all wisdom, and endued with knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.
5 And the king appointed for them a daily portion of the king's dainties, and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished three years; that at the end thereof they should 6 stand before the king. Now among these were, of the children 7 of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. And the prince of the eunuchs gave names unto them: unto Daniel he gave the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.
8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might 9 not defile himself. Now God made Daniel to find kindness and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs. And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your food and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths that are of your 10 own age? so would ye endanger my head with the king. Then said Daniel to the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had 11 appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink. Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the youths that eat of the king's dainties; and as thou seest, deal with thy servants. So he hearkened unto them in this matter, and proved them ten days. And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths that did eat of the king's dainties. So the steward took away their dainties, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse. Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. And at the end of the days which the king had appointed for bringing them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king. And in every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters that were in all his realm. And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep went from him. Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream. Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in the Syrian language, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation. The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye make not known unto me the dream and the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill. But if ye show the dream and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honor: therefore show me the dream and the interpretation thereof. They answered the second time and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation. The king answered and said, I know of a certainty that ye would gain time, because ye see the 9 thing is gone from me. But if ye make not known unto me the dream, there is but one law for you; for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can show 10 me the interpretation thereof. The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can show the king's matter, forasmuch as no king, lord, or ruler, hath asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is no other that can show it before the king, except the gods, whose 12 dwelling is not with flesh. For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of 13 Babylon. So the decree went forth, and the wise men were to be slain; and they sought Daniel and his companions to be slain.
14 Then Daniel returned answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who was gone forth to slay 15 the wise men of Babylon; he answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Wherefore is the decree so urgent from the king?
16 Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. And Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would appoint him a time, and 17 he would show the king the interpretation. Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, 18 and Azariah, his companions: that they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions should nor perish with the rest of the wise men of 19 Babylon. Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a vision 20 of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever; 21 for wisdom and might are his. And he changeth the times and the seasons; he removeth kings, and setteth up kings; he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that have under-22 standing; he revealeth the deep and secret things; he knoweth 23 what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him. I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast now made known unto me what we desired of thee; for thou hast made known unto us the king's 24 matter. Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said thus unto him: Destroy not the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will show unto the king the interpretation. Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, 25 and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the children of the captivity of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation. The king answered and said to Daniel, whose 26 name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof? Daniel answered before the king, and said, The secret which the 27 king hath demanded can neither wise men, enchanters, magicians, nor soothsayers, show unto the king; but there is a God 28 in heaven that revealeth secrets, and he hath made known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these: as 29 for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter; and he that revealeth secrets hath made known to thee what shall come to pass. But as for 30 me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that thou mayest know the thoughts of thy heart. Thou, O king, sawest, and, behold, 31 a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the aspect thereof was terrible. As for this image, its head was of fine gold, its breast 32 and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of brass, its legs of iron, its feet part of iron, and part of clay. Thou sawest till 34 that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon its feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them in pieces. Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, 35 broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors; and the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. This is 36 the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king. Thou, O king, art king of kings, unto whom the God of 37 heaven hath given the kingdom, the power, and the strength, and the glory; and wheresoever the children of men dwell, the 38 beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens hath he given into thy hand, and hath made thee to rule over them all: thou art the 39 head of gold. And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee; and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear 40 rule over all the earth. And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron, forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things; and as iron that crusheth all these, shall it break in pieces 41 and crush. And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou 42 sawest the iron mixed with miry clay. And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be 43 partly strong, and partly broken. And whereas thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men; but they shall not cleave one to another, even as 44 iron doth not mingle with clay. And in the days of those kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall the sovereignty thereof be left to another people; but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, 45 and it shall stand for ever. Forasmuch as thou sawest that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the 46 interpretation thereof sure. Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they 47 should offer an oblation and sweet odors unto him. The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth your God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing 48 thou hast been able to reveal this secret. Then the king made Daniel great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him to rule over the whole province of Babylon, and to be chief governor 49 over all the wise men of Babylon. And Daniel requested of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel was in the gate of the king.

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set 2 it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. Then the satraps, the deputies, and the gov- 3 ernors, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. Then the herald cried aloud, To you it is com- 4 manded, O peoples, nations, and languages, that at what time 5 ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up; and 6 whoso falleth not down and worshipping shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. Therefore 7 at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and 8 brought accusation against the Jews. They answered and said 9 to Nebuchadnezzar the king, O king, live for ever. Thou, O 10 king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image; and whoso falleth not down and worshipping, shall be 11 cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. There are certain 12 Jews whom thou hast appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. Then Neb- 13 uchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king. Nebuchadnezzar answered and said unto them, Is 14 it of purpose, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, that ye serve not my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound 15 of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who 16 is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands? Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego answered and said to the king, O Neb-17 uchadnezzar, we have no need to answer thee in this matter. If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of thy hand, O 18 king. But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast 19 set up. Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he commanded certain mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them 21 into the burning fiery furnace. Then these men were bound in their hosen, their tunics, and their mantles, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.
22 Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that 23 took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into 24 the midst of the burning fiery furnace. Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste: he spake and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, 25 O king. He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the aspect 26 of the fourth is like a son of the gods. Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace: he spake and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the Most High God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego came forth out of the midst of the fire.
27 And the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, that the fire had no power upon their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their hosen changed, nor had the smell of 28 fire passed on them. Nebuchadnezzar spake and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak anything amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other god that is able to deliver after this sort. Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego in the province of Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar the king, unto all the peoples, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied unto you. It hath seemed good unto me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God hath wrought toward me. How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation. I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace. I saw a dream which made me afraid; and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream. Then came in the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers; and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof. But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and I told the dream before him, saying, O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof. Thus were the visions of my head upon my bed: I saw, and, behold, a tree in the midst of the earth; and the height thereof was great. The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth. The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was food for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the birds of the heavens dwelt in the branches thereof, and all flesh was fed from it. I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and a holy one came down

14 from heaven. He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls 15 from its branches. Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven: and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth: 16 let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be 17 given unto him; and let seven times pass over him. The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the lowest of 18 men. This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen; and thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation; but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy 19 gods is in thee. Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stricken dumb for a while, and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the 20 interpretation thereof to thine adversaries. The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto 21 heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth; whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was food for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the 22 birds of the heavens had their habitation: it is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong; for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the 23 earth. And whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew down the tree, and destroy it; nevertheless leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of heaven: and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass 24 over him; this is the interpretation, O king, and it is the decree of the Most High, which is come upon my lord the king: that 25 thou shalt be driven from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and thou shalt be made to eat grass as oxen, and shalt be wet with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee; till thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. And 26 whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule. Wherefore, O king, let 27 my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if there may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity. All this came 28 upon the king Nebuchadnezzar. At the end of twelve months he was walking in the royal palace of Babylon. The king spake and 30 said, Is not this great Babylon, which I have built for the royal dwelling-place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty? While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a 31 voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken: The kingdom is departed from thee: and thou shalt be 32 driven from men; and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field; thou shalt be made to eat grass as oxen; and seven times shall pass over thee; until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: 33 and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hair was grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws. And at the end 34 of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored him that liveth for ever; for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation. And all the inhabitants of the 35 earth are reputed as nothing; and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou? At the same time mine understanding returned unto me; and for 36 the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added unto me. Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and 37 honor the King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

5 Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his 2 lords, and drank wine before the thousand. Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the 3 temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might drink therefrom. Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his 4 lords, his wives and his concubines, drank from them. They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, 5 of iron, of wood, and of stone. In the same hour came forth the fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw 6 the part of the hand that wrote. Then the king's countenance was changed in him, and his thoughts troubled him; and the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against 7 another. The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. The king spake and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and show me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the 8 third ruler in the kingdom. Then came in all the king's wise men; but they could not read the writing, nor make known to 9 the king the interpretation. Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords 10 were perplexed. Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: the queen spake and said, O king, live forever; let not thy thoughts trouble thee, 11 nor let thy countenance be changed. There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made him master of the 12 magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and soothsayers; forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of dark sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation. Then was Daniel brought in before the king. 13 The king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, who art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah? I have heard of thee, that the 14 spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in thee. And now the wise 15 men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof; but they could not show the interpretation of the thing. But I have heard of thee, that thou canst give in- 16 terpretations, and dissolve doubts; now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom. Then 17 Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation. O thou king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar 18 thy father the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty: and because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, 19 nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down. But 20 when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: and he was driven from 21 the sons of men, and his heart was made like the beasts', and his dwelling was with the wild asses; he was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; until he knew that the Most High God ruleth in the kingdom of men, and that he setteth up over it whomsoever he will. And thou 22 his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thy heart, though thou knewest all this, but hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of 23 heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou and thy lords, thy wives and thy concubines, have drunk wine from them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know; and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified. Then was 24 the part of the hand sent from before him, and this writing was 25 inscribed. And this is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, 26 MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and brought 27 it to an end; TEKEL; thou art weighed in the balances, and 28 art found wanting. PERES; thy kingdom is divided, and given 29 to the Medes and Persians. Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should 30 be the third ruler in the kingdom. In that night Belshazzar the 31 Chaldean King was slain. And Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

6 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom a hundred and twenty satraps, who should be throughout the whole kingdom; 2 and over them three presidents, of whom Daniel was one; that these satraps might give account unto them, and that the king 3 should have no damage. Then this Daniel was distinguished above the presidents and the satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole 4 realm. Then the presidents and the satraps sought to find occasión against Daniel as touching the kingdom; but they could find no occasion nor fault, forasmuch as he was faithful, neither 5 was there any error or fault found in him. Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find 6 it against him concerning the law of his God. Then these presidents and satraps assembled together to the king, and said thus 7 unto him, King Darius, live for ever. All the presidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counsellors and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong interdict, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he 8 shall be cast into the den of lions. Now, O king, establish the interdict, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to 9 the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not. Where-10 fore king Darius signed the writing and the interdict. And when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his chamber toward Jerusalem) and he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and 11 gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime. Then these men assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God. Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's interdict: Hast thou not signed an interdict, that every man that shall make petition unto any god or man within thirty days, save unto thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not. Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the interdict that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day. Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he labored till the going down of the sun to rescue him. Then these men assembled together unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no interdict nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed. Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee. And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting; neither were instruments of music brought before him: and his sleep fled from him. Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions. And when he came near unto the den to Daniel, he cried with a lamentable voice; the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions? Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever. My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt. Then was the king exceeding glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he had trusted in his God. And the king commanded, and they brought those men that had accused

Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces, before they came to the bottom of the den. Then king Darius wrote unto all the peoples, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied unto you. I make a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, And his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed; and his dominion shall be even unto the end. He delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions. So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

7 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote 2 the dream and told the sum of the matters. Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of 3 heaven brake forth upon the great sea. And four great beasts 4 came up from the sea, diverse one from another. The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand upon two feet as a man; and a man's heart was given to 5 it. And, behold, another beast, a second, like to a bear; and it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much 6 flesh. After this I beheld, and, lo, another, like a leopard, which had upon its back four wings of a bird; the beast had also four 7 heads; and dominion was given to it. After this I saw in the night-visions, and, behold, a fourth beast, terrible and powerful, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it 8 had ten horns. I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking 9 great things. I beheld till thrones were placed, and one that was ancient of days did sit: his raiment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and the wheels thereof burning fire. A fiery stream issued and came 10 forth from before him: thousands of thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. I beheld 11 at that time because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake; I beheld even till the beast was slain, and its body destroyed, and it was given to be burned with fire. And as for 12 the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time. I saw in the night- 13 visions, and, behold, there came with the clouds of heaven one like unto a son of man, and he came even to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And there was given 14 him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. As for me, Daniel, my spirit 15 was grieved in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. I came near unto one of them that stood by, and 16 asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. These great beasts, 17 which are four, are four kings, that shall arise out of the earth.

But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and 18 possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever. Then 19 I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth beast, which was diverse from all of them, exceeding terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; and concerning the ten 20 horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake great things, whose look was more stout than its fellows. I beheld, and the same horn made war with the 21 saints, and prevailed against them; until the ancient of days 22 came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom. Thus 23 he said, The fourth beast shall be a fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.
And as for the ten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten kings 24 arise: and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse 25 from the former, and he shall put down three kings. And he shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High; and he shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand until a time 26 and times and half a time. But the judgment shall be set, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy 27 it unto the end. And the kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High: his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts much troubled me, and my countenance was changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

8 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me, Daniel, after that which appeared 2 unto me at the first. And I saw in the vision; now it was so, that when I saw, I was in Shushan the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai.
3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher 4 came up last. I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no beasts could stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did 5 according to his will, and magnified himself. And as I was considering, behold, a he-goat came from the west over the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had 6 a notable horn between his eyes. And he came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and 7 ran upon him in the fury of his power. And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he cast him down to the ground, and trampled upon him; and there was none that 8 could deliver the ram out of his hand. And the he-goat magnified himself exceedingly: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable 9 horns toward the four winds of heaven. And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the glorious land.

And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and some of the host and of the stars it cast down to the ground, and trampled upon them. Yea, it magnified itself, even to the prince of the host; and it took away from him the continual burnt-offering, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. And the host was given over to it together with the continual burnt-offering through transgression; and it cast down truth to the ground, and it did its pleasure and prospered. Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said unto that certain one who spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the continual burnt-offering, and the transgression that maketh desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?
And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.
And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, that I sought to understand it; and, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man. And I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision. So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was affrighted, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man; for the vision belongeth to the time of the end. Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he touched me, and set me upright. And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the latter time of the indignation; for it belongeth to the appointed time of the end. The ram which thou sawest, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia. And the rough he-goat is the king of Greece: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. And as for that which was broken, in the place whereof four stood up, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not with his power. And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power; and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper and do his pleasure; and he shall destroy the mighty ones and the holy people. And through his policy he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and in their security shall he destroy many: he shall also stand up against the prince of princes; but he shall be broken without 26 hand. And the vision of the evenings and mornings which hath been told is true: but shut thou up the vision; for it belongeth 27 to many days to come. And I, Daniel, fainted, and was sick certain days; then I rose up, and did the king's business: and I wondered at the vision, but none understood it.

9 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, 2 in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years whereof the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah the prophet, for the accomplishing of the desolations of 3 Jerusalem, even seventy years. And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting and sack-4 cloth and ashes. And I prayed unto Jehovah my God, and made confession, and said, Oh, Lord, the great and dreadful God, who keepeth covenant and lovingkindness with them that love him 5 and keep his commandments, we have sinned, and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even turn-6 ing aside from thy precepts and from thine ordinances; neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, that spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the 7 people of the land. O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of face, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have tres-8 passed against thee. O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have 9 sinned against thee. To the Lord our God belong mercies and 10 forgiveness; for we have rebelled against him; neither have we obeyed the voice of Jehovah our God, to walk in his laws, which 11 he set before us by his servants the prophets. Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even turning aside, that they should not obey thy voice: therefore hath the curse been poured out upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the 12 servant of God; for we have sinned against him. And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil; for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem. As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet have we not entreated the favor of Jehovah our God, that we should turn from our iniquities, and have discernment in thy truth. Therefore hath Jehovah watched over 14 the evil, and brought it upon us; for Jehovah our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth, and we have not obeyed his voice. And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy 15 people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, let 16 thine anger and thy wrath, I pray thee, be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are round about us. Now therefore, 17

O our God, hearken unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. O my God, incline thine 18 ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousness, but for thy great mercies' sake. O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken 19 and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God, because thy city and thy people are called by thy name. And while I was 20 speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before Jehovah my God for the holy mountain of my God; yea, while I was speak-21 ing in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. And he instructed me, and 22 talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee wisdom and understanding. At the beginning of thy sup-23 plications the commandment went forth, and I am come to tell thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision. Seventy weeks are decreed upon 24 thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision

25 and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy. Know therefore and discern, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the anointed one, the prince, shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: it shall be 26 built again, with street and moat, even in troublous times. And after the threescore and two weeks shall the anointed one be cut off, and shall have nothing: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and even unto the end shall be war; 27 desolations are determined. And he shall make a firm covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease; and upon the wing of abominations shall come one that maketh desolate; and even unto the full end, and that determined, shall wrath be poured out upon the desolate.

10 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, even a great warfare: and he understood the thing, and 2 had understanding of the vision. In those days I, Daniel, was 3 mourning three whole weeks. I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself 4 at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled. And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great 5 river, which is Hiddekel, I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, a man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with pure 6 gold of Uphaz: his body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as flaming torches, and his arms and his feet like unto burnished brass, and the 7 voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision; for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, and they fled to hide 8 themselves. So I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me; for my comeliness was turned 9 in me into corruption, and I retained no strength. Yet heard I the voice of his words; and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I fallen into a deep sleep on my face, with my face 10 toward the ground. And, behold, a hand touched me, which set 11 me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands. And he said unto me, O Daniel, thou man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright; for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling. Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel; for from the first day that thou didst set thy heart to understand, and to humble thyself before thy God, thy words were heard: and I am come for thy words' sake. But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days; but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me: and I remained there with the kings of Persia. Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days; for the vision is yet for many days: and when he had spoken unto me according to these words, I set my face toward the ground, and was dumb. And, behold, one in the likeness of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by reason of the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I retain no strength. For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither was there breath left in me. Then there touched me again one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me. And he said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he spake unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me. Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I am come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I go forth, lo, the prince of Greece shall come. But I will tell thee that which is inscribed in the writing of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me against these, but Michael your prince.

And as for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him. And now will I show thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and when he is waxed strong through his riches, he shall stir up all against the realm of Greece. And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion wherewith he ruled; for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides these. And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion 6 shall be a great dominion. And at the end of years they shall join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the strength of her arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened 7 her in those times. But out of a shoot from her roots shall one stand up in his place, who shall come unto the army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal 8 against them, and shall prevail. And also their gods, with their molten images, and with their goodly vessels of silver and of gold, shall he carry captive into Egypt; and he shall refrain some 9 years from the king of the north. And he shall come into the realm of the king of the south, but he shall return into his own 10 land. And his sons shall war, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces, which shall come on, and overflow, and pass through; and they shall return and war, even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with anger, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north; and he shall set forth a great multitude, and the multitude shall 12 be given into his hand. And the multitude shall be lifted up, and his heart shall be exalted; and he shall cast down tens of 13 thousands, but he shall not prevail. And the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former; and he shall come on at the end of the times, even of 14 years, with a great army and with much substance. And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the children of the violent among thy people shall 15 lift themselves up to establish the vision; but they shall fall. So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mound, and take a well-fortified city: and the forces of the south shall not stand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to 16 stand. But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him; and he shall stand in 17 the glorious land, and in his hand shall be destruction. And he shall set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and with him equitable conditions; and he shall perform them:

and he shall give him the daughter of women, to corrupt her; but she shall not stand, neither be for him. After this shall he 18 turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; yea, moreover, he shall cause his reproach to turn upon him. Then he shall 19 turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land; but he shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found. Then shall stand up 20 in his place one that shall cause an exactor to pass through the glory of the kingdom; but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle. And in his place shall stand up 21 a contemptible person, to whom they had not given the honor of the kingdom: but he shall come in time of security, and shall obtain the kingdom by flatteries. And the overwhelming forces 22 shall be overwhelmed from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant. And after the league made with 23 him he shall work deceitfully; for he shall come up, and shall become strong, with a small people. In time of security shall he 24 come even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them prey, and spoil, and substance: yea, he shall devise his devices against the strongholds, even for a time. And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king 25 of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall war in battle with an exceeding great and mighty army; but he shall not stand; for they shall devise devices against him. Yea, 26 they that eat of his dainties shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow; and many shall fall down slain. And as for both these 27 kings, their hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table: but it shall not prosper; for yet the end shall be at the time appointed. Then shall he return into his land with 28 great substance; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do his pleasure, and return to his own land. At the 29 time appointed he shall return, and come into the south; but it shall not be in the latter time as it was in the former. For ships 30 of Kittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and shall return, and have indignation against the holy covenant, and shall do his pleasure: he shall even return, and have regard unto them that forsake the holy covenant. And forces shall 31 stand on his part, and they shall profane the sanctuary, even the fortress, and shall take away the continual burnt-offering, and 32 they shall set up the abomination that maketh desolate. And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he pervert by flatteries; but the people that know their God shall be strong, 33 and do exploits. And they that are wise among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall fall by the sword and by flame, 34 by captivity and by spoil, many days. Now when they shall fall, they shall be helped with a little help; but many shall join 35 themselves unto them with flatteries. And some of them that are wise shall fall, to refine them, and to purify, and to make them white, even to the time of the end; because it is yet for the 36 time appointed. And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods; and he shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished; for that which 37 is determined shall be done. Neither shall he regard the gods of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god; for he 38 shall magnify himself above all. But in his place shall he honor the god of fortresses; and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and 39 pleasant things. And he shall deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god: whosoever acknowledgeth him he will increase with glory; and he shall cause them to rule over 40 many, and shall divide the land for a price. And at the time of the end shall the king of the south contend with him; and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass through.

41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall be delivered out of his hand: 42 Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries; and the land 43 of Egypt shall not escape. But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his 44 steps. But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him; and he shall go forth with great fury to destroy and 45 utterly to sweep away many. And he shall plant the tents of his palace between the sea and the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince who standeth for the children of thy people; and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. And they that are wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased. Then I, Daniel, looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on the brink of the river on this side, and the other on the brink of the river on that side. And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and a half; and when they have made an end of breaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my lord, what shall be the issue of these things? And he said, Go thy way, Daniel; for the words are shut up and sealed till the time of the end. Many shall purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand; but they that are wise shall understand. And from the time that the continual burnt-offering shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand and two hundred and ninety days. Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days. But go thou thy way till the end be; for thou shalt rest, and shalt stand in thy lot, at the end of the days. 12

HOSEA.

- 1  he word of Jehovah that came unto Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and 2  Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel. When Jehovah spake at the first by Hosea, Jehovah said unto Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredom and children of whoredom; for the land 3 doth commit great whoredom, departing from Jehovah. So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she con-4 ceived, and bare him a son. And Jehovah said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause the king-5 dom of the house of Israel to cease. And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of 6 Jezreel. And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And Jehovah said unto him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah; for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel, that I should in 7 any wise pardon them. But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by Jehovah their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, 8 nor by horsemen. Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she 9 conceived, and bare a son. And Jehovah said, Call his name Lo-ammi; for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.
10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass that, in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of 11 the living God. And the children of Judah and the children of Israel shall be gathered together, and they shall appoint themselves one head, and shall go up from the land; for great shall be the day of Jezreel.
- 2 Say ye unto your brethren, Ammi; and to your sisters, Ruhamah.
2 Contend with your mother, contend; for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband; and let her put away her whoredoms from her face, and her adulteries from between her breasts; lest 3 I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst. Yea, upon her children will I have no mercy; 4 for they are children of whoredom; for their mother hath played 5 the harlot; she that conceived them hath done shamefully; for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink. Therefore, 6 behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and I will build a wall against her, that she shall not find her paths. And she 7 shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now. For she did not know that I gave her 8 the grain, and the new wine, and the oil, and multiplied unto her silver and gold, which they used for Baal. Therefore will I 9 take back my grain in the time thereof, and my new wine in the season thereof, and will pluck away my wool and my flax which should have covered her nakedness. And now will I uncover her 10 lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of my hand. I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feasts, 11 her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn assemblies.

And I will lay waste her vines and her fig-trees, whereof she hath 12 said, These are my hire that my lovers have given me; and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.
And I will visit upon her the days of the Baalim, unto which 13 she burned incense, when she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and went after her lovers, and forgot me, saith Jehovah. Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into 14 the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her. And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope; and she shall make answer there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt. And it shall be at that day, saith Jehovah, that thou 16 shalt call me Ishi, and shalt call me no more Baali. For I will 17 take away the names of the Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be mentioned by their name. And in that day 18 will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the birds of the heavens, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle 19 out of the land, and will make them to lie down safely. And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in justice, and in lovingkindness, and 20 in mercies. I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness; and 21 thou shalt know Jehovah. And it shall come to pass in that day, I will answer, saith Jehovah, I will answer the heavens, and they 22 shall answer the earth; and the earth shall answer the grain, and the new wine, and the oil; and they shall answer Jezreel.

23 And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them that were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

3 And Jehovah said unto me, Go again, love a woman beloved of her friend, and an adulteress, even as Jehovah loveth the children of Israel, though they turn unto other gods, and love 2 cakes of raisins. So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of 3 silver, and a homer of barley, and a half-homer of barley; and I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be any man's wife: so will I 4 also be toward thee. For the children of Israel shall abide many days without king, and without prince, and without sacrifice, 5 and without pillar, and without ephod or teraphim: afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek Jehovah their God, and David their king, and shall come with fear unto Jehovah and to his goodness in the latter days.

4 Hear the word of Jehovah, ye children of Israel; for Jehovah hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor goodness, nor knowledge of God in the 2 land. There is nought but swearing and breaking faith, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery; they break out, 3 and blood toucheth blood. Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens; yea, the fishes of the 4 sea also shall be taken away. Yet let no man strive, neither let any man reprove; for thy people are as they that strive with 5 the priest. And thou shalt stumble in the day, and the prophet also shall stumble with thee in the night; and I will destroy thy mother. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: 6 because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I also will forget thy children. As they 7 were multiplied, so they sinned against me: I will change their glory into shame. They feed on the sin of my people, and set 8 their heart on their iniquity. And it shall be, like people, like 9 priest; and I will punish them for their ways, and will requite them their doings. And they shall eat, and not have enough; 10 they shall play the harlot, and shall not increase; because they have left off taking heed to Jehovah. Whoredom and wine and 11 new wine take away the understanding. My people ask counsel 12 at their stock, and their staff declareth unto them; for the spirit of whoredom hath caused them to err, and they have played the harlot, departing from under their God. They sacrifice upon the 13 tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and terebinths, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters play the harlot, and your brides commit adultery. I will not punish your daughters when they 14 play the harlot, nor your brides when they commit adultery; for the men themselves go apart with harlots, and they sacrifice with the prostitutes; and the people that doth not understand shall be overthrown. Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet 15 let not Judah offend; and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to Beth-aven, nor swear, As Jehovah liveth. For Israel 16 hath behaved himself stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer: now will Jehovah feed them as a lamb in a large place. Ephraim is 17 joined to idols; let him alone. Their drink is become sour; they 18 play the harlot continually; her rulers dearly love shame. The wind hath wrapped her up in its wings; and they shall be put to shame because of their sacrifices. 19

Hear this, O ye priests, and hearken, O house of Israel, and 5 give ear, O house of the king; for unto you pertaineth the judgment; for ye have been a snare at Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor. And the revolters are gone deep in making slaughter; 2 but I am a rebuker of them all. I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me; for now, O Ephraim, thou hast played the harlot, Israel is defiled. Their doings will not suffer them to turn 4 unto their God; for the spirit of whoredom is within them, and 5 they know not Jehovah. And the pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore Israel and Ephraim shall stumble in their in-6 quity; Judah also shall stumble with them. They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek Jehovah; but they shall 7 not find him: he hath withdrawn himself from them. They have dealt treacherously against Jehovah; for they have borne strange children: now shall the new moon devour them with 8 their fields. Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: sound an alarm at Beth-aven; behind thee, O Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shall become a desolation in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.
10 The princes of Judah are like them that remove the landmark: 11 I will pour out my wrath upon them like water. Ephraim is oppressed, he is crushed in judgment; because he was content to 12 walk after man's command. Therefore am I unto Ephraim as a 13 moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness. When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to Assyria, and sent to king Jareb: but he is not able to heal 14 you, neither will he cure you of your wound. For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will carry off, and there shall 15 be none to deliver. I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me earnestly.

6 Come, and let us return unto Jehovah; for he hath torn, and 2 he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. After two days will he revive us: on the third day he will raise us up, 3 and we shall live before him. And let us know, let us follow on to know Jehovah: his going forth is sure as the morning; and he will come unto us as the rain, as the latter rain that 4 watereth the earth. O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee?
O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as a 5 morning cloud, and as the dew that goeth early away. Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are as the light that 6 goeth forth. For I desire goodness, and not sacrifice; and the 7 knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings. But they like Adam have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt 8 treacherously against me. Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity; it is stained with blood. And as troops of robbers 9 wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way toward Shechem; yea, they have committed lewdness. In the 10 house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing: there whoredom is found in Ephraim, Israel is defiled. Also, O Judah, there is a 11 harvest appointed for thee, when I bring back the captivity of my people.

When I would heal Israel, then is the iniquity of Ephraim un- 7 covered, and the wickedness of Samaria; for they commit falsehood, and the thief entereth in, and the troop of robbers ravageth without. And they consider not in their hearts that I remem- 2 ber all their wickedness: now have their own doings beset them about; they are before my face. They make the king glad with 3 their wickedness, and the princes with their lies. They are all 4 adulterers; they are as an oven heated by the baker; he ceaseth to stir the fire, from the kneading of the dough, until it be leav- 5 ened. On the day of our king the princes made themselves sick 5 with the heat of wine; he stretched out his hand with scoffers.
For they have made ready their heart like an oven, while they 6 lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire. They are all hot as an oven, and de- 7 vour their judges; all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth unto me. Ephraim, he mixeth himself among 8 the peoples; Ephraim is a cake not turned. Strangers have de- 9 voured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, and he knoweth it not. And the pride 10 of Israel doth testify to his face: yet they have not returned unto Jehovah their God, nor sought him, for all this. And Ephraim 11 is like a silly dove, without understanding: they call unto Egypt, they go to Assyria. When they shall go, I will spread my net 12 upon them; I will bring them down as the birds of the heavens; I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard. Woe unto 13 them! for they have wandered from me; destruction unto them! for they have trespassed against me: though I would redeem them, yet they have spoken lies against me. And they have 14 not cried unto me with their heart, but they howl upon their beds: they assemble themselves for grain and new wine; they rebel against me. Though I have taught and strengthened their 15 arms, yet do they devise mischief against me. They return, but 16 not to him that is on high; they are like a deceitful bow; their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

8 Set the trumpet to thy mouth. As an eagle he cometh against the house of Jehovah, because they have transgressed my covenant, 2 and trespassed against my law. They shall cry unto me, My 3 God, we Israel know thee. Israel hath cast off that which is 4 good: the enemy shall pursue him. They have set up kings, but not by me; they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may 5 be cut off. He hath cast off thy calf, O Samaria; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to 6 innocency? For from Israel is even this; the workman made it, and it is no God; yea, the calf of Samaria shall be broken in 7 pieces. For they sow the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: he hath no standing grain; the blade shall yield no meal; if 8 so be it yield, strangers shall swallow it up. Israel is swallowed up: now are they among the nations as a vessel wherein none 9 delighteth. For they are gone up to Assyria, like a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath hired lovers. Yea, though they 10 hire among the nations, now will I gather them; and they begin to be diminished by reason of the burden of the king of princes. 11 Because Ephraim hath multiplied altars for sinning, altars have 12 been unto him for sinning. I wrote for him the ten thousand 13 things of my law; but they are counted as a strange thing. As for the sacrifices of mine offerings, they sacrifice flesh and eat it; but Jehovah accepteth them not: now will he remember their 14 iniquity, and visit their sins; they shall return to Egypt. For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and builded palaces; and Judah hath multiplied fortified cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the castles thereof.

9 Rejoice not, O Israel, for joy, like the peoples; for thou hast played the harlot, departing from thy God; thou hast loved hire 2 upon every grain-floor. The threshing-floor and the winepress 3 shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail her. They shall not dwell in Jehovah's land; but Ephraim shall return to 4 Egypt, and they shall eat unclean food in Assyria. They shall not pour out wine-offerings to Jehovah, neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted; for their bread shall be for their appetite; it shall not come into the house of Jehovah. What will ye do in the day of solemn assembly, and 5 in the day of the feast of Jehovah? For, lo, they are gone away 6 from destruction; yet Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them; their pleasant things of silver, nettles shall possess them; thorns shall be in their tents. The days of visitation are 7 come, the days of recompense are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the man that hath the spirit is mad, for the abundance of thine iniquity, and because the enmity is great. Ephraim was a watchman with my God: as for the prophet, a 8 fowler's snare is in all his ways, and enmity in the house of his God. They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days 9 of Gibeah: he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins. I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your 10 fathers as the first-ripe in the fig-tree at its first season: but they came to Baal-peor, and consecrated themselves unto the shameful thing, and became abominable like that which they loved. As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird: 11 there shall be no birth, and none with child, and no conception. Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, so 12 that not a man shall be left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them! Ephraim, like as I have seen Tyre, is planted in a 13 pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring out his children to the slayer. Give them, O Jehovah – what wilt thou give? give them 14 a miscarrying womb and dry breasts. All their wickedness is 15 in Gilgal; for there I hated them: because of the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of my house; I will love them no more; all their princes are revolvers. Ephraim is smitten, their 16 root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay the beloved fruit of their womb. My God 17 will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him; and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

Israel is a luxuriant vine, that putteth forth his fruit: accord- 10 ing to the abundance of his fruit he hath multiplied his altars; according to the goodness of their land they have made goodly pillars. Their heart is divided; now shall they be found guilty: 2 he will smite their altars, he will destroy their pillars. Surely 3 now shall they say, We have no king; for we fear not Jehovah; and

4 the king, what can he do for us? They speak vain words, swearing falsely in making covenants: therefore judgment springeth 5 up as hemlock in the furrows of the field. The inhabitants of Samaria shall be in terror for the calves of Beth-aven; for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof that rejoiced over it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from 6 it. It also shall be carried unto Assyria for a present to king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed 7 of his own counsel. As for Samaria, her king is cut off, as foam upon the water. The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and 8 to the hills, Fall on us. O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah: there they stood; the battle against the children 9 of iniquity doth not overtake them in Gibeah. When it is my desire, I will chastise them; and the peoples shall be gathered against them, when they are bound to their two transgressions.
10 And Ephraim is a heifer that is taught, that loveth to tread out the grain; but I have passed over upon her fair neck: I will set a rider on Ephraim; Judah shall plow, Jacob shall break his clods.
11 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap according to kindness; break up your fallow ground; for it is time to seek Jehovah, till he 12 come and rain righteousness upon you. Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies; for thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.
13 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces with her 14 children. So shall Beth-el do unto you because of your great wickedness: at daybreak shall the king of Israel be utterly cut off.

11 When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son 2 out of Egypt. The more the prophets called them, the more they went from them: they sacrificed unto the Baalim, and burned 3 incense to graven images. Yet I taught Ephraim to walk; I took 4 them on my arms; but they knew not that I healed them. I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as they that lift up the yoke on their jaws; and I laid food 5 before them. They shall not return into the land of Egypt;

but the Assyrian shall be their king, because they refused to return to me. And the sword shall fall upon their cities, and shall consume their bars, and devour them, because of their own counsels. And my people are bent on backsliding from me: though they call them to him that is on high, none at all will exalt him. How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I cast thee off, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboiim? my heart is turned within me, my compassions are kindled together. I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee; and I will not come in wrath. They shall walk after Jehovah, who will roar like a lion; for he will roar, and the children shall come trembling from the west. They shall come trembling as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria; and I will make them to dwell in their houses, saith Jehovah. Ephraim compasseth me about with falsehood, and the house of Israel with deceit; but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the Holy One.

Ephraim feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he continually multiplieth lies and desolation; and they make a covenant with Assyria, and oil is carried into Egypt. Jehovah hath also a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him. In the womb he took his brother by the heel; and in his manhood he had power with God: yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed; he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him at Beth-el, and there he spake with us, even Jehovah, the God of hosts; Jehovah is his memorial name. Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep kindness and justice, and wait for thy God continually. He is a trafficker, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress. And Ephraim said, Surely I am become rich, I have found me wealth: in all my labors they shall find in me no iniquity that were sin. But I am Jehovah thy God from the land of Egypt; I will yet again make thee to dwell in tents, as in the days of the solemn feast. I have also spoken unto the prophets, and I have multiplied visions; and by the ministry of the prophets have I used similitudes. Is Gilead iniquity? they are altogether false; in Gilgal they sacrifice bullocks; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the field. And Jacob fled into the field of Aram, and Israel served for a wife, and for 13 a wife he kept sheep. And by a prophet Jehovah brought Israel 14 up out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved. Ephraim hath provoked to anger most bitterly: therefore shall his blood be left upon him, and his reproach shall his Lord return unto him.

13 When Ephraim spake, there was trembling; he exalted himself 2 in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he died. And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, even idols according to their own understanding, all of 3 them the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves. Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the dew that passeth early away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing-floor, 4 and as the smoke out of the chimney. Yet I am Jehovah thy God from the land of Egypt; and thou shalt know no god but 5 me, and besides me there is no saviour. I did know thee in the 6 wilderness, in the land of great drought. According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was 7 exalted: therefore have they forgotten me. Therefore am I unto 8 them as a lion; as a leopard will I watch by the way; I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart; and there will I devour them like 9 a lioness; the wild beast shall tear them. It is thy destruction, 10 O Israel, that thou art against me, against thy help. Where now is thy king, that he may save thee in all thy cities? and thy 11 judges, of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes? I have given thee a king in mine anger, and have taken him away 12 in my wrath. The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin 13 is laid up in store. The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for it is time he should 14 not tarry in the place of the breaking forth of children. I will ransom them from the power of Sheol; I will redeem them from death: O death, where are thy plagues? O Sheol, where is thy 15 destruction? repentance shall be hid from mine eyes. Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the breath of Jehovah coming up from the wilderness; and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall 16 make spoil of the treasure of all goodly vessels. Samaria shall bear her guilt; for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword; their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

O Israel, return unto Jehovah thy God; for thou hast fallen by 14 thine iniquity. Take with you words, and return unto Jehovah: 2 say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and accept that which is good: so will we render as bullocks the offering of our lips. As- 3 syria shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods; for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy. I will heal their backsliding, 4 I will love them freely; for mine anger is turned away from him.
I will be as the dew unto Israel; he shall blossom as the lily, and 5 cast forth his roots as Lebanon. His branches shall spread, and 6 his beauty shall be as the olive-tree, and his smell as Lebanon.
They that dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive 7 as the grain, and blossom as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon. Ephraim shall say, What have I to 8 do any more with idols? I have answered, and will regard him: I am like a green fir-tree; from me is thy fruit found. Who is 9 wise, that he may understand these things? prudent, that he may know them? for the ways of Jehovah are right, and the just shall walk in them; but transgressors shall fall therein.

JOEL.

1  he word of Jehovah that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.
2 Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants 3 of the land. Hath this been in your days, or in the days 4 of your fathers? Tell ye your children of it, and let 5 your children tell their children, and their children another gen-6 eration. That which the palmer-worm hath left hath the locust 7 eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the canker-worm 8 eaten; and that which the canker-worm hath left hath the cater-9 pillar eaten. Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and wail, all ye 10 drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine; for it is cut off from 11 your mouth. For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, 12 and without number; his teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he 13 hath the jaw-teeth of a lioness. He hath laid my vine waste, 14 and barked my fig-tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast 15 it away; the branches thereof are made white. Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth. The meal-offering and the drink-offering are cut off from the house of Jehovah; the priests, Jehovah's ministers, mourn. The field is laid waste, the land mourneth; for the grain is destroyed, the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth. Be confounded, O ye husbandmen, wail, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; for the harvest of the field is perished. The vine is withered, and the fig-tree languisheth; the pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field are withered: for joy is withered away from the sons of men.
Gird yourselves with sackcloth, and lament, ye priests; wail, ye ministers of the altar; come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meal-offering and the drink-offering are withholden from the house of your God. Sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the old men and all the inhabitants of the land unto the house of Jehovah your God, and cry unto Jehovah. Alas for the day! for the day of Jehovah is at hand, and as destruction from the Almighty shall it come. Is 16 not the food cut off before our eyes, yea, joy and gladness from the house of our God? The seeds rot under their clods; the 17 graners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the grain is withered. How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle 18 are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate. O Jehovah, to thee do I cry; for the 19 fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field. Yea, the beasts of the 20 field pant unto thee; for the water brooks are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy 2 mountain; let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of Jehovah cometh, for it is nigh at hand; a day of dark- 2 ness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, as the dawn spread upon the mountains; a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after them, even to the years of many generations. A fire devoureth 3 before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and none hath escaped them. The appearance 4 of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so do they run. Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains 5 do they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. At their presence 6 the peoples are in anguish; all faces are waxed pale. They run 7 like mighty men; they climb the wall like men of war; and they march every one on his ways, and they break not their ranks.
Neither doth one thrust another; they march every one in his 8 path; and they burst through the weapons, and break not off their course. They leap upon the city; they run upon the wall; 9 they climb up into the houses; they enter in at the windows like a thief. The earth quaketh before them; the heavens tremble; the 10 sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining. And Jehovah uttereth his voice before his army; for 11 his camp is very great; for he is strong that executeth his word; for the day of Jehovah is great and very terrible; and who can abide it? Yet even now, saith Jehovah, turn ye unto me with 12 all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with 13 mourning: and rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto Jehovah your God; for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness, and repenteth 14 him of the evil. Who knoweth whether he will not turn and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meal-offering 15 and a drink-offering unto Jehovah your God? Blow the trum-16 pet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly; gather the people, sanctify the assembly, assemble the old men, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts; let the bridegroom go 17 forth from his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of Jehovah, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Jehovah, and give not thy heritage to reproach, that the nations should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the peoples, Where 18 is their God? Then was Jehovah jealous for his land, and had 19 pity on his people. And Jehovah answered and said unto his people, Behold, I will send you grain, and new wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith; and I will no more make you a 20 reproach among the nations; but I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive it into a land barren and desolate, its forepart into the eastern sea, and its hinder part into the western sea; and its stench shall come up, and its ill savor shall 21 come up, because it hath done great things. Fear not, O land, 22 be glad and rejoice; for Jehovah hath done great things. Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field; for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth its fruit, the fig-tree and the vine 23 do yield their strength. Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in Jehovah your God; for he giveth you the former rain in just measure, and he causeth to come down for you the rain, 24 the former rain and the latter rain, in the first month. And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the vats shall overflow with 25 new wine and oil. And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the 26 palmer-worm, my great army which I sent among you. And ye shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and shall praise the name of Jehovah your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you; and 27 my people shall never be put to shame. And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am Jehovah your God, and there is none else; and my people shall never be put to shame. And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour 28 out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: and also upon the servants and upon the 29 handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit. And I will 30 show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and 31 the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of Jehovah cometh. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on 32 the name of Jehovah shall be delivered; for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those that escape, as Jehovah hath said, and among the remnant those whom Jehovah doth call.

For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring 3 back the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, I will gather all na- 2 tions, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will execute judgment upon them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the na- 3 tions: and they have parted my land, and have cast lots for 3 my people, and have given a boy for a harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they may drink. Yea, and what are ye to me, O Tyre, 4 and Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? will ye render me a recompense? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompense upon your own head. Forasmuch as 5 ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly precious things, and have sold the children 6 of Judah and the children of Jerusalem unto the sons of the Gre-cians, that ye may remove them far from their border; behold, I 7 will stir them up out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompense upon your own head; and I will sell 8 your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the men of Sheba, to a nation far off: for Jehovah hath spoken it. Proclaim ye this among the 9 nations; prepare war; stir up the mighty men; let all the men of war draw near, let them come up. Beat your plowshares into 10 swords, and your pruning-hooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong. Haste ye, and come, all ye nations round about, 11 and gather yourselves together: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O Jehovah. Let the nations bestir themselves, 12 and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat; for there will I sit to 13 judge all the nations round about. Put ye in the sickle; for the harvest is ripe: come, tread ye; for the winepress is full, the vats 14 overflow; for their wickedness is great. Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! for the day of Jehovah is near in the 15 valley of decision. The sun and the moon are darkened, and 16 the stars withdraw their shining. And Jehovah will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but Jehovah will be a refuge unto his peo-17 ple, and a stronghold to the children of Israel. So shall ye know that I am Jehovah your God, dwelling in Zion my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers 18 pass through her any more. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down sweet wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the brooks of Judah shall flow with waters; and a fountain shall come forth from the house of 19 Jehovah, and shall water the valley of Shittim. Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence done to the children of Judah, because they have shed 20 innocent blood in their land. But Judah shall abide for ever, 21 and Jerusalem from generation to generation. And I will cleanse their blood, that I have not cleansed: for Jehovah dwelleth in Zion.

AMOS.

The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of 1 Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the 2 earthquake. And he said, Jehovah will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the pastures of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither. Thus saith 3 Jehovah: For three transgressions of Damascus, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron: but I will 4 send a fire into the house of Hazael, and it shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad. And I will break the bar of Damascus, 5 and cut off the inhabitant from the valley of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of Eden; and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith Jehovah. Thus 6 saith Jehovah: For three transgressions of Gaza, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive the whole people, to deliver them up to Edom: but I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, and it shall devour the 7 palaces thereof. And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, 8 and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon; and I will turn my hand against Ekron; and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord Jehovah. Thus saith Jehovah: For three 9 transgressions of Tyre, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole people to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant: but 10 I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre, and it shall devour the palaces thereof. Thus saith Jehovah: For three transgressions 11 of Edom, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever: but I will send a fire upon Teman, and 12 13 it shall devour the palaces of Bozrah. Thus saith Jehovah: For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they may enlarge 14 their border. But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of 15 battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind; and their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith Jehovah.

2 Thus saith Jehovah: For three transgressions of Moab, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he 2 burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime: but I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kerioth; and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the 3 sound of the trumpet; and I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, 4 saith Jehovah. Thus saith Jehovah: For three transgressions of Judah, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have rejected the law of Jehovah, and have not kept his statutes, and their lies have caused them to err, 5 after which their fathers did walk: but I will send a fire upon 6 Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem. Thus saith Jehovah: For three transgressions of Israel, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have sold 7 the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes — they that pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek: and a man and his father 8 go unto the same maiden, to profane my holy name: and they lay themselves down beside every altar upon clothes taken in pledge; and in the house of their God they drink the wine of 9 such as have been fined. Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his 10 roots from beneath. Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and led you forty years in the wilderness, to possess the 11 land of the Amorite. And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazirites. Is it not even thus, O ye 12 children of Israel? saith Jehovah. But ye gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophecy not. Behold, I will press you in your place, as a cart presseth 13 that is full of sheaves. And flight shall perish from the swift; 14 and the strong shall not strengthen his force; neither shall the mighty deliver himself; neither shall he stand that handleth 15 the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself; neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself; and he 16 that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith Jehovah.

Hear this word that Jehovah hath spoken against you, O chil- 3 dren of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt, saying, You only have I known of all the 2 families of the earth: therefore I will visit upon you all your iniquities. Shall two walk together, except they have agreed? Will 3, 4 a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing? Can a bird 5 fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is set for him? shall a snare spring up from the ground, and have taken nothing at all? Shall the trumpet be blown in a city, and the people not 6 be afraid? shall evil befall a city, and Jehovah hath not done it? Surely the Lord Jehovah will do nothing, except he reveal 7 his secret unto his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared; 8 who will not fear? The Lord Jehovah hath spoken; who can but prophesy? Publish ye in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the 9 palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold what great tumults are therein, and what oppressions in the midst thereof. For they 10 know not to do right, saith Jehovah, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces. Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: 11 An adversary there shall be, even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be plundered. Thus saith Jehovah: As the shepherd rescueth 12 out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so shall the children of Israel be rescued that sit in Samaria in the corner of a couch, and on the silken cushions of a bed. Hear ye, and 13 testify against the house of Jacob, saith the Lord Jehovah, the God of hosts. For in the day that I shall visit the transgressions 14 of Israel upon him, I will also visit the altars of Beth-el; and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground. And 15 I will smite the winter-house with the summer-house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith Jehovah.

4 Hear this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, that oppress the poor, that crush the needy, that 2 say unto their lords, Bring, and let us drink. The Lord Jehovah hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that they shall take you away with hooks, and your residue 3 with fish-hooks. And ye shall go out at the breaches, every one straight before her; and ye shall cast yourselves into Harmon, 4 saith Jehovah. Come to Beth-el, and transgress; to Gilgal, and multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, 5 and your tithes every three days; and offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened, and proclaim freewill-offerings and publish them: for this pleaseth you, O ye children of Israel, 6 saith the Lord Jehovah. And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places; yet 7 have ye not returned unto me, saith Jehovah. And I also have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest; and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and 8 the piece whereupon it rained not withered. So two or three cities wandered unto one city to drink water, and were not sat-9 isfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith Jehovah. I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: the multitude of your gardens and your vineyards and your fig-trees and your olive-trees hath the palmer-worm devoured: yet have ye not returned 10 unto me, saith Jehovah. I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have carried away your horses; and I have made the stench of your camp to come up even into your nostrils: yet 11 have ye not returned unto me, saith Jehovah. I have overthrown cities among you, as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomor-rah, and ye were as a brand plucked out of the burning: yet have 12 ye not returned unto me, saith Jehovah. Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel; and because I will do this unto thee, 13 prepare to meet thy God, O Israel. For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought; that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth – Jehovah, the God of hosts, is his name.

Hear ye this word which I take up for a lamentation over you, 5 O house of Israel. The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no 2 more rise: she is cast down upon her land; there is none to raise 3 her up. For thus saith the Lord Jehovah: The city that went 3 forth a thousand shall have a hundred left, and that which went forth a hundred shall have ten left, to the house of Israel. For 4 thus saith Jehovah unto the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and 5 ye shall live; but seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and 5 pass not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nought. Seek Jehovah, and ye shall 6 live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and it devour, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el. Ye who turn 7 justice to wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth, seek him that maketh the Pleiades and Orion, and turneth the 8 shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night; that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth (Jehovah is his name); that 9 bringeth sudden destruction upon the strong, so that destruction cometh upon the fortress. They hate him that reproveth in the 10 gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly. Forasmuch 11 therefore as ye trample upon the poor, and take exactions from him of wheat: ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall 12 not drink the wine thereof. For I know how manifold are your transgressions, and how mighty are your sins – ye that afflict the 12 just, that take a bribe, and that turn aside the needy in the gate from their right. Therefore he that is prudent shall keep silence 13 in such a time; for it is an evil time. Seek good, and not evil, 14 that ye may live; and so Jehovah, the God of hosts, will be with you, as ye say. Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish 15 justice in the gate: it may be that Jehovah, the God of hosts, will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph. Therefore thus saith 16 Jehovah, the God of hosts, the Lord: Wailing shall be in all the broad ways; and they shall say in all the streets, Alas! Alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful in lamentation to wailing. And in all vineyards shall be 17 wailing; for I will pass through the midst of thee, saith Jehovah.
Woe unto you that desire the day of Jehovah! Wherefore would 18 19 ye have the day of Jehovah? It is darkness, and not light. As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit 20 him. Shall not the day of Jehovah be darkness, and not light?

21 even very dark, and no brightness in it? I hate, I despise your 22 feasts, and I will take no delight in your solemn assemblies. Yea, though ye offer me your burnt-offerings and meal-offerings, I will not accept them; neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your 23 fat beasts. Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; 24 for I will not hear the melody of thy viols. But let justice roll 25 down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream. Did ye bring unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty 26 years, O house of Israel? Yea, ye have borne the tabernacle of your king and the shrine of your images, the star of your god, 27 which ye made to yourselves. Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith Jehovah, whose name is the God of hosts.

6 Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, and to them that are secure in the mountain of Samaria, the notable men of the chief 2 of the nations, to whom the house of Israel come! Pass ye unto Calneh, and see; and from thence go ye to Hamath the great; then go down to Gath of the Philistines: are they better than these kingdoms? or is their border greater than your border?
3 ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of vio-4 lence to come near; that lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the 5 flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall; that sing idle songs to the sound of the viol; that invent for themselves 6 instruments of music, like David; that drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief oils; but they are not grieved 7 for the affliction of Joseph. Therefore shall they now go captive with the first that go captive; and the revelry of them that 8 stretched themselves shall pass away. The Lord Jehovah hath sworn by himself, saith Jehovah, the God of hosts: I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces; therefore will I deliver 9 up the city with all that is therein. And it shall come to pass, 10 if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die. And when a man's uncle shall take him up, even he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is in the innermost parts of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No; then shall he say, Hold thy peace; for we may not make mention of the name of Jehovah. For, behold, 11 Jehovah commandeth, and the great house shall be smitten with breaches, and the little house with clefts. Shall horses run upon 12 the rock? will one plow there with oxen? that ye have turned justice into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood; ye that rejoice in a thing of nought, that say, Have we not taken 13 to us horns by our own strength? For, behold, I will raise up 14 against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith Jehovah, the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entrance of Hamath unto the brook of the Arabah.

Thus the Lord Jehovah showed me: and, behold, he formed 7 locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings. And 2 it came to pass that, when they made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord Jehovah, forgive, I beseech thee: how shall Jacob stand? for he is small. Jehovah repented con- 3 cerning this: It shall not be, saith Jehovah. Thus the Lord 4 Jehovah showed me: and, behold, the Lord Jehovah called to contend by fire; and it devoured the great deep, and would have eaten up the land. Then said I, O Lord Jehovah, cease, I be- 5 seech thee: how shall Jacob stand? for he is small. Jehovah 6 repented concerning this: this also shall not be, saith the Lord Jehovah. Thus he showed me: and, behold, the Lord stood be- 7 side a wall made by a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in his hand. And Jehovah said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, 8 A plumb-line. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel; I will not again pass by them any more; and the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, 9 and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword. Then Amaziah 10 the priest of Beth-el sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words. For thus Amos 11 saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land. Also Amaziah said unto 12 Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thou away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there: but prophesy not again 13 any more at Beth-el; for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a 14 royal house. Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was a herdsman, 15 and a dresser of sycomore-trees: and Jehovah took me from following the flock, and Jehovah said unto me, Go, prophesy unto 16 my people Israel. Now therefore hear thou the word of Jehovah: Thou sayest, Prophecy not against Israel, and drop not thy word 17 against the house of Isaac; therefore thus saith Jehovah: Thy wife shall be a harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou thyself shalt die in a land that is unclean, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.

8 Thus the Lord Jehovah showed me: and, behold, a basket 2 of summer fruit. And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said Jehovah unto me, The end is come upon my people Israel; I will not again pass by 3 them any more. And the songs of the temple shall be wailings in that day, saith the Lord Jehovah: the dead bodies shall be many: in every place shall they cast them forth with silence.
4 Hear this, O ye that would swallow up the needy, and cause the 5 poor of the land to fail, saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell grain? and the sabbath, that we may set 6 forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and dealing falsely with balances of deceit; that we may buy the 7 poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes, and sell the refuse of the wheat? Jehovah hath sworn by the excellency of 8 Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works. Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? yea, it shall rise up wholly like the River; and it shall 9 be troubled and sink again, like the River of Egypt. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord Jehovah, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth 10 in the clear day. And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning for an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter 11 day. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord Jehovah, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst 12 for water, but of hearing the words of Jehovah. And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to seek the word of Jehovah, and shall not find it. In that day shall the fair virgins and the young men faint for thirst. They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, As thy god, O Dan, liveth; and, As the way of Beer-sheba liveth; they shall fall, and never rise up again. 13 14

I saw the Lord standing beside the altar: and he said, Smite the capitals, that the thresholds may shake; and break them in pieces on the head of all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: there shall not one of them flee away, and there shall not one of them escape. Though they dig into Sheol, thence shall my hand take them; and though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down. And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and it shall bite them. And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good. For the Lord, Jehovah of hosts, is he that toucheth the land and it melteth, and all that dwell therein shall mourn; and it shall rise up wholly like the River, and shall sink again, like the River of Egypt; it is he that buildeth his chambers in the heavens, and hath founded his vault upon the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth; Jehovah is his name. Are ye not as the children of the Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel? saith Jehovah. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir? Behold, the eyes of the Lord Jehovah are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; save that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith Jehovah. For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all the nations, like as grain is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least kernel fall upon the earth. All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, who say, The evil shall not overtake nor meet us. In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up its ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old; that they 9 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the nations that are 13 called by my name, saith Jehovah that doeth this. Behold, the days come, saith Jehovah, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.

14 And I will bring back the captivity of my people Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also 15 make gardens, and eat the fruit of them. And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be plucked up out of their land which I have given them, saith Jehovah thy God.

OBADIAH.

The vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord Jehovah 1 concerning Edom: We have heard tidings from Jehovah, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle. Behold, I have made thee small among the nations: thou 2 art greatly despised. The pride of thy heart hath deceived thee, 3 O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground? Though thou mount on high as the eagle, and 4 though thy nest be set among the stars, I will bring thee down from thence, saith Jehovah. If thieves came to thee, if robbers 5 by night (how art thou cut off!), would they not steal only till they had enough? if grape-gatherers came to thee, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? How are the things of Esau 6 searched! how are his hidden treasures sought out! All the 7 men of thy confederacy have brought thee on thy way, even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread lay a snare under thee: there is no understanding in him. Shall I not 8 in that day, saith Jehovah, destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau? And thy mighty 9 men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one may be cut off from the mount of Esau by slaughter. For the 10 violence done to thy brother Jacob, shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever. In the day that thou stoodest on 11 the other side, in the day that strangers carried away his substance, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them. But look not thou 12 on the day of thy brother in the day of his disaster, and rejoice not over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither speak proudly in the day of distress. Enter not into the 13 gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, look not thou on their affliction in the day of their calamity, neither lay 14 ye hands on their substance in the day of their calamity. And stand thou not in the crossway, to cut off those of his that escape; and deliver not up those of his that remain in the day of 15 distress. For the day of Jehovah is near upon all the nations: as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee; thy dealing shall 16 return upon thine own head. For as ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the nations drink continually; yea, they shall drink, and swallow down, and shall be as though they 17 had not been. But in mount Zion there shall be those that escape, and it shall be holy; and the house of Jacob shall possess 18 their possessions. And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall burn among them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining to the house of Esau; for Jehovah 19 hath spoken it. And they of the South shall possess the mount of Esau, and they of the lowland the Philistines; and they shall possess the field of Ephraim, and the field of Samaria; and Ben-20 jamin shall possess Gilead. And the captives of this host of the children of Israel, that are among the Canaanites, shall possess even unto Zarephath; and the captives of Jerusalem, that are in 21 Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the South. And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be Jehovah's.

JONAH.

Now the word of Jehovah came unto Jonah the son of 1 Amittai, saying, Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, 2 and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me. But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish 3 from the presence of Jehovah; and he went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of Jehovah. But Jehovah sent out a great wind upon 4 the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken. Then the mariners were afraid, 5 and cried every man unto his god; and they cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it unto them. But Jonah was gone down into the innermost parts of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep. So the shipmaster came to him, 6 and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not. And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and 7 let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah. Then 8 said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; what is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou? And 9 he said unto them, I am a Hebrew; and I fear Jehovah, the God of heaven, who hath made the sea and the dry land. Then were 10 the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, What is this that thou hast done? For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of Jehovah, because he had told them. Then said they 11 unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea grew more and more tempestuous. And 12 he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you. Nevertheless the men rowed 13 hard to get them back to the land; but they could not: for the 14 sea grew more and more tempestuous against them. Wherefore they cried unto Jehovah, and said, We beseech thee, O Jehovah, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood; for thou, O Jehovah, hast done as it 15 pleased thee. So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into 16 the sea; and the sea ceased from its raging. Then the men feared Jehovah exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice unto Jehovah, 17 and made vows. And Jehovah prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah; and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

2 Then Jonah prayed unto Jehovah his God out of the fish's 2 belly. And he said, I called by reason of mine affliction unto Jehovah, And he answered me; Out of the belly of Sheol cried I, 3 And thou heardest my voice. For thou didst cast me into the depth, in the heart of the seas, And the flood was round about 4 me; All thy waves and thy billows passed over me. And I said, I am cast out from before thine eyes; Yet I will look again toward 5 thy holy temple. The waters compassed me about, even to the soul; The deep was round about me; The weeds were wrapped 6 about my head. I went down to the bottoms of the mountains;
The earth with its bars closed upon me for ever: Yet hast thou 7 brought up my life from the pit, O Jehovah my God. When my soul fainted within me, I remembered Jehovah; And my prayer 8 came in unto thee, into thy holy temple. They that regard 9 lying vanities Forsake their own mercy. But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that which I have 10 vowed. Salvation is of Jehovah. And Jehovah spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

3 And the word of Jehovah came unto Jonah the second time, 2 saying, Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto 3 it the preaching that I bid thee. So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of Jehovah. Now Nineveh was an 4 exceeding great city, of three days' journey. And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet 5 forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown. And the people of Nineveh believed God; and they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.
6 And the tidings reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. And he made proclamation and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, nor drink water; but let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and beast, and let them cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in his hands. Who knoweth whether God will not turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil which he said he would do unto them; and he did it not.

But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry. And he prayed unto Jehovah, and said, I pray thee, O Jehovah, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I hastened to flee unto Tarshish; for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness, and repentest thee of the evil. Therefore now, O Jehovah, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live. And Jehovah said, Doest thou well to be angry? Then Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shade, till he might see what would become of the city. And Jehovah God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his evil case. So Jonah was exceeding glad because of the gourd. But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd, that it withered. And it came to pass, when the sun arose, that God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live. And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death. And Jehovah said, Thou hast had regard for the gourd, for which thou hast not labored, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night: and should not I have regard for Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?

MICAH.

Hhe word of Jehovah that came to Micah the Morashtite 1 in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.
Hear, ye peoples, all of you: hearken, O earth, and all 2 that therein is: and let the Lord Jehovah be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple. For, behold, Jehovah cometh 3 forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth. And the mountains shall be melted 4 under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, as waters that are poured down a steep place. For the trans- 5 gression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem? There- 6 fore I will make Samaria as a heap of the field, and as places for planting vineyards; and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will uncover the foundations thereof. And 7 all her graven images shall be beaten to pieces, and all her hires shall be burned with fire, and all her idols will I lay desolate; for of the hire of a harlot hath she gathered them, and unto the hire of a harlot shall they return. For this will I lament and 8 wail; I will go stripped and naked; I will make a wailing like the jackals, and a lamentation like the ostriches. For her wounds 9 are incurable; for it is come even unto Judah; it reacheth unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem. Tell it not in Gath, 10 weep not at all: at Beth-le-aphrah have I rolled myself in the dust. Pass away, O inhabitant of Shaphir, in nakedness and 11 shame: the inhabitant of Zaanan is not come forth; the wailing of Beth-ezel shall take from you the stay thereof. For the in- 12 habitant of Maroth waiteth anxiously for good, because evil is come down from Jehovah unto the gate of Jerusalem. Bind the 13 chariot to the swift steed, O inhabitant of Lachish: she was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion; for the transgressions 14 of Israel were found in thee. Therefore shalt thou give a parting gift to Moresheth-gath: the houses of Achzib shall be a deceitful 15 thing unto the kings of Israel. I will yet bring unto thee, O inhabitant of Mareshah, him that shall possess thee: the glory of 16 Israel shall come even unto Adullam. Make thee bald, and cut off thy hair for the children of thy delight: enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

2 Woe to them that devise iniquity and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is 2 in the power of their hand. And they covet fields, and seize them; and houses, and take them away: and they oppress a man 3 and his house, even a man and his heritage. Therefore thus saith Jehovah: Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks, neither shall ye walk 4 haughtily; for it is an evil time. In that day shall they take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We are utterly ruined: he changeth the portion of my people: how doth he remove it from me! to the rebellious he divideth 5 our fields. Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast the 6 line by lot in the assembly of Jehovah. Prophecy ye not, thus they prophesy. They shall not prophesy to these: reproaches 7 shall not depart. Shall it be said, O house of Jacob, Is the Spirit of Jehovah straitened? are these his doings? Do not my 8 words do good to him that walketh uprightly? But of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye strip the robe from off the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from 9 war. The women of my people ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their young children ye take away my glory for ever.
10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your resting-place; because of uncleanness that destroyeth, even with a grievous destruction.
11 If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be 12 the prophet of this people. I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as a flock in the midst of their pasture; they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude 13 of men. The breaker is gone up before them: they have broken forth and passed on to the gate, and are gone out thereat; and their king is passed on before them, and Jehovah at the head of them.

And I said, Hear, I pray you, ye heads of Jacob, and rulers 3 of the house of Israel: is it not for you to know justice? ye 2 who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones; who also eat 3 the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them, and break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron. Then shall they cry unto Jehovah, 4 but he will not answer them; yea, he will hide his face from them at that time, according as they have wrought evil in their doings. Thus saith Jehovah concerning the prophets that make 5 my people to err; that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and whoso putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him: Therefore it shall be night unto you, that ye shall 6 have no vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down upon the prophets, and the day shall be black over them. And the seers shall be put to 7 shame, and the diviners confounded; yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God. But as for me, I am 8 full of power by the Spirit of Jehovah, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin. Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and 9 rulers of the house of Israel, that abhor justice, and pervert all equity. They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with 10 iniquity. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet they lean upon Jehovah, and say, Is not Jehovah in the midst of us? no evil shall come upon us. Therefore shall Zion for your 12 sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

But in the latter days it shall come to pass, that the moun- 4 tain of Jehovah's house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and peoples shall flow unto it. And many nations shall go and say, Come ye, 2 and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths. For out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of Jehovah from Jerusalem; and he will judge between 3 many peoples, and will decide concerning strong nations afar off:

and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig-tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of Jehovah of hosts hath spoken it. For all the peoples walk every one in the name of his god; and we will walk in the name of Jehovah our God for ever and ever. In that day, saith Jehovah, will I assemble that which is lame, and I will gather that which is driven away, and that which I have afflicted; and I will make that which was lame a remnant, and that which was cast far off a strong nation: and Jehovah will reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth even for ever. And thou, O tower of the flock, the hill of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, yea, the former dominion shall come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem. Now why dost thou cry out aloud? Is there no king in thee, is thy counsellor perished, that pangs have taken hold of thee as of a woman in travail? Be in pain, and labor to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail; for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and shalt dwell in the field, and shalt come even unto Babylon: there shalt thou be rescued; there will Jehovah redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies. And now many nations are assembled against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye see our desire upon Zion. But they know not the thoughts of Jehovah, neither understand they his counsel; for he hath gathered them as the sheaves to the threshing-floor. Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion; for I will make thy horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass; and thou shalt beat in pieces many peoples: and I will devote their gain unto Jehovah, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

Now shalt thou gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us; they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek. But thou, Beth-lehem Ephrathah, which art little to be among the thousands of Judah, out of thee shall one come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth are from of old, from everlasting. Therefore will he give them up, until the time that she who travaileth hath brought forth: then the residue of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel. And he shall stand, and shall feed his flock in the strength of Jehovah, in the majesty of the name of Jehovah his God: and they shall abide; for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth. And this man shall be our peace. When the Assyrian shall come into our land, and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men. And they shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in the entrances thereof: and he shall deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our border. And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples as dew from Jehovah, as showers upon the grass, that tarry not for man, nor wait for the sons of men. And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if he go through, treadeth down and teareth in pieces, and there is none to deliver. Let thy hand be lifted up above thine adversaries, and let all thine enemies be cut off. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith Jehovah, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and will destroy thy chariots: and I will cut off the cities of thy land, and will throw down all thy strongholds. And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thy hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers: and I will cut off thy graven images and thy pillars out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thy hands; and I will pluck up thine Asherim out of the midst of thee; and I will destroy thy cities. And I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath upon the nations which hearkened not.

Hear ye now what Jehovah saith: Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice. Hear, O ye mountains, Jehovah's controversy, and ye enduring foundations of the earth; for Jehovah hath a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel. O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me. For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of bondage; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him; remember from Shittim unto Gilgal, that ye may know the righteous acts of Jehovah. Wherewith shall I come before Jehovah, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him 7 with burnt-offerings, with calves a year old? will Jehovah be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit 8 of my body for the sin of my soul? He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth Jehovah require of thee, but to do justly, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with 9 thy God? The voice of Jehovah crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom will see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who 10 hath appointed it. Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and a scant measure that is abominable?

11 Shall I be pure with wicked balances, and with a bag of deceitful 12 weights? For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceit-13 ful in their mouth. Therefore I also have smitten thee with a grievous wound; I have made thee desolate because of thy sins.
14 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy humiliation shall be in the midst of thee: and thou shalt put away, but shalt not save; and that which thou savest will I give up to the sword.
15 Thou shalt sow, but shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but shalt not anoint thee with oil; and the vintage, but shalt 16 not drink the wine. For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I may make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof a hissing: and ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

7 Woe is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grape gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster 2 to eat; my soul desireth the first-ripe fig. The godly man is perished out of the earth, and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother 3 with a net. Their hands are upon that which is evil to do it diligently; the prince asketh, and the judge is ready for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth the evil desire of his soul: thus 4 they weave it together. The best of them is as a brier; the most upright is worse than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen, 5 even thy visitation, is come; now shall be their perplexity. Trust ye not in a neighbor; put ye not confidence in a friend; keep the 6 doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom. For the son dishonoreth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house. But as for me, I will look 7 unto Jehovah; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me. Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when 8 I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, Jehovah will be a light unto me. I will bear the indignation of Jehovah, because 9 I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness. Then mine enemy shall see it, and 10 shame shall cover her who said unto me, Where is Jehovah thy God? Mine eyes shall see my desire upon her; now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets. A day for building 11 thy walls! in that day shall the decree be far removed. In 12 that day shall they come unto thee from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, and from Egypt even to the River, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain. Yet shall the land be 13 desolate because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings. Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thy heritage, 14 which dwell solitarily, in the forest in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old. As 15 in the days of thy coming forth out of the land of Egypt will I show unto them marvellous things. The nations shall see and 16 be ashamed of all their might; they shall lay their hand upon their mouth; their ears shall be deaf. They shall lick the dust 17 like a serpent; like crawling things of the earth they shall come trembling out of their close places; they shall come with fear unto Jehovah our God, and shall be afraid because of thee. Who is a 18 God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth over the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in lovingkindness. He will 19 again have compassion upon us; he will tread our iniquities under foot; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the lovingkindness 20 to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

NAHUM.

1  he burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum 2 the Elkoshite. Jehovah is a jealous God and avengeth; 3 Jehovah avengeth and is full of wrath; Jehovah taketh 4 vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath 5 for his enemies. Jehovah is slow to anger, and great in power, 6 and will by no means clear the guilty: Jehovah hath his way in 7 the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of 8 his feet. He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up 9 all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel; and the flower 10 of Lebanon languisheth. The mountains quake at him, and the 11 hills melt; and the earth is upheaved at his presence, yea, the 12 world, and all that dwell therein. Who can stand before his in-13 dignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his 14 wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken asunder 15 by him. Jehovah is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that take refuge in him. But with an over-running flood he will make a full end of her place, and will pursue his enemies into darkness. What do ye devise against Jehovah? he will make a full end; affliction shall not rise up the second time. For entangled like thorns, and drunken as with their drink, they are consumed utterly as dry stubble. There is one gone forth out of thee, that deviseth evil against Jehovah, that counselleth wickedness. Thus saith Jehovah: Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so shall they be cut down, and he shall pass away. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more. And now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder. And Jehovah hath given commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image; I will make thy grave; for thou art vile. Behold, upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! Keep thy feasts, O Judah, perform thy vows; for the wicked one shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

He that dasheth in pieces is come up against thee: keep the 2 fortress, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily. For Jehovah restoreth the excellency of Jacob, as the 2 excellency of Israel; for the emptiers have emptied them out, and destroyed their vine-branches. The shield of his mighty men is 3 made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and the cypress spears are brandished. The chariots rage in the streets; they rush to and 4 fro in the broad ways: the appearance of them is like torches; they run like the lightnings. He remembereth his nobles: they 5 stumble in their march; they make haste to the wall thereof, and the mantelet is prepared. The gates of the rivers are opened, 6 and the palace is dissolved. And it is decreed: she is uncovered, 7 she is carried away; and her handmaids moan as with the voice of doves, beating upon their breasts. But Nineveh hath been from 8 of old like a pool of water: yet they flee away. Stand, stand, they cry; but none looketh back. Take ye the spoil of silver, take 9 the spoil of gold; for there is no end of the store, the glory of all goodly furniture. She is empty, and void, and waste; and the 10 heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and anguish is in all loins, and the faces of them all are waxed pale. Where is the 11 den of the lions, and the feeding-place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid? The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, 12 and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his caves with prey, and his dens with ravin. Behold, I am against thee, saith Jehovah of 13 hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions; and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

Woe to the bloody city! it is all full of lies and rapine; the prey 3 departeth not. The noise of the whip, and the noise of the rat- 2 tling of wheels, and prancing horses, and bounding chariots, the 3 horseman mounting, and the flashing sword, and the glittering spear, and a multitude of slain, and a great heap of corpses, and there is no end of the bodies; they stumble upon their bodies; — because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the well-favored 4 harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through 5 her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts. Behold, I am against thee, saith Jehovah of hosts, and I will uncover thy skirts upon thy face; and I will show the nations thy nakedness, 6 and the kingdoms thy shame. And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a gazing-7 stock. And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall flee from thee, and say, Nineveh is laid waste: who 8 will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee? Art thou better than No-amon, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about her; whose rampart was the 9 sea, and her wall was of the sea? Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Put and Lubim were thy helpers.

10 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity; her young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets; and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men 11 were bound in chains. Thou also shalt be drunken; thou shalt be hid; thou also shalt seek a stronghold because of the enemy.
12 All thy fortresses shall be like fig-trees with the first-ripe figs: 13 if they be shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater. Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women; the gates of thy land are set wide open unto thine enemies: the fire hath de-14 voured thy bars. Draw thee water for the siege; strengthen thy fortresses; go into the clay, and tread the mortar; make strong 15 the brickkiln. There shall the fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off; it shall devour thee like the canker-worm: make thyself many as the canker-worm; make thyself many as the locust.
16 Thou hast multiplied thy merchants above the stars of heaven: 17 the canker-worm ravageth, and fleeth away. Thy princes are as the locusts, and thy marshals as the swarms of grasshoppers, which encamp in the hedges in the cold day, but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they 18 are. Thy shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria; thy nobles are at rest; thy people are scattered upon the mountains, and there 19 is none to gather them. There is no assuaging of thy hurt: thy wound is grievous: all that hear the report of thee clap their hands over thee; for upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

HABAKKUK.

She burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see. O 1, 2 Jehovah, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear?
I cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save.
Why dost thou show me iniquity, and look upon per- 3 verseness? for destruction and violence are before me; and there is strife, and contention riseth up. Therefore the law is slacked, 4 and justice doth never go forth; for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore justice goeth forth perverted. Be- 5 hold ye among the nations, and look, and wonder marvellously; for I am working a work in your days, which ye will not believe though it be told you. For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that 6 bitter and hasty nation, that march through the breadth of the earth, to possess dwelling-places that are not theirs. They are 7 terrible and dreadful; their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves. Their horses also are swifter than leopards, 8 and are more fierce than the evening wolves; and their horsemen press proudly on: yea, their horsemen come from far; they fly as an eagle that hasteth to devour. They come all of them for vio- 9 lence; the set of their faces is forwards; and they gather captives as the sand. Yea, he scoffeth at kings, and princes are a derision 10 unto him; he derideth every stronghold; for he heapeth up dust, and taketh it. Then shall he sweep by as a wind, and shall pass 11 over, and be guilty, even he whose might is his god. Art not 12 thou from everlasting, O Jehovah my God, my Holy One? we shall not die. O Jehovah, thou hast ordained him for judgment; and thou, O Rock, hast established him for correction. Thou 13 that art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and that canst not look on perverseness, wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy peace when the wicked swalloweth up the man that is more righteous than he; and makest 14 men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them? He taketh up all of them with the angle, 15 he catcheth them in his net, and gathereth them in his drag: 16 therefore he rejoiceth and is glad. Therefore he sacrificeth unto his net, and burneth incense unto his drag; because by them his 17 portion is fat, and his food plenteous. Shall he therefore empty his net, and spare not to slay the nations continually?

2 I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will look forth to see what he will speak with me, and what I 2 shall answer concerning my complaint. And Jehovah answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tablets, 3 that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it hasteth toward the end, and shall not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will 4 not delay. Behold, his soul is puffed up, it is not upright in him; 5 but the righteous shall live by his faith. Yea, moreover, wine is treacherous, a haughty man, that keepeth not at home; who enlargeth his desire as Sheol, and he is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth 6 unto him all peoples. Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and that 7 ladeth himself with pledges! Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou 8 shalt be for booty unto them? Because thou hast plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples shall plunder thee, because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, 9 to the city and to all that dwell therein. Woe to him that getteth an evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on 10 high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil! Thou hast devised shame to thy house, by cutting off many peoples, 11 and hast sinned against thy soul. For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.
12 Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and establisheth a 13 city by iniquity! Behold, is it not of Jehovah of hosts that the peoples labor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for 14 vanity? For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the 15 glory of Jehovah, as the waters cover the sea. Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, to thee that addest thy venom, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their 16 nakedness! Thou art filled with shame, and not glory: drink thou also, and be as one uncircumcised; the cup of Jehovah's right hand shall come round unto thee, and foul shame shall be upon thy glory. For the violence done to Lebanon shall cover thee, and the destruction of the beasts, which made them afraid; because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all that dwell therein. What profiteth the graven image, that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, even the teacher of lies, that he that fashioneth its form trusteth therein, to make dumb idols? Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise! Shall this teach? Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it. But Jehovah is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him.

A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, set to Shigionoth. O Jehovah, I have heard the report of thee, and am afraid: O Jehovah, revive thy work in the midst of the years; In the midst of the years make it known; In wrath remember mercy. God came from Teman, And the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, And the earth was full of his praise. And his brightness was as the light; He had rays coming forth from his hand; And there was the hiding of his power. Before him went the pestilence, And fiery bolts went forth at his feet. He stood, and measured the earth; He beheld, and drove asunder the nations; And the eternal mountains were scattered; The everlasting hills did bow; His goings were as of old. I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction; The curtains of the land of Midian did tremble. Was Jehovah displeased with the rivers? Was thine anger against the rivers, Or thy wrath against the sea, That thou didst ride upon thy horses, Upon thy chariots of salvation? Thy bow was made quite bare; The oaths to the tribes were a sure word. Selah. Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers. The mountains saw thee, and were afraid; The tempest of waters passed by; The deep uttered its voice, And lifted up its hands on high. The sun and moon stood still in their habitation, At the light of thine arrows as they went, At the shining of thy glittering spear. Thou didst march though the land in indignation; Thou didst thresh the nations in anger. Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, For the salvation of thine anointed; Thou woudest the head out of the house of the wicked man, Laying bare the foundation even unto the 14 neck. Selah. Thou didst pierce with his own staves the head of his warriors: They came as a whirlwind to scatter me; Their 15 rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly. Thou didst tread 16 the sea with thy horses, The heap of mighty waters. I heard, and my body trembled, My lips quivered at the voice; Rottenness entereth into my bones, and I tremble in my place; Because I must wait quietly for the day of trouble, For the coming up of 17 the people that invadeth us. For though the fig-tree shall not flourish, Neither shall fruit be in the vines; The labor of the olive shall fail, And the fields shall yield no food; The flock shall be cut 18 off from the fold, And there shall be no herd in the stalls: Yet I will rejoice in Jehovah, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

19 Jehovah, the Lord, is my strength; And he maketh my feet like hinds' feet, And will make me to walk upon my high places.

ZEPHANIAH.

The word of Jehovah which came unto Zephaniah the 1 son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah. I will utterly consume all 2 things from off the face of the ground, saith Jehovah. I will 3 consume man and beast; I will consume the birds of the heavens, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the face of the ground, saith Jehovah. And I will stretch out my hand upon Judah, 4 and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemarim with the priests; and them that worship the host of heaven 5 upon the housetops; and them that worship, that swear to Jehovah and swear by Malcam; and them that are turned back 6 from following Jehovah; and those that have not sought Jehovah, nor inquired after him. Hold thy peace at the presence of the 7 Lord Jehovah; for the day of Jehovah is at hand: for Jehovah hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath consecrated his guests. And 8 it shall come to pass in the day of Jehovah's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's sons, and all such as are clothed with foreign apparel. And in that day I will punish all 9 those that leap over the threshold, that fill their master's house with violence and deceit. And in that day, saith Jehovah, there 10 shall be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, and a wailing from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills. Wail, 11 ye inhabitants of Maktesh; for all the people of Canaan are undone; all they that were laden with silver are cut off. And it 12 shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with lamps; and I will punish the men that are settled on their lees, that say in their heart, Jehovah will not do good, neither will he do evil. And their wealth shall become a spoil, and their houses 13 a desolation: yea, they shall build houses, but shall not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but shall not drink the 14 wine thereof. The great day of Jehovah is near, it is near and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of Jehovah; the mighty 15 man crieth there bitterly. That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of 16 darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, a day of the trumpet and alarm, against the fortified cities, and 17 against the high battlements. And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against Jehovah; and their blood shall be poured out as 18 dust, and their flesh as dung. Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of Jehovah's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he will make an end, yea, a terrible end, of all them that dwell in the land.

2 Gather yourselves together, yea, gather together, O nation 2 that hath no shame; before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of Jehovah come upon you, before the day of Jehovah's anger come upon you.
3 Seek ye Jehovah, all ye meek of the earth, that have kept his ordinances; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye will 4 be hid in the day of Jehovah's anger. For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation; they shall drive out Ashdod 5 at noonday, and Ekron shall be rooted up. Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea-coast, the nation of the Cherethites! The word of Jehovah is against you, O Canaan, the land of the Philistines; 6 I will destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant. And the sea-coast shall be pastures, with cottages for shepherds and folds 7 for flocks. And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed their flocks thereupon; in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening; for Jehovah their 8 God will visit them, and bring back their captivity. I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, wherewith they have reproached my people, and mag-9 nified themselves against their border. Therefore as I live, saith Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, a possession of nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall make a prey of them, and the remnant of my nation shall inherit them. This shall they have for their pride, 10 because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of Jehovah of hosts. Jehovah will be terrible unto 11 them; for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the nations. Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword. 12 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy 13 Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like the wilderness. And herds shall lie down in the midst of her, all 14 the beasts of the nations: both the pelican and the porcupine shall lodge in the capitals thereof; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he hath laid bare the cedar-work. This is the joyous city that dwelt care- 15 lessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none besides me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

Woe to her that is rebellious and polluted! to the oppress- 3 ing city! She obeyed not the voice; she received not correc- 2 tion; she trusted not in Jehovah; she drew not near to her God.
Her princes in the midst of her are roaring lions; her judges 3 are evening wolves; they leave nothing till the morrow. Her 4 prophets are light and treacherous persons; her priests have profaned the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law. Je- 5 hovah in the midst of her is righteous; he will not do iniquity; every morning doth he bring his justice to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame. I have cut off nations; their 6 battlements are desolate; I have made their streets waste, so that none passeth by; their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, so that there is no inhabitant. I said, Only fear 7 thou me; receive correction; so her dwelling shall not be cut off, according to all that I have appointed concerning her: but they rose early and corrupted all their doings. Therefore wait ye for 8 me, saith Jehovah, until the day that I rise up to the prey; for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger; for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy. For then will I turn to the peoples of a pure lan- 9 guage, that they may all call upon the name of Jehovah, to serve him with one consent. From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my 10 suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering. In that day shalt thou not be put to shame for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me; for then I will take away out of the midst of thee thy proudly exulting ones, and thou shalt no more be haughty in my holy mountain. But I will leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people, and they shall take refuge in the name of Jehovah. The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth; for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid. Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem. Jehovah hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy: the King of Israel, even Jehovah, is in the midst of thee; thou shalt not fear evil any more. In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not; O Zion, let not thy hands be slack. Jehovah thy God is in the midst of thee, a mighty one who will save; he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love; he will joy over thee with singing. I will gather them that sorrow for the solemn assembly, who were of thee; to whom the burden upon her was a reproach. Behold, at that time I will deal with all them that afflict thee; and I will save that which is lame, and gather that which was driven away; and I will make them a praise and a name, whose shame hath been in all the earth. At that time will I bring you in, and at that time will I gather you; for I will make you a name and a praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I bring back your captivity before your eyes, saith Jehovah.

HAGGAI.

In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth 1 month, in the first day of the month, came the word of Jehovah by Haggai the prophet unto Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, Thus speaketh Je- 2 hovah of hosts, saying, This people say, It is not the time for us to come, the time for Jehovah's house to be built. Then 3 came the word of Jehovah by Haggai the prophet, saying, Is it 4 a time for you yourselves to dwell in your ceiled houses, while this house lieth waste? Now therefore thus saith Jehovah of 5 hosts: Consider your ways. Ye have sown much, and bring in 6 little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.
Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: Consider your ways. Go up to the 7, 8 mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith Jehovah. Ye looked 9 for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? saith Jehovah of hosts. Because of my house that lieth waste, while ye run every man to his own house.
Therefore for your sake the heavens withhold the dew, and the 10 earth withholdeth its fruit. And I called for a drought upon the 11 land, and upon the mountains, and upon the grain, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labor of the hands. Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and 12 Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of Jehovah their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as Jehovah their God had sent him; and the people did fear before Jehovah. Then spake Hag- 13 gai Jehovah's messenger in Jehovah's message unto the people, saying, I am with you, saith Jehovah. And Jehovah stirred up 14 the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came 15 and did work on the house of Jehovah of hosts, their God, in the four and twentieth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

2 In the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of Jehovah by Haggai the prophet, saying, 2 Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the 3 remnant of the people, saying, Who is left among you that saw this house in its former glory? and how do ye see it now? is it not 4 in your eyes as nothing? Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith Jehovah; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high 5 priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith Jehovah, and work: for I am with you, saith Jehovah of hosts, according 6 to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, and my Spirit abode among you: fear ye not. For thus 7 saith Jehovah of hosts: Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land; 8 and I will shake all nations; and the precious things of all nations shall come; and I will fill this house with glory, saith Jehovah of 9 hosts. The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith Jehovah of hosts. The latter glory of this house shall be greater than 10 the former, saith Jehovah of hosts; and in this place will I give peace, saith Jehovah of hosts. In the four and twentieth day of 11 the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of Jehovah by Haggai the prophet, saying, Thus saith Jehovah 12 of hosts: Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his 13 skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any food, shall it become holy? And the priests answered and said, No.
14 Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean by reason of a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests 15 answered and said, It shall be unclean. Then answered Haggai and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith Jehovah; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean. And now, I pray you, consider from this day and backward, before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of Jehovah. Through all that time, when one 16 came to a heap of twenty measures, there were but ten; when one came to the winevat to draw out fifty vessels, there were but twenty. I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with 17 hail in all the work of your hands; yet ye turned not to me, saith Jehovah. Consider, I pray you, from this day and backward, 18 from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, since the day that the foundation of Jehovah's temple was laid, consider it. Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, the vine, and the fig-tree, 19 and the pomegranate, and the olive-tree have not brought forth; from this day will I bless you. And the word of Jehovah came 20 the second time unto Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying, Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, 21 I will shake the heavens and the earth; and I will overthrow 22 the throne of kingdoms; and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother. In that 23 day, saith Jehovah of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith Jehovah, and will make thee as a signet; for I have chosen thee, saith Jehovah of hosts.

ZECHARIAH.

1  n the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, 2 came the word of Jehovah unto Zechariah the son of 3 Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, Jehovah was sore displeased with your fathers. Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: Return unto me, saith Jehovah of hosts, and I will return unto you, saith Je-4 hovah of hosts. Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets cried, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, Return ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they 5 did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith Jehovah. Your fathers, 6 where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever? But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? and they turned and said, Like as Jehovah of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he 7 dealt with us. Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, 8 came the word of Jehovah unto Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, I saw in the night, and, behold, a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle-trees that were in the bottom; and behind him there were 9 horses, red, sorrel, and white. Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will 10 show thee what these are. And the man that stood among the myrtle-trees answered and said, These are they whom Jehovah 11 hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth. And they answered the angel of Jehovah that stood among the myrtle-trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, 12 behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest. Then the angel of Jehovah answered and said, O Jehovah of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years? And Jehovah answered the angel that talked with 13 me with good words, even comfortable words. So the angel 14 that talked with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. And I am very sore displeased with the nations 15 that are at ease; for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction. Therefore thus saith Jehovah: I am re- 16 turned to Jerusalem with mercies; my house shall be built in it, saith Jehovah of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth over Jerusalem. Cry yet again, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: 17 My cities shall yet overflow with prosperity; and Jehovah shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem. And I lifted 18 up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, four horns. And I said 19 unto the angel that talked with me, What are these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem. And Jehovah showed me four smiths. 20 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, 21 These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head; but these are come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it.

And I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, a man with 2 a measuring line in his hand. Then said I, Whither goest thou? 2 And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof. And, behold, 3 the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, and said unto him, Run, speak to this young 4 man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as villages without walls, by reason of the multitude of men and cattle therein. For 5 I, saith Jehovah, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and I will be the glory in the midst of her. Ho, ho, flee from the 6 land of the north, saith Jehovah; for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heavens, saith Jehovah. Ho Zion, escape, 7 thou that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon. For thus saith 8 Jehovah of hosts: After glory hath he sent me unto the nations which plundered you; for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye. For, behold, I will shake my hand over them, 9 and they shall be a spoil to those that served them; and ye shall know that Jehovah of hosts hath sent me. Sing and rejoice, O 10 daughter of Zion; for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst 11 of thee, saith Jehovah. And many nations shall join themselves to Jehovah in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that Jehovah of hosts 12 has sent me unto thee. And Jehovah shall inherit Judah as his 13 portion in the holy land, and shall yet choose Jerusalem. Be silent, all flesh, before Jehovah; for he is waked up out of his holy habitation.

3 And he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of Jehovah, and Satan standing at his right hand to be 2 his adversary. And Jehovah said unto Satan, Jehovah rebuke thee, O Satan; yea, Jehovah that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke 3 thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the 4 angel. And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take the filthy garments from off him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from 5 thee, and I will clothe thee with rich apparel. And I said, Let them set a clean mitre upon his head. So they set a clean mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments; and the angel of 6 Jehovah was standing by. And the angel of Jehovah protested 7 unto Joshua, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou also shalt judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will 8 give thee a place of access among these that stand by. Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee; for they are men that are a sign: for, behold, I will 9 bring forth my servant the Branch. For, behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; upon one stone are seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith Jehovah of hosts, and I 10 will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. In that day, saith Jehovah of hosts, shall ye invite every man his neighbor under the vine and under the fig-tree.

4 And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked 2 me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep. And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have seen, and, behold, a candlestick all of gold, with its bowl upon the top of it, and its seven lamps thereon; there are seven pipes to each of the 3 lamps, which are upon the top thereof; and two olive-trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof. And I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord? Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these are? And I said, No, my lord. Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of Jehovah unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith Jehovah of hosts. Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain; and he shall bring forth the top stone with shoutings of Grace, grace, unto it. Moreover the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that Jehovah of hosts hath sent me unto you. For who hath despised the day of small things? for these seven shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel; these are the eyes of Jehovah, which run to and fro through the whole earth. Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive-trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof? And I answered the second time, and said unto him, What are these two olive-branches, which are beside the two golden spouts, that empty the golden oil out of themselves? And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these are? And I said, No, my lord. Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.

Then again I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, a flying roll. And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits. Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole land: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off on the one side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off on the other side according to it. I will cause it to go forth, saith Jehovah of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name; and it shall abide in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof. Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see 6 what is this that goeth forth. And I said, What is it? And he said, This is the ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This 7 is their appearance in all the land (and, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead); and this is a woman sitting in the midst of 8 the ephah. And he said, This is Wickedness: and he cast her down into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead 9 upon the mouth thereof. Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there came forth two women, and the wind was in their wings; now they had wings like the wings of a stork; and 10 they lifted up the ephah between earth and heaven. Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the 11 ephah? And he said unto me, To build her a house in the land of Shinar: and when it is prepared, she shall be set there in her own place.

6 And again I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the 2 mountains were mountains of brass. In the first chariot were red 3 horses; and in the second chariot black horses; and in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grizzled strong 4 horses. Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked 5 with me, What are these, my lord? And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four winds of heaven, which 6 go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth. The chariot wherein are the black horses goeth forth toward the north country; and the white went forth after them; and the grizzled 7 went forth toward the south country. And the strong went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the 8 earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth. Then cried he to me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, they that go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country.
9, 10 And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah; and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son 11 of Zephaniah, whither they are come from Babylon; yea, take of them silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them upon 12 the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest; and speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh Jehovah of hosts, saying, Behold, the man whose name is the Branch: and he shall grow up out of his place; and he shall build the temple of Jehovah; even he shall build the temple of Jehovah; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between them both. And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of Jehovah. And they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of Jehovah; and ye shall know that Jehovah of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of Jehovah your God.

And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of Jehovah came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Chisleu. Now they of Beth-el had sent Sharezer and Regem-melech, and their men, to entreat the favor of Jehovah, and to speak unto the priests of the house of Jehovah of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years? Then came the word of Jehovah of hosts unto me, saying, Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month, even these seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me? And when ye eat, and when ye drink, do not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? Should ye not hear the words which Jehovah cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited? And the word of Jehovah came unto Zechariah, saying, Thus hath Jehovah of hosts spoken, saying, Execute true judgment, and show kindness and compassion every man to his brother; and oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the sojourner, nor the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart. But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they might not hear. Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which Jehovah of hosts had sent by his Spirit by the former prophets: therefore there came great wrath from Jehovah of hosts. And it is come to pass that, as he cried, and they would not hear, so they shall 14 cry, and I will not hear, said Jehovah of hosts; but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, so that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

8, 2 And the word of Jehovah of hosts came to me, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, 3 and I am jealous for her with great wrath. Thus saith Jehovah: I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called The city of truth; and the mountain 4 of Jehovah of hosts, The holy mountain. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his staff in his hand for very 5 age. And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls 6 playing in the streets thereof. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith Jehovah 7 of hosts. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: Behold, I will save my 8 people from the east country, and from the west country; and I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth 9 and in righteousness. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets that were in the day that the foundation of the house of Jehovah of hosts was laid, even the temple, that 10 it might be built. For before those days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in, because of the adversary: for I set all 11 men every one against his neighbor. But now I will not be unto the remnant of this people as in the former days, saith Jehovah 12 of hosts. For there shall be the seed of peace; the vine shall give its fruit, and the ground shall give its increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people 13 to inherit all these things. And it shall come to pass that, as ye were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing. Fear not, but 14 let your hands be strong. For thus saith Jehovah of hosts: As I thought to do evil unto you, when your fathers provoked me to 15 wrath, saith Jehovah of hosts, and I repented not; so again have

I thought in these days to do good unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not. These are the things that ye shall do: speak ye every man the truth with his neighbor; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates; and let none of you devise evil in your hearts against his neighbor; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith Jehovah. And the word of Jehovah of hosts came unto me, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love truth and peace. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come peoples, and the inhabitants of many cities; and the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to entreat the favor of Jehovah, and to seek Jehovah of hosts: I will go also. Yea, many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek Jehovah of hosts in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of Jehovah. Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.

The burden of the word of Jehovah upon the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be its resting-place (for the eye of man and of all the tribes of Israel is toward Jehovah); and Hamath, also, which bordereth thereon; Tyre and Sidon, because they are very wise. And Tyre did build herself a stronghold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets. Behold, the Lord will dispossess her, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire. Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also, and shall be sore pained; and Ekron, for her expectation shall be put to shame; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited. And a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines. And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth; and he also shall be a remnant for our God; and he shall be as a chieftain in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite. And I will encamp about my house against the army, that none pass through or return; and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have

- 9 I seen with mine eyes. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy king cometh unto thee; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an 10 ass, even upon a colt the foal of an ass. And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow shall be cut off; and he shall speak peace unto the nations: and his dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the 11 River to the ends of the earth. As for thee also, because of the blood of thy covenant I have set free thy prisoners from the pit wherein is no water. Turn you to the stronghold, ye prisoners of hope: even to-day do I declare that I will render double unto 12 thee. For I have bent Judah for me, I have filled the bow with Ephraim; and I will stir up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O 13 Greece, and will make thee as the sword of a mighty man. And Jehovah shall be seen over them; and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning; and the Lord Jehovah will blow the trumpet, 14 and will go with whirlwinds of the south. Jehovah of hosts will defend them; and they shall devour, and shall tread down the sling-stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, like the corners of the 15 altar. And Jehovah their God will save them in that day as the flock of his people; for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted on high over his land. For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! grain shall make the young men flourish, and new wine the virgins.
- 10 Ask ye of Jehovah rain in the time of the latter rain, even of Jehovah that maketh lightnings; and he will give them showers 2 of rain, to every one grass in the field. For the teraphim have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie; and they have told false dreams, they comfort in vain: therefore they go their way like sheep, they are afflicted, because there is no shepherd.
3 Mine anger is kindled against the shepherds, and I will punish the he-goats; for Jehovah of hosts hath visited his flock, the house of Judah, and will make them as his goodly horse in the 4 battle. From him shall come forth the corner-stone, from him the nail, from him the battle bow, from him every ruler together.
5 And they shall be as mighty men, treading down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle; and they shall fight, because Jehovah is with them; and the riders on horses shall be confounded. And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I 6 will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them back; for I have mercy upon them; and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am Jehovah their God, and I will hear them. And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and 7 their heart shall rejoice as through wine; yea, their children shall see it, and rejoice; their heart shall be glad in Jehovah. I will 8 hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them; and they shall increase as they have increased. And I will sow them 9 among the peoples; and they shall remember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and shall return. I will 10 bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; and place shall not be found for them. And he will 11 pass through the sea of affliction, and will smite the waves in the sea, and all the depths of the Nile shall dry up; and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Egypt shall depart. And I will strengthen them in Jehovah; and they shall 12 walk up and down in his name, saith Jehovah.

Open thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy 11 cedars. Wail, O fir-tree, for the cedar is fallen, because the 2 goodly ones are destroyed: wail, O ye oaks of Bashan, for the strong forest is come down. A voice of the wailing of the shep- 3 herds! for their glory is destroyed: a voice of the roaring of young lions! for the pride of the Jordan is laid waste. Thus said Je- 4 hovah my God: Feed the flock of slaughter; whose possessors 5 slay them, and hold themselves not guilty; and they that sell them say, Blessed be Jehovah, for I am rich; and their own shepherds pity them not. For I will no more pity the inhabitants 6 of the land, saith Jehovah; but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbor's hand, and into the hand of his king; and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them. So I fed the flock of slaughter, verily the poor of the 7 flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands; and I fed the flock. And I cut 8 off the three shepherds in one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me. Then said I, I will not 9 feed you: that which dieth, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let them that are left eat every 10 one the flesh of another. And I took my staff Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made 11 with all the peoples. And it was broken in that day; and thus the poor of the flock that gave heed unto me knew that it was 12 the word of Jehovah. And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my hire; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my 13 hire thirty pieces of silver. And Jehovah said unto me, Cast it unto the potter, the goodly price that I was prized at by them.

And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them unto the 14 potter, in the house of Jehovah. Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between 15 Judah and Israel. And Jehovah said unto me, Take unto thee 16 yet again the instruments of a foolish shepherd. For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will not visit those that are cut off, neither will seek those that are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which is sound; but he will eat the 17 flesh of the fat sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces. Woe to the worthless shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

12 The burden of the word of Jehovah concerning Israel. Thus saith Jehovah, who stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within 2 him: behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling unto all the peoples round about, and upon Judah also shall it be in the siege 3 against Jerusalem. And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the peoples; all that burden themselves with it shall be sore wounded; and all the nations of the earth shall be gathered together against it.
4 In that day, saith Jehovah, I will smite every horse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the peoples with 5 blindness. And the chieftains of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in Jehovah of hosts 6 their God. In that day will I make the chieftains of Judah like a pan of fire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they shall devour all the peoples round about, on the right hand and on the left; and they of Jerusalem shall yet again dwell 7 in their own place, even in Jerusalem. Jehovah also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem be not magnified above Judah. In that day shall Jehovah defend the inhabitants 8 of Jerusalem: and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of Jehovah before them. And it shall come to pass 9 in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. And I will pour upon the house of David, 10 and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplication; and they shall look unto me whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born. In that day shall there be a great 11 mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. And the land shall mourn, every family 12 apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives 13 apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives apart; all the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives 14 apart.

In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of 13 David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith Jehovah 2 of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land. And it 3 shall come to pass that, when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of Jehovah; and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth. And it shall come to pass in that 4 day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he prophesieth; neither shall they wear a hairy mantle to deceive: but he shall say, I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the 5 ground; for I have been made a bondman from my youth. And 6 one shall say unto him, What are these wounds between thine arms? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends. Awake, O sword, against my shep- 7 herd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith Jehovah of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and 8 I will turn my hand upon the little ones. And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith Jehovah, two parts therein shall 9 be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein. And I will bring the third part into the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried. They shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, Jehovah is my God.

14 Behold, a day of Jehovah cometh, when thy spoil shall be 2 divided in the midst of thee. For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off 3 from the city. Then shall Jehovah go forth, and fight against 4 those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the mount of Olives shall be cleft in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.
5 And ye shall flee by the valley of my mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azel; yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah; and Jehovah my God shall come, and all the holy ones 6 with thee. And it shall come to pass in that day, that there shall not be light; the bright ones shall withdraw themselves: 7 but it shall be one day which is known unto Jehovah; not day, and not night; but it shall come to pass, that at evening time 8 there shall be light. And it shall come to pass in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea: in 9 summer and in winter shall it be. And Jehovah shall be King over all the earth: in that day shall Jehovah be one, and his 10 name one. All the land shall be made like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem; and she shall be lifted up, and shall dwell in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower 11 of Hananel unto the king's wine-presses. And men shall dwell therein, and there shall be no more curse; but Jerusalem shall dwell safely. And this shall be the plague wherewith Jehovah will smite all the peoples that have warred against Jerusalem: their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their sockets, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth. And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from Jehovah shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbor, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbor. And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the nations round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance. And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in those camps, as that plague. And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem shall go up from year to year to worship the King, Jehovah of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles. And it shall be, that whoso of all the families of the earth goeth not up unto Jerusalem to worship the King, Jehovah of hosts, upon them there shall be no rain. And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, neither shall it be upon them; there shall be the plague wherewith Jehovah will smite the nations that go not up to keep the feast of tabernacles. This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all the nations that go not up to keep the feast of tabernacles. In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLY UNTO JEHOVAH; and the pots in Jehovah's house shall be like the bowls before the altar. Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holy unto Jehovah of hosts; and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and boil therein: and in that day there shall be no more a Canaanite in the house of Jehovah of hosts.

MALACHI.

1  he burden of the word of Jehovah to Israel by Malachi.
2 I have loved you, saith Jehovah. Yet ye say, Wherein 3 hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother, 4 saith Jehovah: yet I loved Jacob; but Esau I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to 5 the jackals of the wilderness. Whereas Edom saith, We are 6 beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places; thus saith Jehovah of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw 7 down; and men shall call them The border of wickedness, and The people against whom Jehovah hath indignation for ever.
8 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, Jehovah be magnified 9 beyond the border of Israel. A son honoreth his father, and a servant his master: if then I am a father, where is mine honor? and if I am a master, where is my fear? saith Jehovah of hosts 10 unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein 11 have we despised thy name? Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar. And ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye 12 say, The table of Jehovah is contemptible. And when ye offer the blind for sacrifice, it is no evil! and when ye offer the lame and sick, it is no evil! Present it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee? or will he accept thy person? saith 13 Jehovah of hosts. And now, I pray you, entreat the favor of God, that he may be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he accept any of your persons? saith Jehovah of 14 hosts. Oh that there were one among you that would shut the doors, that ye might not kindle fire on mine altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you, saith Jehovah of hosts, neither will I accept 15 an offering at your hand. For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the 16 Gentiles, saith Jehovah of hosts. But ye profane it, in that ye say, The table of Jehovah is polluted, and the fruit thereof, even its food, is contemptible. Ye say also, Behold, what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith Jehovah of hosts; and ye have brought that which was taken by violence, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye bring the offering: should I accept this at your hand? saith Jehovah. But cursed be the deceiver, who hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a blemished thing; for I am a great King, saith Jehovah of hosts, and my name is terrible among the Gentiles.

And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you. If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith Jehovah of hosts, then will I send the curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings; yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart. Behold, I will rebuke your seed, and will spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your feasts; and ye shall be taken away with it. And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant may be with Levi, saith Jehovah of hosts. My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might fear; and he feared me, and stood in awe of my name. The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity. For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of Jehovah of hosts. But ye are turned aside out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble in the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith Jehovah of hosts. Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have had respect of persons in the law. Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers? Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of Jehovah which he loveth, and hath married the daughter of a foreign god. Jehovah will cut off, to the man that doeth this, him that waketh and him that answereth, out of the tents of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto Jehovah of hosts. And this again ye do: ye cover the altar of Jehovah with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, neither 14 receiveth it with good will at your hand. Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because Jehovah hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously, though 15 she is thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. And did he not make one, although he had the residue of the Spirit? And wherefore one? He sought a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the 16 wife of his youth. For I hate putting away, saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, and him that covereth his garment with violence, saith Jehovah of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that 17 ye deal not treacherously. Ye have wearied Jehovah with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? In that ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of Jehovah, and he delighteth in them; or where is the God of justice?

3 Behold, I send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom ye desire, 2 behold, he cometh, saith Jehovah of hosts. But who can abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth?
3 for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap: and he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they shall offer 4 unto Jehovah offerings in righteousness. Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto Jehovah, as in the days 5 of old, and as in ancient years. And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against the false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the sojourner from his 6 right, and fear not me, saith Jehovah of hosts. For I, Jehovah, change not; therefore ye, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.
7 From the days of your fathers ye have turned aside from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith Jehovah of hosts. But ye say, Wherein 8 shall we return? Will a man rob God? yet ye rob me. But ye 9 say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. Ye are cursed with the curse; for ye rob me, even this whole nation.

Bring ye the whole tithe into the store-house, that there may be 10 food in my house, and prove me now herewith, saith Jehovah of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.
And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not 11 destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before the time in the field, saith Jehovah of hosts. And all 12 nations shall call you happy; for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith Jehovah of hosts. Your words have been stout against me, 13 saith Jehovah. Yet ye say, What have we spoken against thee?
Ye have said, It is vain to serve God; and what profit is it that we 14 have kept his charge, and that we have walked mournfully before Jehovah of hosts? And now we call the proud happy; yea, they 15 that work wickedness are built up; yea, they tempt God, and escape. Then they that feared Jehovah spake one with another; 16 and Jehovah hearkened, and heard, and a book of remembrance was written before him, for them that feared Jehovah, and that thought upon his name. And they shall be mine, saith Jehovah 17 of hosts, even mine own possession, in the day that I make; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.
Then shall ye return and discern between the righteous and the 18 wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.

For, behold, the day cometh, it burneth as a furnace; and 4 all the proud, and all that work wickedness, shall be stubble; and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith Jehovah of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. But unto 2 you that fear my name shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in its wings; and ye shall go forth, and gambol as calves of the stall. And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall 3 be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I make, saith Jehovah of hosts. Remember ye the law of Moses my 4 servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, even statutes and ordinances. Behold, I will send you Elijah 5 the prophet before the great and terrible day of Jehovah come.
And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and 6 the heart of the children to their fathers; lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MATTHEW.

1 The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of 2 David, the son of Abraham. Abraham begat Isaac; 3 and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judah and 4 his brethren; and Judah begat Perez and Zerah of 5 Tamar; and Perez begat Hezron; and Hezron begat Ram; and 6 Ram begat Amminadab; and Amminadab begat Nahshon; and 7 Nahshon begat Salmon; and Salmon begat Boaz of Rahab; and 8 Boaz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse; and Jesse 9 begat David the king. And David begat Solomon of her that 10 had been the wife of Uriah; and Solomon begat Rehoboam; and 11 Rehoboam begat Abijah; and Abijah begat Asa; and Asa begat 12 Jehoshaphat; and Jehoshaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat 13 Uzziah; and Uzziah begat Jotham; and Jotham begat Ahaz; 14 and Ahaz begat Hezekiah; and Hezekiah begat Manasseh; and 15 Manasseh begat Amon; and Amon begat Josiah; and Josiah 16 begat Jechoniah and his brethren, at the time of the carrying 17 away to Babylon. And after the carrying away to Babylon, 18 Jechoniah begat Shealtiel; and Shealtiel begat Zerubbabel; and 19 Zerubbabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor; and Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud; and Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ. So all the generations from Abraham unto David are fourteen generations; and from David unto the carrying away to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the carrying away to Babylon unto the Christ fourteen generations. Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found with child of the Holy Spirit. And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily. But when he thought on 20 these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. And she shall bring forth a son; and thou 21 shalt call his name JESUS; for it is he that shall save his people from their sins. Now all this is come to pass, that it might 22 be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall bring 23 forth a son, And they shall call his name Immanuel; which is, being interpreted, God with us. And Joseph arose from his 24 sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took unto him his wife; and knew her not till she had brought 25 forth a son: and he called his name JESUS.

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the 2 days of Herod the king, behold, Wise-men from the east came to Jerusalem, saying, Where is he that is born King of the 2 Jews? for we saw his star in the east, and are come to worship him. And when Herod the king heard it, he was troubled, and 3 all Jerusalem with him. And gathering together all the chief 4 priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ should be born. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem 5 of Judaea: for thus it is written through the prophet, And thou 6 Bethlehem, land of Judah, art in no wise least among the princes of Judah: for out of thee shall come forth a governor, who shall be shepherd of my people Israel. Then Herod privily called 7 the Wise-men, and learned of them exactly what time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and 8 search out exactly concerning the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word, that I also may come and worship him. And they, having heard the king, went their way; and lo, 9 the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. And when 10 they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. And 11 they came into the house and saw the young child with Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped him; and opening their treasures they offered unto him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh. And being warned of God in a dream that 12 they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own 13 country another way. Now when they were departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I tell thee: for Herod will seek 14 the young child to destroy him. And he arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt; 15 and was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, Out 16 of Egypt did I call my son. Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the Wise-men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had exactly learned of the Wise-men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken through Jeremiah the 18 prophet, saying, A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children; And she would 19 not be comforted, because they are not. But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to 20 Joseph in Egypt, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead that 21 sought the young child's life. And he arose and took the young 22 child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judaea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; and being warned of God in a dream, he withdrew into the parts of Galilee, 23 and came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets, that he should be called a Nazarene.

3 And in those days cometh John the Baptist, preaching in the 2 wilderness of Judaea, saying, Repent ye; for the kingdom of 3 heaven is at hand. For this is he that was spoken of through Isaiah the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make ye ready the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.
4 Now John himself had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his food was locusts and wild honey.
5 Then went out unto him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the 6 region round about the Jordan; and they were baptized of him 7 in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said unto them, Ye offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bring forth therefore fruit worthy of repentance: and think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. And even now the axe lieth at the root of the trees: every tree therefore that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. I indeed baptize you in water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you in the Holy Spirit and in fire: whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing-floor; and he will gather his wheat into the garner, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire. Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to the Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. But John would have hindered him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? But Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffereth him. And Jesus when he was baptized, went up straightway from the water: and lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming upon him; and lo, a voice out of the heavens, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he afterward hungered. And the tempter came and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, command that these stones become bread. But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Then the devil taketh him into the holy city; and he set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and saith unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and, On their hands they shall bear thee up, lest haply thou dash thy foot against a stone. Jesus said unto him, Again it is written, Thou shalt not make trial of the Lord thy God. Again, the devil taketh him unto an exceeding high mountain, and showeth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; and he said unto him, All these things will I give thee, if 10 thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the 11 Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil leaveth him; and behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

12 Now when he heard that John was delivered up, he withdrew 13 into Galilee; and leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the borders of Zebulun and 14 Naphtali: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through 15 Isaiah the prophet, saying, The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the 16 Gentiles, the people that sat in darkness saw a great light, and to them that sat in the region and shadow of death, to them 17 did light spring up. From that time began Jesus to preach, and 18 to say, Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. And walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brethren, Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; 19 for they were fishers. And he saith unto them, Come ye after 20 me, and I will make you fishers of men. And they straightway 21 left the nets, and followed him. And going on from thence he saw two other brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their 22 nets; and he called them. And they straightway left the boat 23 and their father, and followed him. And Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of disease and all man-24 ner of sickness among the people. And the report of him went forth into all Syria: and they brought unto him all that were sick, holden with divers diseases and torments, possessed with 25 demons, and epileptic, and palsied; and he healed them. And there followed him great multitudes from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judaea and from beyond the Jordan.

5 And seeing the multitudes, he went up into the mountain: 2 and when he had sat down, his disciples came unto him: and 3 he opened his mouth and taught them, saying, Blessed are the 4 poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are 5 they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the 6 meek: for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.
7, 8 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are the 9 peacemakers: for they shall be called sons of God. Blessed 10 are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye when men shall 11 reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding 12 glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets that were before you. Ye are the salt of the earth: 13 but if the salt have lost its savor, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under foot of men. Ye are the light of the world. A city set 14 on a hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a lamp, and 15 put it under the bushel, but on the stand; and it shineth unto all that are in the house. Even so let your light shine before 16 men; that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven. Think not that I came to destroy the law or 17 the prophets: I came not to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I 18 say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass away from the law, till all things be accomplished. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these 19 least commandments, and shall teach men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed 20 the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven. Ye have heard that it was 21 said to them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment: but I say unto you, that 22 every one who is angry with his brother shall be in danger of the judgment; and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council; and whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of the hell of fire. If therefore thou art offering thy 23 gift at the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee, leave there thy gift before the altar, and 24 go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. Agree with thine adversary quickly, while 25 thou art with him in the way; lest haply the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison. Verily I say unto thee, thou shalt by 26 no means come out thence, till thou have paid the last farthing.

27 Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt not commit adultery: 28 but I say unto you, that every one that looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his 29 heart. And if thy right eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body be cast 30 into hell. And if thy right hand causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body go into hell.

31 It was said also, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give 32 her a writing of divorcement: but I say unto you, that every one that putteth away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, maketh her an adulteress: and whosoever shall marry her when 33 she is put away committeth adultery. Again, ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear 34 thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths: but I say unto you, swear not at all; neither by the heaven, for it is the 35 throne of God; nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet; 36 nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, for thou canst not make one hair 37 white or black. But let your speech be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: and 38 whatsoever is more than these is of the evil one. Ye have heard 39 that it was said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth: but I say unto you, resist not him that is evil: but whosoever smiteth 40 thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if any man would go to law with thee, and take away thy coat, let him 41 have thy cloak also. And whosoever shall compel thee to go 42 one mile, go with him two. Give to him that asketh thee, and 43 from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away. Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor, and 44 hate thine enemy: but I say unto you, love your enemies, and 45 pray for them that persecute you; that ye may be sons of your Father who is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust.
46 For if ye love them that love you, what reward have ye? do not 47 even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the Gentiles the 48 same? Ye therefore shall be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Take heed that ye do not your righteousness before men, to be 6 seen of them: else ye have no reward with your Father who is in heaven. When therefore thou doest alms, sound not a trumpet 2 before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. But when thou doest 3 alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: that thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father who seeth in 4 secret shall recompense thee. And when ye pray, ye shall not 5 be as the hypocrites: for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thine inner 6 chamber, and having shut thy door, pray to thy Father who is in secret, and thy Father who seeth in secret shall recompense thee.
And in praying use not vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do: for 7 they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.
Be not therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what 8 things ye have need of, before ye ask him. After this manner 9 therefore pray ye. Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, 10 so on earth. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive 11, 12 us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For 14 if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither 15 will your Father forgive your trespasses. Moreover when ye fast, 16 be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen of men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. But thou, when 17 thou fastest, anoint thy head, and wash thy face; that thou be 18 not seen of men to fast, but of thy Father who is in secret: and thy Father, who seeth in secret, shall recompense thee. Lay not 19 up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where moth and rust consume, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay 20 up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: for where thy treasure is, there will thy heart be also. 21 22 The lamp of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, 23 thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light 24 that is in thee be darkness, how great is the darkness! No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye 25 cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say unto you, be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life 26 more than the food, and the body than the raiment? Behold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them.

27 Are not ye of much more value then they? And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto the measure of his life?
28 And why are ye anxious concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: 29 yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not 30 arrayed like one of these. But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, 31 shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What 32 shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? For after all these things do the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father 33 knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be 34 added unto you. Be not therefore anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

7, 2 Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it 3 shall be measured unto you. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is 4 in thine own eye? Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me cast out the mote out of thine eye; and lo, the beam is in thine 5 own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote 6 out of thy brother's eye. Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast your pearls before the swine, lest haply they 7 trample them under their feet, and turn and rend you. Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: for every one that asketh receiveth; 8 and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Or what man is there of you, who, if his son shall 9 ask him for a loaf, will give him a stone; or if he shall ask for 10 a fish, will give him a serpent? If ye then, being evil, know 11 how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father who is in heaven give good things to them that ask him? All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should 12 do unto you, even so do ye also unto them: for this is the law and the prophets. Enter ye in by the narrow gate: for wide 13 is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many are they that enter in thereby. For narrow is the 14 gate, and straitened the way, that leadeth unto life, and few are they that find it. Beware of false prophets, who come to you 15 in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves. By their 16 fruits ye shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good 17 fruit; but the corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring 18 forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit 19 is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Therefore by their fruits 20 ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, 21 Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me in 22 that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by thy name, and by thy name cast out demons, and by thy name do many mighty works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: 23 depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Every one therefore that 24 heareth these words of mine, and doeth them, shall be likened unto a wise man, who built his house upon the rock: and the 25 rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon the rock. And every one that heareth these words of mine, and 26 doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand: and the rain descended, and the floods 27 came, and the winds blew, and smote upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall thereof. And it came to pass, when 28 Jesus had finished these words, the multitudes were astonished 29 at his teaching: for he taught them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.

8 And when he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. And behold, there came to him a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me
3 clean. And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway his leprosy was 4 cleansed. And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go, show thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses com-5 manded, for a testimony unto them. And when he was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching 6 him, and saying, Lord, my servant lieth in the house sick of the 7 palsy, grievously tormented. And he saith unto him, I will come 8 and heal him. And the centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof; but 9 only say the word, and my servant shall be healed. For I also am a man under authority, having under myself soldiers: and I 10 say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. And when Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, 11 not in Israel. And I say unto you, that many shall come from the east and the west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and 12 Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven: but the sons of the kingdom shall be cast forth into the outer darkness: there shall 13 be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; as thou hast believed, so be it done 14 unto thee. And the servant was healed in that hour. And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother ly-15 ing sick of a fever. And he touched her hand, and the fever left her; and she arose, and ministered unto him. And when even 16 was come, they brought unto him many possessed with demons: and he cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all that were 17 sick: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying: Himself took our infirmities, and bare our 18 diseases. Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side. And there 19 came a scribe, and said unto him, Teacher, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. And another of the disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. But Jesus saith unto him, Follow me; and leave the dead to bury their own dead. And when he was entered into a boat, his disciples followed him. And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the boat was covered with the waves: but he was asleep. And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Save, Lord; we perish. And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. And the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him? And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gadarenes, there met him two possessed with demons, coming forth out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man could pass by that way. And behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time? Now there was afar off from them a herd of many swine feeding. And the demons besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, send us away into the herd of swine. And he said unto them, Go. And they came out, and went into the swine: and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep into the sea, and perished in the waters. And they that fed them fled, and went away into the city, and told everything, and what was befallen to them that were possessed with demons. And behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart from their borders.

And he entered into a boat, and crossed over, and came into his own city. And behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, be of good cheer; thy sins are forgiven. And behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth. And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? For which is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven; or to say, Arise, and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath authority on earth to forgive sins (then saith he to the sick of the palsy), Arise, and take up thy bed, and go up unto thy house. And he arose,

8 and departed to his house. But when the multitudes saw it, they were afraid, and glorified God, who had given such authority unto men. And as Jesus passed by from thence, he saw a man, called Matthew, sitting at the place of toll: and he saith 9 unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him. And it came to pass, as he sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with Jesus and his 10 disciples. And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Teacher with the publicans and sinners? But when he heard it, he said, They that are whole have 11 no need of a physician, but they that are sick. But go ye and learn what this meaneth, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, for I 12 came not to call the righteous, but sinners. Then come to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast 13 oft, but thy disciples fast not? And Jesus said unto them, Can the sons of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall 14 be taken away from them, and then will they fast. And no man putteth a piece of undressed cloth upon an old garment; for that which should fill it up taketh from the garment, and a worse 15 rent is made. Neither do men put new wine into old wine-skins: else the skins burst, and the wine is spilled, and the skins perish: but they put new wine into fresh wine-skins, and both are pre-16 served. While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall 17 live. And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples. And behold, a woman, who had an issue of blood twelve 18 years, came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: for she said within herself, If I do but touch his garment, I shall 19 be made whole. But Jesus turning and seeing her said, Daughter, be of good cheer; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the 20 woman was made whole from that hour. And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the flute-players, and the crowd making a tumult, he said, Give place: for the damsel is not 21 dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. But when the crowd was put forth, he entered in, and took her by the hand; 22 and the damsel arose. And the fame hereof went forth into all that land. And as Jesus passed by from thence, two blind men
25 26 27 followed him, crying out, and saying, Have mercy on us, thou son of David. And when he was come into the house, the blind men 28 came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They say unto him, Yea, Lord. Then touched 29 he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it done unto you. And their eyes were opened. And Jesus strictly charged 30 them, saying, See that no man know it. But they went forth, 31 and spread abroad his fame in all that land. And as they went 32 forth, behold, there was brought to him a dumb man possessed with a demon. And when the demon was cast out, the dumb 33 man spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel. But the Pharisees said, By the prince of the 34 demons casteth he out demons. And Jesus went about all the 35 cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness. But when he saw the multitudes, 36 he was moved with compassion for them, because they were distressed and scattered, as sheep not having a shepherd. Then 37 saith he unto his disciples, The harvest indeed is plenteous, but the laborers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, 38 that he send forth laborers into his harvest.

And he called unto him his twelve disciples, and gave them 10 authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of disease and all manner of sickness. Now the names of 2 the twelve apostles are these: The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew 3 the publican; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Si- 4 mon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.
These twelve Jesus sent forth, and charged them, saying, Go not 5 into any way of the Gentiles, and enter not into any city of the Samaritans: but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Is- 6 rael. And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is 7 at hand. Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast 8 out demons: freely ye received, freely give. Get you no gold, 9 nor silver, nor brass in your purses; no wallet for your journey, 10 neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff: for the laborer is worthy of his food. And into whatsoever city or village ye shall enter, 11 search out who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go forth.

12, 13 And as ye enter into the house, salute it. And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, 14 let your peace return to you. And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, as ye go forth out of that house or 15 that city, shake off the dust of your feet. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah 16 in the day of judgment, than for that city. Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as 17 serpents, and harmless as doves. But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to councils, and in theirs synagogues they 18 will scourge you; yea and before governors and kings shall ye be brought for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the Gentiles.
19 But when they deliver you up, be not anxious how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that hour what ye shall 20 speak. For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father 21 that speaketh in you. And brother shall deliver up brother to death, and the father his child: and children shall rise up against 22 parents, and cause them to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to 23 the end, the same shall be saved. But when they persecute you in this city, flee into the next: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone through the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be 24 come. A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above 25 his lord. It is enough for the disciple that he be as his teacher, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more them of his household!
26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall 27 not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. What I tell you in the darkness, speak ye in the light; and what ye hear in 28 the ear, proclaim upon the house-tops. And be not afraid of them that kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in 29 hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? and not one of 30 them shall fall on the ground without your Father: but the very 31 hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are 32 of more value than many sparrows. Every one therefore who shall confess me before men, him will I also confess before my 33 Father who is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven.

Think not that I came to send peace on the earth: I came not to 34 send peace, but a sword. For I came to set a man at variance 35 against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law: and a man's foes 36 shall be they of his own household. He that loveth father or 37 mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And he 38 that doth not take his cross and follow after me, is not worthy of me. He that findeth his life shall lose it; and he that loseth 39 his life for my sake shall find it. He that receiveth you receiveth 40 me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. He 41 that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward: and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.
And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones 42 a cup of cold water only, in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you he shall in no wise lose his reward.

And it came to pass when Jesus had finished commanding 11 his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and preach in their cities. Now when John heard in the prison the works of 2 the Christ, he sent by his disciples and said unto him, Art thou 3 he that cometh, or look we for another? And Jesus answered 4 and said unto them, Go and tell John the things which ye hear and see: the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the 5 lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good tidings preached to them. And 6 blessed is he, whosoever shall find no occasion of stumbling in me. And as these went their way, Jesus began to say unto the 7 multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken with the wind? But what went 8 ye out to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft raiment are in king's houses. But wherefore went ye 9 out? to see a prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. This is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I 10 send my messenger before thy face, Who shall prepare thy way before thee. Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born 11 of women there hath not arisen a greater than John the Baptist: yet he that is but little in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. And from the days of John the Baptist until now the king- 12 dom of heaven suffereth violence, and men of violence take it by 13 force. For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye are willing to receive it, this is Elijah, that is to come.
15, 16 He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. But whereunto shall I 17 liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the mar-18 ketplaces, who call unto their fellows and say, We piped unto 19 you, and ye did not dance; we wailed, and ye did not mourn.
20 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He 21 hath a demon. The Son of man came eating and drinking, and 22 they say, Behold, a gluttonous man and a winebibber, a friend 23 of publicans and sinners! And wisdom is justified by her works.
24 Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty 25 works were done, because they repented not. Woe unto thee, 26 Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works 27 had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they 28 would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. But I say 29 unto you, it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the 30 day of judgment than for you. And thou, Capernaum, shalt 31 thou be exalted unto heaven? thou shalt go down unto Hades: 32 for if the mighty works had been done in Sodom which were done 33 in thee, it would have remained until this day. But I say unto 34 you that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the 35 day of judgment, than for thee. At that season Jesus answered 36 and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that 37 thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, 38 and didst reveal them unto babes: yea, Father, for so it was 39 well-pleasing in thy sight. All things have been delivered unto 40 me of my Father: and no one knoweth the Son, save the Fa-41 ther; neither doth any know the Father, save the Son, and he 42 to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal him. Come unto me, 43 all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
44 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and 45 lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my 46 yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

12 At that season Jesus went on the sabbath day through the 1 grainfields; and his disciples were hungry and began to pluck 2 ears and to eat. But the Pharisees, when they saw it, said 3 unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which it is not lawful 4 to do upon the sabbath. But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he was hungry, and they that were with him; how he entered into the house of God, and ate the showbread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them that were with him, but only for the priests? Or have ye not read in the law, that on the sabbath day the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are guiltless? But I say unto you, that one greater than the temple is here. But if ye had known what this meaneth, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless. For the Son of man is lord of the sabbath. And he departed thence, and went into their synagogue: and behold, a man having a withered hand.

And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? that they might accuse him. And he said unto them, What man shall there be of you, that shall have one sheep, and if this fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out? How much then is a man of more value than a sheep! Wherefore it is lawful to do good on the sabbath day. Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, as the other.
But the Pharisees went out, and took counsel against him, how they might destroy him. And Jesus perceiving it withdrew from thence: and many followed him; and he healed them all, and charged them that they should not make him known: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, Behold, my servant whom I have chosen; My beloved in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my Spirit upon him, And he shall declare judgment to the Gentiles. He shall not strive, nor cry aloud; Neither shall any one hear his voice in the streets. A bruised reed shall he not break, And smoking flax shall he not quench, Till he send forth judgment unto victory.
And in his name shall the Gentiles hope. Then was brought unto him one possessed with a demon, blind and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the dumb man spake and saw. And all the multitudes were amazed, and said, Can this be the son of David? But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This man doth not cast out demons, but by Beelzebub the prince of the demons. And knowing their thoughts he said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: and if Satan casteth out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then shall 27 his kingdom stand? And if I by Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your 28 judges. But if I by the Spirit of God cast out demons, then 29 is the kingdom of God come upon you. Or how can one enter into the house of the strong man, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

30 He that is not with me is against me, and he that gathereth 31 not with me scattereth. Therefore I say unto you, Every sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men; but the blasphemy 32 against the Spirit shall not be forgiven. And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him; but whosoever shall speak against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, nor in that which is to 33 come. Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by 34 its fruit. Ye offspring of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth 35 speaketh. The good man out of his good treasure bringeth forth good things: and the evil man out of his evil treasure bringeth 36 forth evil things. And I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of 37 judgment. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy 38 words thou shalt be condemned. Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, Teacher, we would see a 39 sign from thee. But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no 40 sign be given it but the sign of Jonah the prophet: for as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the 41 earth. The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, a greater than Jonah is here.
42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater 43 than Solomon is here. But the unclean spirit, when he is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest, 44 and findeth it not. Then he saith, I will return into my house whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh with himself 45 seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man cometh worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this evil generation. While he was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, his mother 46 and his brethren stood without, seeking to speak to him. And one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand 47 without, seeking to speak to thee. But he answered and said 48 unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? And he stretched forth his hand towards his disciples, 49 and said, Behold, my mother and my brethren! For whosoever 50 shall do the will of my Father who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.

On that day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea 13 side. And there were gathered unto him great multitudes, so 2 that he entered into a boat, and sat; and all the multitude stood on the beach. And he spake to them many things in parables, 3 saying, Behold, the sower went forth to sow; and as he sowed, 4 some seeds fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured them: and others fell upon the rocky places, where they had 5 not much earth: and straightway they sprang up, because they had no deepness of earth: and when the sun was risen, they 6 were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. And others fell upon the thorns; and the thorns grew up 7 and choked them: and others fell upon the good ground, and 8 yielded fruit, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. He 9 that hath ears, let him hear. And the disciples came, and said 10 unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables? And he 11 answered and said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have 12 abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath. Therefore speak I to them in 13 parables; because seeing they see not, and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. And unto them is fulfilled the 14 prophecy of Isaiah, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall in no wise understand; And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive: For this people's heart is waxed gross, And 15 their ears are dull of hearing, And their eyes they have closed; Lest haply they should perceive with their eyes, And hear with their ears, And understand with their heart, And should turn 16 again, And I should heal them. But blessed are your eyes, for 17 they see; and your ears, for they hear. For verily I say unto you, that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which 18 ye hear, and heard them not. Hear then ye the parable of the 19 sower. When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the evil one, and snatcheth away that which hath been sown in his heart. This is he that was 20 sown by the way side. And he that was sown upon the rocky places, this is he that heareth the word, and straightway with 21 joy receiveth it; yet hath he not root in himself, but endureth for a while; and when tribulation or persecution ariseth because 22 of the word, straightway he stumbleth. And he that was sown among the thorns, this is he that heareth the word; and the care of the world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and 23 he becometh unfruitful. And he that was sown upon the good ground, this is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; who verily beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some a hundredfold, 24 some sixty, some thirty. Another parable set he before them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man that sowed 25 good seed in his field: but while men slept, his enemy came and 26 sowed tares also among the wheat, and went away. But when the blade sprang up and brought forth fruit, then appeared the 27 tares also. And the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence 28 then hath it tares? And he said unto them, An enemy hath done this. And the servants say unto him, Wilt thou then that 29 we go and gather them up? But he saith, Nay; lest haply while 30 ye gather up the tares, ye root up the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but gather the wheat into 31 my barn. Another parable set he before them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like unto a grain of mustard seed, which 32 a man took, and sowed in his field: which indeed is less than all seeds; but when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the heaven come and lodge in the branches thereof. Another parable spake he unto them; 33 The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till it was all leavened. All 34 these things spake Jesus in parables unto the multitudes; and without a parable spake he nothing unto them: that it might 35 be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world. Then he left the multitudes, and went 36 into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Explain unto us the parable of the tares of the field. And he answered 37 and said, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; and 38 the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and the tares are the sons of the evil one; and 39 the enemy that sowed them is the devil: and the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are angels. As therefore the 40 tares are gathered up and burned with fire; so shall it be in the end of the world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, 41 and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and them that do iniquity, and shall cast them into 42 the furnace of fire: there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the 43 kingdom of their Father. He that hath ears, let him hear. The kingdom of heaven is like unto a treasure hidden in the field; which a man found, and hid; and in his joy he goeth and selleth 44 all that he hath, and buyeth that field. Again, the kingdom 45 of heaven is like unto a man that is a merchant seeking goodly pearls: and having found one pearl of great price, he went and 46 sold all that he had, and bought it. Again, the kingdom of 47 heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: which, when it was filled, they drew up on the 48 beach; and they sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but the bad they cast away. So shall it be in the end of the 49 world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the righteous, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: 50 there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea. And 51 he said unto them, Therefore every scribe who hath been made a disciple to the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that 52 is a householder, who bringeth forth out of his treasure things 53 new and old. And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished 54 these parables, he departed thence. And coming into his own country he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, 55 and these mighty works? Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joseph, 56 and Simon, and Judas? And his sisters, are they not all with 57 us? Whence then hath this man all these things? And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country, and in his own 58 house. And he did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

14 At that season Herod the tetrarch heard the report concerning 2 Jesus, and said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore do these powers work in him.
3 For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him 4 in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. For 5 John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her. And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, 6 because they counted him as a prophet. But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst, 7 and pleased Herod. Whereupon he promised with an oath to 8 give her whatsoever she should ask. And she, being put forward by her mother, saith, Give me here on a platter the head of John 9 the Baptist. And the king was grieved; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them that sat at meat with him, he commanded it 10, 11 to be given; and he sent and beheaded John in the prison. And his head was brought on a platter, and given to the damsel: and 12 she brought it to her mother. And his disciples came, and took up the corpse, and buried him; and they went and told Jesus.
13 Now when Jesus heard it, he withdrew from thence in a boat, to a desert place apart: and when the multitudes heard thereof, 14 they followed him on foot from the cities. And he came forth, and saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, and 15 healed their sick. And when even was come, the disciples came to him, saying, The place is desert, and the time is already past; send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages, and 16 buy themselves food. But Jesus said unto them, They have no need to go away; give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, 17 We have here but five loaves, and two fishes. And he said, 18 Bring them hither to me. And he commanded the multitudes 19 to sit down on the grass; and he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes.

And they all ate, and were filled: and they took up that which 20 remained over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And 21 they that did eat were about five thousand men, besides women and children. And straightway he constrained the disciples to 22 enter into the boat, and to go before him unto the other side, till he should send the multitudes away. And after he had sent the 23 multitudes away, he went up into the mountain apart to pray: and when even was come, he was there alone. But the boat 24 was now in the midst of the sea, distressed by the waves; for the wind was contrary. And in the fourth watch of the night he 25 came unto them, walking upon the sea. And when the disciples 26 saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a ghost; and they cried out for fear. But straightway Jesus 27 spake unto them, saying Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.
And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me 28 come unto thee upon the waters. And he said, Come. And 29 Peter went down from the boat, and walked upon the waters to come to Jesus. But when he saw the wind, he was afraid; and 30 beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, Lord, save me. And 31 immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and took hold of him, and saith unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? And when they were gone up into the boat, the 32 wind ceased. And they that were in the boat worshipped him, 33 saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God. And when they 34 had crossed over, they came to the land, unto Gennesaret. And 35 when the men of that place knew him, they sent into all that region round about, and brought unto him all that were sick, and they besought him that they might only touch the border 36 of his garment: and as many as touched were made whole.

Then there come to Jesus from Jerusalem Pharisees and scribes, 15 saying, Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the el- 2 ders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread. And 3 he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the 4 commandment of God because of your tradition? For God said, Honor thy father and thy mother: and, He that speaketh evil of 5 father or mother, let him die the death. But ye say, whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, That wherewith thou 6 mightest have been profited by me is given to God; he shall not honor his father. And ye have made void the word of God 7 because of your tradition. Ye hypocrites, well did Isaiah proph-8 esy of you, saying, This people honoreth me with their lips; 9 But their heart is far from me. But in vain do they worship 10 me, Teaching as their doctrines the precepts of men. And he called to him the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and un-11 derstand: Not that which entereth into the mouth defileth the man; but that which proceedeth out of the mouth, this defileth 12 the man. Then came the disciples, and said unto him, Know-est thou that the Pharisees were offended, when they heard this 13 saying? But he answered and said, Every plant which my heav-14 enly Father planted not, shall be rooted up. Let them alone: they are blind guides. And if the blind guide the blind, both 15 shall fall into a pit. And Peter answered and said unto him, 16 Declare unto us the parable. And he said, Are ye also even 17 yet without understanding? Perceive ye not, that whatsoever goeth into the mouth passeth into the belly, and is cast out into 18 the draught? But the things which proceed out of the mouth 19 come forth out of the heart; and they defile the man. For out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornica-20 tions, thefts, false witness, railings: these are the things which defile the man; but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not the 21 man. And Jesus went out thence, and withdrew into the parts 22 of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanitish woman came out from those borders, and cried, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with 23 a demon. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth 24 after us. But he answered and said, I was not sent but unto the 25 lost sheep of the house of Israel. But she came and worshipped 26 him, saying, Lord, help me. And he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread and cast it to the dogs.

27 But she said, Yea, Lord: for even the dogs eat of the crumbs 28 which fall from their masters' table. Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it done unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was healed from that hour. And Jesus departed thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the mountain, and sat there. And there came unto him great multitudes, having with them the lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and they cast them down at his feet; and he healed them: insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, and lame walking, and the blind seeing: and they glorified the God of Israel. And Jesus called unto him his disciples, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat: and I would not send them away fasting, lest haply they faint on the way. And the disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so many loaves in a desert place as to fill so great a multitude? And Jesus said unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few small fishes. And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground; and he took the seven loaves and the fishes; and he gave thanks and brake, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. And they all ate, and were filled: and they took up that which remained over of the broken pieces, seven baskets full. And they that did eat were four thousand men, besides women and children. And he sent away the multitudes, and entered into the boat, and came into the borders of Magadan.

And the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and trying him asked him to show them a sign from heaven. But he answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the heaven is red. And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day: for the heaven is red and lowering. Ye know how to discern the face of the heaven; but ye cannot discern the signs of the times. An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of Jonah. And he left them, and departed. And the disciples came to the other side and forgot to take bread. And Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. And they reasoned among themselves, saying, We took no bread. And Jesus perceiving it said, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have no bread? Do ye not yet perceive, neither remember the five loaves of the five 10 thousand, and how many baskets ye took up? Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not perceive that I spake not to you concerning bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and 12 Sadducees. Then understood they that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees 13 and Sadducees. Now when Jesus came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Who do men say 14 that the Son of man is? And they said, Some say John the Baptist; some, Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.
15, 16 He saith unto them, But who say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the 17 living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jonah: for flesh and blood hath not revealed 18 it unto thee, but my Father who is in heaven. And I also say unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build 19 my church; and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it. I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.
20 Then charged he the disciples that they should tell no man that 21 he was the Christ. From that time began Jesus to show unto his disciples, that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, 22 and the third day be raised up. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall never 23 be unto thee. But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art a stumbling-block unto me: for thou 24 mindest not the things of God, but the things of men. Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man would come after me, 25 let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever would save his life shall lose it: and whosoever shall 26 lose his life for my sake shall find it. For what shall a man be profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and forfeit his life?
27 or what shall a man give in exchange for his life? For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then shall he render unto every man according to his deeds.
28 Verily I say unto you, there are some of them that stand here, who shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, 17 and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart: and he was transfigured before them; and his face did 2 shine as the sun, and his garments became white as the light.
And behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elijah talking 3 with him. And Peter answered, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it 4 is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, I will make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.
While he was yet speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed 5 them: and behold, a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. And 6 when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. And Jesus came and touched them and said, Arise, and 7 be not afraid. And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, save 8 Jesus only. And as they were coming down from the mountain, 9 Jesus commanded them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen from the dead. And his disciples asked 10 him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elijah must first come? And he answered and said, Elijah indeed cometh, and 11 shall restore all things: but I say unto you, that Elijah is come 12 already, and they knew him not, but did unto him whatsoever they would. Even so shall the Son of man also suffer of them.
Then understood the disciples that he spake unto them of John 13 the Baptist. And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a man, kneeling to him, saying, Lord, have mercy 15 on my son: for he is epileptic, and suffereth grievously; for ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft-times into the water. And I 16 brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him. And 17 Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him hither to me. And Jesus rebuked him; and the demon 18 went out of him: and the boy was cured from that hour. Then 19 came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast it out? And he saith unto them, Because of your little faith: 20 for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto 21 you. But this kind goeth not out save by prayer and fasting.

22 And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son 23 of man shall be delivered up into the hands of men; and they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised up. And they 24 were exceeding sorry. And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received the half-shekel came to Peter, and said, Doth 25 not your teacher pay the half-shekel? He saith, Yea. And when he came into the house, Jesus spake first to him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? the kings of the earth, from whom do they 26 receive toll or tribute? from their sons, or from strangers? And when he said, From strangers, Jesus said unto him, Therefore the 27 sons are free. But, lest we cause them to stumble, go thou to the sea, and cast a hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a shekel: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

18 In that hour came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who then 2 is greatest in the kingdom of heaven? And he called to him a 3 little child, and set him in the midst of them, and said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye turn, and become as little children, ye 4 shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is 5 the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive 6 one such little child in my name receiveth me: But whoso shall cause one of these little ones that believe on me to stumble, it is profitable for him that a great millstone should be hanged about his neck, and that he should be sunk in the depth of the sea.
7 Woe unto the world because of occasions of stumbling! for it must needs be that the occasions come; but woe to that man 8 through whom the occasion cometh! And if thy hand or thy foot causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life maimed or halt, rather than 9 having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire. And if thine eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather 10 than having two eyes to be cast into the hell of fire. See that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father who 11 is in heaven. For the Son of man came to save that which was 12 lost. How think ye? if any man have a hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and go unto the mountains, and seek that which goeth astray? And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth 13 over it more than over the ninety and nine which have not gone astray. Even so it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven, 14 that one of these little ones should perish. And if thy brother 15 sin against thee, go, show him his fault between thee and him alone: if he hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if he 16 hear thee not, take with thee one or two more, that at the mouth of two witnesses or three every word may be established. And if 17 he refuse to hear them, tell it unto the church: and if he refuse to hear the church also, let him be unto thee as the Gentile and the publican. Verily I say unto you, what things soever ye shall bind 18 on earth shall be bound in heaven; and what things soever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again I say unto 19 you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father who is in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in my 20 name, there am I in the midst of them. Then came Peter and said to him, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? until seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say 22 not unto thee, Until seven times; but, Until seventy times seven. Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, 23 who would make a reckoning with his servants. And when he 24 had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, that owed him ten thousand talents. But forasmuch as he had not wherewith 25 to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. The 26 servant therefore fell down and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And the lord of 27 that servant, being moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt. But that servant went out, and found one 28 of his fellow-servants, who owed him a hundred shillings: and he laid hold on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay what thou owest. So his fellow-servant fell down and besought him, 29 saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee. And he 30 would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay that which was due. So when his fellow-servants saw what was 31 done, they were exceeding sorry, and came and told unto their 32 lord all that was done. Then his lord called him unto him, and saith to him, Thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, 33 because thou besoughtest me: shouldst not thou also have had 34 mercy on thy fellow-servant, even as I had mercy on thee? And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he 35 should pay all that was due. So shall also my heavenly Father do unto you, if ye forgive not every one his brother from your hearts.

19 And it came to pass when Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judaea 2 beyond the Jordan; and great multitudes followed him; and 3 he healed them there. And there came unto him Pharisees, trying him, and saying, Is it lawful for a man to put away his 4 wife for every cause? And he answered and said, Have ye not read, that he who made them from the beginning made them 5 male and female, and said, For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and the two 6 shall become one flesh? So that they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put 7 asunder. They say unto him, Why then did Moses command to 8 give a bill of divorcement, and to put her away? He saith unto them, Moses for your hardness of heart suffered you to put away 9 your wives: but from the beginning it hath not been so. And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and he that marrieth her when she is put away committeth adultery.
10 The disciples say unto him, If the case of the man is so with 11 his wife, it is not expedient to marry. But he said unto them, Not all men can receive this saying, but they to whom it is 12 given. For there are eunuchs, that were so born from their mother's womb: and there are eunuchs, that were made eunuchs by men: and there are eunuchs, that made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive 13 it, let him receive it. Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should lay his hands on them, and pray: and 14 the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, Suffer the little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for to such 15 belongeth the kingdom of heaven. And he laid his hands on 16 them, and departed thence. And behold, one came to him and said, Teacher, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? And he said unto him, Why askest thou me concerning that which is good? One there is who is good: but if thou wouldest enter into life, keep the commandments. He saith unto him, Which? And Jesus said, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Honor thy father and mother; and, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. The young man saith unto him, All these things have I observed: what lack I yet? Jesus said unto him, If thou wouldest be perfect, go, sell that which thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. But when the young man heard the saying, he went away sorrowful; for he was one that had great possessions. And Jesus said unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, It is hard for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of heaven. And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. And when the disciples heard it, they were astonished exceedingly, saying, Who then can be saved? And Jesus looking upon them said to them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible. Then answered Peter and said unto him, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee; what then shall we have? And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye who have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit on the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And every one that hath left houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and shall inherit eternal life. But many shall be last that are first; and first that are last.

For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that was a householder, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his vineyard. And when he had agreed with the laborers for a shilling a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing in the marketplace idle; and to them he said, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing; and he saith unto them, Why 7 stand ye here all the day idle? They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the 8 vineyard. And when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the laborers, and pay them their 9 hire, beginning from the last unto the first. And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received 10 every man a shilling. And when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise received every 11 man a shilling. And when they received it, they murmured 12 against the householder, saying, These last have spent but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, who have borne 13 the burden of the day and the scorching heat. But he answered and said to one of them, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not 14 thou agree with me for a shilling? Take up that which is thine, and go thy way; it is my will to give unto this last, even as unto 15 thee. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? or 16 is thine eye evil, because I am good? So the last shall be first, 17 and the first last. And as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples apart, and on the way he said unto 18 them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and scribes; and they shall 19 condemn him to death, and shall deliver him unto the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify: and the third day he 20 shall be raised up. Then came to him the mother of the sons of Zebedee with her sons, worshipping him, and asking a certain 21 thing of him. And he said unto her, What wouldest thou? She saith unto him, Command that these my two sons may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left hand, in thy kingdom.

22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink the cup that I am about to drink? They say unto 23 him, We are able. He saith unto them, My cup indeed ye shall drink: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left hand, is not mine to give; but it is for them for whom it hath been prepared 24 of my Father. And when the ten heard it, they were moved 25 with indignation concerning the two brethren. But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over 26 them. Not so shall it be among you: but whosoever would become great among you shall be your minister; and whosoever 27 would be first among you shall be your servant: even as the Son 28 of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. And as they went out from 29 Jericho, a great multitude followed him. And behold, two blind 30 men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, Lord, have mercy on us, thou son of David. And the multitude rebuked them, that they should 31 hold their peace: but they cried out the more, saying, Lord, have mercy on us, thou son of David. And Jesus stood still, 32 and called them, and said, What will ye that I should do unto you? They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened. 33 And Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes; 34 and straightway they received their sight, and followed him.

And when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and came unto 21 Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, saying unto them, Go into the village that is over against 2 you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me. And if any one say 3 aught unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them. Now this is come to pass, that it 4 might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying, Tell ye the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, 5 Meek, and riding upon an ass, And upon a colt the foal of an ass. And the disciples went, and did even as Jesus appointed 6 them, and brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their 7 garments; and he sat thereon. And the most part of the multi- 8 tude spread their garments in the way; and others cut branches from the trees, and spread them in the way. And the multitudes 9 that went before him, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest. And when he was come into 10 Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, Who is this? And 11 the multitudes said, This is the prophet, Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee. And Jesus entered into the temple of God, and cast 12 out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold the doves; and he saith unto them, It is written, My house 13 shall be called a house of prayer: but ye make it a den of rob-14 bers. And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; 15 and he healed them. But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children that were crying in the temple and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; 16 they were moved with indignation, and said unto him, Hearst thou what these are saying? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea: did ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou 17 has perfected praise? And he left them, and went forth out 18 of the city to Bethany, and lodged there. Now in the morning 19 as he returned to the city, he hungered. And seeing a fig tree by the way side, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only; and he saith unto it, Let there be no fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And immediately the fig tree withered 20 away. And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, 21 How did the fig tree immediately wither away? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do what is done to the fig tree, but even if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou taken 22 up and cast into the sea, it shall be done. And all things, what-23 soever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive. And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee 24 this authority? And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one question, which if ye tell me, I likewise will tell 25 you by what authority I do these things. The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven or from men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will 26 say unto us, Why then did ye not believe him? But if we shall say, From men; we fear the multitude; for all hold John as a 27 prophet. And they answered Jesus, and said, We know not. He also said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do 28 these things. But what think ye? A man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to-day in the vine-29 yard. And he answered and said, I will not: but afterward he 30 repented himself, and went. And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.

31 Which of the two did the will of his father? They say, The first.
Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. For 32 John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not; but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye saw it, did not even repent yourselves afterward, that ye might believe him. Hear another parable: There was a 33 man that was a householder, who planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country.

And when the season of the fruits drew near, he sent his servants 34 to the husbandmen, to receive his fruits. And the husbandmen 35 took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and 36 they did unto them in like manner. But afterward he sent unto 37 them his son, saying, They will reverence my son. But the hus- 38 bandmen, when they saw the son, said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and take his inheritance. And 39 they took him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him. When therefore the lord of the vineyard shall come, what 40 will he do unto those husbandmen? They say unto him, He will 41 miserably destroy those miserable men, and will let out the vineyard unto other husbandmen, who shall render him the fruits in their seasons. Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the 42 scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, The same was made the head of the corner; This was from the Lord, And it is marvelous in our eyes? Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom 43 of God shall be taken away from you, and shall be given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. And he that falleth on 44 this stone shall be broken to pieces: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will scatter him as dust. And when the chief priests and 45 the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them. And when they sought to lay hold on him, they feared 46 the multitudes, because they took him for a prophet.

And Jesus answered and spake again in parables unto them, 22 saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a certain king, 2 who made a marriage feast for his son, and sent forth his ser- 3 vants to call them that were bidden to the marriage feast: and they would not come. Again he sent forth other servants, say- 4 ing, Tell them that are bidden, Behold, I have made ready my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are 5 ready: come to the marriage feast. But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his 6 merchandise; and the rest laid hold on his servants, and treated 7 them shamefully, and killed them. But the king was wroth; and he sent his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned 8 their city. Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, 9 but they that were bidden were not worthy. Go ye therefore unto the partings of the highways, and as many as ye shall find, 10 bid to the marriage feast. And those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was filled with guests.

11 But when the king came in to behold the guests, he saw there 12 a man who had not on a wedding-garment: and he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding-13 garment? And he was speechless. Then the king said to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and cast him out into the outer darkness; there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of 14, 15 teeth. For many are called, but few chosen. Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might ensnare him in his 16 talk. And they send to him their disciples, with the Herodi-ans, saying, Teacher, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, and carest not for any one: for thou 17 regardest not the person of men. Tell us therefore, What think-18 est thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar, or not? But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why make ye trial 19 of me, ye hypocrites? Show me the tribute money. And they 20 brought unto him a denarius. And he saith unto them, Whose 21 is this image and superscription? They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are 22 God's. And when they heard it, they marvelled, and left him, 23 and went away. On that day there came to him Sadducees, they that say that there is no resurrection: and they asked him, 24 saying, Teacher, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.
25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first married and deceased, and having no seed left his wife unto his brother; 26 in like manner the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.
27, 28 And after them all, the woman died. In the resurrection therefore whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her. But Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as angels in heaven. But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. And when the multitudes heard it, they were astonished at his teaching. But the Pharisees, when they heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, gathered themselves together. And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, trying him: Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law? And he said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second like unto it is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments the whole law hangeth, and the prophets. Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, saying, What think ye of the Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David. He saith unto them, How then doth David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Till I put thine enemies underneath thy feet? If David then calleth him Lord, how is he his son? And no one was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

Then spake Jesus to the multitudes and to his disciples, saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses seat: all things therefore whatsoever they bid you, these do and observe: but do not ye after their works; for they say, and do not. Yea, they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with their finger. But all their works they do to be seen of men: for they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments, and love the chief place at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, and the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called of men, Rabbi. But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your teacher, and all ye are brethren. And call no man your father on the earth: for one is your Father, 10 even he who is in heaven. Neither be ye called masters: for one 11 is your master, even the Christ. But he that is greatest among 12 you shall be your servant. And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be humbled; and whosoever shall humble himself shall be 13 exalted. But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye shut the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye enter not in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering in to 14 enter. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, even while for a pretence ye make long 15 prayers: therefore ye shall receive greater condemnation. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he is become so, ye 16 make him twofold more a son of hell than yourselves. Woe unto you, ye blind guides, that say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the 17 temple, he is a debtor. Ye fools and blind: for which is greater, 18 the gold, or the temple that hath sanctified the gold? And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever 19 shall swear by the gift that is upon it, he is a debtor. Ye blind: for which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the 20 gift? He therefore that sweareth by the altar, sweareth by it, 21 and by all things thereon. And he that sweareth by the temple, 22 sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein. And he that sweareth by the heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by 23 him that sitteth thereon. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye tithe mint and anise and cummin, and have left undone the weightier matters of the law, justice, and mercy, and faith: but these ye ought to have done, and not to have left 24 the other undone. Ye blind guides, that strain out the gnat, and 25 swallow the camel! Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, 26 but within they are full from extortion and excess. Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first the inside of the cup and of the platter, 27 that the outside thereof may become clean also. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which outwardly appear beautiful, but inwardly are 28 full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but inwardly ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and garnish the tombs of the righteous, and say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we should not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. Wherefore ye witness to yourselves, that ye are sons of them that slew the prophets. Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers. Ye serpents, ye offspring of vipers, how shall ye escape the judgment of hell? Therefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: some of them shall ye kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city: that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of Abel the righteous unto the blood of Zachariah son of Barachiah, whom ye slew between the sanctuary and the altar. Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that killeth the prophets, and stoneth them that are sent unto her! how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

And Jesus went out from the temple, and was going on his way; and his disciples came to him to show him the buildings of the temple. But he answered and said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. And as he sat on the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man lead you astray. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am the Christ; and shall lead many astray. And ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars; see that ye be not troubled: for these things must needs come to pass; but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there shall be famines and earthquakes in divers places. But all these things are the beginning of travail. Then shall they deliver you up unto tribulation, and shall kill you: and ye shall 10 be hated of all the nations for my name's sake. And then shall many stumble, and shall deliver up one another, and shall hate 11 one another. And many false prophets shall arise, and shall 12 lead many astray. And because iniquity shall be multiplied, the 13 love of the many shall wax cold. But he that endureth to the 14 end, the same shall be saved. And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in the whole world for a testimony unto all the 15 nations; and then shall the end come. When therefore ye see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (let him that readeth 16 understand), then let them that are in Judaea flee unto the 17 mountains: let him that is on the housetop not go down to take 18 out things that are in his house: and let him that is in the field 19 not return back to take his cloak. But woe unto them that are 20 with child and to them that give suck in those days! And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on a sabbath: 21 for then shall be great tribulation, such as hath not been from 22 the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is the Christ, or, 24 Here; believe it not. For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; so as to 25 lead astray, if possible, even the elect. Behold, I have told you 26 beforehand. If therefore they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the wilderness; go not forth: Behold, he is in the inner chambers; 27 believe it not. For as the lightning cometh forth from the east, and is seen even unto the west; so shall be the coming of the 28 Son of man. Wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles 29 be gathered together. But immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the 30 powers of the heavens shall be shaken: and then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming 31 on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And he shall send forth his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from 32 one end of heaven to the other. Now from the fig tree learn her parable: when her branch is now become tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye know that the summer is nigh; even so ye 33 also, when ye see all these things, know ye that he is nigh, even at the doors. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not 34 pass away, till all these things be accomplished. Heaven and 35 earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. But 36 of that day and hour knoweth no one, not even the angels of heaven, neither the Son, but the Father only. And as were the 37 days of Noah, so shall be the coming of the Son of man. For as 38 in those days which were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and they knew not until the flood 39 came, and took them all away; so shall be the coming of the Son of man. Then shall two men be in the field; one is taken, 40 and one is left: two women shall be grinding at the mill; one 41 is taken, and one is left. Watch therefore: for ye know not on 42 what day your Lord cometh. But know this, that if the master 43 of the house had known in what watch the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken through. Therefore be ye also ready; for in an 44 hour that ye think not the Son of man cometh. Who then is 45 the faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath set over his household, to give them their food in due season? Blessed is 46 that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

Verily I say unto you, that he will set him over all that he hath. 47
But if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord tarrieth; 48 and shall begin to beat his fellow-servants, and shall eat and 49 drink with the drunken; the lord of that servant shall come in 50 a day when he expecteth not, and in an hour when he knoweth not, and shall cut him asunder, and appoint his portion with 51 the hypocrites: there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.

Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, 25 who took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.
And five of them were foolish, and five were wise. For the 2, 3 foolish, when they took their lamps, took no oil with them: but 4 the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. Now while 5 the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. But at 6 midnight there is a cry, Behold, the bridegroom! Come ye forth 7 to meet him. Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their 8 lamps. And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; 9 for our lamps are going out. But the wise answered, saying, Peradventure there will not be enough for us and you: go ye 10 rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went away to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage feast: and the 11 door was shut. Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, 12 Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and said, Verily I 13 say unto you, I know you not. Watch therefore, for ye know 14 not the day nor the hour. For it is as when a man, going into another country, called his own servants, and delivered unto 15 them his goods. And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one; to each according to his several ability; and 16 he went on his journey. Straightway he that received the five talents went and traded with them, and made other five talents.

17 In like manner he also that received the two gained other two.
18 But he that received the one went away and digged in the earth, 19 and hid his lord's money. Now after a long time the lord of those 20 servants cometh, and maketh a reckoning with them. And he that received the five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: lo, I have 21 gained other five talents. His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things; enter thou into the joy 22 of thy lord. And he also that received the two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: lo, I have 23 gained other two talents. His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things; enter thou into the joy of 24 thy lord. And he also that had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou didst not sow, and gathering where thou didst not scatter; 25 and I was afraid, and went away and hid thy talent in the earth: 26 lo, thou hast thine own. But his lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap 27 where I sowed not, and gather where I did not scatter; thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back mine own with interest.

Take ye away therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him 28 that hath the ten talents. For unto every one that hath shall 29 be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away. And cast ye 30 out the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness: there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. But when the Son 31 of man shall come in his glory, and all the angels with him, then shall he sit on the throne of his glory: and before him shall be 32 gathered all the nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as the shepherd separateth the sheep from the goats; and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on 33 the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, 34 Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: for I was hungry, and 35 ye gave me to eat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me in; naked, and ye clothed me; I was 36 sick, and ye visited me; I was in prison, and ye came unto me.
Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw 37 we thee hungry, and fed thee? or athirst, and gave thee drink?
And when saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, 38 and clothed thee? And when saw we thee sick, or in prison, 39 and came unto thee? And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these my brethren, even these least, ye did it unto me. Then 41 shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels: for I was hungry, and ye did not give me to eat; I was 42 thirsty, and ye gave me no drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me not in; naked, and ye clothed me not; sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not. Then shall they also answer, saying, Lord, 44 when saw we thee hungry, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee? Then shall 45 he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not unto one of these least, ye did it not unto me. And 46 these shall go away into eternal punishment: but the righteous into eternal life.

And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these words, 26 he said unto his disciples, Ye know that after two days the 2 passover cometh, and the Son of man is delivered up to be cru-3 cified. Then were gathered together the chief priests, and the 4 elders of the people, unto the court of the high priest, who was 5 called Caiaphas; and they took counsel together that they might 6 take Jesus by subtlety, and kill him. But they said, Not during 7 the feast, lest a tumult arise among people. Now when Jesus 8 was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, there came 9 unto him a woman having an alabaster cruse of exceeding pre-10 cious ointment, and she poured it upon his head, as he sat at 11 meat. But when the disciples saw it, they had indignation, say-12 ing, To what purpose is this waste? For this ointment might 13 have been sold for much, and given to the poor. But Jesus 14 perceiving it said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for 15 she hath wrought a good work upon me. For ye have the poor 16 always with you; but me ye have not always. For in that she 17 poured this ointment upon my body, she did it to prepare me for 18 burial. Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be 19 preached in the whole world, that also which this woman hath 20 done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her. Then one of 21 the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief 22 priests, and said, What are ye willing to give me, and I will 23 deliver him unto you? And they weighed unto him thirty pieces 24 of silver. And from that time he sought opportunity to deliver 25 him unto them. Now on the first day of unleavened bread the 26 disciples came to Jesus, saying, Where wilt thou that we make ready for thee to eat the passover? And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Teacher saith, My time is at hand; I keep the passover at thy house with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus appointed them; and they made ready the passover. Now when even was come, he was sitting at meat with the twelve disciples; and as they were eating, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began to say unto him every one, Is it I, Lord? And he answered and said, He that dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me. The Son of man goeth, even as it is written of him: but woe unto that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had not been born. And Judas, who betrayed him, answered and said, Is it I, Rabbi? He saith unto him, Thou hast said. And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it; and he gave to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. And he took a cup, and gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many unto remission of sins. But I say unto you, I shall not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom. And when they had sung a hymn, they went out unto the mount of Olives. Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended in me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad. But after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee. But Peter answered and said unto him, If all shall be offended in thee, I will never be offended. Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. Peter saith unto him, Even if I must die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples. Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto his disciples, Sit ye here, while I go yonder and pray. And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and sore troubled. Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: abide ye here, and watch with me. And he went forward a little, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass away from me: nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt. And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. Again a second time he went away, and prayed, saying, My Father, if this cannot pass away, except I drink it, thy will be done. And he came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. And he left them again, and went away, and prayed a third time, saying again the same words. Then cometh he to the disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Arise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that betrayeth me. And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief 48 priest and elders of the people. Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is he: take 49 him. And straightway he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Rabbi; 50 and kissed him. And Jesus said unto him, Friend, do that for which thou art come. Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, 51 and took him. And behold, one of them that were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and smote the ser-52 vant of the high priest, and struck off his ear. Then saith Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into its place: for all they that 53 take the sword shall perish with the sword. Or thinkest thou that I cannot beseech my Father, and he shall even now send 54 me more than twelve legions of angels? How then should the 55 scriptures be fulfilled that thus it must be? In that hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a robber with swords and staves to seize me? I sat daily in the temple 56 teaching, and ye took me not. But all this is come to pass, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the dis-57 ciples left him, and fled. And they that had taken Jesus led him away to the house of Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes 58 and the elders were gathered together. But Peter followed him afar off, unto the court of the high priest, and entered in, and 59 sat with the officers, to see the end. Now the chief priests and the whole council sought false witness against Jesus, that they 60 might put him to death; and they found it not, though many 61 false witnesses came. But afterward came two, and said, This man said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build 62 it in three days. And the high priest stood up, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness 63 against thee? But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us 64 whether thou art the Christ, the Son of God. Jesus said unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Henceforth ye 65 shall see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven. Then the high priest rent his garments, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy: what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard the blasphemy: 66 what think ye? They answered and said, He is worthy of death.

67 Then did they spit in his face and buffet him: and some smote 68 him with the palms of their hands, saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ: who is he that struck thee? Now Peter was sitting 69 without in the court: and a maid came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus the Galilaeen. But he denied before them 70 all, saying, I know not what thou sayest. And when he was 71 gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and saith unto them that were there, This man also was with Jesus of Nazareth.

And again he denied with an oath, I know not the man. And 72, 73 after a little while they that stood by came and said to Peter, Of a truth thou also art one of them; for thy speech maketh thee known. Then began he to curse and to swear, I know not the 74 man. And straightway the cock crew. And Peter remembered 75 the word which Jesus had said, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

Now when morning was come, all the chief priests and the el- 27 ders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: and they bound him, and led him away, and delivered him up to 2 Pilate the governor. Then Judas, who betrayed him, when he 3 saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, saying, 4 I have sinned in that I betrayed innocent blood. But they said, What is that to us? see thou to it. And he cast down the pieces 5 of silver into the sanctuary, and departed; and he went away and hanged himself. And the chief priests took the pieces of silver, 6 and said, It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since it is the price of blood. And they took counsel, and bought with 7 them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. Wherefore that 8 field was called, the field of blood, unto this day. Then was 9 fulfilled that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was priced, whom certain of the children of Israel did price; and they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed 10 me. Now Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor 11 asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest. And when he was accused by the 12 chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. Then saith Pi- 13 late unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee? And he gave him no answer, not even to one 14 word: insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly. Now at 15 the feast the governor was wont to release unto the multitude 16 one prisoner, whom they would. And they had then a notable 17 prisoner, called Barabbas. When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto 18 you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ? For he knew that 19 for envy they had delivered him up. And while he was sitting on the judgment-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that righteous man; for I have suffered many 20 things this day in a dream because of him. Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes that they should ask for 21 Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. But the governor answered and said unto them, Which of the two will ye that I release unto 22 you? And they said, Barabbas. Pilate saith unto them, What then shall I do unto Jesus who is called Christ? They all say, 23 Let him be crucified. And he said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out exceedingly, saying, Let him be cruci-24 fied. So when Pilate saw that he prevailed nothing, but rather that a tumult was arising, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this 25 righteous man; see ye to it. And all the people answered and 26 said, His blood be on us, and on our children. Then released he unto them Barabbas; but Jesus he scourged and delivered to be 27 crucified. Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the 28 Praetorium, and gathered unto him the whole band. And they 29 stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe. And they platted a crown of thorns and put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him, and mocked him, 30 saying, Hail, King of the Jews! And they spat upon him, and 31 took the reed and smote him on the head. And when they had mocked him, they took off from him the robe, and put on him 32 his garments, and led him away to crucify him. And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to go with them, that he might bear his cross.

33 And they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, 34 The place of a skull, they gave him wine to drink mingled with 35 gall: and when he had tasted it, he would not drink. And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments among them, 36, 37 casting lots; and they sat and watched him there. And they set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE 38 KING OF THE JEWS. Then are there crucified with him two robbers, one on the right hand and one on the left. And they 39 that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, 40 Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself: if thou art the Son of God, come down from the cross. In like manner also the chief priests mocking him, with 41 the scribes and elders, said, He saved others; himself he cannot 42 save. He is the King of Israel; let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe on him. He trusteth on God; let him 43 deliver him now, if he desireth him: for he said, I am the Son of God. And the robbers also that were crucified with him cast 44 upon him the same reproach. Now from the sixth hour there 45 was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. And about 46 the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? And some of them stood there, when they heard 47 it, said, This man calleth Elijah. And straightway one of them 48 ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. And the rest said, Let be; let us see 49 whether Elijah cometh to save him. And Jesus cried again with 50 a loud voice, and yielded up his spirit. And behold, the veil of 51 the temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake; and the rocks were rent; and the tombs were 52 opened; and many bodies of the saints that had fallen asleep were raised; and coming forth out of the tombs after his resur- 53 rection they entered into the holy city and appeared unto many.

Now the centurion, and they that were with him watching Jesus, 54 when they saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God. And 55 many women were there beholding from afar, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him: among whom was 56 Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee. And when even was come, 57 there came a rich man from Arimathaea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: this man went to Pilate, and asked 58 for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded it to be given up. And Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen 59 cloth, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out 60 in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other 61 62 Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre. Now on the morrow, which is the day after the Preparation, the chief priests and the 63 Pharisees were gathered together unto Pilate, saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said while he was yet alive, After 64 three days I rise again. Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest haply his disciples come and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from 65 the dead: and the last error will be worse than the first. Pilate said unto them, Ye have a guard: go, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, the guard being with them.

28 Now late on the sabbath day, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary 2 to see the sepulchre. And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and 3 rolled away the stone, and sat upon it. His appearance was as 4 lightning, and his raiment white as snow: and for fear of him the 5 watchers did quake, and became as dead men. And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye; for I know that 6 ye seek Jesus, who hath been crucified. He is not here; for he is risen, even as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord 7 lay. And go quickly, and tell his disciples, He is risen from the dead; and lo, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye 8 see him: lo, I have told you. And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples 9 word. And behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they 10 came and took hold of his feet, and worshipped him. Then saith Jesus unto them, Fear not: go tell my brethren that they 11 depart into Galilee, and there shall they see me. Now while they were going, behold, some of the guard came into the city, and told unto the chief priests all the things that were come to 12 pass. And when they were assembled with the elders, and had 13 taken counsel, they gave much money unto the soldiers, saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we 14 slept. And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade 15 him, and rid you of care. So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying was spread abroad among the 16 Jews, and continueth until this day. But the eleven disciples went into Galilee, unto the mountain where Jesus had appointed them. And when they saw him, they worshipped him; but some 17 doubted. And Jesus came to them and spake unto them, saying, 18 All authority hath been given unto me in heaven and on earth.

Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing 19 them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I 20 commanded you: and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MARK.

1  he beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son 2 of God. Even as it is written in Isaiah the prophet, 3 Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, Who 4 shall prepare thy way. The voice of one crying in 5 the wilderness, Make ye ready the way of the Lord, Make his 6 paths straight; John came, who baptized in the wilderness and 7 preached the baptism of repentance unto remission of sins. And 8 there went out unto him all the country of Judaea, and all they 9 of Jerusalem; And they were baptized of him in the river Jordan, 10 confessing their sins. And John was clothed with camel's hair, 11 and had a leathern girdle about his loins, and did eat locusts and 12 wild honey. And he preached, saying, There cometh after me 13 he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not 14 worthy to stoop down and unloose. I baptized you in water; But 15 he shall baptize you in the Holy Spirit. And it came to pass 16 in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and 17 was baptized of John in the Jordan. And straightway coming 18 up out of the water, he saw the heavens rent asunder, and the 19 Spirit as a dove descending upon him: And a voice came out of 20 the heavens, Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I am well pleased.
21 And straightway the Spirit driveth him forth into the wilderness.
22 And he was in the wilderness forty days tempted of Satan; And 23 he was with the wild beasts; And the angels ministered unto 24 him. Now after John was delivered up, Jesus came into Galilee, 25 preaching the gospel of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, 26 and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe in the 27 gospel. And passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon 28 and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net in the sea; for 29 they were fishers. And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, 30 and I will make you to become fishers of men. And straightway they left the nets, and followed him. And going on a little further, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending the nets. And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him. And they go into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue and taught. And they were astonished at his teaching: For he taught them as having authority, and not as the scribes. And straightway there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus thou Nazarene? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God. And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And the unclean spirit, tearing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What is this? a new teaching! with authority he commandeth even the unclean spirits, and they obey him. And the report of him went out straightway everywhere into all the region of Galilee round about. And straightway, when they were come out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever; and straightway they tell him of her: and he came and took her by the hand, and raised her up; and the fever left her, and she ministered unto them. And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were sick, and them that were possessed with demons. And all the city was gathered together at the door. And he healed many that were sick with divers diseases, and cast out many demons; and he suffered not the demons to speak, because they knew him. And in the morning, a great while before day, he rose up and went out, and departed into a desert place, and there prayed. And Simon and they that were with him followed after him; and they found him, and say unto him, All are seeking thee. And he saith unto them, Let us go elsewhere into the next towns, that I may preach there also; for to this end came I forth. And he went into their synagogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out demons. And there cometh to him a leper, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me 41 clean. And being moved with compassion, he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou made 42 clean. And straightway the leprosy departed from him, and he 43 was made clean. And he strictly charged him, and straightway 44 sent him out, and saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing the things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

45 But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to spread abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into a city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

2 And when he entered again into Capernaum after some days, 2 it was noised that he was in the house. And many were gathered together, so that there was no longer room for them, no, not 3 even about the door: and he spake the word unto them. And they come, bringing unto him a man sick of the palsy, borne of 4 four. And when they could not come nigh unto him for the crowd, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed whereon the sick of the 5 palsy lay. And Jesus seeing their faith saith unto the sick of the 6 palsy, Son, thy sins are forgiven. But there were certain of the 7 scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, Why doth this man thus speak? he blasphemeth: who can forgive sins but 8 one, even God? And straightway Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, saith unto them, Why 9 reason ye these things in your hearts? Which is easier, to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins are forgiven; or to say, Arise, 10 and take up thy bed, and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath authority on earth to forgive sins (he saith 11 to the sick of the palsy), I say unto thee, Arise, take up thy 12 bed, and go unto thy house. And he arose, and straightway took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw 13 it on this fashion. And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.
14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the place of toll, and he saith unto him, Follow me. And 15 he arose and followed him. And it came to pass, that he was sitting at meat in his house, and many publicans and sinners sat down with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. And the scribes of the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with the sinners and publicans, said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners? And when Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of a physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners. And John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting: and they come and say unto him, Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not? And Jesus said unto them, Can the sons of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then will they fast in that day. No man seweth a piece of undressed cloth on an old garment: else that which should fill it up taketh from it, the new from the old, and a worse rent is made. And no man putteth new wine into old wineskins; else the wine will burst the skins, and the wine perisheth, and the skins: but they put new wine into fresh wine-skins. And it came to pass, that he was going on the sabbath day through the grainfields; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears. And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful? And he said unto them, Did ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry, he, and they that were with him? How he entered into the house of God when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the showbread, which it is not lawful to eat save for the priests, and gave also to them that were with him? And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath: so that the Son of man is lord even of the sabbath.

And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there who had his hand withered. And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him. And he saith unto the man that had his hand withered, Stand forth. And he saith unto them, Is it lawful on the sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to kill? But they held their peace. And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their heart, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand.

6 And he stretched it forth; and his hand was restored. And the Pharisees went out, and straightway with the Herodians took 7 counsel against him, how they might destroy him. And Jesus with his disciples withdrew to the sea: and a great multitude 8 from Galilee followed; and from Judaea, and from Jerusalem, and from Idumaea, and beyond the Jordan, and about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, hearing what great things he did, came 9 unto him. And he spake to his disciples, that a little boat should wait on him because of the crowd, lest they should throng him: 10 for he had healed many; insomuch that as many as had plagues 11 pressed upon him that they might touch him. And the unclean spirits, whensoever they beheld him, fell down before him, and 12 cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God. And he charged them 13 much that they should not make him known. And he goeth up into the mountain, and calleth unto him whom he himself 14 would; and they went unto him. And he appointed twelve, that they might be with him, and that he might send them forth to 15, 16 preach, and to have authority to cast out demons: and Simon 17 he surnamed Peter; and James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and them he surnamed Boanerges, which is, 18 Sons of thunder: and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, 19 and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, 20 who also betrayed him. And he cometh into a house. And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much 21 as eat bread. And when his friends heard it, they went out to 22 lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself. And the scribes that came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and, By the prince of the demons casteth he out the demons.
23 And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, 24 How can Satan cast out Satan? And if a kingdom be divided 25 against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house be 26 divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan hath risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot 27 stand, but hath an end. But no one can enter into the house of the strong man, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the 28 strong man; and then he will spoil his house. Verily I say unto you, All their sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and their blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme: but 29 whosoever shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit hath never forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin: because they said, 30 He hath an unclean spirit. And there come his mother and 31 his brethren; and, standing without, they sent unto him, calling him. And a multitude was sitting about him; and they say 32 unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee. And he answereth them, and saith, Who is my mother 33 and my brethren? And looking round on them that sat round 34 about him, he saith, Behold, my mother and my brethren! For 35 whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

And again he began to teach by the sea side. And there is 4 gathered unto him a very great multitude, so that he entered into a boat, and sat in the sea; and all the multitude were by the sea on the land. And he taught them many things in parables, 2 and said unto them in his teaching, Harken: Behold, the sower 3 went forth to sow: and it came to pass, as he sowed, some seed 4 fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured it. And 5 other fell on the rocky ground, where it had not much earth; and straightway it sprang up, because it had no deepness of earth: and when the sun was risen, it was scorched; and because it had 6 no root, it withered away. And other fell among the thorns, and 7 the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. And 8 others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing; and brought forth, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold. And he said, Who hath ears to hear, let him 9 hear. And when he was alone, they that were about him with 10 the twelve asked of him the parables. And he said unto them, 11 Unto you is given the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all things are done in parables: that see- 12 ing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest haply they should turn again, and it should be forgiven them. And he saith unto them, Know ye 13 not this parable? and how shall ye know all the parables? The 14 sower soweth the word. And these are they by the way side, 15 where the word is sown; and when they have heard, straightway cometh Satan, and taketh away the word which hath been sown in them. And these in like manner are they that are sown upon 16 the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, straightway receive it with joy; and they have no root in themselves, but endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway they stumble. And others are they that are sown among the thorns; these are they that have heard the word, and the cares of the world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. And those are they that were sown upon the good ground; such as hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold. And he said unto them, Is the lamp brought to be put under the bushel, or under the bed, and not to be put on the stand? For there is nothing hid, save that it should be manifested; neither was anything made secret, but that it should come to light. If any man hath ears to hear, let him hear. And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete it shall be measured unto you; and more shall be given unto you. For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath. And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed upon the earth; and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he knoweth not how. The earth beareth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. But when the fruit is ripe, straightway he putteth forth the sickle, because the harvest is come. And he said, How shall we liken the kingdom of God? or in what parable shall we set it forth? It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown upon the earth, though it be less than all the seeds that are upon the earth, yet when it is sown, groweth up, and becometh greater than all the herbs, and putteth out great branches; so that the birds of the heaven can lodge under the shadow thereof. And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it; and without a parable spake he not unto them: but privately to his own disciples he expounded all things. And on that day, when even was come, he saith unto them, Let us go over unto the other side. And leaving the multitude, they take him with them, even as he was, in the boat. And other boats were with him. And there ariseth a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat, insomuch that the boat was now filling. And he himself was 38 in the stern, asleep on the cushion: and they awake him, and say unto him, Teacher, carest thou not that we perish? And he 39 awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. And 40 he said unto them, Why are ye fearful? have ye not yet faith?

And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, Who then 41 is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

And they came to the other side of the sea, into the coun- 5 try of the Gerasenes. And when he was come out of the boat, 2 straightway there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, who had his dwelling in the tombs: and no man 3 could any more bind him, no, not with a chain; because that 4 he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been rent asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: and no man had strength to tame him. And always, night and 5 day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones. And when he saw Jesus from afar, 6 he ran and worshipped him; and crying out with a loud voice, 7 he saith, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God? I adjure thee by God, torment me not. For 8 he said unto him, Come forth, thou unclean spirit, out of the man. And he asked him, What is thy name? And he saith 9 unto him, My name is Legion; for we are many. And he be- 10 sought him much that he would not send them away out of the country. Now there was there on the mountain side a great 11 herd of swine feeding. And they besought him, saying, Send 12 us into the swine, that we may enter into them. And he gave 13 them leave. And the unclean spirits came out, and entered into the swine: and the herd rushed down the steep into the sea, in number about two thousand; and they were drowned in the sea.
And they that fed them fled, and told it in the city, and in the 14 country. And they came to see what it was that had come to pass. And they come to Jesus, and behold him that was pos- 15 sessed with demons sitting, clothed and in his right mind, even him that had the legion: and they were afraid. And they that 16 saw it declared unto them how it befell him that was possessed with demons, and concerning the swine. And they began to be- 17 seech him to depart from their borders. And as he was entering 18 into the boat, he that had been possessed with demons besought him that he might be with him. And he suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go to thy house unto thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and how he had mercy on thee. And he went his way, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men marvelled. And when Jesus had crossed over again in the boat unto the other side, a great multitude was gathered unto him; and he was by the sea. And there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and seeing him, he falleth at his feet, and beseecheth him much, saying, My little daughter is at the point of death: I pray thee, that thou come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be made whole, and live. And he went with him; and a great multitude followed him, and they thronged him. And a woman, who had an issue of blood twelve years, and had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse, having heard the things concerning Jesus, came in the crowd behind, and touched his garment. For she said, If I touch but his garments, I shall be made whole. And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her plague. And straightway Jesus, perceiving in himself that the power proceeding from him had gone forth, turned him about in the crowd, and said, Who touched my garments? And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing. But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague. While he yet spake, they come from the ruler of the synagogue's house saying, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Teacher any further? But Jesus, not heeding the word spoken, saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Fear not, only believe. And he suffered no man to follow with him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. And they come to the house of the ruler of the synagogue; and he beholdeth a tumult, and many weeping and wailing greatly. And when he was entered in, he saith unto them, Why make ye a tumult, and weep? the child is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. But 40 he, having put them all forth, taketh the father of the child and her mother and them that were with him, and goeth in where the child was. And taking the child by the hand, he saith unto her, 41 Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, Arise. And straightway the damsel rose up, and walked; 42 for she was twelve years old. And they were amazed straightway with a great amazement. And he charged them much that 43 no man should know this: and he commanded that something should be given her to eat.

And he went out from thence; and he cometh into his own 6 country; and his disciples follow him. And when the sabbath 2 was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, Whence hath this man these things? and, What is the wisdom that is given unto this man, and what mean such mighty works wrought by his hands? Is 3 not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of James, and Joses, and Judas, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended in him. And Jesus said unto 4 them, A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house. And he could 5 there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them. And he marvelled because of their 6 unbelief. And he went round about the villages teaching. And 7 he calleth unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits; and he charged them that they should take nothing for 8 their journey, save a staff only; no bread, no wallet, no money in their purse; but to go shod with sandals: and, said he, put not 9 on two coats. And he said unto them, Wheresoever ye enter 10 into a house, there abide till ye depart thence. And whatsoever 11 place shall not receive you, and they hear you not, as ye go forth thence, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony unto them. And they went out, and preached that men should 12 repent. And they cast out many demons, and anointed with 13 oil many that were sick, and healed them. And king Herod 14 heard thereof; for his name had become known: and he said, John the Baptizer is risen from the dead, and therefore do these 15 powers work in him. But others said, It is Elijah. And others 16 said, It is a prophet, even as one of the prophets. But Herod, when he heard thereof, said, John, whom I beheaded, he is risen.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's 18 wife; for he had married her. For John said unto Herod, It is 19 not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife. And Herodias set herself against him, and desired to kill him; and she could not; 20 for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. And when he heard him, he was much 21 perplexed; and he heard him gladly. And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday made a supper to his lords, and the high captains, and the chief men of Galilee; 22 and when the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, she pleased Herod and them that sat at meat with him; and the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and 23 I will give it thee. And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.
24 And she went out, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask?
25 And she said, The head of John the Baptizer. And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou forthwith give me on a platter the head of John the 26 Baptist. And the king was exceeding sorry; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them that sat at meat, he would not reject her.
27 And straightway the king sent forth a soldier of his guard, and commanded to bring his head: and he went and beheaded him 28 in the prison, and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to 29 the damsel; and the damsel gave it to her mother. And when his disciples heard thereof, they came and took up his corpse, 30 and laid it in a tomb. And the apostles gather themselves together unto Jesus; and they told him all things, whatsoever they 31 had done, and whatsoever they had taught. And he saith unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while. For there were many coming and going, and they had no 32 leisure so much as to eat. And they went away in the boat to a 33 desert place apart. And the people saw them going, and many knew them, and they ran together there on foot from all the 34 cities, and outwent them. And he came forth and saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things. And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came 35 unto him, and said, The place is desert, and the day is now far spent; send them away, that they may go into the country and 36 villages round about, and buy themselves somewhat to eat. But 37 he answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred shillings' worth of bread, and give them to eat? And he saith unto them, How 38 many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes. And he commanded them that all 39 should sit down by companies upon the green grass. And they 40 sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties. And he took 41 the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake the loaves; and he gave to the disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

And they all ate, and were filled. And they took up broken 42, 43 pieces, twelve basketfuls, and also of the fishes. And they that ate the loaves were five thousand men. And straightway he 44 constrained his disciples to enter into the boat, and to go before him unto the other side to Bethsaida, while he himself sendeth the multitude away. And after he had taken leave of them, he 46 departed into the mountain to pray. And when even was come, 47 the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.
And seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary 48 unto them, about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking on the sea; and he would have passed by them: but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that 49 it was a ghost, and cried out; for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he straightway spake with them, and saith unto 50 them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid. And he went up 51 unto them into the boat; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves; for they understood not concern- 52 ing the loaves, but their heart was hardened. And when they 53 had crossed over, they came to the land unto Gennesaret, and moored to the shore. And when they were come out of the 54 boat, straightway the people knew him, and ran round about 55 that whole region, and began to carry about on their beds those that were sick, where they heard he was. And wheresoever he 56 entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.

7 And there are gathered together unto him the Pharisees, and 2 certain of the scribes, who had come from Jerusalem, and had seen that some of his disciples ate their bread with defiled, that 3 is, unwashen, hands. (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands diligently, eat not, holding the tradi-4 tion of the elders; and when they come from the market-place, except they bathe themselves, they eat not; and many other things there are, which they have received to hold, washings of 5 cups, and pots, and brasen vessels.) And the Pharisees and the scribes ask him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with defiled hands?
6 And he said unto them, Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoreth me with their lips, 7 But their heart is far from me. But in vain do they worship me, 8 Teaching as their doctrines the precepts of men. Ye leave the 9 commandment of God, and hold fast the tradition of men. And he said unto them, Full well do ye reject the commandment of 10 God, that ye may keep your tradition. For Moses said, Honor thy father and thy mother; and, He that speaketh evil of father 11 or mother, let him die the death: but ye say, If a man shall say to his father or his mother, That wherewith thou mightest have 12 been profited by me is Corban, that is to say, Given to God; ye no longer suffer him to do aught for his father or his mother; 13 making void the word of God by your tradition, which ye have 14 delivered: and many such like things ye do. And he called to him the multitude again, and said unto them, Hear me all of 15 you, and understand: there is nothing from without the man, that going into him can defile him; but the things which proceed 16 out of the man are those that defile the man. If any man hath 17 ears to hear, let him hear. And when he was entered into the house from the multitude, his disciples asked of him the parable.
18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also?
Perceive ye not, that whatsoever from without goeth into the 19 man, it cannot defile him; because it goeth not into his heart, but into his belly, and goeth out into the draught? This he said, 20 making all meats clean. And he said, That which proceedeth out of the man, that defileth the man. For from within, out 21 of the heart of men, evil thoughts proceed, fornications, thefts, murders, adulteries, covetings, wickednesses, deceit, lascivious- 22 ness, an evil eye, railing, pride, foolishness: all these evil things 23 proceed from within, and defile the man. And from thence 24 he arose, and went away into the borders of Tyre and Sidon.

And he entered into a house, and would have no man know it; and he could not be hid. But straightway a woman, whose lit- 25 tle daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell down at his feet. Now the woman was a Greek, a Sy- 26 rophoenician by race. And she besought him that he would cast forth the demon out of her daughter. And he said unto her, 27 Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread and cast it to the dogs. But she answered and 28 saith unto him, Yea, Lord; even the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. And he said unto her, For this saying 29 go thy way; the demon is gone out of thy daughter. And she 30 went away unto her house, and found the child laid upon the bed, and the demon gone out. And again he went out from 31 the borders of Tyre, and came through Sidon unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of Decapolis. And 32 they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to lay his hand upon him.
And he took him aside from the multitude privately, and put his 33 fingers into his ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue; and 34 looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. And his ears were opened, and the bond 35 of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain. And he charged 36 them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it. And 37 they were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well; he maketh even the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

In those days, when there was again a great multitude, and 8 they had nothing to eat, he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, I have compassion on the multitude, because 2 they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and if I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on 3 the way; and some of them are come from far. And his disciples 4 answered him, Whence shall one be able to fill these men with 5 bread here in a desert place? And he asked them, How many 6 loaves have ye? And they said, Seven. And he commandeth the multitude to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks, he brake, and gave to his disciples, to set before them; and they set them before the multitude.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and having blessed them, he 8 commanded to set these also before them. And they ate, and were filled: and they took up, of broken pieces that remained 9 over, seven baskets. And they were about four thousand: and 10 he sent them away. And straightway he entered into the boat 11 with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha. And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seek-12 ing of him a sign from heaven, trying him. And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this 13 generation. And he left them, and again entering into the boat 14 departed to the other side. And they forgot to take bread; and 15 they had not in the boat with them more than one loaf. And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of 16 the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod. And they reasoned one 17 with another, saying, We have no bread. And Jesus perceiving it saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? do ye not yet perceive, neither understand? have ye your heart 18 hardened? Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye 19 not? and do ye not remember? When I brake the five loaves among the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces 20 took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve. And when the seven among the four thousand, how many basketfuls of broken pieces 21 took ye up? And they say unto him, Seven. And he said unto 22 them, Do ye not yet understand? And they come unto Bethsaida. And they bring to him a blind man, and beseech him to 23 touch him. And he took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village; and when he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands upon him, he asked him, Seest thou aught?
24 And he looked up, and said, I see men; for I behold them as 25 trees, walking. Then again he laid his hands upon his eyes; and he looked stedfastly, and was restored, and saw all things clearly.
26 And he sent him away to his home, saying, Do not even enter into the village. And Jesus went forth, and his disciples, into 27 the villages of Caesarea Philippi: and on the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Who do men say that I am? And 28 they told him, saying, John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; but others, One of the prophets. And he asked them, But who say 29 ye that I am? Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ. And he charged them that they should tell no man of 30 him. And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must 31 suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, and the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. And he spake the saying openly. And Peter took him, 32 and began to rebuke him. But he turning about, and seeing his 33 disciples, rebuked Peter, and saith, Get thee behind me, Satan; for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men.

And he called unto him the multitude with his disciples, and 34 said unto them, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever 35 would save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's shall save it. For what doth it 36 profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? For 37 what should a man give in exchange for his life? For whosoever 38 shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of man also shall be ashamed of him, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There are some 9 here of them that stand by, who shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God come with power. And af- 2 ter six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them; and his garments became 3 glistening, exceeding white, so as no fuller on earth can whiten them. And there appeared unto them Elijah with Moses: and 4 they were talking with Jesus. And Peter answereth and saith 5 to Jesus, Rabbi, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. For he knew not what to answer; for they became sore 6 afraid. And there came a cloud overshadowing them: and there 7 came a voice out of the cloud, This is my beloved Son: hear ye him. And suddenly looking round about, they saw no one any 8 9 more, save Jesus only with themselves. And as they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, save when the Son of man should have risen again from the dead. And they kept the saying, questioning among themselves what the rising again from the dead should mean. And they asked him, saying, How is it that the scribes say that Elijah must first come? And he said unto them, Elijah indeed cometh first, and restoreth all things: and how is it written of the Son of man, that he should suffer many things and be set at nought? But I say unto you, that Elijah is come, and they have also done unto him whatsoever they would, even as it is written of him. And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great multitude about them, and scribes questioning with them. And straightway all the multitude, when they saw him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him. And he asked them, What question ye with them? And one of the multitude answered him, Teacher, I brought unto thee my son, who hath a dumb spirit; and wheresoever it taketh him, it dasheth him down: and he foameth, and grindeth his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast it out; and they were not able. And he answereth them and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him unto me. And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him grievously; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. And he asked his father, How long time is it since this hath come unto him? And he said, From a child. And oft-times it hath cast him both into the fire and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do anything, have compassion on us, and help us. And Jesus said unto him, If thou canst! All things are possible to him that believeth. Straightway the father of the child cried out, and said, I believe; help thou mine unbelief. And when Jesus saw that a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I command thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. And having cried out, and torn him much, he came out: and the boy became as one dead; insomuch that the more part said, He is dead. But Jesus took him by the hand, and raised him up; and he arose.

And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him 28 privately, How is it that we could not cast it out? And he said 29 unto them, This kind can come out by nothing, save by prayer.
And they went forth from thence, and passed through Galilee; 30 and he would not that any man should know it. For he taught 31 his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered up into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and when he 32 is killed, after three days he shall rise again. But they under- 33 stood not the saying, and were afraid to ask him. And they 34 came to Capernaum: and when he was in the house he asked them, What were ye reasoning on the way? But they held their 35 peace: for they had disputed one with another on the way, who was the greatest. And he sat down, and called the twelve; and 36 he saith unto them, If any man would be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all. And he took a little child, and set him 37 in the midst of them: and taking him in his arms, he said unto them, Whosoever shall receive one of such little children in my 38 name, receiveth me: and whosoever receiveth me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me. John said unto him, Teacher, we 39 saw one casting out demons in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followed not us. But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for 40 there is no man who shall do a mighty work in my name, and be able quickly to speak evil of me. For he that is not against us 41 is for us. For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink, because ye are Christ's, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise 42 lose his reward. And whosoever shall cause one of these little ones that believe on me to stumble, it were better for him if a great millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast 43 into the sea. And if thy hand cause thee to stumble, cut it off: it is good for thee to enter into life maimed, rather than having 44 thy two hands to go into hell, into the unquenchable fire. where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. And if thy 45 foot cause thee to stumble, cut it off: it is good for thee to enter into life halt, rather than having thy two feet to be cast into hell. where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. And if 46, 47 thine eye cause thee to stumble, cast it out: it is good for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell; where their worm dieth not, and 48 the fire is not quenched. For every one shall be salted with fire. 49

50 Salt is good: but if the salt have lost its saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace one with another.

10 And he arose from thence and cometh into the borders of Judaea and beyond the Jordan: and multitudes come together unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 And there came unto him Pharisees, and asked him, Is it lawful 3 for a man to put away his wife? trying him. And he answered 4 and said unto them, What did Moses command you? And they 5 said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her 6 away. But Jesus said unto them, For your hardness of heart he 7 wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of the 8 creation, Male and female made he them. For this cause shall 9 a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; 10 and the two shall become one flesh: so that they are no more 11 two, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, 12 let not man put asunder. And in the house the disciples asked 13 him again of this matter. And he saith unto them, Whosoever 14 shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery 15 against her: and if she herself shall put away her husband, 16 and marry another, she committeth adultery. And they were 17 bringing unto him little children, that he should touch them: 18 and the disciples rebuked them. But when Jesus saw it, he was 19 moved with indignation, and said unto them, Suffer the little 20 children to come unto me; forbid them not: for to such belongeth 21 the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein. And he took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands upon them. And as he was going forth into the way, there ran one to him, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good save one, even God. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not kill, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor thy father and mother. And he said unto him, Teacher, all these things have I observed from my youth. And Jesus looking upon him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. But his countenance 22 fell at the saying, and he went away sorrowful: for he was one that had great possessions. And Jesus looked round about, and 23 saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! And the disciples were amazed 24 at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through 25 a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. And they were astonished exceedingly, saying unto him, 26 Then who can be saved? Jesus looking upon them saith, With 27 men it is impossible, but not with God: for all things are possible with God. Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, 28 and have followed thee. Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or mother, or father, or children, or lands, for my sake, and for the gospel's sake, but he shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses, 30 and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life. But 31 many that are first shall be last; and the last first. And they 32 were on the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going before them: and they were amazed; and they that followed were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were to happen unto him, saying, Behold, 33 we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him unto the Gentiles: and they 34 shall mock him, and shall spit upon him, and shall scourge him, and shall kill him; and after three days he shall rise again. And 35 there come near unto him James and John, the sons of Zebedee, saying unto him, Teacher, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall ask of thee. And he said unto them, What 36 would ye that I should do for you? And they said unto him, 37 Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left hand, in thy glory. But Jesus said unto them, Ye know 38 not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink the cup that I drink? or to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? And 39 they said unto him, We are able. And Jesus said unto them, The cup that I drink ye shall drink; and with the baptism that I 40 am baptized withal shall ye be baptized: but to sit on my right hand or on my left hand is not mine to give; but it is for them 41 for whom it hath been prepared. And when the ten heard it, they began to be moved with indignation concerning James and 42 John. And Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they who are accounted to rule over the Gentiles lord it over them; and their great ones exercise authority over them.

43 But it is not so among you: but whosoever would become great 44 among you, shall be your minister; and whosoever would be 45 first among you, shall be servant of all. For the Son of man also came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to 46 give his life a ransom for many. And they come to Jericho: and as he went out from Jericho, with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timaeus, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, was 47 sitting by the way side. And when he heard that it was Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of 48 David, have mercy on me. And many rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, 49 Thou son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus stood still, and said, Call ye him. And they call the blind man, saying unto 50 him, Be of good cheer: rise, he calleth thee. And he, casting 51 away his garment, sprang up, and came to Jesus. And Jesus answered him, and said, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And the blind man said unto him, Rabboni, that I may 52 receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And straightway he received his sight, and followed him in the way.

11 And when they draw nigh unto Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth two of his disci-2 ples, and saith unto them, Go your way into the village that is over against you: and straightway as ye enter into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat; loose him, and bring 3 him. And if any one say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye, The Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him back 4 hither. And they went away, and found a colt tied at the door 5 without in the open street; and they loose him. And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing 6 the colt? And they said unto them even as Jesus had said: and 7 they let them go. And they bring the colt unto Jesus, and cast on him their garments; and he sat upon him. And many spread 8 their garments upon the way; and others branches, which they had cut from the fields. And they that went before, and they 9 that followed, cried, Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord: Blessed is the kingdom that cometh, the 10 kingdom of our father David: Hosanna in the highest. And he 11 entered into Jerusalem, into the temple; and when he had looked round about upon all things, it being now eventide, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve. And on the morrow, when they 12 were come out from Bethany, he hungered. And seeing a fig 13 tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for it was not the season of figs. And he answered and 14 said unto it, No man eat fruit from thee henceforward for ever.

And his disciples heard it. And they come to Jerusalem: and 15 he entered into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and them that bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold the doves; and he would not suffer that any man should carry a 16 vessel through the temple. And he taught, and said unto them, 17 Is it not written, My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations? but ye have made it a den of robbers. And the 18 chief priests and the scribes heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, for all the multitude was astonished at his teaching. And every evening he went forth out 19 of the city. And as they passed by in the morning, they saw 20 the fig tree withered away from the roots. And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Rabbi, behold, the fig tree which 21 thou cursedst is withered away. And Jesus answering saith unto 22 them, Have faith in God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou taken up and cast into the sea; 23 and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that what he saith cometh to pass; he shall have it. Therefore I say unto you, 24 All things whatsoever ye pray and ask for, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them. And whensoever ye stand pray- 25 ing, forgive, if ye have aught against any one; that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. But if ye 26 do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your trespasses. And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he 27 was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, 28 and the scribes, and the elders; and they said unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? or who gave thee this 29 authority to do these things? And Jesus said unto them, I will ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by 30 what authority I do these things. The baptism of John, was 31 it from heaven, or from men? answer me. And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; He will 32 say, Why then did ye not believe him? But should we say, From men – they feared the people: for all verily held John to be a 33 prophet. And they answered Jesus and say, We know not. And Jesus saith unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

12 And he began to speak unto them in parables. A man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a pit for the winepress, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and 2 went into another country. And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husband-3 men of the fruits of the vineyard. And they took him, and beat 4 him, and sent him away empty. And again he sent unto them another servant; and him they wounded in the head, and han-5 dled shamefully. And he sent another; and him they killed: and 6 many others; beating some, and killing some. He had yet one, a beloved son: he sent him last unto them, saying, They will 7 reverence my son. But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance 8 shall be ours. And they took him, and killed him, and cast 9 him forth out of the vineyard. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, 10 and will give the vineyard unto others. Have ye not read even this scripture: The stone which the builders rejected, The same 11 was made the head of the corner; This was from the Lord, And 12 it is marvellous in our eyes? And they sought to lay hold on him; and they feared the multitude; for they perceived that he spake the parable against them: and they left him, and went 13 away. And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of 14 the Herodians, that they might catch him in talk. And when they were come, they say unto him, Teacher, we know that thou art true, and carest not for any one; for thou regardest not the person of men, but of a truth teachest the way of God: Is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar, or not? Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why make ye trial of me? bring me a denarius, that I may see it. And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Caesar's. And Jesus said unto them, Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's. And they marvelled greatly at him. And there come unto him Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying, Teacher, Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave a wife behind him, and leave no child, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. There were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed; and the second took her, and died, leaving no seed behind him; and the third likewise: and the seven left no seed. Last of all the woman also died. In the resurrection whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife. Jesus said unto them, Is it not for this cause that ye err, that ye know not the scriptures, nor the power of God? For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as angels in heaven. But as touching the dead, that they are raised; have ye not read in the book of Moses, in the place concerning the Bush, how God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living: ye do greatly err. And one of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together, and knowing that he had answered them well, asked him, What commandment is the first of all? Jesus answered, The first is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God, the Lord is one: and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength. The second is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these. And the scribe said unto him, Of a truth, Teacher, thou hast well said that he is one; and there is none other but he: and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is much more than all whole burnt-offerings 34 and sacrifices. And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God.

35 And no man after that durst ask him any question. And Jesus answered and said, as he taught in the temple, How say the 36 scribes that the Christ is the son of David? David himself said in the Holy Spirit, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.
37 David himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he his son? And 38 the common people heard him gladly. And in his teaching he said, Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes, and 39 to have salutations in the marketplaces, and chief seats in the 40 synagogues, and chief places at feasts: they that devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers; these shall 41 receive greater condemnation. And he sat down over against the treasury, and beheld how the multitude cast money into the 42 treasury: and many that were rich cast in much. And there came a poor widow, and she cast in two mites, which make a 43 farthing. And he called unto him his disciples, and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than 44 all they that are casting into the treasury: for they all did cast in of their superfluity; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

13 And as he went forth out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Teacher, behold, what manner of stones and 2 what manner of buildings! And Jesus said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left here one stone 3 upon another, which shall not be thrown down. And as he sat on the mount of Olives over against the temple, Peter and 4 James and John and Andrew asked him privately, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when these 5 things are all about to be accomplished? And Jesus began to 6 say unto them, Take heed that no man lead you astray. Many shall come in my name, saying, I am he; and shall lead many 7 astray. And when ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars, be not troubled: these things must needs come to pass; but 8 the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there shall be earthquakes in divers places; there shall be famines: these things are the beginning of 9 travail. But take ye heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in synagogues shall ye be beaten; and before governors and kings shall ye stand for my sake, for a testimony unto them. And the gospel must first be preached 10 unto all the nations. And when they lead you to judgment, and 11 deliver you up, be not anxious beforehand what ye shall speak: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye; for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Spirit. And brother 12 shall deliver up brother to death, and the father his child; and children shall rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: 13 but he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved. But 14 when ye see the abomination of desolation standing where he ought not (let him that readeth understand), then let them that are in Judaea flee unto the mountains: and let him that is on 15 the housetop not go down, nor enter in, to take anything out his house: and let him that is in the field not return back to take 16 his cloak. But woe unto them that are with child and to them 17 that give suck in those days! And pray ye that it be not in the 18 winter. For those days shall be tribulation, such as there hath 19 not been the like from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never shall be. And except the Lord had 20 shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved; but for the elect's sake, whom he chose, he shortened the days. And then 21 if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is the Christ; or, Lo, there; believe it not: for there shall arise false Christs and false 22 prophets, and shall show signs and wonders, that they may lead astray, if possible, the elect. But take ye heed: behold, I have 23 told you all things beforehand. But in those days, after that 24 tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall be falling from heaven, and 25 the powers that are in the heavens shall be shaken. And then 26 shall they see the Son of man coming in clouds with great power and glory. And then shall he send forth the angels, and shall 27 gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven. Now from 28 the fig tree learn her parable: when her branch is now become tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye know that the summer is nigh; even so ye also, when ye see these things coming to 29 pass, know ye that he is nigh, even at the doors. Verily I say 30 unto you, This generation shall not pass away, until all these 31 things be accomplished. Heaven and earth shall pass away: 32 but my words shall not pass away. But of that day or that hour knoweth no one, not even the angels in heaven, neither the 33 Son, but the Father. Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye 34 know not when the time is. It is as when a man, sojourning in another country, having left his house, and given authority to his servants, to each one his work, commanded also the porter 35 to watch. Watch therefore: for ye know not when the lord of the house cometh, whether at even, or at midnight, or at 36 cockcrowing, or in the morning; lest coming suddenly he find 37 you sleeping. And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

14 Now after two days was the feast of the passover and the unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought 2 how they might take him with subtlety, and kill him: for they said, Not during the feast, lest haply there shall be a tumult 3 of the people. And while he was in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster cruse of ointment of pure nard very costly; and she 4 brake the cruse, and poured it over his head. But there were some that had indignation among themselves, saying, To what 5 purpose hath this waste of the ointment been made? For this ointment might have been sold for above three hundred shillings, 6 and given to the poor. And they murmured against her. But Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought 7 a good work on me. For ye have the poor always with you, and whensoever ye will ye can do them good: but me ye have not 8 always. She hath done what she could; she hath anointed my 9 body beforehand for the burying. And verily I say unto you, Whersoever the gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, that also which this woman hath done shall be spoken 10 of for a memorial of her. And Judas Iscariot, he that was one of the twelve, went away unto the chief priests, that he might 11 deliver him unto them. And they, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he 12 might conveniently deliver him unto them. And on the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the passover, his disciples say unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and make 13 ready that thou mayest eat the passover? And he sendeth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him; and wheresoever he shall enter in, say to the master of the house, The Teacher saith, Where is my guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? And he will himself show you a large upper room furnished and ready: and there make ready for us. And the disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover. And when it was evening he cometh with the twelve. And as they sat and were eating, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you shall betray me, even he that eateth with me. They began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? And he said unto them, It is one of the twelve, he that dippeth with me in the dish. For the Son of man goeth, even as it is written of him: but woe unto that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had not been born. And as they were eating, he took bread, and when he had blessed, he brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take ye: this is my body. And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave to them: and they all drank of it. And he said unto them, This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. Verily I say unto you, I shall no more drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God. And when they had sung a hymn, they went out unto the mount of Olives. And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered abroad. Howbeit, after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee. But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I. And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that thou to-day, even this night, before the cock crow twice, shalt deny me thrice. But he spake exceedingly vehemently, If I must die with thee, I will not deny thee. And in like manner also said they all. And they come unto a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith unto his disciples, Sit ye here, while I pray. And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be greatly amazed, and sore troubled. And he saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful even unto death: abide ye here, and watch. And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away 36 from him. And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; remove this cup from me: howbeit not what I will, but 37 what thou wilt. And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest thou not watch 38 one hour? Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: 39 the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. And again he 40 went away, and prayed, saying the same words. And again he came, and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy; 41 and they knew not what to answer him. And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough; the hour is come; behold, the Son of man 42 is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Arise, let us be going: 43 behold, he that betrayeth me is at hand. And straightway, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests 44 and the scribes and the elders. Now he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is he; 45 take him, and lead him away safely. And when he was come, straightway he came to him, and saith, Rabbi; and kissed him.

46, 47 And they laid hands on him, and took him. But a certain one of them that stood by drew his sword, and smote the servant 48 of the high priest, and struck off his ear. And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a robber, with 49 swords and staves to seize me? I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but this is done that the 50 scriptures might be fulfilled. And they all left him, and fled.
51 And a certain young man followed with him, having a linen cloth cast about him, over his naked body: and they lay hold on him; 52, 53 but he left the linen cloth, and fled naked. And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and there come together with him all 54 the chief priests and the elders and the scribes. And Peter had followed him afar off, even within, into the court of the high priest; and he was sitting with the officers, and warming himself 55 in the light of the fire. Now the chief priests and the whole council sought witness against Jesus to put him to death; and 56 found it not. For many bare false witness against him, and 57 their witness agreed not together. And there stood up certain, 58 and bare false witness against him, saying, We heard him say,

I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands. And not even so did their witness agree together. And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and saith unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of heaven. And the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What further need have we of witnesses? Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be worthy of death. And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophecy: and the officers received him with blows of their hands. And as Peter was beneath in the court, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest; and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and saith, Thou also wast with the Nazarene, even Jesus. But he denied, saying, I neither know, nor understand what thou sayest: and he went out into the porch; and the cock crew. And the maid saw him, and began again to say to them that stood by, This is one of them. But he again denied it. And after a little while again they that stood by said to Peter, of a truth thou art one of them; for thou art a Galilaeen. But he began to curse, and to swear, I know not this man of whom ye speak. And straightway the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word, how that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

And straightway in the morning the chief priests with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him up to Pilate. And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering saith unto him, Thou sayest. And the chief priests accused him of many things. And Pilate again asked him, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they accuse thee of. But Jesus no more answered anything; insomuch that Pilate marvelled. Now at the feast he used to release unto them one prisoner, whom they asked of him. And there was one called Barabbas, lying bound with them that had made insurrection, men who in the insurrection had committed 8 murder. And the multitude went up and began to ask him to do 9 as he was wont to do unto them. And Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he perceived that for envy the chief priests had delivered 11 him up. But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, that he 12 should rather release Barabbas unto them. And Pilate again answered and said unto them, What then shall I do unto him 13 whom ye call the King of the Jews? And they cried out again, 14 Crucify him. And Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath 15 he done? But they cried out exceedingly, Crucify him. And Pilate, wishing to content the multitude, released unto them Barabbas, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to 16 be crucified. And the soldiers led him away within the court, which is the Praetorium; and they call together the whole band.
17 And they clothe him with purple, and plating a crown of thorns, 18 they put it on him; and they began to salute him, Hail, King 19 of the Jews! And they smote his head with a reed, and spat 20 upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him. And when they had mocked him, they took off from him the purple, and put on him his garments. And they lead him out to crucify him.
21 And they compel one passing by, Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them, 22 that he might bear his cross. And they bring him unto the place 23 Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull. And they offered him wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it 24 not. And they crucify him, and part his garments among them, 25 casting lots upon them, what each should take. And it was the 26 third hour, and they crucified him. And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.
27 And with him they crucify two robbers; one on his right hand, 28 and one on his left. And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, 29 And he was reckoned with transgressors. And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ha! Thou that 30 destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself, 31 and come down from the cross. In like manner also the chief priests mocking him among themselves with the scribes said, He 32 saved others; himself he cannot save. Let the Christ, the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reproached him. And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elijah. And one ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let be; let us see whether Elijah cometh to take him down. And Jesus uttered a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. And the veil of the temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom. And when the centurion, who stood by over against him, saw that he so gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God. And there were also women beholding from afar: among whom were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome; who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him; and many other women that came up with him unto Jerusalem. And when even was now come, because it was the Preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, there came Joseph of Arimathaea, a councillor of honorable estate, who also himself was looking for the kingdom of God; and he boldly went in unto Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead. And when he learned it of the centurion, he granted the corpse to Joseph. And he bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been hewn out of a rock; and he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, they come to the tomb when the sun was risen. And they were saying among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the tomb? and looking up, they see that the stone is rolled back: for it was exceeding great. And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, arrayed in a white robe; and they were amazed. And he saith unto them, Be not amazed: ye seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who hath been crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold, the place where 7 they laid him! But go, tell his disciples and Peter, He goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

8 And they went out, and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them: and they said nothing to any 9 one; for they were afraid. Now when he was risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from 10 whom he had cast out seven demons. She went and told them 11 that had been with him, as they mourned and wept. And they, when they heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, dis-12 believed. And after these things he was manifested in another form unto two of them, as they walked, on their way into the 13 country. And they went away and told it unto the rest: neither 14 believed they them. And afterward he was manifested unto the eleven themselves as they sat at meat; and he upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed 15 not them that had seen him after he was risen. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to 16 the whole creation. He that believeth and is baptized shall be 17 saved; but he that disbelieveth shall be condemned. And these signs shall accompany them that believe: in my name shall they 18 cast out demons; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall in 19 no wise hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken unto 20 them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God. And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE.

Soasmuch as many have taken in hand to draw up a 1 narrative concerning those matters which have been 2 fulfilled among us, even as they delivered them unto 2 us, who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and min- 3 isters of the word, it seemed good to me also, having traced the 3 course of all things accurately from the first, to write unto thee in 3 order, most excellent Theophilus; that thou mightest know the 4 certainty concerning the things wherein thou wast instructed. 4 There was in the days of Herod, king of Judaea, a certain priest 5 named Zacharias, of the course of Abijah: and he had a wife 5 of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. And 6 they were both righteous before God, walking in all the com- 6 mandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. And they 7 had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both 7 were now well stricken in years. Now it came to pass, while he 8 executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, 8 according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to en- 9 ter into the temple of the Lord and burn incense. And the 10 whole multitude of the people were praying without at the hour 10 of incense. And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord 11 standing on the right side of altar of incense. And Zacharias 12 was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. But the 13 angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: because thy supplica- 13 tion is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and 13 thou shalt call his name John. And thou shalt have joy and 14 gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. For he shall be 15 great in the sight of the Lord, and he shall drink no wine nor 15 strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even 15 from his mother's womb. And many of the children of Israel 16 shall be turn unto the Lord their God. And he shall go before 17 his face in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to walk in the wisdom of the just; to make ready for the Lord a people prepared 18 for him. And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in 19 years. And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and I was sent to speak unto 20 thee, and to bring thee these good tidings. And behold, thou shalt be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall come to pass, because thou believedst not my words, 21 which shall be fulfilled in their season. And the people were waiting for Zacharias, and they marvelled while he tarried in 22 the temple. And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: and he continued making signs unto them, and remained 23 dumb. And it came to pass, when the days of his ministration were fulfilled, he departed unto his house. And after these days 24 Elisabeth his wife conceived; and she hid herself five months, saying, Thus hath the Lord done unto me in the days wherein 25 he looked upon me, to take away my reproach among men. Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto 27 a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. And he came in unto her, and said, Hail, 28 thou that art highly favored, the Lord is with thee. But she was greatly troubled at the saying, and cast in her mind what 29 manner of salutation this might be. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favor with God. And 30 behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be 32 called the Son of the Most High: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over 33 the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. And Mary said unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing 34 I know not a man? And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Spirit shall come upon thee, and the power of the Most 35 High shall overshadow thee: wherefore also the holy thing which is begotten shall be called the Son of God. And behold, Elisabeth thy kinswoman, she also hath conceived a son in her old 36 age; and this is the sixth month with her that was called barren.

For no word from God shall be void of power. And Mary said, Behold, the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her. And Mary arose in these days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah; and entered into the house of Zacharias and saluted Elisabeth. And it came to pass, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit; and she lifted up her voice with a loud cry, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come unto me? For behold, when the voice of thy salutation came into mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy. And blessed is she that believed; for there shall be a fulfilment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord. And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord, And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. For he hath looked upon the low estate of his handmaid: For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; And holy is his name. And his mercy is unto generations and generations On them that fear him. He hath showed strength with his arm; He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their heart. He hath put down princes from their thrones, And hath exalted them of low degree. The hungry he hath filled with good things; And the rich he hath sent empty away. He hath given help to Israel his servant, That he might remember mercy (As he spake unto our fathers) Toward Abraham and his seed for ever. And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned unto her house. Now Elisabeth's time was fulfilled that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son. And her neighbors and her kinsfolk heard that the Lord had magnified his mercy towards her; and they rejoiced with her. And it came to pass on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him Zacharias, after the name of the father. And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John. And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name. And they made signs to his father, what he would have him called. And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they 64 marvelled all. And his mouth was opened immediately, and his 65 tongue loosed, and he spake, blessing God. And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised 66 abroad throughout all the hill country of Judaea. And all that heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, What then shall 67 this child be? For the hand of the Lord was with him. And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, 68 saying, Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; For he hath vis-69 ited and wrought redemption for his people, And hath raised up a horn of salvation for us In the house of his servant David 70 (As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets that have been 71 from of old), Salvation from our enemies, and from the hand 72 of all that hate us; To show mercy towards, our fathers, And 73 to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he spake unto 74 Abraham our father, To grant unto us that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies Should serve him without fear, 75, 76 In holiness and righteousness before him all our days. Yea and thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Most High: For thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to make ready his ways; 77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people In the remission 78 of their sins, Because of the tender mercy of our God, Whereby 79 the dayspring from on high shall visit us, To shine upon them that sit in darkness and the shadow of death; To guide our feet 80 into the way of peace. And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his showing unto Israel.

2 Now it came to pass in those days, there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be enrolled.
2 This was the first enrolment made when Quirinius was governor 3 of Syria. And all went to enrol themselves, every one to his 4 own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of 5 David; to enrol himself with Mary, who was betrothed to him, 6 being great with child. And it came to pass, while they were 7 there, the days were fulfilled that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was 8 no room for them in the inn. And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock. And an angel of the Lord stood by them, and 9 the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Be not afraid; for 10 behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people: for there is born to you this day in the city of 11 David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord. And this is the sign 12 unto you: Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a 13 multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory 14 to God in the highest, And on earth peace among men in whom he is well pleased. And it came to pass, when the angels went 15 away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing that is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. And 16 they came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in the manger. And when they saw it, they made 17 known concerning the saying which was spoken to them about this child. And all that heard it wondered at the things which 18 were spoken unto them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all 19 these sayings, pondering them in her heart. And the shepherds 20 returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, even as it was spoken unto them. And 21 when eight days were fulfilled for circumcising him, his name was called JESUS, which was so called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb. And when the days of their purification 22 according to the law of Moses were fulfilled, they brought him up to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord (as it is written 23 in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord), and to offer a sacrifice according to 24 that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons. And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem 25 whose name was Simeon; and this man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Spirit was upon him. And it had been revealed unto him by the Holy 26 Spirit, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ. And he came in the Spirit into the temple: and when the 27 parents brought in the child Jesus, that they might do concerning him after the custom of the law, then he received him into his 28

29 arms, and blessed God, and said, Now lettest thou thy servant 30 depart, Lord, According to thy word, in peace; For mine eyes 31 have seen thy salvation, Which thou hast prepared before the 32 face of all peoples; A light for revelation to the Gentiles, And the 33 glory of thy people Israel. And his father and his mother were 34 marvelling at the things which were spoken concerning him; and Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the falling and the rising of many in Israel; 35 and for a sign which is spoken against; yea and a sword shall pierce through thine own soul; that thoughts out of many hearts 36 may be revealed. And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher (she was of a great age, 37 having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, and she had been a widow even unto fourscore and four years), who departed not from the temple, worshipping with fastings and 38 supplications night and day. And coming up at that very hour she gave thanks unto God, and spake of him to all them that 39 were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. And when they had accomplished all things that were according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.
40 And the child grew, and waxed strong, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him. And his parents went every 42 year to Jerusalem at the feast of the passover. And when he was twelve years old, they went up after the custom of the feast; 43 and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and his parents knew 44 it not; but supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey; and they sought for him among their kinsfolk and 45 acquaintance: and when they found him not, they returned to 46 Jerusalem, seeking for him. And it came to pass, after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the 47 teachers, both hearing them, and asking them questions: and all that heard him were amazed at his understanding and his 48 answers. And when they saw him, they were astonished; and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with 49 us? behold, thy father and I sought thee sorrowing. And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? knew ye not that 50 I must be in my Father's house? And they understood not the 51 saying which he spake unto them. And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth; and he was subject unto them: and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men. 52

Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judaea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, in the high-priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness. And he came into all the region round about the Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance unto remission of sins; as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make ye ready the way of the Lord, Make his paths straight. Every valley shall be filled, And every mountain and hill shall be brought low; And the crooked shall become straight, And the rough ways smooth; And all flesh shall see the salvation of God. He said therefore to the multitudes that went out to be baptized of him, Ye offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. And even now the axe also lieth at the root of the trees: every tree therefore that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. And the multitudes asked him, saying, What then must we do? And he answered and said unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath food, let him do likewise. And there came also publicans to be baptized, and they said unto him, Teacher, what must we do? And he said unto them, Extort no more than that which is appointed you. And soldiers also asked him, saying, And we, what must we do? And he said unto them, Extort from no man by violence, neither accuse any one wrongfully; and be content with your wages. And as the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning John, whether haply he were the Christ; John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but there cometh he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: 3

17 he shall baptize you in the Holy Spirit and in fire: whose fan is in his hand, thoroughly to cleanse his threshing-floor, and to gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn up 18 with unquenchable fire. With many other exhortations there-19 fore preached he good tidings unto the people; but Herod the tetrarch, being reprov'd by him for Herodias his brother's wife, 20 and for all the evil things which Herod had done, added this 21 also to them all, that he shut up John in prison. Now it came to pass, when all the people were baptized, that, Jesus also hav-22 ing been baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, and the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily form, as a dove, upon him, and a voice came out of heaven, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee 23 I am well pleased. And Jesus himself, when he began to teach, was about thirty years of age, being the son (as was supposed) 24 of Joseph, the son of Heli, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, 25 the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son 26 of Esli, the son of Naggai, the son of Maath, the son of Mat-tathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda, 27 the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the 28 son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er, 29 the son of Jesus, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of 30 Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Symeon, the son of Judas, 31 the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim, the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son 32 of Nathan, the son of David, the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, 33 the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon, the son of Amminadab, the son of Arni, the son of Hezron, the son 34 of Perez, the son of Judah, the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, 35 the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, 36 the son of Shelah the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the 37 son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Ma-38 halaleel, the son of Cainan, the son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

4 And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, 2 and was led in the Spirit in the wilderness during forty days, being tempted of the devil. And he did eat nothing in those days: and when they were completed, he hungered. And the devil said unto him, if thou art the Son of God, command this stone that it become bread. And Jesus answered unto him, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone. And he led him up, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. And the devil said unto him, To thee will I give all this authority, and the glory of them: for it hath been delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it. If thou therefore wilt worship before me, it shall all be thine. And Jesus answered and said unto him, It is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. And he led him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee, to guard thee: and, On their hands they shall bear thee up, Lest haply thou dash thy foot against a stone. And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not make trial of the Lord thy God. And when the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from him for a season. And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and a fame went out concerning him through all the region round about. And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all. And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and he entered, as his custom was, into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up to read. And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Isaiah. And he opened the book, and found the place where it was written, The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, Because he anointed me to preach good tidings to the poor: He hath sent me to proclaim release to the captives, And recovering of sight to the blind, To set at liberty them that are bruised, To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord. And he closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant, and sat down: and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him. And he began to say unto them, To-day hath this scripture been fulfilled in your ears. And all bare him witness, and wondered at the words of grace which proceeded out of his mouth: and they said, Is not this Joseph's son? And he said unto them, Doubtless ye will say unto me this parable, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done at Capernaum, do also here in thine own 24 country. And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is 25 acceptable in his own country. But of a truth I say unto you, There were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when there 26 came a great famine over all the land; and unto none of them was Elijah sent, but only to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, 27 unto a woman that was a widow. And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and none of them 28 was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian. And they were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things; 29 and they rose up, and cast him forth out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they 30 might throw him down headlong. But he passing through the 31 midst of them went his way. And he came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. And he was teaching them on the sabbath day: 32 and they were astonished at his teaching; for his word was with 33 authority. And in the synagogue there was a man, that had a spirit of an unclean demon; and he cried out with a loud voice, 34 Ah! what have we to do with thee, Jesus thou Nazarene? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One 35 of God. And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the demon had thrown him down in the midst, he came out of him, having done him no hurt.

36 And amazement came upon all, and they spake together, one with another, saying, What is this word? for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.
37 And there went forth a rumor concerning him into every place 38 of the region round about. And he rose up from the synagogue, and entered into the house of Simon. And Simon's wife's mother was holden with a great fever; and they besought him for her.
39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: 40 and immediately she rose up and ministered unto them. And when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every 41 one of them, and healed them. And demons also came out from many, crying out, and saying, Thou art the Son of God. And rebuking them, he suffered them not to speak, because they knew 42 that he was the Christ. And when it was day, he came out and went into a desert place: and the multitudes sought after him, and came unto him, and would have stayed him, that he should not go from them. But he said unto them, I must preach the good tidings of the kingdom of God to the other cities also: for therefore was I sent. And he was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

Now it came to pass, while the multitude pressed upon him and heard the word of God, that he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret; and he saw two boats standing by the lake: but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets. And he entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the multitudes out of the boat. And when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon answered and said, Master, we toiled all night, and took nothing: but at thy word I will let down the nets. And when they had done this, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes; and their nets were breaking; and they beckoned unto their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he was amazed, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken; and so were also James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men. And when they had brought their boats to land, they left all, and followed him. And it came to pass, while he was in one of the cities, behold, a man full of leprosy: and when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway the leprosy departed from him. And he charged him to tell no man: but go thy way, and show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. But so much the more went abroad the report concerning him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed of their infirmities. But he withdrew 17 himself in the deserts, and prayed. And it came to pass on one of those days, that he was teaching; and there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, who were come out of every village of Galilee and Judaea and Jerusalem: and the power of 18 the Lord was with him to heal. And behold, men bring on a bed a man that was palsied: and they sought to bring him in, 19 and to lay him before him. And not finding by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his couch into 20 the midst before Jesus. And seeing their faith, he said, Man, 21 thy sins are forgiven thee. And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies?

22 Who can forgive sins, but God alone? But Jesus perceiving their reasonings, answered and said unto them, Why reason ye 23 in your hearts? Which is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven 24 thee; or to say, Arise and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath authority on earth to forgive sins (he said unto him that was palsied), I say unto thee, Arise, and take up 25 thy couch, and go unto thy house. And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed 26 to his house, glorifying God. And amazement took hold on all, and they glorified God; and they were filled with fear, saying, 27 We have seen strange things to-day. And after these things he went forth, and beheld a publican, named Levi, sitting at the 28 place of toll, and said unto him, Follow me. And he forsook all, 29 and rose up and followed him. And Levi made him a great feast in his house: and there was a great multitude of publicans and of 30 others that were sitting at meat with them. And the Pharisees and their scribes murmured against his disciples, saying, Why 31 do ye eat and drink with the publicans and sinners? And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are in health have no need 32 of a physician; but they that are sick. I am not come to call 33 the righteous but sinners to repentance. And they said unto him, The disciples of John fast often, and make supplications; likewise also the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and 34 drink. And Jesus said unto them, Can ye make the sons of the 35 bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come; and when the bridegroom shall be taken away 36 from them, then will they fast in those days. And he spake also a parable unto them: No man rendeth a piece from a new garment and putteth it upon an old garment; else he will rend the new, and also the piece from the new will not agree with the old. And no man putteth new wine into old wine-skins; 37 else the new wine will burst the skins, and itself will be spilled, and the skins will perish. But new wine must be put into fresh 38 wine-skins. And no man having drunk old wine desireth new; 39 for he saith, The old is good.

Now it came to pass on a sabbath, that he was going through 6 the grainfields; and his disciples plucked the ears, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands. But certain of the Pharisees said, 2 Why do ye that which it is not lawful to do on the sabbath day? And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read even this, 3 what David did, when he was hungry, he, and they that were with him; how he entered into the house of God, and took and 4 ate the showbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat save for the priests alone? And he 5 said unto them, The Son of man is lord of the sabbath. And 6 it came to pass on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man there, and his right hand was withered. And the scribes and the Pharisees watched 7 him, whether he would heal on the sabbath; that they might find how to accuse him. But he knew their thoughts; and he said to 8 the man that had his hand withered, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth. And Jesus said 9 unto them, I ask you, Is it lawful on the sabbath to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to destroy it? And he looked 10 round about on them all, and said unto him, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored. But they were 11 filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus. And it came to pass in these days, that he 12 went out into the mountain to pray; and he continued all night in prayer to God. And when it was day, he called his disciples; 13 and he chose from them twelve, whom also he named apostles: Simon, whom he also named Peter, and Andrew his brother, and 14 James and John, and Philip and Bartholomew, and Matthew 15 and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon who was called the Zealot, and Judas the son of James, and Judas 16 Iscariot, who became a traitor; and he came down with them, 17 and stood on a level place, and a great multitude of his disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judaea and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him, and 18 to be healed of their diseases; and they that were troubled with 19 unclean spirits were healed. And all the multitude sought to touch him; for power came forth from him, and healed them all.

20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed are 21 ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: 22 for ye shall laugh. Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.
23 Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy: for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for in the same manner did their fathers unto 24 the prophets. But woe unto you that are rich! for ye have 25 received your consolation. Woe unto you, ye that are full now! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you, ye that laugh now! for ye 26 shall mourn and weep. Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for in the same manner did their fathers to the false 27 prophets. But I say unto you that hear, Love your enemies, do 28 good to them that hate you, bless them that curse you, pray for 29 them that despitefully use you. To him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and from him that taketh away 30 thy cloak withhold not thy coat also. Give to every one that asketh thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them 31 not again. And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye 32 also to them likewise. And if ye love them that love you, what 33 thank have ye? for even sinners love those that love them. And if ye do good to them that do good to you, what thank have ye?
34 for even sinners do the same. And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? even sinners lend to 35 sinners, to receive again as much. But love your enemies, and do them good, and lend, never despairing; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be sons of the Most High: for he is kind 36 toward the unthankful and evil. Be ye merciful, even as your 37 Father is merciful. And judge not, and ye shall not be judged: and condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: release, and 38 ye shall be released: give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, shall they give into your bosom. For with what measure ye mete it shall be measured to you again. And he spake also a parable unto them, 39 Can the blind guide the blind? shall they not both fall into a pit? The disciple is not above his teacher: but every one when 40 he is perfected shall be as his teacher. And why beholdest thou 41 the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Or how canst thou say to thy 42 brother, Brother, let me cast out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote that is in thy brother's eye. For there is no good tree that bringeth 43 forth corrupt fruit; nor again a corrupt tree that bringeth forth good fruit. For each tree is known by its own fruit. For of 44 thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes. The good man out of the good treasure of his 45 heart bringeth forth that which is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth that which is evil: for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh. And why call ye 46 me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? Every one 47 that cometh unto me, and heareth my words, and doeth them, I will show you to whom he is like: he is like a man building a 48 house, who digged and went deep, and laid a foundation upon the rock: and when a flood arose, the stream brake against that house, and could not shake it: because it had been well builded. But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that built a 49 house upon the earth without a foundation; against which the stream brake, and straightway it fell in; and the ruin of that house was great.

After he had ended all his sayings in the ears of the people, 7 he entered into Capernaum. And a certain centurion's servant, 2 who was dear unto him, was sick and at the point of death. And 3 when he heard concerning Jesus, he sent unto him elders of the Jews, asking him that he would come and save his servant. And 4 they, when they came to Jesus, besought him earnestly, saying, He is worthy that thou shouldst do this for him; for he loveth 5 our nation, and himself built us our synagogue. And Jesus went 6 with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself; for I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my 7 roof: wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto 8 thee: but say the word, and my servant shall be healed. For I also am a man set under authority, having under myself soldiers: and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 And when Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned and said unto the multitude that followed him, I say unto 10 you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole.
11 And it came to pass soon afterwards, that he went to a city called Nain; and his disciples went with him, and a great multitude.
12 Now when he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, there was carried out one that was dead, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with 13 her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, 14 and said unto her, Weep not. And he came nigh and touched the bier: and the bearers stood still. And he said, Young man, I 15 say unto thee, Arise. And he that was dead sat up, and began 16 to speak. And he gave him to his mother. And fear took hold on all: and they glorified God, saying, A great prophet is arisen 17 among us: and, God hath visited his people. And this report went forth concerning him in the whole of Judaea, and all the 18 region round about. And the disciples of John told him of all 19 these things. And John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to the Lord, saying, Art thou he that cometh, or 20 look we for another? And when the men were come unto him, they said, John the Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art 21 thou he that cometh, or look we for another? In that hour he cured many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits; and on 22 many that were blind he bestowed sight. And he answered and said unto them, Go and tell John the things which ye have seen and heard; the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, 23 the poor have good tidings preached to them. And blessed is 24 he, whosoever shall find no occasion of stumbling in me. And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into 25 the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken with the wind? But what went ye out to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. But what went ye out to see? a prophet? Yea, 26 I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. This is he of 27 whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, Who shall prepare thy way before thee. I say unto you, Among 28 them that are born of women there is none greater than John: yet he that is but little in the kingdom of God is greater than he. And all the people when they heard, and the publicans, 29 justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John. But 30 the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected for themselves the counsel of God, being not baptized of him. Whereunto then shall I liken 31 the men of this generation, and to what are they like? They 32 are like unto children that sit in the marketplace, and call one to another; who say, We piped unto you, and ye did not dance; we wailed, and ye did not weep. For John the Baptist is come 33 eating no bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a demon. The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold, 34 a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners! And wisdom is justified of all her children. And one 35, 36 of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he entered into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat. And 37 behold, a woman who was in the city, a sinner; and when she knew that he was sitting at meat in the Pharisee's house, she brought an alabaster cruse of ointment, and standing behind at 38 his feet, weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. Now when the Pharisee that 39 had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have perceived who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him, that she is a sinner. And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat 40 to say unto thee. And he saith, Teacher, say on. A certain 41 lender had two debtors: the one owed five hundred shillings, and the other fifty. When they had not wherewith to pay, he 42 forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him most? Simon answered and said, He, I suppose, to whom he forgave 43 the most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged. And turning to the woman, he said unto Simon, Seest thou this 44 woman? I entered into thy house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath wetted my feet with her tears, and wiped 45 them with her hair. Thou gavest me no kiss: but she, since 46 the time I came in, hath not ceased to kiss my feet. My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but she hath anointed my feet 47 with ointment. Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is 48 forgiven, the same loveth little. And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven. And they that sat at meat with him began to say 49 within themselves, Who is this that even forgiveth sins? And he said unto the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

8 And it came to pass soon afterwards, that he went about through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the good tidings of the kingdom of God, and with him the twelve, and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary that was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons 3 had gone out, and Joanna the wife of Chuzas Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, who ministered unto them of 4 their substance. And when a great multitude came together, and they of every city resorted unto him, he spake by a parable: 5 The sower went forth to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden under foot, and the birds of 6 the heaven devoured it. And other fell on the rock; and as soon 7 as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture. And other fell amidst the thorns; and the thorns grew with it, and 8 choked it. And other fell into the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit a hundredfold. As he said these things, he 9 cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. And his disciples 10 asked him what this parable might be. And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to the rest in parables; that seeing they may not see, and hearing 11 they may not understand. Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. And those by the way side are they that have 12 heard; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. And those 13 on the rock are they who, when they have heard, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who for a while believe, 14 and in time of temptation fall away. And that which fell among the thorns, these are they that have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. And that in the good 15 ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it fast, and bring forth fruit with patience.

And no man, when he hath lighted a lamp, covereth it with a 16 vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but putteth it on a stand, that they that enter in may see the light. For nothing is hid, that 17 shall not be made manifest; nor anything secret, that shall not be known and come to light. Take heed therefore how ye hear: 18 for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he thinketh he hath. And there came to him his mother and brethren, and 19 they could not come at him for the crowd. And it was told 20 him, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee. But he answered and said unto them, My mother and 21 my brethren are these that hear the word of God, and do it.
Now it came to pass on one of those days, that he entered into 22 a boat, himself and his disciples; and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake: and they launched forth.
But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm 23 of wind on the lake; and they were filling with water, and were in jeopardy. And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Mas- 24 ter, master, we perish. And he awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.
And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And being afraid 25 they marvelled, saying one to another, Who then is this, that he commandeth even the winds and the water, and they obey him?
And they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is over 26 against Galilee. And when he was come forth upon the land, 27 there met him a certain man out of the city, who had demons; and for a long time he had worn no clothes, and abode not in any house, but in the tombs. And when he saw Jesus, he cried 28 out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God?
I beseech thee, torment me not. For he was commanding the 29 unclean spirit to come out from the man. For oftentimes it had seized him: and he was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters; and breaking the bands asunder, he was driven of the demon into the deserts. And Jesus asked him, What is thy 30 name? And he said, Legion; for many demons were entered into 31 him. And they entreated him that he would not command them 32 to depart into the abyss. Now there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they entreated him that he would give them leave to enter into them. And he gave them 33 leave. And the demons came out from the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd rushed down the steep into the lake, 34 and were drowned. And when they that fed them saw what had come to pass, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country.

35 And they went out to see what had come to pass; and they came to Jesus, and found the man, from whom the demons were gone out, sitting, clothed and in his right mind, at the feet of Jesus: 36 and they were afraid. And they that saw it told them how he 37 that was possessed with demons was made whole. And all the people of the country of the Gerasenes round about asked him to depart from them, for they were holden with great fear: and he 38 entered into a boat, and returned. But the man from whom the demons were gone out prayed him that he might be with him: 39 but he sent him away, saying, Return to thy house, and declare how great things God hath done for thee. And he went his way, publishing throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had 40 done for him. And as Jesus returned, the multitude welcomed 41 him; for they were all waiting for him. And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him to come into his 42 house; for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as he went the multitudes thronged him.
43 And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, who had spent all her living upon physicians, and could not be healed of 44 any, came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: 45 and immediately the issue of her blood stanch'd. And Jesus said, Who is it that touched me? And when all denied, Peter said, and they that were with him, Master, the multitudes press 46 thee and crush thee. But Jesus said, Some one did touch me; 47 for I perceived that power had gone forth from me. And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared in the presence of all the people for what cause she touched him, and how she was healed imme-48 diately. And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace. While he yet spake, there cometh one 49 from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Teacher. But Jesus hearing it, answered 50 him, Fear not: only believe, and she shall be made whole. And 51 when he came to the house, he suffered not any man to enter in with him, save Peter, and John, and James, and the father of the maiden and her mother. And all were weeping, and bewailing 52 her: but he said, Weep not; for she is not dead, but sleepeth.

And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead. 53
But he, taking her by the hand, called, saying, Maiden, arise. 54 And her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately: and he 55 commanded that something be given her to eat. And her par- 56 ents were amazed: but he charged them to tell no man what had been done.

And he called the twelve together, and gave them power and 9 authority over all demons, and to cure diseases. And he sent 2 them forth to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.
And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither 3 staff, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money; neither have two coats.
And into whatsoever house ye enter, there abide, and thence 4 depart. And as many as receive you not, when ye depart from 5 that city, shake off the dust from your feet for a testimony against them. And they departed, and went throughout the villages, 6 preaching the gospel, and healing everywhere. Now Herod the 7 tetrarch heard of all that was done: and he was much perplexed, because that it was said by some, that John was risen from 8 the dead; and by some, that Elijah had appeared; and by oth- 8 ers, that one of the old prophets was risen again. And Herod 9 said, John I beheaded: but who is this, about whom I hear such things? And he sought to see him. And the apostles, when 10 they were returned, declared unto him what things they had done. And he took them, and withdrew apart to a city called Bethsaida. But the multitudes perceiving it followed him: and 11 he welcomed them, and spake to them of the kingdom of God, and them that had need of healing he cured. And the day began 12 to wear away; and the twelve came, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages and country round about, and lodge, and get provisions: for we are here in a desert place. But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. 13

And they said, We have no more than five loaves and two fishes; 14 except we should go and buy food for all this people. For they were about five thousand men. And he said unto his disciples, 15 Make them sit down in companies, about fifty each. And they 16 did so, and made them all sit down. And he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake; and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.
17 And they ate, and were all filled: and there was taken up that which remained over to them of broken pieces, twelve baskets.
18 And it came to pass, as he was praying apart, the disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Who do the multitudes 19 say that I am? And they answering said, John the Baptist; but others say, Elijah; and others, that one of the old prophets is 20 risen again. And he said unto them, But who say ye that I am?
21 And Peter answering said, The Christ of God. But he charged 22 them, and commanded them to tell this to no man; saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and the third 23 day be raised up. And he said unto all, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and 24 follow me. For whosoever would save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.
25 For what is a man profited, if he gain the whole world, and lose 26 or forfeit his own self? For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in his own glory, and the glory of the Father, and of 27 the holy angels. But I tell you of a truth, There are some of them that stand here, who shall in no wise taste of death, till 28 they see the kingdom of God. And it came to pass about eight days after these sayings, that he took with him Peter and John 29 and James, and went up into the mountain to pray. And as he was praying, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his 30 raiment became white and dazzling. And behold, there talked 31 with him two men, who were Moses and Elijah; who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he was about to accom-32 plish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: but when they were fully awake, they 33 saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. And it came to pass, as they were parting from him, Peter said unto

Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah: not knowing what he said. And while he said these things, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my Son, my chosen: hear ye him. And when the voice came, Jesus was found alone. And they held their peace, and told no man in those days any of the things which they had seen. And it came to pass, on the next day, when they were come down from the mountain, a great multitude met him. And behold, a man from the multitude cried, saying, Teacher, I beseech thee to look upon my son; for he is mine only child: and behold, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth, and it hardly departeth from him, bruising him sorely. And I besought thy disciples to cast it out; and they could not. And Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and bear with you? bring hither thy son. And as he was yet a coming, the demon dashed him down, and tare him grievously. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. And they were all astonished at the majesty of God. But while all were marvelling at all the things which he did, he said unto his disciples, Let these words sink into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered up into the hands of men. But they understood not this saying, and it was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask him about this saying. And there arose a reasoning among them, which of them was the greatest. But when Jesus saw the reasoning of their heart, he took a little child, and set him by his side, and said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this little child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same is great. And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out demons in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us. But Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against you is for you. And it came to pass, when the days were well-nigh come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, and sent messengers before his face:

and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to 53 make ready for him. And they did not receive him, because his 54 face was as though he were going to Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we bid fire to come down from heaven, and consume them?
55, 56 But he turned, and rebuked them. And they went to another 57 village. And as they went on the way, a certain man said unto 58 him, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. And Jesus said unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have 59 nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me 60 first to go and bury my father. But he said unto him, Leave the dead to bury their own dead; but go thou and publish abroad 61 the kingdom of God. And another also said, I will follow thee, Lord; but first suffer me to bid farewell to them that are at my 62 house. But Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

10 Now after these things the Lord appointed seventy others, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, 2 whither he himself was about to come. And he said unto them, The harvest indeed is plenteous, but the laborers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth laborers into 3 his harvest. Go your ways; behold, I send you forth as lambs 4 in the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no wallet, no shoes; 5 and salute no man on the way. And into whatsoever house ye 6 shall enter, first say, Peace be to this house. And if a son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon him: but if not, it 7 shall turn to you again. And in that same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the laborer is worthy 8 of his hire. Go not from house to house. And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set 9 before you: and heal the sick that are therein, and say unto 10 them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. But into whatsoever city ye shall enter, and they receive you not, go out 11 into the streets thereof and say, Even the dust from your city, that cleaveth to our feet, we wipe off against you: nevertheless 12 know this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh. I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for 13 that city. Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida!

for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment, than for you. And thou, Capernaum, shalt thou be exalted unto heaven? thou shalt be brought down unto Hades. He that heareth you heareth me; and he that rejecteth you rejecteth me; and he that rejecteth me rejecteth him that sent me. And the seventy returned with joy, saying, Lord, even the demons are subject unto us in thy name. And he said unto them, I beheld Satan fallen as lightning from heaven. Behold, I have given you authority to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall in any wise hurt you. Nevertheless in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rejoice that your names are written in heaven. In that same hour he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst reveal them unto babes: yea, Father; for so it was well-pleasing in thy sight. All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth who the Son is, save the Father; and who the Father is, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal him. And turning to the disciples, he said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: for I say unto you, that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not. And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and made trial of him, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? And he said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live. But he, desiring to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbor? Jesus made answer and said, A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho; and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. And by chance a certain priest was going down that way: and when he saw him, he passed by 32 on the other side. And in like manner a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was:
34 and when he saw him, he was moved with compassion, and came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on them oil and wine; and he set him on his own beast, and brought him to 35 an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow he took out two shillings, and gave them to the host, and said, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, I, when I come back 36 again, will repay thee. Which of these three, thinkest thou, 37 proved neighbor unto him that fell among the robbers? And he said, He that showed mercy on him. And Jesus said unto 38 him, Go, and do thou likewise. Now as they went on their way, he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named 39 Martha received him into her house. And she had a sister called 40 Mary, who also sat at the Lord's feet, and heard his word. But Martha was cumbered about much serving; and she came up to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister did leave 41 me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me. But the Lord answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou 42 art anxious and troubled about many things: but one thing is needful: for Mary hath chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

11 And it came to pass, as he was praying in a certain place, that when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach 2 us to pray, even as John also taught his disciples. And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Father, Hallowed be thy name.
3, 4 Thy kingdom come. Give us day by day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins; for we ourselves also forgive every one that is 5 indebted to us. And bring us not into temptation. And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto 6 him at midnight, and say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves; 7 for a friend of mine is come to me from a journey, and I have 8 nothing to set before him; and he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are 9 with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee? I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will arise and give him as many 9 as he needeth. And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. And of which of you that is a father shall his son ask a loaf, and he give him a stone? or a fish, and he for a fish give him a serpent? Or if he shall ask an egg, will he give him a scorpion? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him? And he was casting out a demon that was dumb. And it came to pass, when the demon was gone out, the dumb man spake; and the multitudes marvelled. But some of them said, By Beelzebub the prince of the demons casteth he out demons. And others, trying him, sought of him a sign from heaven. But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth. And if Satan also is divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out demons by Beelzebub. And if I by Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. But if I by the finger of God cast out demons, then is the kingdom of God come upon you. When the strong man fully armed guardeth his own court, his goods are in peace: but when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him his whole armor wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. The unclean spirit when he is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest, and finding none, he saith, I will turn back unto my house whence I came out. And when he is come, he findeth it swept and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more evil than himself; and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man cometh worse than the first. And it came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the breasts which thou didst suck. But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it. And when the multitudes were gathering together unto him, he began to say, This generation is an evil generation: it seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign 30 of Jonah. For even as Jonah became a sign unto the Ninevites, 31 so shall also the Son of man be to this generation. The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and shall condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a 32 greater than Solomon is here. The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, a 33 greater than Jonah is here. No man, when he hath lighted a lamp, putteth it in a cellar, neither under the bushel, but on the 34 stand, that they which enter in may see the light. The lamp of thy body is thine eye: when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when it is evil, thy body also is full of 35 darkness. Look therefore whether the light that is in thee be 36 not darkness. If therefore thy whole body be full of light, having no part dark, it shall be wholly full of light, as when the lamp 37 with its bright shining doth give thee light. Now as he spake, a Pharisee asketh him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat 38 down to meat. And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that 39 he had not first bathed himself before dinner. And the Lord said unto him, Now ye the Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter; but your inward part is full of extortion and 40 wickedness. Ye foolish ones, did not he that made the outside 41 make the inside also? But give for alms those things which are 42 within; and behold, all things are clean unto you. But woe unto you Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and every herb, and pass over justice and the love of God: but these ought ye to have done, 43 and not to leave the other undone. Woe unto you Pharisees! for ye love the chief seats in the synagogues, and the salutations 44 in the marketplaces. Woe unto you! for ye are as the tombs which appear not, and the men that walk over them know it not.

45 And one of the lawyers answering saith unto him, Teacher, in 46 saying this thou reproachest us also. And he said, Woe unto you lawyers also! for ye load men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your 47 fingers. Woe unto you! for ye build the tombs of the prophets, 48 and your fathers killed them. So ye are witnesses and consent unto the works of your fathers: for they killed them, and ye build their tombs. Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send 49 unto them prophets and apostles; and some of them they shall kill and persecute; that the blood of all the prophets, which 50 was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; from the blood of Abel unto the blood of 51 Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary: yea, I say unto you, it shall be required of this generation. Woe 52 unto you lawyers! for ye took away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered. And when he was come out from thence, the scribes 53 and the Pharisees began to press upon him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things; laying wait for him, to 54 catch something out of his mouth.

In the mean time, when the many thousands of the multitude 12 were gathered together, insomuch that they trod one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. But there 2 is nothing covered up, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. Wherefore whatsoever ye have said in the 3 darkness shall be heard in the light; and what ye have spoken in the ear in the inner chambers shall be proclaimed upon the housetops. And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of 4 them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. But I will warn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, 5 who after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. Are not five sparrows sold for two pence? 6 and not one of them is forgotten in the sight of God. But the 7 very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not: ye are of more value than many sparrows. And I say unto you, Every 8 one who shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God: but he that denieth me 9 in the presence of men shall be denied in the presence of the angels of God. And every one who shall speak a word against 10 the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Spirit it shall not be forgiven. And 11 when they bring you before the synagogues, and the rulers, and the authorities, be not anxious how or what ye shall answer, or what ye shall say: for the Holy Spirit shall teach you in that 12 very hour what ye ought to say. And one out of the multitude 13 said unto him, Teacher, bid my brother divide the inheritance 14 with me. But he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge 15 or a divider over you? And he said unto them, Take heed, and keep yourselves from all covetousness: for a man's life consisteth 16 not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich 17 man brought forth plentifully: and he reasoned within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have not where to bestow my 18 fruits? And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my grain and my 19 goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou foolish one, this night is thy soul required of thee; and the things which thou hast prepared, whose 21 shall they be? So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God. And he said unto his disciples, There-22 fore I say unto you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. For the life 23 is more than the food, and the body than the raiment. Consider the ravens, that they sow not, neither reap; which have no store-chamber nor barn; and God feedeth them: of how much 25 more value are ye than the birds! And which of you by being anxious can add a cubit unto the measure of his life? If then 26 ye are not able to do even that which is least, why are ye anxious concerning the rest? Consider the lilies, how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin; yet I say unto you, Even 28 Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God doth so clothe the grass in the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven; how much more shall he clothe 29 you, O ye of little faith? And seek not ye what ye shall eat, 30 and what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: but your 31 Father knoweth that ye have need of these things. Yet seek ye his kingdom, and these things shall be added unto you. Fear 32 not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell that which ye have, and give alms; make for 33 yourselves purses which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief draweth near, neither moth de-34 stroyeth. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. Let your loins be girded about, and your lamps burning; 35 and be ye yourselves like unto men looking for their lord, when 36 he shall return from the marriage feast; that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may straightway open unto him. Blessed 37 are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them sit down to meat, and shall come and serve them.

And if he shall come in the second watch, and if in the third, and 38 find them so blessed are those servants. But know this, that if 39 the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not have left his house to be broken through. Be ye also ready: for in an hour that ye think 40 not the Son of man cometh. And Peter said, Lord, speakest 41 thou this parable unto us, or even unto all? And the Lord said, 42 Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall set over his household, to give them their portion of food in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh 43 shall find so doing. Of a truth I say unto you, that he will set 44 him over all that he hath. But if that servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the 45 menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken; the lord of that servant shall come in a day when he 46 expecteth not, and in an hour when he knoweth not, and shall cut him asunder, and appoint his portion with the unfaithful.
And that servant, who knew his lord's will, and made not ready, 47 nor did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes; but he that knew not, and did things worthy of stripes, shall be 48 beaten with few stripes. And to whomsoever much is given, of him shall much be required: and to whom they commit much, of him will they ask the more. I came to cast fire upon the 49 earth; and what do I desire, if it is already kindled? But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished! Think ye that I am come to give peace in the 51 earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division: for there shall be from henceforth five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. They shall be divided, father against son, 53 and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother in law against her daughter in law, and daughter in law against her mother in law. And he said 54 to the multitudes also, When ye see a cloud rising in the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it cometh to pass. And when ye see a south wind blowing, ye say, There will be a scorching heat; and it cometh to pass. Ye hypocrites, ye know how to interpret the face of the earth and the heaven; but how is it that ye know not how to interpret this time? And why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right? For as thou art going with thine adversary before the magistrate, on the way give diligence to be quit of him; lest haply he drag thee unto the judge, and the judge shall deliver thee to the officer, and the officer shall cast thee into prison. I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou have paid the very last mite.

13 Now there were some present at that very season who told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And he answered and said unto them, Think ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they have suffered these things? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all in like manner perish. Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them, think ye that they were offenders above all the men that dwell in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. And he spake this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit thereon, and found none. And he said unto the vinedresser, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why doth it also cumber the ground? And he answering saith unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: and if it bear fruit thenceforth, well; but if not, thou shalt cut it down. And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath day. And behold, a woman that had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years; and she was bowed together, and could in no wise lift herself up. And when Jesus saw her, he called her, and said to her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands upon her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God. And the ruler of the synagogue, being moved with indignation because Jesus had healed on the sabbath, answered and said to the multitude, There are six days in which men ought to work:

in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the day of the sabbath. But the Lord answered him, and said, Ye hypocrites, 15 doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? And ought not 16 this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound, lo, these eighteen years, to have been loosed from this bond on the day of the sabbath? And as he said these things, 17 all his adversaries were put to shame: and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him. He said 18 therefore, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I liken it? It is like unto a grain of mustard seed, which 19 a man took, and cast into his own garden; and it grew, and became a tree; and the birds of the heaven lodged in the branches thereof. And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the king- 20 dom of God? It is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till it was all leavened. And he went 21 on his way through cities and villages, teaching, and journeying on unto Jerusalem. And one said unto him, Lord, are they few 22 that are saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in by the narrow door: for many, I say unto you, shall seek to enter in, and shall not be able. When once the master of the house is risen 23 up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, open to us; and he shall answer and say to you, I know you not whence ye are; then shall 24 ye begin to say, We did eat and drink in thy presence, and thou didst teach in our streets; and he shall say, I tell you, I know 25 not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. There shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth, when ye 26 shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and yourselves cast forth without. And 27 they shall come from the east and west, and from the north and south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God. And behold, 28 there are last who shall be first, and there are first who shall be last. In that very hour there came certain Pharisees, saying to him, Get thee out, and go hence: for Herod would fain kill thee. 29 And he said unto them, Go and say to that fox, Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures to-day and to-morrow, and the third day I am perfected. Nevertheless I must go on my way to- 30 day and to-morrow and the day following: for it cannot be that a 31 32 33

34 prophet perish out of Jerusalem. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that killeth the prophets, and stoneth them that are sent unto her! how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her own brood under her wings, and ye would 35 not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And it came to pass, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a sabbath to eat bread, that 2 they were watching him. And behold, there was before him a 3 certain man that had the dropsy. And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the 4 sabbath, or not? But they held their peace. And he took him, 5 and healed him, and let him go. And he said unto them, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a well, and will not 6 straightway draw him up on a sabbath day? And they could 7 not answer again unto these things. And he spake a parable unto those that were bidden, when he marked how they chose 8 out the chief seats; saying unto them, When thou art bidden of any man to a marriage feast, sit not down in the chief seat; lest haply a more honorable man than thou be bidden of him, 9 and he that bade thee and him shall come and say to thee, Give this man place; and then thou shalt begin with shame to take 10 the lowest place. But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest place; that when he that hath bidden thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have 11 glory in the presence of all that sit at meat with thee. For everyone that exalteth himself shall be humbled; and he that 12 humbleth himself shall be exalted. And he said to him also that had bidden him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nor thy kinsmen, nor rich neighbors; lest haply they also bid thee again, and a recompense 13 be made thee. But when thou makest a feast, bid the poor, the 14 maimed, the lame, the blind: and thou shalt be blessed; because they have not wherewith to recompense thee: for thou shalt be 15 recompensed in the resurrection of the just. And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.
16 But he said unto him, A certain man made a great supper; and he bade many: and he sent forth his servant at supper time 17 to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready. And they all with one consent began to make excuse. 18 The first said unto him, I have bought a field, and I must needs go out and see it; I pray thee have me excused. And another 19 said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them; I pray thee have me excused. And another said, I have married 20 a wife, and therefore I cannot come. And the servant came, 21 and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and maimed and blind and lame. And the servant said, Lord, what thou 22 didst command is done, and yet there is room. And the lord 23 said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and constrain them to come in, that my house may be filled. For 24 I say unto you, that none of those men that were bidden shall taste of my supper. Now there went with him great multitudes: 25 and he turned, and said unto them, If any man cometh unto 26 me, and hateth not his own father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. Whosoever doth not bear his own 27 cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. For which 28 of you, desiring to build a tower, doth not first sit down and count the cost, whether he have wherewith to complete it? Lest 29 haply, when he hath laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, all that behold begin to mock him, saying, This man began to 30 build, and was not able to finish. Or what king, as he goeth 31 to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while 32 the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and asketh conditions of peace. So therefore whosoever he be of you 33 that renounceth not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

Salt therefore is good: but if even the salt have lost its savor, 34 wherewith shall it be seasoned? It is fit neither for the land nor 35 for the dunghill: men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

Now all the publicans and sinners were drawing near unto him 15 to hear him. And both the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, 2 3 saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them. And 4 he spake unto them this parable, saying, What man of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that 5 which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, 6 he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and his neighbors, saying unto them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which 7 was lost. I say unto you, that even so there shall be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety 8 and nine righteous persons, who need no repentance. Or what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and seek diligently until she 9 find it? And when she hath found it, she calleth together her friends and neighbors, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found 10 the piece which I had lost. Even so, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that 11, 12 repenteth. And he said, A certain man had two sons: and the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of thy substance that falleth to me. And he divided unto them 13 his living. And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together and took his journey into a far country; and there 14 he wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that country; and he 15 began to be in want. And he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country; and he sent him into his fields 16 to feed swine. And he would fain have filled his belly with the 17 husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. But when he came to himself he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish here 18 with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto 19 him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: I am no more worthy to be called your son: make me as one of 20 thy hired servants. And he arose, and came to his father. But while he was yet afar off, his father saw him, and was moved with 21 compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and 22 in thy sight: I am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants, Bring forth quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: and bring the fatted calf, and kill it, and let us eat, 23 and make merry: for this my son was dead, and is alive again; 24 he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. Now 25 his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing. And he called to 26 him one of the servants, and inquired what these things might be. And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father 27 hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. But he was angry, and would not go in: and his 28 father came out, and entreated him. But he answered and said 29 to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, and I never transgressed a commandment of thine; and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: but when 30 this thy son came, who hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou killedst for him the fatted calf. And he said unto him, 31 Son, thou art ever with me, and all that is mine is thine. But 32 it was meet to make merry and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

And he said also unto the disciples, There was a certain rich 16 man, who had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he was wasting his goods. And he called him, and said 2 unto him, What is this that I hear of thee? render the account of thy stewardship; for thou canst be no longer steward. And 3 the steward said within himself, What shall I do, seeing that my lord taketh away the stewardship from me? I have not strength to dig; to beg I am ashamed. I am resolved what to do, that, 4 when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. And calling to him each one of his lord's debtors, 5 he said to the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? And 6 he said, A hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bond, and sit down quickly and write fifty. Then 7 said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, A hundred measures of wheat. He saith unto him, Take thy bond, and write fourscore. And his lord commended the unrighteous 8 steward because he had done wisely: for the sons of this world are for their own generation wiser than the sons of the light.
And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends by means of the 9 mammon of unrighteousness; that, when it shall fail, they may 10 receive you into the eternal tabernacles. He that is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much: and he that is unrighteous 11 in a very little is unrighteous also in much. If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit 12 to your trust the true riches? And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your 13 own? No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and 14 despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. And the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things; and 15 they scoffed at him. And he said unto them, Ye are they that justify yourselves in the sight of men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is exalted among men is an abomination 16 in the sight of God. The law and the prophets were until John: from that time the gospel of the kingdom of God is preached, and 17 every man entereth violently into it. But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tittle of the law to fall.

18 Every one that putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and he that marrieth one that is put away 19 from a husband committeth adultery. Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, faring 20 sumptuously every day: and a certain beggar named Lazarus 21 was laid at his gate, full of sores, and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table; yea, even the 22 dogs come and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and that he was carried away by the angels into Abraham's bosom: and the rich man also died, and was buried.
23 And in Hades he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth 24 Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my 25 tongue; for I am in anguish in this flame. But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things: but now here 26 he is comforted and thou art in anguish. And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that they that would pass from hence to you may not be able, and that none 27 may cross over from thence to us. And he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house; for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, 28 lest they also come into this place of torment. But Abraham 29 saith, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.

And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one go to them from 30 the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear 31 not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, if one rise from the dead.

And he said unto his disciples, It is impossible but that oc- 17 casions of stumbling should come; but woe unto him, through whom they come! It were well for him if a millstone were hanged 2 about his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. Take heed 3 to yourselves: if thy brother sin, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. And if he sin against thee seven times in the day, 4 and seven times turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him. And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our 5 faith. And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard 6 seed, ye would say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou rooted up, and be thou planted in the sea; and it would obey you. But 7 who is there of you, having a servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say unto him, when he is come in from the field, Come straightway and sit down to meat; and will not rather say unto 8 him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink? Doth he thank the servant because he did 9 the things that were commanded? Even so ye also, when ye 10 shall have done all the things that are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants; we have done that which it was our duty to do. And it came to pass, as they were on their way to 11 Jerusalem, that he was passing along the borders of Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered into a certain village, there met him 12 ten men that were lepers, who stood afar off: and they lifted 13 up their voices, saying, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. And 14 when he saw them, he said unto them, Go and show yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, as they went, they were cleansed. And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, 15 turned back, with a loud voice glorifying God; and he fell upon his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.
And Jesus answering said, Were not the ten cleansed? but where 17 18 are the nine? Were there none found that returned to give glory 19 to God, save this stranger? And he said unto him, Arise, and go 20 thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole. And being asked by the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God cometh, he answered 21 them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observa-22 tion: neither shall they say, Lo, here! or, There! for lo, the kingdom of God is within you. And he said unto the disciples, The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days 23 of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it. And they shall say to 24 you, Lo, there! Lo, here! go not away, nor follow after them: for as the lightning, when it lighteneth out of the one part under the heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall the 25 Son of man be in his day. But first must he suffer many things 26 and be rejected of this generation. And as it came to pass in the days of Noah, even so shall it be also in the days of the Son 27 of man. They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the 28 flood came, and destroyed them all. Likewise even as it came to pass in the days of Lot; they ate, they drank, they bought, 29 they sold, they planted, they builded; but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, 30 and destroyed them all: after the same manner shall it be in 31 the day that the Son of man is revealed. In that day, he that shall be on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away: and let him that is in the field like-32, 33 wise not return back. Remember Lot's wife. Whosoever shall seek to gain his life shall lose it: but whosoever shall lose his life 34 shall preserve it. I say unto you, In that night there shall be two men on one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall 35 be left. There shall be two women grinding together; the one 36 shall be taken, and the other shall be left. There shall be two men in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be 37 left. And they answering say unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Where the body is, thither will the eagles also be gathered together.

18 And he spake a parable unto them to the end that they ought 2 always to pray, and not to faint; saying, There was in a city a 3 judge, who feared not God, and regarded not man: and there was a widow in that city; and she came oft unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary. And he would not for a while: 4 but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man; yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge 5 her, lest she wear me out by her continual coming. And the Lord 6 said, Hear what the unrighteous judge saith. And shall not God 7 avenge his elect, that cry to him day and night, and yet he is longsuffering over them? I say unto you, that he will avenge 8 them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth? And he spake also this parable unto 9 certain who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and set all others at nought: Two men went up into the temple 10 to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The 11 Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week; I give tithes 12 of all that I get. But the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote his breast, saying, God, be thou merciful to me a sinner. I say unto you, 14 This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; but he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. And they were bringing unto 15 him also their babes, that he should touch them: but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. But Jesus called them 16 unto him, saying, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for to such belongeth the kingdom of God.

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom 17 of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein. And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou 19 me good? none is good, save one, even God. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor thy father and mother.
And he said, All these things have I observed from my youth up. 21 And when Jesus heard it, he said unto him, One thing thou 22 lackest yet: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.
But when he heard these things, he became exceeding sorrowful; for he was very rich. And Jesus seeing him said, How hardly 24 shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! For 25 it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle's eye, than 26 for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. And they 27 that heard it said, Then who can be saved? But he said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

28 And Peter said, Lo, we have left our own, and followed thee.
29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or wife, or brethren, or parents, or children, 30 for the kingdom of God's sake, who shall not receive manifold 31 more in this time, and in the world to come eternal life. And he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written through 32 the prophets shall be accomplished unto the Son of man. For he shall be delivered up unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, 33 and shamefully treated, and spit upon: and they shall scourge 34 and kill him: and the third day he shall rise again. And they understood none of these things; and this saying was hid from 35 them, and they perceived not the things that were said. And it came to pass, as he drew nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man 36 sat by the way side begging: and hearing a multitude going by, 37 he inquired what this meant. And they told him that Jesus of 38 Nazareth passeth by. And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of 39 David, have mercy on me. And they that went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a 40 great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when 41 he was come near, he asked him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.
42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight; thy faith hath made 43 thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

19, 2 And he entered and was passing through Jericho. And behold, a man called by name Zacchaeus; and he was a chief pub-3 lican, and he was rich. And he sought to see Jesus who he was;
and could not for the crowd, because he was little of stature.
4 And he ran on before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to 5 see him: for he was to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and said unto him, Zacchaeus, make haste, and come down; for to-day I must abide at thy house.

And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. 6 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, He is gone 7 in to lodge with a man that is a sinner. And Zacchaeus stood, 8 and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have wrongfully exacted aught of any man, I restore fourfold. And Jesus said unto him, To-day 9 salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man came to seek and to save that 10 which was lost. And as they heard these things, he added and 11 spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they supposed that the kingdom of God was immediately to appear. He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far 12 country, to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. And 13 he called ten servants of his, and gave them ten pounds, and said unto them, Trade ye herewith till I come. But his citizens 14 hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not that this man reign over us. And it came to pass, when 15 he was come back again, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these servants, unto whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by trading. And the first came before him, saying, Lord, thy 16 pound hath made ten pounds more. And he said unto him, 17 Well done, thou good servant: because thou wast found faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. And the 18 second came, saying, Thy pound, Lord, hath made five pounds.
And he said unto him also, Be thou also over five cities. And 19, 20 another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I kept laid up in a napkin: for I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that which thou layedst not down, and reapest that which thou didst not sow. He saith unto him, 22 Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant.
Thou knewest that I am an austere man, taking up that which I laid not down, and reaping that which I did not sow; then 23 wherefore gavest thou not my money into the bank, and I at my coming should have required it with interest? And he said unto 24 them that stood by, Take away from him the pound, and give it unto him that hath the ten pounds. And they said unto him, 25 Lord, he hath ten pounds. I say unto you, that unto every one 26 that hath shall be given; but from him that hath not, even that 27 which he hath shall be taken away from him. But these mine enemies, that would not that I should reign over them, bring 28 hither, and slay them before me. And when he had thus spo-29 ken, he went on before, going up to Jerusalem. And it came to pass, when he drew nigh unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the 30 mount that is called Olivet, he sent two of the disciples, saying, Go your way into the village over against you; in which as ye enter ye shall find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat: loose 31 him, and bring him. And if any one ask you, Why do ye loose 32 him? thus shall ye say, The Lord hath need of him. And they that were sent went away, and found even as he had said unto 33 them. And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof 34 said unto them, Why loose ye the colt? And they said, The 35 Lord hath need of him. And they brought him to Jesus: and they threw their garments upon the colt, and set Jesus thereon.

36, 37 And as he went, they spread their garments in the way. And as he was now drawing nigh, even at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works which 38 they had seen; saying, Blessed is the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.
39 And some of the Pharisees from the multitude said unto him, 40 Teacher, rebuke thy disciples. And he answered and said, I tell you that, if these shall hold their peace, the stones will cry out.
41, 42 And when he drew nigh, he saw the city and wept over it, saying, If thou hadst known in this day, even thou, the things which 43 belong unto peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes. For the days shall come upon thee, when thine enemies shall cast up a bank about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee 44 in on every side, and shall dash thee to the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visita-45 tion. And he entered into the temple, and began to cast out 46 them that sold, saying unto them, It is written, And my house shall be a house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of robbers.
47 And he was teaching daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the principal men of the people sought to 48 destroy him: and they could not find what they might do; for the people all hung upon him, listening.

And it came to pass, on one of the days, as he was teaching the 20 people in the temple, and preaching the gospel, there came upon him the chief priests and the scribes with the elders; and they 2 spake, saying unto him, Tell us: By what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority? And 3 he answered and said unto them, I also will ask you a question; and tell me: The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from 4 men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall 5 say, From heaven; he will say, Why did ye not believe him? But 6 if we shall say, From men; all the people will stone us: for they are persuaded that John was a prophet. And they answered, 7 that they knew not whence it was. And Jesus said unto them, 8 Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things. And he 9 began to speak unto the people this parable: A man planted a vineyard, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another 10 country for a long time. And at the season he sent unto the husbandmen a servant, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away 11 empty. And he sent yet another servant: and him also they beat, and handled him shamefully, and sent him away empty.
And he sent yet a third: and him also they wounded, and cast 12 him forth. And the lord of the vineyard said, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; it may be they will reverence him. But 14 when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned one with another, saying, This is the heir; let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours. And they cast him forth out of the vineyard, 15 and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do unto them? He will come and destroy these husbandmen, 16 and will give the vineyard unto others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid. But he looked upon them, and said, 17 What then is this that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, The same was made the head of the corner? Every 18 one that falleth on that stone shall be broken to pieces; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will scatter him as dust. And the 19 scribes and the chief priests sought to lay hands on him in that very hour; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he spake this parable against them. And they watched him, and 20 sent forth spies, who feigned themselves to be righteous, that they might take hold of his speech, so as to deliver him up to the 21 rule and to the authority of the governor. And they asked him, saying, Teacher, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, and acceptest not the person of any, but of a truth teachest the 22 way of God: Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Caesar, or 23 not? But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, 24 Show me a denarius. Whose image and superscription hath it?

25 And they said, Caesar's. And he said unto them, Then render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the 26 things that are God's. And they were not able to take hold of the saying before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, 27 and held their peace. And there came to him certain of the 28 Sadducees, they that say that there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying, Teacher, Moses wrote unto us, that if a man's brother die, having a wife, and he be childless, his brother should 29 take the wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died 30, 31 childless; and the second: and the third took her; and likewise 32 the seven also left no children, and died. Afterward the woman 33 also died. In the resurrection therefore whose wife of them shall 34 she be? for the seven had her to wife. And Jesus said unto them, The sons of this world marry, and are given in marriage: 35 but they that are accounted worthy to attain to that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given 36 in marriage: for neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are sons of God, being sons of the 37 resurrection. But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed, in the place concerning the Bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.
38 Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living: for all live 39 unto him. And certain of the scribes answering said, Teacher, 40 thou hast well said. For they durst not any more ask him any 41 question. And he said unto them, How say they that the Christ 42 is David's son? For David himself saith in the book of Psalms, 43 The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Till 44 I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet. David therefore 45 calleth him Lord, and how is he his son? And in the hearing of 46 all the people he said unto his disciples, Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes, and love salutations in the marketplaces, and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at feasts; who devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make 47 long prayers: these shall receive greater condemnation.

And he looked up, and saw the rich men that were casting 21 their gifts into the treasury. And he saw a certain poor widow 2 casting in thither two mites. And he said, Of a truth I say unto 3 you, This poor widow cast in more than they all: for all these 4 did of their superfluity cast in unto the gifts; but she of her want did cast in all the living that she had. And as some spake of the 5 temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and offerings, he said, As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in 6 which there shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. And they asked him, saying, Teacher, 7 when therefore shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when these things are about to come to pass? And he said, Take 8 heed that ye be not led astray: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am he; and, The time is at hand: go ye not after them.
And when ye shall hear of wars and tumults, be not terrified: 9 for these things must needs come to pass first; but the end is not immediately. Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against 10 nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there shall be great 11 earthquakes, and in divers places famines and pestilences; and there shall be terrors and great signs from heaven. But before 12 all these things, they shall lay their hands on you, and shall persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for my name's sake. It 13 shall turn out unto you for a testimony. Settle it therefore in 14 your hearts, not to meditate beforehand how to answer: for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries 15 shall not be able to withstand or to gainsay. But ye shall be delivered up even by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolk, and 16 friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.
And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. And not 17, 18 a hair of your head shall perish. In your patience ye shall win 19 your souls. But when ye see Jerusalem compassed with armies, 20 then know that her desolation is at hand. Then let them that 21 are in Judaea flee unto the mountains; and let them that are in the midst of her depart out; and let not them that are in the country enter therein. For these are days of vengeance, that 22 all things which are written may be fulfilled. Woe unto them 23 that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! for there shall be great distress upon the land, and wrath unto 24 this people. And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led captive into all the nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles 25 be fulfilled. And there shall be signs in sun and moon and stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, in perplexity for 26 the roaring of the sea and the billows; men fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on the world: for 27 the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great 28 glory. But when these things begin to come to pass, look up, and lift up your heads; because your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable: Behold the fig tree, and all the trees: when they now shoot forth, ye see it and know of your 30 own selves that the summer is now nigh. Even so ye also, when ye see these things coming to pass, know ye that the kingdom of 32 God is nigh. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not 33 pass away, till all things be accomplished. Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away. But take 34 heed to yourselves, lest haply your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day 35 come on you suddenly as a snare: for so shall it come upon all 36 them that dwell on the face of all the earth. But watch ye at every season, making supplication, that ye may prevail to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the 37 Son of man. And every day he was teaching in the temple; and every night he went out, and lodged in the mount that is called 38 Olivet. And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, to hear him.

22 Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called 2 the Passover. And the chief priests and the scribes sought how 3 they might put him to death; for they feared the people. And Satan entered into Judas who was called Iscariot, being of the 4 number of the twelve. And he went away, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might deliver him unto 5 them. And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.
6 And he consented, and sought opportunity to deliver him unto 7 them in the absence of the multitude. And the day of unleavened bread came, on which the passover must be sacrificed. And 8 he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and make ready for us the passover, that we may eat. And they said unto him, Where 9 wilt thou that we make ready? And he said unto them, Be- 10 hold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where-into he goeth. And ye shall say unto the master of the house, 11 The Teacher saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? And he will show 12 you a large upper room furnished: there make ready. And they 13 went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover. And when the hour was come, he sat down, and 14 the apostles with him. And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer: for I 16 say unto you, I shall not eat it, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. And he received a cup, and when he had given thanks, 17 he said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves: for I say unto 18 you, I shall not drink from henceforth of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. And he took bread, and 19 when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave to them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. And the cup in like manner after supper, saying, This 20 cup is the new covenant in my blood, even that which is poured out for you. But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is 21 with me on the table. For the Son of man indeed goeth, as it hath been determined: but woe unto that man through whom he is betrayed! And they began to question among themselves, 23 which of them it was that should do this thing. And there arose also a contention among them, which of them was accounted to be greatest. And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles 25 have lordship over them; and they that have authority over them are called Benefactors. But ye shall not be so: but he that is 26 the greater among you, let him become as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. For which is greater, he 27 that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am in the midst of you as he that serveth. But ye 28 are they that have continued with me in my temptations; and I appoint unto you a kingdom, even as my Father appointed unto me, that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom; 30 and ye shall sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 Simon, Simon, behold, Satan asked to have you, that he might 32 sift you as wheat: but I made supplication for thee, that thy faith fail not; and do thou, when once thou hast turned again, 33 establish thy brethren. And he said unto him, Lord, with thee 34 I am ready to go both to prison and to death. And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, until thou shalt 35 thrice deny that thou knowest me. And he said unto them, When I sent you forth without purse, and wallet, and shoes, 36 lacked ye anything? And they said, Nothing. And he said unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise a wallet; and he that hath none, let him sell his cloak, and 37 buy a sword. For I say unto you, that this which is written must be fulfilled in me, And he was reckoned with transgressors: 38 for that which concerneth me hath fulfilment. And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is 39 enough. And he came out, and went, as his custom was, unto 40 the mount of Olives; and the disciples also followed him. And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter 41 not into temptation. And he was parted from them about a 42 stone's cast; and he kneeled down and prayed, saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not 43 my will, but thine, be done. And there appeared unto him an 44 angel from heaven, strengthening him. And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly; and his sweat became as it were great 45 drops of blood falling down upon the ground. And when he rose up from his prayer, he came unto the disciples, and found 46 them sleeping for sorrow, and said unto them, Why sleep ye?
47 rise and pray, that ye enter not into temptation. While he yet spake, behold, a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them; and he drew near unto Jesus 48 to kiss him. But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou 49 the Son of man with a kiss? And when they that were about him saw what would follow, they said, Lord, shall we smite with 50 the sword? And a certain one of them smote the servant of the 51 high priest, and struck off his right ear. But Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye them thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed 52 him. And Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and elders, that were come against him, Are ye come out, as against a robber, with swords and staves? When I was 53 daily with you in the temple, ye stretched not forth your hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

And they seized him, and led him away, and brought him into 54 the high priest's house. But Peter followed afar off. And when 55 they had kindled a fire in the midst of the court, and had sat down together, Peter sat in the midst of them. And a certain 56 maid seeing him as he sat in the light of the fire, and looking stedfastly upon him, said, This man also was with him. But 57 he denied, saying, Woman, I know him not. And after a little 58 while another saw him, and said, Thou also art one of them. But Peter said, Man, I am not. And after the space of about one 59 hour another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this man also was with him; for he is a Galilaeen. But Peter said, Man, 60 I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew. And the Lord turned, and looked upon 61 Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how that he said unto him, Before the cock crow this day thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly. And the men that 62, 63 held Jesus mocked him, and beat him. And they blindfolded 64 him, and asked him, saying, Prophecy: who is he that struck thee? And many other things spake they against him, reviling 65 him. And as soon as it was day, the assembly of the elders of 66 the people was gathered together, both chief priests and scribes; and they led him away into their council, saying, If thou art 67 the Christ, tell us. But he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe: and if I ask you, ye will not answer. But from 68, 69 henceforth shall the Son of man be seated at the right hand of the power of God. And they all said, Art thou then the Son 70 of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am. And they 71 said, What further need have we of witness? for we ourselves have heard from his own mouth.

And the whole company of them rose up, and brought him 23 before Pilate. And they began to accuse him, saying, We found 2 this man perverting our nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, and saying that he himself is Christ a king. And 3 Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest. And Pilate said unto 4 the chief priests and the multitudes, I find no fault in this man.

5 But they were the more urgent, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Judaea, and beginning from Galilee even 6 unto this place. But when Pilate heard it, he asked whether 7 the man were a Galilaean. And when he knew that he was of Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him unto Herod, who himself also 8 was at Jerusalem in these days. Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was of a long time desirous to see 9 him, because he had heard concerning him; and he hoped to see some miracle done by him. And he questioned him in many 10 words; but he answered him nothing. And the chief priests and 11 the scribes stood, vehemently accusing him. And Herod with his soldiers set him at nought, and mocked him, and arraying 12 him in gorgeous apparel sent him back to Pilate. And Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day: for 13 before they were at enmity between themselves. And Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, 14 and said unto them, Ye brought unto me this man, as one that perverteth the people: and behold, I having examined him before you, found no fault in this man touching those things whereof 15 ye accuse him: no, nor yet Herod: for he sent him back unto us; and behold, nothing worthy of death hath been done by 16, 17 him. I will therefore chastise him, and release him. Now he 18 must needs release unto them at the feast one prisoner. But they cried out all together, saying, Away with this man, and 19 release unto us Barabbas: — one who for a certain insurrection made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison. And 20 Pilate spake unto them again, desiring to release Jesus; but they shouted, saying, Crucify, crucify him. And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath this man done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him 21 and release him. But they were urgent with loud voices, asking 22 that he might be crucified. And their voices prevailed. And Pilate gave sentence that what they asked for should be done.
23 And he released him that for insurrection and murder had been cast into prison, whom they asked for; but Jesus he delivered 24 up to their will. And when they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on 25 him the cross, to bear it after Jesus. And there followed him a great multitude of the people, and of women who bewailed and 26 27 lamented him. But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters 28 of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. For behold, the days are coming, in which 29 they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the breasts that never gave suck. Then shall they 30 begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. For if they do these things in the green tree, what shall be 31 done in the dry? And there were also two others, malefactors, 32 led with him to be put to death. And when they came unto 33 the place which is called The skull, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand and the other on the left. And Jesus said, Father, forgive them; for they know 34 not what they do. And parting his garments among them, they cast lots. And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also 35 scoffed at him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if this is the Christ of God, his chosen. And the soldiers also 36 mocked him, coming to him, offering him vinegar, and saying, 37 If thou art the King of the Jews, save thyself. And there was 38 also a superscription over him, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS. And one of the malefactors that were hanged railed on 39 him, saying, Art not thou the Christ? save thyself and us. But 40 the other answered, and rebuking him said, Dost thou not even fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? And we 41 indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss. And he said, Jesus, remember 42 me when thou comest in thy kingdom. And he said unto him, 43 Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.

And it was now about the sixth hour, and a darkness came over 44 the whole land until the ninth hour, the sun's light failing: and 45 the veil of the temple was rent in the midst. And Jesus, crying 46 with a loud voice, said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said this, he gave up the ghost. And when the 47 centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man. And all the multitudes that came 48 together to this sight, when they beheld the things that were done, returned smiting their breasts. And all his acquaintance, 49 and the women that followed with him from Galilee, stood afar off, seeing these things. And behold, a man named Joseph, 50 who was a councillor, a good and righteous man (he had not 51 consented to their counsel and deed), a man of Arimathaea, a 52 city of the Jews, who was looking for the kingdom of God: this 53 man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. And he took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was hewn in stone, where never man had yet lain.

54 And it was the day of the Preparation, and the sabbath drew 55 on. And the women, who had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and beheld the tomb, and how his body was laid.
56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments. And on the sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

24 But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came unto the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared.
2, 3 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb. And they 4 entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass, while they were perplexed thereabout, behold, two 5 men stood by them in dazzling apparel: and as they were affrighted and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto 6 them, Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet 7 in Galilee, saying that the Son of man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise 8, 9 again. And they remembered his words, and returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest.
10 Now they were Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James: and the other women with them told these 11 things unto the apostles. And these words appeared in their 12 sight as idle talk; and they disbelieved them. But Peter arose, and ran unto the tomb; and stooping and looking in, he seeth the linen cloths by themselves; and he departed to his home, 13 wondering at that which was come to pass. And behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, 14 which was threescore furlongs from Jerusalem. And they communed with each other of all these things which had happened.
15 And it came to pass, while they communed and questioned to-16 gether, that Jesus himself drew near, and went with them. But 17 their eyes were holden that they should not know him. And he said unto them, What communications are these that ye have one with another, as ye walk? And they stood still, looking sad.
18 And one of them, named Cleopas, answering said unto him, Dost thou alone sojourn in Jerusalem and not know the things which are come to pass there in these days? And he said unto them, 19 What things? And they said unto him, The things concerning Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people: and how the chief priests and our 20 rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. But we hoped that it was he who should redeem Israel. 21 Yea and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things came to pass. Moreover certain women of our company amazed 22 us, having been early at the tomb; and when they found not his 23 body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. And certain of them that were 24 with us went to the tomb, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not. And he said unto them, O foolish 25 men, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! Behooved it not the Christ to suffer these things, and 26 to enter into his glory? And beginning from Moses and from 27 all the prophets, he interpreted to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. And they drew nigh unto the village, 28 whither they were going: and he made as though he would go further. And they constrained him, saying, Abide with us; for it 29 is toward evening, and the day is now far spent. And he went in to abide with them. And it came to pass, when he had sat down 30 with them to meat, he took the bread and blessed; and breaking it he gave to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew 31 him; and he vanished out of their sight. And they said one to 32 another, Was not our heart burning within us, while he spake to us in the way, while he opened to us the scriptures? And they 33 rose up that very hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon. 34 And they rehearsed the things that happened in the way, and 35 how he was known of them in the breaking of the bread. And 36 as they spake these things, he himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. But they were terrified 37 and affrighted, and supposed that they beheld a spirit. And he 38 said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore do questionings arise in your heart? See my hands and my feet, that 39 it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and 40 bones, as ye behold me having. And when he had said this, 41 he showed them his hands and his feet. And while they still disbelieved for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye 42 here anything to eat? And they gave him a piece of a broiled 43, 44 fish. And he took it, and ate before them. And he said unto them, These are my words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must needs be fulfilled, which are written in the law of Moses, and the prophets, and the psalms, 45 concerning me. Then opened he their mind, that they might 46 understand the scriptures; and he said unto them, Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer, and rise again from the 47 dead the third day; and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name unto all the nations, beginning 48, 49 from Jerusalem. Ye are witnesses of these things. And behold, I send forth the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in 50 the city, until ye be clothed with power from on high. And he led them out until they were over against Bethany: and he lifted 51 up his hands, and blessed them. And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he parted from them, and was carried up into 52 heaven. And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem 53 with great joy: and were continually in the temple, blessing God.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN.

 n the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with 1 God, and the Word was God. The same was in the 2 beginning with God. All things were made through 3 him; and without him was not anything made that 4 hath been made. In him was life; and the life was the light of 5 men. And the light shineth in the darkness; and the darkness 6 apprehended it not. There came a man, sent from God, whose 7 name was John. The same came for witness, that he might 8 bear witness of the light, that all might believe through him. 9 He was not the light, but came that he might bear witness of 10 the light. There was the true light, even the light which lighteth 11 every man, coming into the world. He was in the world, and 12 the world was made through him, and the world knew him not. 13 He came unto his own, and they that were his own received him 14 not. But as many as received him, to them gave he the right to 15 become children of God, even to them that believe on his name: 16 who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor 17 of the will of man, but of God. And the Word became flesh, 18 and dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, glory as of the 19 only begotten from the Father), full of grace and truth. John 20 beareth witness of him, and crieth, saying, This was he of whom 21 I said, He that cometh after me is become before me: for he was before me. For of his fulness we all received, and grace for grace. For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him. And this is the witness of John, when the Jews sent unto him from Jerusalem priests and Levites to ask him, Who art thou? And he confessed, and denied not; and he confessed, I am not the Christ. And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elijah? And he saith, I am not. Art thou the 22 prophet? And he answered, No. They said therefore unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent 23 us. What sayest thou of thyself? He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, 24 as said Isaiah the prophet. And they had been sent from the 25 Pharisees. And they asked him, and said unto him, Why then baptizest thou, if thou art not the Christ, neither Elijah, neither 26 the prophet? John answered them, saying, I baptize in water: 27 in the midst of you standeth one whom ye know not, even he that cometh after me, the latchet of whose shoe I am not worthy 28 to unloose. These things were done in Bethany beyond the 29 Jordan, where John was baptizing. On the morrow he seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold, the Lamb of God, 30 that taketh away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man who is become before me: for he 31 was before me. And I knew him not; but that he should be made 32 manifest to Israel, for this cause came I baptizing in water. And John bare witness, saying, I have beheld the Spirit descending 33 as a dove out of heaven; and it abode upon him. And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize in water, he said unto me, Upon whomsoever thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and abiding upon him, the same is he that baptizeth in the Holy 34 Spirit. And I have seen, and have borne witness that this is the 35 Son of God. Again on the morrow John was standing, and two 36 of his disciples; and he looked upon Jesus as he walked, and 37 saith, Behold, the Lamb of God! And the two disciples heard 38 him speak, and they followed Jesus. And Jesus turned, and beheld them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? And they said unto him, Rabbi (which is to say, being interpreted, 39 Teacher), where abideth thou? He saith unto them, Come, and ye shall see. They came therefore and saw where he abode; and 40 they abode with him that day: it was about the tenth hour. One of the two that heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, 41 Simon Peter's brother. He findeth first his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messiah (which is, being 42 interpreted, Christ). He brought him unto Jesus. Jesus looked upon him, and said, Thou art Simon the son of John: thou shalt 43 be called Cephas (which is by interpretation, Peter). On the morrow he was minded to go forth into Galilee, and he findeth

Philip: and Jesus saith unto him, Follow me. Now Philip was 44 from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip findeth 45 Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. And Nathanael said unto him, Can any good 46 thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see. Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, 47 Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile! Nathanael 48 saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. Nathanael answered him, Rabbi, thou 49 art the Son of God; thou art King of Israel. Jesus answered and 50 said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee underneath the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these. And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye 51 shall see the heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; 2 and the mother of Jesus was there: and Jesus also was bidden, 2 and his disciples, to the marriage. And when the wine failed, the 3 mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. And Jesus 4 saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come. His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever 5 he saith unto you, do it. Now there were six waterpots of stone 6 set there after the Jews' manner of purifying, containing two or three firkins apiece. Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots 7 with water. And they filled them up to the brim. And he saith 8 unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the ruler of the feast.
And they bare it. And when the ruler of the feast tasted the 9 water now become wine, and knew not whence it was (but the servants that had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast calleth the bridegroom, and saith unto him, Every man setteth 10 on first the good wine; and when men have drunk freely, then that which is worse: thou hast kept the good wine until now.
This beginning of his signs did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and 11 manifested his glory; and his disciples believed on him. After 12 this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples; and there they abode not many days.
And the passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up 13

14 to Jerusalem. And he found in the temple those that sold oxen 15 and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: and he made a scourge of cords, and cast all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money, 16 and overthrew their tables; and to them that sold the doves he said, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house 17 a house of merchandise. His disciples remembered that it was 18 written, Zeal for thy house shall eat me up. The Jews therefore answered and said unto him, What sign showest thou unto us, 19 seeing that thou doest these things? Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise 20 it up. The Jews therefore said, Forty and six years was this 21 temple in building, and wilt thou raise it up in three days? But 22 he spake of the temple of his body. When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he spake this; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus 23 had said. Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, during the feast, many believed on his name, beholding his signs which 24 he did. But Jesus did not trust himself unto them, for that he 25 knew all men, and because he needed not that any one should bear witness concerning man; for he himself knew what was in man.

3 Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, 2 a ruler of the Jews: the same came unto him by night, and said to him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no one can do these signs that thou doest, except God 3 be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except one be born anew, he cannot see the 4 kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter a second time into his 5 mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except one be born of water and the Spirit, he 6 cannot enter into the kingdom of God! That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.
7, 8 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born anew. The wind bloweth where it will, and thou hearest the voice thereof, but knowest not whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is 9 every one that is born of the Spirit. Nicodemus answered and 10 said unto him, How can these things be? Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou the teacher of Israel, and understandest not these things? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that which we know, and bear witness of that which we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. If I told you earthly things and ye believe not, how shall ye believe if I tell you heavenly things? And no one hath ascended into heaven, but he that descended out of heaven, even the Son of man, who is in heaven. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up; that whosoever believeth may in him have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God sent not the Son into the world to judge the world; but that the world should be saved through him. He that believeth on him is not judged: he that believeth not hath been judged already, because he hath not believed on the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the judgment, that the light is come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, and cometh not to the light, lest his works should be reproved. But he that doeth the truth cometh to the light, that his works may be made manifest, that they have been wrought in God. After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there he tarried with them, and baptized. And John also was baptizing in Enon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized. For John was not yet cast into prison. There arose therefore a questioning on the part of John's disciples with a Jew about purifying. And they came unto John, and said to him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond the Jordan, to whom thou hast borne witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him. John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it have been given him from heaven. Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but, that I am sent before him. He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, that standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is made full. He must increase, but I must decrease. He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is of the earth, and of the earth 32 he speaketh: he that cometh from heaven is above all. What he hath seen and heard, of that he beareth witness; and no man 33 receiveth his witness. He that hath received his witness hath 34 set his seal to this, that God is true. For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for he giveth not the Spirit by 35 measure. The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things 36 into his hand. He that believeth on the Son hath eternal life; but he that obeyeth not the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

4 When therefore the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John 2, 3 (although Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples), he left 4 Judea, and departed again into Galilee. And he must needs 5 pass through Samaria. So he cometh to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his 6 son Joseph: and Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus by the well. It was about the 7 sixth hour. There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: 8 Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink. For his disciples were 9 gone away into the city to buy food. The Samaritan woman therefore saith unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, who am a Samaritan woman? (For Jews have no 10 dealings with Samaritans.) Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would 11 have given thee living water. The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: whence 12 then hast thou that living water? Art thou greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, 13 and his sons, and his cattle? Jesus answered and said unto her, 14 Every one that drinketh of this water shall thirst again: but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall become in him a 15 well of water springing up unto eternal life. The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come 16 all the way hither to draw. Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy 17 husband, and come hither. The woman answered and said unto him, I have no husband. Jesus saith unto her, Thou saidst well, 18 I have no husband: for thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: this hast thou said truly. The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet. Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, shall ye worship the Father. Ye worship that which ye know not: we worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth: for such doth the Father seek to be his worshippers. God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship in spirit and truth. The woman saith unto him, I know that Messiah cometh (he that is called Christ): when he is come, he will declare unto us all things. Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he. And upon this came his disciples; and they marvelled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why speakest thou with her? So the woman left her waterpot, and went away into the city, and saith to the people, Come, see a man, who told me all things that ever I did: can this be the Christ? They went out of the city, and were coming to him. In the mean while the disciples prayed him, saying, Rabbi, eat. But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not. The disciples therefore said one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat? Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to accomplish his work. Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh the harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, that they are white already unto harvest. He that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. For herein is the saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth. I sent you to reap that whereon ye have not labored: others have labored, and ye are entered into their labor. And from that city many of the Samaritans believed on him because of the word of the woman, who testified, He told me all things that ever I did. So when the Samaritans came unto him, they besought him to abide with them: and he abode there two days. And many more believed because of his word; and they said to the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy speaking: for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this 43 is indeed the Saviour of the world. And after the two days he 44 went forth from thence into Galilee. For Jesus himself testified, 45 that a prophet hath no honor in his own country. So when he came into Galilee, the Galilaeans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast: for they 46 also went unto the feast. He came therefore again unto Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a 47 certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judaea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal 48 his son; for he was at the point of death. Jesus therefore said unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will in no wise 49 believe. The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my 50 child die. Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth.

The man believed the word that Jesus spake unto him, and he 51 went his way. And as he was now going down, his servants 52 met him, saying, that his son lived. So he inquired of them the hour when he began to amend. They said therefore unto him, 53 Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said unto him, Thy 54 son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house. This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judaea into Galilee.

5 After these things there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus 2 went up to Jerusalem. Now there is in Jerusalem by the sheep gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew Bethesda, having five 3 porches. In these lay a multitude of them that were sick, blind, 4 halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water. for an angel of the Lord went down at certain seasons into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the waters stepped in was made whole, with whatsoever disease he 5 was holden. And a certain man was there, who had been thirty 6 and eight years in his infirmity. When Jesus saw him lying, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he 7 saith unto him, Wouldest thou be made whole? The sick man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth 8 down before me. Jesus saith unto him, Arise, take up thy bed, and walk. And straightway the man was made whole, and took 9 up his bed and walked. Now it was the sabbath on that day. So 10 the Jews said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath, and it is not lawful for thee to take up thy bed. But he answered 11 them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk. They asked him, Who is the man that said 12 unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk? But he that was healed 13 knew not who it was; for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in the place. Afterward Jesus findeth him in 14 the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing befall thee. The man went 15 away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him whole. And for this cause the Jews persecuted Jesus, because 16 he did these things on the sabbath. But Jesus answered them, 17 My Father worketh even until now, and I work. For this cause 18 therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only brake the sabbath, but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God. Jesus therefore answered and 19 said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father doing: for what things soever he doeth, these the Son also doeth in like manner.

For the Father loveth the Son, and showeth him all things that 20 himself doeth: and greater works than these will he show him, that ye may marvel. For as the Father raiseth the dead and 21 giveth them life, even so the Son also giveth life to whom he will. For neither doth the Father judge any man, but he hath 22 given all judgment unto the Son; that all may honor the Son, 23 even as they honor the Father. He that honoreth not the Son honoreth not the Father that sent him. Verily, verily, I say unto 24 you, He that heareth my word, and believeth him that sent me, hath eternal life, and cometh not into judgment, but hath passed out of death into life. Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour 25 cometh, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live. For as the Father hath life 26 in himself, even so gave he to the SON also to have life in himself: and he gave him authority to execute judgment, because he is a 27 son of man. Marvel not at this: for the hour cometh, in which 28 all that are in the tombs shall hear his voice, and shall come 29 forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of judgment.

30 I can of myself do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is righteous; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of 31 him that sent me. If I bear witness of myself, my witness is 32 not true. It is another that beareth witness of me; and I know 33 that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true. Ye have 34 sent unto John, and he hath borne witness unto the truth. But the witness which I receive is not from man: howbeit I say these 35 things, that ye may be saved. He was the lamp that burneth and shineth; and ye were willing to rejoyce for a season in his light.
36 But the witness which I have is greater than that of John; for the works which the Father hath given me to accomplish, the very works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath 37 sent me. And the Father that sent me, he hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his 38 form. And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he 39 sent, him ye believe not. Ye search the scriptures, because ye think that in them ye have eternal life; and these are they which 40 bear witness of me; and ye will not come to me, that ye may 41, 42 have life. I receive not glory from men. But I know you, that 43 ye have not the love of God in yourselves. I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in 44 his own name, him ye will receive. How can ye believe, who receive glory one of another, and the glory that cometh from the 45 only God ye seek not? Think not that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, on whom ye 46 have set your hope. For if ye believed Moses, ye would believe 47 me; for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

6 After these things Jesus went away to the other side of the sea 2 of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias. And a great multitude followed him, because they beheld the signs which he did on 3 them that were sick. And Jesus went up into the mountain, 4 and there he sat with his disciples. Now the passover, the feast 5 of the Jews, was at hand. Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude cometh unto him, saith unto 6 Philip, Whence are we to buy bread, that these may eat? And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.
7 Philip answered him, Two hundred shillings' worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one may take a little. One 8 of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, There is a lad here, who hath five barley loaves, and two fishes: 9 but what are these among so many? Jesus said, Make the people 10 sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. Jesus therefore took 11 the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to them that were set down; likewise also of the fishes as much as they would.

And when they were filled, he saith unto his disciples, Gather 12 up the broken pieces which remain over, that nothing be lost.
So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken 13 pieces from the five barley loaves, which remained over unto them that had eaten. When therefore the people saw the sign which 14 he did, they said, This is of a truth the prophet that cometh into the world. Jesus therefore perceiving that they were about to 15 come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again into the mountain himself alone. And when evening came, his 16 disciples went down unto the sea; and they entered into a boat, 17 and were going over the sea unto Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. And the sea was 18 rising by reason of a great wind that blew. When therefore they 19 had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they behold Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the boat: and they were afraid. But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid. 20 They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat: and 21 straightway the boat was at the land whither they were going.
On the morrow the multitude that stood on the other side of 22 the sea saw that there was no other boat there, save one, and that Jesus entered not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples went away alone (howbeit there came boats from 23 Tiberias nigh unto the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks): when the multitude therefore saw that 24 Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they themselves got into the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. And 25 when they found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither? Jesus answered them 26 and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw signs, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were filled.
Work not for the food which perisheth, but for the food which 27 abideth unto eternal life, which the Son of man shall give unto 28 you: for him the Father, even God, hath sealed. They said therefore unto him, What must we do, that we may work the 29 works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the 30 work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. They said therefore unto him, What then doest thou for a sign, that 31 we may see, and believe thee? what workest thou? Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, He gave them 32 bread out of heaven to eat. Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, It was not Moses that gave you the bread out of heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread out 33 of heaven. For the bread of God is that which cometh down out 34 of heaven, and giveth life unto the world. They said therefore 35 unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread. Jesus said unto them. I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall not 36 hunger, and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. But I 37 said unto you, that ye have seen me, and yet believe not. All that which the Father giveth me shall come unto me; and him 38 that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. For I am come down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him 39 that sent me. And this is the will of him that sent me, that of all that which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should 40 raise it up at the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that every one that beholdeth the Son, and believeth on him, should 41 have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, I am 42 the bread which came down out of heaven. And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know?

43 how doth he now say, I am come down out of heaven? Jesus answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.
44 No man can come to me, except the Father that sent me draw 45 him: and I will raise him up in the last day. It is written in the prophets, And they shall all be taught of God. Every one that hath heard from the Father, and hath learned, cometh unto me.
46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he that is from 47 God, he hath seen the Father. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He 48, 49 that believeth hath eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your 50 fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread which cometh down out of heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. I am the living bread which came down 51 out of heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: yea and the bread which I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world. The Jews therefore strove one with another, saying, How 52 can this man give us his flesh to eat? Jesus therefore said unto 53 them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, ye have not life in yourselves.

He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life: 54 and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is meat 55 indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He that eateth my flesh 56 and drinketh my blood abideth in me, and I in him. As the 57 living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father; so he that eateth me, he also shall live because of me. This is the 58 bread which came down out of heaven: not as the fathers ate, and died; he that eateth this bread shall live for ever. These 59 things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.
Many therefore of his disciples, when they heard this, said, This 60 is a hard saying; who can hear it? But Jesus knowing in himself 61 that his disciples murmured at this, said unto them, Doth this cause you to stumble? What then if ye should behold the Son 62 of man ascending where he was before? It is the spirit that 63 giveth life; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I have spoken unto you are spirit, and are life. But there are some of 64 you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who it was that should betray him. And he said, For this cause have I said unto you, that 65 no man can come unto me, except it be given unto him of the Father. Upon this many of his disciples went back, and walked 66 no more with him. Jesus said therefore unto the twelve, Would 67 ye also go away? Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom 68 shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life. And we have 69 believed and know that thou art the Holy One of God. Jesus 70 answered them, Did not I choose you the twelve, and one of you is a devil? Now he spake of Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for 71 he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

And after these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would 7 not walk in Judaea, because the Jews sought to kill him. Now 2 the feast of the Jews, the feast of tabernacles, was at hand.
His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into 3

Judaea, that thy disciples also may behold thy works which thou doest. For no man doeth anything in secret, and himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou doest these things, manifest thyself to the world. For even his brethren did not believe on him. Jesus therefore saith unto them, My time is not yet come; but your time is always ready. The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that its works are evil. Go ye up unto the feast: I go not up unto this feast; because my time is not yet fulfilled. And having said these things unto them, he abode still in Galilee. But when his brethren were gone up unto the feast, then went he also up, not publicly, but as it were in secret. The Jews therefore sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he? And there was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him: some said, He is a good man; others said, Not so, but he leadeth the multitude astray. Yet no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews. But when it was now the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught. The Jews therefore marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? Jesus therefore answered them and said, My teaching is not mine, but his that sent me. If any man willeth to do his will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it is of God, or whether I speak from myself. He that speaketh from himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh the glory of him that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you doeth the law? Why seek ye to kill me? The multitude answered, Thou hast a demon: who seeketh to kill thee? Jesus answered and said unto them, I did one work, and ye all marvel because thereof. Moses hath given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers); and on the sabbath ye circumcise a man. If a man receiveth circumcision on the sabbath, that the law of Moses may not be broken; are ye wroth with me, because I made a man every whit whole on the sabbath? Judge not according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment. Some therefore of them of Jerusalem said, Is not this he whom they seek to kill? And lo, he speaketh openly, and they say nothing unto him. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is the Christ? Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no one knoweth whence he is. Jesus therefore cried in the temple, teaching and saying, Ye both know me, and know whence I am; and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not. I know him; because I am from him, and he sent me. They sought therefore to take him: and no man laid his hand on him, because his hour was not yet come. But of the multitude many believed on him; and they said, When the Christ shall come, will he do more signs than those which this man hath done? The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him; and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to take him. Jesus therefore said, Yet a little while am I with you, and I go unto him that sent me. Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, ye cannot come. The Jews therefore said among themselves, Whither will this man go that we shall not find him? will he go unto the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? What is this word that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me; and where I am, ye cannot come? Now on the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, from within him shall flow rivers of living water. But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believed on him were to receive: for the Spirit was not yet given; because Jesus was not yet glorified. Some of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, This is of a truth the prophet. Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, What, doth the Christ come out of Galilee? Hath not the scripture said that the Christ cometh of the seed of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was? So there arose a division in the multitude because of him. And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him. The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why did ye not bring him? The officers answered, Never man so spake. The Pharisees therefore answered them, Are ye also led astray? Hath any of the rulers believed on him, or of the Pharisees? But this multitude that knoweth not the law are accursed. Nicodemus saith unto them (he that came to him before, being one of them), Doth our law judge a man, except it first hear from himself and know what he doeth? They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and see that out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

53 [And they went every man unto his own house:

8, 2 but Jesus went unto the mount of Olives. And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came 3 unto him; and he sat down, and taught them. And the scribes and the Pharisees bring a woman taken in adultery; and having 4 set her in the midst, they say unto him, Teacher, this woman hath been taken in adultery, in the very act. Now in the law 5 Moses commanded us to stone such: what then sayest thou of her? And this they said, trying him, that they might have 6 whereof to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his 7 finger wrote on the ground. But when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without 8 sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. And again he 9 stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground. And they, when they heard it, went out one by one, beginning from 10 the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman, where she was, in the midst. And Jesus lifted up 11 himself, and said unto her, Woman, where are they? did no man condemn thee? And she said, No man, Lord. And Jesus 12 said, Neither do I condemn thee: go thy way; from henceforth sin no more.] Again therefore Jesus spake unto them, saying, I 13 am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life. The Pharisees 14 therefore said unto him, Thou bearest witness of thyself; thy witness is not true. Jesus answered and said unto them, Even 15 if I bear witness of myself, my witness is true; for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye know not whence I come, or 16 whither I go. Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man. Yea and if I judge, my judgment is true; for I am not alone, but I 17 and the Father that sent me. Yea and in your law it is written, that the witness of two men is true. I am he that beareth 18 witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me. They said therefore unto him, Where is thy Father?
19 Jesus answered, Ye know neither me, nor my Father: if ye knew me, ye would know my Father also. These words spake he in 20 the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man took him; because his hour was not yet come. He said therefore again unto 21 them, I go away, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sin:

whither I go, ye cannot come. The Jews therefore said, Will he 22 kill himself, that he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come? And 23 he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world. I said therefore unto you, 24 that ye shall die in your sins: for except ye believe that I am he, ye shall die in your sins. They said therefore unto him, Who art 25 thou? Jesus said unto them, Even that which I have also spoken unto you from the beginning. I have many things to speak and 26 to judge concerning you: howbeit he that sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these speak I unto the world.
They perceived not that he spake to them of the Father. Jesus 27, 28 therefore said, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself, but as the Father taught me, I speak these things. And he that 29 sent me is with me; he hath not left me alone; for I do always the things that are pleasing to him. As he spake these things, 30 many believed on him. Jesus therefore said to those Jews that had believed him, If ye abide in my word, then are ye truly my 31 disciples; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. They answered unto him, We are Abraham's seed, and 33 have never yet been in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say 34 unto you, Every one that committeth sin is the bondservant of sin. And the bondservant abideth not in the house for ever: the 35 son abideth for ever. If therefore the Son shall make you free, 36 ye shall be free indeed. I know that ye are Abraham's seed: yet 37 ye seek to kill me, because my word hath not free course in you.
I speak the things which I have seen with my Father: and ye also 38 do the things which ye heard from your father. They answered 39 and said unto him, Our father is Abraham. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told 40 you the truth, which I heard from God: this did not Abraham.
Ye do the works of your father. They said unto him, We were 41 not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God. Jesus 42 said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I came forth and am come from God; for neither have I come of myself, but he sent me. Why do ye not understand my speech? 43 Even because ye cannot hear my word. Ye are of your father 44 the devil, and the lusts of your father it is your will to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and standeth not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father thereof.

45, 46 But because I say the truth, ye believe me not. Which of you convicteth me of sin? If I say truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 He that is of God heareth the words of God: for this cause ye 48 hear them not, because ye are not of God. The Jews answered and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a demon? Jesus answered, I have not a demon; but

49 I honor my Father, and ye dishonor me. But I seek not mine

50 own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth. Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my word, he shall never see death.

51 The Jews said unto him, Now we know that thou hast a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep

52 my word, he shall never taste of death. Art thou greater than our father Abraham, who died? and the prophets died: whom 53 makest thou thyself? Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing: it is my Father that glorifieth me; of whom ye

54 say, that he is your God; and ye have not known him: but I know him; and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be like 55 unto you, a liar: but I know him, and keep his word. Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day; and he saw it, and was

56 glad. The Jews therefore said unto him, Thou art not yet fifty 57 years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was born, I am.

58 They took up stones therefore to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple.

9, 2 And as he passed by, he saw a man blind from his birth. And his disciples asked him, saying, Rabbi, who sinned, this man, or

3 his parents, that he should be born blind? Jesus answered, Neither did this man sin, nor his parents: but that the works of 4 God should be made manifest in him. We must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when

5 no man can work. When I am in the world, I am the light of 6 the world. When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and anointed his eyes with the clay, 7 and said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent). He went away therefore, and washed, and came seeing. The neighbors therefore, and they that saw him 8 aforetime, that he was a beggar, said, Is not this he that sat and begged? Others said, It is he: others said, No, but he is like 9 him. He said, I am he. They said therefore unto him, How then 10 were thine eyes opened? He answered, The man that is called 11 Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to Siloam, and wash: so I went away and washed, and I received sight. And they said unto him, Where is he? He saith, I know 12 not. They bring to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind. 13 Now it was the sabbath on the day when Jesus made the clay, and 14 opened his eyes. Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him 15 how he received his sight. And he said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and I see. Some therefore of the 16 Pharisees said, This man is not from God, because he keepeth not the sabbath. But others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such signs? And there was division among them. They say 17 therefore unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, in that he opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a prophet. The 18 Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight, and asked them, saying, Is 19 this your son, who ye say was born blind? How then doth he now see? His parents answered and said, We know that this is 20 our son, and that he was born blind: but how he now seeth, we know not; or who opened his eyes, we know not: ask him; he is of age; he shall speak for himself. These things said his parents, 21 because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man should confess him to be Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. Therefore said his parents, He is of 22 age; ask him. So they called a second time the man that was 23 blind, and said unto him, Give glory to God: we know that this man is a sinner. He therefore answered, Whether he is a sinner, 24 I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. They said therefore unto him, What did he to thee? How 25 opened he thine eyes? He answered them, I told you even now, 26 and ye did not hear; wherefore would ye hear it again? would ye also become his disciples? And they reviled him, and said, 27 Thou art his disciple; but we are disciples of Moses. We know 28 that God hath spoken unto Moses: but as for this man, we know 29 30 not whence he is. The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is the marvel, that ye know not whence he is, and yet he 31 opened mine eyes. We know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and do his will, him he 32 heareth. Since the world began it was never heard that any one 33 opened the eyes of a man born blind. If this man were not from 34 God, he could do nothing. They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And 35 they cast him out. Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and 36 finding him, he said, Dost thou believe on the Son of God? He answered and said, And who is he, Lord, that I may believe on 37 him? Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and he it 38 is that speaketh with thee. And he said, Lord, I believe. And 39 he worshipped him. And Jesus said, For judgment came I into this world, that they that see not may see; and that they that 40 see may become blind. Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and said unto him, Are we also blind?

41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye would have no sin: but now ye say, We see: your sin remaineth.

10 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the fold of the sheep, but climbeth up some other way, the 2 same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the 3 door is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by 4 name, and leadeth them out. When he hath put forth all his own, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they 5 know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow, but will 6 flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what 7 things they were which he spake unto them. Jesus therefore said unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the 8 door of the sheep. All that came before me are thieves and 9 robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door; by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and 10 go out, and shall find pasture. The thief cometh not, but that he may steal, and kill, and destroy: I came that they may have 11 life, and may have it abundantly. I am the good shepherd: the 12 good shepherd layeth down his life for the sheep. He that is a hireling, and not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not,

beholdeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth, and the wolf snatcheth them, and scattereth them: he fleeth 13 because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am 14 the good shepherd; and I know mine own, and mine own know me, even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; 15 and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, 16 which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice: and they shall become one flock, one shepherd. Therefore doth the Father love me, because I lay down my life, 17 that I may take it again. No one taketh it away from me, but 18 I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment received I from my Father. There arose a division again among the Jews because 19 of these words. And many of them said, He hath a demon, 20 and is mad; why hear ye him? Others said, These are not the 21 sayings of one possessed with a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind? And it was the feast of the dedication at 22 Jerusalem: it was winter; and Jesus was walking in the temple 23 in Solomon's porch. The Jews therefore came round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou hold us in suspense? If 24 thou art the Christ, tell us plainly. Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believe not: the works that I do in my Father's name, these bear witness of me. But ye believe not, because 25 ye are not of my sheep. My sheep hear my voice, and I know 26 them, and they follow me: and I give unto them eternal life; 27 and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who hath given them unto me, is greater 28 than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. I and the Father are one. The Jews took up stones 29 again to stone him. Jesus answered them, Many good works 30, 31 have I showed you from the Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? The Jews answered him, For a good work we 32 stone thee not, but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God. Jesus answered them, Is it not 33 written in your law, I said, ye are gods? If he called them gods, 34 unto whom the word of God came (and the scripture cannot be broken), say ye of him, whom the Father sanctified and sent 35 into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God? If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. 36 37

38 But if I do them, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know and understand that the Father is in me, and 39 I in the Father. They sought again to take him: and he went 40 forth out of their hand. And he went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where John was at the first baptizing; and 41 there he abode. And many came unto him; and they said, John indeed did no sign: but all things whatsoever John spake of this 42 man were true. And many believed on him there.

11 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of Bethany, of the village 2 of Mary and her sister Martha. And it was that Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her 3 hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick. The sisters therefore sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is 4 sick. But when Jesus heard it, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be 5 glorified thereby. Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and 6 Lazarus. When therefore he heard that he was sick, he abode 7 at that time two days in the place where he was. Then after 8 this he saith to the disciples, Let us go into Judaea again. The disciples say unto him, Rabbi, the Jews were but now seeking to 9 stone thee; and goest thou thither again? Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If a man walk in the day, he 10 stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because the light is not in 11 him. These things spake he: and after this he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus is fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awake 12 him out of sleep. The disciples therefore said unto him, Lord, 13 if he is fallen asleep, he will recover. Now Jesus had spoken of his death: but they thought that he spake of taking rest in 14 sleep. Then Jesus therefore said unto them plainly, Lazarus is 15 dead. And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the 16 intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him. Thomas therefore, who is called Didymus, said unto his fellow-disciples, 17 Let us also go, that we may die with him. So when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb four days already.
18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs 19 off; and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to 20 console them concerning their brother. Martha therefore, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary still sat in the house. Martha therefore said unto Jesus, Lord, 21 if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. And even 22 now I know that, whatsoever thou shalt ask of God, God will give thee. Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again. 23 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the 24 resurrection at the last day. Jesus said unto her, I am the 25 resurrection, and the life: he that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth on me 26 shall never die. Believest thou this? She saith unto him, Yea, 27 Lord: I have believed that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, even he that cometh into the world. And when she had said 28 this, she went away, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Teacher is her, and calleth thee. And she, when she heard 29 it, arose quickly, and went unto him. (Now Jesus was not yet 30 come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha met him.) The Jews then who were with her in the house, and 31 were consoling her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, supposing that she was going unto the tomb to weep there. Mary therefore, when she came where 32 Jesus was, and saw him, fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. When 33 Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, and 34 said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see. Jesus wept. The Jews therefore said, Behold how he 35, 36 loved him! But some of them said, Could not this man, who 37 opened the eyes of him that was blind, have caused that this man also should not die? Jesus therefore again groaning in himself 38 cometh to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. Jesus saith, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of 39 him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time the body decayeth; for he hath been dead four days. Jesus saith unto her, 40 Said I not unto thee, that, if thou believedst, thou shouldest see the glory of God? So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted 41 up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou heardest me. And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because 42 of the multitude that standeth around I said it, that they may believe that thou didst send me. And when he had thus spoken, 43 he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. He that was 44 dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes; and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, 45 Loose him, and let him go. Many therefore of the Jews, who came to Mary and beheld that which he did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them 47 the things which Jesus had done. The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, What do we?
48 for this man doeth many signs. If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans will come and take 49 away both our place and our nation. But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said unto them, Ye know 50 nothing at all, nor do ye take account that it is expedient for you that one man should die for the people, and that the whole 51 nation perish not. Now this he said not of himself: but, being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for 52 the nation; and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God that are scattered 53 abroad. So from that day forth they took counsel that they might put him to death. Jesus therefore walked no more openly 54 among the Jews, but departed thence into the country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim; and there he tarried 55 with the disciples. Now the passover of the Jews was at hand: and many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the 56 passover, to purify themselves. They sought therefore for Jesus, and spake one with another, as they stood in the temple, What 57 think ye? That he will not come to the feast? Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given commandment, that, if any man knew where he was, he should show it, that they might take him.

12 Jesus therefore six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus raised from the dead. So they made him a supper there: and Martha served; but Lazarus was 2 one of them that sat at meat with him. Mary therefore took a pound of ointment of pure nard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house 3 was filled with the odor of the ointment. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples, that should betray him, saith, Why was not 4 this ointment sold for three hundred shillings, and given to the poor? Now this he said, not because he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and having the bag took away what was put therein. Jesus therefore said, Suffer her to keep it against 7 the day of my burying. For the poor ye have always with you; 8 but me ye have not always. The common people therefore of the 9 Jews learned that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. But the chief priests took counsel that 10 they might put Lazarus also to death; because that by reason of 11 him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus. On the 12 morrow a great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, took the branches 13 of the palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried out, Hosanna: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel. And Jesus, having found a young ass, 14 sat thereon; as it is written, Fear not, daughter of Zion: behold, 15 thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt. These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him. The multitude 17 therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, bare witness. For this 18 cause also the multitude went and met him, for that they heard that he had done this sign. The Pharisees therefore said among 19 themselves, Behold how ye prevail nothing: lo, the world is gone after him. Now there were certain Greeks among those that went up to worship at the feast: these therefore came to Philip, 21 who was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus. Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: Andrew 22 cometh, and Philip, and they tell Jesus. And Jesus answereth 23 them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a grain of 24 wheat fall into the earth and die, it abideth by itself alone; but if it die, it beareth much fruit. He that loveth his life loseth it; 25 and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I 26 am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will the Father honor. Now is my soul troubled; and what shall 27 I say? Father, save me from this hour. But for this cause came I unto this hour. Father, glorify thy name. There came therefore 28 a voice out of heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will 29 glorify it again. The multitude therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it had thundered: others said, An angel hath 30 spoken to him. Jesus answered and said, This voice hath not 31 come for my sake, but for your sakes. Now is the judgment of 32 this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto myself.
6

33 But this he said, signifying by what manner of death he should 34 die. The multitude therefore answered him, We have heard out of the law that the Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, 35 The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man? Jesus therefore said unto them, Yet a little while is the light among you. Walk while ye have the light, that darkness overtake you not: and he that walketh in the darkness knoweth not whither he 36 goeth. While ye have the light, believe on the light, that ye may become sons of light. These things spake Jesus, and he departed 37 and hid himself from them. But though he had done so many 38 signs before them, yet they believed not on him: that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? And to whom hath the arm of 39 the Lord been revealed? For this cause they could not believe, 40 for that Isaiah said again, He hath blinded their eyes, and he hardened their heart; Lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart, And should turn, And I should heal 41 them. These things said Isaiah, because he saw his glory; and 42 he spake of him. Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess it, lest 43 they should be put out of the synagogue: for they loved the 44 glory that is of men more than the glory that is of God. And Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on 45 me, but on him that sent me. And he that beholdeth me be-46 holdeth him that sent me. I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me may not abide in the darkness.
47 And if any man hear my sayings, and keep them not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.
48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my sayings, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I spake, the same shall judge 49 him in the last day. For I spake not from myself; but the Father that sent me, he hath given me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. And I know that his command- 50 ment is life eternal: the things therefore which I speak, even as the Father hath said unto me, so I speak.

Now before the feast of the passover, Jesus knowing that his 13 hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto his Father, having loved his own that were in the world, he loved them unto the end. And during supper, the devil having already 2 put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him, Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all the things into 3 his hands, and that he came forth from God, and goeth unto God, riseth from supper, and layeth aside his garments; and he 4 took a towel, and girded himself. Then he poureth water into 5 the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. So he cometh to 6 Simon Peter. He saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?
Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not 7 now; but thou shalt understand hereafter. Peter saith unto 8 him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Simon Peter saith 9 unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. Jesus saith to him, He that is bathed needeth not save 10 to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all. For he knew him that should betray him; therefore said 11 he, Ye are not all clean. So when he had washed their feet, 12 and taken his garments, and sat down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? Ye call me, Teacher, and, 13 Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. If I then, the Lord and 14 the Teacher, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye also 15 should do as I have done to you. Verily, verily, I say unto you, 16 a servant is not greater than his lord; neither one that is sent greater than he that sent him. If ye know these things, blessed 17 are ye if ye do them. I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled: He that 18 eateth my bread lifted up his heel against me. From henceforth 19 I tell you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he. Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that 20 receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. When Jesus had thus said, he 21 was troubled in the spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, 22 I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. The disciples 23 looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake. There was at the table reclining in Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom 24 Jesus loved. Simon Peter therefore beckoneth to him, and saith 25 unto him, Tell us who it is of whom he speaketh. He leaning back, as he was, on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is 26 it? Jesus therefore answereth, He it is, for whom I shall dip the sop, and give it him. So when he had dipped the sop, he 27 taketh and giveth it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. And after the sop, then entered Satan into him. Jesus therefore saith 28 unto him, What thou doest, do quickly. Now no man at the 29 table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. For some thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus said unto him, Buy what things we have need of for the feast; or, that he should 30 give something to the poor. He then having received the sop 31 went out straightway: and it was night. When therefore he was gone out, Jesus saith, Now is the Son of man glorified, and 32 God is glorified in him; and God shall glorify him in himself, 33 and straightway shall he glorify him. Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the 34 Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say unto you. A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; 35 even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one 36 to another. Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered, Whither I go, thou canst not follow now; 37 but thou shalt follow afterwards. Peter saith unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee even now? I will lay down my life for 38 thee. Jesus answereth, Wilt thou lay down thy life for me?

Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

14 Let not your heart be troubled: believe in God, believe also 2 in me. In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you.
3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I come again, and will receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.
4, 5 And whither I go, ye know the way. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; how know we the way?

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: 6 no one cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye had known 7 me, ye would have known my Father also: from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him. Philip saith unto him, Lord, 8 show us the Father, and it sufficeth us. Jesus saith unto him, 9 Have I been so long time with you, and dost thou not know me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; how sayest thou, Show us the Father? Believest thou not that I am in the 10 Father, and the Father in me? the words that I say unto you I speak not from myself: but the Father abiding in me doeth his works. Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in 11 me: or else believe me for the very works' sake. Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto the Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, 13 that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask anything in my name, that will I do. If ye love me, ye will keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and 16 he shall give you another Comforter, that he may be with you for ever, even the Spirit of truth: whom the world cannot receive; 17 for it beholdeth him not, neither knoweth him: ye know him; for he abideth with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave 18 you desolate: I come unto you. Yet a little while, and the world beholdeth me no more; but ye behold me: because I live, ye shall live also. In that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, 20 and ye in me, and I in you. He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself unto him. Judas (not Iscariot) saith unto him, 22 Lord, what is come to pass that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? Jesus answered and said unto him, 23 If a man love me, he will keep my word: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. He that loveth me not keepeth not my words: and the 24 word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me.
These things have I spoken unto you, while yet abiding with you. 25 But the Comforter, even the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said unto you. Peace I leave with you; 27 my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful.

28 Ye heard how I said to you, I go away, and I come unto you. If ye loved me, ye would have rejoiced, because I go unto the 29 Father: for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye may 30 believe. I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of 31 the world cometh: and he hath nothing in me; but that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

15, 2 I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh it away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he cleanseth it, that it may bear 3 more fruit. Already ye are clean because of the word which I 4 have spoken unto you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; so 5 neither can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth 6 much fruit: for apart from me ye can do nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.
7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatsoever ye 8 will, and it shall be done unto you. Herein is my Father glorified, 9 that ye bear much fruit; and so shall ye be my disciples. Even as the Father hath loved me, I also have loved you: abide ye in 10 my love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide 11 in his love. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy 12 may be in you, and that your joy may be made full. This is my commandment, that ye love one another, even as I have loved 13 you. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down 14 his life for his friends. Ye are my friends, if ye do the things 15 which I command you. No longer do I call you servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I heard from my Father, I have made 16 known unto you. Ye did not choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should abide: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in 17 my name, he may give it you. These things I command you, that ye may love one another. If the world hateth you, ye know 18 that it hath hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the 19 world, the world would love its own: but because ye are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, A servant 20 is not greater than his lord. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they kept my word, they will keep yours also.

But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, 21 because they know not him that sent me. If I had not come and 22 spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no excuse for their sin. He that hateth me hateth my Father also. 23 If I had not done among them the works which none other did, 24 they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father. But this cometh to pass, that the 25 word may be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause. But when the Comforter is come, whom 26 I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall bear witness of me:
and ye also bear witness, because ye have been with me from the 27 beginning.

These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be 16 caused to stumble. They shall put you out of the synagogues: 2 yea, the hour cometh, that whosoever killeth you shall think that he offereth service unto God. And these things will they 3 do, because they have not known the Father, nor me. But these 4 things have I spoken unto you, that when their hour is come, ye may remember them, how that I told you. And these things I said not unto you from the beginning, because I was with you.
But now I go unto him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, 5 Whither goest thou? But because I have spoken these things 6 unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. Nevertheless I tell you 7 the truth: It is expedient for you that I go away; for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I go, I will send him unto you. And he, when he is come, will convict the 8 world in respect of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: 9 of sin, because they believe not on me; of righteousness, because 10 I go to the Father, and ye behold me no more; of judgment, 11 because the prince of this world hath been judged. I have yet 12 many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he shall guide you into all the truth: for he shall not speak from himself; but what things soever he shall hear, these shall he speak: and he 14 shall declare unto you the things that are to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall take of mine, and shall declare it unto 15 you. All things whatsoever the Father hath are mine: therefore 16 said I, that he taketh of mine, and shall declare it unto you. A little while, and ye behold me no more; and again a little while, 17 and ye shall see me. Some of his disciples therefore said one to another, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye behold me not; and again a little while, and ye shall see me: 18 and, Because I go to the Father? They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? We know not what he saith.
19 Jesus perceived that they were desirous to ask him, and he said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, A little while, and ye behold me not, and again a little 20 while, and ye shall see me? Verily, verily, I say unto you, that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: ye shall be 21 sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but when she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more 22 the anguish, for the joy that a man is born into the world. And ye therefore now have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one taketh away from you.
23 And in that day ye shall ask me no question. Verily, verily, I say unto you, if ye shall ask anything of the Father, he will give it 24 you in my name. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: 25 ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be made full. These things have I spoken unto you in dark sayings: the hour cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in dark sayings, but shall 26 tell you plainly of the Father. In that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you; 27 for the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and 28 have believed that I came forth from the Father. I came out from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave 29 the world, and go unto the Father. His disciples say, Lo, now 30 speakest thou plainly, and speakest no dark saying. Now know we that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God. Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? Behold, the 31, 32 hour cometh, yea, is come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. These things have I spoken 33 unto you, that in me ye may have peace. In the world ye have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

These things spake Jesus; and lifting up his eyes to heaven, he 17 said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that the son may glorify thee: even as thou gavest him authority over all flesh, 2 that to all whom thou hast given him, he should give eternal life.
And this is life eternal, that they should know thee the only true 3 God, and him whom thou didst send, even Jesus Christ. I 4 glorified thee on the earth, having accomplished the work which thou hast given me to do. And now, Father, glorify thou me 5 with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was. I manifested thy name unto the men whom thou 6 gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them to me; and they have kept thy word. Now they know that 7 all things whatsoever thou hast given me are from thee: for the 8 words which thou gavest me I have given unto them; and they received them, and knew of a truth that I came forth from thee, and they believed that thou didst send me. I pray for them: I 9 pray not for the world, but for those whom thou hast given me; for they are thine: and all things that are mine are thine, and 10 thine are mine: and I am glorified in them. And I am no more 11 in the world, and these are in the world, and I come to thee.
Holy Father, keep them in thy name which thou hast given me, that they may be one, even as we are. While I was with them, I 12 kept them in thy name which thou hast given me: and I guarded them, and not one of them perished, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I come to thee; 13 and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy made full in themselves. I have given them thy word; and 14 the world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. I pray not that thou shouldest take 15 them from the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil one. They are not of the world even as I am not of the 16 world. Sanctify them in the truth: thy word is truth. As thou 17, 18 didst send me into the world, even so sent I them into the world.

19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they themselves also 20 may be sanctified in truth. Neither for these only do I pray, but 21 for them also that believe on me through their word; that they may all be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us: that the world may believe that 22 thou didst send me. And the glory which thou hast given me I have given unto them; that they may be one, even as we are one; 23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that thou didst send me, and lovedst 24 them, even as thou lovedst me. Father, I desire that they also whom thou hast given me be with me where I am, that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me 25 before the foundation of the world. O righteous Father, the world knew thee not, but I knew thee; and these knew that thou 26 didst send me; and I made known unto them thy name, and will make it known; that the love wherewith thou lovedst me may be in them, and I in them.

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Kidron, where was a garden, into which 2 he entered, himself and his disciples. Now Judas also, who betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oft-times resorted thither 3 with his disciples. Judas then, having received the band of soldiers, and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, 4 cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were coming upon him, 5 went forth, and saith unto them, Whom seek ye? They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, who betrayed him, was standing with them.
6 When therefore he said unto them, I am he, they went backward, 7 and fell to the ground. Again therefore he asked them, Whom 8 seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus answered, I told you that I am he; if therefore ye seek me, let these go 9 their way: that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, Of 10 those whom thou hast given me I lost not one. Simon Peter therefore having a sword drew it, and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. Now the servant's name was 11 Malchus. Jesus therefore said unto Peter, Put up the sword into the sheath: the cup which the Father hath given me, shall I not 12 drink it? So the band and the chief captain, and the officers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound him, and led him to Annas 13 first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. Now Caiaphas was he that gave counsel to the Jews, 14 that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. 15 Now that disciple was known unto the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high priest; but Peter was 16 standing at the door without. So the other disciple, who was known unto the high priest, went out and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter. The maid therefore that 17 kept the door saith unto Peter, Art thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. Now the servants and the officers 18 were standing there, having made a fire of coals; for it was cold; and they were warming themselves: and Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself. The high priest therefore 19 asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his teaching. Jesus answered 20 him, I have spoken openly to the world; I ever taught in synagogues, and in the temple, where all the Jews come together; and in secret spake I nothing. Why askest thou me? Ask them that 21 have heard me, what I spake unto them: behold, these know the things which I said. And when he had said this, one of the of- 22 ficers standing by struck Jesus with his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? Jesus answered him, If I have spoken 23 evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?
Annas therefore sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest. 24 Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said 25 therefore unto him, Art thou also one of his disciples? He denied, and said, I am not. One of the servants of the high priest, being a kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I 26 see thee in the garden with him? Peter therefore denied again: 27 and straightway the cock crew. They lead Jesus therefore from 28 Caiaphas into the Praetorium: and it was early; and they themselves entered not into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the passover. Pilate therefore went out 29 unto them, and saith, What accusation bring ye against this man? They answered and said unto him, If this man were not 30 an evildoer, we should not have delivered him up unto thee. Pi- 31 late therefore said unto them, Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law. The Jews said unto him, It is not 32 lawful for us to put any man to death: that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying by what manner 33 of death he should die. Pilate therefore entered again into the Praetorium, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the 34 King of the Jews? Jesus answered, Sayest thou this of thyself, 35 or did others tell it thee concerning me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests delivered thee 36 unto me: what hast thou done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: 37 but now is my kingdom not from hence. Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end have I been born, and to this end am I come into the world, that I should bear witness unto the 38 truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find no 39 crime in him. But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you 40 the King of the Jews? They cried out therefore again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.)

19, 2 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, 3 and arrayed him in a purple garment; and they came unto him, and said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they struck him with their 4 hands. And Pilate went out again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him out to you, that ye may know that I find no crime 5 in him. Jesus therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold, 6 the man! When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him! Pilate saith unto them, Take him yourselves, and crucify him: for I 7 find no crime in him. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by that law he ought to die, because he made himself 8 the Son of God. When Pilate therefore heard this saying, he 9 was the more afraid; and he entered into the Praetorium again, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no 10 answer. Pilate therefore saith unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? Knowest thou not that I have power to release thee, and have power to crucify thee? Jesus answered him, Thou wouldest 11 have no power against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath greater sin. Upon 12 this Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou release this man, thou art not Caesar's friend: every one that maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar. When 13 Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment-seat at a place called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. Now it was the Preparation of the 14 passover: it was about the sixth hour. And he saith unto the Jews, Behold, your King! They therefore cried out, Away with 15 him, away with him, crucify him! Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar. Then therefore he delivered him unto them 16 to be crucified. They took Jesus therefore: and he went out, bearing the cross for himself, unto the place called The place of a skull, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha: where they 18 crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. And Pilate wrote a title also, and put it 19 on the cross. And there was written, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. This title therefore read many of 20 the Jews, for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city; and it was written in Hebrew, and in Latin, and in Greek. The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, 21 Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. Pilate answered, What I have written I have written. 22 The soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jesus, took his 23 garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. They said therefore one to another, Let us not rend 24 it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my garments among them, And upon my vesture did they cast lots. These things therefore 25 the soldiers did. But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw his mother, 26 and the disciple standing by whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son! Then saith he to the disciple, 27 Behold, thy mother! And from that hour the disciple took her 28 unto his own home. After this Jesus, knowing that all things are now finished, that the scripture might be accomplished, saith, I 29 thirst. There was set there a vessel full of vinegar: so they put a sponge full of the vinegar upon hyssop, and brought it 30 to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up his 31 spirit. The Jews therefore, because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remain on the cross upon the sabbath (for the day of that sabbath was a high day), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 The soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and 33 of the other that was crucified with him: but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his 34 legs: howbeit one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, 35 and straightway there came out blood and water. And he that hath seen hath borne witness, and his witness is true: and he 36 knoweth that he saith true, that ye also may believe. For these things came to pass, that the scripture might be fulfilled, A 37 bone of him shall not be broken. And again another scripture 38 saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced. And after these things Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He 39 came therefore, and took away his body. And there came also Nicodemus, he who at the first came to him by night, bringing a 40 mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds. So they took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths with the 41 spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a 42 new tomb wherein was never man yet laid. There then because of the Jews' Preparation (for the tomb was nigh at hand) they laid Jesus.

20 Now on the first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, while it was yet dark, unto the tomb, and seeth the stone 2 taken away from the tomb. She runneth therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, 3 and we know not where they have laid him. Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb.

And they ran both together: and the other disciple outran Peter, 4 and came first to the tomb; and stooping and looking in, he 5 seeth the linen cloths lying; yet entered he not in. Simon Peter 6 therefore also cometh, following him, and entered into the tomb; and he beholdeth the linen cloths lying, and the napkin, that 7 was upon his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. Then entered in therefore the other disciple 8 also, who came first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed. For 9 as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. So the disciples went away again unto their own home. 10 But Mary was standing without at the tomb weeping: so, as she 11 wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb; and she beholdeth 12 two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. And they say unto 13 her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. When she had thus said, she turned herself back, 14 and beholdeth Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.
Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest 15 thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She 16 turneth herself, and saith unto him in Hebrew, Rabboni; which is to say, Teacher. Jesus saith to her, Touch me not; for I am 17 not yet ascended unto the Father: but go unto my brethren, and say to them, I ascend unto my Father and your Father, and my God and your God. Mary Magdalene cometh and telleth 18 the disciples, I have seen the Lord; and that he had said these things unto her. When therefore it was evening, on that day, 19 the first day of the week, and when the doors were shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. And 20 when he had said this, he showed unto them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad, when they saw the Lord.
Jesus therefore said to them again, Peace be unto you: as the 21 Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had 22 said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Spirit: whose soever sins ye forgive, they are forgiven 23 unto them; whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained. But 24

Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them 25 when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my hand into his 26 side, I will not believe. And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.
27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and see my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and put it into my side: and 28 be not faithless, but believing. Thomas answered and said unto 29 him, My Lord and my God. Jesus saith unto him, Because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not 30 seen, and yet have believed. Many other signs therefore did Jesus in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in 31 this book: but these are written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye may have life in his name.

21 After these things Jesus manifested himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and he manifested himself on this 2 wise. There was together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of 3 Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also come with thee.
They went forth, and entered into the boat; and that night they 4 took nothing. But when day was now breaking, Jesus stood on 5 the beach: yet the disciples knew not that it was Jesus. Jesus therefore saith unto them, Children, have ye aught to eat? They 6 answered him, No. And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.
7 That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his coat about him (for he was naked), and cast himself into 8 the sea. But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits off), 9 dragging the net full of fishes. So when they got out upon the land, they see a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and 10 bread. Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have 11 now taken. Simon Peter therefore went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, the net was not rent. Jesus saith 12 unto them, Come and break your fast. And none of the disciples durst inquire of him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. Jesus cometh, and taketh the bread, and giveth them, 13 and the fish likewise. This is now the third time that Jesus 14 was manifested to the disciples, after that he was risen from the dead. So when they had broken their fast, Jesus saith to Simon 15 Peter, Simon, son of John, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. He saith to him again a sec- 16 ond time, Simon, son of John, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Tend my sheep. He saith unto him the third time, Lovest 17 thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep. Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, 18 thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not. Now this he spake, signifying by what manner of death 19 he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me. Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple 20 whom Jesus loved following; who also leaned back on his breast at the supper, and said, Lord, who is he that betrayeth thee?

Peter therefore seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall 21 this man do? Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou me. This saying there- 22 fore went forth among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, that he should not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? This 24 is the disciple that beareth witness of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his witness is true. And there 25 are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself would not contain the books that should be written.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

1 The former treatise I made, O Theophilus, concerning 2 all that Jesus began both to do and to teach, until 3 the day in which he was received up, after that he had 4 given commandment through the Holy Spirit unto the 5 apostles whom he had chosen: To whom he also showed himself 6 alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing unto them by 7 the space of forty days, and speaking the things concerning the 8 kingdom of God: and, being assembled together with them, he 9 charged them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the 10 promise of the Father, which, said he, ye heard from me: For 11 John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized in the 12 Holy Spirit not many days hence. They therefore, when they 13 were come together, asked him, saying, Lord, dost thou at this 14 time restore the kingdom to Israel? And he said unto them, It is not for you to know times or seasons, which the Father hath set within His own authority. But ye shall receive power, when the Holy Spirit is come upon you: and ye shall be my witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea and Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. And when he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. And while they were looking stedfastly into heaven as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; who also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye looking into heaven? this Jesus, who was received up from you into heaven shall so come in like manner as ye beheld him going into heaven. Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is nigh unto Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey off. And when they were come in, they went up into the upper chamber, where they were abiding; both Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James. These all with one accord continued stedfastly in prayer, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren. And in these days 15 Peter stood up in the midst of the brethren, and said (and there was a multitude of persons gathered together, about a hundred and twenty), Brethren, it was needful that the Scripture should 16 be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spake before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was guide to them that took Jesus. For he was numbered among us, and received his portion in this 17 ministry. (Now this man obtained a field with the reward of his iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, 18 and all his bowels gushed out. And it became known to all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch that in their language that field 19 was called Akeldama, that is, The field of blood.) For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be made desolate, 20 And let no man dwell therein: and, His office let another take. Of the men therefore that have companied with us all the time 21 that the Lord Jesus went in and went out among us, beginning from the baptism of John, unto the day that he was received up 22 from us, of these must one become a witness with us of his resurrection. And they put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, 23 who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, who knowest the hearts of all men, show 24 of these two the one whom thou hast chosen, to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas fell away, that 25 he might go to his own place. And they gave lots for them; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven 26 apostles.

And when the day of Pentecost was now come, they were all 2 together in one place. And suddenly there came from heaven 2 a sound as of the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them 3 tongues parting asunder, like as of fire; and it sat upon each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began 4 to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Now there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from 5 every nation under heaven. And when this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that 6 every man heard them speaking in his own language. And they 7 were all amazed and marvelled, saying, Behold, are not all these 8 that speak Galilaeans? And how hear we, every man in our 9 own language wherein we were born? Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, in Judaea and 10 Cappadocia, in Pontus and Asia, in Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt and the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and sojourners 11 from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians, we hear them speaking in our tongues the mighty works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were perplexed, saying one to 13 another, What meaneth this? But others mocking said, They 14 are filled with new wine. But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and spake forth unto them, saying, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto 15 you, and give ear unto my words. For these are not drunken, as 16 ye suppose; seeing it is but the third hour of the day. but this 17 is that which hath been spoken through the prophet Joel: And it shall be in the last days, saith God, I will pour forth of My Spirit upon all flesh: And your sons and your daughters shall prophecy, And your young men shall see visions, And your old 18 men shall dream dreams: Yea and on My servants and on My handmaidens in those days Will I pour forth of My Spirit; and 19 they shall prophecy. And I will show wonders in the heaven above, And signs on the earth beneath; Blood, and fire, and 20 vapor of smoke: The sun shall be turned into darkness, And the moon into blood, Before the day of the Lord come, That great 21 and notable day. And it shall be, that whosoever shall call on 22 the name of the Lord shall be saved. Ye men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God unto you by mighty works and wonders and signs which God did by 23 him in the midst of you, even as ye yourselves know; him, being delivered up by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of 24 God, ye by the hand of lawless men did crucify and slay: whom God raised up, having loosed the pangs of death: because it was 25 not possible that he should be holden of it. For David saith concerning him, I beheld the Lord always before my face; For he 26 is on my right hand, that I should not be moved: Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; Moreover my flesh also 27 shall dwell in hope: Because thou wilt not leave my soul unto Hades, Neither wilt thou give thy Holy One to see corruption.
28 Thou madest known unto me the ways of life; Thou shalt make me full of gladness with thy countenance. Brethren, I may say 29 unto you freely of the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us unto this day. Being therefore a 30 prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins he would set one upon his throne; he foreseeing this spake of the resurrection of the Christ, that 31 neither was he left unto Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption.

This Jesus did God raise up, whereof we all are witnesses. Being 32, 33 therefore by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he hath poured forth this, which ye see and hear. For David ascended not 34 into the heavens: but he saith himself, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Till I make thine enemies 35 the footstool of thy feet. Let all the house of Israel therefore 36 know assuredly, that God hath made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom ye crucified. Now when they heard this, they 37 were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the apostles, Brethren, what shall we do? And Peter said 38 unto them, Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For to you is the promise, 39 and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call unto him. And with many other 40 words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, Save yourselves from this crooked generation. They then that received his word 41 were baptized: and there were added unto them in that day about three thousand souls. And they continued stedfastly in 42 the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread and the prayers. And fear came upon every soul: and many 43 wonders and signs were done through the apostles. And all that believed were together, and had all things common; and 44 they sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, according as any man had need. And day by day, continuing 46 stedfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart, praising God, and having favor with all the people. And 47 the Lord added to them day by day those that were saved.

Now Peter and John were going up into the temple at the 3 hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. And a certain man that 2 was lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the door of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask 3 alms of them that entered into the temple; who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked to receive an alms.

4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him, with John, said, Look 5 on us. And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something from them. But Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; 6 but what I have, that give I thee. In the name of Jesus Christ of 7 Nazareth, walk. And he took him by the right hand, and raised him up: and immediately his feet and his ankle-bones received 8 strength. And leaping up, he stood, and began to walk; and he entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and 9 praising God. And all the people saw him walking and praising 10 God: and they took knowledge of him, that it was he that sat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto 11 him. And as he held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.
12 And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this man? or why fasten ye your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had 13 made him to walk? The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Servant Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied before the face of Pilate, when 14 he had determined to release him. But ye denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted unto you, and killed the Prince of life; whom God raised from the dead; 15 whereof we are witnesses. And by faith in his name hath his name made this man strong, whom ye behold and know: yea, the faith which is through him hath given him this perfect sound-16 ness in the presence of you all. And now, brethren, I know that in ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. But the things 17 which God foreshowed by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled. Repent ye therefore, and 18 turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, that so there may come seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord; and that he may send the Christ who hath been appointed for you, 19 even Jesus: whom the heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, whereof God spake by the mouth of His holy prophets that have been from of old. Moses indeed said, A prophet shall the Lord God raise up unto you from among your brethren, like unto me. To him shall ye hearken in all things whatsoever he shall speak unto you. And it shall be, that every soul that shall not hearken to that prophet, shall be utterly destroyed from among the people. Yea and all the prophets from Samuel and them that followed after, as many as have spoken, they also told of these days. Ye are the sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with your fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. Unto you first God, having raised up his Servant, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your iniquities.

And as they spake unto the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came upon them, being sore troubled because they taught the people, and proclaimed in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. And they laid hands on them, and put them in ward unto the morrow: for it was now eventide. But many of them that heard the word believed; and the number of the men came to be about five thousand. And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem; and Annas the high priest was there, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest. And when they had set them in the midst, they inquired, By what power, or in what name, have ye done this? Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders, if we this day are examined concerning a good deed done to an impotent man, by what means this man is made whole; be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even in him doth this man stand here before you whole. He is the stone which was set at nought of you the builders, which was made the head of the corner. And in none other is there salvation: for neither is there any other name under heaven, that is given among men, wherein we must be saved. Now when they beheld the boldness of Peter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that 14 they had been with Jesus. And seeing the man that was healed 15 standing with them, they could say nothing against it. But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, 16 they conferred among themselves, saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been wrought through them, is manifest to all that dwell in Jerusalem; and 17 we cannot deny it. But that it spread no further among the people, let us threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no 18 man in this name. And they called them, and charged them not 19 to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it is right in the sight of God to hearken unto you rather than unto God, judge 20 ye: for we cannot but speak the things which we saw and heard.

21 And they, when they had further threatened them, let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the 22 people; for all men glorified God for that which was done. For the man was more than forty years old, on whom this miracle of 23 healing was wrought. And being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and the elders 24 had said unto them. And they, when they heard it, lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, O Lord, thou that didst make the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that 25 in them is: who by the Holy Spirit, by the mouth of our father David thy servant, didst say, Why did the Gentiles rage, And the 26 peoples imagine vain things? The kings of the earth set themselves in array, And the rulers were gathered together, Against 27 the Lord, and against his Anointed: for of a truth in this city against thy holy Servant Jesus, whom thou didst anoint, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the peoples of 28 Israel, were gathered together, to do whatsoever thy hand and 29 thy council foreordained to come to pass. And now, Lord, look upon their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants to speak 30 thy word with all boldness, while thy stretchest forth thy hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done through the 31 name of thy holy Servant Jesus. And when they had prayed, the place was shaken wherein they were gathered together; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spake the word 32 of God with boldness. And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and soul: and not one of them said that aught of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common. And with great power gave the apostles their witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all. For neither was there among them any that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, and laid them at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto each, according as any one had need. And Joseph, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, Son of exhortation), a Levite, a man of Cyprus by race, having a field, sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, and kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thy heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land? While it remained, did it not remain thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thy power? How is it that thou hast conceived this thing in thy heart? thou has not lied unto men, but unto God. And Ananias hearing these words fell down and gave up the ghost: and great fear came upon all that heard it. And the young men arose and wrapped him round, and they carried him out and buried him. And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much. And she said, Yea, for so much. But Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to try the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them that have buried thy husband are at the door, and they shall carry thee out. And she fell down immediately at his feet, and gave up the ghost: and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband. And great fear came upon the whole church, and upon all that heard these things. And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. But of the rest durst no man join himself to them: howbeit the people magnified them; and believers were the more added to the Lord, 15 multitudes both of men and women; insomuch that they even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that, as Peter came by, at the least his shadow might 16 overshadow some one of them. And there also came together the multitudes from the cities round about Jerusalem, bring sick folk, and them that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they 17 were healed every one. But the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and 18 they were filled with jealousy, and laid hands on the apostles, 19 and put them in public ward. But an angel of the Lord by night 20 opened the prison doors, and brought them out, and said, Go ye, and stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words 21 of this Life. And when they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison-22 house to have them brought. But the officers that came found 23 them not in the prison; and they returned, and told, saying, The prison-house we found shut in all safety, and the keepers standing at the doors: but when we had opened, we found no 24 man within. Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were much perplexed concerning 25 them whereunto this would grow. And there came one and told them, Behold, the men whom ye put in the prison are in the tem-26 ple standing and teaching the people. Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them, but without violence; for 27 they feared the people, lest they should be stoned. And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And 28 the high priest asked them, saying, We strictly charged you not to teach in this name: and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 But Peter and the apostles answered and said, We must obey 30 God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised up Je-31 sus, whom ye slew, hanging him on a tree. Him did God exalt with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, to give repen-32 tance to Israel, and remission of sins. And we are witnesses of these things; and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God hath given 33 to them that obey him. But they, when they heard this, were 34 cut to the heart, and minded to slay them. But there stood up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in honor of all the people, and commanded to put the men forth a little while. And he said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves as touching these men, what ye are about to do. For before these days rose up Theudas, giving himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nought. After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the enrolment, and drew away some of the people after him: he also perished; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will be overthrown: but if it is of God, ye will not be able to overthrow them; lest haply ye be found even to be fighting against God. And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles unto them, they beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. They therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for the Name. And every day, in the temple and at home, they ceased not to teach and to preach Jesus as the Christ.

Now in these days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a murmuring of the Grecian Jews against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. And the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not fit that we should forsake the word of God, and serve tables. Look ye out therefore, brethren, from among you seven men of good report, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. But we will continue stedfastly in prayer, and in the ministry of the word. And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus a proselyte of Antioch; whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands upon them. And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem exceedingly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith. And Stephen, full of grace and power, wrought great wonders and signs among the people. But there arose certain of them that were of the synagogue called the synagogue of the Libertines, and of the Cyrenians, and of the Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and Asia, disputing with Stephen. And they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spake. Then they suborned men, who said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and seized him, and brought him into the council, and set up false witnesses, who said, This man ceaseth not to speak words against this holy place, and the law: for we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered unto us. And all that sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

7, 2 And the high priest said, Are these things so? And he said, Brethren and fathers, hearken: The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran, and said unto him, Get thee out of thy land, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall show thee. Then came he out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and dwelt in Haran: and from thence, when his father was dead, God removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell: and he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: and he promised that he would give it to him in possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. And God spake on this wise, that his seed should sojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, and treat them ill, four hundred years. And the nation to which they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place. And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob the twelve patriarchs. And the patriarchs, moved with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into Egypt: and God was with him, and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. Now there came a famine over all Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance. But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent forth our fathers the first time. And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's race became manifest unto Pharaoh. And Joseph sent, and called to him Jacob his father, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls. And Jacob went down into Egypt; and he died, himself and our fathers; and they were carried over unto Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver of the sons of Hamor in Shechem. But as the time of the promise drew nigh which God vouchsafed unto Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, till there arose another king over Egypt, who knew not Joseph. The same dealt craftily with our race, and ill-treated our fathers, that they should cast out their babes to the end they might not live. At which season Moses was born, and was exceeding fair; and he was nourished three months in his father's house. and when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son. And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians; and he was mighty in his words and works. But when he was well-nigh forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel. And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, smiting the Egyptian: and he supposed that his brethren understood that God by his hand was giving them deliverance; but they understood not. And the day following he appeared unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another? But he that did his neighbor wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? Wouldest thou kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian yesterday? And Moses fled at this saying, and became a sojourner in the land of Midian, where he begat two sons. And when forty years were fulfilled, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. And when Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold, there came a voice of the Lord, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob. And Moses trembled, and durst not behold. And the Lord said unto him, Loose the shoes from thy feet: for the place whereon thou standest is holy 34 ground. I have surely seen the affliction of my people that is in Egypt, and have heard their groaning, and I am come down to 35 deliver them: and now come, I will send thee into Egypt. This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? him hath God sent to be both a ruler and a deliverer with 36 the hand of the angel that appeared to him in the bush. This man led them forth, having wrought wonders and signs in Egypt, 37 and in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness forty years. This is that Moses, who said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall God raise up unto you from among your brethren, like unto me.

38 This is he that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel that spake to him in the Mount Sinai, and with our fathers: who 39 received living oracles to give unto us: to whom our fathers would not be obedient, but thrust him from them, and turned 40 back in their hearts unto Egypt, saying unto Aaron, Make us gods that shall go before us: for as for this Moses, who led us forth out of the land of Egypt, we know not what is become 41 of him. And they made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands.
42 But God turned, and gave them up to serve the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, Did ye offer unto me slain beasts and sacrifices Forty years in the wilderness, O 43 house of Israel? And ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, And the star of the god Rephan, The figures which ye made to 44 worship them: And I will carry you away beyond Babylon. Our fathers had the tabernacle of the testimony in the wilderness, even as he appointed who spake unto Moses, that he should 45 make it according to the figure that he had seen. Which also our fathers, in their turn, brought in with Joshua when they entered on the possession of the nations, that God thrust out 46 before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David; who found favor in the sight of God, and asked to find a habitation for the 47, 48 God of Jacob. But Solomon built him a house. Howbeit the Most High dwelleth not in houses made with hands; as saith the 49 prophet, The heaven is my throne, And the earth the footstool of my feet: What manner of house will ye build Me? saith the 50 Lord: Or what is the place of My rest? Did not my hand make 51 all these things? Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Spirit: as your fathers did, so do ye. Which of the prophets did not your fathers persecute? and they killed them that showed before of the coming of the Righteous One; of whom ye have now become betrayers and murderers; ye who received the law as it was ordained by angels, and kept it not. Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth. But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, and said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing on the right hand of God. But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed upon him with one accord; and they cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. And they stoned Stephen, calling upon the Lord, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

And Saul was consenting unto his death. And there arose on that day a great persecution against the church which was in Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judaea and Samaria, except the apostles. And devout men buried Stephen, and made great lamentation over him. But Saul laid waste the church, entering into every house, and dragging men and women committed them to prison. They therefore that were scattered abroad, went about preaching the word. And Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed unto them the Christ. And the multitudes gave heed with one accord unto the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard, and saw the signs which he did. For from many of those that had unclean spirits, they came out, crying with a loud voice: and many that were palsied, and that were lame, were healed. And there was much joy in that city. But there was a certain man, Simon by name, who beforetime in the city used sorcery, and amazed the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one: to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is that power of God which is called Great. And they gave heed to him, because that of long time he had amazed them with his sorceries.

12 But when they believed Philip preaching good tidings concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they 13 were baptized, both men and women. And Simon also himself believed: and being baptized, he continued with Philip; and be-14 holding signs and great miracles wrought, he was amazed. Now when the apostles that were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and 15 John: who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that 16 they might receive the Holy Spirit: for as yet it was fallen upon none of them: only they had been baptized into the name of 17 the Lord Jesus. Then laid they their hands on them, and they 18 received the Holy Spirit. Now when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, 19 he offered them money, saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay my hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit.
20 But Peter said unto him, Thy silver perish with thee, because 21 thou hast thought to obtain the gift of God with money. Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right 22 before God. Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, if perhaps the thought of thy heart shall be forgiven 23 thee. For I see that thou art in the gall of bitterness and in the 24 bond of iniquity. And Simon answered and said, Pray ye for me to the Lord, that none of the things which ye have spoken come 25 upon me. They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the 26 gospel to many villages of the Samaritans. But an angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza: the 27 same is desert. And he arose and went: and behold, a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to 28 Jerusalem to worship; and he was returning and sitting in his 29 chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah. And the Spirit 30 said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. And Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, 31 and said, Understandest thou what thou readest? And he said, How can I, except some one shall guide me? And he besought 32 Philip to come up and sit with him. Now the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; And as a lamb before his shearer is dumb, So he openeth not his mouth: In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: His generation who shall declare? For his life is taken from the earth. And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other? And Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this Scripture, preached unto him Jesus. And as they went on the way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch saith, Behold, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? And Philip said, If thou believest with all thy heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way rejoicing. But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached the gospel to all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.

But Saul, yet breathing threatening and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, and asked of him letters to Damascus unto the synagogues, that if he found any that were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. And as he journeyed, it came to pass that he drew nigh unto Damascus: and suddenly there shone round about him a light out of heaven: and he fell upon the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: but rise, and enter into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. And the men that journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing the voice, but beholding no man. And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw nothing; and they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. And he was three days without sight, and did neither eat nor drink. Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and the Lord said unto him in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul, a man of Tarsus: for behold, 12 he prayeth; and he hath seen a man named Ananias coming in, and laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 But Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many of this 14 man, how much evil he did to thy saints at Jerusalem: and here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that 15 call upon thy name. But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the 16 Gentiles and kings, and the children of Israel: for I will show 17 him how many things he must suffer for my name's sake. And Ananias departed, and entered into the house; and laying his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, who appeared unto thee in the way which thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mayest receive thy sight, and be filled with the 18 Holy Spirit. And straightway there fell from his eyes as it were scales, and he received his sight; and he arose and was baptized; 19 and he took food and was strengthened. And he was certain days 20 with the disciples that were at Damascus. And straightway in the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus, that he is the Son of God.

21 And all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that in Jerusalem made havoc of them that called on this name? and he had come hither for this intent, that he might bring them 22 bound before the chief priests. But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews that dwelt at Damascus, 23 proving that this is the Christ. And when many days were 24 fulfilled, the Jews took counsel together to kill him: but their plot became known to Saul. And they watched the gates also 25 day and night that they might kill him: but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him 26 in a basket. And when he was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: and they were all afraid of him, not 27 believing that he was a disciple. But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them going in and going out at Jerusalem, 29 preaching boldly in the name of the Lord: and he spake and disputed against the Grecian Jews; but they were seeking to 30 kill him. And when the brethren knew it, they brought him 31 down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus. So the church throughout all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, being edified; and, walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, was multiplied. And it came to pass, as Peter went throughout all parts, he came down also to the saints that dwelt at Lydda. And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had kept his bed eight years; for he was palsied. And Peter said unto him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ healeth thee: arise and make thy bed. And straightway he arose. And all that dwelt at Lydda and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord. Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did. And it came to pass in those days, that she fell sick, and died: and when they had washed her, they laid her in an upper chamber. And as Lydda was nigh unto Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men unto him, entreating him, Delay not to come on unto us. And Peter arose and went with them. And when he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them. But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down and prayed; and turning to the body, he said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes; and when she saw Peter, she sat up. And he gave her his hand, and raised her up; and calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive. And it became known throughout all Joppa: and many believed on the Lord. And it came to pass, that he abode many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

Now there was a certain man in Caesarea, Cornelius by name, 10 a centurion of the band called the Italian band, a devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, who gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always. He saw in a vision openly, as it were about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in unto him, and saying to him, Cornelius. And he, fastening his eyes upon him, and being affrighted, said, 4 What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are gone up for a memorial before God. And now send 5 men to Joppa, and fetch one Simon, who is surnamed Peter: he lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea 6 side. And when the angel that spake unto him was departed, he 7 called two of his household-servants, and a devout soldier of them 8 that waited on him continually; and having rehearsed all things 9 unto them, he sent them to Joppa. Now on the morrow, as they were on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went 10 up upon the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour: and he became hungry, and desired to eat: but while they made ready, 11 he fell into a trance; and he beholdeth the heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet, let down 12 by four corners upon the earth: wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts and creeping things of the earth and birds of 13 the heaven. And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill 14 and eat. But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten 15 anything that is common and unclean. And a voice came unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, make not 16 thou common. And this was done thrice: and straightway the 17 vessel was received up into heaven. Now while Peter was much perplexed in himself what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men that were sent by Cornelius, having made 18 inquiry for Simon's house, stood before the gate, and called and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, were lodging 19 there. And while Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said 20 unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. But arise, and get thee down, and go with them, nothing doubting: for I have sent 21 them. And Peter went down to the men, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius a centurion, a righteous man and one that feareth God, and well reported of by all the nation of the Jews, was warned of God by a holy angel to send for thee into his 23 house, and to hear words from thee. So he called them in and lodged them. And on the morrow he arose and went forth with them, and certain of the brethren from Joppa accompanied him.
24 And on the morrow they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his kinsmen and 25 his near friends. And when it came to pass that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped 26 him. But Peter raised him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also 27 am a man. And as he talked with him, he went in, and findeth 28 many come together: and he said unto them, Ye yourselves know how it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to join himself or come unto one of another nation; and yet unto me hath God showed that I should not call any man common or unclean: wherefore also I came without gainsaying, when I was sent for. 29 I ask therefore with what intent ye sent for me. And Cornelius 30 said, Four days ago, until this hour, I was keeping the ninth hour of prayer in my house; and behold, a man stood before me in bright apparel, and saith, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and 31 thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God. Send therefore to Joppa, and call unto thee Simon, who is surnamed 32 Peter; he lodgeth in the house of Simon a tanner, by the sea side. Forthwith therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well 33 done that thou art come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God, to hear all things that have been commanded thee of the Lord. And Peter opened his mouth and said, Of a 34 truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: but in 35 every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to him. The word which he sent unto the children 36 of Israel, preaching good tidings of peace by Jesus Christ (He is Lord of all.) – that saying ye yourselves know, which was 37 published throughout all Judaea, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; even Jesus of Nazareth, how 38 God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all 39 things which he did both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom also they slew, hanging him on a tree. Him 40 God raised up the third day, and gave him to be made manifest, not to all the people, but unto witnesses that were chosen before 41 of God, even to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. And he charged us to preach unto the people, 42 and to testify that this is he who is ordained of God to be the Judge of the living and the dead. To him bear all the prophets 43 witness, that through his name every one that believeth on him shall receive remission of sins. While Peter yet spake these 44 words, the Holy Spirit fell on all them that heard the word. And 45 they of the circumcision that believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Spirit. For they heard them speak with 46 tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, Can any man 47 forbid the water, that these should not be baptized, who have 48 received the Holy Spirit as well as we? And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

11 Now the apostles and the brethren that were in Judaea heard 2 that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circum-3 cision contended with him, saying, Thou wentest in to men 4 uncircumcised, and didst eat with them. But Peter began, and 5 expounded the matter unto them in order, saying, I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, a certain 6 vessel descending, as it were a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even unto me: upon which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw the fourfooted 7 beasts of the earth and wild beasts and creeping things and birds of the heaven. And I heard also a voice saying unto me, Rise, Pe-8 ter; kill and eat. But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common 9 or unclean hath ever entered into my mouth. But a voice answered the second time out of heaven, What God hath cleansed, 10 make not thou common. And this was done thrice: and all 11 were drawn up again into heaven. And behold, forthwith three men stood before the house in which we were, having been sent 12 from Caesarea unto me. And the Spirit bade me go with them, making no distinction. And these six brethren also accompanied 13 me; and we entered into the man's house: and he told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying, Send 14 to Joppa, and fetch Simon, whose surname is Peter; who shall speak unto thee words, whereby thou shalt be saved, thou and 15 all thy house. And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell 16 on them, even as on us at the beginning. And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, John indeed baptized with 17 water; but ye shall be baptized in the Holy Spirit. If then God gave unto them the like gift as he did also unto us, when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could with-18 stand God? And when they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then to the Gentiles also hath 19 God granted repentance unto life. They therefore that were scattered abroad upon the tribulation that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phoenicia, and Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to none save only to Jews. But there were some of 20 them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Greeks also, preaching the Lord Jesus.

And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number 21 that believed turned unto the Lord. And the report concerning 22 them came to the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas as far as Antioch: who, when 23 he was come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad; and he exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord: for he was a good man, and full of the Holy 24 Spirit and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.
And he went forth to Tarsus to seek for Saul; and when he 25, 26 had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that even for a whole year they were gathered together with the church, and taught much people, and that the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch. Now in these days there 27 came down prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch. And there 28 stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be a great famine over all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius. And the disciples, every 29 man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren that dwelt in Judea: which also they did, sending it 30 to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

Now about that time Herod the king put forth his hands to 12 afflict certain of the church. And he killed James the brother 2 of John with the sword. And when he saw that it pleased 3 the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. And those were the days of unleavened bread. And when he had taken him, 4 he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to guard him; intending after the Passover to bring him forth to the people. Peter therefore was kept in the prison: but 5 prayer was made earnestly of the church unto God for him. And 6 when Herod was about to bring him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and guards before the door kept the prison. And behold, an angel 7 of the Lord stood by him, and a light shined in the cell: and he smote Peter on the side, and awoke him, saying, Rise up quickly.
And his chains fell off from his hands. And the angel said unto 8 him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And he did so. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed; and he knew not that it was true which was done by the angel, but thought he saw a vision.
10 And when they were past the first and the second guard, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth into the city; which opened to them of its own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and straightway the angel departed from him.
11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a truth, that the Lord hath sent forth his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the 12 people of the Jews. And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together and were praying.
13 And when he knocked at the door of the gate, a maid came to 14 answer, named Rhoda. And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for joy, but ran in, and told that Peter stood 15 before the gate. And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she confidently affirmed that it was even so. And they said, It is 16 his angel. But Peter continued knocking: and when they had 17 opened, they saw him, and were amazed. But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him forth out of the prison. And he said, Tell these things unto James, and to the brethren.
18 And he departed, and went to another place. Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was 19 become of Peter. And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judaea to 20 Caesarea, and tarried there. Now he was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: and they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, they asked for peace, because their country was fed from the 21 king's country. And upon a set day Herod arrayed himself in royal apparel, and sat on the throne, and made an oration unto 22 them. And the people shouted, saying, The voice of a god, and 23 not of a man. And immediately an angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of 24 worms, and gave up the ghost. But the word of God grew and 25 multiplied. And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministration, taking with them John whose surname was Mark.

Now there were at Antioch, in the church that was there, 13 prophets and teachers, Barnabas, and Symeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen the foster-brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. And as they ministered to the 2 Lord, and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. Then, 3 when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. So they, being sent forth by the Holy 4 Spirit, went down to Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus. And when they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the 5 word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John as their attendant. And when they had gone through the 6 whole island unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus; who was with the 7 proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. The same called unto him Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God. But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpreta- 8 tion) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the proconsul from the faith. But Saul, who is also called Paul, filled with the Holy 9 Spirit, fastened his eyes on him, and said, O full of all guile and 10 all villany, thou son of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? And 11 now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand. Then the proconsul, when he 12 saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord. Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos, and 13 came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departed from them and returned to Jerusalem. But they, passing through from Perga, 14 came to Antioch of Pisidia; and they went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down. And after the reading of the 15 law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on. And Paul stood up, and beckoning with the hand 16 said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, hearken: The God of 17 this people Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they sojourned in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm led he 18 them forth out of it. And for about the time of forty years as 19 a nursing-father bare he them in the wilderness. And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance, for about four hundred and fifty 20 years: and after these things he gave them judges until Samuel 21 the prophet. And afterward they asked for a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Ben-22 jamin, for the space of forty years. And when he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king; to whom also he bare witness and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man af-23 ter My heart, who shall do all My will. Of this man's seed hath God according to promise brought unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus; 24 when John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. And as John was fulfilling 25 his course, he said, What suppose ye that I am? I am not he.

But behold, there cometh one after me the shoes of whose feet 26 I am not worthy to unloose. Brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you that fear God, to us is the word 27 of this salvation sent forth. For they that dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath, fulfilled them by con-28 demning him. And though they found no cause of death in him, 29 yet asked they of Pilate that he should be slain. And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they took him 30 down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb. But God raised 31 him from the dead: and he was seen for many days of them that came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now 32 his witnesses unto the people. And we bring you good tidings 33 of the promise made unto the fathers, that God hath fulfilled the same unto our children, in that he raised up Jesus; as also it is written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have 34 I begotten thee. And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he hath spoken on this wise, I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David.
35 Because he saith also in another psalm, Thou wilt not give Thy 36 Holy One to see corruption. For David, after he had in his own generation served the counsel of God, fell asleep, and was 37 laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption: but he whom God raised up saw no corruption. Be it known unto you therefore, 38 brethren, that through this man is proclaimed unto you remission of sins: and by him every one that believeth is justified 39 from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is 40 spoken in the prophets: Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish; For I work a work in your days, A work which ye shall 41 in no wise believe, if one declare it unto you. And as they went out, they besought that these words might be spoken to them the next sabbath. Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the 42 Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God. And the next sabbath almost the whole city was gather- 43 ed together to hear the word of God. But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted 44 the things which were spoken by Paul, and blasphemed. And Paul and Barnabas spake out boldly, and said, It was necessary 45 that the word of God should first be spoken to you. Seeing ye thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. For so hath the Lord commanded 46 us, saying, I have set thee for a light of the Gentiles, That thou shouldest be for salvation unto the uttermost part of the earth.

And as the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified 47 the word of God: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. And the word of the Lord was spread abroad through- 48 out all the region. But the Jews urged on the devout women of honorable estate, and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and cast them out of their borders. But they shook off the dust of their feet against 49 them, and came unto Iconium. And the disciples were filled with joy with the Holy Spirit. 50 51 52

And it came to pass in Iconium that they entered together into 14 the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake that a great multitude both of Jews and of Greeks believed. But the Jews that were 2 disobedient stirred up the souls of the Gentiles, and made them evil affected against the brethren. Long time therefore they 3 tarried there speaking boldly in the Lord, who bare witness unto the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. But the multitude of the city was divided; and 4 5 part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles. And when there was made an onset both of the Gentiles and of the Jews with their rulers, to treat them shamefully and to stone them, 6 they became aware of it, and fled unto the cities of Lycaonia, 7 Lystra and Derbe, and the region round about: and there they 8 preached the gospel. And at Lystra there sat a certain man, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never 9 had walked. The same heard Paul speaking, who, fastening eyes 10 upon him, and seeing that he had faith to be made whole, said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped 11 up and walked. And when the multitude saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, 12 The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men. And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercury, because he 13 was the chief speaker. And the priest of Jupiter whose temple was before the city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, 14 and would have done sacrifice with the multitudes. But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they rent their garments, and sprang forth among the multitude, crying out 15 and saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good tidings, that ye should turn from these vain things unto a living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that in them is: 16 who in the generations gone by suffered all the nations to walk in their own ways. And yet He left not himself without witness, in that he did good and gave you from heaven rains and fruitful 18 seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness. And with these sayings scarce restrained they the multitudes from doing 19 sacrifice unto them. But there came Jews thither from Antioch and Iconium: and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was 20 dead. But as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and entered into the city: and on the morrow he went forth with 21 Barnabas to Derbe. And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to 22 Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antioch, confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many tribulations we must enter into the kingdom of 23 God. And when they had appointed for them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they had believed. And they passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia. And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia; and thence they sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all things that God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith unto the Gentiles. And they tarried no little time with the disciples.

And certain men came down from Judaea and taught the brethren, saying, Except ye be circumcised after the custom of Moses, ye cannot be saved. And when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and questioning with them, the brethren appointed that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question. They therefore, being brought on their way by the church, passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren. And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church and the apostles and the elders, and they rehearsed all things that God had done with them. But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees who believed, saying, It is needful to circumcise them, and to charge them to keep the law of Moses. And the apostles and the elders were gathered together to consider of this matter. And when there had been much questioning, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Brethren, ye know that a good while ago God made choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel, and believe. And God, who knoweth the heart, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Spirit, even as he did unto us; and he made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. Now therefore why make ye trial of God, that ye should put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? But we believe that we shall be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in like manner as they. And all the multitude kept silence; and they hearkened unto Barnabas and Paul rehearsing what signs and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles through them.

13 And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, 14 Brethren, hearken unto me: Symeon hath rehearsed how first God visited the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his 15 name. And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is writ-16 ten, After these things I will return, And I will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen; And I will build again the 17 ruins thereof, And I will set it up: That the residue of men may seek after the Lord, And all the Gentiles, upon whom my name 18 is called, Saith the Lord, who maketh these things known from 19 of old. Wherefore my judgment is, that we trouble not them 20 that from among the Gentiles turn to God; but that we write unto them, that they abstain from the pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from what is strangled, and from blood.
21 For Moses from generations of old hath in every city them that 22 preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath. Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas called Barsab-23 bas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren: and they wrote thus by them, The apostles and the elders, brethren, unto the brethren who are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cili-24 cia, greeting: Forasmuch as we have heard that certain who went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your 25 souls; to whom we gave no commandment; it seemed good unto us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them 26 unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, men that have 27 hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who themselves also shall 28 tell you the same things by word of mouth. For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden 29 than these necessary things: that ye abstain from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication; from which if ye keep yourselves, it shall be 30 well with you. Fare ye well. So they, when they were dismissed, came down to Antioch; and having gathered the multitude to-31 gether, they delivered the epistle. And when they had read 32 it, they rejoiced for the consolation. And Judas and Silas, being themselves also prophets, exhorted the brethren with many 33 words, and confirmed them. And after they had spent some time there, they were dismissed in peace from the brethren unto those that had sent them forth. But it seemed good unto Silas to abide there. But Paul and Barnabas tarried in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also. And after some days Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us return now and visit the brethren in every city wherein we proclaimed the word of the Lord, and see how they fare. And Barnabas was minded to take with them John also, who was called Mark. But Paul thought not good to take with them him who withdrew from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. And there arose a sharp contention, so that they parted asunder one from the other, and Barnabas took Mark with him, and sailed away unto Cyprus; but Paul choose Silas, and went forth, being commended by the brethren to the grace of the Lord. And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

And he came also to Derbe and to Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewess that believed; but his father was a Greek. The same was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium. Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews that were in those parts: for they all knew that his father was a Greek. And as they went on their way through the cities, they delivered them the decrees to keep which had been ordained of the apostles and elders that were at Jerusalem. So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily. And they went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been forbidden of the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia; and when they were come over against Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia; and the Spirit of Jesus suffered them not; and passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas. And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: There was a man of Macedonia standing, beseeching him, and saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. And when he had seen the vision, straightway we sought to go forth into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them. Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis; and from thence to Philippi, which is a city of Macedonia, the first of the district, a Roman colony: and we were in this city 13 tarrying certain days. And on the sabbath day we went forth without the gate by a river side, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down, and spake unto the women 14 that were come together. And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple of the city of Thyatira, one that worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened to give heed unto 15 the things which were spoken by Paul. And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and 16 abide there. And she constrained us. And it came to pass, as we were going to the place of prayer, that a certain maid having a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters 17 much gain by soothsaying. The same following after Paul and us cried out, saying, These men are servants of the Most High 18 God, who proclaim unto you the way of salvation. And this she did for many days. But Paul, being sore troubled, turned and said to the spirit, I charge thee in the name of Jesus Christ to 19 come out of her. And it came out that very hour. But when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they laid hold on Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace 20 before the rulers, and when they had brought them unto the magistrates, they said, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly 21 trouble our city, and set forth customs which it is not lawful for us to receive, or to observe, being Romans. And the multitude 22 rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent their garments off them, and commanded to beat them with rods.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely: who, having received such a charge, cast them into the inner prison, 24 and made their feet fast in the stocks. But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns unto God, and 25 the prisoners were listening to them; and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison-house were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and 26 every one's bands were loosed. And the jailor, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had 27 escaped. But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself 28 no harm: for we are all here. And he called for lights and 29 sprang in, and, trembling for fear, fell down before Paul and Silas, and brought them out and said, Sirs, what must I do to 30 be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou 31 shalt be saved, thou and thy house. And they spake the word 32 of the Lord unto him, with all that were in his house. And he 33 took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, immediately. And he brought 34 them up into his house, and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his house, having believed in God. But when 35 it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, Let those men go. And the jailor reported the words to Paul, saying, The 36 magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore come forth, and go in peace. But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us 37 publicly, uncondemned, men that are Romans, and have cast us into prison; and do they now cast us out privily? Nay verily; but let them come themselves and bring us out. And the sergeants 38 reported these words unto the magistrates: and they feared when they heard that they were Romans; and they came and besought 39 them; and when they had brought them out, they asked them to go away from the city. And they went out of the prison, and 40 entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollo- 17 nia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: and Paul, as his custom was, went in unto them, and 2 for three sabbath days reasoned with them from the Scriptures, opening and alleging that it behooved the Christ to suffer, and 3 to rise again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom, said he, I proclaim unto you, is the Christ. And some of them were 4 persuaded, and consorted with Paul and Silas, and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few. But the Jews, being moved with jealousy, took unto them 5 certain vile fellows of the rabble, and gathering a crowd, set the city on an uproar; and assaulting the house of Jason, they sought to bring them forth to the people. And when they found them 6 not, they dragged Jason and certain brethren before the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also; whom Jason hath received: and these all 7 act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus. And they troubled the multitude and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things. And when they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go. And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Beroea: who when they were come thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of the mind, examining the Scriptures daily, whether these things were so. Many of them therefore believed; also of the Greek women of honorable estate, and of men, not a few. But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed of Paul at Beroea also, they came thither likewise, stirring up and troubling the multitudes. And then immediately the brethren sent forth Paul to go as far as to the sea: and Silas and Timothy abode there still. But they that conducted Paul brought him as far as Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timothy that they should come to him with all speed, they departed. Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he beheld the city full of idols. So he reasoned in the synagogue with Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with them that met him. And certain also of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, What would this babbler say? others, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached Jesus and the resurrection. And they took hold of him, and brought him unto the Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken by thee? For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean. (Now all the Athenians and the strangers sojourning there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.) And Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus, and said, Ye men of Athens, in all things, I perceive that ye are very religious. For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. What therefore ye worship in ignorance, this I set forth unto you. The God that made the world and all things therein, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; neither is he served by men's hands, as though he 25 needed anything, seeing he himself giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; and he made of one every nation of men to dwell 26 on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation; that they should 27 seek God, if haply they might feel after him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us: for in him we live, and move, 28 and have our being; as certain even of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring. Being then the offspring of God, 29 we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and device of man. The times 30 of ignorance therefore God overlooked; but now he commandeth men that they should all everywhere repent: inasmuch as he 31 hath appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, 32 some mocked; but others said, We will hear thee concerning this yet again. Thus Paul went out from among them. But certain 33, 34 men clave unto him, and believed: among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

After these things he departed from Athens, and came to 18 Corinth. And he found a certain Jew named Aquila, a man of 2 Pontus by race, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome: and he came unto them; and because he was of the same 3 trade, he abode with them, and they wrought, for by their trade they were tentmakers. And he reasoned in the synagogue ev- 4 ery sabbath, and persuaded Jews and Greeks. But when Silas 5 and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was constrained by the word, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ.
And when they opposed themselves and blasphemed, he shook 6 out his raiment and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. And he departed thence, and went into the house of a cer- 7 tain man named Titus Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue. And Crispus, the ruler 8 of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 And the Lord said unto Paul in the night by a vision, Be not 10 afraid, but speak and hold not thy peace: for I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to harm thee: for I have much 11 people in this city. And he dwelt there a year and six months, 12 teaching the word of God among them. But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against 13 Paul and brought him before the judgment-seat, saying, This 14 man persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law. But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked villany, O 15 ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you: but if they are questions about words and names and your own law, look 16, 17 to it yourselves; I am not minded to be a judge of these matters. And he drove them from the judgment-seat. And they all laid hold on Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment-seat. And Gallio cared for none of these 18 things. And Paul, having tarried after this yet many days, took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence for Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila: having shorn his head in Cenchreae; 19 for he had a vow. And they came to Ephesus, and he left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned 20 with the Jews. And when they asked him to abide a longer time, 21 he consented not; but taking his leave of them, and saying, I will return again unto you if God will, he set sail from Ephesus.
22 And when he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and saluted 23 the church, and went down to Antioch. And having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of Galatia, 24 and Phrygia, in order, establishing all the disciples. Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus; and he was mighty in the scriptures.
25 This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spake and taught accurately the things con-26 cerning Jesus, knowing only the baptism of John: and he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him 27 the way of God more accurately. And when he was minded to pass over into Achaia, the brethren encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him: and when he was come, he helped them much that had believed through grace; for he powerfully 28 confuted the Jews, and that publicly, showing by the scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul 19 having passed through the upper country came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples: and he said unto them, Did ye receive 2 the Holy Spirit when ye believed? And they said unto him, Nay, we did not so much as hear whether the Holy Spirit was given. And he said, Into what then were ye baptized? And 3 they said, Into John's baptism. And Paul said, John baptized 4 with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people that they should believe on him that should come after him, that is, on Jesus. And when they heard this, they were baptized into the 5 name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands 6 upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. And they were in all about twelve 7 men. And he entered into the synagogue, and spake boldly for 8 the space of three months, reasoning and persuading as to the things concerning the kingdom of God. But when some were 9 hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. And this contin- 10 ued for the space of two years; so that all they that dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks. And 11 God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul: insomuch 12 that unto the sick were carried away from his body handkerchiefs or aprons, and the evil spirits went out. But certain also 13 of the strolling Jews, exorcists, took upon them to name over them that had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, I adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth. And there 14 were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, a chief priest, who did this. And the evil spirit answered and said unto them, Jesus 15 I know, and Paul I know, but who are ye? And the man in 16 whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and mastered both of them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. And this became known to all, 17 both Jews and Greeks, that dwelt at Ephesus; and fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. Many 18 also of them that had believed came, confessing, and declaring 19 their deeds. And not a few of them that practised magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all; and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand 20 pieces of silver. So mightily grew the word of the Lord and 21 prevailed. Now after these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also 22 see Rome. And having sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in 23 Asia for a while. And about that time there arose no small stir 24 concerning the Way. For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Diana, brought no little 25 business unto the craftsmen; whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by 26 this business we have our wealth. And ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they 27 are no gods, that are made with hands: and not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana be made of no account, and that she should even be deposed from her magnificence whom 28 all Asia and the world worshippeth. And when they heard this they were filled with wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesus. And the city was filled with the confusion: and they rushed with one accord into the theatre, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in 30 travel. And when Paul was minded to enter in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not. And certain also of the Asiarchs, being his friends, sent unto him and besought him not to adventure himself into the theatre. Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was in confusion; and the 33 more part knew not wherefore they were come together. And they brought Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would 34 have made a defense unto the people. But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two 35 hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians. And when the townclerk had quieted the multitude, he saith, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there who knoweth not that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of the great Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter? Seeing then that these things cannot be gainsaid, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash. For ye have brought hither these men, who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of our goddess. If therefore Demetrius, and the craftsmen that are with him, have a matter against any man, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls: let them accuse one another. But if ye seek anything about other matters, it shall be settled in the regular assembly. For indeed we are in danger to be accused concerning this day's riot, there being no cause for it: and as touching it we shall not be able to give account of this concourse. And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

And after the uproar ceased, Paul having sent for the disciples and exhorted them, took leave of them, and departed to go into Macedonia. And when he had gone through those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece. And when he had spent three months there, and a plot was laid against him by Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return through Macedonia. And there accompanied him as far as Asia, Sopater of Beroea, the son of Pyrrhus; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus. But these had gone before, and were waiting for us at Troas. And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days, where we tarried seven days. And upon the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul discoursed with them, intending to depart on the morrow; and prolonged his speech until midnight. And there were many lights in the upper chamber where we were gathered together. And there sat in the window a certain young man named Eutychus, borne down with deep sleep; and as Paul discoursed yet longer, being borne down by his sleep he fell down from the third story, and was taken up dead. And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Make ye no ado; for his life is in him. And when he was gone up, and had broken the bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even till break of day, so he departed. And they brought the lad alive, and were not a little 13 comforted. But we going before to the ship set sail for Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, intend-14 ing himself to go by land. And when he met us at Assos, we 15 took him in, and came to Mitylene. And sailing from thence, we came the following day over against Chios; and the next day we touched at Samos; and the day after we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were 17 possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost. And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called to him the elders 18 of the church. And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in 19 Asia, after what manner I was with you all the time, serving the Lord with all lowliness of mind, and with tears, and with 20 trials which befell me by the plots of the Jews; how I shrank not from declaring unto you anything that was profitable, and 21 teaching you publicly, and from house to house, testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward 22 our Lord Jesus Christ. And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall 23 me there: save that the Holy Spirit testifieth unto me in every 24 city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. But I hold not my life of any account as dear unto myself, so that I may accomplish my course, and the ministry which I received from the 25 Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I went about preaching 26 the kingdom, shall see my face no more. Wherefore I testify unto you this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.
27 For I shrank not from declaring unto you the whole counsel of 28 God. Take heed unto yourselves, and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit hath made you bishops, to feed the church of 29 the Lord which he purchased with his own blood. I know that after my departing grievous wolves shall enter in among you, not 30 sparing the flock; and from among your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after 31 them. Wherefore watch ye, remembering that by the space of three years I ceased not to admonish every one night and day 32 with tears. And now I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you the inheritance among all them that are sanctified. I coveted no 33 man's silver, or gold, or apparel. Ye yourselves know that these 34 hands ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. In all things I gave you an example, that so laboring 35 ye ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down and 36 prayed with them all. And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's 37 neck and kissed him, sorrowing most of all for the word which 38 he had spoken, that they should behold his face no more. And they brought him on his way unto the ship.

And when it came to pass that were parted from them and had 21 set sail, we came with a straight course unto Cos, and the next day unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara: and having 2 found a ship crossing over unto Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set sail. And when we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it 3 on the left hand, we sailed unto Syria, and landed at Tyre; for there the ship was to unlade her burden. And having found the 4 disciples, we tarried there seven days: and these said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not set foot in Jerusalem.
And when it came to pass that we had accomplished the days, 5 we departed and went on our journey; and they all, with wives and children, brought us on our way till we were out of the city: and kneeling down on the beach, we prayed, and bade each other farewell; and we went on board the ship, but they 6 returned home again. And when we had finished the voyage 7 from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais; and we saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day. And on the morrow we departed, 8 and came unto Caesarea: and entering into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, we abode with him.
Now this man had four virgin daughters, who prophesied. And 9, 10 as we tarried there some days, there came down from Judaea a certain prophet, named Agabus. And coming to us, and taking 11 Paul's girdle, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, Thus saith the Holy Spirit, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. And when we heard these things, both we 12 and they of that place besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.
Then Paul answered, What do ye, weeping and breaking my 13 heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die 14 at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord 15 be done. And after these days we took up our baggage and 16 went up to Jerusalem. And there went with us also certain of the disciples from Caesarea, bringing with them one Mnason 17 of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we should lodge. And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all 19 the elders were present. And when he had saluted them, he rehearsed one by one the things which God had wrought among 20 the Gentiles through his ministry. And they, when they heard it, glorified God; and they said unto him, Thou seest, brother, 21 how many thousands there are among the Jews of them that have been informed concerning thee, that thou teachest all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children neither to walk after the customs.
22 What is it therefore? They will certainly hear that thou art 23 come. Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men 24 that have a vow on them; these take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges for them, that they may shave their heads: and all shall know that there is no truth in the things whereof they have been informed concerning thee; but that thou 25 thyself also walkest orderly, keeping the law. But as touching the Gentiles that have believed, we wrote, giving judgment that they should keep themselves from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what is strangled, and from fornication.
26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them went into the temple, declaring the fulfilment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one 27 of them. And when the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up 28 all the multitude and laid hands on him, crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man that teacheth all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place; and moreover he brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath defiled this holy 29 place. For they had before seen with him in the city Trophimus the Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple. And all the city was moved, and the people ran 30 together; and they laid hold on Paul, and dragged him out of the temple: and straightway the doors were shut. And as they 31 were seeking to kill him, tidings came up to the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in confusion. And forthwith 32 he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down upon them: and they, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, left off beating Paul. Then the chief captain came near, and laid hold 33 on him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and inquired who he was, and what he had done. And some shouted 34 one thing, some another, among the crowd: and when he could not know the certainty for the uproar, he commanded him to be brought into the castle. And when he came upon the stairs, 35 so it was that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the crowd; for the multitude of the people followed after, crying 36 out, Away with him. And as Paul was about to be brought into 37 the castle, he saith unto the chief captain, May I say something unto thee? And he said, Dost thou know Greek? Art thou not 38 then the Egyptian, who before these days stirred up to sedition and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins? But Paul said, I am a Jew, of Tarsus in Cilicia, 39 a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee, give me leave to speak unto the people. And when he had given him leave, Paul, 40 standing on the stairs, beckoned with the hand unto the people; and when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew language, saying,

Brethren and fathers, hear ye the defence which I now make 22 unto you. And when they heard that he spake unto them in the 2 Hebrew language, they were the more quiet: and he saith, I am 3 a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city, at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict manner of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as ye all are this day: and I persecuted this Way unto the death, binding and 4 delivering into prisons both men and women. As also the high 5 priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and journeyed to Damascus to bring them also that were there unto Jerusalem in bonds to be punished. And it came to pass, that, as I made my 6 journey, and drew nigh unto Damascus, about noon, suddenly 7 there shone from heaven a great light round about me. And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, 8 Saul, why persecutest thou me? And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou 9 persecutest. And they that were with me beheld indeed the light, but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of 11 all things which are appointed for thee to do. And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them 12 that were with me I came into Damascus. And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well reported of by all the 13 Jews that dwelt there, came unto me, and standing by me said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And in that very hour 14 I looked up on him. And he said, The God of our fathers hath appointed thee to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, 15 and to hear a voice from his mouth. For thou shalt be a witness 16 for him unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard. And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away 17 thy sins, calling on his name. And it came to pass, that, when I had returned to Jerusalem, and while I prayed in the temple, 18 I fell into a trance, and saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem; because they will not 19 receive of thee testimony concerning me. And I said, Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue 20 them that believed on thee: and when the blood of Stephen thy witness was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting, 21 and keeping the garments of them that slew him. And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee forth far hence unto the 22 Gentiles. And they gave him audience unto this word; and they lifted up their voice, and said, Away with such a fellow from the 23 earth: for it is not fit that he should live. And as they cried 24 out, and threw off their garments, and cast dust into the air, the chief captain commanded him be brought into the castle, bidding that he should be examined by scourging, that he might know 25 for what cause they so shouted against him. And when they had tied him up with the thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a 26 Roman, and uncondemned? And when the centurion heard it, he went to the chief captain and told him, saying, What art thou about to do? for this man is a Roman. And the chief captain came and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? And he said, Yea. And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this citizenship. And Paul said, But I am a Roman born. They then that were about to examine him straightway departed from him: and the chief captain also was afraid when he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him. But on the morrow, desiring to know the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come together, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

And Paul, looking stedfastly on the council, said, Brethren, I have lived before God in all good conscience until this day. And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth. Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: and sittest thou to judge me according to the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law? And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest? And Paul said, I knew not, brethren, that he was high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of a ruler of thy people. But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Brethren, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees: touching the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and Sadducees; and the assembly was divided. For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both. And there arose a great clamor: and some of the scribes of the Pharisees part stood up, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: and what if a spirit hath spoken to him, or an angel? And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the castle. And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer: for as thou hast testified concerning me at Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome. And when it was day, the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither 13 eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. And they were more 14 than forty that made this conspiracy. And they came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Paul.

15 Now therefore do ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you, as though ye would judge of his case more exactly: and we, before he comes near, are ready 16 to slay him. But Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, 17 and he came and entered into the castle and told Paul. And Paul called unto him one of the centurions, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain; for he hath something to tell 18 him. So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and saith, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and asked me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say 19 to thee. And the chief captain took him by the hand, and going aside asked him privately, What is it that thou hast to tell me?
20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to ask thee to bring down Paul tomorrow unto the council, as though thou wouldest inquire 21 somewhat more exactly concerning him. Do not thou therefore yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, who have bound themselves under a curse, neither to eat nor to drink till they have slain him: and now are they 22 ready, looking for the promise from thee. So the chief captain let the young man go, charging him, Tell no man that thou hast 23 signified these things to me. And he called unto him two of the centurions, and said, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go as far as Caesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen 24 two hundred, at the third hour of the night: and he bade them provide beasts, that they might set Paul thereon, and bring him 25 safe unto Felix the governor. And he wrote a letter after this 26 form: Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix, 27 greeting. This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be slain of them, when I came upon them with the soldiers and 28 rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. And desiring to know the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him 29 down unto their council: whom I found to be accused about questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge 30 worthy of death or of bonds. And when it was shown to me that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to thee forthwith, charging his accusers also to speak against him before thee. So the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. But on the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle: and they, when they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, presented Paul also before him. And when he had read it, he asked of what province he was; and when he understood that he was of Cilicia, I will hear thee fully, said he, when thine accusers also are come: and he commanded him to be kept in Herod's palace.

And after five days the high priest Ananias came down with certain elders, and with an orator, one Tertullus; and they informed the governor against Paul. And when he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy much peace, and that by the providence evils are corrected for this nation, we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. But, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I entreat thee to hear us of thy clemency a few words. For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes: who moreover assayed to profane the temple: on whom also we laid hold: [and we would have judged him according to our law. But the chief captain Lysias came, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, commanding his accusers to come before thee.] from whom thou wilt be able, by examining him thyself, to take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him. And the Jews also joined in the charge, affirming that these things were so. And when the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, Paul answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I cheerfully make my defense: Seeing that thou canst take knowledge that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem: and neither in the temple did they find me disputing with any man or stirring up a crowd, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city. Neither can they prove to thee the things whereof they now accuse me. But this I confess unto thee, that after the Way which they call a sect, so serve I the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the law, and which are written in 15 the prophets; having hope toward God, which these also themselves look for, that there shall be a resurrection both of the just 16 and unjust. Herein I also exercise myself to have a conscience 17 void of offence toward God and men always. Now after some 18 years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings: amidst which they found me purified in the temple, with no crowd, nor 19 yet with tumult: but there were certain Jews from Asia – who ought to have been here before thee, and to make accusation, 20 if they had aught against me. Or else let these men themselves say what wrong-doing they found when I stood before the 21 council, except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called 22 in question before you this day. But Felix, having more exact knowledge concerning the Way, deferred them, saying, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will determine your 23 matter. And he gave order to the centurion that he should be kept in charge, and should have indulgence; and not to forbid 24 any of his friends to minister unto him. But after certain days, Felix came with Drusilla, his wife, who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, and self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, Go thy way for this time; and when I have a convenient season, I will call 26 thee unto me. He hoped withal that money would be given him of Paul: wherefore also he sent for him the oftener, and com-27 muned with him. But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and desiring to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

25 Festus therefore, having come into the province, after three 2 days went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea. And the chief priests and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul; 3 and they besought him, asking a favor against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem; laying a plot to kill him on the 4 way. Howbeit Festus answered, that Paul was kept in charge at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to depart thither 5 shortly. Let them therefore, saith he, that are of power among you go down with me, and if there is anything amiss in the man, 6 let them accuse him. And when he had tarried among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down unto Caesarea; and on the morrow he sat on the judgment-seat, and commanded Paul to be brought. And when he was come, the Jews that 7 had come down from Jerusalem stood round about him, bringing against him many and grievous charges which they could not prove; while Paul said in his defense, Neither against the law 8 of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I sinned at all. But Festus, desiring to gain favor with the 9 Jews, answered Paul and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me? But Paul said, 10 I am standing before Caesar's judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou also very well knowest. If then I am a wrong-doer, and have committed 11 anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die; but if none of those things is true whereof these accuse me, no man can give me up unto them. I appeal unto Caesar. Then Festus, when he had 12 conferred with the council, answered, Thou hast appealed unto Caesar: unto Caesar shalt thou go. Now when certain days were 13 passed, Agrippa the King and Bernice arrived at Caesarea, and saluted Festus. And as they tarried there many days, Festus 14 laid Paul's case before the King, saying, There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix; about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, asking for sentence against him. To whom I answered, that it is 15 not the custom of the Romans to give up any man, before that the accused have the accusers face to face, and have had opportunity to make his defense concerning the matter laid against him. When therefore they were come together here, I made no 16 delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment-seat, and commanded the man to be brought. Concerning whom, when the 17 accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such evil things as I supposed; but had certain questions against him of their own 18 religion, and of one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. And I, being perplexed how to inquire concerning 19 these things, asked whether he would go to Jerusalem and there be judged of these matters. But when Paul had appealed to 20 be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be kept till I should send him to Caesar. And Agrippa said unto 21 Festus, I also could wish to hear the man myself. To-morrow, 22

23 saith he, thou shalt hear him. So on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and they were entered into the place of hearing with the chief captains and principal men of the city, at the command of Festus Paul was brought 24 in. And Festus saith, King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, ye behold this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews made suit to me, both at Jerusalem and here, 25 crying that he ought not to live any longer. But I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death: and as he himself 26 appealed to the emperor I determined to send him. Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I may have somewhat to 27 write. For it seemeth to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not withal to signify the charges against him.

26 And Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth his hand, and made his 2 defence: I think myself happy, king Agrippa, that I am to make my defense before thee this day touching all the things whereof 3 I am accused by the Jews: especially because thou art expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: where-4 fore I beseech thee to hear me patiently. My manner of life then from my youth up, which was from the beginning among 5 mine own nation and at Jerusalem, know all the Jews; having knowledge of me from the first, if they be willing to testify, that 6 after the straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. And now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made 7 of God unto our fathers; unto which promise our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to attain. And con-8 cerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, O king! Why is it 9 judged incredible with you, if God doth raise the dead? I verily thought with myself that I ought to do many things contrary to 10 the name of Jesus of Nazareth. And this I also did in Jerusalem: and I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death 11 I gave my vote against them. And punishing them oftentimes in all the synagogues, I strove to make them blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto 12 foreign cities. Whereupon as I journeyed to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests, at midday, O 13 king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them that journeyed with me. And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a 14 voice saying unto me in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the goad.

And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus 15 whom thou persecutest. But arise, and stand upon thy feet: for 16 to this end have I appeared unto thee, to appoint thee a minister and a witness both of the things wherein thou hast seen me, and of the things wherein I will appear unto thee; delivering thee 17 from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom I send thee, to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light and 18 from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among them that are sanctified by faith in me. Wherefore, O king Agrippa, I was not disobe- 19 dient unto the heavenly vision: but declared both to them of 20 Damascus first and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judaea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance. For this cause 21 the Jews seized me in the temple, and assayed to kill me. Hav- 22 ing therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand unto this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses did say should come; how that 23 the Christ must suffer, and how that he first by the resurrection of the dead should proclaim light both to the people and to the Gentiles. And as he thus made his defense, Festus saith with 24 a loud voice, Paul, thou art mad; thy much learning is turning thee mad. But Paul saith, I am not mad, most excellent Fes- 25 tus; but speak forth words of truth and soberness. For the king knoweth of these things, unto whom also I speak freely: for I am 26 persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him; for this hath not been done in a corner. King Agrippa, believest thou 27 the prophets? I know that thou believest. And Agrippa said 28 unto Paul, With but little persuasion thou wouldest fain make me a Christian. And Paul said, I would to God, that whether 29 with little or with much, not thou only, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am, except these bonds. And 30 the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that 31 sat with them: and when they had withdrawn, they spake one to another, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or 32 of bonds. And Agrippa said unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Caesar.

27 And when it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion 2 named Julius, of the Augustan band. And embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail unto the places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea, Aristarchus, a Macedonian of 3 Thessalonica, being with us. And the next day we touched at Sidon: and Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him leave to go 4 unto his friends and refresh himself. And putting to sea from thence, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were 5 contrary. And when we had sailed across the sea which is off 6 Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy; 7 and he put us therein. And when we had sailed slowly many days, and were come with difficulty over against Cnidus, the wind not further suffering us, we sailed under the lee of Crete, over 8 against Salmone; and with difficulty coasting along it we came unto a certain place called Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the 9 city of Lasea. And when much time was spent, and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast was now already gone by, 10 Paul admonished them, and said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of 11 the lading and the ship, but also of our lives. But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship, than 12 to those things which were spoken by Paul. And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to put to sea from thence, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there; which is a haven of Crete, looking 13 northeast and south-east. And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed 14 anchor and sailed along Crete, close in shore. But after no long time there beat down from it a tempestuous wind, which is called 15 Euraquilo: and when the ship was caught, and could not face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven. And running under the lee of a small island called Cauda, we were able, with 17 difficulty, to secure the boat: and when they had hoisted it up, they used helps, under-girding the ship; and, fearing lest they should be cast upon the Syrtis, they lowered the gear, and so were driven. And as we labored exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to throw the the freight overboard; and the third day they cast out with their own hands the tackling of the ship. And when neither sun nor stars shone upon us for many days, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was now taken away. And when they had been long without food, then Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have set sail from Crete, and have gotten this injury and loss. And now I exhort you to be of good cheer; for there shall be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. For there stood by me this night an angel of the God whose I am, whom also I serve, saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must stand before Caesar: and lo, God hath granted thee all them that sail with thee. Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even so as it hath been spoken unto me. But we must be cast upon a certain island. But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven to and fro in the sea of Adria, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some country: and they sounded, and found twenty fathoms; and after a little space, they sounded again, and found fifteen fathoms. And fearing lest haply we should be cast ashore on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and wished for the day. And as the sailors were seeking to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, under color as though they would lay out anchors from the foreship, Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off. And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take some food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. Wherefore I beseech you to take some food: for this is for your safety: for there shall not a hair perish from the head of any of you. And when he had said this, and had taken bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all; and he brake it, and began to eat. Then were they all of good cheer, and themselves also took food. And we were in all in the ship

38 two hundred threescore and sixteen souls. And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat 39 into the sea. And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they perceived a certain bay with a beach, and they took counsel 40 whether they could drive the ship upon it. And casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time loosing the bands of the rudders; and hoisting up the foresail to the wind, 41 they made for the beach. But lighting upon a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground; and the foreship struck and remained unmoveable, but the stern began to break up by 42 the violence of the waves. And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.
43 But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, stayed them from their purpose; and commanded that they who could swim should cast 44 themselves overboard, and get first to the land; and the rest, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. And so it came to pass, that they all escaped safe to the land.

28 And when we were escaped, then we knew that the island 2 was called Melita. And the barbarians showed us no common kindness; for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because 3 of the present rain, and because of the cold. But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out by reason of the heat, and fastened on his hand.
4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous creature hanging from his hand, they said one to another, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped from the sea, 5 yet Justice hath not suffered to live. Howbeit he shook off the creature into the fire, and took no harm. But they expected that 6 he would have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but when they were long in expectation and beheld nothing amiss came to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.
7 Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius, who received us, 8 and entertained us three days courteously. And it was so, that the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery: unto whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laying his hands on him healed 9 him. And when this was done, the rest also that had diseases 10 in the island came, and were cured: who also honored us with many honors; and when we sailed, they put on board such things as we needed. And after three months we set sail in a ship 11 of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose sign was The Twin Brothers. And touching at Syracuse, we tarried there 12 three days. And from thence we made a circuit, and arrived at 13 Rhegium: and after one day a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli; where we found brethren, and 14 were entreated to tarry with them seven days: and so we came to Rome. And from thence the brethren, when they heard of 15 us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius and The Three Taverns; whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage. And when we entered into Rome, Paul was suffered to 16 abide by himself with the soldier that guarded him. And it came 17 to pass, that after three days he called together those that were the chief of the Jews: and when they were come together, he said unto them, I, brethren, though I had done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, yet was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans: who, when they 18 had examined me, desired to set me at liberty, because there was no cause of death in me. But when the Jews spake against it, 19 I was constrained to appeal unto Caesar; not that I had aught whereof to accuse my nation. For this cause therefore did I 20 entreat you to see and to speak with me: for because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain. And they said unto 21 him, We neither received letters from Judaea concerning thee, nor did any of the brethren come hither and report or speak any harm of thee. But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: 22 for as concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against. And when they had appointed him a day, 23 they came to him into his lodging in great number; to whom he expounded the matter, testifying the kingdom of God, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning till evening. And some 24 believed the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved.

And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed 25 after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Spirit through Isaiah the prophet unto your fathers, saying, Go thou 26 unto this people, and say, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall in no wise understand; And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive: For this people's heart is waxed gross, And their 27 ears are dull of hearing, And their eyes they have closed; Lest, haply they should perceive with their eyes, And hear with their ears, And understand with their heart, And should turn again, 28 And I should heal them. Be it known therefore unto you, that this salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles: they will also 29 hear. And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, 30 having much disputing among themselves. And he abode two whole years in his own hired dwelling, and received all that went 31 in unto him, preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness, none forbidding him.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS.

Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, 1 separated unto the gospel of God, which he promised 2 afore through his prophets in the holy scriptures, con- 3 cerning his Son, who was born of the seed of David according to the flesh, who was declared to be the Son of God 4 with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead; even Jesus Christ our Lord, through whom 5 we received grace and apostleship, unto obedience of faith among all the nations, for his name's sake; among whom are ye also 6 called to be Jesus Christ's: To all that are in Rome, beloved 7 of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. First, I thank my God 8 through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world. For God is my witness, whom I 9 serve in my spirit in the gospel of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you, always in my prayers making request, if 10 by any means now at length I may be prospered by the will of God to come unto you. For I long to see you, that I may impart 11 unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; that is, that I with you may be comforted in you, each of us by 12 the other's faith, both yours and mine. And I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you (and was hindered hitherto), that I might have some fruit in you also, even as in the rest of the Gentiles. I am debtor both 14 to Greeks and to Barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish.
So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you 15 also that are in Rome. For I am not ashamed of the gospel: for 16 it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is revealed a 17 righteousness of God from faith unto faith: as it is written, But 18 the righteous shall live by faith. For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness 19 of men, who hinder the truth in unrighteousness; because that which is known of God is manifest in them; for God manifested 20 it unto them. For the invisible things of him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and divinity; that they 21 may be without excuse: because that, knowing God, they glorified him not as God, neither gave thanks; but became vain in 22 their reasonings, and their senseless heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, and changed 23 the glory of the incorruptible God for the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and four-footed beasts, and 24 creeping things. Wherefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts unto uncleanness, that their bodies should be dishonored among themselves: for that they exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshipped and served the creature rather 25 than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. For this cause God gave them up unto vile passions: for their women changed 26 the natural use into that which is against nature: and likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another, men with men working unseemliness, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error 28 which was due. And even as they refused to have God in their knowledge, God gave them up unto a reprobate mind, to do 29 those things which are not fitting; being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malignity; whisperers, backbiters, hateful to God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, without understanding, covenant-breakers, 31 without natural affection, unmerciful: who, knowing the ordinance of God, that they that practise such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also consent with them that practise them.

2 Wherefore thou art without excuse, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest dost practise the same 2 things. And we know that the judgment of God is according 3 to truth against them that practise such things. And reck-onest thou this, O man, who judgest them that practise such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God? Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering, not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? but after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up for thyself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; who will render to every man according to his works: to them that by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and incorruption, eternal life: but unto them that are factious, and obey not the truth, but obey unrighteousness, shall be wrath and indignation, tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that worketh evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Greek; but glory and honor and peace to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek: for there is no respect of persons with God. For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without the law: and as many as have sinned under the law shall be judged by the law; for not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified: (for when Gentiles that have not the law do by nature the things of the law, these, not having the law, are the law unto themselves; in that they show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness therewith, and their thoughts one with another accusing or else excusing them); in the day when God shall judge the secrets of men, according to my gospel, by Jesus Christ. But if thou bearest the name of a Jew, and restest upon the law, and gloriest in God, and knowest his will, and approvest the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law, and art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them that are in darkness, a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of babes, having in the law the form of knowledge and of the truth; thou therefore that teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou rob temples? thou who gloriest in the law, through thy transgression of the law dishonorest thou God? For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you, even as it is written. For circumcision indeed profiteth, if thou be a doer of the law: but if thou be a transgressor of the law, thy circumcision is become uncircumcision.

26 If therefore the uncircumcision keep the ordinances of the law, 27 shall not his uncircumcision be reckoned for circumcision? and shall not the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who with the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the law? For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly; 28 neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh: but he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

3 What advantage then hath the Jew? or what is the profit of 2 circumcision? Much every way: first of all, that they were in- 3 trusted with the oracles of God. For what if some were without faith? shall their want of faith make of none effect the faith- 4 fulness of God? God forbid: yea, let God be found true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy words, And mightest prevail when thou comest into 5 judgment. But if our unrighteousness commendeth the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who 6 visiteth with wrath? (I speak after the manner of men.) God 7 forbid: for then how shall God judge the world? But if the truth of God through my lie abounded unto his glory, why am 8 I also still judged as a sinner? and why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), Let us do 9 evil, that good may come? whose condemnation is just. What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we before 10 laid to the charge both of Jews and Greeks, that they are all under sin; as it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one; 11 There is none that understandeth, There is none that seeketh after God; They have all turned aside, they are together become unprofitable; There is none that doeth good, no, not, so much as 12 one: Their throat is an open sepulchre; With their tongues they 13 have used deceit: The poison of asps is under their lips: Whose 14 mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: Their feet are swift to 15 shed blood; Destruction and misery are in their ways; And the 16, 17 way of peace have they not known: There is no fear of God 18 before their eyes. Now we know that what things soever the 19 law saith, it speaketh to them that are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may be brought under the judgment of God: because by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified in his sight; for through the law cometh the knowledge of sin. But now apart from the law a righteousness of God hath been manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ unto all them that believe; for there is no distinction; for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God; being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: whom God set forth to be a propitiation, through faith, in his blood, to show his righteousness because of the passing over of the sins done aforetime, in the forbearance of God; for the showing, I say, of his righteousness at this present season: that he might himself be just, and the justifier of him that hath faith in Jesus. Where then is the glorying? It is excluded. By what manner of law? of works? Nay: but by a law of faith. We reckon therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from the works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yea, of Gentiles also: if so be that God is one, and he shall justify the circumcision by faith, and the uncircumcision through faith. Do we then make the law of none effect through faith? God forbid: nay, we establish the law.

What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather, hath found according to the flesh? For if Abraham was justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not toward God. For what saith the scripture? And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh, the reward is not reckoned as of grace, but as of debt.
But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is reckoned for righteousness. Even as David also pronounceth blessing upon the man, unto whom God reckoneth righteousness apart from works, saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, And whose sins are covered.
Blessed is the man to whom, the Lord will not reckon sin. Is this blessing then pronounced upon the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say, To Abraham his faith was reckoned for righteousness. How then was it reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision: and he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision; that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might be reckoned unto them; and the father of circumcision to them who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had in uncircumcision. For not through the law was the promise to Abraham or to his seed that he should be heir of the world, but through the righteousness of faith. For if they that are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect: for the law worketh wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there transgression. For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace; to the end that the promise may be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all (as it is written, A father of many nations have I made thee) before him whom he believed, even God, who giveth life to the dead, and calleth the things that are not, as though they were. Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, So shall thy seed be. And without being weakened in faith he considered his own body now as good as dead (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb; yet, looking unto the promise of God, he wavered not through unbelief, but waxed strong through faith, giving glory to God, and being fully assured that what he had promised, he was able also to perform. Wherefore also it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned unto him; but for our sake also, unto whom it shall be reckoned, who believe on him that raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

5 Being therefore justified by faith, we have peace with God 2 through our Lord Jesus Christ; through whom also we have had our access by faith into this grace wherein we stand; and we 3 rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only so, but we also rejoice in our tribulations: knowing that tribulation worketh 4 stedfastness; and stedfastness, approvedness; and approvedness, 5 hope: and hope putteth not to shame; because the love of God hath been shed abroad in our hearts through the Holy Spirit which was given unto us. For while we were yet weak, in due season Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: for peradventure for the good man some one would even dare to die. But God commendeth his own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, shall we be saved from the wrath of God through him. For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, shall we be saved by his life; and not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation. Therefore, as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin; and so death passed unto all men, for that all sinned: for until the law sin was in the world; but sin is not imputed when there is no law. Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is a figure of him that was to come. But not as the trespass, so also is the free gift. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound unto the many. And not as through one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment came of one unto condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses unto justification. For if, by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; much more shall they that receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, even Jesus Christ. So then as through one trespass the judgment came unto all men to condemnation; even so through one act of righteousness the free gift came unto all men to justification of life. For as through the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one shall the many be made righteous. And the law came in besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace did abound more exceedingly: that, as sin reigned in death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. We who died to sin, how shall we

3 any longer live therein? Or are ye ignorant that all we who 4 were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?
5 We were buried therefore with him through baptism unto death: 6 that like as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory 7 of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. For if 8 we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we 9 shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection; knowing this, 10 that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin 11 might be done away, that so we should no longer be in bondage 12 to sin; for he that hath died is justified from sin. But if we 13 died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him; 14 knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; 15 death no more hath dominion over him. For the death that 16 he died, he died unto sin once: but the life that he liveth, he 17 liveth unto God. Even so reckon ye also yourselves to be dead 18 unto sin, but alive unto God in Christ Jesus. Let not sin there-19 fore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey the lusts 20 thereof: neither present your members unto sin as instruments 21 of unrighteousness; but present yourselves unto God, as alive 22 from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteous-23 ness unto God. For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under law, but under grace. What then? shall we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? God forbid.
Know ye not, that to whom ye present yourselves as servants unto obedience, his servants ye are whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? But thanks be to God, that, whereas ye were servants of sin, ye became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching whereunto ye were delivered; and being made free from sin, ye became servants of righteousness. I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity, even so now present your members as servants to righteousness unto sanctification. For when ye were servants of sin, ye were free in regard of righteousness. What fruit then had ye at that time in the things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. But now being made free from sin and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end eternal life. For the wages of sin is death; but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Or are ye ignorant, brethren (for I speak to men who know 7 the law), that the law hath dominion over a man for so long time as he liveth? For the woman that hath a husband is bound by 2 law to the husband while he liveth; but if the husband die, she is discharged from the law of the husband. So then if, while the 3 husband liveth, she be joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if the husband die, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she be joined to another man.
Wherefore, my brethren, ye also were made dead to the law 4 through the body of Christ; that ye should be joined to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bring forth fruit unto God. For when we were in the flesh, the sinful 5 passions, which were through the law, wrought in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. But now we have been discharged 6 from the law, having died to that wherein we were held; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.
What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Howbeit, I 7 had not known sin, except through the law: for I had not known coveting, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet: but sin, 8 finding occasion, wrought in me through the commandment all manner of coveting: for apart from the law sin is dead. And I 9 was alive apart from the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died; and the commandment, which 10 was unto life, this I found to be unto death: for sin, finding 11 occasion, through the commandment beguiled me, and through it slew me. So that the law is holy, and the commandment holy, 12 and righteous, and good. Did then that which is good become death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; – that through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful. For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, 14 sold under sin. For that which I do I know not: for not what 15 I would, that do I practise; but what I hate, that I do. But if 16 what I would not, that I do, I consent unto the law that it is good. So now it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwelleth 17 in me. For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no 18 good thing: for to will is present with me, but to do that which is good is not. For the good which I would I do not: but the 19 20 evil which I would not, that I practise. But if what I would not, that I do, it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwelleth 21 in me. I find then the law, that, to me who would do good, 22 evil is present. For I delight in the law of God after the inward 23 man: but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity under the 24 law of sin which is in my members. Wretched man that I am!

25 who shall deliver me out of the body of this death? I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then I of myself with the mind, indeed, serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to them that are in 2 Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus 3 made me free from the law of sin and of death. For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, condemned 4 sin in the flesh: that the ordinance of the law might be fulfilled 5 in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For they that are after the flesh mind the things of the flesh; but 6 they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For the mind of the flesh is death; but the mind of the Spirit is life and 7 peace: because the mind of the flesh is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can it be: 8, 9 and they that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. But if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, he 10 is none of his. And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because 11 of sin; but the spirit is life because of righteousness. But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, he that raised up Christ Jesus from the dead shall give life also to your mortal bodies through his Spirit that dwelleth 12 in you. So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to 13 live after the flesh: for if ye live after the flesh, ye must die; but if by the Spirit ye put to death the deeds of the body, ye 14 shall live. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these 15 are sons of God. For ye received not the spirit of bondage again unto fear; but ye received the spirit of adoption, whereby 16 we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit himself beareth witness with 17 our spirit, that we are children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified with him. For 18 I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed to us-ward. For the earnest expectation of the creation waiteth for 19 the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected 20 to vanity, not of its own will, but by reason of him who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself also shall be delivered from 21 the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth 22 and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only so, 23 but ourselves also, who have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for our adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. For in hope were we saved: 24 but hope that is seen is not hope: for who hopeth for that which he seeth? But if we hope for that which we see not, then do 25 we with patience wait for it. And in like manner the Spirit 26 also helpeth our infirmity: for we know not how to pray as we ought; but the Spirit himself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered; and he that searcheth the 27 hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. And 28 we know that to them that love God all things work together for good, even to them that are called according to his purpose. For whom he foreknew, he also foreordained to be conformed to 29 the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren: and whom he foreordained, them he also called: and 30 whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. What then shall we say to these things? 31 If God is for us, who is against us? He that spared not his 32 own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not also with him freely give us all things? Who shall lay anything to 33 the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth; who is he 34 that condemneth? It is Christ Jesus that died, yea rather, that was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the 35 love of Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? Even as it is written, 36 For thy sake we are killed all the day long; We were accounted 37 as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more 38 than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor 39 things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9 I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience bearing 2 witness with me in the Holy Spirit, that I have great sorrow 3 and unceasing pain in my heart. For I could wish that I myself 4 were anathema from Christ for my brethren's sake, my kinsmen and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and 5 the service of God, and the promises; whose are the fathers, and of whom is Christ as concerning the flesh, who is over all, 6 God blessed for ever. Amen. But it is not as though the word of God hath come to nought. For they are not all Israel, that 7 are of Israel: neither, because they are Abraham's seed, are 8 they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called. That is, it is not the children of the flesh that are children of God; 9 but the children of the promise are reckoned for a seed. For this is a word of promise, According to this season will I come, 10 and Sarah shall have a son. And not only so; but Rebecca 11 also having conceived by one, even by our father Isaac – for the children being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might 12 stand, not of works, but of him that calleth, it was said unto 13 her, The elder shall serve the younger. Even as it is written, 14 Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated. What shall we say then? Is 15 there unrighteousness with God? God forbid. For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will 16 have compassion on whom I have compassion. So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that 17 hath mercy. For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, For this very purpose did I raise thee up, that I might show in thee my power, and that my name might be published abroad in all the earth.
18 So then he hath mercy on whom he will, and whom he will be 19 hardeneth. Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he still 20 find fault? For who withstandeth his will? Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why didst thou make me thus? Or 21 hath not the potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel unto honor, and another unto dishonor?

What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power 22 known, endured with much longsuffering vessels of wrath fitted unto destruction: and that he might make known the riches 23 of his glory upon vessels of mercy, which he afore prepared unto glory, even us, whom he also called, not from the Jews only, but 24 also from the Gentiles? As he saith also in Hosea, I will call 25 that my people, which was not my people; And her beloved, that was not beloved. And it shall be, that in the place where it was 26 said unto them, Ye are not my people, There shall they be called sons of the living God. And Isaiah crieth concerning Israel, If 27 the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, it is the remnant that shall be saved: for the Lord will execute his 28 word upon the earth, finishing it and cutting it short. And, as 29 Isaiah hath said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, We had become as Sodom, and had been made like unto Gomorrhah. What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, who 30 followed not after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith: but Israel, following after 31 a law of righteousness, did not arrive at that law. Wherefore? 32 Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by works.
They stumbled at the stone of stumbling; even as it is written, 33 Behold, I lay in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offence:
And he that believeth on him shall not be put to shame.

Brethren, my heart's desire and my supplication to God is for 10 them, that they may be saved. For I bear them witness that 2 they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. For 3 being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law unto righteousness to every 4 one that believeth. For Moses writeth that the man that doeth 5 the righteousness which is of the law shall live thereby. But the 6 righteousness which is of faith saith thus, Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down:) or, Who shall descend into the abyss? (That is, to bring Christ 7 up from the dead.) But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, 8 in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which 9 we preach: because if thou shalt confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt believe in thy heart that God raised him from 10 the dead, thou shalt be saved: for with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto 11 salvation. For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him 12 shall not be put to shame. For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek: for the same Lord is Lord of all, and is rich unto 13 all that call upon him: for, Whosoever shall call upon the name 14 of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a 15 preacher? and how shall they preach, except they be sent? even as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that bring 16 glad tidings of good things! But they did not all hearken to the glad tidings. For Isaiah saith, Lord, who hath believed our 17 report? So belief cometh of hearing, and hearing by the word of 18 Christ. But I say, Did they not hear? Yea, verily, Their sound went out into all the earth, And their words unto the ends of 19 the world. But I say, Did Israel not know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation, With 20 a nation void of understanding will I anger you. And Isaiah is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; 21 I became manifest unto them that asked not of me. But as to Israel he saith, All the day long did I spread out my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

11 I say then, Did God cast off his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.
2 God did not cast off his people which he foreknew. Or know ye not what the scripture saith of Elijah? how he pleadeth with 3 God against Israel: Lord, they have killed thy prophets, they have digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they 4 seek my life. But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have left for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed 5 the knee to Baal. Even so then at this present time also there 6 is a remnant according to the election of grace. But if it is by grace, it is no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace.
7 What then? that which Israel seeketh for, that he obtained not; but the election obtained it, and the rest were hardened: 8 according as it is written, God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, unto this very day. And David saith, Let their table be made a 9 snare, and a trap, And a stumblingblock, and a recompense unto them: Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, And 10 bow thou down their back always. I say then, Did they stumble 11 that they might fall? God forbid: but by their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy. Now if 12 their fall, is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness? But I speak to you 13 that are Gentiles. Inasmuch then as I am an apostle of Gentiles, I glorify my ministry; if by any means I may provoke to jealousy 14 them that are my flesh, and may save some of them. For if 15 the casting away of them is the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead? And if 16 the firstfruit is holy, so is the lump: and if the root is holy, so are the branches. But if some of the branches were broken off, 17 and thou, being a wild olive, wast grafted in among them, and didst become partaker with them of the root of the fatness of the olive tree; glory not over the branches: but if thou gloriest, it 18 is not thou that bearest the root, but the root thee. Thou wilt 19 say then, Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

Well; by their unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest 20 by thy faith. Be not highminded, but fear: for if God spared 21 not the natural branches, neither will he spare thee. Behold 22 then the goodness and severity of God: toward them that fell, severity; but toward thee, God's goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off. And they also, 23 if they continue not in their unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again. For if thou wast cut out of that 24 which is by nature a wild olive tree, and wast grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree; how much more shall these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?
For I would not, brethren, have you ignorant of this mystery, 25 lest ye be wise in your own conceits, that a hardening in part hath befallen Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in;
and so all Israel shall be saved: even as it is written, There shall 26 come out of Zion the Deliverer; He shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob: And this is my covenant unto them, When I shall 27 take away their sins. As touching the gospel, they are enemies 28 for your sake: but as touching the election, they are beloved for 29 the fathers' sake. For the gifts and the calling of God are not 30 repented of. For as ye in time past were disobedient to God, 31 but now have obtained mercy by their disobedience, even so have these also now been disobedient, that by the mercy shown 32 to you they also may now obtain mercy. For God hath shut up 33 all unto disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all. O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past 34 tracing out! For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or 35 who hath been his counsellor? or who hath first given to him, 36 and it shall be recompensed unto him again? For of him, and through him, and unto him, are all things. To him be the glory for ever. Amen.

12 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, 2 which is your spiritual service. And be not fashioned according to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is the good and acceptable and 3 perfect will of God. For I say, through the grace that was given me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but so to think as to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to each man a measure of 4 faith. For even as we have many members in one body, and all 5 the members have not the same office: so we, who are many, are 6 one body in Christ, and severally members one of another. And having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion 7 of our faith; or ministry, let us give ourselves to our ministry; 8 or he that teacheth, to his teaching; or he that exhorteth, to his exhorting; he that giveth, let him do it with liberality; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that showeth mercy, with cheer-9 fulness. Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is 10 evil; cleave to that which is good. In love of the brethren be tenderly affectioned one to another; in honor preferring one an-11 other; in diligence not slothful; fervent in spirit; serving the 12 Lord; rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing sted-13 fastly in prayer; communicating to the necessities of the saints; 14 given to hospitality. Bless them that persecute you; bless, and curse not. Rejoice with them that rejoice; weep with them that 15 weep. Be of the same mind one toward another. Set not your 16 mind on high things, but condescend to things that are lowly.

Be not wise in your own conceits. Render to no man evil for 17 evil. Take thought for things honorable in the sight of all men.
If it be possible, as much as in you lieth, be at peace with all 18 men. Avenge not yourselves, beloved, but give place unto the 19 wrath of God: for it is written, Vengeance belongeth unto me; I will recompense, saith the Lord. But if thine enemy hunger, 20 feed him; if he thirst, give him to drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head. Be not overcome of evil, 21 but overcome evil with good.

Let every soul be in subjection to the higher powers: for there 13 is no power but of God; and the powers that be are ordained of God. Therefore he that resisteth the power, withstandeth 2 the ordinance of God: and they that withstand shall receive to themselves judgment. For rulers are not a terror to the good 3 work, but to the evil. And wouldest thou have no fear of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise from the same: for he is a minister of God to thee for good. But if 4 thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is a minister of God, an avenger for wrath to him that doeth evil. Wherefore ye must needs be in subjection, not 5 only because of the wrath, but also for conscience' sake. For 6 this cause ye pay tribute also; for they are ministers of God's service, attending continually upon this very thing. Render 7 to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor. Owe 8 no man anything, save to love one another: for he that loveth his neighbor hath fulfilled the law. For this, Thou shalt not 9 commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not covet, and if there be any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Love worketh no ill to his neighbor: love therefore 10 is the fulfilment of the law. And this, knowing the season, 11 that already it is time for you to awake out of sleep: for now is salvation nearer to us than when we first believed. The night 12 is far spent, and the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. Let us 13 walk becomingly, as in the day; not in revelling and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and jealousy.

14 But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

14 But him that is weak in faith receive ye, yet not for decision 2 of scruples. One man hath faith to eat all things: but he that is 3 weak eateth herbs. Let not him that eateth set at nought him 4 that eateth not; and let not him that eateth not judge him that 5 eateth: for God hath received him. Who art thou that judgest 6 the servant of another? to his own lord he standeth or falleth.
7 Yea, he shall be made to stand; for the Lord hath power to make 8 him stand. One man esteemeth one day above another: another 9 esteemeth every day alike. Let each man be fully assured in his 10 own mind. He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the 11 Lord: and he that eateth, eateth unto the Lord, for he giveth 12 God thanks; and he that eateth not, unto the Lord he eateth 13 not, and giveth God thanks. For none of us liveth to himself, 14 and none dieth to himself. For whether we live, we live unto 15 the Lord; or whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we 16 live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ 17 died and lived again, that he might be Lord of both the dead 18 and the living. But thou, why dost thou judge thy brother?
19 or thou again, why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for 20 we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of God. For it is 21 written, As I live, saith the Lord, to me every knee shall bow, 22 And every tongue shall confess to God. So then each one of 23 us shall give account of himself to God. Let us not therefore 24 judge one another any more: but judge ye this rather, that no 25 man put a stumblingblock in his brother's way, or an occasion 26 of falling. I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that 27 nothing is unclean of itself: save that to him who accounteth 28 anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. For if because 29 of meat thy brother is grieved, thou walkest no longer in love.
30 Destroy not with thy meat him for whom Christ died. Let not 31 then your good be evil spoken of: for the kingdom of God is 32 not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy 33 in the Holy Spirit. For he that herein serveth Christ is well-34 pleasing to God, and approved of men. So then let us follow 35 after things which make for peace, and things whereby we may edify one another. Overthrow not for meat's sake the work of 20 God. All things indeed are clean; howbeit it is evil for that man who eateth with offence. It is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink 21 wine, nor to do anything whereby thy brother stumbleth. The 22 faith which thou hast, have thou to thyself before God. Happy is he that judgeth not himself in that which he approveth. But 23 he that doubteth is condemned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith; and whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

Now we that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the 15 weak, and not to please ourselves. Let each one of us please 2 his neighbor for that which is good, unto edifying. For Christ 3 also pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell upon me. For whatsoever 4 things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that through patience and through comfort of the scriptures we might have hope. Now the God of patience and of comfort grant you 5 to be of the same mind one with another according to Christ Jesus: that with one accord ye may with one mouth glorify the 6 God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive 7 ye one another, even as Christ also received you, to the glory of God. For I say that Christ hath been made a minister of 8 the circumcision for the truth of God, that he might confirm the promises given unto the fathers, and that the Gentiles might 9 glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, Therefore will I give praise unto thee among the Gentiles, And sing unto thy name.
And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people. And 10, 11 again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; And let all the peoples praise him. And again, Isaiah saith, There shall be the root 12 of Jesse, And he that ariseth to rule over the Gentiles; On him shall the Gentiles hope. Now the God of hope fill you with all 13 joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Spirit. And I myself also am persuaded of 14 you, my brethren, that ye yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. But 15 I write the more boldly unto you in some measure, as putting you again in remembrance, because of the grace that was given me of God, that I should be a minister of Christ Jesus unto 16 the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be made acceptable, being sanctified 17 by the Holy Spirit. I have therefore my glorifying in Christ 18 Jesus in things pertaining to God. For I will not dare to speak of any things save those which Christ wrought through me, for 19 the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed, in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Holy Spirit; so that from Jerusalem, and round about even unto Illyricum, I have 20 fully preached the gospel of Christ; yea, making it my aim so to preach the gospel, not where Christ was already named, that 21 I might not build upon another man's foundation; but, as it is written, They shall see, to whom no tidings of him came, And 22 they who have not heard shall understand. Wherefore also I 23 was hindered these many times from coming to you: but now, having no more any place in these regions, and having these 24 many years a longing to come unto you, whensoever I go unto Spain (for I hope to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first in some measure I shall 25 have been satisfied with your company) – but now, I say, I go 26 unto Jerusalem, ministering unto the saints. For it hath been the good pleasure of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints that are at Jerusalem.

27 Yea, it hath been their good pleasure; and their debtors they are.
For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to minister unto them in carnal 28 things. When therefore I have accomplished this, and have 29 sealed to them this fruit, I will go on by you unto Spain. And I know that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness 30 of the blessing of Christ. Now I beseech you, brethren, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, that ye strive 31 together with me in your prayers to God for me; that I may be delivered from them that are disobedient in Judaea, and that my ministration which I have for Jerusalem may be acceptable 32 to the saints; that I may come unto you in joy through the will 33 of God, and together with you find rest. Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

16 I commend unto you Phoebe our sister, who is a servant of 2 the church that is at Cenchreae: that ye receive her in the Lord, worthily of the saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever matter she may have need of you: for she herself also hath been a 3 helper of many, and of mine own self. Salute Prisca and Aquila my fellow-workers in Christ Jesus, who for my life laid down 4 their own necks; unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles: and salute the church that is in 5 their house. Salute Epaphroditus my beloved, who is the first-fruits of Asia unto Christ. Salute Mary, who bestowed much labor 6 on you. Salute Andronicus and Junias, my kinsmen, and my fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also 7 have been in Christ before me. Salute Ampliatus my beloved 8 in the Lord. Salute Urbanus our fellow-worker in Christ, and Stachys my beloved. Salute Apelles the approved in Christ. 9 Salute them that are of the household of Aristobulus. Salute 10 Herodion my kinsman. Salute them of the household of Narcissus, that are in the Lord. Salute Tryphaena and Tryphosa, 12 who labor in the Lord. Salute Persis the beloved, who labored much in the Lord. Salute Rufus the chosen in the Lord, and 13 his mother and mine. Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brethren that are with them. Salute 15 Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints that are with them. Salute one another with a 16 holy kiss. All the churches of Christ salute you. Now I beseech 17 you, brethren, mark them that are causing the divisions and occasions of stumbling, contrary to the doctrine which ye learned: and turn away from them. For they that are such serve not our 18 Lord Christ, but their own belly; and by their smooth and fair speech they beguile the hearts of the innocent. For your obedi- 19 ence is come abroad unto all men. I rejoice therefore over you: but I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple unto that which is evil. And the God of peace shall bruise Satan 20 under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Timothy my fellow-worker saluteth you; and Lucius 21 and Jason and Sosipater, my kinsmen. I Tertius, who write the epistle, salute you in the Lord. Gaius my host, and of the 23 whole church, saluteth you. Erastus the treasurer of the city saluteth you, and Quartus the brother. The grace of our Lord 24 Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen. Now to him that is able to 25 establish you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery which hath been kept in silence through times eternal, but now is mani- 26 fested, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the eternal God, is made known unto all the 27 nations unto obedience of faith: to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through 1 the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, unto the 2 church of God which is at Corinth, even them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, their Lord and ours: Grace to you and peace from God our 3 Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank my God always con- 4 cerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus; that in everything ye were enriched in him, in all utter- 5 ance and all knowledge; even as the testimony of Christ was 6 confirmed in you: so that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for 7 the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ; who shall also confirm 8 you unto the end, that ye be unreprouable in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful, through whom ye were called into 9 the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Now I beseech 10 you, brethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfected together in the same mind and in the same judgment. For it hath been signified unto me con- 11 cerning you, my brethren, by them that are of the household of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. Now this I mean, 12 that each one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos: and I of Cephas; and I of Christ. Is Christ divided? was Paul cru- 13 cified for you? or were ye baptized into the name of Paul? I 14 thank God that I baptized none of you, save Crispus and Gaius; lest any man should say that ye were baptized into my name. 15 And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know 16 not whether I baptized any other. For Christ sent me not to 17 baptize, but to preach the gospel: not in wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made void. For the word of the 18 cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us who are 19 saved it is the power of God. For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, And the discernment of the discerning 20 will I bring to nought. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made fool-21 ish the wisdom of the world? For seeing that in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom knew not God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the preaching to save 22 them that believe. Seeing that Jews ask for signs, and Greeks 23 seek after wisdom: but we preach Christ crucified, unto Jews a 24 stumblingblock, and unto Gentiles foolishness; but unto them that are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, 25 and the wisdom of God. Because the foolishness of God is wiser 26 than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. For behold your calling, brethren, that not many wise after the flesh, 27 not many mighty, not many noble, are called: but God chose the foolish things of the world, that he might put to shame them that are wise; and God chose the weak things of the world, that 28 he might put to shame the things that are strong; and the base things of the world, and the things that are despised, did God choose, yea and the things that are not, that he might bring to 29 nought the things that are: that no flesh should glory before 30 God. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who was made unto us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and 31 redemption: that, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

2 And I, brethren, when I came unto you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony 2 of God. For I determined not to know anything among you, 3 save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. And I was with you in 4 weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. And my speech and my preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but 5 in demonstration of the Spirit and of power: that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of 6 God. We speak wisdom, however, among them that are full-grown: yet a wisdom not of this world, nor of the rulers of this 7 world, who are coming to nought: but we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, even the wisdom that hath been hidden, which God 8 foreordained before the worlds unto our glory: which none of the rulers of this world hath known: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory: but as it is written, Things which eye saw not, and ear heard not, And which entered not into the heart of man, Whatsoever things God prepared for them that love him. But unto us God revealed them through the Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. For who among men knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of the man, which is in him? even so the things of God none knoweth, save the Spirit of God. But we received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is from God; that we might know the things that were freely given to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Spirit teacheth; combining spiritual things with spiritual words. Now the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him; and he cannot know them, because they are spiritually judged. But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, and he himself is judged of no man. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, 3 but as unto carnal, as unto babes in Christ. I fed you with 2 milk, not with meat; for ye were not yet able to bear it: nay, not even now are ye able; for ye are yet carnal: for whereas there 3 is among you jealousy and strife, are ye not carnal, and do ye not walk after the manner of men? For when one saith, I am 4 of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not men? What 5 then is Apollos? and what is Paul? Ministers through whom ye believed; and each as the Lord gave to him. I planted, Apollos 6 watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that 7 planteth anything, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. Now he that planteth and he that watereth are 8 one: but each shall receive his own reward according to his own labor. For we are God's fellow-workers: ye are God's husbandry, 9 God's building. According to the grace of God which was given 10 unto me, as a wise masterbuilder I laid a foundation; and another buildeth thereon. But let each man take heed how he buildeth thereon. For other foundation can no man lay than that which 11 is laid, which is Jesus Christ. But if any man buildeth on the 12 foundation gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, stubble; each 13 man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire itself shall prove each 14 man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work shall abide 15 which he built thereon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall 16 be saved; yet so as through fire. Know ye not that ye are a 17 temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man destroyeth the temple of God, him shall God destroy; 18 for the temple of God is holy, and such are ye. Let no man deceive himself. If any man thinketh that he is wise among you in this world, let him become a fool, that he may become wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is 20 written, He that taketh the wise in their craftiness: and again, The Lord knoweth the reasonings of the wise that they are vain.
21 Wherefore let no one glory in men. For all things are yours; 22 whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or 23 death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; and ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

4 Let a man so account of us, as of ministers of Christ, and 2 stewards of the mysteries of God. Here, moreover, it is required 3 in stewards, that a man be found faithful. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's 4 judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self. For I know nothing against myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth 5 me is the Lord. Wherefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then 6 shall each man have his praise from God. Now these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes; that in us ye might learn not to go beyond the things which are written; that no one of you be puffed up for 7 the one against the other. For who maketh thee to differ? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? but if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory as if thou hadst not received it?
8 Already are ye filled, already ye are become rich, ye have come to reign without us: yea and I would that ye did reign, that we also 9 might reign with you. For, I think, God hath set forth us the apostles last of all, as men doomed to death: for we are made a 10 spectacle unto the world, both to angels and men. We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye have glory, but we have dishonor. Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place; and we toil, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure; being defamed, we entreat: we are made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things, even until now. I write not these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children. For though ye have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers; for in Christ Jesus I begat you through the gospel. I beseech you therefore, be ye imitators of me. For this cause have I sent unto you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who shall put you in remembrance of my ways which are in Christ, even as I teach everywhere in every church. Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will; and I will know, not the word of them that are puffed up, but the power. For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

It is actually reported that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not even among the Gentiles, that one of you hath his father's wife. And ye are puffed up, and did not rather mourn, that he that had done this deed might be taken away from among you. For I verily, being absent in body but present in spirit, have already as though I were present judged him that hath so wrought this thing, in the name of our Lord Jesus, ye being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus, to deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Purge out the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, even as ye are unleavened. For our passover also hath been sacrificed, even Christ: wherefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. I wrote unto you in my epistle to have no company with fornicators; not at all meaning with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous and extortioners, or 11 with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world: but as it is, I wrote unto you not to keep company, if any man that is named a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one 12 no, not to eat. For what have I to do with judging them that 13 are without? Do not ye judge them that are within? But them that are without God judgeth. Put away the wicked man from among yourselves.

6 Dare any of you, having a matter against his neighbor, go 2 to law before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? Or know ye not that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world is judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest 3 matters? Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much 4 more, things that pertain to this life? If then ye have to judge things pertaining to this life, do ye set them to judge who are 5 of no account in the church? I say this to move you to shame.
What, cannot there be found among you one wise man who 6 shall be able to decide between his brethren, but brother goeth 7 to law with brother, and that before unbelievers? Nay, already it is altogether a defect in you, that ye have lawsuits one with another. Why not rather take wrong? why not rather be de-8 frauded? Nay, but ye yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and 9 that your brethren. Or know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither forni-cators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers 10 of themselves with men, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of 11 God. And such were some of you: but ye were washed, but ye were sanctified, but ye were justified in the name of the Lord 12 Jesus Christ, and in the Spirit of our God. All things are lawful for me; but not all things are expedient. All things are lawful for 13 me; but I will not be brought under the power of any. Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall bring to nought both it and them. But the body is not for fornication, but for 14 the Lord; and the Lord for the body: and God both raised the 15 Lord, and will raise up as through his power. Know ye not that your bodies are members of Christ? shall I then take away the members of Christ, and make them members of a harlot? God 16 forbid. Or know ye not that he that is joined to a harlot is one body? for, The twain, saith he, shall become one flesh. But 17 he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit. Flee fornication. 18 Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that 19 committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. Or know 19 ye not that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which ye have from God? and ye are not your own; for ye 20 were bought with a price: glorify God therefore in your body.

Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote: It is good for 7 a man not to touch a woman. But, because of fornications, 2 let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. Let the husband render unto the wife her due: 3 and likewise also the wife unto the husband. The wife hath not 4 power over her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power over his own body, but the wife. De- 5 fraud ye not one the other, except it be by consent for a season, that ye may give yourselves unto prayer, and may be together again, that Satan tempt you not because of your incontinency.
 But this I say by way of concession, not of commandment. Yet 6, 7 I would that all men were even as I myself. Howbeit each man hath his own gift from God, one after this manner, and another after that. But I say to the unmarried and to widows, It is 8 good for them if they abide even as I. But if they have not 9 continency, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.
 But unto the married I give charge, yea not I, but the Lord, That 10 the wife depart not from her husband (but should she depart, 11 let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband); and that the husband leave not his wife. But to the rest say I, 12 not the Lord: If any brother hath an unbelieving wife, and she is content to dwell with him, let him not leave her. And the 13 woman that hath an unbelieving husband, and he is content to dwell with her, let her not leave her husband. For the unbeliev- 14 ing husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the brother: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. Yet if the unbelieving departeth, let him de- 15 part: the brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us in peace. For how knowest thou, O wife, 16 whether thou shalt save thy husband? Or how knowest thou, O husband, whether thou shalt save thy wife? Only, as the Lord 17 hath distributed to each man, as God hath called each, so let 18 him walk. And so ordain I in all the churches. Was any man called being circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Hath any been called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised. Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; 19 but the keeping of the commandments of God. Let each man 20 abide in that calling wherein he was called. Wast thou called being a bondservant? Care not for it: nay, even if thou canst 21 become free, use it rather. For he that was called in the Lord being a bondservant, is the Lord's freedman: likewise he that 22 was called being free, is Christ's bondservant. Ye were bought with a price; become not bondservants of men. Brethren, let 23 each man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God. Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: but I 24 give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be trustworthy. I think therefore that this is good by reason 25 of the distress that is upon us, namely, that it is good for a man to be as he is. Art thou bound unto a wife? Seek not 26 to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? Seek not a wife. But shouldest thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin 27 marry, she hath not sinned. Yet such shall have tribulation in the flesh: and I would spare you. But this I say, brethren, the time 28 is shortened, that henceforth both those that have wives may be as though they had none; and those that weep, as though they 29 wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and those that buy, as though they possessed not; and those 30 that use the world, as not using it to the full: for the fashion of this world passeth away. But I would have you to be free 31 from cares. He that is unmarried is careful for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord: but he that is married is 32 careful for the things of the world, how he may please his wife, and is divided. So also the woman that is unmarried and the 33 virgin is careful for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married is careful 34 for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. And this I say for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare 35 upon you, but for that which is seemly, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. But if any man thinketh 36 that he behaveth himself unseemly toward his virgin daughter, if she be past the flower of her age, and if need so requireth, let him do what he will; he sinneth not; let them marry. But 37 he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power as touching in his own heart, to keep his own virgin daughter, shall do well. So then both he that giveth his own 38 virgin daughter in marriage doeth well; and he that giveth her not in marriage shall do better. A wife is bound for so long 39 time as her husband liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is free to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord. But she 40 is happier if she abide as she is, after my judgment: and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we 8 all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but love edifieth. If 2 any man thinketh that he knoweth anything, he knoweth not yet as he ought to know; but if any man loveth God, the same 3 is known by him. Concerning therefore the eating of things 4 sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no God but one. For though there be that 5 are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth; as there are gods many, and lords many; yet to us there is one God, the 6 Father, of whom are all things, and we unto him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we through him.
Howbeit there is not in all men that knowledge: but some, being 7 used until now to the idol, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled. But food will 8 not commend us to God: neither, if we eat not, are we the worse; nor, if we eat, are we the better. But take heed lest 9 by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to the weak. For if a man see thee who hast knowledge sitting at 10 meat in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols? For through 11 thy knowledge he that is weak perisheth, the brother for whose sake Christ died. And thus, sinning against the brethren, and 12 wounding their conscience when it is weak, ye sin against Christ.
Wherefore, if meat causeth my brother to stumble, I will eat no 13 flesh for evermore, that I cause not my brother to stumble.

Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our 9 Lord? Are not ye my work in the Lord? If to others I am not an 2 apostle, yet at least I am to you; for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord. My defence to them that examine me is 3 4, 5 this. Have we no right to eat and to drink? Have we no right to lead about a wife that is a believer, even as the rest of the 6 apostles, and the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas? Or I only 7 and Barnabas, have we not a right to forbear working? What soldier ever serveth at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not the fruit thereof? Or who feedeth a flock, and 8 eateth not of the milk of the flock? Do I speak these things after the manner of men? or saith not the law also the same?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. Is it for the oxen that God careth, or saith he it assuredly for our sake? Yea, for our sake it was written: because he that ploweth ought to plow in hope, and 11 he that thresheth, to thresh in hope of partaking. If we sowed unto you spiritual things, is it a great matter if we shall reap your carnal things? If others partake of this right over you, do not we yet more? Nevertheless we did not use this right; but we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance to the gospel of Christ.
13 Know ye not that they that minister about sacred things eat of the things of the temple, and they that wait upon the altar have their portion with the altar? Even so did the Lord ordain that 15 they that proclaim the gospel should live of the gospel. But I have used none of these things: and I write not these things that it may be so done in my case; for it were good for me rather to 16 die, than that any man should make my glorifying void. For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of; for necessity is laid upon me; for woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel. For if I do this of mine own will, I have a reward: but if not of mine 18 own will, I have a stewardship intrusted to me. What then is my reward? That, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel without charge, so as not to use to the full my right in the 19 gospel. For though I was free from all men, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more. And to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, not being myself under the 21 law, that I might gain them that are under the law; to them that are without law, as without law, not being without law to God, but under law to Christ, that I might gain them that are 22 without law. To the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak: I am become all things to all men, that I may by all means save some. And I do all things for the gospel's sake, that 23 I may be a joint partaker thereof. Know ye not that they that 24 run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? Even so run; that ye may attain. And every man that striveth in the games 25 exerciseth self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. I therefore so run, 26 as not uncertainly; so fight I, as not beating the air: but I buffet 27 my body, and bring it into bondage: lest by any means, after that I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

For I would not, brethren, have you ignorant, that our fathers 10 were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; and 2 were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; and 3 did all eat the same spiritual food; and did all drink the same 4 spiritual drink: for they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them: and the rock was Christ. Howbeit with most of them God 5 was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.
Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should 6 not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. Neither be ye 7 idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. Neither let us 8 commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. Neither let us make trial of the 9 Lord, as some of them made trial, and perished by the serpents.
Neither murmur ye, as some of them murmured, and perished by 10 the destroyer. Now these things happened unto them by way of 11 example; and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages are come. Wherefore let him that thinketh 12 he standeth take heed lest he fall. There hath no temptation 13 taken you but such as man can bear: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation make also the way of escape, that ye may be able to endure it. Wherefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. 14 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say. The cup of blessing 15, 16 which we bless, is it not a communion of the blood of Christ?
The bread which we break, is it not a communion of the body of Christ? seeing that we, who are many, are one bread, one 17 body: for we are all partake of the one bread. Behold Israel 18 after the flesh: have not they that eat the sacrifices communion with the altar? What say I then? that a thing sacrificed to idols 19 20 is anything, or that an idol is anything? But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have communion 21 with demons. Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of demons: ye cannot partake of the table of the Lord, and of the 22 table of demons. Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we 23 stronger than he? All things are lawful; but not all things are 24 expedient. All things are lawful; but not all things edify. Let no 25 man seek his own, but each his neighbor's good. Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, eat, asking no question for conscience' sake, 26, 27 for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof. If one of them that believe not biddeth you to a feast, and ye are disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for 28 conscience' sake. But if any man say unto you, This hath been offered in sacrifice, eat not, for his sake that showed it, and 29 for conscience sake: conscience, I say, not thine own, but the 30 other's; for why is my liberty judged by another conscience? If I partake with thankfulness, why am I evil spoken of for that 31 for which I give thanks? Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or 32 whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. Give no occasions of stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or to the church of 33 God: even as I also please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of the many, that they may be saved.

11, 2 Be ye imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ. Now I praise you that ye remember me in all things, and hold fast 3 the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God.
4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, 5 dishonoreth his head. But every woman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonoreth her head; for it is one and the 6 same thing as if she were shaven. For if a woman is not veiled, let her also be shorn: but if it is a shame to a woman to be 7 shorn or shaven, let her be veiled. For a man indeed ought not to have his head veiled, forasmuch as he is the image and glory 8 of God: but the woman is the glory of the man. For the man is 9 not of the woman; but the woman of the man: for neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man:

for this cause ought the woman to have a sign of authority on 10 her head, because of the angels. Nevertheless, neither is the 11 woman without the man, nor the man without the woman, in the Lord. For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by 12 the woman; but all things are of God. Judge ye in yourselves: 13 is it seemly that a woman pray unto God unveiled? Doth not 14 even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a dishonor to him? But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory 15 to her: for her hair is given her for a covering. But if any man 16 seemeth to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God. But in giving you this charge, I praise you 17 not, that ye come together not for the better but for the worse.
For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that 18 divisions exist among you; and I partly believe it. For there 19 must be also factions among you, that they that are approved may be made manifest among you. When therefore ye assemble 20 yourselves together, it is not possible to eat the Lord's supper: for in your eating each one taketh before other his own supper; 21 and one is hungry, and another is drunken. What, have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and put them to shame that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you? In this I praise you not. For I received of the 23 Lord that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was betrayed took bread; and when he 24 had given thanks, he brake it, and said, This is my body, which is for you: this do in remembrance of me. In like manner also 25 the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood: this do, as often as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye 26 proclaim the Lord's death till he come. Wherefore whosoever 27 shall eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, shall be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.
But let a man prove himself, and so let him eat of the bread, 28 and drink of the cup. For he that eateth and drinketh, eateth and drinketh judgment unto himself, if he discern not the body.
For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not 30 a few sleep. But if we discerned ourselves, we should not be 31 judged. But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, 32 that we may not be condemned with the world. Wherefore, my 33 brethren, when ye come together to eat, wait one for another.

34 If any man is hungry, let him eat at home; that your coming together be not unto judgment. And the rest will I set in order whensoever I come.

12 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have 2 you ignorant. Ye know that when ye were Gentiles ye were led 3 away unto those dumb idols, howsoever ye might led. Wherefore I make known unto you, that no man speaking in the Spirit of God saith, Jesus is anathema; and no man can say, Jesus is Lord, 4 but in the Holy Spirit. Now there are diversities of gifts, but the 5 same Spirit. And there are diversities of ministrations, and the 6 same Lord. And there are diversities of workings, but the same 7 God, who worketh all things in all. But to each one is given the 8 manifestation of the Spirit to profit withal. For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom; and to another the word 9 of knowledge, according to the same Spirit: to another faith, in the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings, in the one Spirit; 10 and to another workings of miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discernings of spirits; to another divers kinds of 11 tongues; and to another the interpretation of tongues: but all these worketh the one and the same Spirit, dividing to each one 12 severally even as he will. For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one 13 body; so also is Christ. For in one Spirit were we all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; 14 and were all made to drink of one Spirit. For the body is not one member, but many. If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; it is not therefore not of the 15 body. And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; it is not therefore not of the body. If the whole 16 body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling? But now hath God set the 17 members each one of them in the body, even as it pleased him.
18 And if they were all one member, where were the body? But 19, 20 now they are many members, but one body. And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of thee: or again the head to the 21 feet, I have no need of you. Nay, much rather, those members 22 of the body which seem to be more feeble are necessary: and 23 those parts of the body, which we think to be less honorable, upon these we bestow more abundant honor; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness; whereas our comely parts have no need: but God tempered the body together, giving more abundant honor to that part which lacked; that there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another. And whether one member suffereth, all the members suffer with it; or one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it. Now ye are the body of Christ, and severally members thereof. And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, divers kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles? have all gifts of healings? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret? But desire earnestly the greater gifts. And moreover a most excellent way show I unto you.

If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal. And if I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. And if I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing. Love suffereth long, and is kind; love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not its own, is not provoked, taketh not account of evil; rejoiceth not in unrighteousness, but rejoiceth with the truth; beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Love never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall be done away; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall be done away. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part; but when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away. When I was a child, I spake as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child: now that I am become a man, I have put away childish things. For now we see in a mirror, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know fully even as also I was fully known. But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

14 Follow after love; yet desire earnestly spiritual gifts, but rather 2 that ye may prophesy. For he that speaketh in a tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God; for no man understandeth; but 3 in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men edification, and exhortation, and consol-4 ation. He that speaketh in a tongue edifieth himself; but he that 5 prophesieth edifieth the church. Now I would have you all speak with tongues, but rather that ye should prophesy: and greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except 6 he interpret, that the church may receive edifying. But now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, 7 or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching? Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they give not a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is 8 piped or harped? For if the trumpet give an uncertain voice, 9 who shall prepare himself for war? So also ye, unless ye utter by the tongue speech easy to understood, how shall it be known 10 what is spoken? for ye will be speaking into the air. There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and no 11 kind is without signification. If then I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him that speaketh a barbarian, and he 12 that speaketh will be a barbarian unto me. So also ye, since ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may abound unto the 13 edifying of the church. Wherefore let him that speaketh in a 14 tongue pray that he may interpret. For if I pray in a tongue, 15 my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing 16 with the understanding also. Else if thou bless with the spirit, how shall he that filleth the place of the unlearned say the Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest?
17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.
18, 19 I thank God, I speak with tongues more than you all: howbeit in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words 20 in a tongue. Brethren, be not children in mind: yet in malice 21 be ye babes, but in mind be men. In the law it is written, By men of strange tongues and by the lips of strangers will I speak unto this people; and not even thus will they hear me, saith the Lord. Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to the unbelieving: but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to them that believe. If therefore the whole church be assembled together and all speak with tongues, and there come in men unlearned or unbelieving, will they not say that ye are mad? But if all prophesy, and there come in one unbelieving or unlearned, he is reprov'd by all, he is judged by all; the secrets of his heart are made manifest; and so he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is among you indeed. What is it then, brethren? When ye come together, each one hath a psalm, hath a teaching, hath a revelation, hath a tongue, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying. If any man speaketh in a tongue, let it be by two, or at the most three, and that in turn; and let one interpret: but if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God. And let the prophets speak by two or three, and let the others discern. But if a revelation be made to another sitting by, let the first keep silence. For ye all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be exhorted; and the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets; for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace. As in all the churches of the saints, let the women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but let them be in subjection, as also saith the law. And if they would learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home: for it is shameful for a woman to speak in the church. What? was it from you that the word of God went forth? or came it unto you alone? If any man thinketh himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him take knowledge of the things which I write unto you, that they are the commandment of the Lord. But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant. Wherefore, my brethren, desire earnestly to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues. But let all things be done decently and in order.

Now I make known unto you brethren, the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye received, wherein also ye stand, by which also ye are saved, if ye hold fast the word which I preached unto you, except ye believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which also I received: that Christ died 4 for our sins according to the scriptures; and that he was buried; and that he hath been raised on the third day according to the 5 scriptures; and that he appeared to Cephas; then to the twelve; 6 then he appeared to above five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain until now, but some are fallen 7 asleep; then he appeared to James; then to all the apostles; 8 and last of all, as to the child untimely born, he appeared to 9 me also. For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not found vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which 11 was with me. Whether then it be I or they, so we preach, and 12 so ye believed. Now if Christ is preached that he hath been raised from the dead, how say some among you that there is no 13 resurrection of the dead? But if there is no resurrection of the 14 dead, neither hath Christ been raised: and if Christ hath not been raised, then is our preaching vain, your faith also is vain.
15 Yea, we are found false witnesses of God; because we witnessed of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so 16 be that the dead are not raised. For if the dead are not raised, 17 neither hath Christ been raised: and if Christ hath not been 18 raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. Then they also 19 that are fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If we have only 20 hoped in Christ in this life, we are of all men most pitiable. But now hath Christ been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of them 21 that are asleep. For since by man came death, by man came also 22 the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in 23 Christ shall all be made alive. But each in his own order: Christ 24 the firstfruits; then they that are Christ's, at his coming. Then cometh the end, when he shall deliver up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have abolished all rule and all 25 authority and power. For he must reign, till he hath put all his 26 enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be abolished 27 is death. For, He put all things in subjection under his feet. But when he saith, All things are put in subjection, it is evident that 28 he is excepted who did subject all things unto him. And when all things have been subjected unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subjected to him that did subject all things unto him, that God may be all in all. Else what shall they do that are 29 baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them? Why do we also stand in jeopardy 30 every hour? I protest by that glorifying in you, brethren, which 31 I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. If after the manner 32 of men I fought with beasts at Ephesus, what doth it profit me?

If the dead are not raised, let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die. Be not deceived: Evil companionships corrupt good 33 morals. Awake to soberness righteously, and sin not; for some 34 have no knowledge of God: I speak this to move you to shame.
But some one will say, How are the dead raised? and with what 35 manner of body do they come? Thou foolish one, that which 36 thou thyself sowest is not quickened except it die: and that 37 which thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that shall be, but a bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other kind; but 38 God giveth it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own. All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is 39 one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of birds, and another of fishes. There are also celestial bodies, 40 and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. There is one glory of 41 the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory. So 42 also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: it is sown in dishonor; it is raised in 43 glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: it is sown a 44 natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. So also it is written, The 45 first man Adam became a living soul. The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. Howbeit that is not first which is spiritual, but 46 that which is natural; then that which is spiritual. The first man 47 is of the earth, earthy: the second man is of heaven. As is the 48 earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the 49 image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.
Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the 50 kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.
Behold, I tell you a mystery: We all shall not sleep, but we 51 shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, 52 at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. But when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting? The sting of death is sin; and the power of sin is the law: but thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not vain in the Lord.

16 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I gave order to the churches of Galatia, so also do ye. Upon the first day of the week let each one of you lay by him in store, as he may prosper, that no collections be made when I come. And when I arrive, whomsoever ye shall approve, them will I send with letters to carry your bounty unto Jerusalem: and if it be meet for me to go also, they shall go with me. But I will come unto you, when I shall have passed through Macedonia; for I pass through Macedonia; but with you it may be that I shall abide, or even winter, that ye may set me forward on my journey whithersoever I go. For I do not wish to see you now by the way; for I hope to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit. But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost; for a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries. Now if Timothy come, see that he be with you without fear; for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do: let no man therefore despise him. But set him forward on his journey in peace, that he may come unto me: for I expect him with the brethren. But as touching Apollos the brother, I besought him much to come unto you with the brethren: and it was not all his will to come now; but he will come when he shall have opportunity. Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. Let all that ye do be done in love. Now I beseech you, brethren (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have set themselves to minister unto the saints), that ye also be in subjection unto such, and to every one that helpeth in the work and laboreth. And I rejoyce at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they supplied. For they refreshed my spirit and yours: 18 acknowledge ye therefore them that are such. The churches of 19 Asia salute you. Aquila and Prisca salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house. All the brethren salute 20 you. Salute one another with a holy kiss. The salutation of me 21 Paul with mine own hand. If any man loveth not the Lord, let 22 him be anathema. Maranatha. The grace of the Lord Jesus 23 Christ be with you. My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. 24 Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

1 aul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints that are in the 2 whole of Achaia: Grace to you and peace from God 3 our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God 4 of all comfort; who comforteth us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort them that are in any affliction, through 5 the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. For as the sufferings of Christ abound unto us, even so our comfort 6 also aboundeth through Christ. But whether we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; or whether we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which worketh in the patient enduring of 7 the same sufferings which we also suffer: and our hope for you is stedfast; knowing that, as ye are partakers of the sufferings, 8 so also are ye of the comfort. For we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning our affliction which befell us in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, in-9 somuch that we despaired even of life: yea, we ourselves have had the sentence of death within ourselves, that we should not 10 trust in ourselves, but in God who raiseth the dead: who delivered us out of so great a death, and will deliver: on whom 11 we have set our hope that he will also still deliver us; ye also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, for the gift bestowed upon us by means of many, thanks may be 12 given by many persons on our behalf. For our glorifying is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we behaved 13 ourselves in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. For we write no other things unto you, than what ye read or even acknowledge, and I hope ye will acknowledge unto the end: as 14 also ye did acknowledge us in part, that we are your glorying, even as ye also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus. And 15 in this confidence I was minded to come first unto you, that ye might have a second benefit; and by you to pass into Macedo- 16 nia, and again from Macedonia to come unto you, and of you to be set forward on my journey unto Judaea. When I therefore 17 was thus minded, did I show fickleness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the yea yea and the nay nay? But as God is faithful, 18 our word toward you is not yea and nay. For the Son of God, 19 Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timothy, was not yea and nay, but in him is yea. For how many soever be the promises of God, in him is 20 the yea: wherefore also through him is the Amen, unto the glory of God through us. Now he that establisheth us with you in 21 Christ, and anointed us, is God; who also sealed us, and gave 22 us the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts. But I call God for a 23 witness upon my soul, that to spare you I forbare to come unto Corinth. Not that we have lordship over your faith, but are 24 helpers of your joy: for in faith ye stand fast.

But I determined this for myself, that I would not come again 2 to you with sorrow. For if I make you sorry, who then is he that 2 maketh me glad but he that is made sorry by me? And I wrote 3 this very thing, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. For out of much affliction and 4 anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be made sorry, but that ye might know the love that I have more abundantly unto you. But if any hath caused sorrow, he 5 hath caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I press not too heavily) to you all. Sufficient to such a one is this punishment 6 which was inflicted by the many; so that contrariwise ye should 7 rather forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his overmuch sorrow. Wherefore 8 I beseech you to confirm your love toward him. For to this end 9 also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye are obedient in all things. But to whom ye forgive anything, 10 I forgive also: for what I also have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, for your sakes have I forgiven it in the presence of 11 Christ; that no advantage may be gained over us by Satan: for 12 we are not ignorant of his devices. Now when I came to Troas for the gospel of Christ, and when a door was opened unto me 13 in the Lord, I had no relief for my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went forth into 14 Macedonia. But thanks be unto God, who always leadeth us in triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest through us the savor of 15 his knowledge in every place. For we are a sweet savor of Christ 16 unto God, in them that are saved, and in them that perish; to the one a savor from death unto death; to the other a savor from 17 life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? For we are not as the many, corrupting the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, speak we in Christ.

3 Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? or need we, 2 as do some, epistles of commendation to you or from you? Ye are our epistle, written in our hearts, known and read of all men; 3 being made manifest that ye are an epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in tables that are hearts of flesh.
4, 5 And such confidence have we through Christ to God-ward: not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from 6 ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God; who also made us sufficient as ministers of a new covenant; not of the letter, but of 7 the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. But if the ministration of death, written, and engraven on stones, came with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look stedfastly upon the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which glory was 8 passing away: how shall not rather the ministration of the spirit 9 be with glory? For if the ministration of condemnation hath glory, much rather doth the ministration of righteousness exceed 10 in glory. For verily that which hath been made glorious hath not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory 11 that surpasseth. For if that which passeth away was with glory, 12 much more that which remaineth is in glory. Having therefore 13 such a hope, we use great boldness of speech, and are not as Moses, who put a veil upon his face, that the children of Israel should not look stedfastly on the end of that which was passing 14 away: but their minds were hardened: for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remaineth, it not being revealed to them that it is done away in Christ. But unto this day, whensoever Moses is read, a veil lieth upon their heart. But whensoever it shall turn to the Lord, the veil is taken away. Now the Lord is the Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord the Spirit.

Therefore seeing we have this ministry, even as we obtained mercy, we faint not: but we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled in them that perish: in whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not dawn upon them. For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. Seeing it is God, that said, Light shall shine out of darkness, who shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not from ourselves; we are pressed on every side, yet not straitened; perplexed, yet not unto despair; pursued, yet not forsaken; smitten down, yet not destroyed; always bearing about in the body the dying of Jesus, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our body. For we who live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh. So then death worketh in us, but life in you. But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, I believed, and therefore did I speak; we also believe, and therefore also we speak; knowing that he that raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also with Jesus, and shall present us with you. For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, being multiplied through the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound unto the glory of God. Wherefore we faint not; but though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day. For our light affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; 18 while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

5 For we know that if the earthly house of our tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with 2 hands, eternal, in the heavens. For verily in this we groan, longing to be clothed upon with our habitation which is from 3 heaven: if so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.
4 For indeed we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened; not for that we would be unclothed, but that we would be clothed upon, that what is mortal may be swallowed up of 5 life. Now he that wrought us for this very thing is God, who 6 gave unto us the earnest of the Spirit. Being therefore always of good courage, and knowing that, whilst we are at home in the 7 body, we are absent from the Lord (for we walk by faith, not 8 by sight); we are of good courage, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord.
9 Wherefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, 10 to be well-pleasing unto him. For we must all be made manifest before the judgment-seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he hath done, 11 whether it be good or bad. Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest unto God; and I hope that we are made manifest also in your consciences.
12 We are not again commending ourselves unto you, but speak as giving you occasion of glorying on our behalf, that ye may have wherewith to answer them that glory in appearance, and not 13 in heart. For whether we are beside ourselves, it is unto God; 14 or whether we are of sober mind, it is unto you. For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that one died 15 for all, therefore all died; and he died for all, that they that live should no longer live unto themselves, but unto him who 16 for their sakes died and rose again. Wherefore we henceforth know no man after the flesh: even though we have known Christ 17 after the flesh, yet now we know him so no more. Wherefore if any man is in Christ, he is a new creature: the old things 18 are passed away; behold, they are become new. But all things are of God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and gave unto us the ministry of reconciliation; to wit, that God 19 was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself, not reckoning unto them their trespasses, and having committed unto us the word of reconciliation. We are ambassadors therefore on behalf 20 of Christ, as though God were entreating by us: we beseech you on behalf of Christ, be ye reconciled to God. Him who knew no 21 sin he made to be sin on our behalf; that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

And working together with him we entreat also that ye re- 6 ceive not the grace of God in vain (for he saith, At an ac- 2 ceptable time I hearkened unto thee, And in a day of salvation did I succor thee: behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation): giving no occasion of stumbling 3 in anything, that our ministration be not blamed; but in ev- 4 erything commending ourselves, as ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, in stripes, in 5 imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in watchings, in fastings; in pureness, in knowledge, in long suffering, in kindness, in the 6 Holy Spirit, in love unfeigned, in the word of truth, in the power 7 of God; by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report; 8 as deceivers, and yet true; as unknown, and yet well known; 9 as dying, and behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed; as 10 sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things. Our mouth 11 is open unto you, O Corinthians, our heart is enlarged. Ye are 12 not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own affections.
 Now for a recompense in like kind (I speak as unto my children), 13 be ye also enlarged. Be not unequally yoked with unbelievers: 14 for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? or what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath 15 Christ with Belial? or what portion hath a believer with an un-believer? And what agreement hath a temple of God with idols? 16 for we are a temple of the living God; even as God said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore Come ye out from among 17 them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, And touch no unclean thing; And I will receive you, And will be to you a Father, And 18 ye shall be to me sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

7 Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness 2 in the fear of God. Open your hearts to us: we wronged no 3 man, we corrupted no man, we took advantage of no man. I say it not to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in 4 our hearts to die together and live together. Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying on your behalf: I am filled with comfort, I overflow with joy in all our affliction.
5 For even when we were come into Macedonia our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side; without were fightings, within were fears. Nevertheless he that comforteth the 7 lowly, even God, comforted us by the coming of Titus; and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort wherewith he was comforted in you, while he told us your longing, your mourning, 8 your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced yet more. For though I made you sorry with my epistle, I do not regret it: though I did regret it (for I see that that epistle made you sorry, though but for a 9 season), I now rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye were made sorry unto repentance; for ye were made sorry after 10 a godly sort, that ye might suffer loss by us in nothing. For godly sorrow worketh repentance unto salvation, a repentance which bringeth no regret: but the sorrow of the world worketh 11 death. For behold, this selfsame thing, that ye were made sorry after a godly sort, what earnest care it wrought in you, yea what clearing of yourselves, yea what indignation, yea what fear, yea what longing, yea what zeal, yea what avenging! In everything 12 ye approved yourselves to be pure in the matter. So although I wrote unto you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be made manifest unto you in the sight of God.
13 Therefore we have been comforted: And in our comfort we joyed the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit hath 14 been refreshed by you all. For if in anything I have gloried to him on your behalf, I was not put to shame; but as we spake all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before 15 Titus was found to be truth. And his affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembereth the obedience of you 16 all, how with fear and trembling ye received him. I rejoice that in everything I am of good courage concerning you.

Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God 8 which hath been given in the churches of Macedonia; how that 2 in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality. For 3 according to their power, I bear witness, yea and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, beseeching us with much 4 entreaty in regard of this grace and the fellowship in the ministering to the saints: and this, not as we had hoped, but first 5 they gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through the will of God. Inasmuch that we exhorted Titus, that as he made 6 a beginning before, so he would also complete in you this grace also. But as ye abound in everything, in faith, and utterance, 7 and knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also. I speak not by way of 8 commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. For ye know the grace of our 9 Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might become rich.
And herein I give my judgment: for this is expedient for you, 10 who were the first to make a beginning a year ago, not only to do, but also to will. But now complete the doing also; that 11 as there was the readiness to will, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. For if the readiness is there, it is 12 acceptable according as a man hath, not according as he hath not. For I say not this that others may be eased and ye dis- 13 tressed; but by equality: your abundance being a supply at this 14 present time for their want, that their abundance also may become a supply for your want; that there may be equality: as 15 it is written, He that gathered much had nothing over; and he that gathered little had no lack. But thanks be to God, who 16 putteth the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus.
For he accepted indeed our exhortation; but being himself very 17 earnest, he went forth unto you of his own accord. And we have 18 sent together with him the brother whose praise in the gospel is spread through all the churches; and not only so, but who was 19 also appointed by the churches to travel with us in the matter of this grace, which is ministered by us to the glory of the Lord, and to show our readiness: Avoiding this, that any man should 20 blame us in the matter of this bounty which is ministered by us:

21 for we take thought for things honorable, not only in the sight of 22 the Lord, but also in the sight of men. and we have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great 23 confidence which he hath in you. Whether any inquire about Titus, he is my partner and my fellow-worker to you-ward, or our brethren, they are the messengers of the churches, they are 24 the glory of Christ. Show ye therefore unto them in the face of the churches the proof of your love, and of our glorying on your behalf.

9 For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superflu-2 ous for me to write to you: for I know your readiness, of which I glory on your behalf to them of Macedonia, that Achaia hath been prepared for a year past; and your zeal hath stirred up very 3 many of them. But I have sent the brethren, that our glorying on your behalf may not be made void in this respect; that, even 4 as I said, ye may be prepared: lest by any means, if there come with me any of Macedonia and find you unprepared, we (that 5 we say not, ye) should be put to shame in this confidence. I thought it necessary therefore to entreat the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your afore-promised bounty, that the same might be ready as a matter of 6 bounty, and not of extortion. But this I say, He that soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he that soweth bounti-7 fully shall reap also bountifully. Let each man do according as he hath purposed in his heart: not grudgingly, or of necessity: 8 for God loveth a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound unto you; that ye, having always all sufficiency in 9 everything, may abound unto every good work: as it is written, He hath scattered abroad, he hath given to the poor; His righ-10 teousness abideth for ever. And he that supplieth seed to the sower and bread for food, shall supply and multiply your seed for 11 sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness: ye being enriched in everything unto all liberality, which worketh through 12 us thanksgiving to God. For the ministration of this service not only filleth up the measure of the wants of the saints, but 13 aboundeth also through many thanksgivings unto God; seeing that through the proving of you by this ministration they glorify God for the obedience of your confession unto the gospel of Christ, and for the liberality of your contribution unto them and unto all; while they themselves also, with supplication on your behalf, long after you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you. Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift.

Now I Paul myself entreat you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am of good courage toward you: yea, I beseech you, that I may not when present show courage with the confidence wherewith I count to be bold against some, who count of us as if we walked according to the flesh. For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh (for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty before God to the casting down of strongholds), casting down imaginations, and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ; and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience shall be made full. Ye look at the things that are before your face. If any man trusteth in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is Christ's, so also are we. For though I should glory somewhat abundantly concerning our authority (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down), I shall not be put to shame: that I may not seem as if I would terrify you by my letters. For, His letters, they say, are weighty and strong; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech of no account. Let such a one reckon this, that, what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present. For we are not bold to number or compare ourselves with certain of them that commend themselves: but they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding. But we will not glory beyond our measure, but according to the measure of the province which God apportioned to us as a measure, to reach even unto you. For we stretch not ourselves overmuch, as though we reached not unto you: for we came even as far as unto you in the gospel of Christ: not glorying beyond our measure, that is, in other men's labors; but having hope that, as your faith groweth, we shall be magnified in you according to our province unto further abundance, so as to preach the gospel even unto the parts beyond you, and not to glory in another's province in regard of things ready to our hand. But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

11 Would that ye could bear with me in a little foolishness: but indeed ye do bear with me. For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy: for I espoused you to one husband, that I might present you as a pure virgin to Christ. But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve in his craftiness, your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity and the purity that is toward Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or if ye receive a different spirit, which ye did not receive, or a different gospel, which ye did not accept, ye do well to bear with him. For I reckon that I am not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles. But though I be rude in speech, yet am I not in knowledge; nay, in every way have we made this manifest unto you in all things. Or did I commit a sin in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I preached to you the gospel of God for nought? I robbed other churches, taking wages of them that I might minister unto you; and when I was present with you and was in want, I was not a burden on any man; for the brethren, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my want; and in everything I kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself. As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this glorying in the regions of Achaia. Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth. But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them that desire an occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we. For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, fashioning themselves into apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for even Satan fashioneth himself into an angel of light. It is no great thing therefore if his ministers also fashion themselves as ministers of righteousness, whose end shall be according to their works. I say again, let no man think me foolish; but if ye do, yet as foolish receive me, that I also may glory a little. That which I speak, I speak not after the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of glorying. Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also. For ye bear with the foolish gladly, being wise yourselves. For ye bear with a man, if he bringeth you into bondage, if he devoureth you, if he taketh you captive, if he exalteth himself, if he smiteth you on the face. I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been 21 weak. Yet whereinsoever any is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also. Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? 22 so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. Are they 23 ministers of Christ? (I speak as one beside himself) I more; in labors more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths oft. Of the Jews five times received 24 I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods, once 25 was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day have I been in the deep; in journeyings often, in perils of rivers, in 26 perils of robbers, in perils from my countrymen, in perils from the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; in labor and 27 travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. Besides those things that are without, 28 there is that which presseth upon me daily, anxiety for all the churches. Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is caused to 29 stumble, and I burn not? If I must needs glory, I will glory of 30 the things that concern my weakness. The God and Father of 31 the Lord Jesus, he who is blessed for evermore knoweth that I lie not. In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king guarded 32 the city of the Damascenes in order to take me: and through a 33 window was I let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

I must needs glory, though it is not expedient; but I will come 12 to visions and revelations of the Lord. I know a man in Christ, 2 fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I know not; or whether out of the body, I know not; God knoweth), such a one caught up even to the third heaven. And I know such a man (whether 3 in the body, or apart from the body, I know not; God knoweth), how that he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable 4 words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. On behalf of 5 such a one will I glory: but on mine own behalf I will not glory, save in my weaknesses. For if I should desire to glory, I shall 6 not be foolish; for I shall speak the truth: but I forbear, lest any man should account of me above that which he seeth me to be, or heareth from me. And by reason of the exceeding greatness 7 of the revelations, that I should not be exalted overmuch, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, that I should not be exalted overmuch. Concerning this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. And he hath said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. Wherefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong. I am become foolish: ye compelled me; for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing was I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I am nothing. Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, by signs and wonders and mighty works. For what is there wherein ye were made inferior to the rest of the churches, except it be that I myself was not a burden to you? forgive me this wrong. Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be a burden to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. And I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? But be it so, I did not myself burden you; but, being crafty, I caught you with guile. Did I take advantage of you by any one of them whom I have sent unto you? I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps? Ye think all this time that we are excusing ourselves unto you. In the sight of God speak we in Christ. But all things, beloved, are for your edifying. For I fear, lest by any means, when I come, I should find you not such as I would, and should myself be found of you such as ye would not; lest by any means there should be strife, jealousy, wraths, factions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults; lest again when I come my God should humble me before you, and I should mourn for many of them that have sinned heretofore, and repented not of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they committed.

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. At the mouth of two witnesses or three shall every word established. I have 2 said beforehand, and I do say beforehand, as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, to them that have sinned heretofore, and to all the rest, that, if I come again, I will not spare; seeing that ye seek a proof of Christ that speaketh in 3 me; who to you-ward is not weak, but is powerful in you: for 4 he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth through the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him through the power of God toward you. Try your own 5 selves, whether ye are in the faith; prove your own selves. Or know ye not as to your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you? unless indeed ye be reprobate. But I hope that ye shall know 6 that we are not reprobate. Now we pray to God that ye do no 7 evil; not that we may appear approved, but that ye may do that which is honorable, though we be as reprobate. For we can do 8 nothing against the truth, but for the truth. For we rejoice, 9 when we are weak, and ye are strong: this we also pray for, even your perfecting. For this cause I write these things while 10 absent, that I may not when present deal sharply, according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for casting down. Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfected; be 11 comforted; be of the same mind; live in peace: and the God of love and peace shall be with you. Salute one another with a 12 holy kiss. All the saints salute you. The grace of the Lord 13, 14 Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS.

1 aul, an apostle (not from men, neither through man, 2 but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who 3 raised him from the dead), and all the brethren that 4 are with me, unto the churches of Galatia: Grace to 5 you and peace from God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, 6 who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this 7 present evil world, according to the will of our God and Father: 8 to whom be the glory for ever and ever. Amen. I marvel that ye 9 are so quickly removing from him that called you in the grace of 10 Christ unto a different gospel; which is not another gospel only 11 there are some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of 12 Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach 13 unto you any gospel other than that which we preached unto 14 you, let him be anathema. As we have said before, so say I now 15 again, if any man preacheth unto you any gospel other than that 16 which ye received, let him be anathema. For am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? or am I striving to please men? if I were still pleasing men, I should not be a servant of Christ. For I make known to you, brethren, as touching the gospel which was preached by me, that it is not after man. For neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through revelation of Jesus Christ. For ye have heard of my manner of life in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and made havoc of it: and I advanced in the Jews' religion beyond many of mine own age among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers. But when it was the good pleasure of God, who separated me, even from my mother's womb, and called me through his grace, to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles; straightway I conferred not with flesh and blood: neither went I up to Jerusalem to them that were apostles before me: but I went away into Arabia; and again I returned unto Damascus. Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and tarried with him fifteen days. But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother. Now touching the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not. Then I came unto the regions of Syria and Cilicia. And I was still unknown by face unto the churches of Judaea which were in Christ: but they only heard say, He that once persecuted us now preacheth the faith of which he once made havoc; and they glorified God in me.

Then after the space of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me. And I went up by revelation; and I laid before them the gospel which I preach among the Gentiles but privately before them who were of repute, lest by any means I should be running, or had run, in vain. But not even Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: and that because of the false brethren privily brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: to whom we gave place in the way of subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. But from those who were reputed to be somewhat (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God ac-cepteth not man's person) – they, I say, who were of repute imparted nothing to me: but contrariwise, when they saw that I had been intrusted with the gospel of the uncircumcision, even as Peter with the gospel of the circumcision (for he that wrought for Peter unto the apostleship of the circumcision wrought for me also unto the Gentiles); and when they perceived the grace that was given unto me, James and Cephas and John, they who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should go unto the Gentiles, and they unto the circumcision; only they would that we should remember the poor; which very thing I was also zealous to do.
But when Cephas came to Antioch, I resisted him to the face, because he stood condemned. For before that certain came from James, he ate with the Gentiles; but when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing them that were of the 13 circumcision. And the rest of the Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that even Barnabas was carried away with their 14 dissimulation. But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Cephas before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest as do the Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, how compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do 15 the Jews? We being Jews by nature, and not sinners of the 16 Gentiles, yet knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law: because by the works of the law 17 shall no flesh be justified. But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a 18 minister of sin? God forbid. For if I build up again those things 19 which I destroyed, I prove myself a transgressor. For I through 20 the law died unto the law, that I might live unto God. I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I that live, but Christ living in me: and that life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, the faith which is in the Son of God, who loved 21 me, and gave himself up for me. I do not make void the grace of God: for if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nought.

3 O foolish Galatians, who did bewitch you, before whose eyes 2 Jesus Christ was openly set forth crucified? This only would I learn from you. Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, 3 or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in 4 the Spirit, are ye now perfected in the flesh? Did ye suffer so 5 many things in vain? if it be indeed in vain. He therefore that supplieth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?
6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him 7 for righteousness. Know therefore that they that are of faith, 8 the same are sons of Abraham. And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all the nations 9 be blessed. So then they that are of faith are blessed with the 10 faithful Abraham. For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one who continueth not in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them. Now that no man is justified by the law before 11 God, is evident: for, The righteous shall live by faith; and the 12 law is not of faith; but, He that doeth them shall live in them.

Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a 13 curse for us; for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: that upon the Gentiles might come the blessing of 14 Abraham in Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. Brethren, I speak after the manner 15 of men: Though it be but a man's covenant, yet when it hath been confirmed, no one maketh it void, or addeth thereto. Now 16 to Abraham were the promises spoken, and to his seed. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. Now this I say: A covenant confirmed 17 beforehand by God, the law, which came four hundred and thirty years after, doth not disannul, so as to make the promise of none effect. For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more 18 of promise: but God hath granted it to Abraham by promise.
What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, till 19 the seed should come to whom the promise hath been made; and it was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator. Now 20 a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one. Is the law 21 then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness would have been of the law. But the scriptures shut up all 22 things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. But before faith came, we were 23 kept in ward under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. So that the law is become our tutor to 24 bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But 25 now that faith is come, we are no longer under a tutor. For ye 26 are all sons of God, through faith, in Christ Jesus. For as many 27 of you as were baptized into Christ did put on Christ. There 28 can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, there can be no male and female; for ye all are one man in Christ Jesus. And if ye are Christ's, then are ye Abraham's 29 seed, heirs according to promise.

But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he differeth 4 nothing from a bondservant though he is lord of all; but is under 2 guardians and stewards until the day appointed of the father.

3 So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under 4 the rudiments of the world: but when the fulness of the time 5 came, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman, born under the 6 law, that he might redeem them that were under the law, that 7 we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, 8 God sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba, 9 Father. So that thou art no longer a bondservant, but a son; 10 and if a son, then an heir through God. Howbeit at that time, 11 not knowing God, ye were in bondage to them that by nature 12 are no gods: but now that ye have come to know God, or rather 13 to be known by God, how turn ye back again to the weak and 14 beggarly rudiments, whereunto ye desire to be in bondage over 15 again? Ye observe days, and months, and seasons, and years.
16 I am afraid of you, lest by any means I have bestowed labor 17 upon you in vain. I beseech you, brethren, become as I am, for 18 I also am become as ye are. Ye did me no wrong: but ye know 19 that because of an infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel 20 unto you the first time: and that which was a temptation to 21 you in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but ye received 22 me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. Where then is 23 that gratulation of yourselves? for I bear you witness, that, if 24 possible, ye would have plucked out your eyes and given them to 25 me. So then am I become your enemy, by telling you the truth?
26 They zealously seek you in no good way; nay, they desire to shut 27 you out, that ye may seek them. But it is good to be zealously sought in a good matter at all times, and not only when I am present with you. My little children, of whom I am again in travail until Christ be formed in you – but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone; for I am perplexed about you. Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and one by the freewoman. Howbeit the son by the handmaid is born after the flesh; but the son by the freewoman is born through promise. Which things contain an allegory: for these women are two covenants; one from mount Sinai, bearing children unto bondage, which is Hagar. Now this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia and answereth to the Jerusalem that now is: for she is in bondage with her children. But the Jerusalem that is above is free, which is our mother. For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; Break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: For more are the children of the desolate than of her that hath the husband. Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are children of promise. But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, so also it is now. Howbeit what saith the scripture? Cast out the handmaid and her son: for the son of the handmaid shall not inherit with the son of the freewoman. Wherefore, brethren, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the freewoman.

For freedom did Christ set us free: stand fast therefore, and be not entangled again in a yoke of bondage. Behold, I Paul say unto you, that, if ye receive circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. Yea, I testify again to every man that receiveth circumcision, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. Ye are severed from Christ, ye who would be justified by the law; ye are fallen away from grace. For we through the Spirit by faith wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but faith working through love. Ye were running well; who hindered you that ye should not obey the truth? This persuasion came not of him that calleth you. A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. I have confidence to you-ward in the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be. But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? then hath the stumbling-block of the cross been done away. I would that they that unsettle you would even go beyond circumcision. For ye, brethren, were called for freedom; only use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, but through love be servants one to another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another. But I say, walk by the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other; that ye may not do the things that ye would. But if ye are led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousies, wraths, 21 factions, divisions, parties, envyings, drunkenness, revellings, and such like; of which I forewarn you, even as I did forewarn you, that they who practise such things shall not inherit the 22 kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, 23 longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, meekness, self-24 control; against such there is no law. And they that are of Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with the passions and the 25 lusts thereof. If we live by the Spirit, by the Spirit let us also 26 walk. Let us not become vainglorious, provoking one another, envying one another.

6 Brethren, even if a man be overtaken in any trespass, ye who are spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; looking 2 to thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's 3 burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. For if a man thinketh himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.
4 But let each man prove his own work, and then shall he have his 5 glorying in regard of himself alone, and not of his neighbor. For 6 each man shall bear his own burden. But let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good 7 things. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a 8 man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth unto his own flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth 9 unto the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if 10 we faint not. So then, as we have opportunity, let us work that which is good toward all men, and especially toward them that 11 are of the household of the faith. See with how large letters I 12 write unto you with mine own hand. As many as desire to make a fair show in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; only 13 that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. For not even they who receive circumcision do themselves keep the law; but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may 14 glory in your flesh. But far be it from me to glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world hath 15 been crucified unto me, and I unto the world. For neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.
16 And as many as shall walk by this rule, peace be upon them, 17 and mercy, and upon the Israel of God. Henceforth, let no man trouble me; for I bear branded on my body the marks of Jesus.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brethren. 18
Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS.

1 aul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, 2 to the saints that are at Ephesus, and the faithful in 3 Christ Jesus: Grace to you and peace from God our 4 Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Blessed be the God 5 and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with 6 every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ: even 7 as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that 8 we should be holy and without blemish before him in love: hav-9 ing foreordained us unto adoption as sons through Jesus Christ 10 unto himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the 11 praise of the glory of his grace, which he freely bestowed on us 12 in the Beloved: in whom we have our redemption through his 13 blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches 14 of his grace, which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom 15 and prudence, making known unto us the mystery of his will, 16 according to his good pleasure which he purposed in him unto a dispensation of the fulness of the times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things in the heavens, and the things upon the earth; in him, I say, in whom also we were made a heritage, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his will; to the end that we should be unto the praise of his glory, we who had before hoped in Christ: in whom ye also, having heard the word of the truth, the gospel of your salvation, – in whom, having also believed, ye were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, which is an earnest of our inheritance, unto the redemption of God's own possession, unto the praise of his glory. For this cause I also, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which is among you, and the love which ye show toward all the saints, cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him; having the eyes of your heart enlightened, that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, and what the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to that working of the strength of his might which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and made him to sit at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: and he put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

And you did he make alive, when ye were dead through your trespasses and sins, wherein ye once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the powers of the air, of the spirit that now worketh in the sons of disobedience; among whom we also all once lived in the lust of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest: — but God, being rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace have ye been saved), and raised us up with him, and made us to sit with him in the heavenly places, in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus: for by grace have ye been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not of works, that no man should glory. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God afore prepared that we should walk in them. Wherefore remember, that once ye, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called Circumcision, in the flesh, made by hands; that ye were at that time separate from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus ye that once were far off are made nigh in the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who made both one, and brake down 15 the middle wall of partition, having abolished in the flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; that he might create in himself of the two one new man, so 16 making peace; and might reconcile them both in one body unto 17 God through the cross, having slain the enmity thereby: and he came and preached peace to you that were far off, and peace to 18 them that were nigh: for through him we both have our access 19 in one Spirit unto the Father. So then ye are no more strangers and sojourners, but ye are fellow-citizens with the saints, and of 20 the household of God, being built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief corner 21 stone; in whom each several building, fitly framed together, 22 groweth into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

3 For this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus in behalf of 2 you Gentiles, – if so be that ye have heard of the dispensation 3 of that grace of God which was given me to you-ward; how that by revelation was made known unto me the mystery, as 4 I wrote before in few words, whereby, when ye read, ye can 5 perceive my understanding in the mystery of Christ; which in other generations was not made known unto the sons of men, as it hath now been revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets in 6 the Spirit; to wit, that the Gentiles are fellow-heirs, and fellow-members of the body, and fellow-partakers of the promise in 7 Christ Jesus through the gospel, whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of that grace of God which was given me 8 according to the working of his power. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, was this grace given, to preach unto 9 the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; and to make all men see what is the dispensation of the mystery which for ages 10 hath been hid in God who created all things; to the intent that now unto the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places might be made known through the church the manifold wisdom 11 of God, according to the eternal purpose which he purposed in 12 Christ Jesus our Lord: in whom we have boldness and access 13 in confidence through our faith in him. Wherefore I ask that ye may not faint at my tribulations for you, which are your glory.
14, 15 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father, from whom 16 every family in heaven and on earth is named, that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that ye may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be strong to apprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled unto all the fulness of God. Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus unto all generations for ever and ever. Amen.

I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beseech you to walk worthily of the calling wherewith ye were called, with all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; giving diligence to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as also ye were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all. But unto each one of us was the grace given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Wherefore he saith, When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive, And gave gifts unto men. (Now this, He ascended, what is it but that he also descended into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.) And he gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, unto the work of ministering, unto the building up of the body of Christ: till we all attain unto the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a fullgrown man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: that we may be no longer children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error; but speaking truth in love, we may grow up in all things into him, who is the head, even Christ; from whom all the body fitly framed and knit together through that which every joint supplieth, according to the working in due measure of each several part, maketh the increase of the body unto the building up of itself in love. This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye no longer walk as the Gentiles also walk, in the vanity 18 of their mind, being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, 19 because of the hardening of their heart; who being past feeling gave themselves up to lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness 20, 21 with greediness. But ye did not so learn Christ; if so be that ye heard him, and were taught in him, even as truth is in Jesus: 22 that ye put away, as concerning your former manner of life, the 23 old man, that waxeth corrupt after the lusts of deceit; and that 24 ye be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and put on the new man, that after God hath been created in righteousness and ho-25 liness of truth. Wherefore, putting away falsehood, speak ye truth each one with his neighbor: for we are members one of 26 another. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down 27, 28 upon your wrath: neither give place to the devil. Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing that is good, that he may have whereof to give 29 to him that hath need. Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for edifying as the need may 30 be, that it may give grace to them that hear. And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, in whom ye were sealed unto the day 31 of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and 32 clamor, and railing, be put away from you, with all malice: and be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, even as God also in Christ forgave you.

5, 2 Be ye therefore imitators of God, as beloved children; and walk in love, even as Christ also loved you, and gave himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for an odor of a sweet 3 smell. But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, 4 let it not even be named among you, as becometh saints; nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, or jesting, which are not befitting: 5 but rather giving of thanks. For this ye know of a surety, that no fornicator, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God.
6 Let no man deceive you with empty words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the sons of disobedience.
7, 8 Be not ye therefore partakers with them; For ye were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord: walk as children of light 9 (for the fruit of the light is in all goodness and righteousness and truth), proving what is well-pleasing unto the Lord; and have 10, 11 no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even reprove them; for the things which are done by them in 12 secret it is a shame even to speak of. But all things when they 13 are reproved are made manifest by the light: for everything that is made manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake, thou that 14 sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall shine upon thee. Look therefore carefully how ye walk, not as unwise, but 15 as wise; redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Where- 16, 17 fore be ye not foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. And be not drunken with wine, wherein is riot, but be filled 18 with the Spirit; speaking one to another in psalms and hymns 19 and spiritual songs, singing and making melody with your heart to the Lord; giving thanks always for all things in the name 20 of our Lord Jesus Christ to God, even the Father; subjecting 21 yourselves one to another in the fear of Christ. Wives, be in 22 subjection unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the 23 husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the head of the church, being himself the saviour of the body. But as the 24 church is subject to Christ, so let the wives also be to their husbands in everything. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ 25 also loved the church, and gave himself up for it; that he might 26 sanctify it, having cleansed it by the washing of water with the word, that he might present the church to himself a glorious 27 church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Even so ought husbands 28 also to love their own wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his own wife loveth himself: for no man ever hated his own 29 flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as Christ also the church; because we are members of his body. For this cause 30, 31 shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh. This mystery is great: 32 but I speak in regard of Christ and of the church. Nevertheless 33 do ye also severally love each one his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she fear her husband.

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. 6 Honor thy father and mother (which is the first commandment 2 with promise), that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest 3 live long on the earth. And, ye fathers, provoke not your chil- 4 dren to wrath: but nurture them in the chastening and admonition of the Lord. Servants, be obedient unto them that according to the flesh are your masters, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ; not in the way of eyeservice, as men-pleasers; but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; with good will doing service, as unto the Lord, and not unto men: knowing that whatsoever good thing each one doeth, the same shall he receive again from the Lord, whether he be bond or free. And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, and forbear threatening: knowing that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no respect of persons with him. Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world-rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. Wherefore take up the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; withal taking up the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: with all prayer and supplication praying at all seasons in the Spirit, and watching thereunto in all perseverance and supplication for all the saints, And on my behalf, that utterance may be given unto me in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak. But that ye also may know my affairs, how I do, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things: whom I have sent unto you for this very purpose, that ye may know our state, and that he may comfort your hearts. Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ with a love incorruptible.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, to all the 1 saints in Christ Jesus that are at Philippi, with the 2 bishops and deacons: Grace to you and peace from 3 God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank 4 my God upon all my remembrance of you, always in every sup- 5 plication of mine on behalf of you all making my supplication 6 with joy, for your fellowship in furtherance of the gospel from 7 the first day until now; being confident of this very thing, that 8 he who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day 9 of Jesus Christ: even as it is right for me to be thus minded 10 on behalf of you all, because I have you in my heart, inasmuch 11 as, both in my bonds and in the defence and confirmation of the 12 gospel, ye all are partakers with me of grace. For God is my 13 witness, how I long after you all in the tender mercies of Christ 14 Jesus. And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and 15 more in knowledge and all discernment; so that ye may approve 16 the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and void 17 of offence unto the day of Christ; being filled with the fruits 18 of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. Now I would have you know, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the progress of the gospel; so that my bonds became manifest in Christ throughout the whole praetorian guard, and to all the rest; and that most of the brethren in the Lord, being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold to speak the word of God without fear. Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will: the one do it of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel; but the other proclaim Christ of faction, not sincerely, thinking to raise up affliction for me in my bonds. What then? only that in every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; 19 and therein I rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. For I know that this shall turn out to my salvation, through your supplication 20 and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, according to my earnest expectation and hope, that in nothing shall I be put to shame, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ 21 shall be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death. For 22 to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. But if to live in the flesh, — if this shall bring fruit from my work, then what I shall 23 choose I know not. But I am in a strait betwixt the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ; for it is very far better: 24, 25 yet to abide in the flesh is more needful for your sake. And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide, yea, and abide 26 with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith; that your glorying may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my presence 27 with you again. Only let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ: that, whether I come and see you or be absent, I may hear of your state, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with 28 one soul striving for the faith of the gospel; and in nothing affrighted by the adversaries: which is for them an evident token 29 of perdition, but of your salvation, and that from God; because to you it hath been granted in the behalf of Christ, not only to 30 believe on him, but also to suffer in his behalf: having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

2 If there is therefore any exhortation in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tender mercies 2 and compassions, make full my joy, that ye be of the same mind, 3 having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind; doing nothing through faction or through vainglory, but in lowliness of 4 mind each counting other better than himself; not looking each of you to his own things, but each of you also to the things of 5 others. Have this mind in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: 6 who, existing in the form of God, counted not the being on an 7 equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men; 8 and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, becoming obedient even unto death, yea, the death of the cross.
9 Wherefore also God highly exalted him, and gave unto him the 10 name which is above every name; that in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven and things on earth and things under the earth, and that every tongue should confess 11 that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. So 12 then, my beloved, even as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who wor- 13 keth in you both to will and to work, for his good pleasure. Do 14 all things without murmurings and questionings: that ye may 15 become blameless and harmless, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom ye are seen as lights in the world, holding forth the word 16 of life; that I may have whereof to glory in the day of Christ, that I did not run in vain neither labor in vain. Yea, and if 17 I am offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all: and in the same manner do ye also 18 joy, and rejoice with me. But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send 19 Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state. For I have no man likeminded, who 20 will care truly for your state. For they all seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. But ye know the proof of him, that, 21 as a child serveth a father, so he served with me in furtherance of the gospel. Him therefore I hope to send forthwith, so soon 23 as I shall see how it will go with me: but I trust in the Lord 24 that I myself also shall come shortly. But I counted it neces- 25 sary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow-worker and fellow-soldier, and your messenger and minister to my need; since he longed after you all, and was sore troubled, because ye 26 had heard that he was sick: for indeed he was sick nigh unto 27 death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. I have sent 28 him therefore the more diligently, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. Receive 29 him therefore in the Lord with all joy; and hold such in honor: because for the work of Christ he came nigh unto death, haz- 30 arding his life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same 3 things to you, to me indeed is not irksome, but for you it is safe. Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of 2 the concision: for we are the circumcision, who worship by the 3

Spirit of God, and glory in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence 4 in the flesh: though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh: if any other man thinketh to have confidence in the flesh, 5 I yet more: circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as touching the law, 6 a Pharisee; as touching zeal, persecuting the church; as touching 7 the righteousness which is in the law, found blameless. Howbeit what things were gain to me, these have I counted loss for Christ.
8 Yea verily, and I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but refuse, that I may gain 9 Christ, and be found in him, not having a righteousness of mine own, even that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith: 10 that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming conformed unto his death; 11 if by any means I may attain unto the resurrection from the dead.
12 Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect: but I press on, if so be that I may lay hold on that for which also 13 I was laid hold on by Christ Jesus. Brethren, I count not myself yet to have laid hold: but one thing I do, forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which 14 are before, I press on toward the goal unto the prize of the high 15 calling of God in Christ Jesus. Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, be thus minded: and if in anything ye are otherwise 16 minded, this also shall God reveal unto you: only, whereunto 17 we have attained, by that same rule let us walk. Brethren, be ye imitators together of me, and mark them that so walk even as 18 ye have us for an ensample. For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies 19 of the cross of Christ: whose end is perdition, whose god is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly 20 things. For our citizenship is in heaven; whence also we wait for 21 a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall fashion anew the body of our humiliation, that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, according to the working whereby he is able even to subject all things unto himself.

4 Wherefore, my brethren beloved and longed for, my joy and 2 crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my beloved. I exhort Euo-dia, and I exhort Syntyche, to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yea, I beseech thee also, true yokefellow, help these women, for they labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow-workers, whose names are in the book of life. Rejoice in the Lord always: again I will say, Rejoice. Let your forbearance be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. In nothing be anxious; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honorable, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. The things which ye both learned and received and heard and saw in me, these things do: and the God of peace shall be with you. But I rejoice in the Lord greatly, that now at length ye have revived your thought for me; wherein ye did indeed take thought, but ye lacked opportunity. Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therein to be content. I know how to be abased, and I know also how to abound: in everything and in all things have I learned the secret both to be filled and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in want. I can do all things in him that strengtheneth me. Howbeit ye did well that ye had fellowship with my affliction. And ye yourselves also know, ye Philippians, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church had fellowship with me in the matter of giving and receiving but ye only; for even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my need. Not that I seek for the gift; but I seek for the fruit that increaseth to your account. But I have all things, and abound: I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things that came from you, an odor of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God. And my God shall supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. Now unto our God and Father be the glory for ever and ever. Amen. Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren that are with me salute you. All the saints salute you, especially they that are of Caesar's household. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS.

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, 1 and Timothy our brother, To the saints and faithful 2 brethren in Christ that are at Colossae: Grace to you 3 and peace from God our Father. We give thanks to 3 God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, 4 having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which 4 ye have toward all the saints, because of the hope which is laid 5 up for you in the heavens, whereof ye heard before in the word 5 of the truth of the gospel, which is come unto you; even as it 6 is also in all the world bearing fruit and increasing, as it doth 6 in you also, since the day ye heard and knew the grace of God 7 in truth; even as ye learned of Epaphras our beloved fellow- 7 servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf, who 8 also declared unto us your love in the Spirit. For this cause we 9 also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray and make 9 request for you, that ye may be filled with the knowledge of his 10 will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, to walk worthily 10 of the Lord unto all pleasing, bearing fruit in every good work, 11 and increasing in the knowledge of God; strengthened with all 11 power, according to the might of his glory, unto all patience 12 and longsuffering with joy; giving thanks unto the Father, who 12 made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints 13 in light; who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and 13 translated us into the kingdom of the Son of his love; in whom 14 we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins: who is the 15 image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in 16 him were all things created, in the heavens and upon the earth, 16 things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions 17 or principalities or powers; all things have been created through 17 him, and unto him; and he is before all things, and in him all 17 18 things consist. And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all 19 things he might have the preeminence. For it was the good pleasure of the Father that in him should all the fulness dwell; 20 and through him to reconcile all things unto himself, having made peace through the blood of his cross; through him, I say, 21 whether things upon the earth, or things in the heavens. And you, being in time past alienated and enemies in your mind in 22 your evil works, yet now hath he reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and without blemish and 23 unreprieveable before him: if so be that ye continue in the faith, grounded and stedfast, and not moved away from the hope of the gospel which ye heard, which was preached in all creation under 24 heaven; whereof I Paul was made a minister. Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, 25 which is the church; whereof I was made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which was given me to you-ward, 26 to fulfil the word of God, even the mystery which hath been hid for ages and generations: but now hath it been manifested 27 to his saints, to whom God was pleased to make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, 28 which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, 29 that we may present every man perfect in Christ; whereunto I labor also, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

2 For I would have you know how greatly I strive for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face 2 in the flesh; that their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of God, even 3 Christ, in whom are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge 4 hidden. This I say, that no one may delude you with persua-5 siveness of speech. For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and 6 the stedfastness of your faith in Christ. As therefore ye received 7 Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, rooted and builded up in him, and established in your faith, even as ye were taught, abounding in thanksgiving. Take heed lest there shall be any 8 one that maketh spoil of you through his philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ: for in him dwelleth all the fulness of the 9 Godhead bodily, and in him ye are made full, who is the head 10 of all principality and power: in whom ye were also circumcised 11 with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ; having been 12 buried with him in baptism, wherein ye were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead. And you, being dead through your trespasses and the un- 13 circumcision of your flesh, you, I say, did he make alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses; having blotted 14 out the bond written in ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us: and he hath taken it out that way, nailing it to the cross; having despoiled the principalities and the pow- 15 ers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it. Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in 16 respect of a feast day or a new moon or a sabbath day: which 17 are a shadow of the things to come; but the body is Christ's.

Let no man rob you of your prize by a voluntary humility and 18 worshipping of the angels, dwelling in the things which he hath seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, and not holding fast 19 the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and bands, increasing with the increase of God. If ye died with Christ from the rudiments of the world, 20 why, as though living in the world, do ye subject yourselves to ordinances, Handle not, nor taste, nor touch (all which things 21, 22 are to perish with the using), after the precepts and doctrines of men? Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in will- 23 worship, and humility, and severity to the body; but are not of any value against the indulgence of the flesh.

If then ye were raised together with Christ, seek the things 3 that are above, where Christ is, seated on the right hand of God.
Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things 2 that are upon the earth. For ye died, and your life is hid with 3 Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall be mani- 4 fested, then shall ye also with him be manifested in glory. Put to 5 death therefore your members which are upon the earth: fornication tion, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which 6 is idolatry; for which things' sake cometh the wrath of God 7 upon the sons of disobedience: wherein ye also once walked, 8 when ye lived in these things; but now do ye also put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, railing, shameful speaking out of 9 your mouth: lie not one to another; seeing that ye have put off 10 the old man with his doings, and have put on the new man, that is being renewed unto knowledge after the image of him 11 that created him: where there cannot be Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, bondman, 12 freeman; but Christ is all, and in all. Put on therefore, as God's elect, holy and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, 13 lowliness, meekness, longsuffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving each other, if any man have a complaint against any; 14 even as the Lord forgave you, so also do ye: and above all these 15 things put on love, which is the bond of perfectness. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to the which also ye were 16 called in one body; and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with 17 grace in your hearts unto God. And whatsoever ye do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to 18 God the Father through him. Wives, be in subjection to your 19 husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, 20 and be not bitter against them. Children, obey your parents 21 in all things, for this is well-pleasing in the Lord. Fathers, pro-22 voke not your children, that they be not discouraged. Servants, obey in all things them that are your masters according to the flesh; not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of 23 heart, fearing the Lord: whatsoever ye do, work heartily, as 24 unto the Lord, and not unto men; knowing that from the Lord ye shall receive the recompense of the inheritance: ye serve the 25 Lord Christ. For he that doeth wrong shall receive again for the wrong that he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

4 Masters, render unto your servants that which is just and 2 equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven. Continue 3 stedfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving; withal praying for us also, that God may open unto us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds; that I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak. Walk 4, 5 in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that 6 ye may know how ye ought to answer each one. All my affairs 7 shall Tychicus make known unto you, the beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord: whom I have 8 sent you for this very purpose, that ye may know our state, and that he may comfort your hearts; together with Onesimus, the 9 faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things that are done here. Aristarchus my 10 fellow-prisoner saluteth you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (touching whom ye received commandments; if he come unto you, receive him), and Jesus that is called Justus, who are of the 11 circumcision: these only are my fellow-workers unto the kingdom of God, men that have been a comfort unto me. Epaphras, who 12 is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, saluteth you, always striving for you in his prayers, that ye may stand perfect and fully assured in all the will of God. For I bear him witness, 13 that he hath much labor for you, and for them in Laodicea, and for them in Hierapolis. Luke, the beloved physician, and 14 Demas salute you. Salute the brethren that are in Laodicea, 15 and Nymphas, and the church that is in their house. And when 16 this epistle hath been read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye also read the epistle from Laodicea. And say to Archippus, Take heed to the 17 ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it. The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand. Remember 18 my bonds. Grace be with you.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, unto the church of the 2 Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus 3 Christ: Grace to you and peace. We give thanks to 4 God always for you all, making mention of you in our 5 prayers; remembering without ceasing your work of faith and 6 labor of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, 7 before our God and Father; knowing, brethren beloved of God, 8 your election, how that our gospel came not unto you in word 9 only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much 10 assurance; even as ye know what manner of men we showed ourselves toward you for your sake. And ye became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit; so that ye became an ensample to all that believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you hath sounded forth the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith to God-ward is gone forth; so that we need not to speak anything. For they themselves report concerning us what manner of entering in we had unto you; and how ye turned unto God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, who delivereth us from the wrath to come.

2 For yourselves, brethren, know our entering in unto you, that 2 it hath not been found vain: but having suffered before and been shamefully treated, as ye know, at Philippi, we waxed bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God in much conflict.
3 For our exhortation is not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in 4 guile: but even as we have been approved of God to be intrusted with the gospel, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God who 5 proveth our hearts. For neither at any time were we found using words of flattery, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness,

God is witness; nor seeking glory of men, neither from you nor 6 from others, when we might have claimed authority as apostles 6 of Christ. But we were gentle in the midst of you, as when 7 a nurse cherisheth her own children: even so, being affection- 8 ately desirous of you, we were well pleased to impart unto you, 8 not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye 9 were become very dear to us. For ye remember, brethren, our 9 labor and travail: working night and day, that we might not 9 burden any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. 10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and righteously and 10 unblameably we behaved ourselves toward you that believe: as 11 ye know how we dealt with each one of you, as a father with 11 his own children, exhorting you, and encouraging you, and tes- 12 tifying, to the end that ye should walk worthily of God, who 12 calleth you into his own kingdom and glory. And for this cause 13 we also thank God without ceasing, that, when ye received from 13 us the word of the message, even the word of God, ye accepted 14 it not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of 14 God, which also worketh in you that believe. For ye, brethren, 14 became imitators of the churches of God which are in Judaea in 15 Christ Jesus: for ye also suffered the same things of your own 15 countrymen, even as they did of the Jews; who both killed the 15 Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drove out us, and pleased not 16 God, and are contrary to all men; forbidding us to speak to 16 the Gentiles that they may be saved; to fill up their sins always: 16 but the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost. But we, 17 brethren, being bereaved of you for a short season, in presence 17 not in heart, endeavored the more exceedingly to see your face 17 with great desire: because we would fain have come unto you, 18 I Paul once and again; and Satan hindered us. For what is our 19 hope, or joy, or crown of glorying? Are not even ye, before our 19 Lord Jesus at his coming? For ye are our glory and our joy. 20

Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it 3 good to be left behind at Athens alone; and sent Timothy, our 2 brother and God's minister in the gospel of Christ, to establish 2 you, and to comfort you concerning your faith; that no man 3 be moved by these afflictions; for yourselves know that hereunto 3 we are appointed. For verily, when we were with you, we told 4 you beforehand that we are to suffer affliction; even as it came 4 5 to pass, and ye know. For this cause I also, when I could no longer forbear, sent that I might know your faith, lest by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor should be 6 in vain. But when Timothy came even now unto us from you, and brought us glad tidings of your faith and love, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, longing to see us, even as 7 we also to see you; for this cause, brethren, we were comforted 8 over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith: for 9 now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord. For what thanksgiving can we render again unto God for you, for all the joy wherewith 10 we joy for your sakes before our God; night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that 11 which is lacking in your faith? Now may our God and Father 12 himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way unto you: and the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we also do toward you; 13 to the end he may establish your hearts unblameable in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

4 Finally then, brethren, we beseech and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that, as ye received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, even as ye do walk, – that ye abound more and 2 more. For ye know what charge we gave you through the Lord 3 Jesus. For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that 4 ye abstain from fornication; that each one of you know how to possess himself of his own vessel in sanctification and honor, 5 not in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles who know not 6 God; that no man transgress, and wrong his brother in the matter: because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as 7 also we forewarned you and testified. For God called us not for 8 uncleanness, but in sanctification. Therefore he that rejecteth, rejecteth not man, but God, who giveth his Holy Spirit unto 9 you. But concerning love of the brethren ye have no need that one write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love 10 one another; for indeed ye do it toward all the brethren that are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brethren, that ye 11 abound more and more; and that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your hands, even as we 12 charged you; that ye may walk becomingly toward them that are without, and may have need of nothing. But we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning them that fall asleep; that ye sorrow not, even as the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also that are fallen asleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we that are alive, that are left unto the coming of the Lord, shall in no wise precede them that are fallen asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven, with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first; then we that are alive, that are left, shall together with them be caught up in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

But concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that aught be written unto you. For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. When they are saying, Peace and safety, then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall in no wise escape. But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief: for ye are all sons of light, and sons of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness; so then let us not sleep, as do the rest, but let us watch and be sober. For they that sleep sleep in the night: and they that are drunken are drunken in the night. But let us, since we are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation. For God appointed us not into wrath, but unto the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. Wherefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as also ye do.
But we beseech you, brethren, to know them that labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; and to esteem them exceeding highly in love for their work's sake.
Be at peace among yourselves. And we exhort you, brethren, admonish the disorderly, encourage the fainthearted, support the weak, be longsuffering toward all. See that none render unto any one evil for evil; but always follow after that which is good, one toward another, and toward all. Rejoice always; pray without 18 ceasing; in everything give thanks: for this is the will of God 19, 20 in Christ Jesus to you-ward. Quench not the Spirit; despise 21 not prophesyings; prove all things; hold fast that which is good; 22, 23 abstain from every form of evil. And the God of peace himself sanctify you wholly; and may your spirit and soul and body be 24 preserved entire, without blame at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is he that calleth you, who will also do it.

25, 26 Brethren, pray for us. Salute all the brethren with a holy kiss.
27 I adjure you by the Lord that this epistle be read unto all the 28 brethren. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, unto the church of the 1 Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus 2 Christ; Grace to you and peace from God the Father 3 and the Lord Jesus Christ. We are bound to give 4 thanks to God always to you, brethren, even as it is meet, for 5 that your faith growth exceedingly, and the love of each one of 6 you all toward one another aboundeth; so that we ourselves 7 glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith 8 in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which ye endure; 9 which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God; 10 to the end that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of 11 God, for which ye also suffer: if so be that it is righteous thing 12 with God to recompense affliction to them that afflict you, and 1 to you that are afflicted rest with us, at the revelation of the 2 Lord Jesus from heaven with the angels of his power in flaming 3 fire, rendering vengeance to them that know not God, and to 4 them that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus: who shall 5 suffer punishment, even eternal destruction from the face of the 6 Lord and from the glory of his might, when he shall come to 7 be glorified in his saints, and to be marvelled at in all them that 8 believed (because our testimony unto you was believed) in that 9 day. To which end we also pray always for you, that our God 10 may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfil every desire of 11 goodness and every work of faith, with power; that the name of 12 our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Now we beseech you, brethren, touching the coming of our 2 Lord Jesus Christ, and our gathering together unto him; to the 2 end that ye be not quickly shaken from your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by epistle as from us, 3 as that the day of the Lord is just at hand; let no man beguile you in any wise: for it will not be, except the falling away come 4 first, and the man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition, he that opposeth and exalteth himself against all that is called God or that is worshipped; so that he sitteth in the temple of God, 5 setting himself forth as God. Remember ye not, that, when I 6 was yet with you, I told you these things? And now ye know that which restraineth, to the end that he may be revealed in his 7 own season. For the mystery of lawlessness doth already work: only there is one that restraineth now, until he be taken out of 8 the way. And then shall be revealed the lawless one, whom the Lord Jesus shall slay with the breath of his mouth, and bring 9 to nought by the manifestation of his coming; even he, whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and 10 signs and lying wonders, and with all deceit of unrighteousness for them that perish; because they received not the love of the 11 truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God sendeth 12 them a working of error, that they should believe a lie: that they all might be judged who believed not the truth, but had pleasure 13 in unrighteousness. But we are bound to give thanks to God always for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, for that God chose you from the beginning unto salvation in sanctification of the 14 Spirit and belief of the truth: whereunto he called you through our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 So then, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye 16 were taught, whether by word, or by epistle of ours. Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father who loved us and 17 gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and establish them in every good work and word.

3 Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may 2 run and be glorified, even as also it is with you; and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for all have 3 not faith. But the Lord is faithful, who shall establish you, and 4 guard you from the evil one. And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which 5 we command. And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of 6 God, and into the patience of Christ. Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which they received of us. For yourselves 7 know how ye ought to imitate us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; neither did we eat bread for nought at 8 any man's hand, but in labor and travail, working night and day, that we might not burden any of you: not because we have not 9 the right, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you, that ye should imitate us. For even when we were with you, this we 10 commanded you, If any will not work, neither let him eat. For 11 we hear of some that walk among you disorderly, that work not at all, but are busybodies. Now them that are such we command 12 and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. But ye, brethren, be not weary 13 in well-doing. And if any man obeyeth not our word by this 14 epistle, note that man, that ye have no company with him, to the end that he may be ashamed. And yet count him not as an 15 enemy, but admonish him as a brother. Now the Lord of peace 16 himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with you all. The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand, which 17 is the token in every epistle: so I write. The grace of our Lord 18 Jesus Christ be with you all.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the commandment of God our Saviour, and Christ Jesus our 2 hope; unto Timothy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus 3 our Lord. As I exhorted thee to tarry at Ephesus, when I was going into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge certain men not 4 to teach a different doctrine, neither to give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questionings, rather than a 5 dispensation of God which is in faith; so do I now. But the end of the charge is love out of a pure heart and a good conscience 6 and faith unfeigned: from which things some having swerved 7 have turned aside unto vain talking; desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor 8 whereof they confidently affirm. But we know that the law is 9 good, if a man use it lawfully, as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and unruly, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers 10 of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, for forni-cators, for abusers of themselves with men, for menstealers, for liars, for false swearers, and if there be any other thing contrary 11 to the sound doctrine; according to the gospel of the glory of 12 the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. I thank him that enabled me, even Christ Jesus our Lord, for that he 13 counted me faithful, appointing me to his service; though I was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: howbeit 14 I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief; and the grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love 15 which is in Christ Jesus. Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save 16 sinners; of whom I am chief: howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me as chief might Jesus Christ show forth all his longsuffering, for an ensample of them that should thereafter believe on him unto eternal life. Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen. This charge I commit unto thee, my child Timothy, according to the prophecies which led the way to thee, that by them thou mayest war the good warfare; holding faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust from them made shipwreck concerning the faith: of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I delivered unto Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

I exhort therefore, first of all, that supplications, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made for all men; for kings and all that are in high place; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and gravity. This is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; who would have all men to be saved, and come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, one mediator also between God and men, himself man, Christ Jesus, who gave himself a ransom for all; the testimony to be borne in its own times; whereunto I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I speak the truth, I lie not), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth. I desire therefore that the men pray in every place, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and disputing. In like manner, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety; not with braided hair, and gold or pearls or costly raiment; but (which becometh women professing godliness) through good works. Let a woman learn in quietness with all subjection. But I permit not a woman to teach, nor to have dominion over a man, but to be in quietness. For Adam was first formed, then Eve; and Adam was not beguiled, but the woman being beguiled hath fallen into transgression: but she shall be saved through her child-bearing, if they continue in faith and love and sanctification with sobriety.

Faithful is the saying, If a man seeketh the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work. The bishop therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, sober-minded, orderly, given to hospitality, apt to teach; no brawler, no striker; but gentle, not contentious, no lover of money; one that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; (but if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, 6 how shall he take care of the church of God?) not a novice, lest being puffed up he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must have good testimony from them that are with-8 out; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil. Deacons in like manner must be grave, not double-tongued, not given to 9 much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; holding the mystery of the 10 faith in a pure conscience. And let these also first be proved; 11 then let them serve as deacons, if they be blameless. Women in like manner must be grave, not slanderers, temperate, faithful 12 in all things. Let deacons be husbands of one wife, ruling their 13 children and their own houses well. For they that have served well as deacons gain to themselves a good standing, and great 14 boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. These things 15 write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly; but if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how men ought to behave themselves in the house of God, which is the church of the living 16 God, the pillar and ground of the truth. And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness; He who was manifested in the flesh, Justified in the spirit, Seen of angels, Preached among the nations, Believed on in the world, Received up in glory.

4 But the Spirit saith expressly, that in later times some shall fall away from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doc-2 trines of demons, through the hypocrisy of men that speak lies, 3 branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God created to be received with thanksgiving by them that believe 4 and know the truth. For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it be received with thanksgiving: 5, 6 for it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer. If thou put the brethren in mind of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and 7 of the good doctrine which thou hast followed until now: but refuse profane and old wives' fables. And exercise thyself unto 8 godliness: for bodily exercise is profitable for a little; but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life which 9 now is, and of that which is to come. Faithful is the saying, 10 and worthy of all acceptation. For to this end we labor and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is 11 the Saviour of all men, specially of them that believe. These things command and teach. Let no man despise thy youth; but 12 be thou an ensample to them that believe, in word, in manner 13 of life, in love, in faith, in purity. Till I come, give heed to 14 reading, to exhortation, to teaching. Neglect not the gift that 14 is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying 15 on of the hands of the presbytery. Be diligent in these things; 15 give thyself wholly to them; that thy progress may be manifest 16 unto all. Take heed to thyself, and to thy teaching. Continue 16 in these things; for in doing this thou shalt save both thyself and them that hear thee.

Rebuke not an elder, but exhort him as a father; the younger 5 men as brethren: the elder women as mothers; the younger as 2 sisters, in all purity. Honor widows that are widows indeed. 3 But if any widow hath children or grandchildren, let them learn 4 first to show piety towards their own family, and to requite their 4 parents: for this is acceptable in the sight of God. Now she that 5 is a widow indeed, and desolate, hath her hope set on God, and 5 continueth in supplications and prayers night and day. But she 6 that giveth herself to pleasure is dead while she liveth. These 7 things also command, that they may be without reproach. But 8 if any provideth not for his own, and specially his own house- 8 hold, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever.
Let none be enrolled as a widow under threescore years old, hav- 9 ing been the wife of one man, well reported of for good works; 9 if she hath brought up children, if she hath used hospitality to 10 strangers, if she hath washed the saints' feet, if she hath relieved the afflicted, if she hath diligently followed every good work. But younger widows refuse: for when they have waxed 11 wanton against Christ, they desire to marry; having condemna- 12 tion, because they have rejected their first pledge. And withal 13 they learn also to be idle, going about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. I desire therefore that the younger wid- 14 ows marry, bear children, rule the household, give no occasion to the adversary for reviling: for already some are turned aside 15 after Satan. If any woman that believeth hath widows, let her 16 relieve them, and let not the church be burdened; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed. Let the elders that rule 17 well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who la-

18 bor in the word and in teaching. For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. And, 19 The laborer is worthy of his hire. Against an elder receive not an accusation, except at the mouth of two or three witnesses. 20 Them that sin reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may 21 be in fear. I charge thee in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without 22 prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. Lay hands hastily on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. 23 Be no longer a drinker of water, but use a little wine for thy 24 stomach's sake and thine often infirmities. Some men's sins are evident, going before unto judgment; and some men also they 25 follow after. In like manner also there are good works that are evident; and such as are otherwise cannot be hid.

6 Let as many as are servants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and the doctrine be not blasphemed. And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but let them serve them the rather, because they that partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. These things teach and exhort. If any man teacheth a different doctrine, and consenteth not to sound words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, 4 and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; he is puffed up, knowing nothing, but doting about questionings and disputes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, wranglings of men corrupted in mind and bereft of the 6 truth, supposing that godliness is a way of gain. But godliness 7 with contentment is great gain: for we brought nothing into the 8 world, for neither can we carry anything out; but having food 9 and covering we shall be therewith content. But they that are minded to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and hurtful lusts, such as drown men in destruction and 10 perdition. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil: which some reaching after have been led astray from the faith, 11 and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of the faith, lay hold on the life eternal, whereunto thou wast called, and didst confess the good confession in the sight of many witnesses. I charge thee in the sight of God, who 13 giveth life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed the good confession; that thou keep the com- 14 mandment, without spot, without reproach, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ: which in its own times he shall show, 15 who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords; who only hath immortality, dwelling in light un- 16 approachable; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and power eternal. Amen. Charge them that are rich in 17 this present world, that they be not highminded, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; that they do good, that they be 18 rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, willing to communicate; laying up in store for themselves a good founda- 19 tion against the time to come, that they may lay hold on the life which is life indeed. O Timothy, guard that which is com- 20 mitted unto thee, turning away from the profane babblings and oppositions of the knowledge which is falsely so called; which 21 some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with you.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, 2 according to the promise of the life which is in Christ 3 Jesus, to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, 4 peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
5 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers in a pure 6 conscience, how unceasing is my remembrance of thee in my 7 supplications, night and day longing to see thee, remembering thy 8 tears, that I may be filled with joy; having been reminded of the 9 unfeigned faith that is in thee; which dwelt first in thy grand-10 mother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and, I am persuaded, in 11 thee also. For which cause I put thee in remembrance that thou 12 stir up the gift of God, which is in thee through the laying on 13 of my hands. For God gave us not a spirit of fearfulness; but 14 of power and love and discipline. Be not ashamed therefore of 15 the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but suffer 16 hardship with the gospel according to the power of God; who 17 saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to 18 our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which 19 was given us in Christ Jesus before times eternal, but hath now 20 been manifested by the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, 21 who abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light 22 through the gospel, whereunto I was appointed a preacher, and 23 an apostle, and a teacher. For which cause I suffer also these 24 things: yet I am not ashamed; for I know him whom I have be-25 lieved, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard that which 26 I have committed unto him against that day. Hold the pattern 27 of sound words which thou hast heard from me, in faith and love 28 which is in Christ Jesus. That good thing which was committed 29 unto thee guard through the Holy Spirit which dwelleth in us.
30 This thou knowest, that all that are in Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. The Lord grant 16 mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain; but, when he was in Rome, 17 he sought me diligently, and found me (the Lord grant unto him 18 to find mercy of the Lord in that day); and in how many things he ministered at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

Thou therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is 2 in Christ Jesus. And the things which thou hast heard from me 2 among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. Suffer hardship with me, 3 as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No soldier on service entan- 4 gleth himself in the affairs of this life; that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier. And if also a man contend in 5 the games, he is not crowned, except he have contended lawfully.
The husbandmen that laboreth must be the first to partake of 6 the fruits. Consider what I say; for the Lord shall give thee un- 7 derstanding in all things. Remember Jesus Christ, risen from 8 the dead, of the seed of David, according to my gospel: wherein 9 I suffer hardship unto bonds, as a malefactor; but the word of God is not bound. Therefore I endure all things for the elect's 10 sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. Faithful is the saying: For if we died 11 with him, we shall also live with him: if we endure, we shall also 12 reign with him: if we shall deny him, he also will deny us: if 13 we are faithless, he abideth faithful; for he cannot deny himself.
Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them in the 14 sight of the Lord, that they strive not about words, to no profit, to the subverting of them that hear. Give diligence to present 15 thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, handling aright the word of truth. But shun profane 16 babblings: for they will proceed further in ungodliness, and 17 their word will eat as doth a gangrene: or whom is Hymenaeus an Philetus; men who concerning the truth have erred, saying 18 that the resurrection is past already, and overthrow the faith of some. Howbeit the firm foundation of God standeth, having 19 this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his: and, Let every one that nameth the name of the Lord depart from unrighteousness. Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and 20 of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some unto honor, 21 and some unto dishonor. If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honor, sanctified, meet for the 22 master's use, prepared unto every good work. But flee youthful lusts, and follow after righteousness, faith, love, peace, with them 23 that call on the Lord out of a pure heart. But foolish and ignorant questionings refuse, knowing that they gender strifes. And 24 the Lord's servant must not strive, but be gentle towards all, apt to teach, forbearing, in meekness correcting them that oppose themselves; if peradventure God may give them repentance unto 25 the knowledge of the truth, and they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, having been taken captive by him unto his will.

3 But know this, that in the last days grievous times shall come.
2 For men shall be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, haughty, 3 railers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, implacable, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, 4 no lovers of good, traitors, headstrong, puffed up, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; holding a form of godliness, but 5 having denied the power thereof: from these also turn away. For of these are they that creep into houses, and take captive silly 6 women laden with sins, led away by divers lusts, ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. And even 7 as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also withstand the truth. Men corrupted in mind, reprobate concerning 8 the faith. But they shall proceed no further. For their folly shall be evident unto all men, as theirs also came to be. But thou 9 didst follow my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, patience, persecutions, sufferings. What things befell me 10 at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured. And out of them all the Lord delivered me. Yea, and all that 11 would live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But evil men and impostors shall wax worse and worse, deceiving 12 and being deceived. But abide thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou 13 hast learned them. And that from a babe thou hast known the sacred writings which are able to make thee wise unto salvation 14 through faith which is in Christ Jesus. Every scripture inspired of God is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, 15 for instruction which is in righteousness. That the man of God may be complete, furnished completely unto every good work.

I charge thee in the sight of God, and of Christ Jesus, who 4 shall judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom: preach the word; be urgent in season, out of sea- 2 son; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching.
For the time will come when they will not endure the sound doc- 3 trine; but, having itching ears, will heap to themselves teachers after their own lusts; and will turn away their ears from the 4 truth, and turn aside unto fables. But be thou sober in all 5 things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfil thy ministry. For I am already being offered, and the time of my 6 departure is come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished 7 the course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up 8 for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give to me at that day; and not to me only, but also to all them that have loved his appearing. Give diligence to 9 come shortly unto me: for Demas forsook me, having loved this present world, and went to Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and 11 bring him with thee; for he is useful to me for ministering. But Tychicus I sent to Ephesus. The cloak that I left at Troas with 13 Carpus, bring when thou comest, and the books, especially the parchments. Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord will render to him according to his works: of whom do 15 thou also beware; for he greatly withstood our words. At my first defence no one took my part, but all forsook me: may it not be laid to their account. But the Lord stood by me, and 17 strengthened me; that through me the message might be fully proclaimed, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. The Lord will deliver me 18 from every evil work, and will save me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen. Salute 19 Prisca and Aquila, and the house of Onesiphorus. Erastus re- 20 mained at Corinth: but Trophimus I left at Miletus sick. Give diligence to come before winter. Eubulus saluteth thee, and Pu-dens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren. The Lord 22 be with thy spirit. Grace be with you.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

1 Naul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, 2 according to the faith of God's elect, and the knowledge 3 of the truth which is according to godliness, in hope of 4 eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised be-5 fore times eternal; but in his own seasons manifested his word 6 in the message, wherewith I was intrusted according to the com-7 mandment of God our Saviour; to Titus, my true child after 8 a common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and 9 Christ Jesus our Saviour. For this cause left I thee in Crete, 10 that thou shouldest set in order the things that were wanting, 11 and appoint elders in every city, as I gave thee charge; if any 12 man is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children that 13 believe, who are not accused of riot or unruly. For the bishop 14 must be blameless, as God's steward; not self-willed, not soon 15 angry, no brawler, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but 16 given to hospitality, a lover of good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled; holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able both to exhort in the sound doctrine, and to convict the gainsayers. For there are many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision, whose mouths must be stopped; men who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, idle gluttons. This testimony is true. For which cause reprove them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, not giving heed to Jewish fab-bles, and commandments of men who turn away from the truth.
To the pure all things are pure: but to them that are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. They profess that they know God; but by their works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

But speak thou the things which befit the sound doctrine: 2 that aged men be temperate, grave, sober-minded, sound in 2 faith, in love, in patience: that aged women likewise be rev- 3 erent in demeanor, not slanderers nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good; that they may train the young 4 women to love their husbands, to love their children, to be sober- 5 minded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed: the younger men likewise exhort to be sober-minded: in all 6, 7 things showing thyself an ensample of good works; in thy doctrine showing uncorruptness, gravity, sound speech, that can- 8 not be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of us. Exhort servants to 9 be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing to them in all things; not gainsaying; not purloining, but show- 10 ing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things. For the grace of God hath appeared, 11 bringing salvation to all men, instructing us, to the intent that, 12 denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly and righteously and godly in this present world; looking for the 13 blessed hope and appearing of the glory of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might 14 redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a people for his own possession, zealous of good works. These things speak 15 and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

Put them in mind to be in subjection to rulers, to authorities, 3 to be obedient, to be ready unto every good work, to speak evil 2 of no man, not to be contentious, to be gentle, showing all meekness toward all men. For we also once were foolish, disobedient, 3 deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, hating one another. But when the kindness of 4 God our Saviour, and his love toward man, appeared, not by 5 works done in righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy he saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, which he poured out upon us 6 richly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour; that, being justified 7 by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Faithful is the saying, and concerning these things 8

I desire that thou affirm confidently, to the end that they who have believed God may be careful to maintain good works. These 9 things are good and profitable unto men: but shun foolish questionings, and genealogies, and strifes, and fightings about law; 10 for they are unprofitable and vain. A factious man after a first 11 and second admonition refuse; knowing that such a one is per-12 verted, and sinneth, being self-condemned. When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, give diligence to come unto me 13 to Nicopolis: for there I have determined to winter. Set forward Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, 14 that nothing be wanting unto them. And let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be 15 not unfruitful. All that are with me salute thee. Salute them that love us in faith. Grace be with you all.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON.

Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, 1 to Philemon our beloved and fellow-worker, and to 2 Apphia our sister, and to Archippus our fellow-soldier, 3 and to the church in thy house: Grace to you and 3 peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank 4 my God always, making mention of thee in my prayers, hear- 5 ing of thy love, and of the faith which thou hast toward the 5 Lord Jesus, and toward all the saints; that the fellowship of thy 6 faith may become effectual, in the knowledge of every good thing 6 which is in you, unto Christ. For I had much joy and comfort 7 in thy love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed 7 through thee, brother. Wherefore, though I have all boldness in 8 Christ to enjoin thee that which is befitting, yet for love's sake 9 I rather beseech, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now a 9 prisoner also of Christ Jesus: I beseech thee for my child, whom 10 I have begotten in my bonds, Onesimus, who once was unprof- 11 itable to thee, but now is profitable to thee and to me: whom I 12 have sent back to thee in his own person, that is, my very heart: 12 whom I would fain have kept with me, that in thy behalf he 13 might minister unto me in the bonds of the gospel: but without 14 thy mind I would do nothing; that thy goodness should not be 14 as of necessity, but of free will. For perhaps he was therefore 15 parted from thee for a season, that thou shouldest have him for 15 ever; no longer as a servant, but more than a servant, a brother 16 beloved, specially to me, but how much rather to thee, both in 16 the flesh and in the Lord. If then thou countest me a partner, 17 receive him as myself. But if he hath wronged thee at all, or 18 oweth thee aught, put that to mine account; I Paul write it with 19 mine own hand, I will repay it: that I say not unto thee that 19 thou owest to me even thine own self besides. Yea, brother, 20 let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my heart in Christ.

21 Having confidence in thine obedience I write unto thee, knowing 22 that thou wilt do even beyond what I say. But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I hope that through your prayers I shall be 23 granted unto you. Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Je-24 sus, saluteth thee; and so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, Luke, 25 my fellow-workers. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO HEBREWS.

od, having of old time spoken unto the fathers in the 1 prophets by divers portions and in divers manners, hath at the end of these days spoken unto us in his 2 Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the worlds; who being the effulgence of his 3 glory, and the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had made purification of sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; having become by so much better than the angels, as he hath 4 inherited a more excellent name than they. For unto which of 5 the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, This day have I begotten thee? and again, I will be to him a Father, And he shall be to me a Son? And when he again bringeth in the 6 firstborn into the world he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him. And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his an- 7 gels winds, And his ministers a flame a fire: but of the Son he 8 saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever; And the sceptre of uprightness is the sceptre of thy kingdom. Thou hast loved 9 righteousness, and hated iniquity; Therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee With the oil of gladness above thy fellows. And, 10 Thou, Lord, in the beginning didst lay the foundation of the earth, And the heavens are the works of thy hands: They shall 11 perish; but thou continuest: And they all shall wax old as doth a garment; And as a mantle shalt thou roll them up, As a gar- 12 ment, and they shall be changed: But thou art the same, And thy years shall not fail. But of which of the angels hath he 13 said at any time, Sit thou on my right hand, Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet? Are they not all ministering 14 spirits, sent forth to do service for the sake of them that shall inherit salvation?

2 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things 2 that were heard, lest haply we drift away from them. For if the word spoken through angels proved stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward; 3 how shall we escape, if we neglect so great a salvation? which having at the first been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed 4 unto us by them that heard; God also bearing witness with them, both by signs and wonders, and by manifold powers, and 5 by gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will. For not unto angels did he subject the world to come, whereof we speak.
6 But one hath somewhere testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? Or the son of man, that thou visitest 7 him? Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; Thou crownedst him with glory and honor, And didst set him over 8 the works of thy hands: Thou didst put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he subjected all things unto him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we see not 9 yet all things subjected to him. But we behold him who hath been made a little lower than the angels, even Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, that by 10 the grace of God he should taste of death for every man. For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the author 11 of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For both he that sanctifieth and they that are sanctified are all of one: for which 12 cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, In the midst of the congre-13 gation will I sing thy praise. And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold, I and the children whom God hath 14 given me. Since then the children are sharers in flesh and blood, he also himself in like manner partook of the same; that through death he might bring to nought him that had the power of death, 15 that is, the devil; and might deliver all them who through fear 16 of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. For verily not to angels doth he give help, but he giveth help to the seed 17 of Abraham. Wherefore it behooved him in all things to be made like unto his brethren, that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make 18 propitiation for the sins of the people. For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succor them that are tempted.

Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of a heavenly calling, 3 consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, even Jesus; who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also was 2 Moses in all his house. For he hath been counted worthy of 3 more glory than Moses, by so much as he that built the house hath more honor than the house. For every house is builded by 4 some one; but he that built all things is God. And Moses indeed 5 was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken; but Christ as a son, 6 over his house; whose house are we, if we hold fast our boldness and the glorying of our hope firm unto the end. Wherefore, 7 even as the Holy Spirit saith, To-day if ye shall hear his voice, Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, Like as in the day 8 of the trial in the wilderness, Where your fathers tried me by 9 proving me, And saw my works forty years. Wherefore I was 10 displeased with this generation, And said, They do always err in their heart: But they did not know my ways; As I sware in my 11 wrath, They shall not enter into my rest. Take heed, brethren, 12 lest haply there shall be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God: but exhort one another 13 day by day, so long as it is called To-day; lest any one of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin: for we are become partakers 14 of Christ, if we hold fast the beginning of our confidence firm unto the end: while it is said, To-day if ye shall hear his voice, 15 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation. For who, when 16 they heard, did provoke? nay, did not all they that came out of Egypt by Moses? And with whom was he displeased forty 17 years? was it not with them that sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom sware he that they should not enter 18 into his rest, but to them that were disobedient? And we see 19 that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

Let us fear therefore, lest haply, a promise being left of entering into his rest, any one of you should seem to have come short of it. For indeed we have had good tidings preached unto 2 us, even as also they: but the word of hearing did not profit them, because it was not united by faith with them that heard. For we who have believed do enter into that rest; even as he 3 hath said, As I sware in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of 4 the world. For he hath said somewhere of the seventh day on this wise, And God rested on the seventh day from all his works; 5, 6 and in this place again, They shall not enter into my rest. Seeing therefore it remaineth that some should enter therewith, and they to whom the good tidings were before preached failed to 7 enter in because of disobedience, he again defineth a certain day, To-day, saying in David so long a time afterward (even as hath been said before), To-day if ye shall hear his voice, Harden 8 not your hearts. For if Joshua had given them rest, he would 9 not have spoken afterward of another day. There remaineth 10 therefore a sabbath rest for the people of God. For he that is entered into his rest hath himself also rested from his works, as 11 God did from his. Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, that no man fall after the same example of disobe-12 dience. For the word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and quick to discern 13 the thoughts and intents of the heart. And there is no creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and laid 14 open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do. Having then a great high priest, who hath passed through the heavens, 15 Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we have not a high priest that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but one that hath been in all points tempted 16 like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore draw near with boldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace to help us in time of need.

5 For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer 2 both gifts and sacrifices for sins: who can bear gently with the ignorant and erring, for that he himself also is compassed with 3 infirmity; and by reason thereof is bound, as for the people, 4 so also for himself, to offer for sins. And no man taketh the honor unto himself, but when he is called of God, even as was 5 Aaron. So Christ also glorified not himself to be made a high priest, but he that spake unto him, Thou art my Son, This day 6 have I begotten thee: as he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever After the order of Melchizedek. Who in 7 the days of his flesh, having offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and having been heard for his godly fear, though 8 he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became unto all them 9 that obey him the author of eternal salvation; named of God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. Of whom we have 11 many things to say, and hard of interpretation, seeing ye are become dull of hearing. For when by reason of the time ye ought 12 to be teachers, ye have need again that some one teach you the rudiments of the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of solid food. For 13 every one that partaketh of milk is without experience of the word of righteousness; for he is a babe. But solid food is for 14 fullgrown men, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

Wherefore leaving the doctrine of the first principles of Christ, 6 let us press on unto perfection; not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, of the 2 teaching of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. And this will we do, 3 if God permit. For as touching those who were once enlight- 4 ened and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit, and tasted the good word of God, and the 5 powers of the age to come, and then fell away, it is impossi- 6 ble to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. For the land which hath drunk the rain that cometh off 7 upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receiveth blessing from God: but if it beareth 8 thorns and thistles, it is rejected and nigh unto a curse; whose end is to be burned. But, beloved, we are persuaded better 9 things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak: for God is not unrighteous to forget your work and 10 the love which ye showed toward his name, in that ye ministered unto the saints, and still do minister. And we desire that each 11 one of you may show the same diligence unto the fulness of hope even to the end: that ye be not sluggish, but imitators of them 12 13 who through faith and patience inherit the promises. For when 14 God made promise to Abraham, since he could swear by none 15 greater, he swore by himself, saying, Surely blessing I will bless 16 thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee. And thus, having 17 patiently endured, he obtained the promise. For men swear 18 by the greater: and in every dispute of theirs the oath is final 19 for confirmation. Wherein God, being minded to show more 20 abundantly unto the heirs of the promise the immutability of his 21 counsel, interposed with an oath; that by two immutable things, 22 in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong 23 encouragement, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope 24 set before us: which we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope 25 both sure and stedfast and entering into that which is within 26 the veil; whither as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having 27 become a high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

7 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, 1 who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and 2 blessed him, to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all 3 (being first, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and then 4 also King of Salem, which is King of peace; without father, 5 without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning 6 of days nor end of life, but made like unto the Son of God), 7 abideth a priest continually. Now consider how great this man 8 was, unto whom Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth out of 9 the chief spoils. And they indeed of the sons of Levi that re-10 ceive the priest's office have commandment to take tithes of the 11 people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though 12 these have come out of the loins of Abraham: but he whose ge-13 nealogy is not counted from them hath taken tithes of Abraham, 14 and hath blessed him that hath the promises. But without any 15 dispute the less is blessed of the better. And here men that 16 die receive tithes; but there one, of whom it is witnessed that 17 he liveth. And, so to say, through Abraham even Levi, who 18 receiveth tithes, hath paid tithes; for he was yet in the loins 19 of his father, when Melchizedek met him. Now if there was 20 perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it hath 21 the people received the law), what further need was there that 22 another priest should arise after the order of Melchizedek, and 23 not be reckoned after the order of Aaron? For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. For he of whom these things are said belongeth to another 13 tribe, from which no man hath given attendance at the altar. For it is evident that our Lord hath sprung out of Judah; as to 14 which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priests. And what 15 we say is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there ariseth another priest, who hath been made, 16 not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life: for it is witnessed of him, Thou art a priest for 17 ever After the order of Melchizedek. For there is a disannulling 18 of a foregoing commandment because of its weakness and unprofitableness (for the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing 19 in thereupon of a better hope, through which we draw nigh unto God. And inasmuch as it is not without the taking of an oath 20 (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath; but he 21 with an oath by him that saith of him, The Lord sware and will not repent himself, Thou art a priest for ever); by so much also 22 hath Jesus become the surety of a better covenant. And they 23 indeed have been made priests many in number, because that by death they are hindered from continuing: but he, because he 24 abideth for ever, hath his priesthood unchangeable. Wherefore 25 also he is able to save to the uttermost them that draw near unto God through him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. For such a high priest became us, holy, guileless, unde- 26 filed, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; who needeth not daily, like those high priests, to offer up sacri- 27 fices, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people: for this he did once for all, when he offered up himself. For the 28 law appointeth men high priests, having infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was after the law, appointeth a Son, perfected for evermore.

Now in the things which we are saying the chief point is this: 8
 We have such a high priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, a minister of the 2 sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, not man. For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts 3 and sacrifices: wherefore it is necessary that this high priest also have somewhat to offer. Now if he were on earth, he would 4 not be a priest at all, seeing there are those who offer the gifts

5 according to the law; who serve that which is a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses is warned of God when he is about to make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that 6 thee in the mount. But now hath he obtained a ministry the more excellent, by so much as he is also the mediator of a better 7 covenant, which hath been enacted upon better promises. For if that first covenant had been faultless, then would no place have 8 been sought for a second. For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, That I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah; 9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers In the day that I took them by the hand to lead them forth out of the land of Egypt; For they continued not in my covenant, And 10 I regarded them not, saith the Lord. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel After those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, And on their heart also will I write them: And I will be to them a God, And they 11 shall be to me a people: And they shall not teach every man his fellow-citizen, And every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: For all shall know me, From the least to the greatest of 12 them. For I will be merciful to their iniquities, And their sins 13 will I remember no more. In that he saith, A new covenant he hath made the first old. But that which is becoming old and waxeth aged is nigh unto vanishing away.

9 Now even a first covenant had ordinances of divine service, 2 and its sanctuary, a sanctuary of this world. For there was a tabernacle prepared, the first, wherein were the candlestick, and the table, and the showbread; which is called the Holy place.
3 And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the 4 Holy of holies; having a golden altar of incense, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was a golden pot holding the manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, 5 and the tables of the covenant; and above it cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy-seat; of which things we cannot now 6 speak severally. Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests go in continually into the first tabernacle, accomplish-7 ing the services; but into the second the high priest alone, once in the year, not without blood, which he offereth for himself, and for the errors of the people: the Holy Spirit this signify- 8 ing, that the way into the holy place hath not yet been made manifest, while the first tabernacle is yet standing; which is a 9 figure for the time present; according to which are offered both gifts and sacrifices that cannot, as touching the conscience, make the worshipper perfect, being only (with meats and drinks and 10 divers washings) carnal ordinances, imposed until a time of reformation. But Christ having come a high priest of the good 11 things to come, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, nor 12 yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the 13 ashes of a heifer sprinkling them that have been defiled, sanctify unto the cleanness of the flesh: how much more shall the blood 14 of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish unto God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? And for this cause he is the mediator of a 15 new covenant, that a death having taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, they that have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. For where a testament is, there must of necessity 16 be the death of him that made it. For a testament is of force where there hath been death: for it doth never avail while he 17 that made it liveth. Wherefore even the first covenant hath not 18 been dedicated without blood. For when every commandment 19 had been spoken by Moses unto all the people according to the law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, saying, This is the blood of the covenant 20 which God commanded to you-ward. Moreover the tabernacle 21 and all the vessels of the ministry he sprinkled in like manner with the blood. And according to the law, I may almost say, 22 all things are cleansed with blood, and apart from shedding of blood there is no remission. It was necessary therefore that 23 the copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. For Christ entered not into a holy place made with 24 hands, like in pattern to the true; but into heaven itself, now to 25 appear before the face of God for us: nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place 26 year by year with blood not his own; else must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once at the end of the ages hath he been manifested to put away sin by the 27 sacrifice of himself. And inasmuch as it is appointed unto men 28 once to die, and after this cometh judgment; so Christ also, having been once offered to bear the sins of many, shall appear a second time, apart from sin, to them that wait for him, unto salvation.

10 For the law having a shadow of the good things to come, not the very image of the things, can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect them 2 that draw nigh. Else would they not have ceased to be offered? because the worshippers, having been once cleansed, would have 3 had no more consciousness of sins. But in those sacrifices there 4 is a remembrance made of sins year by year. For it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins.
5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, But a body didst thou prepare 6 for me; In whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hadst 7 no pleasure: Then said I, Lo, I am come (In the roll of the book 8 it is written of me) To do thy will, O God. Saying above, Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein (the which 9 are offered according to the law), then hath he said, Lo, I am come to do thy will. He taketh away the first, that he may estab-10 lish the second. By which will we have been sanctified through 11 the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every priest indeed standeth day by day ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, the which can never take away 12 sins: but he, when he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, 13 sat down on the right hand of God; henceforth expecting till his 14 enemies be made the footstool of his feet. For by one offering he 15 hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. And the Holy 16 Spirit also beareth witness to us; for after he hath said, This is the covenant that I will make with them After those days, saith the Lord: I will put my laws on their heart, And upon their 17 mind also will I write them; then saith he, And their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more. Now where remission 18 of these is, there is no more offering for sin. Having therefore, 19 brethren, boldness to enter into the holy place by the blood of Jesus, by the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living 20 way, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; and having a 21 great priest over the house of God; let us draw near with a true 22 heart in fulness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience: and having our body washed with pure water, let 23 us hold fast the confession of our hope that it waver not; for he is faithful that promised: and let us consider one another to 24 provoke unto love and good works; not forsaking our own as- 25 sembling together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day drawing nigh.

For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge 26 of the truth, there remaineth no more a sacrifice for sins, but a 27 certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a fierceness of fire which shall devour the adversaries. A man that hath set at 28 nought Moses law dieth without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses: of how much sorer punishment, think ye, 29 shall he be judged worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant wherewith he was sanctified an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? For we know him that said, Vengeance be- 30 longeth unto me, I will recompense. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of 31 the living God. But call to remembrance the former days, in 32 which, after ye were enlightened, ye endured a great conflict of sufferings; partly, being made a gazingstock both by reproaches 33 and afflictions; and partly, becoming partakers with them that were so used. For ye both had compassion on them that were in 34 bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of you possessions, knowing that ye have for yourselves a better possession and an abiding one. Cast not away therefore your boldness, which hath great 35 recompense of reward. For ye have need of patience, that, hav- 36 ing done the will of God, ye may receive the promise. For yet a 37 very little while, He that cometh shall come, and shall not tarry.
But my righteous one shall live by faith: And if he shrink back, 38 my soul hath no pleasure in him. But we are not of them that 39 shrink back unto perdition; but of them that have faith unto the saving of the soul.

11 Now faith is assurance of things hoped for, a conviction of 2 things not seen. For therein the elders had witness borne to 3 them. By faith we understand that the worlds have been framed 4 by the word of God, so that what is seen hath not been made 5 out of things which appear. By faith Abel offered unto God a 6 more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had wit-7 ness borne to him that he was righteous, God bearing witness in 8 respect of his gifts: and through it he being dead yet speaketh.
9 By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; 10 and he was not found, because God translated him: for he hath 11 had witness borne to him that before his translation he had been 12 well-pleasing unto God: And without faith it is impossible to be 13 well-pleasing unto him; for he that cometh to God must believe 14 that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seek after him.
15 By faith Noah, being warned of God concerning things not seen 16 as yet, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith. By faith Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out unto a place which he was to receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. By faith he became a sojourner in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: for he looked for the city which hath the foundations, whose builder and maker is God. By faith even Sarah herself received power to conceive seed when she was past age, since she counted him faithful who had promised: wherefore also there sprang of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand, which is by the sea-shore, innumerable.
These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. For they that say such things make it manifest that they are seeking after a country of their own. And if indeed they had been mindful of that country from which they went out, they would have had opportunity to return. But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God; for he hath prepared for them a city. By faith Abraham, being tried, offered up Isaac: yea, he 17 that had gladly received the promises was offering up his only begotten son; even he to whom it was said, In Isaac shall thy 18 seed be called: accounting that God is able to raise up, even 19 from the dead; from whence he did also in a figure receive him back. By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning 20 things to come. By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed 21 each of the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff. By faith Joseph, when his end was nigh, made 22 mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones. By faith Moses, when he was 23 born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw he was a goodly child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment. By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused 24 to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to 25 share ill treatment with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; accounting the reproach of Christ 26 greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he looked unto the recompense of reward. By faith he forsook Egypt, not fear- 27 ing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. By faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of 28 the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them. By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry 29 land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were swallowed up.

By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been com- 30 passed about for seven days. By faith Rahab the harlot perished 31 not with them that were disobedient, having received the spies with peace. And what shall I more say? for the time will fail 32 me if I tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah; of David and Samuel and the prophets: who through faith subdued king- 33 doms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge 34 of the sword, from weakness were made strong, waxed mighty in war, turned to flight armies of aliens. Women received their 35 dead by a resurrection: and others were tortured, not accepting their deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:
and others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover 36 of bonds and imprisonment: they were stoned, they were sawn 37 asunder, they were tempted, they were slain with the sword: they 38 went about in sheepskins, in goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, ill-treated (of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts and mountains and caves, and the holes of the earth.

39 And these all, having had witness borne to them through their 40 faith, received not the promise, God having provided some better thing concerning us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

12 Therefore let us also, seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the 2 race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising shame, and hath sat down at the 3 right hand of the throne of God. For consider him that hath endured such gainsaying of sinners against himself, that ye wax 4 not weary, fainting in your souls. Ye have not yet resisted unto 5 blood, striving against sin: and ye have forgotten the exhortation which reasoneth with you as with sons, My son, regard not lightly the chastening of the Lord, Nor faint when thou art 6 reproved of him; For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, And 7 scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. It is for chastening that ye endure; God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is 8 there whom his father chasteneth not? But if ye are without chastening, whereof all have been made partakers, then are ye 9 bastards, and not sons. Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?
10 For they indeed for a few days chastened us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, that we may be partakers of his ho-11 liness. All chastening seemeth for the present to be not joyous but grievous; yet afterward it yieldeth peaceable fruit unto them that have been exercised thereby, even the fruit of righteous-12 ness. Wherefore lift up the hands that hang down, and the palsied knees; and make straight paths for your feet, that that 13 which is lame be not turned out of the way, but rather be healed.
14 Follow after peace with all men, and the sanctification without 15 which no man shall see the Lord: looking carefully lest there be any man that falleth short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby the many be defiled; lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, 16 who for one mess of meat sold his own birthright. For ye know 17 that even when he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected; for he found no place for a change of mind in his father, though he sought is diligently with tears. For ye are 18 not come unto a mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest, and 19 the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard entreated that no word more should be spoken unto them; for they could not endure that which was enjoined, 20 If even a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned; and so 21 fearful was the appearance, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake: but ye are come unto mount Zion, and unto the city 22 of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable hosts of angels, to the general assembly and church of the first- 23 born who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to Jesus the 24 mediator of a new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaketh better than that of Abel. See that ye refuse not him 25 that speaketh. For if they escaped not when they refused him that warned them on earth, much more shall not we escape who turn away from him that warneth from heaven: whose voice 26 then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more will I make to tremble not the earth only, but also the heaven. And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the re- 27 moving of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, that those things which are not shaken may remain.

Wherefore, receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us 28 have grace, whereby we may offer service well-pleasing to God with reverence and awe: for our God is a consuming fire. 29

Let love of the brethren continue. Forget not to show love 13, 2 unto strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with 3 them; them that are illtreated, as being yourselves also in the body. Let marriage be had in honor among all, and let the bed 4 be undefiled: for fornicators and adulterers God will judge. Be 5 ye free from the love of money; content with such things as ye have: for himself hath said, I will in no wise fail thee, neither will I in any wise forsake thee. So that with good courage we 6 say, The Lord is my helper; I will not fear: What shall man do 7 unto me? Remember them that had the rule over you, men that spake unto you the word of God; and considering the issue 8 of their life, imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yester-9 day and to-day, yea and for ever. Be not carried away by divers and strange teachings: for it is good that the heart be established by grace; not by meats, wherein they that occupied themselves 10 were not profited. We have an altar, whereof they have no right 11 to eat that serve the tabernacle. For the bodies of those beasts whose blood is brought into the holy place by the high priest as 12 an offering for sin, are burned without the camp. Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people through his own 13 blood, suffered without the gate. Let us therefore go forth unto 14 him without the camp, bearing his reproach. For we have not here an abiding city, but we seek after the city which is to come.

15 Through him then let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of lips which make confession to 16 his name. But to do good and to communicate forget not: for 17 with such sacrifices God is well pleased. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit to them: for they watch in behalf of your souls, as they that shall give account; that they may do this with joy, and not with grief: for this were unprofitable for 18 you. Pray for us: for we are persuaded that we have a good 19 conscience, desiring to live honorably in all things. And I exhort you the more exceedingly to do this, that I may be restored 20 to you the sooner. Now the God of peace, who brought again from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep with the blood 21 of an eternal covenant, even our Lord Jesus, make you perfect in every good thing to do his will, working in us that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be the 22 glory for ever and ever. Amen. But I exhort you, brethren, bear with the word of exhortation, for I have written unto you 23 in few words. Know ye that our brother Timothy hath been set 24 at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you. Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of 25 Italy salute you. Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES.

James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to 1 the twelve tribes which are of the Dispersion, greeting. 2 Count it all joy, my brethren, when ye fall into man- 3 ifold temptations; Knowing that the proving of your 4 faith worketh patience. And let patience have its perfect work, 5 that ye may be perfect and entire, lacking in nothing. But if 6 any of you lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to 7 all liberally and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. But 8 let him ask in faith, nothing doubting: for he that doubteth is 9 like the surge of the sea driven by the wind and tossed. For let 10 not that man think that he shall receive anything of the Lord; a 11 doubleminded man, unstable in all his ways. But let the brother 12 of low degree glory in his high estate: and the rich, in that he is 13 made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away. 14 For the sun ariseth with the scorching wind, and withereth the 15 grass: and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion 16 of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his go- 17 ings. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he 18 hath been approved, he shall receive the crown of life, which the 19 Lord promised to them that love him. Let no man say when he 20 is tempted, I am tempted of God; for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempteth no man: but each man is tempted, when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed.
Then the lust, when it hath conceived, beareth sin: and the sin, when it is fullgrown, bringeth forth death. Be not deceived, my beloved brethren. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, neither shadow that is cast by turning. Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures. Ye know this, my beloved brethren. But let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath: for the wrath of man worketh not the 21 righteousness of God. Wherefore putting away all filthiness and 22 overflowing of wickedness, receive with meekness the implanted 23 word, which is able to save your souls. But be ye doers of the 24 word, and not hearers only, deluding your own selves. For if any 25 one is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like unto a man 26 beholding his natural face in a mirror: for he beholdeth him-27 self, and goeth away, and straightway forgetteth what manner of 28 man he was. But he that looketh into the perfect law, the law 29 of liberty, and so continueth, being not a hearer that forgetteth 30 but a doer that worketh, this man shall be blessed in his doing.

31 If any man thinketh himself to be religious, while he bridleth not 32 his tongue but deceiveth his heart, this man's religion is vain.
33 Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this, 34 to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep 35 oneself unspotted from the world.

2 My brethren, hold not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the 2 Lord of glory, with respect of persons. For if there come into 3 your synagogue a man with a gold ring, in fine clothing, and there 4 come in also a poor man in vile clothing; and ye have regard 5 to him that weareth the fine clothing, and say, Sit thou here in 6 a good place; and ye say to the poor man, Stand thou there, 7 or sit under my footstool; Do ye not make distinctions among 8 yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? Hearken, 9 my beloved brethren; did not God choose them that are poor as 10 to the world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which 11 he promised to them that love him? But ye have dishonored 12 the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you, and themselves 13 drag you before the judgment-seats? Do not they blaspheme 14 the honorable name by which ye are called? Howbeit if ye fulfil 15 the royal law, according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy 16 neighbor as thyself, ye do well: but if ye have respect of persons, 17 ye commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. For 18 whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet stumble in one point, 19 he is become guilty of all. For he that said, Do not commit 20 adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou dost not commit 21 adultery, but killest, thou art become a transgressor of the law.
22 So speak ye, and so do, as men that are to be judged by a 23 law of liberty. For judgment is without mercy to him that hath 24 showed no mercy: mercy glorieth against judgment. What doth it profit, my brethren, if a man say he hath faith, but have not works? can that faith save him? If a brother or sister be naked 15 and in lack of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Go 16 in peace, be ye warmed and filled; and yet ye give them not the things needful to the body; what doth it profit? Even so 17 faith, if it have not works, is dead in itself. Yea, a man will 18 say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: show me thy faith apart from thy works, and I by my works will show thee my faith.

Thou believest that God is one; thou doest well: the demons 19 also believe, and shudder. But wilt thou know, O vain man, 20 that faith apart from works is barren? Was not Abraham our 21 father justified by works, in that he offered up Isaac his son upon the altar? Thou seest that faith wrought with his works, and 22 by works was faith made perfect; and the scripture was fulfilled 23 which saith, And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness; and he was called the friend of God.
Ye see that by works a man is justified, and not only by faith. 24
And in like manner was not also Rahab the harlot justified by 25 works, in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, 26 even so faith apart from works is dead.

Be not many of you teachers, my brethren, knowing that 3 we shall receive heavier judgment. For in many things we all 2 stumble. If any stumbleth not in word, the same is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body also. Now if we put the horses' 3 bridles into their mouths that they may obey us, we turn about their whole body also. Behold, the ships also, though they are 4 so great and are driven by rough winds, are yet turned about by a very small rudder, whither the impulse of the steersman willeth. So the tongue also is a little member, and boasteth 5 great things. Behold, how much wood is kindled by how small a fire! And the tongue is a fire: the world of iniquity among 6 our members is the tongue, which defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the wheel of nature, and is set on fire by hell. 7 For every kind of beasts and birds, of creeping things and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed by mankind. But the 8 tongue can no man tame; it is a restless evil, it is full of deadly poison. Therewith bless we the Lord and Father; and therewith 9 curse we men, who are made after the likeness of God: out of 10 the same mouth cometh forth blessing and cursing. My brethren, 11 these things ought not so to be. Doth the fountain send forth 12 from the same opening sweet water and bitter? Can a fig tree, my brethren, yield olives, or a vine figs? Neither can salt water 13 yield sweet. Who is wise and understanding among you? let him show by his good life his works in meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have bitter jealousy and faction in your heart, glory 15 not and lie not against the truth. This wisdom is not a wisdom that cometh down from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.
16 For where jealousy and faction are, there is confusion and every 17 vile deed. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good 18 fruits, without variance, without hypocrisy. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for them that make peace.

4 Whence come wars and whence come fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your pleasures that war in your 2 members? Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and covet, and cannot 3 obtain: ye fight and war; ye have not, because ye ask not. Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may spend 4 it in your pleasures. Ye adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore would be a friend of the world maketh himself an enemy of 5 God. Or think ye that the scripture speaketh in vain? Doth 6 the spirit which he made to dwell in us long unto envying? But he giveth more grace. Wherefore the scripture saith, God re-7 sisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble. Be subject therefore unto God; but resist the devil, and he will flee from 8 you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye doubleminded.
9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned 10 to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble yourselves in 11 the sight of the Lord, and he shall exalt you. Speak not one against another, brethren. He that speaketh against a brother, or judgeth his brother, speaketh against the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judgest the law, thou art not a doer of the law, 12 but a judge. One only is the lawgiver and judge, even he who is able to save and to destroy: but who art thou that judgest 13 thy neighbor? Come now, ye that say, To-day or to-morrow we will go into this city, and spend a year there, and trade, and get gain: whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. What 14 is your life? For ye are a vapor, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. For that ye ought to say, If the Lord 15 will, we shall both live, and do this or that. But now ye glory 16 in your vauntings: all such glorying is evil. To him therefore 17 that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

Come now, ye rich, weep and howl for your miseries that 5 are coming upon you. Your riches are corrupted, and your 2 garments are moth-eaten. Your gold and your silver are rusted; 3 and their rust shall be for a testimony against you, and shall eat your flesh as fire. Ye have laid up your treasure in the last days. Behold, the hire of the laborers who mowed your fields, 4 which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth out: and the cries of them that reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. Ye have lived delicately on the earth, and taken your 5 pleasure; ye have nourished your hearts in a day of slaughter.
Ye have condemned, ye have killed the righteous one; he doth 6 not resist you. Be patient therefore, brethren, until the coming 7 of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until it receive the early and latter rain. Be ye also patient; establish your hearts: for 8 the coming of the Lord is at hand. Murmur not, brethren, 9 one against another, that ye be not judged: behold, the judge standeth before the doors. Take, brethren, for an example of 10 suffering and of patience, the prophets who spake in the name of the Lord. Behold, we call them blessed that endured: ye 11 have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord, how that the Lord is full of pity, and merciful. But above 12 all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by the heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath: but let your yea be yea, and your nay, nay; that ye fall not under judgment. Is any 13 among you suffering? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing praise. Is any among you sick? Let him call for the elders 14 of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: and the prayer of faith shall save 15 him that is sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, it shall be forgiven him. Confess therefore your 16 sins one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The supplication of a righteous man availeth much in 17 its working. Elijah was a man of like passions with us, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain; and it rained not on the 18 earth for three years and six months. And he prayed again; and 19 the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit. My brethren, if any among you err from the truth, and one convert 20 him; let him know, that he who converteth a sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall cover a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect who are 1 sojourners of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cap- 2 padocia, Asia, and Bithynia, according to the fore- 2 knowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace be multiplied. Blessed be the God 3 and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, unto an inheritance incorrupt- 4 ible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who by the power of God are guarded through faith 5 unto a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. Wherein 6 ye greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, ye have been put to grief in manifold trials, that the proof of your 7 faith, being more precious than gold that perisheth though it is proved by fire, may be found unto praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ: whom not having seen ye love; 8 on whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and full of glory: receiving the 9 end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. Concerning 10 which salvation the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: searching 11 what time or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did point unto, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glories that should follow them. To 12 whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto you, did they minister these things, which now have been announced unto you through them that preached the gospel unto you by the Holy Spirit sent forth from heaven; which things angel desire to look into. Wherefore girding up the loins of your mind, 13 be sober and set your hope perfectly on the grace that is to be 14 brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; as children of obedience, not fashioning yourselves according to your former 15 lusts in the time of your ignorance: but like as he who called you is holy, be ye yourselves also holy in all manner of living; 16, 17 because it is written, Ye shall be holy; for I am holy. And if ye call on him as Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to each man's work, pass the time of your sojourning 18 in fear: knowing that ye were redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from your vain manner of life handed 19 down from your fathers; but with precious blood, as of a lamb 20 without spot, even the blood of Christ: who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but was manifested at 21 the end of times for your sake, who through him are believers in God, that raised him from the dead, and gave him glory; so 22 that your faith and hope might be in God. Seeing ye have purified your souls in your obedience to the truth unto unfeigned love of the brethren, love one another from the heart fervently: 23 having been begotten again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the word of God, which liveth and abideth.

24 For, All flesh is as grass, And all the glory thereof as the flower 25 of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower falleth: But the word of the Lord abideth for ever. And this is the word of good tidings which was preached unto you.

2 Putting away therefore all wickedness, and all guile, and hypocrisies, 2 and envies, and all evil speakings, as newborn babes, long for the spiritual milk which is without guile, that ye may grow 3 thereby unto salvation; if ye have tasted that the Lord is gra-4 cious: unto whom coming, a living stone, rejected indeed of 5 men, but with God elect, precious, ye also, as living stones, are built up a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.
6 Because it is contained in scripture, Behold, I lay in Zion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: And he that believeth on him shall 7 not be put to shame. For you therefore that believe is the preciousness: but for such as disbelieve, The stone which the builders rejected, The same was made the head of the corner; 8 and, A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence; for they stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were 9 appointed. But ye are an elect race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, that ye may show forth the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvellous light: who in time past were no people, but now 10 are the people of God: who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. Beloved, I beseech you as sojourners and 11 pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; having your behavior seemly among the Gentiles; that, 12 wherein they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. Be subject to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: 13 whether to the king, as supreme; or unto governors, as sent by 14 him for vengeance on evil-doers and for praise to them that do well. For so is the will of God, that by well-doing ye should put 15 to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not using your freedom for a cloak of wickedness, but as bondservants of 16 God. Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor 17 the king. Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all 18 fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

 For this is acceptable, if for conscience toward God a man en- 19 dureth griefs, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if, when 20 ye sin, and are buffeted for it, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye shall take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. For hereunto were ye called: because 21 Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that ye should follow his steps: who did no sin, neither was guile found 22 in his mouth: who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when 23 he suffered threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously: who his own self bare our sins in his body 24 upon the tree, that we, having died unto sins, might live unto righteousness; by whose stripes ye were healed. For ye were 25 going astray like sheep; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

In like manner, ye wives, be in subjection to your own hus- 3 bands; that, even if any obey not the word, they may without the word be gained by the behavior of their wives; beholding your 2 chaste behavior coupled with fear. Whose adorning let it not be 3 the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on apparel; but let it be the hidden man of 4 the heart, in the incorruptible apparel of a meek and quiet spirit, 5 which is in the sight of God of great price. For after this manner aforetime the holy women also, who hoped in God, adorned 6 themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands: as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose children ye now are, if 7 ye do well, and are not put in fear by any terror. Ye husbands, in like manner, dwell with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor unto the woman, as unto the weaker vessel, as being also joint-heirs of the grace of life; to the end that your prayers be 8 not hindered. Finally, be ye all likeminded, compassionate, lov-9 ing as brethren, tenderhearted, humbleminded: not rendering evil for evil, or reviling for reviling; but contrariwise blessing; for 10 hereunto were ye called, that ye should inherit a blessing. For, He that would love life, And see good days, Let him refrain his 11 tongue from evil, And his lips that they speak no guile: And let him turn away from evil, and do good; Let him seek peace, 12 and pursue it. For the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, And his ears unto their supplication: But the face of the Lord 13 is upon them that do evil. And who is he that will harm you, 14 if ye be zealous of that which is good? But even if ye should suffer for righteousness' sake, blessed are ye: and fear not their 15 fear, neither be troubled; but sanctify in your hearts Christ as Lord: being ready always to give answer to every man that as-keth you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, yet with 16 meekness and fear: having a good conscience; that, wherein ye are spoken against, they may be put to shame who revile your 17 good manner of life in Christ. For it is better, if the will of God should so will, that ye suffer for well-doing than for evil-doing.

18 Because Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God; being put to death 19 in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit; in which also he went 20 and preached unto the spirits in prison, that aforetime were disobedient, when the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight 21 souls, were saved through water: which also after a true likeness doth now save you, even baptism, not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the interrogation of a good conscience 22 toward God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ; who is on the right hand of God, having gone into heaven; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

Forasmuch then as Christ suffered in the flesh, arm ye yourselves also with the same mind; for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin; that ye no longer should live the rest of your time in flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. For the time past may suffice to have wrought the desire of the Gentiles, and to have walked in lasciviousness, lusts, winebibbings, revellings, carousings, and abominable idolatries: wherein they think strange that ye run not with them into the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you: who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the living and the dead. For unto this end was the gospel preached even to the dead, that they might be judged indeed according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit. But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore of sound mind, and be sober unto prayer: above all things being fervent in your love among yourselves; for love covereth a multitude of sins: using hospitality one to another without murmuring: according as each hath received a gift, ministering it among yourselves, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God; if any man speaketh, speaking as it were oracles of God; if any man ministereth, ministering as of the strength which God supplieth: that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, whose is the glory and the dominion for ever and ever. Amen. Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial among you, which cometh upon you to prove you, as though a strange thing happened unto you: but insomuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that at the revelation of his glory also ye may rejoice with exceeding joy. If ye are reproached for the name of Christ, blessed are ye; because the Spirit of glory and the Spirit of God resteth upon you. For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil-doer, or as a meddler in other men's matters: but if a man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God in this name. For the time is come for judgment to begin at the house of God: and if it begin first at us, what shall be the end of them that obey not the gospel of God? And if the righteous is scarcely saved, where shall the ungodly and sinner appear? Wherefore let them also that suffer according to the will of God commit their souls in well-doing unto a faithful Creator.

5 The elders among you I exhort, who am a fellow-elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, who am also a partaker of 2 the glory that shall be revealed: Tend the flock of God which is among you, exercising the oversight, not of constraint, but willingly, according to the will of God; nor yet for filthy lucre, but 3 of a ready mind; neither as lording it over the charge allotted to 4 you, but making yourselves ensamples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd shall be manifested, ye shall receive the crown 5 of glory that fadeth not away. Likewise, ye younger, be subject unto the elder. Yea, all of you gird yourselves with humility, to serve one another: for God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace 6 to the humble. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty 7 hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; casting all 8 your anxiety upon him, because he careth for you. Be sober, be watchful: your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh 9 about, seeking whom he may devour, whom withstand stedfast in your faith, knowing that the same sufferings are accomplished 10 in your brethren who are in the world. And the God of all grace, who called you unto his eternal glory in Christ, after that ye have suffered a little while, shall himself perfect, establish, strengthen 11, 12 you. To him be the dominion for ever and ever. Amen. By Silvanus, our faithful brother, as I account him, I have written unto you briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true 13 grace of God. Stand ye fast therein. She that is in Babylon, elect together with you, saluteth you; and so doth Mark my son.
14 Salute one another with a kiss of love. Peace be unto you all that are in Christ.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to 1 them that have obtained a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and the Saviour Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace be multiplied in 2 the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord; seeing that his 3 divine power hath granted unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that called us by his own glory and virtue; whereby he hath granted unto us 4 his precious and exceeding great promises; that through these ye may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in that world by lust. Yea, and for this 5 very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply virtue; and in your virtue knowledge; and in your knowledge 6 self-control; and in your self-control patience; and in your patience godliness; and in your godliness brotherly kindness; and 7 in your brotherly kindness love. For if these things are yours 8 and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful unto the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For he that lacketh 9 these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins. Wherefore, brethren, give the 10 more diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never stumble: for thus shall be richly 11 supplied unto you the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Wherefore I shall be ready al- 12 ways to put you in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and are established in the truth which is with you. And 13 I think it right, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance; knowing that the putting off 14 of my tabernacle cometh swiftly, even as our Lord Jesus Christ signified unto me. Yea, I will give diligence that at every time 15 ye may be able after my decease to call these things to remembrance. For we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when there was borne such a voice to him by the Majestic Glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: and this voice we ourselves heard borne out of heaven, when we were with him in the holy mount. And we have the word of prophecy made more sure; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts: knowing this first, that no prophecy of scripture is of private interpretation. For no prophecy ever came by the will of man: but men spake from God, being moved by the Holy Spirit.

2 But there arose false prophets also among the people, as among you also there shall be false teachers, who shall privily bring in destructive heresies, denying even the Master that bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their lascivious doings; by reason of whom the way of the truth shall be evil spoken of. And in covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose sentence now from of old lingereth not, and their destruction slumbereth not. For if God spared not angels when they sinned, but cast them down to hell, and committed them to pits of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; and spared not the ancient world, but preserved Noah with seven others, a preacher of righteousness, when he brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly; and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, having made them an example unto those that should live ungodly; and delivered righteous Lot, sore distressed by the lascivious life of the wicked (for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their lawless deeds): the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment unto the day of judgment; but chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise dominion. Daring, self-willed, they tremble not to rail at dignities: whereas angels, though greater in might and power, bring not a railing judgment against them before the Lord. But these, as creatures without reason, 12 born mere animals to be taken and destroyed, railing in matters whereof they are ignorant, shall in their destroying surely be destroyed, suffering wrong as the hire of wrong-doing; men that 13 count it pleasure to revel in the day-time, spots and blemishes, revelling in their deceivings while they feast with you; having 14 eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; enticing unstedfast souls; having a heart exercised in covetousness; children of cursing; forsaking the right way, they went astray, having fol- 15 lowed the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the hire of wrong-doing; but he was rebuked for his own transgression: a 16 dumb ass spake with man's voice and stayed the madness of the prophet. These are springs without water, and mists driven by 17 a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness hath been reserved.

For, uttering great swelling words of vanity, they entice in the 18 lusts of the flesh, by lasciviousness, those who are just escaping from them that live in error; promising them liberty, while they 19 themselves are bondservants of corruption; for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he also brought into bondage. For if, 20 after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein and overcome, the last state is become worse with them than the first. For it were better for them not to 21 have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered unto them. It 22 has happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog turning to his own vomit again, and the sow that had washed to wallowing in the mire.

This is now, beloved, the second epistle that I write unto you; 3 and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by putting you in remembrance; that ye should remember the words which were 2 spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandments of the Lord and Saviour through your apostles: knowing this first, 3 that in the last days mockers shall come with mockery, walking after their own lusts, and saying, Where is the promise of his 4 coming? for, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. For 5 this they willfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth compacted out of water and amidst water, by the 6 word of God; by which means the world that then was, being 7 overflowed with water, perished: but the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgment and destruction of 8 ungodly men. But forget not this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as 9 one day. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some count slackness; but is longsuffering to you-ward, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that 11 are therein shall be burned up. Seeing that these things are thus all to be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to 12 be in all holy living and godliness, looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, by reason of which the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall 13 melt with fervent heat? But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteous-14 ness. Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for these things, give diligence that ye may be found in peace, without spot and 15 blameless in his sight. And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, ac-16 cording to the wisdom given to him, wrote unto you; as also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; wherein are some things hard to be understood, which the ignorant and unstedfast wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their 17 own destruction. Ye therefore, beloved, knowing these things beforehand, beware lest, being carried away with the error of 18 the wicked, ye fall from your own stedfastness. But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN.

What which was from the beginning, that which we have 1 heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we beheld, and our hands handled, concerning the Word of life (and the life was manifested, and we 2 have seen, and bear witness, and declare unto you the life, the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us); that which we have seen and heard declare we unto you also, 3 that ye also may have fellowship with us: yea, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ: and these 4 things we write, that our joy may be made full. And this is the 5 message which we have heard from him and announce unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say 6 that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: but if we walk in the light, as he is 7 in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we say that we 8 have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If 9 we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that 10 we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

My little children, these things write I unto you that ye may 2 not sin. And if any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: and he is the propitiation 2 for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the whole world.
And hereby we know that we know him, if we keep his com- 3 mandments. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his 4 commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him; but whoso 5 keepeth his word, in him verily hath the love of God been perfected. Hereby we know that we are in him: he that saith he 6 abideth in him ought himself also to walk even as he walked.

7 Beloved, no new commandment write I unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning: the old com-8 mandment is the word which ye heard. Again, a new commandment write I unto you, which thing is true in him and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light already 9 shineth. He that saith he is in the light and hateth his brother, 10 is in the darkness even until now. He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is no occasion of stumbling in him.
11 But he that hateth his brother is in the darkness, and walketh in the darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because the 12 darkness hath blinded his eyes. I write unto you, my little chil-13 dren, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. I write unto you, fathers, because ye know him who is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the evil one. I have written unto you, little children, because ye 14 know the Father. I have written unto you, fathers, because ye know him who is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth 15 in you, and ye have overcome the evil one. Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the 16 world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the 17 vain glory of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth 18 the will of God abideth for ever. Little children, it is the last hour: and as ye heard that antichrist cometh, even now have there arisen many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the 19 last hour. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they all 20 are not of us. And ye have an anointing from the Holy One, and 21 ye know all the things. I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and because no lie 22 is of the truth. Who is the liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, even he that denieth the 23 Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: he that confesseth the Son hath the Father also.
24 As for you, let that abide in you which ye heard from the beginning. If that which ye heard from the beginning abide in you, ye also shall abide in the Son, and in the Father. And this is 25 the promise which he promised us, even the life eternal. These 26 things have I written unto you concerning them that would lead you astray. And as for you, the anointing which ye received of 27 him abideth in you, and ye need not that any one teach you; but as his anointing teacheth you; concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, ye abide in him.

And now, my little children, abide in him; that, if he shall be 28 manifested, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. If ye know that he is righteous, ye know 29 that every one also that doeth righteousness is begotten of him.

Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon 3 us, that we should be called children of God; and such we are.
For this cause the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. Beloved, now are we children of God, and it is not yet 2 made manifest what we shall be. We know that, if he shall be manifested, we shall be like him; for we shall see him even as he is. And every one that hath this hope set on him purifieth 3 himself, even as he is pure. Every one that doeth sin doeth 4 also lawlessness; and sin is lawlessness. And ye know that he 5 was manifested to take away sins; and in him is no sin. Whoso- 6 ever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither knoweth him. My little children, let no man 7 lead you astray: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous: he that doeth sin is of the devil; for the 8 devil sinneth from the beginning. To this end was the Son of God manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.
Whosoever is begotten of God doeth no sin, because his seed 9 abideth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is begotten of God. In this the children of God are manifest, and the children 10 of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. For this is the message 11 which ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another: not as Cain was of the evil one, and slew his brother. 12 And wherefore slew he him? Because his works were evil, and his brother's righteous. Marvel not, brethren, if the world hateth 13 you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, be- 14 cause we love the brethren. He that loveth not abideth in death.
Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that 15 16 no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. Hereby know we love, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay 17 down our lives for the brethren. But whoso hath the world's goods, and beholdeth his brother in need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, how doth the love of God abide in him?

18 My Little children, let us not love in word, neither with the 19 tongue; but in deed and truth. Hereby shall we know that we 20 are of the truth, and shall assure our heart before him: because if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and 21 knoweth all things. Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, we 22 have boldness toward God; and whatsoever we ask we receive of him, because we keep his commandments and do the things 23 that are pleasing in his sight. And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and 24 love one another, even as he gave us commandment. And he that keepeth his commandments abideth in him, and he in him.
And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

4 Beloved, believe not every spirit, but prove the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into 2 the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: every spirit that 3 confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: and every spirit that confesseth not Jesus is not of God: and this is the spirit of the antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it cometh; 4 and now it is in the world already. Ye are of God, my little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in 5 you than he that is in the world. They are of the world: therefore speak they as of the world, and the world heareth them.
6 We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he who is not of God heareth us not. By this we know the spirit of truth, and 7 the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is begotten of God, and 8 knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God 9 is love. Herein was the love of God manifested in us, that God hath sent his only begotten Son into the world that we might 10 live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our 11 sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one 12 another. No man hath beheld God at any time: if we love one another, God abideth in us, and his love is perfected in us: hereby we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. And we have beheld and bear witness that the Father hath sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God abideth in him, and he in God. And we know and have believed the love which God hath in us. God is love; and he that abideth in love abideth in God, and God abideth in him. Herein is love made perfect with us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as he is, even so are we in this world. There is no fear in love: but perfect love casteth out fear, because fear hath punishment; and he that feareth is not made perfect in love. We love, because he first loved us. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, cannot love God whom he hath not seen. And this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God love his brother also.

Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is begotten of God: and whosoever loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him. Hereby we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and do his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous. For whatsoever is begotten of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that hath overcome the world, even our faith. And who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and with the blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is the truth. For there are three who bear witness, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and the three agree in one. If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for the witness of God is this, that he hath borne witness concerning his Son. He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in him: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he hath not believed in the witness that God hath borne concerning his Son. And the witness is this, that God gave unto us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath the life; he that hath not the Son of God hath 13 not the life. These things have I written unto you, that ye may know that ye have eternal life, even unto you that believe on the 14 name of the Son of God. And this is the boldness which we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, 15 he heareth us: and if we know that he heareth us whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked 16 of him. If any man see his brother sinning a sin not unto death, he shall ask, and God will give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: not concerning this do 17 I say that he should make request. All unrighteousness is sin: 18 and there is a sin not unto death. We know that whosoever is begotten of God sinneth not; but he that was begotten of God 19 keepeth himself, and the evil one toucheth him not. We know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in the evil one.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true 21 God, and eternal life. My little children, guard yourselves from idols.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN.

 he elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom 1 I love in truth; and not I only, but also all they that know the truth; for the truth's sake which abideth in 2 us, and it shall be with us for ever: Grace, mercy, 3 peace shall be with us, from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love. I rejoyce greatly 4 that I have found certain of thy children walking in truth, even as we received commandment from the Father. And now I beseech 5 thee, lady, not as though I wrote to thee a new commandment, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. And this is love, that we should walk after his com- 6 mandments. This is the commandment, even as ye heard from the beginning, that ye should walk in it. For many deceivers 7 are gone forth into the world, even they that confess not that Jesus Christ cometh in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist. Look to yourselves, that ye lose not the things which 8 we have wrought, but that ye receive a full reward. Whosoever 9 goeth onward and abideth not in the teaching of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the teaching, the same hath both the Father and the Son. If any one cometh unto you, and bringeth 10 not this teaching, receive him not into your house, and give him no greeting: for he that giveth him greeting partaketh in his evil works. Having many things to write unto you, I would not 12 write them with paper and ink: but I hope to come unto you, and to speak face to face, that your joy may be made full. The 13 children of thine elect sister salute thee.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN.

1  he elder unto Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth.
2 Beloved, I pray that in all things thou mayest prosper 3 and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth. For I 4 rejoiced greatly, when brethren came and bare witness 5 unto thy truth, even as thou walkest in truth. Greater joy 6 have I none than this, to hear of my children walking in the 7 truth. Beloved, thou doest a faithful work in whatsoever thou 8 doest toward them that are brethren and strangers withal; who 9 bare witness to thy love before the church: whom thou wilt do 10 well to set forward on their journey worthily of God: because 11 that for the sake of the Name they went forth, taking nothing 12 of the Gentiles. We therefore ought to welcome such, that we 13 may be fellow-workers for the truth. I wrote somewhat unto 14 the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not. Therefore, if I come, I will bring to remembrance his works which he doeth, prating against us with wicked words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and them that would he forbiddeth and casteth them out of the church. Beloved, imitate not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: he that doeth evil hath not seen God. Demetrius hath the witness of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, we also bear witness: and thou knowest that our witness is true. I had many things to write unto thee, but I am unwilling to write them to thee with ink and pen: but I hope shortly to see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be unto thee. The friends salute thee. Salute the friends by name.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE.

Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, 1 to them that are called, beloved in God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ: Mercy unto you and peace 2 and love be multiplied. Beloved, while I was giving 3 all diligence to write unto you of our common salvation, I was constrained to write unto you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered unto the saints.
For there are certain men crept in privily, even they who were of 4 old written of beforehand unto this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. Now I desire to put you 5 in remembrance, though ye know all things once for all, that the Lord, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. And angels that kept not 6 their own principality, but left their proper habitation, he hath kept in everlasting bonds under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities 7 about them, having in like manner with these given themselves over to fornication and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire. Yet in 8 like manner these also in their dreamings defile the flesh, and set at nought dominion, and rail at dignities. But Michael the 9 archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing judgment, but said, The Lord rebuke thee. But these rail at whatsoever 10 things they know not: and what they understand naturally, like the creatures without reason, in these things are they destroyed.
Woe unto them! For they went in the way of Cain, and ran 11 riotously in the error of Balaam for hire, and perished in the gainsaying of Korah. These are they who are hidden rocks 12 in your love-feasts when they feast with you, shepherds that without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn leaves without fruit, twice dead, plucked up 13 by the roots; Wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness hath 14 been reserved forever. And to these also Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, Behold, the Lord came with ten 15 thousands of his holy ones, to execute judgment upon all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their works of ungodliness which they have ungodly wrought, and of all the hard things which 16 ungodly sinners have spoken against him. These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their lusts (and their mouth speaketh great swelling words), showing respect of persons for the sake 17 of advantage. But ye, beloved, remember ye the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; 18 That they said to you, In the last time there shall be mockers, 19 walking after their own ungodly lusts. These are they who make 20 separations, sensual, having not the Spirit. But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the 21 Holy Spirit, keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the 22 mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. And on some 23 have mercy, who are in doubt; and some save, snatching them out of the fire; and on some have mercy with fear; hating even 24 the garment spotted by the flesh. Now unto him that is able to guard you from stumbling, and to set you before the presence 25 of his glory without blemish in exceeding joy, to the only God our Saviour, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion and power, before all time, and now, and for evermore.

Amen.

THE REVELATION OF ST. JOHN

THE DIVINE.

She Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to 1 show unto his servants, even the things which must shortly come to pass: and he sent and signified it by 2 his angel unto his servant John; who bare witness of 2 the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, even of all things that he saw. Blessed is he that readeth, and they 3 that hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things that are written therein: for the time is at hand. John to the seven 4 churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace, from him who is and who was and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits that are before his throne; and from Jesus Christ, who 5 is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loveth us, and loosed us from our sins by his blood; and he made us to be a kingdom, to 6 be priests unto his God and Father; to him be the glory and the dominion for ever and ever. Amen. Behold, he cometh with the 7 clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they that pierced him; and all the tribes of the earth shall mourn over him. Even so, Amen. I am the Alpha and the Omega, saith the Lord God, who 8 is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty. I John, your 9 brother and partaker with you in tribulation and kingdom and patience which are in Jesus, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God and the testimony of Jesus. I was in the 10 Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet saying, What thou seest, write in a book and 11 send it to the seven churches: unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamum, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea. And I turned to see the 12 voice that spake with me. And having turned I saw seven golden candlesticks; and in the midst of the candlesticks one like unto 13 a son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt 14 about at the breasts with a golden girdle. And his head and his hair were white as white wool, white as snow; and his eyes 15 were as a flame of fire; and his feet like unto burnished brass, as if it had been refined in a furnace; and his voice as the voice 16 of many waters. And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth proceeded a sharp two-edged sword: and his 17 countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength. And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as one dead. And he laid his right hand 18 upon me, saying, Fear not; I am the first and the last, and the Living one; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive for evermore, 19 and I have the keys of death and of Hades. Write therefore the things which thou sawest, and the things which are, and the 20 things which shall come to pass hereafter; the mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks are seven churches.

2 To the angel of the church in Ephesus write: These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, he that 2 walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks: I know thy works, and thy toil and patience, and that thou canst not bear evil men, and didst try them that call themselves apostles, 3 and they are not, and didst find them false; and thou hast patience and didst bear for my name's sake, and hast not grown 4 weary. But I have this against thee, that thou didst leave thy 5 first love. Remember therefore whence thou art fallen, and repent and do the first works; or else I come to thee, and will 6 move thy candlestick out of its place, except thou repent. But this thou hast, that thou hatest the works of the Nicolaitans, 7 which I also hate. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. To him that overcometh, to him will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of 8 God. And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write: These things saith the first and the last, who was dead, and lived again: 9 I know thy tribulation, and thy poverty (but thou art rich), and the blasphemy of them that say they are Jews, and they 10 art not, but are a synagogue of Satan. Fear not the things which thou art about to suffer: behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life. He that hath an ear, let him 11 hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death. and to the angel of the 12 church in Pergamum write: These things saith he that hath the sharp two-edged sword: I know where thou dwellest, even where 13 Satan's throne is; and thou holdest fast my name, and didst not deny my faith, even in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwelleth.

But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there 14 some that hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit fornication. So hast thou also 15 some that hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans in like manner.
Repent therefore; or else I come to thee quickly, and I will make 16 war against them with the sword of my mouth. He that hath an 17 ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. To him that overcometh, to him will I give of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and upon the stone a new name written, which no one knoweth but he that receiveth it. And to 18 the angel of the church in Thyatira write: These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like unto burnished brass: I know thy works, and thy love and 19 faith and ministry and patience, and that thy last works are more than the first. But I have this against thee, that thou sufferest 20 the woman Jezebel, who calleth herself a prophetess; and she teacheth and seduceth my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed to idols. And I gave her time that she 21 should repent; and she willeth not to repent of her fornication.
Behold, I cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery 22 with her into great tribulation, except they repent of her works.
And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches 23 shall know that I am he that searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto each one of you according to your works.
But to you I say, to the rest that are in Thyatira, as many as 24 have not this teaching, who know not the deep things of Satan, as they are wont to say; I cast upon you none other burden.
Nevertheless that which ye have, hold fast till I come. And he 25, 26 that overcometh, and he that keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give authority over the nations: and he shall rule 27 them with a rod of iron, as the vessels of the potter are broken 28 to shivers; as I also have received of my Father: and I will give 29 him the morning star. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

3 And to the angel of the church in Sardis write: These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars: I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and 2 thou art dead. Be thou watchful, and establish the things that remain, which were ready to die: for I have found no works 3 of thine perfected before my God. Remember therefore how thou hast received and didst hear; and keep it, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come as a thief, and thou 4 shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee. But thou hast a few names in Sardis that did not defile their garments: and 5 they shall walk with me in white; for they are worthy. He that overcometh shall thus be arrayed in white garments; and I will in no wise blot his name out of the book of life, and I will confess 6 his name before my Father, and before his angels. He that hath 7 an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth and none shall shut, and that shutteth 8 and none openeth: I know thy works (behold, I have set before thee a door opened, which none can shut), that thou hast a little power, and didst keep my word, and didst not deny my name.
9 Behold, I give of the synagogue of Satan, of them that say they are Jews, and they are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have 10 loved thee. Because thou didst keep the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of trial, that hour which is to come upon the whole world, to try them that dwell upon the 11 earth. I come quickly: hold fast that which thou hast, that no 12 one take thy crown. He that overcometh, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go out thence no more: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God, and mine own new name.
13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the 14 churches. And to the angel of the church in Laodicea write:

These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God: I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spew thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art the wretched one and miserable and poor and blind and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold refined by fire, that thou mayest become rich; and white garments, that thou mayest clothe thyself, and that the shame of thy nakedness be not made manifest; and eyesalve to anoint thine eyes, that thou mayest see. As many as I love, I reprove and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. He that overcometh, I will give to him to sit down with me in my throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with my Father in his throne. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

After these things I saw, and behold, a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, a voice as of a trumpet speaking with me, one saying, Come up hither, and I will show thee the things which must come to pass hereafter. Straightway I was in the Spirit: and behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting upon the throne; and he that sat was to look upon like a jasper stone and a sardius: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, like an emerald to look upon. And round about the throne were four and twenty thrones: and upon the thrones I saw four and twenty elders sitting, arrayed in white garments; and on their heads crowns of gold. And out of the throne proceed lightnings and voices and thunders. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God; and before the throne, as it were a sea of glass like a crystal; and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, four living creatures full of eyes before and behind. And the first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face as of a man, and the fourth creature was like a flying eagle. and the four living creatures, having each one of them six wings, are full of eyes round about and within: and they have no rest day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God, the 9 Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come. And when the living creatures shall give glory and honor and thanks to him that sitteth on the throne, to him that liveth for ever and 10 ever, the four and twenty elders shall fall down before him that sitteth on the throne, and shall worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and shall cast their crowns before the throne, saying, 11 Worthy art thou, our Lord and our God, to receive the glory and the honor and the power: for thou didst create all things, and because of thy will they were, and were created.

5 And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the back, close sealed with seven 2 seals. And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a great voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?
3 And no one in the heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth, 4 was able to open the book, or to look thereon. And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the book, or to look 5 thereon: and one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not; behold, the Lion that is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, hath 6 overcome to open the book and the seven seals thereof. And I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are 7 the seven Spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth. And he came, and he taketh it out of the right hand of him that sat on 8 the throne. And when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having each one a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, 9 which are the prayers of the saints. And they sing a new song, saying, Worthy art thou to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou was slain, and didst purchase unto God with thy blood men of every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation, 10 and madest them to be unto our God a kingdom and priests; 11 and they reign upon earth. And I saw, and I heard a voice of many angels round about the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times 12 ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; saying with a great voice, Worthy is the Lamb that hath been slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and might and honor, and glory, and blessing. And every created thing which is in the heaven, 13 and on the earth, and under the earth, and on the sea, and all things are in them, heard I saying, Unto him that sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb, be the blessing, and the honor, and the glory, and the dominion, for ever and ever. And the 14 four living creatures said, Amen. And the elders fell down and worshipped.

And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, 6 and I heard one of the four living creatures saying as with a voice of thunder, Come. And I saw, and behold, a white horse, 2 and he that sat thereon had a bow; and there was given unto him a crown: and he came forth conquering, and to conquer.
And when he opened the second seal, I heard the second living 3 creature saying, Come. And another horse came forth, a red 4 horse: and to him that sat thereon it was given to take peace from the earth, and that they should slay one another: and there was given unto him a great sword. And when he opened the 5 third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, Come. And I saw, and behold, a black horse; and he that sat thereon had a balance in his hand. And I heard as it were a voice in the 6 midst of the four living creatures saying, A measure of wheat for a shilling, and three measures of barley for a shilling; and the oil and the wine hurt thou not. And when he opened the 7 fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, Come. And I saw, and behold, a pale horse: and he that sat 8 upon him, his name was Death; and Hades followed with him.
And there was given unto them authority over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with famine, and with death, and by the wild beasts of the earth. And when he opened the 9 fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of them that had been slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: and they cried with a great voice, saying, How long, O 10 Master, the holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? And there was given 11 them to each one a white robe; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little time, until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, who should be killed even as they were, should have fulfilled their course. And I saw when he opened 12 the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the whole moon became 13 as blood; and the stars of the heaven fell unto the earth, as a fig tree casteth her unripe figs when she is shaken of a great wind.

14 And the heaven was removed as a scroll when it is rolled up; and 15 every mountain and island were moved out of their places. And the kings of the earth, and the princes, and the chief captains, and the rich, and the strong, and every bondman and freeman, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains; 16 and they say to the mountains and to the rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from 17 the wrath of the Lamb: for the great day of their wrath is come; and who is able to stand?

7 After his I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that no wind should 2 blow on the earth, or on the sea, or upon any tree. And I saw another angel ascend from the sunrising, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a great voice to the four angels 3 to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we shall 4 have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads. And I heard the number of them that were sealed, a hundred and forty and four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children 5 of Israel: Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand:
Of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand; Of the tribe of Gad 6 twelve thousand; Of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand; Of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand; Of the tribe of Manasseh 7 twelve thousand; Of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand; Of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand; Of the tribe of Issachar twelve 8 thousand; Of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand; Of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand; Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed 9 twelve thousand. After these things I saw, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation and of all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, arrayed in white robes, and palms in their 10 hands; and they cry with a great voice, saying, Salvation unto 11 our God who sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb. And all the angels were standing round about the throne, and about the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell before 12 the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, saying, Amen:

Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen. And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, These that are arrayed in white robes, who are they, and whence came they? And I say unto him, My lord, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they that come of the great tribulation, and they washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God; and they serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall spread his tabernacle over them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun strike upon them, nor any heat: for the Lamb that is in the midst of the throne shall be their shepherd, and shall guide them unto fountains of waters of life: and God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.

And when he opened the seventh seal, there followed a silence in heaven about the space of half an hour. And I saw the seven angels that stand before God; and there were given unto them seven trumpets. And another angel came and stood over the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should add it unto the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand. And the angel taketh the censer; and he filled it with the fire of the altar, and cast it upon the earth: and there followed thunders, and voices, and lightnings, and an earthquake. And the seven angels that had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. And the first sounded, and there followed hail and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of the earth was burnt up, and the third part of the trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up. And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood; and there died the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, even they that had life; and the third part of the ships was destroyed. And the third angel sounded, and there fell from heaven a great star, burning as a torch, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of the waters; and the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter. And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; that the third part of them should be darkened, and the day should not shine for the third part of it, and the night in like manner. And I saw, and I heard an eagle, flying in mid heaven, saying with a great voice, Woe, woe, woe, for them that dwell on the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, who are yet to sound.

9 And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from heaven fallen unto the earth: and there was given to him the key of the pit of the abyss. And he opened the pit of the abyss; and there went up a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. And out of the smoke came forth locusts upon the earth; and power was given them, as the scorpions of the earth have power. And it was said unto them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only such men as have not the seal of God on their foreheads. And it was given them that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when it striketh a man. And in those days men shall seek death, and shall in no wise find it; and they shall desire to die, and death fleeth from them. And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared for war; and upon their heads as it were crowns like unto gold, and their faces were as men's faces. And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as teeth of lions. And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots, of many horses rushing to war. And they have tails like unto scorpions, and stings; and in their tails is their power to hurt men five months. They have over them as king the angel of the abyss: his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in the Greek tongue he hath the name Apollyon. The first Woe is past: behold, there come yet two Woes hereafter. And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before God, one saying to the sixth angel that had one trumpet, Loose the four angels that are bound at the great river Euphrates. And the four angels were loosed, that had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, that they should kill the third part of men. And the number of the armies of the horsemen was twice ten thousand times ten thousand: I heard the number of them. And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates as of fire and of hyacinth and of brimstone: and the heads of lions; and out of their mouths proceedeth fire and smoke and brimstone. By these three plagues was the third part of men killed, by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone, which proceeded out of their mouths. For the power of the horses is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails are like unto serpents, and have heads; and with them they hurt. And the rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk: and they repented not of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

And I saw another strong angel coming down out of heaven, arrayed with a cloud; and the rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire; and he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left upon the earth; and he cried with a great voice, as a lion roareth: and when he cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices. And when the seven thunders uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying, Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not. And the angel that I saw standing upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his right hand to heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created the heaven and the things that are therein, and the earth and the things that are therein, and the sea and the things that are therein, that there shall be delay no longer: but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then is finished the mystery of God, according to the good tidings which he declared to his servants the prophets. And the voice which I heard from heaven, I heard it again speaking with me, and saying, Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel that standeth 9 upon the sea and upon the earth. And I went unto the angel, saying unto him that he should give me the little book. And he saith unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly 10 bitter, but in thy mouth it shall be sweet as honey. And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and when I had eaten it, my belly 11 was made bitter. And they say unto me, Thou must prophesy again over many peoples and nations and tongues and kings.

11 And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and one said, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them 2 that worship therein. And the court which is without the temple leave without, and measure it not; for it hath been given unto the nations: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty 3 and two months. And I will give unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, 4 clothed in sackcloth. These are the two olive trees and the two 5 candlesticks, standing before the Lord of the earth. And if any man desireth to hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth and devoureth their enemies; and if any man shall desire to hurt 6 them, in this manner must he be killed. These have the power to shut the heaven, that it rain not during the days of their prophecy: and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to smite the earth with every plague, as often 7 as they shall desire. And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that cometh up out of the abyss shall make 8 war with them, and overcome them, and kill them. And their dead bodies lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.
9 And from among the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations do men look upon their dead bodies three days and a half, and 10 suffer not their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb. And they that dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and make merry; and they shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets 11 tormented them that dwell on the earth. And after the three days and a half the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them that 12 beheld them. And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they went up into heaven in the cloud; and their enemies beheld them. And in that hour 13 there was a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell; and there were killed in the earthquake seven thousand persons:

and the rest were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.
The second Woe is past: behold, the third Woe cometh quickly. 14 And the seventh angel sounded; and there followed great voices 15 in heaven, and they said, The kingdom of the world is become the kingdom of out Lord, and of his Christ: and he shall reign for ever and ever. And the four and twenty elders, who sit before 16 God on their thrones, fell upon their faces and worshipped God, saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God, the Almighty, who 17 art and who wast; because thou hast taken thy great power, and didst reign. And the nations were wroth, and thy wrath came, 18 and the time of the dead to be judged, and the time to give their reward to thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and to them that fear thy name, the small and the great; and to destroy them that destroy the earth. And there was opened the temple 19 of God that is in heaven; and there was seen in his temple the ark of his covenant; and there followed lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and an earthquake, and great hail.

And a great sign was seen in heaven: a woman arrayed with 12 the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars; and she was with child; and she crieth 2 out, travailing in birth, and in pain to be delivered. And there 3 was seen another sign in heaven: and behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his heads seven diadems. And his tail draweth the third part of the stars of 4 heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon standeth before the woman that is about to be delivered, that when she is delivered he may devour her child. And she was delivered 5 of a son, a man child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and unto his throne. And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she 6 hath a place prepared of God, that there they may nourish her a thousand two hundred and threescore days. And there was 7 war in heaven: Michael and his angels going forth to war with the dragon; and the dragon warred and his angels; And they 8 prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven.
And the great dragon was cast down, the old serpent, he that 9 is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world; he was cast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down 10 with him. And I heard a great voice in heaven, saying, Now is come the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, who accuseth them before our God day and night.

11 And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb, and because of the word of their testimony; and they loved not their 12 life even unto death. Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe for the earth and for the sea: because the devil is gone down unto you, having great wrath, knowing that 13 he hath but a short time. And when the dragon saw that he was cast down to the earth, he persecuted the woman that brought 14 forth the man child. And there were given to the woman the two wings of the great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness unto her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, 15 and half a time, from the face of the serpent. And the serpent cast out of his mouth after the woman water as a river, that he 16 might cause her to be carried away by the stream. And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon cast out of his mouth.
17 And the dragon waxed wroth with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her seed, that keep the commandments of God, and hold the testimony of Jesus: 18 and he stood upon the sand of the sea. And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns, and seven heads, and on his horns ten diadems, and upon his heads names of 2 blasphemy. And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his 3 throne, and great authority. And I saw one of his heads as though it had been smitten unto death; and his death-stroke was 4 healed: and the whole earth wondered after the beast; and they worshipped the dragon, because he gave his authority unto the beast; and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto 5 the beast? And who is able to war with him? and there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and there was given to him authority to continue forty and two 6 months. And he opened his mouth for blasphemies against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, even them that dwell in the heaven. And it was given unto him to make war with 7 the saints, and to overcome them: and there was given to him authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation.

And all that dwell on the earth shall worship him, every one 8 whose name hath not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb that hath been slain. If 9 any man hath an ear, let him hear. If any man is for captivity, 10 into captivity he goeth: if any man shall kill with the sword, with the sword must he be killed. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints. And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; 11 and he had two horns like unto a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.
And he exerciseth all the authority of the first beast in his sight. 12 And he maketh the earth and them dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose death-stroke was healed. And he doeth great 13 signs, that he should even make fire to come down out of heaven upon the earth in the sight of men. And he deceiveth them 14 that dwell on the earth by reason of the signs which it was given him to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast who hath the stroke of the sword and lived. And it was given unto 15 him to give breath to it, even to the image to the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as should not worship the image of the beast should be killed.
And he causeth all, the small and the great, and the rich and 16 the poor, and the free and the bond, that there be given them a mark on their right hand, or upon their forehead; and that no 17 man should be able to buy or to sell, save he that hath the mark, even the name of the beast or the number of his name. Here is 18 wisdom. He that hath understanding, let him count the number of the beast; for it is the number of a man: and his number is Six hundred and sixty and six.

And I saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on the mount Zion, 14 and with him a hundred and forty and four thousand, having his name, and the name of his Father, written on their foreheads.
And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, 2 and as the voice of a great thunder: and the voice which I heard was as the voice of harpers harping with their harps: and they 3 sing as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders: and no man could learn the song save the hundred and forty and four thousand, even they that 4 had been purchased out of the earth. These are they that were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they that follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were purchased from among men, to be the firstfruits unto God and unto the 5 Lamb. And in their mouth was found no lie: they are without 6 blemish. And I saw another angel flying in mid heaven, having eternal good tidings to proclaim unto them that dwell on the earth, and unto every nation and tribe and tongue and people; 7 and he saith with a great voice, Fear God, and give him glory; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made the heaven and the earth and sea and fountains of waters.

8 And another, a second angel, followed, saying, Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, that hath made all the nations to drink of 9 the wine of the wrath of her fornication. And another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, If any man worshippeth the beast and his image, and receiveth a mark on 10 his forehead, or upon his hand, he also shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:
11 and the smoke of their torment goeth up for ever and ever; and they have no rest day and night, they that worship the beast 12 and his image, and whoso receiveth the mark of his name. Here is the patience of the saints, they that keep the commandments 13 of God, and the faith of Jesus. And I heard the voice from heaven saying, Write, Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from 14 their labors; for their works follow with them. And I saw, and behold, a white cloud; and on the cloud I saw one sitting like unto a son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in 15 his hand sharp sickle. And another angel came out from the temple, crying with a great voice to him that sat on the cloud, Send forth thy sickle, and reap: for the hour to reap is come; 16 for the harvest of the earth is ripe. And he that sat on the cloud cast his sickle upon the earth; and the earth was reaped.
17 Another angel came out from the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. And another angel came out from the altar, he that hath power over fire; and he called with a great voice to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Send forth thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. And the angel cast his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth, and cast it into the winepress, the great winepress, of the wrath of God. And the winepress was trodden without the city, and there came out blood from the winepress, even unto the bridles of the horses, as far as a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having seven plagues, which are the last, for in them is finished the wrath of God. And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire; and them that come off victorious from the beast, and from his image, and from the number of his name, standing by the sea of glass, having harps of God. And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, O Lord God, the Almighty; righteous and true are thy ways, thou King of the ages. Who shall not fear, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy; for all the nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy righteous acts have been made manifest. And after these things I saw, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened: and there came out from the temple the seven angels that had the seven plagues, arrayed with precious stone, pure and bright, and girt about their breasts with golden girdles. And one of the four living creatures gave unto the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever. And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and none was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels should be finished.

And I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, Go ye, and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God into the earth. And the first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth; and it became a noisome and grievous sore upon the men that had the mark of the beast, and that worshipped his image. And the second poured out his bowl into the sea; and it became blood as of a dead man; and every living soul died, even the things that were in the sea. And the third poured out his bowl into the rivers and the fountains of 5 the waters; and it became blood. And I heard the angel of the waters saying, Righteous art thou, who art and who wast, thou 6 Holy One, because thou didst thus judge: for they poured out the blood of the saints and the prophets, and blood hast thou 7 given them to drink: they are worthy. And I heard the altar saying, Yea, O Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are 8 thy judgments. And the fourth poured out his bowl upon the 9 sun; and it was given unto it to scorch men with fire. And men were scorched with great heat: and they blasphemed the name of God who hath the power over these plagues; and they repented 10 not to give him glory. And the fifth poured out his bowl upon the throne of the beast; and his kingdom was darkened; and they 11 gnawed their tongues for pain, and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores; and they repented 12 not of their works. And the sixth poured out his bowl upon the great river, the river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way might be made ready for the kings that come 13 from the sunrising. And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth 14 of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, as it were frogs: for they are spirits of demons, working signs; which go forth unto the kings of the whole world, to gather them together unto the war of 15 the great day of God, the Almighty. (Behold, I come as a thief.

Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he 16 walk naked, and they see his shame.) And they gathered them together into the place which is called in Hebrew Har-magedon.
17 And the seventh poured out his bowl upon the air; and there came forth a great voice out of the temple, from the throne, 18 saying, It is done: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunders; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since there were men upon the earth, so great an earthquake, so 19 mighty. And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and Babylon the great was remembered in the sight of God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the 20 fierceness of his wrath. And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. And great hail, every stone about the weight of a talent, cometh down out of heaven upon men: 21 and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof is exceeding great.

And there came one of the seven angels that had the seven 17 bowls, and spake with me, saying, Come hither, I will show thee the judgment of the great harlot that sitteth upon many wate- 2 rs; with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, 2 and they that dwell in the earth were made drunken with the wine of her fornication. And he carried me away in the Spirit 3 into a wilderness: and I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet-colored beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads 4 and ten horns. And the woman was arrayed in purple and scar- 4 let, and decked with gold and precious stone and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations, even the unclean 5 things of her fornication, and upon her forehead a name writ- 5 ten, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE 6 EARTH. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the 6 saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I wondered with a great wonder. And the angel 7 said unto me, Wherefore didst thou wonder? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, 8 which hath the seven heads and the ten horns. The beast that 8 thou sawest was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the abyss, and to go into perdition. And they that dwell on 9 the earth shall wonder, they whose name hath not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when 10 they behold the beast, how that he was, and is not, and shall come. Here is the mind that hath wisdom. The seven heads 9 are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth: and they 10 are seven kings; the five are fallen, the one is, the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a little while.
And the beast that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and 11 is of the seven; and he goeth into perdition. And the ten horns 12 that thou sawest are ten kings, who have received no kingdom as yet; but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, for 13 one hour. These have one mind, and they give their power and 13 authority unto the beast. These shall war against the Lamb, 14 and the Lamb shall overcome them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings; and they also shall overcome that are with him, called and chosen and faithful. And he saith unto me, The 15 waters which thou sawest, where the harlot sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. And the ten horns which thou sawest, and the beast, these shall hate the harlot, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and shall burn her utterly with fire. For God did put in their hearts to do his mind, and to come to one mind, and to give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God should be accomplished. And the woman whom thou sawest is the great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

18 After these things I saw another angel coming down out of heaven, having great authority; and the earth was lightened with his glory. And he cried with a mighty voice, saying, Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and is become a habitation of demons, and a hold of every unclean spirit, and a hold of every unclean and hateful bird. For by the wine of the wrath of her fornication all the nations are fallen; and the kings of the earth committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth waxed rich by the power of her wantonness. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come forth, my people, out of her, that ye have no fellowship with her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues: for her sins have reached even unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. Render unto her even as she rendered, and double unto her the double according to her works: in the cup which she mingled, mingle unto her double. How much soever she glorified herself, and waxed wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall in no wise see mourning. Therefore in one day shall her plagues come, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire; for strong is the Lord God who judged her. And the kings of the earth, who committed fornication and lived wantonly with her, shall weep and wail over her, when they look upon the smoke of her burning, standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! for in one hour is thy judgment come. And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, for no man buyeth their merchandise any more; merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stone, and pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet; and all thyine wood, and every vessel of ivory, and every vessel made of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble; and 13 cinnamon, and spice, and incense, and ointment, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and cattle, and sheep; and merchandise of horses and chariots and slaves; and souls of men. And the fruits which thy soul lusted after are 14 gone from thee, and all things that were dainty and sumptuous are perished from thee, and men shall find them no more at all.

The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, shall 15 stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning; saying, Woe, woe, the great city, she that was arrayed in 16 fine linen and purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stone and pearl! for in an hour so great riches is made 17 desolate. And every shipmaster, and every one that saileth any wither, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by sea, stood afar off, and cried out as they looked upon the smoke 18 of her burning, saying, What city is like the great city? And 19 they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, Woe, woe, the great city, wherein all that had their ships in the sea were made rich by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate. Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and 20 ye saints, and ye apostles, and ye prophets; for God hath judged your judgment on her. And a strong angel took up a stone as 21 it were a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with a mighty fall shall Babylon, the great city, be cast down, and shall be found no more at all. And the voice of harpers 22 and minstrels and flute-players and trumpeters shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft, shall be found any more at all in thee; and the voice of a mill shall be heard no more at all in thee; and the light of a lamp 23 shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the princes of the earth; for with thy sorcery were all the nations deceived. And in her was found the blood 24 of prophets and of saints, and of all that have been slain upon the earth.

After these things I heard as it were a great voice of a great 19 multitude in heaven, saying, Hallelujah; Salvation, and glory, and power, belong to our God: for true and righteous are his 2 judgments; for he hath judged the great harlot, her that corrupted the earth with her fornication, and he hath avenged the 3 blood of his servants at her hand. And a second time they say, 4 Hallelujah. And her smoke goeth up for ever and ever. And the four and twenty elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshipped God that sitteth on the throne, saying, Amen; Hal-5 lelujah. And a voice came forth from the throne, saying, Give praise to our God, all ye his servants, ye that fear him, the small 6 and the great. And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunders, saying, Hallelujah: for the Lord our God, the 7 Almighty, reigneth. Let us rejoice and be exceeding glad, and let us give the glory unto him: for the marriage of the Lamb is 8 come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And it was given unto her that she should array herself in fine linen, bright and 9 pure: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they that are bidden to the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are 10 true words of God. And I fell down before his feet to worship him. And he saith unto me, See thou do it not: I am a fellow-servant with thee and with thy brethren that hold the testimony of Jesus: worship God; for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of 11 prophecy. And I saw the heaven opened; and behold, a white horse, and he that sat thereon called Faithful and True; and in 12 righteousness he doth judge and make war. And his eyes are a flame of fire, and upon his head are many diadems; and he hath 13 a name written which no one knoweth but he himself. And he is arrayed in a garment sprinkled with blood: and his name is 14 called The Word of God. And the armies which are in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and 15 pure. And out of his mouth proceedeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness 16 of the wrath of God, the Almighty. And he hath on his garment and on his thigh a name written, KINGS OF KINGS, AND 17 LORD OF LORDS. And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in mid heaven, Come and be gathered together unto the great 18 supper of God; that ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of them that sit thereon, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, and small and great. And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat upon the horse, and against his army. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought the signs in his sight, wherewith he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast and them that worshipped his image: they two were cast alive into the lake of fire that burneth with brimstone: and the rest were killed with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, even the sword which came forth out of his mouth: and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. And he laid hold on the dragon, the old serpent, which is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years, and cast him into the abyss, and shut it, and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years should be finished: after this he must be loosed for a little time. And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as worshipped not the beast, neither his image, and received not the mark upon their forehead and upon their hand; and they lived, and reigned with Christ a thousand years. The rest of the dead lived not until the thousand years should be finished. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: over these the second death hath no power; but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years. And when the thousand years are finished, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, and shall come forth to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. And they went up over the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down out of heaven, and devoured them. And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where are also the beast and the false prophet; and they shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever. And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat upon it, from whose face the earth and the heaven 12 fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne; and books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of the things 13 which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead that were in it; and death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them: and they were judged every 14 man according to their works. And death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death, even the lake of 15 fire. And if any was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

21 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven 2 and the first earth are passed away; and the sea is no more. And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven 3 from God, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of the throne saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he shall dwell with them, and they shall be his peoples, and God himself shall be with them, and be 4 their God: and he shall wipe away every tear from their eyes; and death shall be no more; neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more: the first things are passed away.
5 And he that sitteth on the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he saith, Write: for these words are faithful and true.
6 And he said unto me, They are come to pass. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him 7 that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. He that overcometh shall inherit these things; and I will be his God, and 8 he shall be my son. But for the fearful, and unbelieving, and abominable, and murderers, and fornicators, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, their part shall be in the lake that burneth 9 with fire and brimstone; which is the second death. And there came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, who were laden with the seven last plagues; and he spake with me, saying, Come hither, I will show thee the bride, the wife of the Lamb.
10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the holy city Jerusalem, coming down out 11 of heaven from God, having the glory of God: her light was like unto a stone most precious, as it were a jasper stone, clear as crystal: having a wall great and high; having twelve gates, and 12 at the gates twelve angels; and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: on the 13 east were three gates; and on the north three gates; and on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. And the wall of 14 the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. And he that spake with me had 15 for a measure a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof. And the city lieth foursquare, and 16 the length thereof is as great as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs: the length and the breadth and the height thereof are equal. And he measured 17 the wall thereof, a hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of an angel. And the building 18 of the wall thereof was jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto pure glass. The foundations of the wall of the city were 19 adorned with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the sev- 20 enth, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst. And 21 the twelve gates were twelve pearls; each one of the several gates was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass. And I saw no temple therein: for the 22 Lord God the Almighty, and the Lamb, are the temple thereof.

And the city hath no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to 23 shine upon it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the lamp thereof is the Lamb. And the nations shall walk amidst the 24 light thereof: and the kings of the earth bring their glory into it.
And the gates thereof shall in no wise be shut by day (for there 25 shall be no night there): and they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it: and there shall in no wise enter 27 into it anything unclean, or he that maketh an abomination and a lie: but only they that are written in the Lamb's book of life.

And he showed me a river of water of life, bright as crystal, 22 proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb, in the 2 midst of the street thereof. And on this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve manner of fruits, yielding its fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were 3 for the healing of the nations. And there shall be no curse any 4 more: and the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be therein: 5 and his servants shall serve him; and they shall see his face; and 6 his name shall be on their foreheads. And there shall be night 7 no more; and they need no light of lamp, neither light of sun; 8 for the Lord God shall give them light: and they shall reign for 9 ever and ever. And he said unto me, These words are faithful 10 and true: and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, 11 sent his angels to show unto his servants the things which must 12 shortly come to pass. And behold, I come quickly. Blessed is 13 he that keepeth the words of the prophecy of this book. And I 14 John am he that heard and saw these things. And when I heard 15 and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel that 16 showed me these things. And he saith unto me, See thou do 17 it not: I am a fellow-servant with thee and with thy brethren 18 the prophets, and with them that keep the words of this book: 19 worship God. And he saith unto me, Seal not up the words 20 of the prophecy of this book; for the time is at hand. He that 21 is unrighteous, let him do unrighteousness still: and he that is 22 filthy, let him be made filthy still: and he that is righteous, let 23 him do righteousness still: and he that is holy, let him be made 24 holy still. Behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, 25 to render to each man according as his work is. I am the Alpha 26 and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.

27 Blessed are they that wash their robes, that they may have the 28 right to come to the tree of life, and may enter in by the gates 29 into the city. Without are the dogs, and the sorcerers, and the 30 fornicators, and the murderers, and the idolaters, and every one 31 that loveth and maketh a lie. I Jesus have sent mine angel to 32 testify unto you these things for the churches. I am the root and 33 the offspring of David, the bright, the morning star. And the 34 Spirit and the bride say, Come. And he that heareth, let him 35 say, Come. And he that is athirst, let him come: he that will, let 36 him take the water of life freely. I testify unto every man that 37 heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, if any man shall 38 add unto them, God shall add unto him the plagues which are 39 written in this book: and if any man shall take away from the 40 words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part 41 from the tree of life, and out of the holy city, which are written in this book. He who testifieth these things saith, Yea: I come 20 quickly. Amen: come, Lord Jesus. The grace of the Lord Jesus 21 be with the saints. Amen.
